ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

This statement is furnished to shareholders in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of DGSE Companies, Inc. (the "Company") of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held on June 27, 2005, at 6:00 P.M. at the Company's executive offices at 2817 Forest Lane, Dallas, Texas 75234, and any adjournment thereof. This proxy statement and the proxies solicited hereby are first being sent or delivered to shareholders on or about May 10, 2005. Certain employees of the Company may solicit proxies by telephone or in person. The expense of preparing, printing and mailing the proxies will be borne by the Company. A copy of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K (including the financial statements) ("Form 10-K") is enclosed herewith.

VOTING

The proxy may be revoked by the shareholder at any time prior to its use. If it is signed properly by the shareholder and is not revoked, it will be voted at the meeting. If a shareholder specifies how the proxy is to be voted with respect to the election of Directors, it will be voted in the manner specified on the enclosed proxy. If no instructions are received, the proxy will be voted for the election of the slate of directors as set forth in the proxy.

At the close of business on April 29, 2005, 4,913,290 shares of the Company's Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, were outstanding and eligible for voting at the meeting. Each shareholder of record is entitled to one vote for each share held in all matters to come before the meeting. Only shareholders of record at the close of business on April 29, 2005, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Board of Directors at a meeting held on April 14, 2005, nominated five persons to be elected at the Annual Meeting to serve as Directors of the Company for a term of one year and until their respective successors shall have been elected and shall have qualified.

It is the intention of the persons named in the proxy to vote for the election of the persons named below. If any nominee is unable or unwilling to serve, which the Board of Directors does not anticipate, the persons named in the proxy will vote for another person in accordance with their judgment.

The following table and notes thereto set forth the age, principal occupation, period of time served as a Director of the Company, business experience, and other directorships held by each of the five nominees for election as Directors:

| Name           | Age | Position | Year First Elected Director or Appointed Officer of Company |

Smith holds sole voting powers.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and certain officers to send reports of their ownership and of changes in ownership of the Company's Common Stock to the Securities and Exchange Commission. Based on the Company's review of the reports it has received, the Company believes all of its directors and officers complied with all reporting requirements applicable to them with respect to transactions in 2004.

COMMITTEES AND MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business affairs of the Company are managed by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. During 2004, the Company's Board of Directors met six (6) times. All members of the Board of Directors were present at each of the meetings.

In September 2004 Dr. L.S. Smith received voting proxies from certain shareholders covering 743,285 shares of the Company's outstanding common stock. These transactions resulted in Dr. L.S. Smith controlling the voting power of 2,569,031 shares of the Company's common stock or 52.3 percent of the shares currently outstanding. The Company therefore may be treated as a "Controlled Company" under rule 4350 of the NASDAQ Stock Market and the Company has elected to be so classified. As a result, the Company does not have a nominating or compensation committee of the Board of Directors, or any committee performing similar functions.

An audit committee of the Board of Directors was formed during June 1999, and met six times during the year 2004. The audit committee oversees the operation of a comprehensive system of internal controls to ensure the integrity of the Company's financial statements and compliance with laws, regulations and corporate policies. The audit committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2004 with senior management. The audit committee has discussed with BKR Cornwell Jackson,

Edgar Filing: DGSE COMPANIES INC - Form DEF 14A

the independent auditors of the Company, the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees). The audit committee has also received the written disclosures and the letter from BKR Cornwell Jackson required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussion with Audit Committees) and the audit committee has discussed with BKR Cornwell Jackson the independence of BKR Cornwell Jackson as auditor of the Company. Based on the foregoing, the audit committee of the Company has recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements of the Company be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 for filing with the United States Securities Exchange Commission. Specific functions and responsibilities of the audit committee are set forth in the charter adopted by the Board of Directors which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement.

The members of the Audit Committee are William P. Cordeiro, Paul Hagen and Craig Alan-Lee. Craig Alan-Lee and William P. Codeiro are independent members and William P. Codeiro is the chairman and financial expert of the committee. Paul Hagen was an employee of the Company until his appointment to the board of directors and audit committee. As a result he is not independent as defined in Rule 4200 of the NASDAQ Stock Market. However, the Company has concluded that he otherwise meets the criteria for independence set forth in Section 10A(m)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules thereunder and that he is not a current officer or employee or Family Member of such officer or employee of the Company. The Board of Directors has made the determination that the appointment of Mr. Hagen is in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders due to his extensive executive experience in the jewelry industry and his knowledge of the Company's operations. Mr. Hagen may be a director and member of the audit committee for no more than two years.

Compensation of Directors

Directors who are also employees of the Company do not receive any compensation for serving as a director or as a member of a committee of the Board of Directors. Directors who are not employees of the Company receive a fee in the amount of $ 500 for each meeting of the Board of Directors and each committee meeting of the Board of Directors attended. In addition, William P. Cordeiro has been granted options for the purchased of 22,500 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price equal to the then fair market value of the Company's Common Stock. Both Craig Alan-Lee and Paul Hagen have been granted an option to purchase 5,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price equal to the then fair market value of the Company's Common Stock.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following information is furnished with respect to each of the most highly compensated executive officers of the Company whose cash compensation from the Company and its subsidiaries during the Company's last fiscal year exceeded $ 100,000.

Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans.

The Company has a stock option (the "Plan") adopted effective January 1, 2004. The Plan was approved by shareholders on June 21, 2004.

The purpose of the Plan is to provide additional incentive to officers, directors and key employees of the Company by encouraging them to acquire new or additional share ownership in the Company, thus increasing their proprietary interest in the Company's business and providing them with an increased personal interest in the Company's continued success and progress. These objectives will be promoted through the grant of options to acquire the Company's Common Stock, $ .01 par value per share (" Shares"), pursuant to the terms of the Plan.

The aggregate number of Shares for which options may be granted under the Plan shall be One Million Seven Hundred Thousand (1,700,000) including One Million Four Hundred Twenty Thousand Six Hundred Thirty Four (1,420,634) Shares reserved under options previously granted and currently outstanding. The following table sets forth shares reserved under options currently outstanding and additional Shares reserved for future grants under the Plan:

The Board of Directors of the Company in its sole discretion may grant options to purchase Shares under the Plan. The price at which shares may be purchased pursuant to an option under the Plan shall be the closing market value as of the date the option is granted.

Each option granted under the Plan shall expire and all rights there under shall cease on the date which shall be the six month anniversary of the date of termination of employment or service as a director with the Company of the option holder.

Options granted under the plan may be exercised, in whole or in part, at any time on or after the date of grant.

Unless amended by the Board of Directors of the Company and approved by Shareholders of the Company, the Plan will automatically terminate on December 31, 2013.

PERFORMANCE PRESENTATION

The following graph compares the five-year cumulative return to stockholders for the Company's common stock against the NASDAQ Composite Index, the S&P 600 Smallcap Index and the S&P Retail Index for the period from January 1, 2000 to December 31, 2004. The comparison assumes $ 100 was invested in January 1, 2000 in the common stock and in each of the three indices and assumes reinvestment of dividends. The Company has not paid any dividends.

DGSE COMPANIES, INC. Audit Committee Charter

Organization

This charter governs the operations of the Audit Committee of Dallas Gold & Silver Exchange, Inc. The Audit Committee shall review and reassess this charter on at least an annual basis and obtain the approval of the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors and shall consist of at least three directors, two of whom are independent of management and the Company. Members of the Audit Committee shall be considered independent if they have no relationship that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Company and meet the standards of independence required by the NASDAQ or any other exchange on which the common stock of Dallas Gold & Silver Exchange, Inc. is traded. The members shall be financially literate, or shall become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after appointment to the audit committee, and at least one member shall have accounting or related financial management expertise as required by the rules of the NASDAQ or any other exchange on which the common stock of Dallas Gold & Silver Exchange, Inc. is traded.

The Audit Committee shall provide assistance to the Board of Directors in fulfilling their oversight responsibility to the shareholders, potential shareholders, the investment community, and others relating to the Company's financial statements and financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the internal audit function, the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements, and the legal compliance and ethics programs as established by management and the Board of Directors. In so doing, it is the responsibility of the Audit Committee to maintain free and open communication between the Audit Committee, independent auditors, the internal auditors and management of the Company. In discharging its oversight role, the audit committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company and the power to retain outside counsel at the Company's expense, or other experts for this purpose.

Responsibilities and Processes

The primary responsibility of the Audit Committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board and report the results of their activities to the Board. Management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors are responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Audit Committee, in carrying out its responsibilities, believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The audit committee should take the appropriate actions to set the overall corporate "tone" for quality financial reporting, sound business risk practices, and ethical behavior.

The following shall be the principal recurring processes of the Audit Committee in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. The processes are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Audit Committee may supplement them as appropriate.

- o The Audit Committee shall have a clear understanding with management and the independent auditors that the independent auditors are ultimately accountable to the Board and the Audit Committee, as representatives of the Company's shareholders. The Audit Committee and the Board shall have the ultimate authority and responsibility to evaluate and, where appropriate, replace the independent auditors. The Audit Committee shall discuss with the auditors their independence from management and the Company and the matters included in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board. Annually, the Audit Committee shall review and recommend to the Board the selection of the Company's independent auditors.

- o The Audit Committee shall review the interim financial statements with management0 prior to the filing of the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Also, the Audit Committee shall discuss the results of the quarterly review and any other matters required to. be communicated to the audit committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards. The chair of the Audit Committee may represent the entire committee for the purposes of this review.
- o The Audit Committee shall review with management and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K (or the annual reports to shareholders if distributed prior to the filing of Form 10-K), including their judgment about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements. Also, the Audit Committee shall discuss the results of the annual audit and any other matters required to be communicated to the audit committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.
