Item 8.01 Other Events

ePlus inc. (“ePlus”) is the plaintiff in a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (the “Court”), in which, on May 23, 2011, the Court issued an Injunction Order enjoining Lawson Software, Inc. (“Lawson”), its officers, agents and employees, and any person in active concert or participation with them, from directly or indirectly making, using, offering to sell, or selling within the United States certain product configurations and associated services which a jury previously determined infringed certain ePlus patents. ePlus subsequently filed a Motion to Show Cause Why Lawson Software, Inc. Should Not Be Held In Contempt (the “Motion”) of the Injunction Order.

On August 16, 2013, the Court granted ePlus’ Motion, and entered judgment in favor of ePlus, against Lawson in the sum of $18,167,950. To assure future compliance with the Injunction Order (as amended), Lawson is required to pay a daily fine of $62,362 to the Clerk of the Court until it establishes that it is in compliance with the Injunction Order. However, the Court suspended the payment obligation of the daily fine until September 20, 2013, and, if by then, Lawson purges the contempt and establishes that it is in compliance with the Injunction Order, no fine to the Court will be payable. If by September 20, 2013, Lawson does not establish that it is in compliance with the Injunction Order, the daily fine shall be payable from August 16, 2013, until compliance is established. ePlus will not receive any amount of the daily fine. Litigation is inherently unpredictable and it is currently unclear when or if ePlus will be able to collect the awarded judgment.
