Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 14, 2006, Wild Oats Markets, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), and Perry D. Odak entered into an amendment (the Sixth Amendment) to Mr. Odak's employment agreement (together with earlier amendments referred to as the Employment Agreement). The Sixth Amendment was entered into to facilitate the entry into a new employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Odak by extending the period during which a notice of non-renewal could be given under the existing Employment Agreement.

The Company and Mr. Odak intend to negotiate the terms of an employment agreement. Prior to the effectiveness of the Sixth Amendment, the Employment Agreement stated that it would continue on a year-to-year basis unless the Company otherwise notified Mr. Odak in writing not later than August 15, 2006, in the case of the current employment year, or nine months prior to the end of any other applicable year. The Sixth Amendment provides that, with respect to the year ending March 19, 2007, the Company must provide Mr. Odak with any notice of non-renewal of the Employment Agreement not later than October 16, 2006 (the period between August 15, 2006 and October 16, 2006 being referred to as the Extended Notice Period). The deadline for notice of non-renewal of the Employment Agreement for all years after March 19, 2007 remains unchanged. The Amendment also provides that Mr. Odak may terminate his employment with the Company for Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement) if (a) the Company, in bad faith, fails to engage in negotiations regarding a new employment agreement or modifications to the Employment Agreement during the Extended Notice Period or (b) during the Extended Notice Period, the Company provides Mr. Odak with a notice of non-renewal of the Employment Agreement prior to October 13, 2006.

A copy of the Amendment is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
