PRICESMART, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)
November 30, 2010

NOTE 1 – COMPANY OVERVIEW AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

PriceSmart, Inc.'s ("PriceSmart" or the "Company") business consists primarily of international membership shopping warehouse clubs similar to, but smaller in size, than warehouse clubs in the United States. As of November 30, 2010, the Company had 28 warehouse clubs in operation in 11 countries and one U.S. territory (five in Costa Rica, four in Panama and Trinidad, three in Guatemala and the Dominican Republic, two in El Salvador and Honduras and one each in Aruba, Barbados, Jamaica, Nicaragua and the United States Virgin Islands), of which the Company owns 100% of the corresponding legal entities (see Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies). The Company opened a new warehouse club in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic ("Arroyo Hondo") on November 5, 2010. In November 2010, the Company through its Colombian subsidiary acquired approximately 210,000 square feet of land in Barranquilla, Colombia for approximately 12.1 billion Colombian Pesos (the equivalent of approximately $6.5 million United States Dollars as of the acquisition date.) The Company plans to construct on this site a new membership warehouse club, expected to open during the summer of 2011. In addition to the warehouse clubs operated directly by the Company, there is one facility in operation in Saipan, Micronesia licensed to and operated by local business people, from which the Company earns a small royalty fee. The Company primarily operates in three segments based on geographic area.

Basis of Presentation - The interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q for interim financial reporting pursuant to the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). These interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's annual report filed on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2010. The interim consolidated financial statements include the accounts of PriceSmart, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and its subsidiaries. Intercompany transactions between the Company and its subsidiaries have been eliminated in consolidation.

In accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board's ("FASB") revised guidance establishing general accounting standards and disclosure of subsequent events, the Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date and time these financial statements were issued.

The Company has utilized net income, rather than net income from continuing operations, as the starting point on the consolidated statements of cash flows for the periods presented, in order to reconcile net income to net cash flows from operating activities as required by the indirect method. Therefore, prior periods have been reclassified to conform to current year presentation. This change had no effect on cash from operating activities.

PRICESMART, INC.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of Consolidation - The interim consolidated financial statements of the Company included herein include the assets, liabilities and results of operations of the Company's majority and wholly owned subsidiaries as listed below. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared by the Company without audit, pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC, and reflect all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) that are, in the opinion of management, necessary to fairly present the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows for the interim periods presented. Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP") have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such SEC rules and regulations. Management believes that the disclosures made are adequate to make the information presented not misleading. The results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results for the full year.

The table below indicates the Company's percentage ownership of and basis of presentation for each subsidiary as of November 30, 2010:

(1) During fiscal year 2010, the Company created this subsidiary to record the investment and costs associated with the construction of membership warehouse clubs in Colombia.

(2) Entity is treated as discontinued operations in the consolidated financial statements.

- (3) These subsidiaries act as investment and holding companies for the Company's subsidiaries in Trinidad and Jamaica.
- (4) The Company acquired the remaining 5% ownership in May 2010, fiscal year 2010. (See Note 12 - Acquisition of Noncontrolling Interest).
- (5) Purchases of joint venture interests during the first quarter of fiscal year 2009 are recorded as investment in unconsolidated affiliates on the consolidated balance sheets. (See Note 13 – Unconsolidated Affiliates)

Use of Estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Variable Interest Entities – The Company reviews and determines at the start of each arrangement, or subsequently if a reconsideration event occurs, whether any of its investments in joint ventures are a Variable Interest Entity (“VIE”) and whether it must consolidate a VIE and/or disclose information about its involvement in a VIE. The Company has determined that the joint ventures for GolfPark Plaza, Price Plaza Alajuela and Newco2 are VIEs. The Company has determined that it is not the primary beneficiary of the VIEs and, therefore, has accounted for these entities under the equity method.

Cash and Cash Equivalents – Cash and cash equivalents represent cash and short-term investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased.

Restricted Cash – As of November 30, 2010, the Company had short-term restricted cash of approximately $1.2 million. This consisted of the current portion of a certificate of deposit maintained by the Company's Honduras subsidiary with the Banco Del Pais related to the loan agreement entered into by the subsidiary with Banco del Pais. The Company has long-term restricted cash of approximately $13.6 million. This consisted of approximately $4.8 million for the long-term portion of the Banco Del Pais certificate of deposit, $8.0 million for a time deposit pledged by the Company for the establishment of a loan entered into by the Company's Colombia subsidiary and deposits made directly with federal regulatory agencies and within banking institutions in compliance with federal regulatory requirements in Costa Rica and Panama of approximately $831,000.

Merchandise Inventories – Merchandise inventories, which include merchandise for resale, are valued at the lower of cost (average cost) or market. The Company provides for estimated inventory losses and obsolescence between physical inventory counts on the basis of a percentage of sales. The provision is adjusted periodically to reflect the trend of actual physical inventory count results, with physical inventories occurring primarily in the second and fourth fiscal quarters. In addition, the Company may be required to take markdowns below the carrying cost of certain inventory to expedite the sale of such merchandise.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts – The Company generally does not extend credit to its members, but may do so for specific wholesale, government, other large volume members and for subtenants. The Company maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts based on assessments as to the probability of collection of specific customer accounts, the aging of accounts receivable, and general economic conditions.

Property and Equipment – Property and equipment are stated at historical cost. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The useful life of fixtures and equipment ranges from three to 15 years and that of buildings from ten to 25 years. Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the life of the improvement or the expected term of the lease. In some locations, leasehold improvements are amortized over a period longer than the initial lease term as management believes it is reasonably assured that the renewal option in the underlying lease will be exercised as an economic penalty may be incurred if the option is not exercised. The sale or purchase of property and equipment is recognized upon legal transfer of property. For property and equipment sales, if any long term notes are carried by the Company as part of the sales terms, the sale is reflected at the net present value of current and future cash streams.

Acquisition of Business – The Company's business combinations, where the Company acquires control of one or more businesses, are accounted for under the acquisition method of accounting and include the results of operations of the acquired business from the date of acquisition. Net assets of the acquired business are recorded at their fair value at the date of the acquisition. Any excess of the purchase price over the fair value of tangible net assets acquired is included in goodwill in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Changes in the Company's ownership interest in subsidiaries, while the Company retains controlling financial interest in the subsidiary, are accounted for as an equity transaction. No gain or loss is recognized in consolidated net income or comprehensive income. The carrying amount of the noncontrolling interest is adjusted to reflect the change in the Company's ownership interest in the subsidiary. Any difference between the fair value of the consideration received or paid and the book value of the noncontrolling interest is recognized in equity attributable to the parent.

Lease Accounting – Certain of the Company's operating leases where the Company is the lessee (see Revenue Recognition Policy for lessor accounting), provide for minimum annual payments that increase over the life of the lease. The aggregate minimum annual payments are expensed on the straight-line basis beginning when the Company takes possession of the property and extending over the term of the related lease including renewal options when the exercise of the option is reasonably assured as an economic penalty may be incurred if the option is not exercised. The amount by which straight-line rent exceeds actual lease payment requirements in the early years of the leases is accrued as deferred rent and reduced in later years when the actual cash payment requirements exceed the straight-line expense. The Company also accounts in its straight-line computation for the effect of any "rental holidays" and lessor-paid tenant improvements. In addition to the minimum annual payments, in certain locations, the Company pays additional contingent rent based on a contractually stipulated percentage of sales.

Fair Value Measurements – The Company measures the fair value for all financial and nonfinancial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring or nonrecurring basis. The Company measures the fair value for interest rate swaps on a recurring basis. The nonfinancial assets and liabilities are recognized at fair value subsequent to initial recognition when there is evidence of impairment. There were no material non-financial assets and liabilities deemed impaired and measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis for the three-month period ended November 30, 2010.

The Company has established a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. These tiers include: Level 1, defined as observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets; Level 2, defined as inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are either directly or indirectly observable; and Level 3, defined as unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions. The Company was not required to revalue any assets or liabilities utilizing Level 1 or Level 3 inputs at the balance sheet dates. The Company's Level 2 assets and liabilities at the balance sheet dates primarily included cash flow hedges (interest rate swaps). The Company did not make any significant transfers in and out of Level 1 and Level 2 fair value tiers.

Valuation techniques utilized in the fair value measurement of assets and liabilities presented on the Company's consolidated balance sheets were not changed from previous practice during the reporting period. The Company discloses the valuation techniques and any change in method of such within the body of each footnote.

The following table summarizes financial assets and liabilities measured and recorded at fair value on a recurring basis in the Company's consolidated balance sheet as of November 30, 2010 (in thousands):

	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)	Total
Assets and Liabilities:
Other accrued expenses	$ —	$ 702	$ —	$ 702
Total	$ —	$ 702	$ —	$ 702

The fair value of derivatives is disclosed in further detail in Note 11 - Interest Rate Swaps.

As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company had no significant measurements of financial assets or liabilities at fair value on a nonrecurring basis.

Goodwill – Goodwill resulting from certain business combinations totaled $37.4 million at November 30, 2010 and $37.5 million as of August 31, 2010. Foreign exchange translation gains and losses related to this balance sheet caption accounted for the change during the three month period ended November 30, 2010. The Company reviews previously reported goodwill at the entity reporting level for impairment on an annual basis or more frequently if circumstances dictate. No impairment of goodwill has been recorded to date.

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities – Derivative instruments and hedging activities consist of interest rate swaps. Interest rate swaps are accounted for as cash flow hedges. Under cash flow hedging, the effective portion of the fair value of the derivative, calculated as the net present value of the future cash flows, is deferred on the consolidated balance sheets in accumulated other comprehensive loss. If any portion of an interest rate swap were determined to be an ineffective hedge, the gains or losses from changes in market value would be recorded directly in the consolidated statements of income. Amounts recorded in accumulated other comprehensive loss are released to earnings in the same period that the hedged transaction impacts consolidated earnings. (See Note 11—Interest Rate Swaps.)

Revenue Recognition – The Company recognizes merchandise sales and export sales revenue when title passes to the customer. Membership income represents annual membership fees paid by the Company's warehouse club members, which are recognized ratably over the 12-month term of the membership. Membership refunds are prorated over the remaining term of the membership, accordingly, no refund reserve is required to be established for the periods presented. The Company recognizes and presents revenue-producing transactions on a net of tax basis. The Company recognizes gift certificates sales revenue when the certificates are redeemed. The outstanding gift certificates are reflected as "Other accrued expenses" in the consolidated balance sheets. These gift certificates generally have a one-year stated expiration date from the date of issuance. The Company periodically reviews unredeemed outstanding gift certificates, and the gift certificates that have expired are recognized as "Revenues: Other Income" on the consolidated statements of income. Operating leases, where the Company is the lessor, with lease payments that have fixed and determinable rent increases are recognized as revenue on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The Company also accounts in its straight-line computation for the effect of any "rental holidays." Contingent rental revenue is recognized as the contingent rent becomes due per the individual lease agreements.

Cost of Goods Sold – The Company includes the cost of merchandise, food service and bakery raw materials, and one hour photo supplies in cost of goods sold. The Company also includes the external and internal distribution and handling costs for supplying such merchandise, raw materials and supplies to the warehouse clubs. External costs include inbound freight, duties, drayage, fees, insurance, and non-recoverable value-added tax related to inventory shrink, spoilage and damage. Internal costs include payroll and related costs, utilities, consumable supplies, repair and maintenance, rent expense, and building and equipment depreciation at its distribution facilities.

Vendor consideration consists primarily of volume rebates, time limited product promotions and prompt payment discounts. Volume rebates are generally linked to pre-established purchase levels and are recorded as a reduction of cost of goods sold when the achievement of these levels is confirmed by the vendor in writing or upon receipt of funds, whichever is earlier. On a quarterly basis, the Company calculates the amount of rebates recorded in cost of goods sold that relates to inventory on hand and this amount is reclassified as a reduction to inventory, if significant. Product promotions are generally linked to coupons that provide for reimbursement to the Company from vendor rebates for the product being promoted. The Company records the reduction in cost of goods sold on a transactional basis for these programs. Prompt payment discounts are taken in substantially all cases, and therefore, are applied directly to reduce the acquisition cost of the related inventory, with the resulting effect recorded to cost of goods sold when the inventory is sold.

Selling, General and Administrative – Selling, general and administrative costs are comprised primarily of expenses associated with warehouse operations. Warehouse operations include the operating costs of the Company's warehouse clubs, including all payroll and related costs, utilities, consumable supplies, repair and maintenance, rent expense, building and equipment depreciation, and bank and credit card processing fees. Also included in selling, general and administrative expenses are the payroll and related costs for the Company's U.S. and regional purchasing and management centers.

Pre-Opening Costs – The Company expenses pre-opening costs (the costs of start-up activities, including organization costs and rent) as incurred.

Asset Impairment Costs – The Company periodically evaluates its long-lived assets for indicators of impairment. Management's judgments are based on market and operational conditions at the time of the evaluation and can include management's best estimate of future business activity. These periodic evaluations could cause management to conclude that impairment factors exist, requiring an adjustment of these assets to their then-current fair value. Future business conditions and/or activity could differ materially from the projections made by management causing the need for additional impairment charges.

Closure Costs – The Company records the costs of closing warehouse clubs as follows: severance costs that are determined to be an arrangement for one-time employee termination benefits are accrued at the date the plan of termination has received management authority and approval, the plan identifies the number of employees, job classification, functions, locations and expected completion dates, the plan establishes the terms of the severance, and management has deemed it unlikely that significant changes to the plan will be made. In addition the plan must have been communicated to employees (referred to as the communication date). Lease obligations are accrued at the cease use date by calculating the net present value of the minimum lease payments net of the fair market value of rental income that is expected to be received for these properties from third parties. Gain or loss on the sale of property, buildings and equipment is recognized based on the cash or net present value of future cash to be received as compensation upon consummation of the sale. All other costs are expensed as incurred.

Contingencies and Litigation – The Company accounts and reports for loss contingencies if (a) information available prior to issuance of the consolidated financial statements indicates that it is probable that an asset had been impaired or a liability had been incurred at the date of the consolidated financial statements and (b) the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated.

Foreign Currency Translation – The assets and liabilities of the Company's foreign operations are primarily translated to U.S. dollars when the functional currency in the Company's international subsidiaries is the local currency and not U.S. dollars. Assets and liabilities of these foreign subsidiaries are translated to U.S. dollars at the exchange rate on the balance sheet date, and revenue, costs and expenses are translated at average rates of exchange in effect during the period. The corresponding translation gains and losses are recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income or loss. These adjustments will affect net income upon the sale or liquidation of the underlying investment.

Monetary assets and liabilities in currencies other than the functional currency of the respective entity are revalued to the functional currency using the exchange rate on the balance sheet date. These foreign exchange transaction gains (losses), including repatriation of funds, which are included as a part of costs of goods sold in the consolidated statements of income. For the first three months of fiscal years 2011 and 2010, the Company recorded approximately $378,000 and $383,000 in foreign exchange gains, respectively.

Stock-Based Compensation – Compensation related to stock options is accounted for by applying the valuation technique based on the Black-Scholes model. Compensation related to stock awards is based on the fair market value at the time of grant with the application of an estimated forfeiture rate, as opposed to only recognizing these forfeitures and the corresponding reduction in expense as they occur. Upon vesting, the Company records compensation expense for the previously estimated forfeiture on stock awards no longer under risk of forfeiture. The Company records as additional paid-in capital the tax savings resulting from tax deductions in excess of expense for stock-based compensation or a reduction in paid-in capital from the tax deficiency resulting from stock-based compensation in excess of the related tax deduction, based on the Tax Law Ordering method. In addition, the Company reflects the tax saving (deficiency) resulting from the taxation of stock-based compensation as a financing cash flow in its consolidated statement of cash flows, rather than as operating cash flows.

Income Taxes – The Company is required to file federal and state income tax returns in the United States and various other tax returns in foreign jurisdictions. The preparation of these tax returns requires the Company to interpret the applicable tax laws and regulations in effect in such jurisdictions, which could affect the amount of tax paid by the Company. The Company, in consultation with its tax advisors, bases its tax returns on interpretations that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The tax returns, however, are subject to routine reviews by the various federal, state and international taxing authorities in the jurisdictions in which the Company files its returns. As part of these reviews, a taxing authority may disagree with respect to the income tax positions taken by the Company (“uncertain tax positions”) and, therefore, require the Company to pay additional taxes. As required under applicable accounting rules, the Company accrues an amount for its estimate of additional income tax liability, including interest and penalties, which the Company could incur as a result of the ultimate or effective resolution of the uncertain tax positions. The Company reviews and updates the accrual for uncertain tax positions as more definitive information becomes available from taxing authorities, upon completion of tax audits, upon expiration of statutes of limitation, or upon occurrence of other events.

PRICESMART, INC.

The Company accounts for uncertain income tax positions by accruing for the estimated additional amount of taxes for the uncertain tax positions when the uncertain tax position does not meet the more likely than not standard for sustaining the position.

As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company had $13.5 million and $13.6 million, respectively, of aggregate accruals for uncertain tax positions (“gross unrecognized tax benefits”). Of these totals, $2.1 million and $2.0 million, respectively, represent the amount, as of these dates, of net unrecognized tax benefits that, if recognized, would favorably affect the Company’s effective income tax rate in any future period.

The Company records the aggregate accrual for uncertain tax positions as a component of current or long-term income taxes payable and the offsetting amounts as a component of the Company’s net deferred tax assets and liabilities. These liabilities are generally classified as long-term, even if the underlying statute of limitation will expire in the following twelve months. The Company classifies these liabilities as current if it expects to settle them in cash in the next twelve months. As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company did not expect to make cash payments for these liabilities in the respective following 12 months.

The Company expects changes in the amount of unrecognized tax benefits in the next twelve months as the result of a lapse in various statutes of limitations. For the three months ended November 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company did not record a net reduction in income tax expense as the result of a lapse in the underlying statute of limitations. The lapse of statutes of limitation in the twelve-month period ending November 30, 2011 would result in a reduction to long-term income taxes payable totaling $1.0 million.

The Company’s continuing practice is to recognize interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. Any such items that are unpaid at the balance sheet date and not projected to be paid within the following 12 months are reflected in the long-term income tax payable caption on the consolidated balance sheets. As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company had accrued $1.6 million and $1.5 million, respectively, for the payment of interest and penalties.

The Company has various audits and appeals pending in foreign jurisdictions. The Company does not anticipate that any adjustments from these audits and appeals would result in a significant change to the results of operations, financial condition or liquidity.

Tax expense for the first quarter of fiscal year 2011 was $6.8 million on pre-tax income of $21.7 million, as compared to $5.4 million of tax expense on pre-tax income of $15.8 million for the first quarter fiscal year 2010. The effective tax rate for the first quarter of fiscal year 2011 is 31.6% as compared to 34.1% for first quarter of fiscal year 2010. The decrease in the effective tax rate is primarily attributable to a benefit from the re-measurement of the U.S. deferred tax assets of $437,000 due to a change in the U.S. statutory tax rate that is applicable to the current year, from 34% to 35%.

The Company is subject to taxation in the U.S. and various states and foreign jurisdictions. The Company is generally no longer subject to income tax examinations by tax authorities in its major jurisdictions except for the fiscal years subject to audit as set forth in the table below:

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

FASB ASC 310

In July 2010, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”), issued amended guidance with regard to disclosures about the credit quality of financing receivables and the allowance for credit losses. This update is intended to provide additional information to assist financial statement users in assessing an entity’s credit risk exposures and evaluating the adequacy of its allowance for credit losses by providing disclosures that facilitate financial statement users’ evaluation of the nature of credit risk inherent in the entity’s portfolio of financing receivables, how that risk is analyzed and assessed in arriving at the allowance for credit losses, and the changes and reasons for those changes in the allowance for credit losses. The Company is required to adopt this amended guidance on the disclosures as of the end of a reporting period and it is effective for interim and annual reporting periods ending on or after December 15, 2010. The adoption of this guidance on disclosures will not have an impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements or disclosures with regard to financing receivables.

FASB ASC 810

In January 2010, the FASB issued a clarification of scope with regard to accounting for noncontrolling interest in consolidation. The Company adopted the original guidance as of the beginning of its annual reporting period beginning on September 1, 2009 (fiscal year 2010) and for all subsequent interim and annual periods. The adoption of this amendment did not have a material effect on the Company’s financial position or results of operations. In May 2010, the Company purchased the remaining 5% noncontrolling interest of its Trinidad subsidiary. The Company recorded the change in the ownership interest as an equity transaction, adjusting additional paid-in capital for the difference between the fair value of consideration paid less the book value of the noncontrolling interest (see Note 12 - Acquisition of Noncontrolling Interest).

FASB ASC 810

In December 2009, the FASB amended guidance and implemented changes regarding how the process by which a reporting entity determines when an entity that is insufficiently capitalized or is not controlled through voting (or similar rights) should be consolidated. The determination of whether a reporting entity is required to consolidate another entity is based on, among other things, the other entity’s purpose and design, and the reporting entity’s ability to direct the activities that most significantly impact the other entity’s economic performance. The guidance also requires a reporting entity to provide additional disclosures about its involvement with variable interest entities and any significant changes in risk exposure due to that involvement. A reporting entity will be required to disclose how its involvement with a variable interest entity affects the reporting entity’s financial statements. The Company is required to adopt this guidance as of the beginning of its first annual reporting period that begins after November 15, 2009, which is fiscal year 2011 for the Company. The adoption of the standard did not have a material effect on the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

NOTE 3 – DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

In accordance with FASB guidance on accounting for the impairment or disposal of long-lived assets the accompanying consolidated financial statements reflect the results of operations and financial position of the Company's activities in Guam as discontinued operations. Following the closure of the Guam operations in December 2003, the Company included the results of operations from Guam in the asset impairment and closure costs line of the consolidated statements of income through May 2005. However, after the sale of the Philippine operations in August 2005, the results of the Philippines and Guam activities have been consolidated in the discontinued operations line of the consolidated statements of income. Management views these activities as one activity managed under a shared management structure. Cash flow activities related to the Guam discontinued operations' leased property will terminate in August 2011, which is the end date of the lease term.

The assets and liabilities of the discontinued operations are presented in the consolidated balance sheets under the captions "Assets of discontinued operations" and "Liabilities of discontinued operations." The underlying assets and liabilities of the discontinued operations for the periods presented are as follows (in thousands):

	November 30, 2010	August 31, 2010
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 376	$ 41
Accounts receivable, net	199	219
Prepaid expenses and other current assets	39	39
Other assets	310	393
Assets of discontinued operations	$ 924	$ 692
Other accrued expenses	$ 115	$ 109
Liabilities of discontinued operations	$ 115	$ 109

The Company's former Guam operation has a deferred tax asset of $2.6 million, primarily generated from NOLs. This deferred tax asset has a 100% valuation allowance, as the Company currently has no plans that would allow it to utilize these losses. Additionally, a significant portion of these losses are limited as to future use by the Company.

The following table sets forth the income (loss) from the discontinued operations of each period presented, in thousands.

	Three Months Ended November 30, 2010	2009
Net warehouse club sales	$ —	$ —
Pre-tax income (loss) from discontinued operations	7	9
Provision for income taxes	—	—
Income (loss) from discontinued operations, net of tax	$ 7	$ 9

The income (loss) from discontinued operations, net of tax for the three months ended November 30, 2010 and 2009 of approximately $7,000 and $9,000, respectively, is the net result of the subleasing activity in Guam.

NOTE 5 – EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic net income per share is computed by dividing the net income attributable to PriceSmart for the period by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share is computed by dividing the net income attributable to PriceSmart for the period by the weighted average number of common and common equivalent shares outstanding during the period. The Company excludes stock options from the calculation of diluted net income per share when the combined exercise price, average unamortized fair values and assumed tax benefits upon exercise are greater than the average market price for the Company's common stock because their effect is anti-dilutive.

Effective September 1, 2009, the Company adopted FASB guidance which addresses whether instruments granted in share-based payment transactions are participating securities and, therefore, have a potential dilutive effect on earnings per share ("EPS"). The following table sets forth the computation of net income per share for the three months ended November 30, 2010 and 2009 (in thousands, except per share amounts):

Stockholder Contribution

No stockholder contributions were recorded for the first three months of fiscal years 2011 and 2010.

In December 2009, Robert E. Price, the Company's Chairman of the Board, contributed approximately $396,000 in capital to the Company to fund a special holiday bonus to PriceSmart's non-management employees in memory of the Company's founder, Sol Price.

Accumulated Other Comprehensive Loss

Accumulated other comprehensive loss reported on the Company's consolidated balance sheets consists of foreign currency translation adjustments of approximately $16.3 million and $16.2 million and unrealized losses on interest rate swaps (net of tax) of approximately $526,000 and $576,000 as of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, respectively. The unfavorable translation adjustments during the first three months of fiscal year 2011 of approximately $198,000 were primarily due to weaker foreign currencies. The $50,000 decrease in unrealized losses was mainly due to the change in the fair value of the interest rate swaps from fiscal year 2010 to November 30, 2010. The favorable translation adjustments of approximately $670,000 during fiscal year 2010 were due to a weaker U.S. dollar.

Retained Earnings Not Available for Distribution

As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the accumulated deficit included retained earnings designated as legal reserves of approximately $3.5 million and $3.2 million, respectively, at various subsidiaries, which cannot be distributed as dividends to PriceSmart, Inc. according to applicable statutory regulations.

The 2002 Plan also allows restricted stock awards and restricted stock units, which typically vest over five years.

As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, an aggregate of 497,539 shares and 493,539 shares, respectively, were available for future grants under all of the Company's stock option and equity incentive plans.

The three types of equity awards offered by the Company are stock options (“options”), restricted stock awards (“RSA”) and restricted stock units (“RSU”). The cost of these awards is the respective estimated fair value at the grant date. Compensation related to options is accounted for by applying the valuation technique based on the Black-Scholes model. Compensation related to RSAs and RSUs is based on using the closing stock price from the day prior to the grant date with the application of an estimated forfeiture rate. The Company recognizes the compensation cost related to these awards over the requisite service period of five years, graded ratably at the rate of 20% per year over the five-year period. The Company utilizes “modified grant-date accounting” for true-ups, due to actual forfeitures, at the vesting dates.

NOTE 9 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

From time to time, the Company and its subsidiaries are subject to legal proceedings, claims and litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. The Company evaluates such matters on a case by case basis, and vigorously contests any such legal proceedings or claims which the Company believes are without merit.

The Company is required to file federal and state tax returns in the United States and various other tax returns in foreign jurisdictions. The preparation of these tax returns requires the Company to interpret the applicable tax laws and regulations in effect in such jurisdictions, which could affect the amount of tax paid by the Company. The Company, in consultation with its tax advisors, bases its tax returns on interpretations that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The tax returns, however, are subject to routine reviews by the various taxing authorities in the jurisdictions in which the Company files its returns. As part of these reviews, a taxing authority may disagree with respect to the interpretations the Company used to calculate its tax liability and therefore require the Company to pay additional taxes.

The Company accrues an amount for its estimate of probable additional income tax liability. In certain cases, the impact of an uncertain income tax position on the income tax return must be recognized at the largest amount that is more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon audit by the relevant tax authority. An uncertain income tax position will not be recognized if it has less than 50% likelihood of being sustained (See Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies - Income Taxes).

In evaluating the exposure associated with various non-income tax filing positions, the Company accrues charges for probable and estimable exposures. As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company had recorded within other accrued expenses a total of $2.1 million, respectively for both periods, for various non-income tax related tax contingencies.

While the Company believes the recorded liabilities are adequate, there are inherent limitations in projecting the outcome of litigation, and in the estimation processes of more likely than not additional income tax liability in accounting for uncertain tax positions and in evaluating the probable additional tax associated with various non-income tax filing positions. As such, the Company is unable to make a reasonable estimate of the sensitivity to change of estimates affecting its recorded liabilities. As additional information becomes available, the Company assesses the potential liability and revises its estimates as appropriate. While the Company believes the recorded liabilities are adequate, there are inherent limitations in the estimation process whereby actual losses may exceed estimated losses.

See Note 13 - Unconsolidated Affiliates for a description of additional capital contributions that may be required in connection with joint ventures to develop commercial centers adjacent to PriceSmart warehouse clubs in Panama and Costa Rica.

The Company contracts for distribution center services in Mexico. The contract for this distribution center's services expire on December 31, 2011. Future minimum service commitments related to this contract for the periods less than one year and for one to three years is approximately $125,000 and $10,000, respectively.

During fiscal year 2010, the Company was made aware of a potential permitting issue involving the Alajuela warehouse club, located in Costa Rica. The construction of that club and its related facilities included the construction of a water retention basin ("WRB") on property owned by Hacienda Santa Anita(1) ("HSA"). This WRB is used to slow the flow of water runoff from property owned by the Company (the Alajuela warehouse club), property owned by the joint venture Plaza Price Alajuela ("PPA"), and property owned by HSA, as it is discharged into the municipal drainage system. After certain administrative and court proceedings related to the original construction permit for the club and its facilities, the Company was advised by the Municipality of Alajuela ("MA") that the MA required the construction and proper operation of a set of complementary improvements to the WRB. These improvements consist of digging a network of dirt canals on HSA property to capture and conduct surface waters from these properties to the WRB. HSA required the Company to sign an indemnification agreement before this work was performed, whereby the Company guarantees that it will purchase at fair market value the land held by HSA in the event HSA is not allowed to develop that land due to the construction of the canals. The Company has estimated the current fair value of the land to be approximately $4.1 million. Separately, the Costa Rican Health Ministry ("HM") has recently required that the Company either close the WRB, or undertake an extensive set of improvements to the WRB which the Company believes to be impractical, expensive and unnecessary. As a result, the Company is attempting to meet with appropriate representatives of the HM. If the HM is unwilling to retract its current requirements, the Company may have to undertake various other efforts to redirect the flow of water, the total cost of which is currently undetermined. The Company has not recorded a liability for any of these matters as of November 30, 2010 or August 31, 2010.

(1) Hacienda Santa Anita is a locally based business related to J.B Enterprises (a Panamanian business entity). On September 29, 2008, the Company entered into a joint venture with J.B. Enterprises, known as Plaza Price Alajuela, to jointly own and operate a commercial retail center adjacent to the Alajuela warehouse club, with each owning a 50% interest in the joint venture.

NOTE 10 – SHORT-TERM BORROWINGS AND LONG-TERM DEBT

As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company had bank credit agreements and lines of credit for $28.0 million and $27.9 million, respectively, which are secured by certain assets of the Company and its subsidiaries and are guaranteed by the Company. Each of the facilities expire during the year and is normally renewed. As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, borrowings, lines and letters of credit totaling approximately $4.2 million and $4.0 million, respectively, were outstanding under these facilities, leaving approximately $23.8 million and $23.9 million, respectively, available for borrowings. Of these outstanding amounts as of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company, together with its subsidiaries, had $4.0 million and $3.6 million, respectively, outstanding in short-term borrowings, at weighted-average interest rates of 8.7% and 8.8%, respectively.

NOTE 11 – INTEREST RATE SWAPS

The Company is exposed to certain risks relating to its ongoing business operations. The primary risk managed by the Company using derivative instruments is interest rate risk. To manage interest rate exposure, the Company entered into hedge transactions (interest rate swaps) using derivative financial instruments. The objective of entering into interest rate swaps is to eliminate the variability of cash flows in the LIBOR interest payments associated with variable-rate loans over the life of the loans. As changes in interest rates impact the future cash flow of interest payments, the hedges provide a synthetic offset to interest rate movements.

For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as a cash flow hedge, the effective portion of the gain or loss on the derivative is reported as a component of other comprehensive income and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. Gains and losses on the derivative representing either hedge ineffectiveness or hedge components excluded from the assessment of effectiveness are recognized in current earnings.

In the first quarter of fiscal 2009, the Company's Trinidad subsidiary entered into an interest rate swap agreement with the Royal Bank of Trinidad & Tobago LTD ("RBTT") for a notional amount of $8.9 million. This swap agreement was entered into in order to fix the interest rate of a $9.0 million loan entered into in fiscal year 2008. The loan has a variable interest rate of one year LIBOR plus a margin of 2.75%. Under the swap agreement, the Company will pay a fixed rate of 7.05% for a term of approximately five years (until September 26, 2013). The notional amount of $8.9 million is scheduled to amortize to $4.5 million over the term of the swap. The LIBOR reset dates for the $9.0 million loan and the notional amount of $8.9 million on the interest rate swap are effective annually on August 26. As the interest rate swap is fixed at 7.05%, the difference between the actual floating rate (one year LIBOR plus margin of 2.75%) and the fixed rate of 7.05% applied against the notional amount of the swap is paid to or received from RBTT monthly.

In the second quarter of fiscal year 2008, the Company's Barbados subsidiary entered into an interest rate swap agreement with Citibank, N.A. for a notional amount of $4.5 million. This swap agreement was entered into in order to fix the interest rate on a $4.5 million loan obtained in U.S. dollars in fiscal year 2008. The loan has a variable interest rate of six-month LIBOR plus a margin of 1.5%. Under the swap agreement, the Company will pay a fixed rate of 5.22% for a term of approximately five years (until November 14, 2012). The notional amount of $4.5 million is scheduled to amortize to $2.25 million over the term of the swap. The LIBOR reset dates for the $4.5 million loan and the notional amount of $4.5 million on the interest rate swap are effective semi-annually on November 15 and May 15. As the interest rate swap is fixed at 5.22%, the difference between the actual floating rate (six month LIBOR plus a margin of 1.5%) and the fixed rate of 5.22% applied against the notional amount of the swap is paid to or received from Citibank, N.A. semi-annually.

For the three month periods ended November 30, 2010 and 2009, the Company included the gain or loss on the hedged items (that is, variable-rate borrowings) in the same line item—interest expense—as the offsetting gain or loss on the related interest rate swaps as follows (in thousands):

Income Statement Classification	Interest expense on
	Borrowings	Loss on Swaps	Interest expense
Interest expense for the three months ended November 30, 2010	$ 75	$ 96	$ 171
Interest expense for the three months ended November 30, 2009	$ 113	$ 80	$ 193

The total notional amount of the Company's pay-fixed/receive-variable interest rate swaps was as follows (in thousands):

	November 30, 2010	Notional Amount as of August 31, 2010

The Company measures the fair value for all financial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis or on a nonrecurring basis during the reporting period as further described within Note 2. The debt fair value is measured as the net present value of the debt cash payments. This requires estimating the payments and the timing of the payments and taking the discounted cash flow of these payments. The amount and timing of the cash flows are often determined by the debt instrument assuming no defaults. The discount rate used to calculate the net present value of the debt is the current risk-free rate plus the risk premium adjustment reflecting the credit rating. The Company considered the effect of its credit risk (credit standing) on the fair value of the liability in all periods in which the liability was measured at fair value.

The following table summarizes the fair value of derivative instruments (in thousands):

	Liability Derivatives
	November 30, 2010		August 31, 2010
Derivatives designated as hedging instruments	Balance Sheet Location	Fair Value	Balance Sheet Location	Fair Value
Interest Rate Swaps(1)	Other Accrued Expenses	$ 702	Other Accrued Expenses	$ 767
Total derivatives designated as hedging instruments(2)		$ 702		$ 767

(1) The effective portion of the interest rate swaps was recorded as a loss to accumulated other comprehensive loss for $526,000 and $576,000, net of tax, as of November 30, 2010, and August 31, 2010, respectively.

(2) All derivatives were designated as hedging instruments.

For the respective periods, there were no amounts recorded for gain or (loss) on interest rate swaps recognized on the consolidated statements of income deemed to be ineffective. The Company recognizes the fair value of interest rate swaps in accumulated other comprehensive loss as they are cash flow hedges.

NOTE 12 – ACQUISITION OF NONCONTROLLING INTEREST

In May 2010, the Company purchased the remaining 5% noncontrolling interest of its Trinidad subsidiary for $3.8 million. As of the purchase date, the Company had recorded approximately $886,000 of noncontrolling interest related to the 5% noncontrolling interest. The Company recorded the change in the ownership interest as an equity transaction, adjusting additional paid-in capital for approximately $2.9 million (the difference between the fair value of consideration paid less the book value of the noncontrolling interest). The Company's ownership percentage for all consolidated subsidiaries is now 100%, with no recorded noncontrolling interests transactions or acquisition activity related to the three month period ended November 30, 2010. For the three month period ended November 30, 2009, the Company reported no purchase activity of noncontrolling interests.

NOTE 13 – UNCONSOLIDATED AFFILIATES

The Company determines whether any of the joint ventures in which it has made investments is a Variable Interest Entity ("VIE") at the start of each new venture and if a reconsideration event has occurred. At this time the Company also considers whether it must consolidate a VIE and/or disclose information about its involvement in a VIE. A reporting entity must consolidate a VIE if that reporting entity has a variable interest (or combination of variable interests) that will absorb a majority of the VIE's expected losses, receive a majority of the VIE's expected residual returns, or both. A reporting entity must consider the rights and obligations conveyed by its variable interests and the relationship of its variable interests with variable interests held by other parties to determine whether its variable interests will absorb a majority of a VIE's expected losses, receive a majority of the VIE's expected residual returns, or both. The reporting entity that consolidates a VIE is called the primary beneficiary of that VIE. Due to the initial nature of the joint ventures (GolfPark Plaza, Price Plaza Alajuela and Newco2) and the continued commitments for additional financing, the Company determined these joint ventures are VIEs. Since all rights and obligations are equally absorbed by both parties within each joint venture, the Company has determined that it is not the primary beneficiary of the VIEs and, therefore, has accounted for these entities under the equity method.

Under the equity method, the Company's investments in unconsolidated affiliates are initially recorded as an investment in the stock of an investee at cost and are adjusted for the carrying amount of the investment to recognize the investor's share of the earnings or losses of the investee after the date of the initial investment.

On September 24, 2008, the Company entered into an agreement with an entity controlled by local Panamanian businessmen, Fundacion Tempus Fugit S.A. ("FIDAU"), to jointly own and operate a commercial retail center adjacent to its new PriceSmart warehouse club, with the Company and FIDAU each owning a 50% interest in the entity, GolfPark Plaza, S.A. The Company purchased a 50% interest in GolfPark Plaza for approximately $4.6 million. On September 24, 2008, GolfPark Plaza acquired 412,594 square feet of real estate for the construction of a retail center. During fiscal year 2009 and fiscal year 2010, the Company made additional capital contributions of approximately $50,000 and $433,000, respectively. No additional capital contributions were made during the three months ended November 30, 2010. As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company's commitment to make future additional capital contributions was approximately $2.0 million. However, the parties intend to seek alternate financing for the project, which would reduce the amount of additional capital each party would be required to provide. The parties may mutually agree on changes to the project, which could increase or decrease the amount of capital each party is required to contribute.

On September 29, 2008, the Company entered into an agreement with an entity controlled by local Costa Rican businessmen, JB Enterprises ("JBE"), to jointly own and operate a commercial retail center adjacent to the anticipated new PriceSmart warehouse club in Alajuela, Costa Rica, with the Company and JBE each owning a 50% interest in the joint venture, Price Plaza Alajuela, S.A. ("PPA"). Also, on September 29, 2008, PPA acquired 232,244 square feet of real estate for the construction of a retail center. The Company recorded an initial investment in PPA of approximately $2.2 million. As of August 31, 2010, the Company made additional capital contributions of approximately $377,000. No additional capital contributions were made during the three months ended November 30, 2010. As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company's commitment to make future additional capital contributions was approximately $1.6 million. However, the parties intend to seek alternate financing for the project, which would reduce the amount of additional capital each party would be required to provide. In addition, the parties may mutually agree on changes to the project, which may also reduce the amount of capital each party is required to contribute.

On September 29, 2008, the Company entered into a second agreement with an entity controlled by local Costa Rican businessmen, Prico Enterprises ("Prico"), to jointly own property adjacent to the anticipated new PriceSmart warehouse club in Alajuela and the retail center to be owned and operated by PPA, with the Company and Prico each owning a 50% interest in the joint venture, Newco2. Also, on September 29, 2008, 53,777 square feet of real estate were acquired by this entity. The Company recorded an initial investment in the joint venture of approximately $424,000. The Company obtained a three year, zero interest loan from Prico to finance the acquisition of its noncontrolling interest for approximately $475,000. The Company recorded the discounted present value of this loan of approximately $409,000 as part of its original investment in the joint venture. The interest on the loan is amortized monthly, with the interest charged to interest expense and the resulting liability credited to the loan payable balance. The loan balance as of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010 was approximately $455,000 and $450,000, respectively. The Company has reflected this amount as long-term debt, current portion within its consolidated balance sheet as of November 30, 2010 and as long-term debt, net of current portion, as of August 31, 2010. As a result of the loan, the shares of the Company are held within a trust, established as part of the loan agreement with Prico. As of November 30, 2010, there are no commitments to make additional capital contributions to this joint venture.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

This quarterly report on Form 10-Q contains forward-looking statements concerning the Company's anticipated future revenues and earnings, adequacy of future cash flow and related matters. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements containing the words "expect," "believe," "will," "may," "should," "project," "estimate," "anticipate," "scheduled," and like expressions, and the negative thereof. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially, including the following risks: the Company's financial performance is dependent on international operations which exposes the Company to various risks; any failure by the Company to manage its widely dispersed operations could adversely affect its business; the Company faces significant competition; the Company may encounter difficulties in the shipment of, and risks inherent in the acquisition and importation of, merchandise to its warehouse clubs; the Company is exposed to weather and other natural disaster risks; declines in the economies of the countries in which the Company operates its warehouse clubs would harm its business; a few of the Company's stockholders own nearly 39% of the Company's voting stock, which may make it difficult to complete some corporate transactions without their support and may impede a change in control; the loss of key personnel could harm the Company's business; the Company is subject to volatility in foreign currency exchange; the Company faces the risk of exposure to product liability claims, a product recall and adverse publicity; a determination that the Company's long-lived or intangible assets have been impaired could adversely affect the Company's future results of operations and financial position; although the Company takes steps to continuously review, enhance, and implement improvements to its internal controls, there may be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies that the Company has not yet identified; as well as the other risks detailed in the Company's U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") reports, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2010 on November 9, 2010 pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. See "Part II – Item 1A – Risk Factors."

The following discussion and analysis compares the results of operations for the three month periods ended November 30, 2010 (fiscal year 2011) and 2009 (fiscal year 2010), and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the accompanying notes included herein.

PriceSmart's mission is to efficiently operate U.S.-style membership warehouse clubs in Latin America and the Caribbean that sell high quality goods and services to its retail and wholesale members at low prices, while providing good wages and benefits to PriceSmart employees and a fair return to PriceSmart stockholders. The Company sells U.S. brand-name, private label, locally sourced and imported products to its small business and consumer members in a warehouse club format, providing high value to its members. By focusing on providing high value on quality merchandise in a low-cost operating environment, the Company seeks to grow sales volume and membership, which in turn will allow for further efficiencies and price reductions and ultimately improved value to its members.

PriceSmart's business consists primarily of international membership shopping warehouse clubs similar to, but smaller in size than, warehouse clubs in the United States. The number of warehouse clubs in operation as of November 30, 2010 and 2009, the number of warehouse clubs the Company expects to open in fiscal year 2011, the Company's ownership percentages and basis of presentation for financial reporting purposes by each country or territory are as follows:

During fiscal year 2010, the Company acquired property in Panama and Trinidad. The Company completed construction of and opened a new Panama warehouse club ("Brisas") in April 2010. The Panama warehouse club, previously located at Los Pueblos was closed and relocated to this new site. The Los Pueblos site is currently being leased with the lessee having an option to buy. The Company completed construction of and opened a new warehouse club in Trinidad ("San Fernando") in April 2010, bringing the number of warehouse clubs in Trinidad to four.

The Company completed construction of and opened a new warehouse club in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic ("Arroyo Hondo") on November 5, 2010. In November 2010, the Company through its Colombian subsidiary acquired approximately 210,000 square feet of land in Barranquilla, Colombia for approximately 12.1 billion Colombian Pesos (the equivalent of approximately $6.5 million United States Dollars as of the acquisition date). The Company plans to construct on this site a new membership warehouse club, expected to open during the summer of 2011.

At the end of November 30, 2010, the total number of warehouse clubs in operation was 28 operating in 11 countries and one U.S. territory, in comparison to 26 warehouse clubs operating in 11 countries and one U.S. territory at the end of November 30, 2009. The average age of the 28 warehouse clubs in operation was 101 months as of the end of November 30, 2010 and the average age of the 26 warehouse clubs included in operation was 97 months as of November 30, 2009.

In addition to the warehouse clubs operated directly by the Company, there is one warehouse club in operation in Saipan, Micronesia licensed to and operated by local business people, from which the Company earns a small royalty fee.

In general, the Company's earnings improve and cash flows from operations increase as sales increase. Although the Company's cost of goods sold is largely variable with sales, a portion of the Company's selling, general and administrative expenses rise relatively slowly in relation to sales increases. Therefore, the Company prioritizes initiatives that it expects will have the greatest impact on increasing sales. Looking forward to the next several quarters, the following items are likely to have an impact on business and the results of operations:

General Economic Factors

The economic slowdown in the U.S. and other major world economies had a negative effect on consumer spending in the countries where PriceSmart operates in the second half of fiscal year 2009 and continued through the first three months of fiscal year 2010. Lower expatriate remittances, reduced U.S. demand for exports from Latin America (particularly affecting the assembly ("maquila") export sector in Guatemala, Honduras and the Dominican Republic), and reduced tourism from the U.S. and Europe (particularly affecting Caribbean markets) contributed to a generally weak economic environment in many of the Company's markets affecting consumer spending and buying patterns. Improving consumer spending became evident in the Company's warehouse clubs in the second quarter of fiscal year 2010. Those positive trends continued through to the remainder of fiscal year 2010 and have continued through the first three months of fiscal year 2011. These include:

- Sales of non-consumable merchandise continued to increase in the first quarter of fiscal year 2011 after declining through much of fiscal year 2009 and the first quarter of fiscal year 2010 when compared to the same quarter in the prior year. The four most recent fiscal quarters (quarter 2, quarter 3 and quarter 4 of fiscal year 2010 and quarter 1 of fiscal year 2011) have seen a year over year increase in non-consumable merchandise sales of 8.5%, 16.4%, 27.0% and 21.8 % respectively.
- The decline in the dollar value of the average transaction, which had been 3.2%, 4.8%, and 4.1% in the last two quarters of fiscal year 2009 and the first quarter of fiscal year 2010, respectively, declined only 0.6% in the second quarter of fiscal year 2010, and registered an increase of 4.3%, 5.6% and 3.7% in the third and fourth quarters of fiscal year 2010 and in the first quarter of fiscal year 2011, respectively, compared to the same quarters in the previous fiscal year.
- Comparable warehouse club sales percentage growth has improved from the negative growth rate of 1.1% recorded in September 2009 and 0.3% in October 2009. The Company has experienced 13 consecutive months of positive comparable monthly warehouse club sales growth with November 2010 at 15.8%.

The Company believes that consumer spending has stabilized and may be increasing in some of its markets, particularly in Latin America, which has had a positive effect on sales in the most recent period and may have a continued positive effect on sales in the upcoming fiscal quarters.

Many PriceSmart markets are susceptible to foreign currency exchange rate volatility. Currency exchange rate changes either increase or decrease the cost of imported products and can have an effect on the reported sales of the consolidated company when local currency denominated sales are translated to U.S. dollars. In addition, the Company revalues all U.S. dollar denominated liabilities within those markets that do not use the U.S. dollar as its functional currency. These liabilities include, but are not limited to, the value of items shipped from the U.S. to the Company's foreign markets. Approximately 49% of the Company's net warehouse sales are comprised of products imported into the markets where PriceSmart warehouse clubs are located. Products imported for sale in PriceSmart markets are purchased in U.S. dollars, but approximately 79% of the Company's net warehouse sales are in foreign currencies. In general, local currencies in PriceSmart markets have declined relative to the dollar, but the Costa Rican colon, Jamaican dollar and Guatemalan quetzale appreciated relative to the U.S. dollar on a year over year basis through much of the second half of fiscal year 2010. The Costa Rican colon and the Guatemalan quetzale continued to appreciate into the first quarter of fiscal 2011. The Company adjusts prices on U.S. dollar goods on a periodic basis to maintain its target margins after taking into account changes in exchange rates. As a result, declines in local currencies relative to the U.S. dollar effectively increase the cost to the Company's members of imported products, while appreciation in local currencies makes imported products more affordable. The Company believes that the appreciation of the Costa Rican, Jamaican and Guatemalan currencies has had a positive impact on the sales of imported products during the first quarter of fiscal year 2011. With respect to locally acquired merchandise sold in the Company's warehouse clubs, which accounts for approximately 51% of net warehouse sales, the Company's margins are not affected by changes in exchange rates and therefore the Company does not adjust prices of these products to address changes in exchange rates. However, in the case of locally acquired merchandise, a decline in local currency rates relative to the U.S. dollar will decrease the reported year over year sales of the Company when expressed in U.S. dollars. Conversely, a strengthening of local currency rates relative to the U.S. dollar will increase the reported year over year sales. With respect to the revaluation of monetary assets and liabilities, the Company recognizes the revaluation (either positive or negative) as an element of net warehouse cost of goods sold and indicates the dollar value of that revaluation, net of reserves, in the discussion on warehouse gross margins. The Company seeks to reduce U.S. dollar denominated liabilities by obtaining local currency loans from banks within certain markets where it is economical to do so and where the risk of devaluation or the level of U.S. dollar denominated liabilities is high. For example, last fiscal year, the Company instituted a local currency denominated long term loan in Honduras ($6.0 million, U.S. dollar equivalent). The Company also has local currency denominated long term loans in Guatemala and Barbados. The Company is not aware of any material trends or uncertainties regarding the currencies of any other markets that the Company expects will have a material impact on the Company or its operations in future periods. However, there is no way to accurately forecast how currencies may trade in the future and, as a result the Company cannot accurately project the impact of the change in rates on the Company's future demand for imported products, reported sales, or financial results.

Recent and Future Management Actions

The Company has undertaken or is planning several expansions, reconfigurations and/or fixture upgrades of existing warehouse clubs. During the first three months of fiscal year 2011, the Company completed the expansion of the overstock freezer in the Llorente, Costa Rica warehouse adding approximately 588 square feet of added freezer space, the expansion of the bakery in the Nicaragua warehouse club adding approximately 970 square feet and the expansion of the Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic central offices adding approximately 900 square feet. During fiscal year 2010, expansions included the expansion of the warehouse clubs in Aruba and Port of Spain, Trinidad that were finalized in fiscal year 2010, adding approximately 9,000 and 900 square feet of sales floor space, respectively. Also during fiscal year 2010, the Company completed the expansion of the receiving area within San Pedro Sula, Honduras, adding approximately 700 square feet of receiving space to the facility, and completed significant upgrades to fixtures within the Barbados warehouse club, including the completion of a new produce overstock cooler in the third quarter of fiscal year 2010.

The Company has plans to expand, reconfigure, and/or upgrade clubs and/or fixtures in clubs in several more locations over the next 12 months. Such plans include: expansion of the Barbados warehouse club sales floor space by approximately 10,000 square feet; expansion of the bakery in the Tegucigalpa, Honduras warehouse club by approximately 400 square feet; and remodeling the fresh foods area within the Port of Spain, Trinidad warehouse club. The Company will invest approximately $2.2 million for these items and believes that these expansions, reconfigurations, and/or upgrades will provide for more selling space, increased capacity for stocking merchandise in its warehouse clubs and added administrative spaces.

During fiscal year 2010, the Company opened a free trade zone distribution center in Miami, Florida and closed the Panama distribution center for much of the merchandise which ships from Asia. Similar to the arrangement in the Panama distribution center, the Company will incur distribution charges on a per unit basis at the Miami free trade zone distribution center. This change resulted in the more efficient and cost effective movement of merchandise to the Company's markets. The Company also entered into a lease amendment for its Miami frozen distribution center on August 31, 2009, providing for an additional 5,000 square feet of frozen and refrigerated space. The Company recently renegotiated its existing lease for its primary distribution center in Miami, adding approximately 74,000 square feet of warehouse space to this facility. The Company will invest approximately $3.5 million to upgrade and ready this warehouse space and projects that the construction activities related to these upgrades will be completed in the second half of fiscal year 2011. The Company intends to utilize this area to consolidate its dry, frozen and refrigerated merchandise distribution facilities. This will allow the Company to more efficiently service the PriceSmart warehouse club locations and realize savings in distribution expenses by improving the flow of merchandise through the facility and reducing handling costs. The Company continues to evaluate its distribution processes to improve the efficiency and cost effectiveness of shipping merchandise from suppliers to the warehouse clubs.

The Company offers a co-branded credit card to PriceSmart members in Latin America in cooperation with a bank in the region, Credomatic. During fiscal year 2009, the Company introduced the co-branded program in its Caribbean markets, except for Aruba, in cooperation with a bank in that region, Scotiabank. The programs allow for savings in credit card processing fees when the co-branded card is used at the warehouse club as well as providing benefits to club members through the loyalty programs offered by the banks for using the card. Working with Credomatic and Scotiabank, the Company seeks to increase the use of the co-branded cards in those markets. In the most recent fiscal quarter, bank and credit card expenses improved two basis points as a percentage of sales compared to the same quarter last year.

The Company has an on-going process to evaluate sites for additional PriceSmart locations. Although a specific target for new warehouse club openings beyond fiscal year 2011 has not been set, management believes that there are opportunities to add locations in certain PriceSmart markets. The Company opened a new warehouse club in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic (“Arroyo Hondo”) on November 5, 2010. In November 2010, the Company through its Colombian subsidiary acquired approximately 210,000 square feet of land in Barranquilla, Colombia for approximately 12.1 billion Colombian Pesos (the equivalent of approximately $6.5 million United States Dollars as of the acquisition date). The Company plans to construct on this site a new membership warehouse club, expected to open during the summer of 2011. The Company believes that Colombia could be a market for multiple PriceSmart warehouse clubs and is currently establishing a country headquarters in Bogota, including the leasing of office space, and has hired a Country Manager and is in the process of hiring associated buying and administrative staff.

Most PriceSmart real estate is owned rather than leased. Real estate ownership provides a number of advantages as compared to leasing, including lower operating expenses, flexibility to expand, or otherwise enhance, PriceSmart buildings, long-term control over the use of the property and the residual value that the real estate may have in future years. In the course of acquiring sites, the Company may have to purchase more land than is actually needed for the warehouse club operation. As an example, the Company’s acquisition of the Alajuela site in Costa Rica included the purchase of land for the PriceSmart warehouse club and a joint venture with the seller on the balance of the property. PriceSmart entered into a similar real estate transaction with respect to its recently opened Brisas site in Panama City. To the extent that the Company acquires property in excess of what is needed for a particular warehouse club, the Company generally plans to either sell or develop the excess property. The excess land at Alajuela and Brisas is being held for development by the joint ventures. A similar development strategy is being employed for the Company’s excess land at the new San Fernando, Trinidad and Arroyo Hondo, Dominican Republic locations where the properties are fully owned by PriceSmart. The profitable sale or development of real estate is highly dependent on real estate market conditions. The Company believes that it will find suitable tenants or acquirers in the future for its other property development projects.

Financial highlights for the first three months of fiscal year 2011 included:

- Net warehouse club sales increased 22.3% over the prior year, resulting from the opening of a new warehouse club in Costa Rica in April 2009 and the opening of a new club in Trinidad on April 30, 2010. Comparable warehouse club sales (that is, sales in warehouse clubs that have been open for greater than 13 1/2 calendar months) for the 13 weeks ending December 5, 2010 grew 16.9%.
- Membership income for the first three months of fiscal year 2011 increased 16.7% to $5.4 million as a result of a 1.2% increase in the average membership fee, resulting from changes in the type of membership accounts established, and a 12.8% increase in membership accounts from November 30, 2009 to November 30, 2010 due in part to continued strong renewal rates at 88%.
- Gross profits (net warehouse club sales less associated cost of goods sold) increased 26.8% over the prior year due primarily to increased warehouse sales, and gross margin as a percent of net warehouse sales increased 57 basis points resulting from reduced markdowns, improved shrink results, and end-cap income.
- Selling, general and administrative expenses were lower by 27 basis points as a percentage of sales compared to the same period last year, as warehouse sales growth outpaced the effects of increasing operating costs in comparable clubs and the incremental costs associated with two additional warehouse clubs in operation.
- Operating income for the first three months of fiscal year 2011 was $22.6 million, an increase of $6.3 million over the first three months of fiscal year 2010.
- Net income attributable to PriceSmart for the first three months of fiscal year 2011 was $14.9 million, or $0.50 per diluted share.

COMPARISON OF THE THREE MONTHS ENDED NOVEMBER 30, 2010 AND 2009

Certain percentages presented are calculated using actual results prior to rounding. The Company's fiscal first quarter ends on November 30. Unless otherwise noted, references to net income relate to net income attributable to PriceSmart. Unless otherwise noted, all tables present U.S. dollar amounts in thousands.

Net Warehouse Club Sales

	Three Months ended November 30, 2010		2009
	Amount	% Change	Amount
Net warehouse club sales	$ 377,331	22.3%	$ 308,653

Comparison of Three Months ended November 30, 2010 to 2009

The Company had two additional warehouse clubs in operation in the first quarter of fiscal 2011 compared to the first quarter of fiscal 2010 (San Fernando in Trinidad, and Arroyo Hondo in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic). Together they added approximately 492 basis points of sales growth in the most recent quarter. In total (including those two additional clubs) sales growth in the quarter was driven mostly by transaction growth (17.8%) while the average value of each transaction increased (3.7%). Sales growth was evident across all of the Company's markets and major merchandise categories, particularly in Costa Rica where the local currency continues to be strong compared to the US dollar making the imported merchandise relatively more affordable to our members.

Comparable Sales

The Company reports comparable warehouse club sales on a “same week” basis with 13 weeks in each quarter beginning on a Monday and ending on a Sunday. The periods are established at the beginning of the fiscal year to provide as close a match as possible to the calendar month that is used for financial reporting purposes. This approach equalizes the number of weekend days and week days in each period for improved sales comparison, as the Company experiences higher warehouse club sales on the weekends. Further, each of the warehouse clubs used in the calculations was open for at least 13 1/2 calendar months before its results for the current period were compared with its results for the prior period. For example, the sales related to the new warehouse club opened in the Dominican Republic on November 5, 2010 will not be used in the calculation of comparable warehouse club sale until January 2012. Similarly, the sales related to the new warehouse club opened in Trinidad on April 30, 2010 will not be used in the calculation of comparable warehouse club sales until July 2011.

Comparison of Three Months ended November 30, 2010 to 2009

Comparable warehouse club sales, which are for warehouse clubs open at least 13 1/2 full months, increased 16.9% for the 13-week period ended December 5, 2010, compared to the same 13-week period last year.

The membership renewal rate for the 12 month periods ended November 30, 2010 and 2009 was 88% and 83%, respectively.

Of the $4.6 million increase in warehouse club operation expenses attributable to the 26 warehouse clubs operating in the first quarter of both fiscal years, $2.5 million related to increased payroll-related expenses, including stock-based compensation expense. Utilities costs increased $358,000 million due to an increase in utility rates after the Company experienced savings in fiscal year 2009. Depreciation expense increased $353,000 related to ongoing capital investments made in the existing warehouse clubs and the completion of the new warehouse club in Panama City, Panama into which an existing warehouse club was relocated. Increased costs for repairs and maintenance and supplies added $293,000 and $199,000, respectively. Credit card costs increased by a total of $392,000 resulting from higher sales but decreased as a percentage of sales from 0.80% of sales in the first quarter last year to 0.78% of sales in the current quarter, reflecting ongoing savings resulting from the co-branded credit cards offered to the Company's members.

The prior year expenses related to the new warehouse club in Trinidad which opened in April 2010.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Financial Position and Cash Flow

The Company requires cash to fund its operating expenses and working capital requirements which include the construction of property for new warehouse clubs, expansion projects for existing warehouse clubs and distribution centers, normal upgrades and maintenance of fixtures and equipment within existing warehouse clubs, investments in joint ventures in Panama and Costa Rica to own and operate commercial retail centers located adjacent to the new warehouse clubs, acquisition of noncontrolling interest within certain of its subsidiaries and the purchase of treasury stock upon the vesting of restricted stock awards. The Company's primary sources for funding these requirements are cash and cash equivalents on hand, cash generated from operations, short-term debt, long-term debt and credit facilities. The Company evaluates on a regular basis if it may need to borrow additional funds if the Company is unable to generate sufficient cash from operations to meet its operating or capital requirements. As such, the Company may evaluate and enter into or obtain additional loans and/or credit facilities to provide additional liquidity. Total cash and cash equivalents at the end of the periods reported were as follows (in thousands):

Net income for the first three months of fiscal year 2011 included approximately $6.0 million in non-cash related expenses consisting of depreciation, deferred income taxes, stock-based compensation expense and other non-cash operating activities of approximately $4.2 million, $827,000, $932,000 and $53,000, respectively. In the first three months of fiscal year 2011, net cash used by continuing operating activities included cash use of approximately $38.2 million to increase inventories to open the Dominican Republic, Arroyo Hondo warehouse club, meet higher sales demand and to prepare for the holiday season. Changes in operating assets and liabilities excluding inventory, provided approximately $11.6 million of cash in the first three months of fiscal year 2011. Cash used by operating activities during the first three months of fiscal year 2010 resulted primarily from the decreased net income of approximately $400,000 to $10.4 million. Net income included approximately $5.4 million in non-cash related expenses. This was principally comprised of depreciation, deferred income taxes, stock-based compensation expense and other non-cash operating activities for approximately $3.6 million, $1.0 million, $770,000 and ($63,000), respectively. In the first three months of fiscal year 2010, net cash used by continuing operating activities included cash use of approximately $31.5 million to increase inventories in preparation of the holiday sales. Changes in operating assets and liabilities excluding inventory, provided cash of approximately $12.0 million in the first three months of fiscal year 2010.

Cash used in investing activities for the first three months of fiscal year 2011 consisted primarily of additions to property and equipment for approximately $14.2 million. The Company acquired approximately 210,000 square feet of land in Barranquilla, Colombia for the equivalent of approximately $6.5 million United States Dollars in November 2010. The Company plans to construct on this site a new membership warehouse club, expected to open during the summer of 2011. The Company initially paid approximately $4.3 million in November 2010 and upon the completion of certain improvements, expected to occur by March 2011, the Company will then make the final payment of approximately $2.2 million. The Company continued with the development of new warehouse club sites and the expansion of existing warehouse clubs in Latin America and the Caribbean. Construction costs within these two segments for the three months ended November 30, 2010 were approximately $513,000 and $3.8 million, respectively. The Company continued its expansion of the Miami warehouse, recording costs related to the expansion of approximately $151,000 for the first three months of fiscal year 2011. In addition, the Company continued to acquire fixtures and equipment for new warehouse club sites, the expansion of existing warehouse clubs and corporate offices in Latin America, the Caribbean and the United States. The Company acquired fixtures and equipment for approximately $1.3 million, $3.4 million and $102,000, respectively, in these segments for the three months ended November 30, 2010. The Company acquired approximately $567,000 of software and computer hardware during the three months ended November 30, 2010. In the first three months of fiscal year 2010 investing activities for the Company consisted primarily of additions to property and equipment for approximately $8.6 million. The Company recorded construction costs in the Latin America and Caribbean segments for the first three months of fiscal year 2010 of approximately $1.8 million and $3.4 million, respectively, in connection with the development of new warehouse club sites and the expansion of existing warehouse clubs in Latin America and the Caribbean. Fixtures and equipment expenditures within the Latin America, Caribbean and U.S. segments for the first three months of fiscal year 2010 were $1.5 million, $1.4 million and $34,000, respectively. The Company utilized approximately $574,000 for the acquisition of software and computer hardware in the first three months of fiscal year 2010. In addition the Company recorded an increase in its investment in the Panama joint venture of $100,000.

Net cash used by financing activities for the first three months of fiscal year 2011 were primarily the result of obtaining new bank loans offset by the establishment of a certificate of deposit held against a loan and payments on existing bank loans for a net effect of $4.9 million of cash used. Net cash provided by financing activities for the first three months of fiscal year 2010 were primarily as a result of obtaining new bank loans and payments on bank loans for a net effect of $7.2 million of cash provided. Proceeds from the exercise of stock options and the tax benefit related to stock options provided an additional $400,000.

Financing Activities(1)

On November 1, 2010, the Company's Colombia subsidiary entered into a loan agreement with Citibank, N.A. in New York. The agreement establishes a credit facility for $16.0 million to be disbursed in two tranches of $8.0 million each. The interest rate is set at the six month LIBOR rate plus 2.4%. The loan term is five years with interest only payments and a balloon payment at maturity. The credit facility is renewable for an additional five year period at the option of the Company's Colombia subsidiary. The loan will be secured by a time deposit pledged by the Company equal to the amount outstanding on the loan. The deposit will earn an interest rate of six month LIBOR plus 1.6%. As of November 30, 2010 the Company had received the first of the two tranches of $8.0 million.

On August 31, 2010, the Company's Panama subsidiary entered into a loan agreement with Metrobank S.A. for $5.0 million to be paid over five years. The loan is denominated in U.S. dollars and has a tiered fixed interest rate of 5.0% and 5.5% in the first year and the second and third years, respectively. In the fourth and fifth years of the loan, the interest rate will become variable and be equal to the United States prime rate plus 2.5%. The loan agreement contains a balloon payment at the end of the term of $2.5 million and includes an option to extend the loan for an additional five years.

In March 2010, the Company's Honduras subsidiary entered into a loan agreement with Banco Del Pais, S.A. for a loan based in Honduran lempiras that is equivalent to $6.0 million, which must be paid over five years. The loan has a variable interest rate of 11.25%, which will be periodically reviewed and re-set with a 30-day notice of change in the rate. Early payment of the loan is permitted. The Company's Honduras subsidiary also entered into an agreement with Banco Del Pais to open and maintain a certificate of deposit for $6.0 million with an initial interest rate of 3.88%. The certificate of deposit is automatically renewable by Banco Del Pais on an annual basis for the net amortized outstanding balance. The Company entered into this loan and certificate of deposit agreement consistent with its strategy to reduce U.S. dollar-denominated liabilities by obtaining local currency loans from banks where it is economical to do so and where risk of devaluation or the level of U.S. dollar-denominated liabilities is high.

In January 2010, the Company's Honduras subsidiary entered into a loan agreement with ScotiaBank El Salvador S.A. for the amount of $6.0 million to be paid over five years. The loan initially had an interest rate set at the greater of 7.5% or 30-day LIBOR plus 4%. As of July 1, 2010, the interest on this loan was fixed at 5.5% for the rest of its term. The loan requires a balloon payment at the end of the loan term of approximately $3.1 million.

In September 2009, the Company's El Salvador subsidiary entered into a loan agreement with ScotiaBank El Salvador S.A. for the amount of $8.0 million to be paid over five years. The loan initially had an interest rate set at the greater of 7.5% or 30-day LIBOR plus 4%. As of July 1, 2010, the interest on this loan was fixed at 5.5% for the rest of its term. The loan requires a balloon payment at the end of the loan term of $4.1 million.

The Company, through its subsidiaries, has entered into two interest rate swap agreements, one effective beginning in each of fiscal years 2008 and 2009. Under these swap agreements, the Company will pay a fixed interest rate charge for a term approximately the same as the variable rate loans being hedged. The Company measures the fair value for all financial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements on a recurring basis or on a nonrecurring basis during the reporting period. The Company has designated the two interest rate swap agreements as hedging instruments and has accounted for them under Hedge Accounting Rules. The following table summarizes the effect of the fair valuation of derivative instruments designated as hedging instruments (in thousands):

(1) All loans are denominated in U.S. dollars unless otherwise stated.

	Liability Derivatives
	November 30, 2010		August 31, 2010
Derivatives designated as hedging instruments	Balance Sheet Location	Fair Value	Balance Sheet Location	Fair Value
Interest rate swaps(1)	Other accrued expenses	$ 702	Other accrued expenses	$ 767
Total derivatives designated as hedging instruments(2)		$ 702		$ 767

(1) The effective portion of the interest rate swaps was recorded as a loss to accumulated other comprehensive loss for $526,000 and $576,000, net of tax, as of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, respectively.

(2) All derivatives were designated as hedging instruments.

Short-Term Borrowings and Long-Term Debt

As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company, together with its wholly owned subsidiaries, had approximately $4.0 million and $3.6 million outstanding in short-term borrowings, respectively.

The Company has bank credit agreements that provide for borrowings of up to $28.0 million, which can be used as lines of credit or to issue letters of credit. As of November 30, 2010, lines and letters of credit totaling approximately $4.2 million were outstanding under these facilities, leaving approximately $23.8 million available for borrowing. As of August 31, 2010, lines and letters of credit totaling approximately $4.0 million were outstanding on a bank credit agreement that provided for borrowings up to $27.9 million, leaving approximately $23.9 million available for borrowing.

As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company, together with its majority or wholly owned subsidiaries, had $63.5 million and $60.7 million, respectively, outstanding in long-term borrowings. The increase during the current period primarily relates to the addition of long-term loans for approximately $8.0 million, offset by normally scheduled payments of principal for approximately $5.2 million. The carrying amount of the non-cash assets assigned as collateral for long-term debt was $90.2 million and $87.4 million as of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, respectively.

As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010 approximately $32.3 million and $36.7 million, respectively, relate to loans in Trinidad, Barbados, Panama, El Salvador and Honduras that require these subsidiaries to comply with certain annual or quarterly financial covenants which include debt service and leverage ratios. As of November 30, 2010 and August 31, 2010, the Company was in compliance with respect to these covenants.

Contractual Obligations

Edgar Filing: PRICESMART INC - Form 10-Q

As of November 30, 2010, the Company's commitments to make future payments under long-term contractual obligations were as follows (in thousands):

Contractual obligations	Payments due in:				Total
	Less than 1 Year	1 to 3 Years	4 to 5 Years	After 5 Years
Long-term debt and interest (1)(7)	$ 11,528	$ 20,575	$ 36,607	$ 8,253	$ 76,963
Operating leases (2)(3)	6,454	13,403	13,464	47,966	81,287
Additional capital contribution commitments to joint ventures (4)	3,663	—	—	—	3,663
Equipment lease(5)	18	—	—	—	18
Distribution center services(6)	125	10	—	—	135
Total	$ 21,788	$ 33,988	$ 50,071	$ 56,219	$ 162,066

(1) Long-term debt includes debt with both fixed and variable interest rates. The Company has used variable rates as of November 30, 2010 to calculate future estimated payments related to the variable rate items. For the portion of the loans subject to interest rate swaps, the Company has used the fixed interest rates as set by the interest rate swaps.

(2) Amounts shown exclude future operating lease payments due for the closed warehouse club in Guam. The projected minimum payments excluded for Guam are approximately $741,000; projected sublease income for this location is approximately $890,000, yielding no net projected obligation.

(3) Operating lease obligations have been reduced by approximately $428,000 to reflect the amounts net of sublease income.

(4) Amounts shown are the contractual capital contribution requirements for the Company's investment in the joint ventures that the Company has agreed to make; however, the parties intend to seek alternate financing for these projects.

(5) Certain obligations under leasing arrangements are collateralized by the underlying asset being leased.

(6) Amounts shown are the minimum payments under contractual distribution center services agreements for Mexico City.

(7) As of July 1, 2010, contractual obligations on long-term debt and interest changed as a result of changes to the interest rates on loans with Scotia Bank totaling approximately $22.3 million. The interest rate was changed to a fixed rate of 5.5%. This resulted in a reduction of long-term interest payments of approximately $1.5 million over the next five years.

Critical Accounting Estimates

The preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements requires that management make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Some of the Company's accounting policies require management to make difficult and subjective judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates of matters that are inherently uncertain. Management continues to review its accounting policies and evaluate its estimates, including those related to contingencies and litigation, deferred taxes, merchandise inventories, goodwill, long-lived assets, stock-based compensation and warehouse closure costs. The Company bases its estimates on historical experience and on other assumptions that management believes to be reasonable under the present circumstances. Using different estimates could have a material impact on the Company's financial condition and results of operations.

Contingencies and Litigation: In the ordinary course of business, the Company is periodically named as a defendant in various lawsuits, claims and pending actions and is exposed to tax risks (other than income tax). The principal risks that the Company insures against are workers' compensation, general liability, vehicle liability, property damage, employment practices, errors and omissions, fiduciary liability and fidelity losses. If a potential loss arising from these lawsuits, claims, actions and non-income tax issues is probable and reasonably estimable, the Company records the estimated liability based on circumstances and assumptions existing at the time. The estimates affecting the Company's litigation reserves can be affected by new claims filed after the balance sheet date with respect to events occurring prior to the balance sheet date and developments in pending litigation that may affect the outcome of the litigation. While the Company believes the recorded liabilities are adequate, there are inherent limitations in projecting the outcome of litigation and in evaluating the probable additional tax associated with various non-income tax filing positions. As such, the Company is unable to make a reasonable estimate of the sensitivity to change of estimates affecting its recorded liabilities. As additional information becomes available, the Company assesses the potential liability and revises its estimates as appropriate. While the Company believes the recorded liabilities are adequate, there are inherent limitations in the estimation process whereby actual losses may exceed estimated losses.

Income Taxes: A valuation allowance is recorded to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized. As of November 30, 2010, the Company evaluated its deferred tax assets and liabilities and determined that a valuation allowance is necessary for certain foreign deferred tax asset balances primarily because of the existence of significant negative objective evidence, such as the fact that certain subsidiaries are in a cumulative loss position for the past three years, and the determination that certain net operating loss carry-forward periods are not sufficient to realize the related deferred tax assets. The Company factored into its analysis the inherent risk of forecasting revenue and expenses over an extended period of time and also considered the potential risks associated with its business.

The Company had U.S. federal and state tax net operating loss carry-forwards, or NOLs, at November 30, 2010 of approximately $28.8 million and $4.8 million, respectively. In calculating the tax provision, and assessing the likelihood that the Company will be able to utilize the deferred tax assets, the Company considered and weighed all of the evidence, both positive and negative, and both objective and subjective. The Company factored in the inherent risk of forecasting revenue and expenses over an extended period of time and considered the potential risks associated with its business. Because of the Company's U.S. income from continuing operations and based on projections of future taxable income in the United States, the Company was able to determine that there was sufficient positive evidence to support the conclusion that it was more likely than not that the Company would be able to realize substantially all of its U.S. NOLs by generating taxable income during the carry-forward period. However, if the Company does not achieve its projections of future taxable income in the United States, the Company could be required to take a charge to earnings related to the recoverability of these deferred tax assets. Due to the deemed change of ownership (as defined in Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code) in October 2004, there are annual limitations in the amount of U.S. income that may be offset by NOLs. The NOLs generated prior to the deemed ownership change date, as well as a significant portion of the losses generated as a result of the PSMT Philippines disposal in August 2005, are limited on an annual basis. The Company does not believe this will impact the recoverability of these NOLs. Conversely, due to their shorter recovery period and limitations applicable under section 383 of the Internal Revenue Code regarding changes of ownership, the Company has maintained valuation allowances on U.S. foreign tax credits (generated before the date of the deemed ownership change) and all capital loss carry-forwards.

The Company is required to file federal and state tax returns in the United States and various other tax returns in foreign jurisdictions. The preparation of these tax returns requires the Company to interpret the applicable tax laws and regulations in effect in such jurisdictions, which could affect the amount of tax paid by the Company. The Company, in consultation with its tax advisors, bases its tax returns on interpretations that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. The tax returns, however, are subject to routine reviews by the various taxing authorities in the jurisdictions in which the Company files its returns. As part of these reviews, a taxing authority may disagree with respect to the interpretations the Company used to calculate its tax liability and therefore require the Company to pay additional taxes and associated penalties and interest.

The Company accrues an amount for its estimate of probable additional income tax liability. The Company recognizes the impact of an uncertain income tax position on the income tax return at the largest amount that is more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon audit by the relevant tax authority. An uncertain income tax position will not be recognized if it has less than a 50% likelihood of being sustained. As of November 30, 2010, the Company has classified uncertain income tax positions as $3.7 million in long-term income taxes payable. The classification of an income tax liability as current, as opposed to long-term, occurs when the Company expects to make a cash payment in the following 12 months. As of November 30, 2010, the Company does not expect to make cash payments for these liabilities in the following 12 months.

Merchandise Inventory: The Company records its inventory at the lower of cost (average cost) or market. The Company provides for estimated inventory losses between physical inventory counts on the basis of a percentage of sales. The provision is adjusted monthly to reflect the trend of actual physical inventory count results, with physical inventories occurring primarily in the second and fourth fiscal quarters. In addition, the Company monitors slow-moving inventory to determine if provisions should be taken for expected markdowns below the carrying cost of certain inventory to expedite the sale of such merchandise. The uncertainties associated with these methods, assumptions and estimates with regard to the Company's reported inventory, including the estimated provisions, has not had and is not expected to have a material impact on the financial condition and operating performance of the Company or on the comparability of the reported information for the periods presented, as historically the actual results have not differed materially from the estimates. The likelihood of any material changes in inventory losses or markdowns is dependent on customer demand or new product introductions by the Company or its competitors that vary from current expectations. The Company believes that any changes on these factors are not reasonably likely to occur and hence not reasonably likely to have a material impact on the Company's financial results.

Long-lived Assets: The Company periodically evaluates its long-lived assets for indicators of impairment. Indicators that an asset may be impaired are:

- the asset's inability to continue to generate income from operations and positive cash flow in future periods;
 - loss of legal ownership or title to the asset;
- significant changes in its strategic business objectives and utilization of the asset(s); and
 - the impact of significant negative industry or economic trends.

Management's judgments are based on market and operational conditions at the time of the evaluation and can include management's best estimate of future business activity, which in turn drives estimates of future cash flows from these assets. These periodic evaluations could cause management to conclude that impairment factors exist, requiring an adjustment of these assets to their then-current fair market value. Future business conditions and/or activity could differ materially from the projections made by management causing the need for additional impairment charges. For example, the Company recorded an impairment charge of approximately $169,000 in fiscal year 2009 to write-down the long-lived assets utilized for warehouse handling equipment and point of sales hardware in the Latin America and Caribbean business segments. The Company recorded approximately $18,000 in impairment charges related to the impairment of warehouse handling equipment during fiscal year 2010.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

FASB ASC 310

In July 2010, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"), issued amended guidance with regard to disclosures about the credit quality of financing receivables and the allowance for credit losses. This update is intended to provide additional information to assist financial statement users in assessing an entity's credit risk exposures and evaluating the adequacy of its allowance for credit losses by providing disclosures that facilitate financial statement users' evaluation of the nature of credit risk inherent in the entity's portfolio of financing receivables, how that risk is analyzed and assessed in arriving at the allowance for credit losses, and the changes and reasons for those changes in the allowance for credit losses. The Company is required to adopt this amended guidance on the disclosures as of the end of a reporting period and it is effective for interim and annual reporting periods ending on or after December 15, 2010. The adoption of this guidance on disclosures will not have an impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements or disclosures with regard to financing receivables.

FASB ASC 810

In January 2010, the FASB issued a clarification of scope with regard to accounting for noncontrolling interest in consolidation. The Company adopted the original guidance as of the beginning of its annual reporting period beginning on September 1, 2009 (fiscal year 2010) and for all subsequent interim and annual periods. The adoption of this amendment did not have a material effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations. In May 2010, the Company purchased the remaining 5% noncontrolling interest of its Trinidad subsidiary. The Company recorded the change in the ownership interest as an equity transaction, adjusting additional paid-in capital for the difference between the fair value of consideration paid less the book value of the noncontrolling interest (see Note 12 - Acquisition of Noncontrolling Interest).

FASB ASC 810

In December 2009, the FASB amended guidance and implemented changes regarding how the process by which a reporting entity determines when an entity that is insufficiently capitalized or is not controlled through voting (or similar rights) should be consolidated. The determination of whether a reporting entity is required to consolidate another entity is based on, among other things, the other entity's purpose and design, and the reporting entity's ability to direct the activities that most significantly impact the other entity's economic performance. The guidance also requires a reporting entity to provide additional disclosures about its involvement with variable interest entities and any significant changes in risk exposure due to that involvement. A reporting entity will be required to disclose how its involvement with a variable interest entity affects the reporting entity's financial statements. The Company is required to adopt this guidance as of the beginning of its first annual reporting period that begins after November 15, 2009, which is fiscal year 2011 for the Company. The adoption of the standard did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Seasonality

Historically, the Company's merchandising businesses have experienced holiday retail seasonality in their markets. In addition to seasonal fluctuations, the Company's operating results fluctuate quarter-to-quarter as a result of economic and political events in markets served by the Company, the timing of holidays, weather, the timing of shipments, product mix, and currency effects on the cost of U.S.-sourced products which may make these products more or less expensive in local currencies and therefore more or less affordable. Because of such fluctuations, the results of operations of any quarter are not indicative of the results that may be achieved for a full fiscal year or any future quarter. In addition, there can be no assurance that the Company's future results will be consistent with past results or the projections of securities analysts.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

The Company, primarily through wholly owned subsidiaries, conducts operations primarily in Latin America and the Caribbean, and as such is subject to both economic and political instabilities that cause volatility in foreign currency exchange rates or weak economic conditions. As of November 30, 2010, the Company had a total of 28 consolidated warehouse clubs operating in 11 foreign countries and one U.S. territory, 21 of which operate under currencies other than the U.S. dollar. For the three months ended November 30, 2010 and 2009, approximately 79% and 78% of the Company's net warehouse club sales were in foreign currencies. The Company may enter into additional foreign countries in the future or open additional locations in existing countries, which may increase the percentage of net warehouse sales denominated in foreign currencies.

Foreign currencies in most of the countries where the Company operates have historically devalued against the U.S. dollar and are expected to continue to devalue. For example, during fiscal years 2009 and 2008, the currencies in Guatemala and Jamaica experienced an 11% and a 23% devaluation, respectively. However, this devaluation trend was reversed in fiscal year 2010, as currencies in Costa Rica, Jamaica, and Guatemala experienced a 14%, 4% and 3% strengthening of their currencies, respectively, between the end of fiscal year 2009 and the end of fiscal year 2010. For the three months ended November 30, 2010 the currencies in Costa Rica and Guatemala continued to experience 0.3% and 0.9% strengthening of their currencies, respectively. For the three months ended November 30, 2010 currencies in Jamaica and Colombia experienced an 0.7% and 5.1% devaluation, respectively. There can be no assurance that the Company will not experience any other materially adverse effects on the Company's business, financial condition, operating results, cash flow or liquidity, from currency devaluations in other countries.

Foreign exchange transaction gains/(losses), which are included as a part of the costs of goods sold in the consolidated statement of income, were approximately $378,000 and $383,000 for the three months ended November 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively. Translation adjustment gains/(losses) from the Company's share of subsidiaries and investment in affiliates that use a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, resulting from the translation of the assets and liabilities of these companies into U.S. dollars, were approximately ($198,000) and $152,000 for the three months ended November 30, 2010 and 2009, respectively. For the three months ended November 30, 2010 and 2009, gains/(losses) on the fair value of interest rate swaps designated as effective hedges recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income/(loss) were approximately $50,000 and ($71,000), net of tax, respectively.

The following is a listing of the countries or territories where the Company currently operates and their respective currencies, as of November 30, 2010:

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in our Exchange Act reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the timelines specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decision regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can only provide reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives, and in reaching a reasonable level of assurance, management necessarily was required to apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures. Also, we have investments in certain unconsolidated entities. Because we do not control or manage those entities, our control procedures with respect to those entities were substantially more limited than those we maintain with respect to our consolidated subsidiaries.

As required by SEC Rules 13a-15(e) or 15d-15(e), we carried out an evaluation as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures. Based on the foregoing, our Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level.

In the ordinary course of business, we review our system of internal control over financial reporting and make changes to our systems and processes to improve controls and increase efficiency, while ensuring that we maintain an effective internal control environment. Changes may include such activities as implementing new, more efficient systems and automating manual processes. There has been no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) or 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) during our most recently completed fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

The certifications required by Section 302 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 are filed as Exhibit 31.1 and 31.2 to this report.
