YORK WATER COMPANY ANNOUNCES
RECORD EARNINGS FOR 2000

York, Pennsylvania, March 2, 2001: The York Water Company's (Nasdaq: YORW) President, William T. Morris, announced today that the Company has achieved record operating revenues and net income for the year 2000. Improved revenues and net income are attributed to customer growth, cost containments implemented by the Company, and price increases which became effective October 1, 1999.

Edgar Filing: YORK WATER CO - Form 8-K

President Morris reported that the operating revenues of $18,481,163 were up 5.5% and that net income of $3,757,787 increased 19.1% compared to 1999.

During the year the Company spent over $6.4 million on construction projects, primarily on its water distribution system to expand its service territory.

Operating revenues for the fourth quarter increased $294,567 or 6.8% over the fourth quarter 1999. Net income for the fourth quarter increased $53,642 or 1.8% compared to the fourth quarter 1999 primarily due to the increase in operating revenues.

The Company currently projects that earnings during the first quarter of 2001 will exceed the levels recorded during the first quarter of 2000 by over 5%, and year-end earnings for 2001 will exceed the levels recorded for the year 2000 by over 3%.

This press release contains forward-looking statements which management believes to be reasonable as of today's date. Actual results may differ significantly because of risks and uncertainties which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the Company's control. Among them are adverse weather conditions, regulatory policies, interest rates, general economic conditions within the Company's service territory and other factors generally beyond the Company's control. The Company undertakes no obligation to release revisions to its forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances occurring after today's date.
