Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 12, 2013, Chicago Bridge & Iron Company N.V. (the “Company”) announced the appointment of Patrick K. Mullen as the Company’s Executive Vice President and Operating Group President of Engineering, Construction and Maintenance.

The Company’s Supervisory Board of Directors approved the appointment of Mr. Mullen to this position on December 5, 2013. Pursuant to the instruction to paragraph (c) of Item 5.02, the Company delayed filing this report on Form 8-K until after the Company first publicly announced such appointment by press release dated December 12, 2013. Attached as Exhibit 99.1 is a copy of the press release, which is incorporated by reference herein.

Mr. Mullen, age 49, previously served as Executive Vice President, Corporate Development of the Company. He joined the Company in 2007 through the company’s acquisition of Lummus Global, which he joined in 1998. Prior to his current role, Mr. Mullen was Senior Vice President, Business Development for Lummus Technology. He previously held several positions at Lummus Technology, including roles in technology sales, technology business group management and head of technology sales/marketing. Mr. Mullen has been involved in the refining and petrochemical technology business since 1986. He spent the first 12 years of his career at UOP, where he held various positions in research and development, technical service, technology sales and technology management. Mr. Mullen earned a bachelor’s degree in chemical engineering from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University.
