On June 1, 2015, Alexander W. Pease, a member of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of WhiteHorse Finance, Inc. (the “Company”), resigned from the Board effective as of June 1, 2015. Mr. Pease has served as an independent director of the Company since 2012, and his term as director was scheduled to expire at the Company’s 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Prior to his resignation, Mr. Pease also served as the Chairman of the Compensation Committee and as a member of the Audit Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Company. Mr. Pease’s decision to resign from the Board was a result of his acceptance of a new position with an employer that prohibits its employees from serving on public boards and was not due to any dispute or disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices.

Pursuant to the Company’s Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, a vacancy on the Board may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, and any director elected to fill a vacancy will serve for the remainder of the term. The Company’s Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is in the process of identifying a director nominee to replace Mr. Pease.
