PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2004 could not be filed within the prescribed time period for the reasons described below.

Additional effort and time was required for the finance team of the Company's PeterStar business venture to prepare, finalize and submit its final US GAAP financial results to the Company's corporate finance team. Specifically, additional time and effort was required to complete the PeterStar income tax provision and to finalize the accounting and reporting related to its acquisition of several businesses during the quarter ended June 30, 2004.

As a result of the delay in the submission of the PeterStar US GAAP financial reports, the Company's corporate finance team has not been able to complete its review and analysis of the PeterStar financial results, and as a result, has not been able to finalize either the Company's consolidated financial statements or management's discussion and analysis of the Company's financial condition and results of operations.

Accordingly, the registrant is unable to file its Form 10-Q in the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense.

If answer is no, identify report(s). /X/ Yes / / No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? /X/ Yes / / No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due to the Company's restructuring initiatives since first quarter 2003, including sales of non-core businesses and reductions in corporate overhead cash burn-rate, the Company anticipates a significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year. However, since the Company's corporate finance team has not yet completed its review of the PeterStar business venture's US GAAP financial results for the quarter ended June 30, 2004 and because the PeterStar business venture represents such a significant portion of the Company's consolidated financial results, the Company cannot readily provide a reasonable estimate of the Company's results for the quarter ended June 30, 2004.
