Item 8.01. Other Events

On October 3, 2013, Takeda Pharmaceutical Company Limited, the parent company of Nycomed GmbH (“Takeda-Nycomed”), delivered notice of termination of its worldwide licensing agreement (the “Agreement”) with Immunomedics, Inc. (the “Company”) to develop, manufacture and commercialize veltuzumab for the treatment of all non-cancer indications. Takeda-Nycomed terminated the Agreement subsequent to the Company’s filing of arbitration proceedings concerning delays in Takeda-Nycomed’s development of veltuzumab, which the Company argued was a material breach of the Agreement. In response to the Company’s claim for damages for the delays, Takeda-Nycomed made certain counterclaims against the Company.

On December 16, 2014, the Company was notified that the arbitrator awarded no money to either party and the award was in full settlement of all claims and counterclaims submitted to arbitration. All rights to veltuzumab have reverted back to the Company as a result of the termination.
