LLOYDS BANKING GROUP: CHANGES TO BOARD

Lloyds Banking Group is pleased to announce the appointment of Sara Weller as a non-executive director. Ms Weller will join the Board with effect from 1 February 2012 and will serve as a member of the Remuneration and the Risk Committees.

Commenting on Ms Weller's appointment, Sir Winfried Bischoff, Chairman, said: "We are delighted to welcome Sara to the Board and look forward to working with her. Her career has been characterised by a strong advocacy of customers and of the application of new technology such as the internet, both of which directly support our strategy. In addition, her background in a range of retail and associated sectors will enhance the diversity of perspectives on our Board."

Sir Julian Horn-Smith has informed the Group of his intention to retire from the Board at the Annual General Meeting in May 2012 and will therefore not stand for re-election as a Director.

Sir Win said: "The Board and I would like to thank Julian for his valuable contribution to the Board over a period of many years in particular for his perspective to our deliberations on technology, marketing and how best to serve customers. We wish him well for the future and shall miss his advice."

Truett Tate, Executive Director for Wholesale, has decided to retire from the Group at the Annual General Meeting in May 2012 and will therefore not seek re-election. Sir Win said: "I would like to thank Truett for his significant contribution to the Group for over eight years in a number of senior roles. He has been the quintessential client advocate as well as a great ambassador for many of our corporate responsibility and charitable programmes. I much enjoyed working with him and we wish him well for the future."
