Item 1.01. ENTRY INTO MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On February 12, 2010, Northwest Pipe Company (the Company ) and Bank of America, N.A., as Administrative Agent, entered into a Third Amendment to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement Amendment ). The Credit Agreement Amendment amends the Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated May 31, 2007, as amended to date (the Credit Agreement ). The Credit Agreement Amendment fixes the amount of the revolving loan, swing line loan and letters of credit available under the Credit Agreement at an aggregate of $125 million, and reflects increases in the interest rates charged on outstanding balances. The Credit Agreement Amendment also waives compliance as of December 31, 2009 with the covenants in the Credit Agreement related to the Consolidated Senior Leverage Ratio, Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio and Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, and makes certain changes in the application, method of calculation and amounts of these covenants, including: (i) amends the definition of, and suspends the application of, the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio covenant for the first three quarters of 2010; (ii) relaxes the Consolidated Senior Leverage Ratio covenant for the first three quarters of 2010; and (iii) relaxes the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio covenant for the first two quarters of 2010. For purposes of calculating the Consolidated Senior Leverage Ratio and the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio for the first three quarters of 2010, the Credit Agreement Amendment changes the method of measuring EBITDA from a trailing twelve-month measurement to a year-to-date annualized measurement. The Credit Agreement Amendment also provides for new financial covenants relating to Minimum Consolidated EBITDA and to Rental and Operating Lease Expense. The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement Amendment, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 to this Report, and is incorporated herein by reference.

On February 12, 2010, the Company and Prudential Investment Management, Inc. and certain of its affiliates entered into a Third Amendment to Amended and Restated Note Purchase and Private Shelf Agreement (the Note Purchase Agreement Amendment ). The Note Purchase Agreement Amendment amends the Amended and Restated Note Purchase and Private Shelf Agreement dated as of May 31, 2007, as amended to date (the Note Purchase Agreement ). The Note Purchase Agreement Amendment reflects increases in the interest rates charged on outstanding balances. The Note Purchase Agreement Amendment also reflects the relaxation of the Consolidated Total Debt to EBITDA Ratio covenant and the Consolidated Senior Funded Debt to EBITDA Ratio covenant for the quarter ended December 31, 2009, and the suspension of the application of the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio covenant for the first three quarters of 2010. For purposes of calculating the Consolidated Total Debt to EBITDA Ratio and the Consolidated Senior Funded Debt to EBITDA Ratio for the first three quarters of 2010, the Note Purchase Agreement Amendment changes the method of measuring EBITDA from a trailing twelve-month measurement to a year-to-date annualized measurement. The Note Purchase Agreement Amendment also provides for new financial covenants relating to Minimum Consolidated EBITDA and Maximum Consolidated Rental and Operating Lease Expense, and makes other changes to generally conform to the Credit Agreement Amendment. The foregoing description of the Note Purchase Agreement Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Note Purchase Agreement Amendment, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.2 to this Report, and is incorporated herein by reference.
