Corvex and Related to Engage in Active Dialogue with Fellow Shareholders to Identify

Truly Independent Trustees

NEW YORK, November 25, 2013 Corvex Management LP (Corvex) and Related Fund Management, LLC (Related), whose separately managed investment funds collectively own approximately 9.6% of the outstanding shares of Commonwealth REIT (NYSE:CWH), today announced that they have delivered a formal notice to Commonwealth and the Arbitration Panel of their intent to pursue a consent solicitation to remove the entire board of trustees in accordance with the rules implemented by the Arbitration Panel ruling on November 18, 2013.

To advance the solicitation effort, Corvex and Related delivered to Commonwealth a request for a shareholder list to communicate with their fellow shareholders.

Over the coming days, Corvex and Related will engage in an active dialogue with shareholders to identify a truly independent slate of highly qualified nominees who are prepared to work on behalf of all Commonwealth shareholders.

Keith Meister of Corvex and Jeff T. Blau of Related said: These actions represent the important first step towards removing the board of trustees and empowering shareholders to take back Commonwealth. No amount of rhetoric around inadequate, to-be-proposed governance enhancements changes the fact that Commonwealth's board is run by the same trustees and management team responsible for what we believe is an abysmal track record of underperformance and value destruction.

We believe that the new solicitation process will enable shareholders to elect truly independent and accountable trustees in the near term. Over the last several months, we have had discussions with numerous shareholders regarding potential nominees and plan to continue those discussions over the coming days. We ask our fellow shareholders to contact us promptly with any suggestions regarding potential nominees.

The three-member Arbitration Panel expressly prohibited the parties from taking any action that is intended or designed to impede or frustrate, or that has the effect of impeding or frustrating, the new solicitation process or any action that would interfere with implementation of the ruling in any way. The Arbitration Panel will also remain available to resolve any issues or disputes which may arise regarding compliance with and implementation of the new solicitation rules.

The full text of the Arbitration Panel's ruling which lays out the consent solicitation process can be found at www.shareholdersforcommonwealth.com.

Additional Information Regarding the Solicitation

Corvex Management LP and Related Fund Management, LLC will file a consent solicitation statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) to solicit consents to remove the entire board of trustees of Commonwealth REIT (the Company). Investors and security holders are urged to read the preliminary consent solicitation statement in its entirety, and the definitive consent solicitation statement and other relevant documents when they become available, because they will contain important information regarding the solicitation. The preliminary and definitive solicitation statement and all other relevant documents will be available, free of charge, on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov.

The following persons are participants in connection with the consent and proxy solicitation of the Company's shareholders: Corvex Management LP, Keith Meister, Related Fund Management, LLC, Related Real Estate Recovery Fund GP-A, LLC, Related Real Estate Recovery Fund GP, LP, Related Real Estate Recovery Fund, LP, RRERF Acquisition, LLC, Jeff T. Blau, Richard O. Toole and David R. Johnson. Information regarding the participants in the solicitation and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, to the extent applicable, is available in the consent solicitation statement filed with the SEC on April 10, 2013, as supplemented by Supplement No. 1 filed with the SEC on April 12, 2013 and Supplement No. 2 filed with the SEC on June 20, 2013.
