Dear Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of stockholders of Colony Financial, Inc. (the Company) to be held at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Time, on _____, 2015 at _____ (the Special Meeting).

At the Special Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon proposals that will allow us to acquire substantially all of the real estate investment management businesses and operations of Colony Capital, LLC (Colony Capital), the parent company of our external manager (the Combination). The Combination is described briefly below and in greater detail in the enclosed materials, which we urge you to read carefully.

The Company and Colony Capital, the parent company of the Company's external manager, have signed a definitive agreement for the acquisition by the Company of substantially all of Colony Capital's real estate investment management businesses and operations for aggregate potential consideration of up to 3,937,147 shares of common stock of the Company, newly reclassified as Class A common stock (Class A Common Stock), 665,593 shares of newly created Class B common stock of the Company (Class B Common Stock) and 25,215,854 units of membership interest (OP Units) in a subsidiary of the Company.

The aggregate potential consideration consists of:

fixed upfront consideration to be paid in a combination of 2,826,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, 566,635 shares of Class B Common Stock and 21,437,297 OP Units; and contingent consideration to be paid in a combination of up to an additional 1,111,147 shares of Class A Common Stock, 98,958 shares of Class B Common Stock and 3,778,558 OP Units, subject to multi-year performance targets for the achievement of certain funds from operations (FFO) per share targets and capital-raising thresholds from the funds management businesses. If the minimum performance target for either of the FFO or the capital-raising from funds management metric is not met or exceeded, the contingent consideration paid in respect of the other metric would not be paid out in full.

Up to 151,520 shares of Class A Common Stock, 13,494 shares of Class B Common Stock and 515,258 OP Units may be reallocated to upfront consideration if the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 10 trading days prior to the tenth calendar day preceding the date of the Special Meeting were to exceed $24.05, with the full amount reallocated if such volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock were to equal or exceed $27.05.

The combined company will be led by the same highly experienced management team that has been integral to the growth and success of our Company and Colony Capital. Our Executive Chairman, Thomas J. Barrack, Jr., and our Chief Executive Officer and President, Richard B. Saltzman, have both entered into five-year employment agreements with the Company to become effective at the closing of the Combination to continue in such roles and to oversee and manage the day-to-day business operations of the group. Following the consummation of the Combination, we will no longer be managed externally and will become an internally managed real estate investment trust.

Each of our officers is an employee of or otherwise affiliated with Colony Capital and certain of its affiliates. These relationships result in those officers having material financial interests in the Combination. To address these potential conflicts of interests, our Board of Directors (the Board) has formed a special committee comprised entirely of independent and disinterested directors in connection with the proposed Combination (the Special Committee). No member of the Special Committee is affiliated with Colony Capital and none has a financial interest in the proposed Combination that differs from that of our stockholders. Our Board has authorized the Special Committee to review, consider and negotiate the terms and conditions of the Combination and to recommend to our entire Board whether to pursue the Combination and, if so, on what terms and conditions. In evaluating the Combination, the Special Committee has engaged independent legal and financial advisors and received a fairness opinion from its independent financial advisor, as more fully described in the accompanying proxy statement.

You are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

1. to approve the issuance, pursuant to the Contribution and Implementation Agreement, dated as of December 23, 2014 (the Contribution Agreement), and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, dated as of December 23, 2014 (the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement), of (i) shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, (ii) shares of the Company's Class B Common Stock, and shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued upon conversion of such shares of Class B Common Stock, and (iii) OP Units in Colony Capital Operating Company, LLC, a subsidiary of the Company (OP), and shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued upon redemption of such OP Units in certain circumstances in each case to the applicable transferor and its affiliates and related persons in the Combination, which includes certain of the Company's directors and officers or affiliates thereof (collectively, the Issuances);
2. to approve amendments to the Company's Articles of Amendment and Restatement (the Charter) relating to (i) the designation of, and the setting of the express terms, preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends or other distributions, qualifications and terms and conditions of conversion and redemption of, the Company's Class B Common Stock, which entitles the holders to thirty-six and one-half (36.5) votes per share on all matters on which Class A common stockholders are entitled to vote and is designed to give the holders thereof voting rights that are proportional to the economic interests in the Company attributable to such holders or their affiliates that are issued pursuant to the Contribution Agreement in the form of OP Units, and the corresponding re-designation of the Company's common stock as Class A Common Stock, and conforming and immaterial changes and modifications related thereto, and (ii) revising the Company's stock ownership limitations to (a) lower the common stock ownership limit from 9.8% to % of value or share number, whichever is more restrictive, subject to a grandfather provision applicable to certain pre-existing holdings, and (b) establish a separate designated investment entity ownership limit of 9.9% in value or share number, whichever is more restrictive, with respect to certain investment entities and, in each case, conforming and immaterial changes and modifications related thereto ((i) and (ii) collectively, the Charter Amendments); and
3. to approve the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate in the discretion of the chairman of the Special Meeting, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve either the Issuances or the Charter Amendments (the Adjournment Proposal).

After careful consideration and the recommendation of the Special Committee that the Issuances and the Charter Amendments are advisable to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders, THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE TO (1) APPROVE THE ISSUANCES, (2) APPROVE THE CHARTER AMENDMENTS, AND (3) APPROVE THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

The accompanying proxy statement provides a detailed description of these proposals, including information about the Company, OP, Colony Capital, the Combination, the Issuances, the Charter Amendments and the Special Meeting.

If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your vote will be counted as a vote FOR approval of the Issuances, FOR approval of the Charter Amendments and FOR approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

Granting a proxy will not prevent you from voting your shares in person if you choose to attend the Special Meeting.

Very truly yours,

John L. Steffens

Independent Director and Chairman of the Special Committee of the Board of Directors of Colony Financial, Inc.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND VOTING

Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

We have sent you this proxy statement because the Board is soliciting your proxy to vote at the Special Meeting. You are invited to attend the Special Meeting to vote in person on the proposals described in this proxy statement. However, you do not need to attend the Special Meeting to vote your shares. Instead, you may simply complete, sign and return the enclosed proxy card as described below.

What am I voting on?

At the Special Meeting, you will be asked to vote on the following proposals:

1. to approve the issuance, pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, of (i) shares of the Class A Common Stock, (ii) shares of the Class B Common Stock and shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued upon conversion of such shares of Class B Common Stock, and (iii) OP Units, and shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued upon redemption of such OP Units in certain circumstances, in each case to the applicable transferor and its affiliates and related persons in the Combination, which includes certain of the Company's directors and officers or affiliates thereof;

3. to approve the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate in the discretion of the chairman of the Special Meeting, to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve either the Issuances or the Charter Amendments.

Why is the Company proposing to acquire substantially all of the real estate investment management businesses and operations of Colony Capital, LLC?

We believe that we can acquire substantially all of the real estate investment management businesses and operations of Colony Capital with minimal disruption to our operations and with compelling benefits to the Company and our stockholders. The Combination will benefit our stockholders, partly through anticipated reduced expense in the combined general, administrative and advisory management fee expense categories, improved cash flow and a simplified corporate structure.

We believe that potential benefits of the Combination include:

the Combination being accretive to net income and FFO per share;

the internalization of the Company's external manager resulting in an elimination of perceived or actual conflicts of interest, alignment of the interests of certain of our officers and directors with those of our current stockholders and the simplification our corporate structure;

the Company's ability, through the internalization of our external manager, to control key functions that are important to the growth of our business;

efficiencies arising from the elimination of profits that were previously being realized by the manager and the Company's ability to raise additional equity without a proportionate increase in the cost of managing the Company;

the ability to deploy managed third-party, fee-bearing capital and reduce reliance on public equity capital;

the enhanced ability to attract new investors to the Company and raise private capital;

a reduction in the Company's operating expenses, including as a result of replacing management fees paid to Colony Capital with directly incurred costs;

enhanced revenue to the Company from the addition of Colony Capital's in-place, fee-generating arrangements with third parties;

the high growth potential of the investment management business; asset level returns on investments made through future investment funds should be enhanced by third-party management fees and carried interest; and diminished reliance on the public markets to raise capital to meet the Company's investment and other needs.

What are the potential risks relating to the Company involved in the Combination?

In addition to those risk factors listed in "Risk Factors" beginning on page 27 and discussed elsewhere in this proxy statement, the Combination presents some potential disadvantages and risks to our Company and its stockholders, including:

potential conflicts of interest in the Combination between the Company and our directors and current and future executive officers;

the significant costs involved in connection with completing the Issuances and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement;

the potential liabilities associated with the direct employment of personnel; and

the potential liabilities that the Company may inherit from Colony Capital as a result of the Combination that would not be covered by the indemnities in the Contribution Agreement.

What is the effect of the Combination?

Upon consummation of the Combination, we will become an integrated real estate investment management platform. We will no longer be externally managed by Colony Financial Manager, LLC and will become an internally managed company. In addition, we will be able to integrate and potentially expand Colony Capital's existing investment management business and, as a result, diversify our revenue sources by receiving all in-place fees payable to Colony Capital from the various programs it is currently managing. We will also be able to sponsor new investment vehicles as general partner under the Colony name and receive all fees. In connection with the Combination, the Company will receive carried interest from future investment programs (net of carried interest that we expect will be allocated to members of our management team, investment professionals and other individuals, which, consistent with market terms, we expect to be 40% of the carried interest earned).

In addition, the Company will change its name from Colony Financial, Inc. to Colony Capital, Inc., but the Company's Class A Common Stock will continue to be listed on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) under the ticker symbol CLNY.

How were the terms of the Combination determined?

The terms of the Combination were determined through negotiation between the principals of Colony Capital and the Special Committee, comprised of independent and disinterested directors who are not affiliated with Colony Capital. To assist with this process, the Special Committee hired its own independent financial advisor, Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC (Morgan Stanley), and its own independent counsel, Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz (Wachtell Lipton).

On December 22, 2014, Morgan Stanley delivered a written fairness opinion stating that, based upon and subject to the qualifications, limitations and assumptions of the fairness opinion, and, as of the date of the fairness opinion, the consideration to be paid by us pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement is fair to the Company from a financial viewpoint.

Are there any conflicts in connection with the Combination?

Yes. Many of the executive officers of Colony Capital are either our directors or executive officers. In connection with the structuring of the Combination, we have engaged in transactions with these individuals, as set forth in this proxy statement. These individuals may have different interests in the consummation of the Combination than the interests of our other stockholders.

How did you address these conflicts?

In May 2014, our Board agreed to form the Special Committee, which is comprised of independent and disinterested directors, to explore strategic alternatives for managing our Company, including the potential internalization of management, as well as ways to further diversify our revenue sources. The Special Committee hired its own independent financial advisor, Morgan Stanley, and its own independent counsel, Wachtell Lipton, to assist it in this process. After considering other alternatives and discussing and negotiating the terms and conditions of the Combination for seven months, the Special Committee determined that the Combination is fair and reasonable to, and in the best interests of, our Company and its stockholders.

What kind of company is Colony Capital?

Edgar Filing: Colony Financial, Inc. - Form PRE 14A

Colony Capital is a privately held, independent, global real estate investment firm founded in 1991 by Thomas J. Barrack, Jr. (Mr. Barrack). Colony Capital's business is the sponsorship and management of What are Colony Capital's revenue streams?

What would the management team look like after the Combination is completed?

We expect that the Company will be led by the same highly experienced management team, all of which have been integral to the growth and success of our Company and Colony Capital to date. Mr. Barrack will continue to be our Executive Chairman, Mr. Richard B. Saltzman will continue to be our Chief Executive Officer and President, Mr. Ronald M. Sanders will continue to be our Chief Legal Officer, Mr. Darren J. Tangen will continue to be our Chief Financial Officer and Mr. Kevin P. Traenkle will continue to be our Chief Investment Officer, but in each case will, following consummation of the Combination, be employed by the Company. We expect that post-Combination, substantially all of Colony Capital's approximately 300 employees will become our employees. After the Closing of the Combination, we, through our subsidiaries, will have over 300 employees in 13 offices worldwide.

Both Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman have entered into five-year employment agreements with the Company to become effective at the Closing. We anticipate that Messrs. Sanders, Tangen and Traenkle will each also enter into three-year employment agreements with the Company, at or prior to the Closing, to become effective at the Closing.

What are the Issuances?

In connection with the Combination, we will issue up to approximately 3.94 million shares of Class A Common Stock and up to 665,593 shares of Class B Common Stock, and OP will issue up to approximately 25.22 million OP Units. Each share of Class B Common Stock will be, at the holder's option, convertible into one share of Class A Common Stock. Each OP Unit will be redeemable, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the operating agreement of OP, at the holder's option, for cash equal to the average closing price of Class A Common Stock for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date we receive a notice of redemption; provided, that we may choose, at our sole discretion, to satisfy this redemption right by exchanging such OP Units for shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis, in lieu of cash. As of the record date, there were _____ shares of our common stock outstanding.

What are the Charter Amendments?

We have agreed in the Contribution Agreement to make certain amendments to our Charter, which consist of changes that are intended to accomplish two primary purposes:

to create and designate, and set the express terms, preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends or other distributions, qualifications and terms and conditions of conversion and redemption of, the Company's Class B Common Stock and make conforming and immaterial changes and modifications related thereto; and to revise the Company's stock ownership limitations to (i) lower the common stock ownership limit from 9.8% to % of value or share number, whichever is more restrictive, subject to a grandfather provision applicable to certain pre-existing holdings, and (ii) to establish a separate designated investment entity ownership limit of 9.9% of value or share number, whichever is more restrictive, with respect to certain investment entities and, in each case, make conforming and immaterial changes and modifications related thereto.

In addition, if the proposed Charter Amendments are approved by our stockholders, we will change the Company's name from Colony Financial, Inc. to Colony Capital, Inc. If our stockholders approve the Charter Amendments, we will implement such amendments through the adoption of an amended and restated charter (the Amended and Restated Charter), which would become effective upon filing with, and acceptance for record by, the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of the State of Maryland.

What is the Adjournment Proposal?

The Special Meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to permit further solicitation of proxies to obtain additional votes in favor of either the Issuances or the Charter Amendments. If, at the Special Meeting, the number of shares of common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the proposal to approve either the Issuances or the Charter Amendment is insufficient to approve such proposal, the Company intends to adjourn the Special Meeting in order to enable the Board to solicit additional proxies to approve such proposal. In addition, as permitted by the Maryland General Corporation Law, prior to the Special Meeting being convened, it may be postponed by the Board to a date not more than 120 days after the record date for the Special Meeting. Moreover, pursuant to the Company's bylaws, the chairman of the Special Meeting may adjourn the Special Meeting without any action by the stockholders and without regard to whether a quorum is present. We are asking our stockholders to approve this adjournment if necessary or appropriate in the discretion of the Chairman of the Special Meeting.

What are the Board's recommendations?

After careful consideration and based in part on the recommendation of the Special Committee, the Special Committee and the Board recommend that you vote:

FOR approving the Issuances;

FOR approving the Charter Amendments; and

FOR approving the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate.

What vote is required to approve the Issuances, the Charter Amendments and the Adjournment Proposal?

The Issuances. The affirmative vote of (i) a majority of the votes cast by holders of our common stock entitled to vote on such matters, and (ii) a majority of the votes cast by holders of our common stock entitled to vote on such matters, excluding votes of shares cast by CC Holdings, Colony Capital, CCH I, CRP and their respective subsidiaries and Affiliates, is required to approve the Issuances. For the purpose of the vote on this proposal, abstentions will be counted as votes cast and will have the same effect as votes against the proposal, while broker non-votes and other shares not voted will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote. However, both abstentions and broker non-votes will be considered present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

The Charter Amendments. The affirmative vote of (i) two-thirds of the shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to be cast, and (ii) two-thirds of each of the shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to be cast, excluding shares held by CC Holdings, Colony Capital, CCH I, CRP and their respective subsidiaries and Affiliates, is required to approve the Charter Amendments. For the purpose of the vote on this proposal, abstentions, broker non-votes and other shares not voted will have the same effect as votes against the proposal, although they will be considered present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

The Adjournment Proposal. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast is required for approval of the Adjournment Proposal. For the purpose of the vote on this proposal, abstentions, broker non-votes and other votes not cast will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote, although they will be considered present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Who is entitled to vote at the Special Meeting?

Only holders of record of our common stock at the close of business on _____, 2015, the record date of the Special Meeting, are entitled to receive notice of and vote at the Special Meeting. Our common stock constitutes the only class of securities entitled to vote at the Special Meeting.

What are the voting rights of stockholders?

Each share of common stock outstanding on the record date entitles its holder to cast one vote on each matter to be voted on.

Who can attend the Special Meeting?

All holders of our common stock at the close of business on _____, 2015, the record date of the Special Meeting, or their duly appointed proxies, are authorized to attend the Special Meeting. If you attend the Special Meeting, you may be asked to present valid picture identification, such as a driver's license or passport, before being admitted. Cameras, recording devices and other electronic devices will not be permitted at the Special Meeting.

Please also note that if you hold your shares in street name (that is, your shares are held through a bank, broker, trustee or other nominee), you will need to bring a copy of a recent bank or brokerage statement evidencing your ownership of our common stock.

Are holders of our common stock entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal?

No. Under Maryland law, stockholders will not have appraisal rights in connection with the Combination or the stockholder vote to approve the Issuances and the Charter Amendments.

What will constitute a quorum at the Special Meeting?

The presence at the Special Meeting, in person or by proxy, of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on _____, 2015 will constitute a quorum. We will include abstentions and broker non-votes (as described below) in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the Special Meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum at the Special Meeting. Under applicable rules of the NYSE (the exchange on which shares of our common stock are traded), banks, brokers or other nominees holding shares of our common stock for beneficial owners in nominee or street name must vote those shares according to the specific instructions they receive from the beneficial owners. However, banks, brokers or other nominees holding shares for a beneficial owner who do not receive voting instructions from the beneficial owner may not under the NYSE's rules have discretionary voting power on non-routine matters. In these cases, if no specific voting instructions are provided by the beneficial owner, the broker may not vote on non-routine proposals. This results in a broker non-vote. Broker non-votes may arise in the context of voting for approval of the Issuances and the Charter Amendments, because such proposals are considered non-routine matters. Unless specific voting instructions are provided by the beneficial owner, the bank, broker or other nominee will be unable to vote for approval of the Issuances or the Charter Amendments. Accordingly, we urge stockholders who hold their shares through a bank, broker or other nominee to provide voting instructions so that your shares of common stock may be voted on these proposals.

Approval of the Adjournment Proposal is considered to be a routine matter under applicable NYSE rules. A bank, broker or other nominee may generally vote on routine matters and, therefore, no broker non-votes are expected to exist in connection with this proposal.

As of the record date, there were _____ shares of our common stock outstanding.

How do I vote shares that are held in my name?

You may vote by any of the following means:

In Person at the Special Meeting: You may vote by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person.

By Mail: You may vote by mail by completing and signing your proxy card and returning it in the enclosed, prepaid and addressed envelope.

How do I vote shares that are held by my bank, broker or other nominee?

If your shares are held by a bank, broker or other nominee, you should follow the instructions provided to you by the bank, broker or other nominee. Although most banks and brokers now offer voting by mail, telephone and on the internet, availability and specific procedures will depend on such bank, broker or other nominee's individual voting arrangements.

How are votes counted?

If the accompanying proxy card is properly signed and returned to us and not subsequently revoked, it will be voted as directed by you. If your properly signed proxy card does not provide specific voting instructions, the persons designated as proxy holders on the proxy card will vote (1) FOR the Issuances, (2) FOR the Charter Amendments, and (3) FOR the Adjournment Proposal.

May I revoke my proxy after I return my proxy card?

Yes. You may revoke a previously granted proxy at any time before it is exercised by (i) filing with Mr. Sanders, our Chief Legal Officer and Secretary, a notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or (ii) attending the Special Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Special Meeting alone (without voting by ballot) will not revoke a prior proxy. Notice of revocation or later dated proxies should be sent to the following address: Ronald M. Sanders, Chief Legal Officer and Secretary, Colony Financial, Inc., 2450 Broadway, 6th Floor, Santa Monica, CA 90404.

What rights do I have if I oppose the Combination or any of the Issuances or the Charter Amendments?

You can vote against the Issuances and the Charter Amendments by indicating a vote against the proposals on your proxy card and signing and mailing your proxy card, or by voting against the proposals in person at the Special Meeting. Stockholders are not, however, entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal under Maryland law.

Who pays the cost of soliciting proxies?

The Company will pay the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, our officers, directors and other employees, without additional compensation, may solicit proxies personally or by other appropriate means. It is anticipated that banks, brokers, fiduciaries, custodians and nominees will forward proxy soliciting materials to their respective principals, and that we will reimburse such persons' out-of-pocket expenses. We have retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. at an aggregate estimated cost of $15,000, plus out-of-pocket expenses, to assist in the solicitation of proxies.

What happens if the Special Meeting is postponed or adjourned?

If the Special Meeting is postponed or adjourned, your proxy will still be good and may be voted at the postponed or adjourned Special Meeting. You will be able to change or revoke your proxy until it is voted.

What are the consequences if any of the Issuances or the Charter Amendments are not approved by stockholders?

If either the Issuances or the Charter Amendments are not approved by stockholders, the Combination will not be consummated.

What are the consequences if the Combination is not consummated?

If the Combination is not consummated for any reason, including if stockholders fail to approve either the Issuances or the Charter Amendments, we expect to continue to be managed by Colony Capital, a subsidiary of which would continue to serve as our external manager. We would continue to pay fees and cost reimbursements to Colony Capital under our existing management agreement.

Whom should I call with questions about the matters being voted on at the Special Meeting?

You should call our proxy solicitor, D.F. King & Co., Inc., at (866) 751-6311 (toll-free) if you are a stockholder or, if you are a bank, broker or other nominee, at (212) 269-5550.

How can I find out the results of the voting at the Special Meeting?

Preliminary voting results will be announced at the Special Meeting. The Company will publish the final voting results in a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), which we are required to file within four business days after the Special Meeting.

How can I contact the Company or Colony Capital?

The Company's and Colony Capital's principal executive offices are located at 2450 Broadwayth Floor, Santa Monica, CA 90404; their telephone number is (310) 282-8820.

Even if you currently plan to attend the Special Meeting, we recommend that you also submit your proxy as described above so that your vote will be counted in case you later decide not to attend the Special Meeting. Submitting your proxy in advance of the Special Meeting does not affect your right to attend the Special Meeting and vote in person.

You should rely only on the information provided in, or incorporated into, this proxy statement. We have not authorized anyone to provide you with different or additional information. Overview of the Combination (p. 92)

The following are the principal features of the Combination:

Combination with Colony Capital. OP, currently a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, will acquire substantially all of Colony Capital's real estate investment management business and operations (other than Colony American Homes), as well as ownership of the Colony Mark. We will continue substantially all of the businesses currently conducted by Colony Capital and receive in-place management fees, which accrue in the future and that are payable from the various investment vehicles and funds that Colony Capital has sponsored. Following the Combination, we will be empowered to form and invest as a general partner in new funds under the Colony name and receive management fees and carried interest in connection therewith.

Internally Managed REIT. We will acquire our external manager, Colony Financial Manager, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Colony Capital, and effectively become internally managed. Mr. Barrack, who will continue to serve as our Executive Chairman and the Chairman of our Board following the Combination, and Mr. Saltzman, who will continue to serve as our Chief Executive Officer and a member of our Board following the Combination, have both entered into five-year employment agreements, to become effective at the Closing, with the Company. We expect that, post-Combination, substantially all of Colony Capital's approximately 300 employees will become our employees.

Company Contribution to OP. OP currently holds a substantial majority of the Company's assets and liabilities. In connection with the Combination, OP will acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities of the Company that are not currently held by OP or its subsidiaries. Following the Combination, OP will directly or indirectly hold substantially all of our assets and directly or indirectly conduct substantially all of our business.

Ownership and Management of OP. Immediately following the Combination, we expect that we will directly own approximately % of the aggregate OP Units in OP and the Contributors will directly own, collectively, approximately % of the aggregate OP Units in OP. The Company, as the sole managing member in OP, will have sole responsibility and discretion in the management and control of OP, and the non-managing members of OP, in such capacity, will have no authority to transact business for, or take part in the operations, management or control of, OP.

Consideration to be Paid in the Combination (p. 93)

In connection with the Combination, we will issue up to approximately 3.94 million shares of Class A Common Stock and up to 665,593 shares of Class B Common Stock, and OP will issue up to approximately 25.22 million OP Units. Each share of Class B Common Stock will be, at the holder's option, convertible into one share of Class A Common Stock and will convert automatically into one share of Class A Common Stock upon the transfer of such share or of certain OP Units to one or more non-qualified transferees or any qualified transferee of such share or OP Units ceasing to be a qualified transferee. See Proposal 2(a) Amendment to Create Class B Common Stock beginning on page 86 for a more detailed description of the terms of the Class B Common Stock. Each OP Unit will be redeemable, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the operating agreement of OP, at the holder's option, for cash equal to the average closing price of Class A Common Stock for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date we receive a notice of redemption; provided, that we may choose, at our sole discretion, to satisfy this redemption right by exchanging such OP Units for shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis, in lieu of cash.

The above consideration represented a value of $657.5 million at the time of the announcement of the transaction based on a reference price that equated to $22.05 per share (the Reference Price) (which would have a current value of approximately $732.0 million when using the volume-weighted average closing price on the NYSE of the Company's common stock over a 10-day trading period ending January 20, 2015 of $24.55 (the VWAP)). Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, the Reference Price was used to determine the number of shares and OP Units to be issued to the Contributors and the Mark Transferor in the Combination. The Reference Price was the higher of (x) the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 30 trading days prior to the initial announcement of the transaction, and (y) the third quarter 2014 fair value Company share price, which the parties agreed would be the fair value of the Company's net assets on a per share basis as of September 30, 2014, or $22.05 per share. Because the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 30 trading days prior to the initial announcement of the transaction was lower than $22.05 per share, the Reference Price was $22.05 per share.

The aggregate potential consideration consists of:

fixed upfront consideration to be paid in a combination of up to approximately 2.83 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 566,635 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 21.44 million OP Units, representing a value of $547.5 million at the time of the announcement of the Combination based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value equal to approximately $609.6 million when using the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments as described below; and contingent consideration to be paid in a combination of up to approximately 1.11 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 98,958 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 3.78 million OP Units, representing a value of up to approximately $110.0 million at the time of announcement based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value of up to approximately $122.5 million when using the VWAP), subject to multi-year performance targets for achievement of certain FFO per share targets and capital-raising thresholds from the funds management businesses. If the minimum performance target for either of these metrics is not met or exceeded, a portion of the contingent consideration paid in respect of the other metric would not be paid out in full.

In connection with the Combination, the upfront consideration is subject to upward and downward adjustments at the Closing in respect of cash, indebtedness and net working capital. If the closing adjustment results in an increase to the upfront consideration, such adjustment will, subject to the applicable cap, be paid in cash and to the extent such adjustment exceeds the applicable cap, will increase the number of OP Units to be issued in the Combination. If the closing adjustment results in a decrease to the upfront consideration, such adjustment will reduce the number of OP Units to be issued in the Combination.

Up to 151,520 shares of Class A Common Stock, 13,494 shares of Class B Common Stock and 515,258 OP Units, representing $15 million of the contingent consideration at the time of announcement based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value of approximately $16.7 million when using the VWAP) may be reallocated to upfront consideration if the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 10 trading days prior to the tenth calendar day preceding the date of the Special Meeting were to exceed $24.05, with the full amount reallocated if such volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock were to equal or exceed $27.05. For example, if the 10-day volume-weighted average closing price of our common stock for such period were $24.55 (VWAP) upfront consideration would be increased, and contingent consideration decreased, by 25,253 shares of Class A Common Stock, 2,249 shares of Class B Common Stock, and 85,876 OP Units representing $2.5 million of the re-allocated consideration based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value of approximately $2.7 million when using the VWAP).

The number of shares of Class A Common Stock, shares of Class B Common Stock and OP Units issuable as consideration will be subject to reduction for a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid on its behalf by the Company.

In connection with the Combination, the Company and OP have entered into the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement with the Mark Transferor pursuant to which the Mark Transferor will transfer the Colony Mark to OP in exchange for consideration to be paid in the form of up to 151,355 shares of our Class A Common Stock and up to 665,593 shares of our Class B Common Stock, including (i) fixed upfront consideration with a value of $15 million based on the Reference Price (and $16.7 million based on the VWAP) to be paid at the closing under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, subject to certain adjustments, and (ii) contingent consideration with a value of up to approximately $3 million based on the Reference Price (and $3.4 million based on the VWAP) if earned over time under the same multi-year performance targets required for receipt of the contingent consideration under the Contribution Agreement. Contingent consideration with a value of up to $410,959 based on the Reference Price (and $457,553 based on the VWAP) will be reallocated to upfront consideration if the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 10 trading days prior to the tenth calendar day preceding the date of the Special Meeting were to exceed $24.05.

Table of ContentsAllocation of Consideration to be Paid in the Combination (p. 50)

An illustrative allocation of the upfront consideration and contingent consideration to certain of the Contributors and the Mark Transferor is provided below. Such illustrative allocation does not reflect any adjustment for transaction expenses that may be paid by the Company on behalf of the Contributors and the Mark Transferor or at the Closing, and does not reflect the potential reallocation of contingent consideration to upfront consideration at the Closing.

Regulatory Approval Required for the Combination and Other Regulatory Matters (p. 84)

U.S. Consents. The expiration or termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), is a condition to each party's obligation to complete the Combination. Each of the parties to the Contribution Agreement has pledged to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the waiting period under the HSR Act to expire or terminate. The parties filed the requisite HSR Notification and Report Form and related materials with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice on January 15, 2015.

The registration of a subsidiary of NewCo with the SEC as an investment adviser under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act), is a condition to each party's obligation to complete the Combination. The parties expect to file an application for registration as an investment advisor on Form ADV in the first quarter of 2015. It is anticipated that the registration will become effective 45 days after filing.

Other Consents. Approval from the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority is required for the contribution of the ownership of Colyzeo Investment Management Limited, a subsidiary of Colony Capital, to NewCo, and ministerial consents from certain authorities in Luxembourg and Lebanon must also be sought in connection with the indirect contribution of Colony Luxembourg, S.à.r.l., Colony Capital S.A.R.L., and Colony Capital (Offshore) S.A.L. Colony Capital agreed in the Contribution Agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to seek such approval from the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority. If such approval is denied by the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority, Colony Capital's obligation to obtain such approval will terminate. Colyzeo Investment Management Limited will not be contributed unless we receive the consent of both the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority and the Advisory Committees of Colyzeo Investors, L.P. and Colyzeo Investors II, L.P., although we expect the Company to provide management services to these funds regardless of whether such consents are obtained.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Combination (p. 73)

In considering the recommendation of the Board to vote for the proposal to approve the transactions described in this proxy statement, you should be aware that certain of our directors and executive officers have interests in the transactions that may be different from or in addition to, the interests of our stockholders generally and that may create potential conflicts of interest. These interests include:

the payment of consideration in connection with the Combination to certain of these individuals, including Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Sanders, Tangen and Traenkle, and the entry by the applicable individuals into arrangements relating to the payment of that consideration;

the grant or anticipated grant of membership interests to these individuals in one or more of CC Holdings, CCH I and CCH Management Partners II, LLC (CCH II); and the entry or anticipated entry into employment agreements and restrictive covenant agreements with certain of these individuals, including Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Sanders, Traenkle and Tangen, that will become effective upon the consummation of the Combination.

In addition, you should also be aware that Mr. Barrack owns a controlling interest in, and is the sole managing member of, CC Holdings, which is the managing member and sole member of Colony Capital, and that our current executive officers, Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Sanders, Tangen and Traenkle, are also executive officers or principals of Colony Capital. The respective roles of these individuals in Colony Capital may create additional conflicts of interest in respect of the Combination and the other transactions described in this proxy statement.

The Special Committee was aware of each of these interests in reviewing, considering and negotiating the terms of the Combination and in recommending to the entire Board to pursue the Combination. The Board was also aware of these interests in approving the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the transactions described in this proxy statement, and in recommending the approval of the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and those transactions to the Company's stockholders.

Description of the Combination (p. 92)

On December 23, 2014, we entered into the Contribution Agreement, pursuant to which we will acquire substantially all of the business operated by Colony Capital and its subsidiaries other than certain ownership interests and assets (and the liabilities associated with those interests and assets) held by CC Holdings, Colony Capital and CCH I described below, which we refer to as the CC Retained Assets. The CC Retained Assets include Colony Capital's interest in CAH and certain general partnership interests held by Colony Capital, which are held by CC Holdings, Colony Capital or CCH I through the following entities, which we will not acquire: (i) Colony AH Member LLC, (ii) Manager HoldCo LLC, (iii) CAH Holdings II Onshore GP, LLC, (iv) Colony CRP Managing Member, LLC, (v) CRM, (vi) CRP, (vii) Colony CP Member, LLC, (viii) Colony Global Holdings Parent, LLC, (ix) Colony Capital MENA, LLC, (x) Colony Smeralda Co-Investment Genpar, LLC, (xi) Colony Axle Co-Investment Genpar, LLC, (xii) Colony Milestone Co-Investment Genpar, LLC, (xiii) any subsidiaries of any of the foregoing, and (xiv) Colony

Capital.

On the same date, we also entered in the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, pursuant to which the Mark Transferor will transfer the Colony Mark to OP in exchange for a number of our shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock.

Certain Agreements to be Entered into Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement (p. 112)

In addition to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, the parties thereto have entered or will enter into the following agreements:

CAH License Agreement. OP will grant to CAH, a non-exclusive, non-transferable, perpetual, revocable (under specified conditions), royalty-free, and worldwide license to use the Colony Mark only in connection with its business of engaging in debt and equity investments in North American residential properties and related operational activities.

OP Operating Agreement. In connection with consummation of the Combination, we will amend and restate the limited liability company agreement of OP. This Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of OP will reflect the entry of each of Colony Capital, CCH I, FHB LLC and Mr. Saltzman as non-managing members of OP and will set forth the terms relating to its members following the consummation of the Combination. In exchange for OP Units in OP, (i) Colony Capital and CCH I will contribute to OP all of their respective ownership interests in NewCo, (ii) FHB LLC will contribute to OP all of its ownership interests in CRP, and (iii) Mr. Saltzman will contribute to OP all of his ownership interests in CRM. In addition, the OP Operating Agreement will reflect the change in OP's name from CFI RE Masterco, LLC to Colony Capital Operating Company, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. For a description of the Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of OP, see "Certain Agreements to be Entered into Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement - OP Operating Agreement" beginning on page 112.

Registration Rights Agreement. We have agreed to file a shelf registration statement registering the resale of shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, and shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock issued or issuable upon conversion of Class B Common Stock or upon exchange of OP Units, in each case, issued pursuant to the Contribution Agreement or the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement.

Conditions to the Closing of the Combination (p. 101)

Each of our and the Contributors' obligations to consummate the Combination are subject to a number of conditions, as described more fully in the proxy statement. For example, the Closing is conditioned upon, among other things:

the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement;

no law, regulation, authorization, permit, order or judgment shall have been enacted, entered, or promulgated by a governmental, or administrative authority after the date of the Contribution Agreement that prohibits or makes illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, and no order or judgment preventing the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement shall be in effect; and receiving the requisite stockholder approvals from the Company's common stockholders for the Issuances and the Charter Amendments.

Closing

The Closing of the Combination will occur no later than three business days following the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the Combination set forth in the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement (other than those conditions that by their nature can be satisfied only at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions), or on such other time and at such other place as we and Colony Capital agree in writing.

Indemnification (p. 108)

In the Contribution Agreement, the Contributors on the one hand, and the Company and OP on the other hand, have agreed to indemnify the other and their affiliates for losses arising from certain matters following the Closing, subject to certain limitations, including a maximum indemnification amount of $75.0 million for each of the Contributors on the one hand, and the Company and OP on the other hand for breaches of most representations and warranties in the Contribution Agreement.

Termination of the Contribution Agreement (p. 107)

The Contribution Agreement may be terminated and the Combination may be abandoned prior to the Closing for a number of reasons, as described more fully in this proxy statement.

Colony Mark Transfer Agreement (p. 110)

The Mark Transferor will transfer the Colony Mark to OP in exchange for a number of our shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as described in Description of the Combination Consideration to be Paid in the Combination beginning on page 93.

Features of Class B Common Stock (p. 86)

The Class B Common Stock has been structured to provide rights that are equivalent to the rights of Class A Common Stock. However, each share of Class B Common Stock entitles the holder to thirty-six and one-half (36.5) votes per share, which is intended to mirror the aggregate number of shares of Class B Common Stock issued pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the OP Units (which are redeemable for cash or Class A Common Stock of our Company, on a one-to-one basis) issued to Colony Capital and CCH I pursuant to the Contribution Agreement. In addition, each share of Class B Common Stock will be, at the holder's option, convertible into one share of Class A Common Stock and will convert automatically into one share of Class A Common Stock upon the transfer of such share or of certain OP Units to one or more non-qualified transferees or any qualified transferee of such share or OP Units ceasing to be a qualified transferee. See Proposal 2(a) Amendment to Create Class B Common Stock beginning on page 86 for a more detailed description of the terms of the Class B Common Stock.

Restrictions on Exchange and Ownership of Class B Common Stock (p. 88)

In connection with the Combination, the Board has proposed that the Charter be amended to prohibit any person (other than a person who has been granted an exemption by the Board pursuant to the Charter or a designated investment entity) from actually or constructively owning more than % of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of our common stock (by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive). In addition, the Board has proposed that the Charter be amended to prohibit any designated investment entity (other than a person who has been granted an exemption) from actually or constructively owning more than 9.9% of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of our common stock (by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive). These limits are subject to a grandfather provision and exemptions granted by the Board in certain circumstances.

Risk Factors (p. 27)

There are risks involved in the Combination. You should carefully consider these risks before voting on the proposals to issue securities and amend our Charter in connection with the Combination.

Recommendation of the Special Committee and our Board (p. 59)

The Special Committee and the Board recommend that you vote (1) FOR the Issuances, (2) FOR the Charter Amendments, and (3) FOR the Adjournment Proposal.

Fairness Opinion (p. 59)

In connection with the Combination, at a meeting of the Special Committee on December 22, 2014, the Special Committee's financial advisor, Morgan Stanley, rendered its oral opinion to the Special Committee, subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated December 22, 2014 that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of review undertaken as set forth in the written opinion, the consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the Company.

The full text of the written opinion of Morgan Stanley to the Special Committee, dated December 22, 2014, is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix D and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. The summary of the opinion of Morgan Stanley in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. You should read Morgan Stanley's opinion, this section and the summary of Morgan Stanley's opinion carefully and in their entirety for a discussion of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations upon the review undertaken by Morgan Stanley in rendering its opinion. Morgan Stanley's opinion was directed to the Special Committee, in its capacity as such, and addressed only the fairness from a financial point of view to the Company of the consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement as of the date of such opinion and does not address any other aspect of the Combination.

Morgan Stanley's opinion did not address any other aspects or implications of the Combination. It was not intended to, and does not, constitute advice or a recommendation to any holder of shares of the Company's common stock as to how to vote at the Special Meeting to be held in connection with the Combination or whether to take any other action with respect to the Combination.

NYSE Listing of our Common Shares

We will seek approval from the NYSE for the listing of (i) Class A Common Stock issued as consideration in the Combination, and (ii) Class A Common Stock reserved for the issuance upon conversion of Class B Common Stock and upon exchange of OP Units. Shares of our Class A Common Stock will continue to trade under the "CLNY" ticker symbol.

Accounting Treatments

We will account for the Combination as a business combination in which the Company is the accounting acquirer. In accordance with the acquisition method proscribed by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) applicable to business combinations, we will recognize and measure the identifiable assets acquired, liabilities assumed and noncontrolling interests in the acquired businesses at their estimated fair values at the acquisition date. Any excess of (i) the acquisition date fair value of the aggregate consideration transferred (including the estimated fair value of the contingent consideration) plus (ii) the fair value of any noncontrolling interests in the acquired businesses minus (iii) the aggregate fair value of the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed will be recognized as goodwill.

Subsequent to the Combination, we will reconsider whether we are the primary beneficiary of certain joint ventures previously accounted for using the equity method because another variable interest holder was deemed to be the party most closely associated with the variable interest entity. We expect, upon reconsideration, that we will be the primary beneficiary of certain joint ventures where we are co-invested with investment funds previously managed by Colony Capital (the Co-Investment Funds). We are not acquiring any economic interests in the Co-Investment Funds or any additional economic interests in the joint ventures as a result of the Combination. In accordance with U.S. GAAP, the net assets of the consolidated joint ventures will be measured and recorded at fair value, which is expected to result in a remeasurement gain of our interest calculated as the excess of (i) the remeasurement date fair value of the assets of the joint ventures minus (ii) the remeasurement date fair value of the liabilities and noncontrolling interests of the joint ventures minus (iii) the carrying value of our interests in the joint ventures.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations (p. 122)

The Combination is not expected to result in the recognition of taxable income by us or the holders of shares of our common stock for U.S. federal income tax purposes and is not expected to adversely affect our qualification as a REIT. See Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Contribution beginning on page 122.

Federal Securities Laws Consequences (p. 85)

All of the shares of Class A Common Stock, shares of Class B Common Stock and OP Units to be issued in the Combination will be offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and, therefore, will be subject to restrictions on their transferability in addition to the transfer restrictions contained in lock-up agreements between the Contributors and the Company.

Rights of Dissenting Stockholders (p. 73)

Stockholders are not entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal under Maryland law.

Amending and Restating the Charter of our Company

Amendments to Reflect the Terms of the Transaction (p. 86)

In order to issue the shares to the Mark Transferor at the closing of the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, we agreed in the Contribution Agreement to amend our Charter to create our Class B Common Stock and, consequently, re-classify our common stock into our Class A Common Stock. No action by our common stockholders is required by reason of the re-classification into Class A Common Stock, which will continue to trade under the CLNY ticker on the NYSE. The Class B Common Stock has been structured to provide rights that are equivalent to the rights of Class A Common Stock. However, each share of Class B Common Stock entitles the holder to thirty-six and one-half (36.5) votes per share, which is intended to mirror the aggregate number of shares of Class B Common Stock issued pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the OP Units (which are redeemable for cash or Class A Common Stock of our Company, on a one-to-one basis) issued to Colony Capital and CCH I pursuant to the Contribution Agreement. In addition, each share of Class B Common Stock will be, at the holder's option, convertible into one share of Class A Common Stock and will convert automatically into one share of Class A Common Stock upon the transfer of such share or of certain OP Units to one or more non-qualified transferees or any qualified transferee of such share or OP Units ceasing to be a qualified transferee.

These amendments will only be effective if we consummate the Combination.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement, readers should carefully consider the following risk factors:

RISKS RELATED TO THE COMBINATION

The issuance of shares of our common stock in the Combination or upon exchange of OP Units received in the Combination will have a dilutive effect and will reduce the voting power and relative percentage interests of current common stockholders in our earnings and market value.

The consideration payable in the Combination includes up to an aggregate of approximately 3.94 million shares of our Class A Common Stock, 665,593 shares of our Class B Common Stock and approximately 25.22 million OP Units. The number of shares of our common stock, on a fully diluted basis, to be issued to certain of the Contributors upon consummation of the Combination will be equal to approximately % of the total issued and outstanding shares of our common stock as of , 2015, the record date for the Special Meeting. The issuance of shares of our common stock in the Combination will have a dilutive effect and will reduce the voting power and relative percentage interests of current common stockholders in our earnings and market value.

Additionally, part of the consideration payable in the Combination consists of OP Units, which may have a dilutive effect on the voting power and percentage interests of the current common stockholders. OP Units generally will be redeemable, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the operating agreement of OP, at the holder's option, for cash equal to the average closing price of Class A Common Stock for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date we receive a notice of redemption; provided, that we may choose, at our sole discretion, to satisfy this redemption right by exchanging such OP Units for shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis, in lieu of cash. If the recipients of OP Units in the Combination exercise their redemption rights and part or all of their outstanding OP Units are exchanged for shares of our Class A Common Stock, such exchange will have a dilutive effect on our common stock and reduce the relative percentage interests of existing common stockholders in our earnings, voting power and market value.

Future sales of our stock by stockholders of the Company may adversely affect the market price of our stock.

Future sales of our stock by stockholders of the Company may adversely affect the market price of our stock. These sales also might make it more difficult for us to sell equity securities in the future at a time and price we deem appropriate. Upon consummation of the Combination, we will issue up to approximately 2.83 million shares of Class A Common Stock and 566,635 shares of Class B Common Stock to parties to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and may issue up to approximately 1.11 million shares of Class A Common Stock and 98,958 shares of Class B Common Stock to them upon the satisfaction of performance targets. In addition, upon consummation of the Combination, OP will issue approximately 21.44 million OP Units to parties to the Contribution Agreement and may issue up to approximately 3.78 million OP Units to them upon the satisfaction of certain performance targets. Sales of a substantial number of shares by these stockholders of the Company, the perception or expectation that these sales may occur, or sales of shares to cover tax obligations some of which may occur shortly after the Closing, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and the prevailing market price for shares of our stock.

The Combination was negotiated between the Special Committee, which is comprised of independent and disinterested members of our Board, and Colony Capital, which is affiliated with certain of our officers and directors.

The Combination was negotiated with Colony Capital, which is affiliated with certain of our directors and officers. As a result, those officers and directors may have different interests than the Company as a whole. This potential conflict would not exist in the case of a transaction negotiated with unaffiliated third parties. Moreover, if Colony Capital or any other Contributor breaches any of the representations, warranties or covenants made by it in the Contribution Agreement or the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, we may choose not to enforce, or to enforce less vigorously, our rights because of our desire to maintain our ongoing relationship with Colony Capital and the interests of certain of our directors and officers. Moreover, the representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities in the Contribution Agreement are subject to limitations and qualifiers, which may also limit our ability to enforce any remedy under the Contribution Agreement or the Colony Mark Transfer agreement.

Certain of our directors and executive officers have interests in the Combination that are different from, and may potentially conflict with, the interests of us and our stockholders.

Certain of our directors and executive officers have interests in the Combination and the other transactions described in this proxy statement that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of our stockholders generally and that may create potential conflicts of interest, including (i) the payment of consideration in connection with the Combination directly or indirectly to certain of these individuals, including Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman, and the entry by the applicable individuals into arrangements relating to the payment of that consideration, (ii) the grant or anticipated grant of membership interests to certain of these individuals in CC Holdings, CCH I and CCH II and (iii) the entry or anticipated entry into employment agreements and restrictive covenant agreements with certain of these individuals, including Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman, that will become effective following the Combination. See Proposal 1: The Issuances Interests of Certain Persons in the Combination beginning on page 73 for a description of the consideration to be received by these individuals.

In addition, Mr. Barrack owns a controlling interest in, and is the sole managing member of, CC Holdings, which is the managing member and sole member of Colony Capital, and Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Sanders, Tangen and Traenkle, are also executive officers or principals of Colony Capital. The respective roles of these individuals in Colony Capital may create additional conflicts of interest in respect of the Combination and the other transactions described in this proxy statement

Following the Combination, Mr. Barrack will control a significant number of votes in any matter presented to our stockholders for approval, including the election of directors.

Although, as further discussed in Proposal 2: The Charter Amendments beginning on page 86 below, the Class B Common Stock to be issued in the Combination is not designed to provide for disproportionate voting rights, the issuance of the Class B Common Stock will result in Mr. Barrack controlling a significant number of votes in matters submitted to a vote of stockholders as a result of his beneficial ownership of Class B Common Stock (which will give him voting power equal to the economic interest in the Company issued to Colony Capital and CCH I in the form of OP Units as if all of those OP Units were exchanged for shares of Class A Common Stock), including the election of directors. Mr. Barrack may have interests that differ from our other stockholders, including by reason of his direct or indirect interest in OP, and may accordingly vote in ways that may not be consistent with the interests of those other stockholders.

Our net income and FFO may decrease in the near term as a result of the Combination.

Our net income and FFO may decrease in the near term as a result of the Combination and our transition to internal management. We will expense all cash and non-cash costs involved in the Combination. As a result, our net income and FFO may decrease in the period in which the Combination closes, driven predominately by the non-cash charge related to the issuance of OP Units and, to a lesser extent, other transaction-related costs. In addition, while we will no longer bear the costs of the various fees and expense reimbursements previously paid to our manager if and after we become internally managed pursuant to the Combination, our expenses will include the compensation and benefits of our officers, employees and consultants, as well as overhead previously paid by our Manager or its affiliates. There are no assurances that, following the Combination, these employees will be able to or incentivized to provide services at the same level or for the same costs as were previously provided to us by our Manager, and there may be other unforeseen costs, expenses and difficulties associated with operating as an internally managed company. If the expenses we assume as a result of the Combination are higher than the fees that we currently pay our Manager or otherwise higher than we anticipate, we may not achieve our anticipated cost savings from the Combination and our net income and FFO could decrease further, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, if revenue from the Colony Capital management business decreases, our net income and FFO could decrease further, which would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Combination may not be accretive to our stockholders.

The Combination may not be accretive to our stockholders. While it is intended that the Combination be accretive to our earnings per share and FFO per share, there can be no assurance that this will be the case, as, among other things, the expenses we assume as a result of the Combination may be higher than we anticipate and we may not achieve our anticipated cost savings from the Combination, or revenue from the Colony Capital management business may decrease. The failure of the Combination to be accretive to our stockholders could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We may not manage the Combination effectively.

We may not manage the Combination effectively. The Combination could be a time-consuming and costly process. The combined company may encounter potential difficulties in the integration process including, among other things:

the inability to successfully combine Colony Capital's business with our Company in a manner that permits the combined company to achieve the cost savings anticipated to result from the Combination, which could result in the anticipated benefits of the Combination not being realized in the timeframe currently anticipated or at all;

the risk of not realizing all of the anticipated operational efficiencies or other anticipated strategic and financial benefits of the Combination within the expected timeframe or at all;

potential unknown liabilities and unforeseen increased expenses, delays or regulatory conditions associated with the Combination; and performance shortfalls as a result of the diversion of management's attention caused by completing the Combination and integrating the companies' operations.

For all these reasons, you should be aware that it is possible that the integration process could result in the distraction of the combined company's management, the disruption of the combined company's ongoing business or inconsistencies in the combined company's operations, services, standards, controls, procedures and policies, any of which could adversely affect the ability of the combined company to maintain relationships with vendors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the Combination, or could otherwise adversely affect the business and financial results of the combined company. Therefore, the failure to plan and manage the Combination effectively could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations, and we may not realize the anticipated cost savings benefits.

We depend on our key employees. There is no guarantee that our key employees will remain employed with us for any specified period of time, and will not engage in competitive activities if they cease to be employed with us.

We depend on our key employees. It is expected that, following the consummation of the Combination, we will continue to substantially depend on the services of Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman, who are each entering into five-year employment agreements with us, and the services of the other members of our senior management team, including Messrs. Sanders, Tangen and Traenkle, who are each expected to enter into three-year employment agreements with us. As is presently the case under our current management arrangements with

Colony Capital, the departure or the loss of the services of Messrs. Barrack or Saltzman or a number of senior management personnel and other employees following the Combination could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and ability to effectively operate our business.

Further, the employment and restrictive covenant agreements we entered into with each of Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman and the employment and restrictive covenant agreements that we expect to enter into with other members of our senior management team contain certain restrictions on these executives, including a restriction on engaging in activities that are deemed competitive to our business. Although we believe these covenants to be enforceable under current law in the states in which we do business, including California, there can be no guarantee that if our executives were to breach these covenants and engage in competitive activities, a court of law would fully enforce these restrictions. If our executives were to terminate their employment with us and engage in competitive activities, such activities could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman and the other members of our senior management team will have competing demands on their time and attention.

Mr. Barrack, who will continue to serve as our Executive Chairman and the Chairman of our Board following the Combination, and Mr. Saltzman, who will continue to serve as our Chief Executive Officer and President and a member of our Board following the Combination, will have competing demands on their respective time and attention, including with respect to the provision of services to Colony Capital and certain outside entities following the Combination. These competing demands may result in these individuals devoting time to these outside entities in a manner that could affect our business. Under their respective employment agreements, Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman are permitted to devote time to certain outside activities, so long as those duties and activities do not unreasonably interfere with the performance of Mr. Barrack's or Mr. Saltzman's, respectively, duties to us.

We will become exposed to risks to which we have not historically been exposed, including liabilities with respect to the assets we will acquire from Colony Capital and ongoing liabilities and business risks inherent to Colony Capital's business.

The Combination will expose us to risks to which we have not historically been exposed. Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, we will incur liabilities with respect to the assets we will acquire from Colony Capital and certain of its affiliates and be subject to ongoing liabilities and business risks inherent to the business of Colony Capital and its affiliates. In addition, our overhead will increase as a result of our becoming internally managed, as the responsibility for overhead relating to management of our business currently is borne by our manager, Colony Financial Manager, LLC, which will be contributed to us in the Combination. Also, we could be subject to additional liabilities as a result of employing the approximately 300 employees who are currently employed by Colony Capital. The employment of approximately 300 additional persons could subject us to additional potential liabilities that employers commonly face, such as workers' disability and compensation claims, potential labor disputes and other employee-related liabilities and grievances, and we will bear the costs of the establishment and maintenance of employee benefit plans, if established.

Finally, we may incur other liabilities to which we are not currently subject. For example, we could be subject to liabilities to investors in investment funds, programs or vehicles that were previously sponsored or managed by Colony Capital, or to third parties, as a result of our becoming and serving as manager or advisor to such funds, programs or vehicles. These liabilities could include unfunded pension or withdrawal liability from single employer or multiemployer pension plans if we are considered a member of a controlled group of companies that includes a portfolio company that has incurred such liability. In addition, even when we are not required to do so, we may advance funds to allow investment funds, programs or vehicles to meet their expenses. The assumption of Colony

Capital's liabilities and the incurrence by us of ongoing liabilities and business risks inherent to Colony Capital's business could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and ability to effectively operate our business.

We do not intend to obtain an updated opinion.

Conflicts of interest may exist or could arise in the future with OP and its members, which may impede business decisions that could benefit our stockholders.

Following the implementation of our Company's structure as a result of the Combination, conflicts of interest may exist or could arise as a result of the relationships between us and our affiliates, on the one hand, and OP or any member thereof, on the other. Our directors and officers have duties to our Company and our stockholders under applicable Maryland law in connection with their management of our Company. At the same time, we, as sole managing member of OP, have fiduciary duties to OP and to its members under Delaware law in connection with the management of OP. Our duties to OP and its members as the sole managing member may come into conflict with the duties of our directors and officers to our Company and our stockholders. These conflicts may be resolved in a manner that is not in the best interest of our stockholders.

In addition, non-managing members in our operating partnership have the right to vote on certain amendments to the OP agreement, as well as on certain other matters. Persons holding such voting rights may exercise them in a manner that conflicts with our stockholders' interests.

If the OP is treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, we will cease to qualify as a REIT.

We believe that OP will, commencing with the Closing of the Combination, qualify as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Assuming that OP qualifies as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, OP will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income. Instead, its partners, including us, generally would be required to pay tax on their respective allocable share of OP's income. No assurance can be provided, however, that the IRS will not challenge OP's status as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, or that a court would not sustain such a challenge. If the IRS were successful in treating OP as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, we would fail to meet the gross income and asset tests applicable to REITs and, therefore, cease to qualify as a REIT, and OP would become subject to U.S. federal, state and local income tax. The payment by OP of income tax would reduce significantly the amount of cash available to OP to satisfy obligations to make principal and interest payments on its debt and to make distribution to its partners, including us. In addition, any change in the status of OP for tax purposes might be treated as a taxable event, in which case we might incur a tax liability without any related cash distributions.

The Combination may have adverse tax consequences.

The formation of OP as part of the Combination is intended to constitute, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a tax-deferred contribution by us to a partnership. As a result, neither we nor holders of our common stock, in respect of those common stock holdings, are expected to recognize significant gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the Combination. In addition, the Combination is not expected to adversely affect our ability to continue to qualify as a REIT. Notwithstanding the foregoing, under the investment company rules under Section 721 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code), the Combination generally would not qualify for tax-deferred treatment to the extent it is treated under such rules as a contribution by us to an investment company. The investment company rules are complex, and there also is uncertainty regarding other aspects of the U.S. federal tax treatment of the Combination. If the Combination failed to qualify for tax-deferred treatment under the investment company rules or otherwise, we generally would recognize taxable gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes, possibly up to the extent that the fair market value of our assets immediately prior to the Combination exceeded their adjusted tax basis. If and to the extent that we were unable to make distributions for the year in which the Combination occurred at least equal to our taxable income (including our net long term capital gain and also any taxable income or gain recognized in connection with the Combination), we would be subject to U.S. federal income tax (and potentially excise tax) on any undistributed amounts and may also be unable to satisfy the distribution requirements applicable to REITs.

In addition, as a general matter, as a REIT, we generally will be unable to conduct directly a portion of the third-party management business of Colony Capital that we are acquiring in connection with the Combination. We therefore intend to conduct those operations through one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries (each, a TRS). A TRS is subject to regular corporate income tax on its net income. As a result, the net income generated by those operations generally will be subject to regular corporate income tax. Moreover, as a REIT, stock and other securities of a TRS constitute nonqualifying assets for purposes of the 75% asset test applicable to REITs, and, thus, no more than 25% of our total gross assets may be comprised of the stock or other securities of one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries and other nonqualifying assets (including goodwill and similar assets we are acquiring as a result of the Combination). In addition, dividends payable by taxable REIT subsidiaries constitute qualifying income for purposes of the 95% gross income test applicable to REITs, but nonqualifying income for purposes of the 75% gross income test applicable to REITs. Accordingly, if the value of the business we are acquiring in connection with the Combination and the income generated thereby increases relative to the value of our other, REIT-compliant assets and the income produced thereby, we may fail to satisfy one or more of the requirements applicable to REITs.

The stock ownership limits imposed by the Internal Revenue Code for REITs and our Charter may restrict our business combination opportunities, and if the Charter Amendments are approved, the current stock ownership limits will be reduced, which could further restrict business combination opportunities.

In order for us to maintain our qualification as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code, not more than 50% in value of our outstanding stock may be owned, directly or indirectly, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Internal Revenue Code to include certain entities) at any time during the last half of each taxable year following our first year. Our Charter, with certain exceptions, authorizes our Board to take those actions that are necessary and desirable to preserve our qualification as a REIT. In order to assist us in complying with the limitations on the concentration of ownership of REIT stock imposed by the Internal Revenue Code, our current Charter generally prohibits any person (other than a person who has been granted an exemption) from actually or constructively owning more than 9.8% of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of our common stock by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive, or 9.8% of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of such class or series of our preferred stock by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive. In connection with the Combination, the Board has proposed that the Charter be amended to lower our stock ownership limits and prohibit any person (other than a person who has been granted an exemption or a designated investment entity) from actually or constructively owning more than % of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of our common stock (by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive). Our Board may, in its sole discretion, grant, and has in certain circumstances granted, an exemption to the common stock ownership limits, subject to such conditions and the receipt by our Board of certain representations and undertakings. Our current Charter and proposed amended Charter also prohibits (or would continue to prohibit) any person from (a) beneficially or constructively owning, as determined by applying certain attribution rules of the Internal Revenue Code, our stock that would result in us being closely held under Section 856(h) of the Internal Revenue Code or that would otherwise cause us to fail to qualify as a REIT or to have not insignificant non-qualifying income from related parties or (b) transferring stock if such transfer would result in our stock being owned by fewer than 100 persons. The ownership limits imposed under the Internal Revenue Code are based upon direct or indirect ownership by individuals, but only during the last half of a tax year. The ownership limits contained in our current Charter and our proposed amended Charter key off of the ownership at any time by any person, which term includes entities. These ownership limitations are common in REIT charters and are intended to provide added assurance of compliance with the tax law requirements, and to minimize administrative burdens. However, the ownership limit on our common stock might also delay or prevent a transaction or a change in our control that might involve a premium price for our common stock or otherwise be in the best interest of our stockholders, and the proposed reduction in the ownership limit could further restrict such transactions that may otherwise not be so delayed or prevented.

RISKS RELATED TO THE BUSINESS OF COLONY CAPITAL ACQUIRED IN THE COMBINATION

Because advisory agreements with Colony Capital's investment funds are subject to termination in certain circumstances, any such termination could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The advisory agreements under which Colony Capital or its affiliates provide and, following consummation of the Combination, we will provide, services to Colony Capital's investment funds and the general partners of those investment funds may generally be terminated by the general partner or the applicable fund, as the case may be, with cause (subject to certain notice and cure periods) and, in certain circumstances, may be terminated without cause on limited notice.

In addition, such advisory agreements terminate automatically in certain circumstances, including if the limited partners of any of the funds remove the general partner of that fund, which they generally may do with or without cause subject to certain consent thresholds and other conditions. The advisory agreements also generally terminate automatically upon dissolution of the applicable investment fund. The investment funds generally may be dissolved (i) in the case of certain funds, by limited partners if Mr. Barrack fails to adhere to certain key man provisions of that fund's (and, in some cases, other funds') organizational documents requiring him to be actively involved and devote a substantial majority of his business time and attention to such fund and its affiliated partnerships, (ii) in the case of certain funds, by the limited partners if neither Mr. Barrack nor any individual named as a Colony Capital principal continue to control Colony Capital following a change in control of Colony Capital, (iii) by election of the general partner and the limited partners, and (iv) upon certain other events, such as bankruptcy and expiration of the applicable fund.

Finally, we expect that advisory agreements with our future investment funds also will be terminable upon relatively short notice, with or without cause. Any termination of a material advisory agreement could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Failure to deal appropriately with conflicts of interest in Colony Capital's investment business could damage our reputation and adversely affect our businesses.

Following consummation of the Combination, we may confront potential conflicts of interest relating to our funds investment activities and our allocation of investment opportunities among our funds or among our direct investment programs and our funds. Colony Capital's investment funds and our future investment funds may have overlapping investment objectives, including funds that have different fee structures, and potential conflicts may arise with respect to our decisions regarding how to allocate investment opportunities among those funds or how to allocate investment opportunities among us and those funds. For example, we may allocate an investment opportunity that is appropriate for two or more investment funds in a manner that excludes one or more funds or results in a disproportionate allocation based on factors or criteria that we determine, such as sourcing of the transaction, the relative amounts of capital available for investment in each fund, the nature and extent of involvement in the transaction on the part of the respective teams of investment professionals dedicated to the respective funds and other considerations deemed relevant by us. In the case of any future funds that we may sponsor, we may implement any allocation methodology that we deem appropriate (including retaining the right to allocate investment opportunities in our sole discretion), and there can be no assurance that our allocation procedures will adequately address all of the conflicts that may arise or that they will address such conflicts in a manner that is more favorable to us than to our investment funds. Also, our decision to pursue a fund investment opportunity could preclude our ability to obtain a related advisory assignment, and vice versa. In addition, conflicts of interest may exist in the valuation of our investments and regarding decisions about the allocation of specific investment opportunities among us and our funds and the allocation of fees and costs among us and our funds. To the extent we fail to appropriately deal with any such conflicts, it could negatively impact our reputation and ability to raise additional funds or result in potential litigation against us.

Although we will seek to make allocation decisions in a manner that we believe is fair and consistent with our allocation policies, our allocation of investment opportunities may give rise to investor dissatisfaction, litigation or regulatory enforcement. Appropriately dealing with conflicts of interest is complex and difficult and our reputation could be damaged if we fail, or appear to fail, to deal appropriately with one or more potential or actual conflicts of interest. Regulatory scrutiny of, or litigation in connection with, conflicts of interest could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, which could materially adversely affect our business and our ability to attract investors for future vehicles.

Our executive officers control or have equity interests in the general partner of each of Colony Capital's investment funds, which may expose us to conflicts of interest that could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Mr. Barrack controls the general partner of each of Colony Capital's investment funds. At the same time, Mr. Barrack serves as our Executive Chairman. As a result, Mr. Barrack directly or indirectly owes fiduciary duties both to us and to Colony Capital's investment funds that may from time to time come into conflict. In addition, our executive officers have equity interests in the general partner of each of Colony Capital's investment funds. These duties and interests may put our executive officers in a position to influence decisions or actions to be taken by Colony Capital's investment funds in a manner that may be viewed as being in the best interest of that investment fund's general partner but not being in our best interest. In addition, if the general partner of any investment fund breaches an advisory agreement, we may choose not to enforce, or to enforce less vigorously, our rights because of our desire to maintain our ongoing relationship with our executive officers (including if they cease to be executive officers) who hold interests in that fund general partner. Should these conflicts result in decisions that are not in our best interest, it could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

With respect to new investment vehicles that we sponsor following consummation of the Combination, unlike with Colony Capital's investment funds, we expect to serve as general partner under the Colony name and receive all fees and therefore do not expect our new investment vehicles to have similar conflicts to those described in the prior paragraph for Colony Capital's existing investment funds, although there can be no assurance that this will be the case. We expect to receive carried interest from future investment programs (net of carried interest that we expect will be allocated to members of our management team, investment professionals and other individuals, which, consistent with market terms, we expect to be 40% of the carried interest earned).

Extensive regulation of Colony Capital's businesses could affect our activities, result in additional burdens on our business and create the potential for significant liabilities and penalties.

Colony Capital's business is subject to extensive regulation, including periodic examinations, by governmental and self-regulatory organizations in the jurisdictions in which it operates around the world. Many of these regulators, including U.S. and foreign government agencies and self-regulatory organizations, as well as state securities commissions in the United States, are empowered to conduct investigations and administrative proceedings that can result in fines, suspensions of personnel or other sanctions, including censure, the issuance of cease-and-desist orders, the suspension or expulsion of a broker-dealer or investment adviser from registration or memberships or the commencement of a civil or criminal lawsuit against us or our personnel. Even if an investigation or proceeding did not result in a sanction or the sanction imposed against us or our personnel by a regulator were small in monetary amount, the adverse publicity relating to the investigation, proceeding or imposition of these sanctions could harm our reputation and cause us to lose existing clients or fail to gain new asset management or financial advisory clients.

In addition, Colony Capital regularly relies on exemptions from various requirements of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or Securities Act, the Exchange Act, the 1940 Act and the U.S. Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, in conducting its asset management activities. These exemptions are sometimes highly complex and may in certain circumstances depend on compliance by third parties whom we do not control. If for any reason these exemptions were to become unavailable to us, we could become subject to regulatory action or third party claims and our business could be materially and adversely affected. For example, the SEC recently amended Rule 506 of Regulation D under the Securities Act to impose bad actor disqualification provisions which ban an issuer from offering or selling securities pursuant to the safe harbor rule in Rule 506 if the issuer, or any other covered person, is the subject of a criminal, regulatory or court order or other disqualifying event under the rule which has not been waived. The definition of covered person under the rule includes an issuer's directors, general partners, managing members and executive officers; affiliates who are also issuing securities in the offering; beneficial owners of 20% or more of the issuer's outstanding equity securities; and promoters and persons compensated for soliciting investors in the offering. Accordingly, our ability to rely on Rule 506 to offer or sell securities would be impaired if we or any covered person is the subject of a disqualifying event under the rule and we are unable to obtain a waiver. The requirements imposed by our regulators are designed primarily to ensure the integrity of the financial markets and to protect investors in our investment funds and are not designed to protect us. Consequently, these regulations could serve to limit our activities and impose burdensome compliance requirements.

Regulatory changes in the United States could adversely affect our business.

As a result of recent highly publicized financial scandals, investors, regulators and the general public have exhibited concerns over the integrity of both the U.S. financial markets and the regulatory oversight of these markets. As a result, the business environment in which Colony Capital operates and in which, following consummation of the Combination, we will operate, is subject to heightened regulation. With respect to alternative asset management funds, in recent years, there has been debate in both U.S. and foreign governments about new rules or regulations, including increased oversight or taxation. As calls for additional regulation have increased, there may be a related increase in regulatory oversight of the trading and other investment activities of alternative asset management funds, including Colony Capital's investment funds and our future investment funds. Such oversight may cause us to incur additional expense and may result in fines if we are deemed to have violated any regulations.

The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Dodd-Frank) recently enacted by the U.S. Congress has changed and is expected to continue changing the regulatory environment for alternative investment funds, including Colony Capital's investment funds and our future investment funds. Dodd-Frank expands the registration requirements for investment advisers managing such funds, as well as subjecting large funds to supervisory oversight for purposes of assessing their potential to contribute to systemic risk. Although the SEC and other U.S. regulatory agencies have begun issuing rules and regulations to implement the requirements of Dodd-Frank, many of the provisions of Dodd-Frank still require the adoption of implementing regulations by the applicable agencies. Accordingly, it is not possible finally to assess Dodd-Frank's full impact on us, our investment funds or, in some cases, the instruments in which our investment funds may invest. As the regulatory environment evolves, compliance with any new laws or regulations could be difficult and may adversely affect the value of instruments held by our investment funds or the ability of our investment funds to pursue their investment strategies.

Although the full scope of these potential regulatory changes are not yet known, such changes could have a meaningful impact on the financial industry. We may be adversely affected if new or revised legislation or regulations are enacted, or by changes in the interpretation or enforcement of existing rules and regulations

imposed by the SEC, other U.S. governmental regulatory authorities or self-regulatory organizations that supervise the financial markets and their participants. Such changes could place limitations on the type of investor that can invest in our investment funds or on the conditions under which our investment funds may acquire investments. Further, such changes may limit the scope of investing activities we may undertake for our investment funds. It is impossible to determine the extent of the impact of any new laws, regulations or initiatives that may be proposed, or whether any of the proposals will become law. Any changes in the regulatory framework applicable to our business, including the changes described above, may impose additional costs on us, require the attention of our senior management or result in limitations on the manner in which we conduct our business. Moreover, as calls for additional regulation have increased, there may be a related increase in regulatory investigations of the trading and other investment activities of alternative asset management funds, including our funds. Compliance with any new laws or regulations could make compliance more difficult and expensive, affect the manner in which we conduct our business and adversely affect our profitability.

Poor performance of Colony Capital's investment funds or our future investment funds could cause a decline in our revenue, income and cash flow and could adversely affect our ability to raise capital for future investment funds.

In the event that any of Colony Capital's investment funds or our future investment funds were to perform poorly, our revenue, income and cash flow could decline because the value of our assets under management would decrease, which, depending on the terms of the applicable fund, could result in a reduction in investment management and other fees, and our investment returns would decrease, resulting in a reduction in the carried interest and incentive fees we earn. Moreover, we could experience losses on our investments of our own principal as a result of poor investment performance by our investment funds.

Poor performance of our investment funds could make it more difficult for us to raise new capital. Potential investors might decline to invest in future investment funds we raise and current investors might withdraw their investments as a result of poor performance of the investment funds in which they are invested. Investors and potential investors in our funds continually assess our investment funds' performance, and our ability to raise capital for existing and future investment funds and avoid excessive redemption levels will depend on our investment funds' continued satisfactory performance. Accordingly, poor fund performance may deter future investment in our funds and thereby decrease the capital invested in our funds and potentially, our investment management and other fee revenue. Alternatively, in the face of poor fund performance, investors could demand lower fees or fee concessions for existing or future funds which would likewise decrease our revenue. A significant number of fund sponsors have recently decreased the amount of fees they charged investors for managing existing or successor funds as a direct result of poor fund performance.

A decline in the pace or size of investment by Colony Capital's investment funds would result in our receiving less revenue from our investment management and other fees and lower return from our investments in the investment funds.

The investment management and other fees that we earn are driven in part by the pace at which our funds make investments and the size of those investments. Any decline in that pace or the size of such investments would reduce our revenue from our investment management and other fees and would also lower our return from our investments in the investment funds. Many factors could cause such a decline in the pace of investment or the transaction and management or monitoring fees we receive, including:

the inability of our investment professionals to identify attractive investment opportunities; competition for such opportunities among other potential acquirers; decreased availability of capital or financing on attractive terms;

our failure to consummate identified investment opportunities because of business, regulatory or legal complexities and adverse developments in the U.S. or global economy or financial markets;

terms we may agree with our fund investors to increase the percentage of transaction or other fees we may share with them; and new regulations or actions of regulatory authorities.

Our inability to raise additional or successor investment funds (or raise successor investment funds of a comparable size as Colony Capital's current investment funds) could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Colony Capital's current investment funds have a finite life and a finite amount of commitments from fund investors. Once a fund nears the end of its investment period, our success depends on our ability to raise additional or successor funds in order to keep making investments and, over the long term, earning investment management and other fees. Even if we are successful in raising successor funds, to the extent we are unable to raise successor funds of a comparable size to Colony Capital's current funds or the extent that we are delayed in raising such a successor fund, our revenues may decrease as the investment period of our predecessor funds expire and associated fees decrease.

Furthermore, in order to raise capital for new strategies and funds without drawing capital away from our existing funds, we will need to seek new sources of capital. Institutional investors in funds that have suffered from decreasing returns, liquidity pressure, increased volatility or difficulty maintaining targeted asset allocations, may materially decrease their fund investments or temporarily suspend making new fund investments. Such investors may elect to reduce their overall portfolio allocations to alternative investments such as our funds, resulting in a smaller overall pool of available capital in our industry. In addition, the asset allocation rules or regulations or investment policies to which such third-party investors are subject could inhibit or restrict the ability of third-party investors to make investments in our investment funds. To the extent that the available pool of new capital is reduced or limited, we may be unable to raise successor funds, and the decrease of our revenues as the investment period of our predecessor funds expire and associated fees decrease could have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Investors in our future funds may negotiate to pay us lower investment management and other fees and the economic terms of our future funds may be less favorable to us than those of Colony Capital's existing funds, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

In connection with raising new investment funds or securing additional investments in existing funds, we will negotiate terms for such funds and investments with investors. The outcome of such negotiations could result in our agreement to terms that are materially less favorable to us than the terms of Colony Capital's existing investment funds or funds advised by our competitors. For example such terms could restrict our ability to raise investment funds with investment objectives or strategies that compete with existing funds, reduce fee revenues we earn, reduce the percentage of profits on third-party capital in which we share, include a performance hurdle that requires us to generate a specified return on investment prior to our right to receive carried interest or add expenses and obligations for us in managing the fund or increase our potential liabilities. Furthermore, as institutional investors increasingly consolidate their relationships with investment firms and competition becomes more acute, we may receive more of these requests to modify the terms in our new funds. Agreement to terms that are materially less favorable to us could result in a decrease in our profitability, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The investments held by Colony Capital's investment funds are subject to a number of inherent risks.

Colony Capital's results are highly dependent on its continued ability to generate attractive returns from its funds investments. Investments made by Colony Capital's investment funds involve a number of significant risks inherent to private equity, credit and other investing, including, but not limited to, the following:

real estate assets are subject to risks particular to real property, including lease terminations and/or tenant defaults, any of which could reduce its return from an affected property or asset; non-performing and sub-performing commercial mortgage loans, or loans that may become non-performing and sub-performing, are subject to increased risks relative to performing loans;

the supply of commercial mortgage loans that meet s Colony Capital s investment objectives and strategies will probably decrease as the economy improves, which may cause it to adjust its investment strategies;

commercial mortgage loans and the mortgage loans underlying Colony Capital s CMBS investments are subject to the ability of the property owner to generate net income from operating the property as well as the risks of delinquency and foreclosure;

CMBS investments are subject to the risks of the securitization process, as well as all of the risks of the underlying mortgage loans; investments in non-investment grade rated loans, corporate bank debt and debt securities of commercial real estate operating or finance companies will be subject to the specific risks relating to the particular company and to the general risks of investing in real estate-related loans and securities, which may result in significant losses;

derivative instruments, credit default swaps and construction loans would subject Colony Capital to increased risk of loss; residential mortgage loans are subject to risks particular to investments secured by mortgage loans on residential property; investments may be concentrated and will be subject to risk of default;

equity investments and mezzanine debt investments often rank junior to senior loans or investments made by others, which presents an increased risk of loss of the investment; and limited numbers of investments, or investments concentrated in certain geographic regions or asset types, could negatively affect a fund s performance to the extent those concentrated investments perform poorly.

We are subject to risks and liabilities in connection with sponsoring, investing in and managing new investment funds.

Following consummation of the Combination, we expect to sponsor, manage and serve as general partner of new investment funds. Investment in these funds may involve risks not otherwise present with a direct investment in the fund s target assets, including, for example:

the possibility that investors might become bankrupt or otherwise be unable to meet their capital contribution obligations; that fund agreements often restrict our ability to transfer or liquidate our interest when we desire or on advantageous terms;

that our relationships with the investors will be generally contractual in nature and may be terminated or dissolved under the terms of the agreements, or we may be removed as general partner, and in such event, we may not continue to manage or invest in the applicable fund underlying such relationships; that disputes between us and the investors may result in litigation or arbitration that would increase our expenses and prevent our officers and directors from focusing their time and effort on our business and result in subjecting the investments owned by the applicable investment fund to additional risk; and that we may incur liability for obligations of a partnership by reason of being its general partner.

Table of Contents

The investment management business is intensely competitive, which could have a material adverse impact on our business.

The investment management business is highly fragmented, with Colony Capital's competitors consisting primarily of sponsors of public and private investment funds, real estate development companies, business development companies, investment banks, commercial finance companies and operating companies acting as strategic buyers of businesses. A number of factors serve to increase our competitive risks:

a number of our competitors in some of our businesses may have greater financial, technical, marketing and other resources and more personnel than we do, and, in the case of some asset classes, longer operating histories, more established relationships or greater experience;

fund investors may materially decrease their allocations in new funds due to their experiences following an economic downturn, the limited availability of capital, regulatory requirements or a desire to consolidate their relationships with investment firms;

some of our competitors may have better expertise or be regarded by fund investors as having better expertise in a specific asset class or geographic region than we do;

some of our competitors have agreed to terms on their investment funds or products that may be more favorable to fund investors than our funds or products, such as lower management fees, greater fee sharing, or performance hurdles for carried interest, and therefore we may be forced to match or otherwise revise our terms to be less favorable to us than they have been in the past;

some of our funds may not perform as well as competitors' funds or other available investment products;

our competitors have raised or may raise significant amounts of capital, and many of them have similar investment objectives and strategies to our funds, which may create additional competition for investment opportunities and may reduce the size and duration of pricing inefficiencies that many alternative investment strategies seek to exploit;

some of these competitors may also have a lower cost of capital and access to funding sources that are not available to us, which may create competitive disadvantages for us with respect to investment opportunities;

some of our competitors may have higher risk tolerances, different risk assessments or lower return thresholds, which could allow them to consider a wider variety of investments and to bid more aggressively than us for investments;

some of our competitors may be subject to less regulation or less regulatory scrutiny and accordingly may have more flexibility to undertake and execute certain businesses or investments than we do and/or bear less expense to comply with such regulations than we do;

there are relatively few barriers to entry impeding the formation of new funds, including a relatively low cost of entering these businesses, and the successful efforts of new entrants into our various lines of business, including major commercial and investment banks and other financial institutions, have resulted in increased competition;

some fund investors may prefer to invest with an investment manager that is not publicly traded, is smaller, or manages fewer investment products; and other industry participants will from time to time seek to recruit our investment professionals and other employees away from us.

We may lose investment opportunities in the future if we do not match investment prices, structures and terms offered by competitors. Alternatively, we may experience decreased investment returns and increased risks of loss if we match investment prices, structures and terms offered by competitors. Moreover, as a result, if we are forced to compete with other investment firms on the basis of price, we may not be able to maintain our current fund fee, carried interest or other terms. There is a risk that fees and carried interest in the alternative investment management industry will decline, without regard to the historical performance of a manager. Fee or carried interest income reductions on existing or future funds, without corresponding decreases in our cost structure, would adversely affect our revenues and profitability. In addition, if interest rates were to rise or if market conditions for competing investment products become or are favorable and such products begin to offer rates of return superior to those achieved by our funds, the attractiveness of our funds relative to investments in other investment products could decrease. This competitive pressure could adversely affect our ability to make successful investments and limit our ability to raise future funds, either of which would adversely impact our business, results of operations and cash flow.

Following our acquisition of Colony Capital's business, we will be subject to substantial litigation risks and may face significant liabilities and damage to our professional reputation as a result of litigation allegations and negative publicity.

The investment decisions we will make in our investment management business and the activities of our investment professionals on behalf of our portfolio companies may subject them and us to the risk of third-party litigation arising from dissatisfaction of fund investors with the performance of their funds and a variety of other litigation claims. We also will be exposed to risks of litigation or investigation in the event of any transactions that presented conflicts of interest that were not properly addressed. Additionally, to the extent investors in Colony Capital's investment funds suffer losses resulting from fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct or other similar misconduct, such investors may have remedies against us, our investment funds, our principals or our affiliates under federal securities law and state law.

If any civil or criminal lawsuits are brought against us and result in a finding of substantial legal liability or culpability, the lawsuit could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations or cause significant reputational harm to us, which could seriously impact our business. Colony Capital depends to a large extent on its business relationships and its reputation for integrity and high-caliber professional services to attract and retain fund investors and qualified professionals and to pursue investment opportunities for its funds. As a result, allegations of improper conduct by private litigants or regulators, whether the ultimate outcome is favorable or unfavorable to us, as well as negative publicity and press speculation about Colony Capital, its investment activities or its industry in general, whether or not valid, may harm its reputation, which may be more damaging to its business than to other types of businesses.

Third party investors in Colony Capital's funds with commitment-based structures may not satisfy their contractual obligations to fund capital calls when requested, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Investors in certain of Colony Capital's investment funds make capital commitments to those funds that the funds are entitled to call from those investors at any time during prescribed periods. We will depend on fund investors fulfilling their commitments when we call capital from them in order for such funds to consummate investments and otherwise pay their obligations (for example, management fees) when due. Any fund investor that did not fund a capital call would generally be subject to several possible penalties. However, investors may in the future negotiate for lesser or reduced penalties at the outset of the fund, thereby inhibiting our ability to enforce the funding of a capital call. If our fund investors were to fail to satisfy a significant amount of capital calls for any particular fund or funds, the operation and performance of those funds could be materially and adversely affected.

OUR COMPANY

General

Colony Financial, Inc. is a diversified commercial real estate and investment management company that owns a portfolio of real estate equity and debt investments at attractive risk-adjusted returns. The total return profile of our investments is composed of both current yield, which is distributed through regular-way dividends, and capital appreciation potential, which is distributed through regular-way and/or special dividends. Our investment portfolio and target assets are primarily composed of interests in (i) real estate equity, including direct property and real estate platform investments and (ii) real estate and real estate-related debt, including new originations and loans acquired at a discount to par in the secondary market. Secondary debt purchases may include performing, sub-performing or non-performing loans (including loan-to-own strategies).

On December 18, 2014, certain subsidiaries of the Company, including a U.S. light industrial co-investment partnership formed and managed by the Company, completed the acquisition of a portfolio of 256 light industrial real estate assets and associated operating platform from Cobalt Capital Partners, L.P. and its affiliates for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $1.6 billion.

We are organized and conduct our operations to qualify as a REIT, and generally are not subject to U.S. federal income taxes on our taxable income to the extent that we annually distribute all of our taxable income to stockholders and maintain qualification as a REIT, although we are subject to U.S. federal income tax on income earned through our taxable subsidiaries. We also operate our business in a manner that will permit us to maintain our exemption from registration as an investment company under the 1940 Act.

The Manager and the Management Agreement

At the closing of our initial public offering on September 29, 2009, we entered into a management agreement (the Management Agreement) with our Manager, pursuant to which our Manager provides the day-to-day management of our operations. In November 2011 and March 2013, we amended and restated the Management Agreement. The Management Agreement, as amended, requires our Manager to manage our business affairs in conformity with the policies and the investment guidelines that are approved and monitored by our Board. The initial term of the Management Agreement expired on September 29, 2012, and has been, and will continue to be, renewed for one-year terms thereafter unless terminated by either us or our Manager. Our Manager is entitled to receive a termination fee from us under certain circumstances.

Pursuant to the terms of the Management Agreement, our Manager is entitled to receive from us a base management fee and, if earned, an incentive fee. Each quarterly installment of the incentive fee is payable in shares of our common stock so long as the ownership of such additional number of shares of our common stock by our Manager would not result in a violation of the ownership limits set forth in our charter, after giving effect to any waiver from such limit that our Board may grant in the future. We are also obligated to reimburse certain costs incurred by our Manager on our behalf. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, we incurred base management fees of approximately $22.3 million and reimbursed our Manager approximately $3.6 million for expenses and investment-related costs, including reimbursing an asset manager affiliate of the Manager pursuant to a cost allocation agreement for compensation, overhead and other direct costs incurred for the benefit of certain loan portfolio investments owned by the Company.

Each of our officers is also an employee of Colony Capital and/or certain of its affiliates. Mr. Tangen, our Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, is seconded exclusively to us pursuant to a secondment agreement with Colony Capital. As a result, the Management Agreement between us and our Manager was negotiated between related parties and the terms, including fees and other amounts payable, may not be as favorable to us as if it had been negotiated with an unaffiliated third party.

The Management Agreement is intended to provide us with access to our Manager's pipeline of investment opportunities, personnel and experience in capital markets, credit analysis, debt structuring and risk and asset management, as well as assistance with corporate operations, legal and compliance functions and governance.

Table of ContentsTHE BUSINESS OF COLONY CAPITAL*General

Pursuant to the Combination, we will acquire, among other things, the business of Colony Capital. Colony Capital is a privately held, independent, global real estate investment firm founded in 1991 by Mr. Barrack. Colony Capital's business is the sponsorship and management of investment funds and vehicles, which business historically has primarily focused on real estate and real estate-related assets. Colony Capital has an extensive global footprint and corresponding infrastructure, with approximately 300 employees operating in a total of 13 offices in the following 10 countries: China, England, France, Germany, Italy, Lebanon, Luxembourg, South Korea, Spain and the U.S. This global infrastructure provides Colony Capital's acquisition team with proprietary market knowledge, sourcing capabilities and the local presence required to identify and execute complex transactions. In the 24 years since its inception, Colony Capital has managed investments in diverse and complex property, corporate and portfolio transactions across five continents through varied economic cycles. Since its inception, Colony Capital has managed $60 billion of investments in over 37,000 assets and loans and currently has approximately $19 billion of assets under management (gross) with more than 300 investor relationships.

Since inception, Colony Capital has adapted its investment strategy to the different market opportunities that have arisen from time to time. Beginning in 1991, Colony Capital became one of the pioneering purchasers of distressed assets from the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC), and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC). In the mid-1990s, it identified comparable investment opportunities in Europe. As a result, Colony Capital began to build a significant European presence with an initial investment focus on distressed real estate. As the market opportunities again shifted in the mid- to late-1990s, Colony Capital broadened its focus to include equity investments in real estate and real estate-related assets in the U.S., Europe and Asia, and expanded its global presence by setting up operations in Asia to capitalize on opportunities arising from the Asian financial crisis of the late 1990s. Since then, Colony Capital has established several closed-end investment funds primarily focused on equity investments in real estate and operating businesses significantly dependent on real estate. As the global economy suffered a significant downturn beginning in late 2007 and commercial real estate fundamentals began to deteriorate, Colony Capital leveraged its prior experiences to capitalize on distressed real estate debt opportunities. In 2008, Colony Capital established Colony Distressed Credit Fund, L.P. (CDCF I), a distressed credit private investment fund that has invested $909 million of equity in 21 transactions involving the acquisition of multiple loan portfolios from a variety of financial institutions comprising approximately 3,500 commercial mortgage loans and other commercial real estate-related debt investments. In 2011, Colony Capital established Colony Distressed Credit Fund II, L.P. (CDCF II), the follow-on distressed credit private investment fund that has invested and committed over $884 million of equity in 38 transactions, involving the acquisition of multiple portfolios comprising approximately 3,400 commercial mortgage loans and other commercial real estate-related debt investments. Most recently, Colony Capital established Colony Distressed Credit and Special Situations Fund III, L.P. (CDCF III), a distressed credit private investment fund expected to pursue transactions that are thematically similar to the investments of CDCF I and CDCF II that raised $1.2 billion in capital commencing in 2013. CDCF III is currently in the process of deploying its capital.

Competitive Strengths

Colony Capital leverages the following sources of competitive strengths to help achieve its investment objectives:

Experienced Management Team with Expertise in Real Estate and Real Estate-Related Debt Investments. Colony Capital's principals have worked at Colony Capital for an average of 13 years with an average of 27 years of experience in real estate investing and financing, including experience in distressed real estate investments.

Access to Extensive Pipeline of Investment Opportunities. Colony Capital has extensive long-term relationships with real estate owners, developers and financial intermediaries, including primary dealers, leading investment and commercial banks, brokerage firms, public and private real estate investment companies, mortgage lenders and many strategic partners. Colony Capital believes these relationships, together with our global infrastructure, will provide access to an ongoing pipeline of attractive investment opportunities, both domestic and international, many of which may not be available to its competitors.

Strong Asset Level Underwriting Capabilities. Colony Capital has a fully integrated in-house underwriting platform, which has extensive experience underwriting, conducting due diligence and valuing real estate and real estate-related assets. The foundation of this underwriting platform is the in-depth, asset level evaluation of each investment opportunity using rigorous quantitative and qualitative analysis. Colony Capital believes that these tools enable it to better identify attractive investment opportunities and assess the performance, risk and returns that we should expect from any particular investment. Colony Capital believes that its underwriting, credit, financing and asset management experience will enable it to generate attractive risk-adjusted returns by expeditiously resolving performance issues associated with the loans acquired from the FDIC, commercial banks and other governmental and financial institutions through work-outs, refinancings, negotiated repayments with borrowers or foreclosure and subsequent sale of the underlying property.

Proven Value-Added Execution and Asset Management Experience. Colony Capital's asset management team has extensive experience maximizing current income and creating capital appreciation opportunities through active management of real estate and real estate-related assets. Working collaboratively with the underwriting team, the asset management team formulates a strategic plan designed to extract maximum value from each asset through, among other measures, repositioning, restructuring and intensive management. Colony Capital believes that it has been successful in formulating and executing various asset management strategies through a variety of economic cycles across multiple global markets and in complex capital structures, having resolved over 11,500 loans over its history. In the past, such strategies have included the restructuring of non-performing or sub-performing loans, the negotiation of discounted pay-offs (DPO) or other modification of the terms governing a loan, and the foreclosure and intense management of assets underlying non-performing loans in order to reposition them for profitable disposition. We expect this expertise to benefit our loan-to-own and real estate owned (REO) property investments in particular.

Colony Capital has an established track record in distressed investments that have generated attractive returns for its investors. Given its global reach, sourcing capabilities, proven investment strategies, and experienced management team, Colony Capital believes that the current outlook for investing is especially attractive within the U.S. and is becoming increasingly promising around the globe and Europe in particular.

Colony Capital believes that markets are generally efficient in the long run and that deviations from intrinsic value eventually regress to the mean. Colony Capital's philosophy is to seek attractive risk-adjusted returns by farming both efficient markets, primarily through niche strategies, and inefficient markets where arbitrage opportunities may be available. Colony Capital's expertise in distressed investing equips it with a unique advantage in either circumstance. Colony Capital's long-standing investment philosophy has proven effective across geographic regions and throughout a variety of market conditions. This strategy is based on three related tenets:

- (i) exploitation of inefficiencies: capitalizing on informational advantages to identify micro-market imbalances and secure investments on favorable terms;
- (ii) value-added executions: creating capital appreciation opportunities through repositioning, restructuring, development, and intensive management; and

- (iii) cautious contrarianism: during downturns or secular changes, investing in out-of-favor sectors or markets to exploit capital or product misalignments.

Exploitation of Inefficiencies

In efficient markets, many fully informed and qualified buyers achieve market returns. Exploiting circumstances that impede other investors puts one in a position to realize above-average, risk-adjusted returns that can result from situations that are less than fully competitive. These competitive impediments include: (i) structural and situational complexity, including transaction size, which inhibits many other investors, (ii) information advantages, which optimize assessment of the risks and rewards inherent in a prospective investment, (iii) local market expertise, without which property-based investments cannot be confidently executed, (iv) proprietary transaction sourcing, which can yield investment opportunities that are secured without enduring an auction process, and (v) financial sophistication, which can be an important skill in arbitraging financial market inefficiencies. Colony's network of in-country offices and strategic partners enhances its competitive advantage by contributing specialized expertise, expanding its local presence in important geographic markets and providing access to proprietary deal flow.

Value-Added Executions

Successful execution of a contrarian investment strategy that exploits inefficiencies requires a commitment to value-enhancing management consistent with a defined business plan. Equally important is the early identification of multiple prospective exit strategies integrated into the investment thesis. While financial arbitrage alone can produce compelling returns, mastering transactional complexities and enhancing an investment's value through hands-on management can produce outsized returns relative to the arbitrage opportunity. Only through such intensive stewardship can many investments achieve the cash flow characteristics that permit optimal financings and ultimate exit into more liquid markets. Whether through its in-house property repositioning capabilities, its development expertise or operational management of its strategic partners, or its active corporate board representation, Colony is directly involved in the value maximization of a substantial majority of its investments. Having invested in 37,000 assets since Colony Capital's inception, Colony Capital possesses extensive transactional experience, which serves to optimize dispositions, whether in private or public markets.

Cautious Contrarianism

Colony Capital is generally guided by a contrarian, opportunistic investment philosophy that has allowed it to identify and capitalize on situations not yet fully understood or exploited by others. Colony Capital views the market as a set of interdependent and independent cycles constantly redefining opportunities within distinct product types, geographic areas, industries, and capital markets. Low points within these respective cycles often present highly attractive acquisition opportunities, as sellers outnumber buyers in relatively illiquid markets. In such periods, Colony Capital has shown conviction in the face of strong countervailing market sentiment. We believe that the early recognition of capital misalignments, recapitalization and restructuring opportunities can produce extraordinary profits as liquidity returns and valuation multiples expand during times of cyclical recovery. Since its original RTC portfolio acquisition in 1991, Colony Capital has demonstrated its ability to invest ahead of the market, as illustrated through its early acquisitions of non-performing loan portfolios from the FDIC in 2009, among the first of the current cycle, as well as the formation of Colony American Homes in March 2012, among the first, and now one of the largest, aggregators and operators of single-family residential rentals in the United States.

Investment Process

Colony Capital's successful track record in making distressed investments, including investments by CDCF I and CDCF II, is the result of a thorough investment process structured around the experience, resources and professionals of Colony Capital. This process initially involves:

- i. identifying investment opportunities;

- ii. assessing the opportunities to ensure that they meet preliminary screening criteria, i.e., suitability of the potential investment in light of our investment guidelines; and

- iii. reviewing the opportunities to determine whether to incur costs associated with more in-depth diligence.

Table of Contents

If the decision is made to proceed with full-scale diligence, the next phase of Colony Capital's investment process involves assessing the risk-reward profile of the investment through, among other things:

- i. intensive data collection by Colony Capital's in-house acquisition, asset management and loan-servicing personnel and third-party providers, including, as appropriate, financial, physical, legal and environmental due diligence of the assets underlying the investment opportunities;
- ii. data consolidation and quantitative analyses of the key drivers affecting value, such as cash flows and collateral performance, lease analysis, and credit and prepayment risk; and
- iii. thorough review of the investment capital structure, borrower and tenant analysis, servicer and originator information, legal structure and deal documentation.

Structure

Colony Capital provides the general partners of its sponsored investment funds with the personnel, facilities and other resources they reasonably require to manage the business and affairs of their respective investment funds.

Colony Capital conducts the sponsorship and management of these investment funds primarily through a partnership structure in which limited partnerships are organized by general partners, which accept commitments for investment from institutional investors and (to a limited extent) high-net worth individuals. Such commitments are generally drawn down from investors on an as-needed basis to fund investments over a specified term. Substantially all of the responsibility for the day-to-day operations of each investment fund is typically delegated by the general partner of such investment fund to Colony Capital pursuant to an investment management (or similar) agreement, and Colony Capital receives all investment management fees paid by the investment fund to its general partner. Investment management fees paid to the general partner, and then to Colony Capital, typically are paid quarterly and are equal to a specified percentage of partners' net funded capital contributions. In addition to these investment management services, an affiliate of Colony Capital generally provides asset management services to the investment funds in exchange for asset management fees.

In addition to having an investment adviser, each investment fund that is a limited partnership also has a general partner that makes all operational and investment decisions relating to the conduct of the investment fund's business. Mr. Barrack controls the general partner of all Colony Capital's investment funds. Furthermore, all decisions concerning the making, monitoring and disposing of investments are made by the general partner. The limited partners of the partnership funds take no part in the conduct or control of the business of the investment funds, have no right or authority to act for or bind the investment funds and have no influence over the voting or disposition of the securities or other assets held by the investment funds. These decisions are made by the investment fund's general partner in its sole discretion. Subject to certain conditions in the case of some of the investment funds, investors in Colony Capital's investment funds generally have the right to remove the general partner of the fund or to accelerate the liquidation date of the investment fund with cause by a simple majority vote or without cause with a certain higher percentage of limited partners.

Historically, Colony Capital professionals have funded a significant portion of the capital contributions of the general partners of the investment funds and have been entitled to receive any carried interest to which such general partners are entitled. In certain instances, Colony Capital or its affiliates have invested in or held relatively minor interests in the general partners of its investment funds. Interests in these general partners are not being transferred to the Company in the Combination.

Description of Investment Platforms

Colony Capital has historically targeted three major investment strategies, each executed from separate platforms, but all leveraging Colony's back office infrastructure, which is largely located in Santa Monica, California. Each investment platform benefits from its synergistic relationship with one another. Because the platforms target different strategies and return profiles, the potential conflicts of interest are reduced. The platforms comprise:

Debt funds that seek primarily distressed investments that Colony Capital believes can generate gross mid-teens returns using moderate leverage, with a focus on opportunities emanating from the dislocation in the credit markets, including investments in FDIC loan portfolios, other loan portfolios, originated and acquired loans, special situation investments and CMBS debt securities.

Opportunity funds focused on equity investment opportunities that Colony Capital believes may generate levered gross returns in excess of 20%, including asset-specific real estate funds and global and regional opportunity funds focused on, among other things, investments in single family residential rental homes, investments in operating companies with a significant dependence upon real estate, investments in commercial developments, direct investments in real estate and investments in performing and non-performing senior and junior mortgages.

U.S. value-added real estate funds that are managed by CRP and focused on real estate investments in industrial, office, multifamily and retail properties located in the United States that Colony Capital believes can generate levered gross returns of 12-15%.

Regulation as an Investment Adviser

Colony Capital is a registered investment adviser under the U.S. Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the Investment Advisers Act). As a result of our acquisition of Colony Capital's business pursuant to the Combination, we or one or more of our subsidiaries will register with the SEC as an investment advisor under the Investment Advisers Act. Therefore, we will become subject to the anti-fraud provisions of the Investment Advisers Act and to fiduciary duties derived from these provisions that apply to our relationships with the investment funds that we manage. These provisions and duties impose restrictions and obligations on us with respect to our dealings with our fund investors and our investments, including, for example, restrictions on agency, cross and principal transactions. We or our registered investment adviser subsidiaries will be subject to periodic SEC examinations and other requirements under the Investment Advisers Act and related regulations primarily intended to benefit advisory clients. These additional requirements relate, among other things, to maintaining an effective and comprehensive compliance program, recordkeeping and reporting requirements and disclosure requirements. The Investment Advisers Act generally grants the SEC broad administrative powers, including the power to limit or restrict an investment adviser from conducting advisory activities in the event it fails to comply with federal securities laws. Additional sanctions that may be imposed for failure to comply with applicable requirements include the prohibition of individuals from associating with an investment adviser, the revocation of registrations and other censures and fines.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE TO PROPOSALS 1 AND 2

Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, the Company has prepared this proxy statement with input from Colony Capital under the direction of the Special Committee, which is comprised of independent and disinterested directors who are not affiliated with Colony Capital. The Special Committee unanimously recommends, and the Board recommends by unanimous vote of those present, that you vote to (1) approve the Issuances, (2) approve the Charter Amendments, and (3) approve the Adjournment Proposal. If any of the Issuances or Charter Amendments are not approved by stockholders, the Combination will not be consummated.

PROPOSAL 1: THE ISSUANCES

The Consideration that will be paid in the Combination, including pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, includes equity to be issued by us and equity to be issued by OP. In particular, in order to effect the Combination, the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement require the issuance of (i) shares of our Class A Common Stock, (ii) shares of our Class B Common Stock, which under certain circumstances may convert into shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis, and (iii) OP Units, which under certain circumstances may be redeemed for shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis. These Issuances will be made without registration under the Securities Act in reliance on Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act. This Proposal 1 is to consider and vote upon the proposal to make these Issuances, which the Special Committee has determined are advisable to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders. The Special Committee has recommended the submission of the proposal to make the Issuances for stockholder approval at the Special Meeting.

The Issuances

In connection with the Combination, we will issue up to approximately 3.94 million shares of Class A Common Stock and up to 665,593 shares of Class B Common Stock, and OP will issue up to approximately 25.22 million OP Units. Each share of Class B Common Stock will be, at the holder's option, convertible into one share of Class A Common Stock and will convert automatically into one share of Class A Common Stock upon the transfer of such share or of certain OP Units to one or more non-qualified transferees or any qualified transferee of such share or OP Units ceasing to be a qualified transferee. See Proposal 2(a) Amendment to Create Class B Common Stock beginning on page 86 for a more detailed description of the terms of the Class B Common Stock. Each OP Unit will be redeemable, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the operating agreement of OP, at the holder's option, for cash equal to the average closing price of Class A Common Stock for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date we receive a notice of redemption; provided, that we may choose, at our sole discretion, to satisfy this redemption right by exchanging such OP Units for shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis, in lieu of cash.

The above consideration represented a value of $657.5 million at the time of the announcement of the transaction based on a reference price that equated to $22.05 per share (the Reference Price) (which would have a current value of approximately $732.0 million when using the volume-weighted average closing price on the NYSE of the Company's common stock over a 10-day trading period ending January 20, 2015 of $24.55 (the VWAP)). Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, the Reference Price was used to determine the number of shares and OP Units to be issued to the Contributors and the Mark Transferor in the Combination. The Reference Price was the higher of (x) the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 30 trading days prior to the initial announcement of the transaction, and (y) the third quarter 2014 fair value Company share price, which the parties agreed would be the fair value of the Company's net assets on a per share basis as of September 30, 2014, or $22.05 per share. Because the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 30 trading days prior to the initial announcement of the transaction was lower than $22.05 per share, the Reference Price was $22.05 per share.

The aggregate potential consideration consists of:

fixed upfront consideration to be paid in a combination of up to approximately 2.83 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 566,635 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 21.44 million OP Units, representing a value of $547.5 million at the time of the announcement of the Combination based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value equal to approximately $609.6 million when using the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments as described below; and contingent consideration to be paid in a combination of up to approximately 1.11 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 98,958 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 3.78 million OP Units, representing a value of up to approximately $110.0 million at the time of announcement based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value of up to approximately $122.5 million when using the VWAP), subject to multi-year performance targets for achievement of certain FFO per share targets and capital-raising thresholds from the funds management businesses. If the minimum performance target for either of these metrics is not met or exceeded, the contingent consideration paid in respect of the other metric would not be paid out in full.

In connection with the Combination, the upfront consideration is subject to upward and downward adjustments at the Closing in respect of cash, indebtedness and net working capital. If the closing adjustment results in an increase to the upfront consideration, such adjustment will, subject to the applicable cap, be paid in cash and to the extent such adjustment exceeds the applicable cap, will increase the number of OP Units to be issued in the Combination. If the closing adjustment results in a decrease to the upfront consideration, such adjustment will reduce the number of OP Units to be issued in the Combination.

Up to 151,520 shares of Class A Common Stock, 13,494 shares of Class B Common Stock and 515,258 OP Units, representing $15.0 million of the contingent consideration at the time of announcement based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value of approximately $16.7 million when using the VWAP) may be reallocated to upfront consideration if the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 10 trading days prior to the tenth calendar day preceding the date of the Special Meeting were to exceed $24.05, with the full amount reallocated if such volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock were to equal or exceed $27.05. For example, if the 10-day volume-weighted average closing price of our common stock for such period were $24.55 (VWAP) upfront consideration would be increased, and contingent consideration decreased, by 25,253 shares of Class A Common Stock, 2,249 shares of Class B Common Stock, and 85,876 OP Units representing $2.5 million of the re-allocated consideration based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value of approximately $2.7 million when using the VWAP).

The number of shares of Class A Common Stock, shares of Class B Common Stock and OP Units issuable as consideration will be subject to reduction for a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid on its behalf by the Company.

In connection with the Combination, the Company and OP have entered into the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement with the Mark Transferor pursuant to which the Mark Transferor will transfer the Colony Mark to OP in exchange for consideration to be paid in the form of up to 151,355 shares of our Class A Common Stock and up to 665,593 shares of our Class B Common Stock, including (i) fixed upfront consideration with a value of $15.0 million based on the Reference Price (and $16.7 million based on the VWAP) to be paid at the closing under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, subject to certain adjustments, and (ii) contingent consideration with a value of up to approximately $3.0

million based on the Reference Price (and $3.4 million based on the VWAP) if earned over time under the same multi-year performance targets required for receipt of the contingent consideration under the Contribution Agreement. Contingent consideration with a value of up to $410,959 based on the Reference Price (and $457,553 based on the VWAP) will be reallocated to upfront consideration if the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 10 trading days prior to the tenth calendar day preceding the date of the Special Meeting were to exceed $24.05.

Table of Contents

An illustrative allocation of the upfront consideration and contingent consideration to certain of the Contributors and the Mark Transferor is set forth below. Such illustrative allocation does not reflect any adjustment for transaction expenses that may be paid by the Company on behalf of the Contributors and the Mark Transferor at the Closing, and does not reflect the potential reallocation of contingent consideration to upfront consideration at the Closing.

Reasons for the IssuancesThe Special Committee

In evaluating the Issuances, the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, the Special Committee consulted with its legal and financial advisors. In reaching its determination, the Special Committee considered a number of factors, including the following material factors which the Special Committee viewed as supporting its decisions with respect to the Issuances, the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement.

the belief that the Combination would be accretive to net income and FFO per share on an annualized basis after excluding non-cash purchase accounting adjustments;

the positive market reaction on November 4, 2014 to the announcement of a non-binding agreement regarding the Issuances, including positive coverage by research analysts and the Company's share price outperformance of its peers and the broader market since the announcement;

the belief that internalization of the Company's external Manager could eliminate perceived or actual existing conflicts of interest between the Company and Colony Capital;

the belief that increased ownership of the Company by certain of the Company's officers and directors would more directly align the interests of such officers and directors with those of current stockholders;

the belief that the internalization of its external Manager would enable the Company to realize efficiencies arising from an internally managed structure in that the Company will pay for management, advisory, acquisition and development services directly rather than paying a third-party fees for such services, thereby enabling the Company to both eliminate the profits that were previously being realized by the Manager for providing such services and potentially allowing the Company in the future to raise additional equity without a proportionate increase in the cost of managing the Company that would likely result had the Company continued to be externally managed;

the belief that the Combination would result in a reduction in the Company's operating expenses, including as a result of replacing management fees paid to Colony Capital with directly incurred costs;

the Company's ability, through the internalization of its external Manager, to control key functions that are important to the growth of its business;

enhanced revenue to the Company from the addition of Colony Capital's in-place, fee-generating arrangements with third parties;

enhanced simplicity by virtue of unifying all of the Company's and Colony Capital's investment activity and resources under a single, transparent corporate structure;

the belief that the transactions may attract new investors to the Company and improve the Company's ability to raise capital;

the terms and conditions of the Contribution Agreement and related agreements, including the type and amount of consideration to be paid and the representations, warranties, covenants, conditions to the Closing and indemnification obligations set forth therein, together with the material terms of the ancillary agreements entered into or to be entered into in connection with the Combination;

the employment agreements and restrictive covenant agreements entered into by Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Freeman, Harmeling, and Brauer, and the expectation that additional key executives, including Messrs. Sanders, Tangen and Traenkle would enter into employment and restrictive covenant agreements between signing and closing; the lock-up agreements entered into by Mr. Barrack and Colony Capital, CCH I, Mr. Saltzman, and FHB LLC;

the belief that as the Company continues its expansion into equity or equity-like investments, an internal management structure (which predominates for equity REITs, as opposed to traditional mortgage REITs) would become more expected and retaining an external management structure would be more likely to lead to resistance from existing and potential investors;

the fact that the approval of the Issuances is subject to the approval of the Company's common stockholders and the right of the Company's common stockholders to vote against the Issuances for any reason;

the right of the Special Committee to withdraw or alter its recommendation in favor of the Issuances, subject to the standards, procedures and termination and expense reimbursement provisions of the Contribution Agreement; and the opinion of Morgan Stanley, dated December 22, 2014, to the Special Committee as to the fairness to the Company, from a financial point of view and as of such date, of the consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, which opinion was subject to the qualifications, assumptions and limitations and other matters Morgan Stanley considered relevant, as more fully described in "Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor" beginning on page 59.

The Special Committee also took into account the following material factors. Although the Special Committee viewed these as potentially negative factors with respect to the Combination, the Special Committee believed these factors were outweighed by the positive factors set forth above:

existing potential conflicts of interest between the Company and Colony Capital, including the respective positions of the Company's management team and certain directors with the Company and

Colony Capital and the compensation and/or other benefits to be received by such persons, either directly or indirectly, as a result of the transactions, as well as the fact that each of Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman will have a direct or indirect interest in the consideration paid and could make substantial profits as a result of the Combination;

the significant costs involved in connection with completing the Issuances and other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, the substantial management time and effort required to complete the Issuances and the related disruption to operations of the Company;

the potential liabilities associated with the direct employment of personnel; and the potential liabilities that the Company may inherit from Colony Capital as a result of the Combination that would not be covered by the indemnities in the Contribution Agreement.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Special Committee is not intended to be exhaustive and is not provided in any specific order or ranking, but rather includes material factors considered by the Special Committee. In reaching its decision regarding the Issuances, the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, the Special Committee did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered and individuals may have given different weights to different factors. The Special Committee conducted an overall review of the factors considered and determined that, in the aggregate, the potential benefits considered outweighed the potential risks or possible negative consequences of approving the Issuances, the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement.

The Board

The Board approved the Issuances, the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, having determined that they are advisable to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders. The Board based its determination primarily on:

the factors considered by and the recommendation of the Special Committee; and the extensive negotiations of the Special Committee with Colony Capital and their respective advisors.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Board is not intended to be exhaustive and is not provided in any specific order or ranking, but rather includes material factors considered by the Board. In reaching its decision regarding the Issuances, the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, the Board did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered and individuals may have given different weights to different factors.

Background of the Issuances

At this time, the Company is managed by our Manager, a wholly owned subsidiary of Colony Capital, in exchange for a fee pursuant to a management agreement. On May 6, 2014, Thomas J. Barrack, Jr., the Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Colony Capital and Executive Chairman of the Company, sent a letter to our Board proposing, among other things, that the Company (i) internalize the Manager, including all key senior management, into the Company and cancel the Company's management agreement with the Manager, (ii) acquire the management contracts of substantially all of Colony Capital's direct real estate and credit funds and related investment and co-investment vehicles, including each Colony Distressed Credit Fund, as well as funds managed by CRP, (iii) acquire the right to conduct future real estate activities under the Colony brand and (iv) acquire Colony Capital's asset management company. The May 6 letter indicated that the only material assets that would be retained were certain legacy opportunity funds that were beyond their commitment periods, Colony Capital's 53% stake in the external manager of CAH, and certain corporate investments made by Colony Capital.

On May 8, 2014, immediately following the regularly-scheduled quarterly Board meeting, the Board met in executive session to discuss the May 6 letter. At that meeting, the Board discussed the formation of the Special Committee, which would be comprised of all of the then-current independent directors of the Board at such time, namely George G. C. Parker, John A. Somers and John L. Steffens. The Board also discussed the necessity for the Special Committee to have the power to retain its own legal counsel and financial advisors and to have other powers typical of an independent special committee, and acknowledged that prospective members of the Special Committee would begin the process of engaging the Special Committee's own legal counsel and financial advisors.

On May 19, 2014, the independent directors met with attorneys from Wachtell Lipton to discuss the general role and responsibilities of a special committee and the engagement of Wachtell Lipton as legal counsel to the independent directors and the Special Committee for purposes of evaluating the proposed transaction. The independent directors resolved that Wachtell Lipton would serve as legal counsel to the independent directors and the Special Committee and discussed potentially engaging Morgan Stanley as financial advisor to the Special Committee, including a review of Morgan Stanley's qualifications and past engagements.

On May 28, 2014, Mr. Barrack sent a letter to the independent directors proposing a valuation of $610 million for the business proposed to be sold in the May 6 letter. The proposed consideration would be paid entirely in equity of the Company and would be subject to a lock-up consistent with transactions of this type. That same day, the independent directors met with Morgan Stanley to discuss the May 6 letter and the May 28 letter. The next day, the independent directors met again to elect Mr. Steffens as the chairman of the Special Committee, including a deliberation of Morgan Stanley's expertise, competence and prior experience.

On June 4, 2014, the Board, including all of the then-current independent directors, executed a unanimous written consent resolving to formally establish the Special Committee and give that committee the full power to investigate, evaluate, develop, explore, and negotiate the proposed transaction or any alternative transactions. The Board also agreed not to recommend, authorize, approve, or otherwise endorse the proposed transaction unless such transaction had been recommended by the Special Committee. The Special Committee met again on June 6, 2014 and June 19, 2014 with Wachtell Lipton to further discuss the formal retention of Morgan Stanley as financial advisor to the Special Committee. The Board also ratified all actions that had been taken by the independent directors and the Special Committee up to that time.

The following week, on June 11, 2014, the Company publicly disclosed in a current report on Form 8-K the receipt of Colony Capital's proposal and the formation of the Special Committee.

On June 19, 2014, the Special Committee, accompanied by its advisors, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton, met with representatives from Colony Capital, Goldman, Sachs & Co., Colony Capital's financial advisor (Goldman Sachs), and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, Colony Capital's legal advisor (Skadden), to discuss the proposed transaction. At the meeting, Colony Capital and Goldman Sachs provided additional information regarding the proposed structure of the transaction, including assets and personnel proposed to be contributed and excluded, the strategic rationale for the proposed transaction, and certain assumptions underlying Colony Capital's valuation of the proposed transaction.

Following this meeting, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton sent Goldman Sachs and Skadden a list of diligence requests in connection with the proposed transaction. Skadden also sent Wachtell Lipton a proposed non-disclosure agreement governing the exchange of information in connection with the transaction. An online data site for the proposed transaction was opened on June 25, 2014 and, following negotiations, the non-disclosure agreement was executed on July 1, 2014. For the next several months through signing, both Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton conducted financial and legal due diligence regarding the Colony Capital assets and engaged in numerous discussions with Goldman Sachs, management of Colony Capital and Skadden on these matters. On July 9, 2014, the Special Committee, Morgan Stanley, and Wachtell Lipton met telephonically to discuss initial due diligence findings and analyses in process.

On August 5, 2014, the Special Committee met with Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton to discuss the proposed transaction. At that meeting, the Special Committee and its advisors discussed, among other things, diligence findings and observations to-date, the strategic rationale of the combined business, preliminary valuations of the proposed transaction, an overview of the Company's management contract with Colony Manager, structural considerations, and a summary of Colony Capital's private funds business. Following that meeting and during the rest of the month of August, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton continued to request additional transaction detail and conduct due diligence investigations.

On September 4, 2014, the Special Committee met again with Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton to discuss the proposed transaction. Specifically, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton presented an update on diligence, financial analysis, an overview of the CRP business and potential next steps. Based on these discussions, the Special Committee directed Morgan Stanley to prepare a counter-offer that would include details surrounding the structure and would also include in the transaction previously excluded aspects of the Colony Capital business (e.g., legacy opportunity funds). On September 8, 2014, the Special Committee, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton held a telephonic discussion to discuss the counter-proposal.

On September 11, 2014, Morgan Stanley sent Colony Capital and Goldman Sachs a counter-proposal. This counter-proposal offered upfront consideration of $425 million, base contingent consideration of up to $100 million, and additional contingent consideration of up to $50 million, for total potential consideration of $575 million. This counter-proposal also offered incremental consideration of $25 million for the 50% ownership interest in CRP that was not owned by CRM. The proposed contingent consideration could be earned by achieving certain performance targets related to private capital fundraising, opportunity capital fundraising, and cumulative core earnings excluding realized promotes and incentive fees. The counter-proposal also proposed that Colony Capital use its best efforts to include certain legacy real estate funds and the Company's purchase of the Colony trademark, both at valuations to be agreed upon (the consideration referenced in this paragraph was not inclusive of any consideration for the certain legacy real estate funds and the Colony trademark). The counter-proposal also proposed a lock-up and vesting of the consideration, and employment agreements with Mr. Barrack, Richard Saltzman, Darren Tangen, and Kevin Traenkle. In the following week, Morgan Stanley, Goldman Sachs and representatives of Colony Capital had detailed discussions concerning the September 11 counter-proposal.

On September 17, 2014, the Special Committee, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton met with representatives of Colony Capital, including Mr. Barrack and Mr. Saltzman, Goldman Sachs, and Skadden to discuss the September 11 counter-proposal, including the rationale for the transaction, the amount and target thresholds for the contingent consideration and the scope of the assets to be sold. Morgan Stanley and Goldman Sachs had subsequent discussions concerning the September 11 counter-proposal over the next several days.

On September 23, 2014, Goldman Sachs sent a revised proposal to the Special Committee and its advisors. That same day, Goldman Sachs and representatives of Colony Capital met with Morgan Stanley to discuss the September 23 proposal and explain the revised terms. The September 23 proposal included upfront consideration of $575 million, contingent consideration of $60 million to be earned based on the achievement of certain capital raising targets for real estate funds, additional contingent consideration of $15 million for exceeding such real estate capital raise targets, and an additional $15 million of contingent consideration for achieving certain capital raising targets for non-real estate funds. The scope of the September 23 proposal included the 50% of CRP not owned by CRM and all management agreements and related personnel, assets and liabilities associated with Colony Capital's legacy opportunity funds and other businesses (excluding Colony American Homes), including Colony Capital's non-real estate related businesses. The September 23 proposal provided for a 3-year lock-up period applicable to the recipients of the Company's shares in the transaction and additional exceptions to the lock-up, including for sales to cover taxes.

Finally, the September 23 proposal provided detailed terms of Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Tangen and Traenkle's employment agreements, including compensation, non-competition provisions and five-year terms for Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman and three year terms for Messrs. Tangen and Traenkle. The proposed base compensation for the executives included an annual base salary of $7.5 million for Mr. Barrack, $2 million for Mr. Saltzman and $350,000 for Messrs. Tangen and Traenkle, plus annual and long-term incentive compensation as determined by the Board.

Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton continued to have discussions with Goldman Sachs and Skadden regarding the proposed transaction, as well as with Hogan Lovells US LLP, the Company's REIT counsel (Hogan), to discuss tax issues related to the proposed transaction, including tax structuring and the Company's ability to maintain its REIT status. In late September, the Special Committee also engaged the Semler Brossy Consulting Group, LLC (Semler Brossy), an independent executive compensation consulting firm, to advise the Special Committee on the proposed terms of the employment agreements.

On October 6, 2014, the Special Committee met with Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton to discuss the proposed transaction. The members of the Special Committee received an update on the diligence process, reviewed proposals received from Colony Capital and discussed possible counter-proposals. The Special Committee also discussed potential elements of the existing Colony Capital business that would not be transferred as part of the proposed transaction (and the effect that such non-transferred businesses would have on the valuation of Colony Capital's business).

On October 8, 2014, Morgan Stanley circulated a revised counter-proposal to Goldman Sachs, which proposed the inclusion of 100% of Colony Realty Partners, all legacy real estate funds, all non-real estate activities of Colony Capital, and the Colony trademark, in addition to the components included in all prior proposals referenced herein. The components of this proposal are the same as included in all subsequent proposals outlined herein. The counter-proposal proposed total potential consideration for the transaction of $635 million, consisting of $500 million of upfront consideration and $135 million of contingent consideration. The contingent consideration consisted of $40 million to be earned based on achievement of a target tied to FFO, $40 million based on achievement of real estate capital raise targets and $15 million based on achievement of non-real-estate capital raise targets. In addition, the counter-proposal contained provisions for additional consideration of up to $20 million for exceeding certain FFO targets and additional consideration of $20 million for exceeding certain real estate capital raise targets.

On October 15, 2014, Goldman Sachs sent Morgan Stanley a revised proposal from Colony Capital proposing total potential consideration of $655 million, consisting of $560 million of upfront consideration and $95 million of contingent consideration. The contingent consideration consisted of $30 million to be earned based on achievement of a target tied to FFO, $30 million based on achievement of real estate capital raise targets, and $15 million based on achievement of non-real-estate capital raise targets. In addition, the proposal contained provisions for additional consideration of up to $10 million tied to exceeding FFO targets and additional consideration of $10 million tied to exceeding real estate capital raise targets.

On October 20, 2014, the Special Committee met with Semler Brossy, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton. Semler Brossy presented its preliminary analysis of the proposed terms of the employment agreements for Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Tangen and Traenkle and the preliminary results of their market compensation benchmarking analysis of the Company's peer group. The Special Committee and Semler Brossy discussed these analyses and a possible counter-proposal to the September 23 proposal, based on these preliminary analyses.

On October 20, 2014, Mr. Steffens met with Mr. Saltzman to discuss the amount and structure of the consideration and the scope of the assets to be transferred in the proposed transaction. On October 21, Mr. Steffens and Mr. Barrack discussed the acquisition of the Colony Capital trademark and associated intellectual property in association with the proposed transaction.

On October 23, 2014, Morgan Stanley provided Goldman Sachs with a revised term sheet, in which the Special Committee proposed total potential consideration of $647.5 million, consisting of $532.5 million of upfront consideration and $115.0 million of contingent consideration. The contingent consideration consisted of $33.3 million to be earned based on achievement of a target tied to FFO, $33.3 million based on achievement of real estate capital raise targets, and $15.0 million based on achievement of non-real-estate capital raise targets. In addition, the counter-proposal contained provisions for additional consideration of up to $16.7 million tied to exceeding FFO targets and additional consideration of $16.7 million tied to exceeding real estate capital raise targets. The term sheet also proposed a value of $15.0 million for the Colony Capital name, trademark, and related intellectual property, and a compensation counter-proposal for Mr. Barrack of a total annual base salary plus target annual bonus totalling $5.0 million.

On October 24, 2014, the Special Committee met with Semler Brossy, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton specifically to discuss compensation-related items. Semler Brossy provided their final market compensation benchmarking analysis summarizing the compensation practices among the Company's peer companies, including with respect to base salary, annual target bonus opportunities, long-term target equity compensation opportunities, as well as severance and change in control arrangements at the Company's peers. Semler Brossy and Wachtell Lipton also reviewed the proposed compensation terms for each of Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Tangen and Traenkle with the Special Committee in light of Semler Brossy's benchmarking analysis. Semler Brossy also presented its recommendations relating to the proposed compensation arrangements and terms of employment for Mr. Barrack and Mr. Saltzman, as well as Messrs. Tangen, Traenkle and Ronald Sanders, which the Special Committee then discussed.

On October 28, 2014, Mr. Steffens held a telephonic meeting with Mr. Saltzman to discuss the latest proposals, including the amount and structure of the consideration and the scope of the assets to be included.

On October 29, 2014, Colony Capital provided the Special Committee with an updated term sheet reflecting Mr. Steffens' and Mr. Saltzman's discussions. The term sheet provided for total consideration of consisting of $547.5 million of upfront consideration (including the value of the Colony Capital intellectual property) and $110.0 million of contingent consideration, for an aggregate consideration of approximately $657.5 million. The contingent consideration consisted of $31.6 million to be earned based on achievement of a target tied to FFO, $31.6 million based on achievement of real estate capital raise targets, and $15.0 million based on achievement of non-real-estate capital raise targets. In addition, the term sheet contained provisions for additional consideration of up to $16.0 million tied to exceeding FFO targets and additional consideration of $16.0 million tied to exceeding real estate capital raise targets. The term sheet also provided that Ronald M. Sanders, the Company's Chief Legal Officer and Secretary, will enter into employment agreements with the Company on terms similar to Darren Tangen and Kevin Traenkle. The term sheet also proposed a closing net working capital balance of negative $5.0 million to be referenced in closing adjustments. Furthermore, the term sheet specified that the reference price for the Consideration would be the higher of the 30 day volume-weighted average price prior to the initial announcement of the transaction or the Company's reported fair value as of September 30, 2014. Consistent with the October 23 proposal, the term sheet reflected an annual base salary and annual target bonus of $5.0 million totaling for Mr. Barrack.

On October 30, 2014 Skadden provided Wachtell Lipton with a draft memorandum of understanding (MOU), which was intended to make the negotiated term sheet a binding agreement and was intended to be filed publicly.

On October 31, 2014, the Special Committee held a telephonic meeting with Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton in attendance. The Special Committee and its advisors discussed the need for, and advantages and disadvantages of, entering into a binding agreement on a term sheet basis, advantages and disadvantages of publicly disclosing the existence and terms of the term sheet and key terms that would be disclosed, if any public announcement were to occur. The Special Committee concluded that the term sheet should remain a non-binding agreement in principle, but that the public disclosure of the existence and material terms of the proposed transaction was in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Over the next few days, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton discussed with Goldman Sachs and Skadden the content of the potential public disclosure, subject to final review by the Special Committee.

Table of Contents

On November 4, 2014, the Special Committee met with representatives of Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton in person at Colony Capital's offices to review the term sheet and the public disclosures regarding the proposed transaction. Wachtell Lipton and Morgan Stanley provided the Special Committee with an overview of the proposed transaction process to-date. Morgan Stanley reviewed key terms of the MOU, summarized the Colony Capital assets to be included in the proposed transaction, and discussed the amount and structure of consideration (including the contingent nature of much of the consideration). Morgan Stanley also orally presented its preliminary financial analysis of the consideration to be paid by the Company in the Combination, which valued Colony Capital's business using a number of valuation methodologies, including a discounted cash flow analysis, a precedent transactions and comparable companies analysis, and a sum-of-the-parts analysis. The Special Committee and its advisors then discussed the content of the public announcement of the proposed transaction, confirming that the announcement reflected the non-binding nature of the agreement, and the Special Committee unanimously decided to announce that the parties had reached a non-binding agreement in principle. Shortly following the decision reached at the meeting, a press statement announcing the non-binding agreement was released.

On November 10, 2014, Skadden provided Wachtell Lipton with the first draft version of the Contribution Agreement. Drafts of additional, ancillary transaction documents were provided over the next six weeks.

On November 16, 2014, Skadden provided Wachtell Lipton with draft employment agreements for key employees (and other ancillary agreements relating to such key employees). Between this date and the date of signing, Skadden and Wachtell Lipton, along with counsel representing individual employees, reviewed these agreements and exchanged additional drafts.

On November 20, 2014, the Special Committee met with Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton to discuss the material terms of the draft Contribution Agreement.

Following this discussion with the Special Committee, on November 21, 2014, Wachtell Lipton provided an updated version of the Contribution Agreement to Skadden, which included, among other things, changes to details of the amount and structure of the consideration not fully specified in the term sheet, the scope of representations and warranties, constraints on the Special Committee's ability to change its recommendation or terminate the proposed transaction, and indemnity provisions. Over the next four weeks, Wachtell Lipton and Skadden continuously exchanged drafts of the Contribution Agreement and ancillary transaction documents.

Between November 20, 2014 and mid-December, 2014, Morgan Stanley had several conversations with Goldman Sachs to discuss the reference metrics for the contingent consideration and the associated documentation and calculations.

On December 10, 2014, the Special Committee held a telephonic meeting, with Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton in attendance, to discuss outstanding issues in the transaction agreements.

On December 15, 2014, Mr. Steffens held a telephonic meeting with Mr. Saltzman to discuss these remaining issues, including, among other things, the terms of fund raising that would count towards the capital raise targets, the allocation of certain tax risks, scope of and limitations on indemnification obligations, whether the Company would be obliged to reimburse Colony Capital expenses if its stockholders decline to approve the proposed transaction, the conduct of the business to be transferred prior to the Closing, employment agreements with the principals of CRP, CEO succession and the compensation and perquisites of Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman. In its review of the proposed compensation and perquisites of Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman, the Special Committee considered additional market benchmarking data provided by Semler Brossy that summarized the typical compensation and perquisites provided to executives in the Company's peer group. The parties continued to exchange revised drafts of the Contribution Agreement and ancillary transaction documents from December 15 to December 17.

On December 17, 2014, Mr. Steffens held a meeting with, and on December 18, 2014, Mr. Steffens held a telephonic meeting with, Mr. Saltzman, to discuss these open points further, as well as matters relating to the scope of outside activities that Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman would be permitted to undertake and the consequences of breaching such obligations.

On December 19, 2014, Mr. Steffens, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton held a telephonic meeting with Mr. Saltzman and other representatives from Colony Capital, Skadden, Goldman Sachs, and counsel to Mr. Barrack and Mr. Saltzman, to resolve open transaction issues. During that call, the parties reached agreement on the majority of the outstanding open items in the manner reflected in the final transaction agreements, including with respect to the terms of funds that would be counted towards the capital raise targets, the absence of an expense reimbursement obligation if the Company's stockholders fail to approve the transaction, the scope of and limits on indemnification obligations, the closing condition that employment agreements be entered into with four of six named executives (including the principals of CRP), that Mr. Barrack would have no contractual rights regarding CEO succession, and that Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman's outside passive investment activities would be less regulated and give rise to fewer remedies than active management of competitive enterprises. Following the meeting, Wachtell Lipton provided Skadden with updated drafts of the transaction documents, including the draft Contribution Agreement.

From December 20, 2014 until signing, Skadden and Wachtell continued to exchange multiple drafts of the transaction documents, including forms of employment agreements with Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman and the principals of CRP.

On December 22, 2014, Mr. Steffens, Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton held a telephonic meeting with Mr. Saltzman and other representatives from Colony Capital, Goldman Sachs, Skadden and counsel to the various executives. In this meeting, the material remaining issues were resolved, including an agreement by the OP to maintain a fixed amount of liabilities on its balance sheet to ameliorate certain tax risks and details of Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman's permitted outside activities and consequences of breaching such obligations.

Subsequently, the Special Committee met telephonically and in person at the offices of Mr. Steffens, along with representatives of Morgan Stanley and Wachtell Lipton. Mr. Steffens provided the group with an update of the transaction process and relevant business issues. Representatives of Wachtell Lipton provided the Special Committee with an overview of its fiduciary duties, reviewed the process that the Special Committee used in order to evaluate and negotiate the contemplated transaction, and reviewed the terms of the proposed transaction. Morgan Stanley then presented its financial analysis of the proposed transaction and delivered to the Special Committee an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated December 22, 2014, addressed to the Special Committee, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the conditions and limitations set forth therein, the consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the transaction agreements is fair from a financial point of view to the Company. The Special Committee then unanimously resolved that the entry into and performance of the transaction documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby were advisable to, and in the best interests of, the Company and recommended that the Board approve the Company's execution, delivery and performance of the transaction documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby. Immediately following the Special Committee meeting, the Board held a telephonic discussion, where all of the members of the Board were present other than Ms. Nancy A. Curtin. Following a report of the Special Committee as to its recommendation and the factors taken into account by the Special Committee, the Board also resolved that the entry into and performance of the transaction documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby were advisable to, and in the best interests of, the Company and approved the Company's execution, delivery and performance of the transaction documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby.

Following these meetings, and extending into December 23, 2014, Wachtell Lipton, Skadden and individual executives' counsels finalized the transaction documents in preparation for signing. In the morning of December 23, 2014, the parties signed the transaction documents and the Company and Colony Capital released a joint press statement announcing entry into the definitive Contribution Agreement.

Recommendations of the Special Committee and the Board

After careful consideration and upon the unanimous recommendation of the Special Committee, our Board has approved the Issuances, the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement and has determined that the Issuances, the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement are advisable to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders. The Special Committee and our Board recommends that you vote (1) FOR the Issuances, (2) FOR the Charter Amendments, and (3) FOR the Adjournment Proposal.

Opinion of the Special Committee's Financial Advisor

The Special Committee retained Morgan Stanley to provide it with financial advisory services in connection with the proposed Combination. The Special Committee selected Morgan Stanley to act as its financial advisor based on Morgan Stanley's qualifications, expertise and reputation, its knowledge of and involvement in recent transactions in the Company's industry and its knowledge of the business and affairs of the Company, and its recent involvement in transactions involving real estate alternative asset managers. As part of this engagement, the Special Committee requested that Morgan Stanley evaluate the fairness from a financial point of view to the Company of the Consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement (as described in Description of the Combination Consideration to be Paid in the Combination, beginning on page 93, the Consideration). On December 22, 2014, at a meeting of the Special Committee, Morgan Stanley rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated December 22, 2014 that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of review undertaken by Morgan Stanley as set forth in the written opinion, the Consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement was fair from a financial point of view to the Company.

The full text of the written opinion of Morgan Stanley to the Special Committee, dated as of December 22, 2014, is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix D and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety. You should read Morgan Stanley's opinion and this summary of Morgan Stanley's opinion carefully and in their entirety for a discussion of the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Morgan Stanley in rendering its opinion. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. Morgan Stanley's opinion was directed to the Special Committee, in its capacity as such, and addressed only the fairness from a financial point of view of the Consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement as of the date of such opinion and does not address any other aspects of the Combination. Morgan Stanley's opinion did not address any other aspects or implications of the Combination. It was not intended to, and does not, constitute advice or a recommendation to any holder of shares of the Company's common stock as to how to vote at the Special Meeting to be held in connection with the Combination or whether to take any other action with respect to the Combination.

In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information that was publicly available or supplied or otherwise made available to it by the Company and Colony Capital, and formed a substantial basis for its opinion. With respect to the financial projections discussed in "Certain Projections" beginning on page 70, including information relating to certain strategic, financial and operational benefits anticipated from the Combination, Morgan Stanley assumed that they had been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best then available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of the Company and Colony Capital of the future financial performance of the Company and Colony Capital. In addition, Morgan Stanley assumed that the Combination would be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement without any waiver, amendment or delay of any terms or conditions. Morgan Stanley assumed that, in connection with the receipt of all the necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required for the proposed Combination, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits expected to be derived in the proposed Combination. As discussed with the Special Committee, although Morgan Stanley included the aggregate contingent Consideration in certain of its analyses, Morgan Stanley expressed no opinion as to the likelihood that the milestones upon which these payments are conditioned would be achieved or whether the aggregate contingent Consideration would be paid. Morgan Stanley is not a legal, tax or regulatory advisor. Morgan Stanley is a financial advisor only and relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of the Company and Colony Capital and their legal, tax or regulatory advisors with respect to legal, tax or regulatory matters. Morgan Stanley did not make any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company or Colony Capital, nor was it furnished with any such valuations or appraisals. Morgan Stanley's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of the date of the opinion. Events occurring after such date may affect Morgan Stanley's opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and Morgan Stanley did not assume any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

Table of ContentsSummary of Financial Analyses of Morgan Stanley

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Morgan Stanley in connection with its oral opinion and the preparation of its written opinion letter to the Special Committee dated December 22, 2014. The following summary is not a complete description of the financial analyses performed and factors considered by Morgan Stanley in connection with its opinion, nor does the order of analyses described represent the relative importance or weight given to those analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before December 19, 2014, the most recent trading day prior to the presentation of the fairness opinion. Some of these summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses used by Morgan Stanley, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The analyses listed in the tables and described below must be considered as a whole. Assessing any portion of such analyses and of the factors reviewed, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying Morgan Stanley's respective opinion. Furthermore, mathematical analysis (such as determining the average or median) is not in itself a meaningful method of using the data referred to below.

For the purposes of Morgan Stanley analyses described below, Morgan Stanley assumed that the equity value of the Consideration to be paid in the Combination is $657,500,000, which is comprised of $547,500,000 in upfront Consideration paid at the Closing, (including $15,000,000 for the Colony Mark) plus contingent Consideration equal to $110,000,000 and that no adjustments will be made to any component of the Consideration. See Description of the Combination Consideration to be Paid in the Combination beginning on page 93 for a description of the components of Consideration that are, or may be, payable in the Transaction.

In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley separately analyzed three components of the value being obtained or acquired by the Company as part of the Combination: (i) the estimated cost savings or increase in value to the Company resulting from the Combination, (ii) the private real estate funds business of Colony Capital, and (iii) the non-real estate businesses of Colony Capital. Morgan Stanley then compared the implied value in aggregate of these components to the Consideration being paid in the Combination.

Analyses Relating to Cost Savings or Increase in Value from the CombinationPerpetuity Method Cost Savings Resulting from the Combination

Morgan Stanley determined the estimated net cost savings to the Company from the Combination by comparing the compensation estimated to be paid to Colony Capital, as its external manager, determined (i) on an annualized basis based on the Company's total stockholders' equity as of November 30, 2014 and the estimated core earnings for 2014, and (ii) based on the estimated weighted average total stockholders' equity for the calendar year 2015 and the estimated core earnings for the same period, with both periods adjusted to normalize the impact of a large, non-traditional investment expected to be monetized in the next 12 to 24 months. The adjustment was calculated by assuming the capital invested in the large, non-traditional investment had been invested in an investment with a return profile more consistent with the Company's traditional investments and resulted in adjusted incentive fees of $13 million and $16 million for the annualized period and estimated 2015 calendar year, respectively. Morgan Stanley then compared the compensation estimated to be paid by the Company to Colony Capital, as its external manager, as adjusted as described in the previous sentence, against estimates of internal compensation expenses and operating expenses under the pro forma business plan that would be incurred if the Company operated with internal management during each of such periods, assuming, based on guidance from Colony Capital management, that an allocation of the total investment management expenses (including compensation expenses and operating expenses) of the combined businesses on an internalized basis would be attributable to the management of the Company's business. This comparison resulted in a range of net cost savings of $25 million to $35 million on an annual basis. Morgan Stanley then derived an implied value reference range of total cost savings over time by dividing by a discount rate of 7.2%, which was the weighted average cost of capital of the Company determined on a standalone basis calculated using the capital asset pricing model.

This analysis resulted in an implied reference range for the total cost savings resulting from the Combination over time of $352 million to $485 million.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Cost Savings Resulting from the Combination

Morgan Stanley performed a discounted cash flow analysis to calculate a reference range of implied values for the Company's estimated cost savings resulting from the Combination based on the present value of the estimated annual cost savings forecasted to be generated during the fiscal years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2020 utilizing internal estimates of the Company's management and Colony Capital's management. Morgan Stanley derived a range of implied terminal values by applying a range of multiples of 9.0x to 13.0x, which represented a 2.0x range around the average price to estimated earnings for calendar year 2015 for the comparable companies discussed below in Comparable Public Companies Analysis Illustrative Value of the Combination beginning on page 62 to the cost savings forecasted to result from the Combination in calendar year 2021, assuming 2021 cost savings would be consistent with those in 2020. Present values (as of December 31, 2014) of the forecasted cost savings and the terminal values were then calculated by Morgan Stanley using a discount rate range of 6.2% to 8.2%, representing a 1.0% range around the Company's weighted average cost of capital of 7.2% determined on a standalone basis using the capital asset pricing model.

This analysis resulted in an implied value reference range for the total cost savings resulting from the Combination of $910 million to $1,271 million.

Comparable Public Companies Analysis Illustrative Value of the Combination

Morgan Stanley reviewed and compared certain internal financial information and ratios relating to the Company, both on a standalone basis and on a pro forma basis after the Combination, with equivalent publicly available data for companies that share similar business characteristics with the Company to derive an implied value reference range for the equity value to be created as a result of the Combination. For this analysis, Morgan Stanley reviewed the following externally managed mortgage REITs that are publicly traded:

Apollo Commercial Real Estate Finance, Inc.

Ares Commercial Real Estate Corp.

Blackstone Mortgage Trust Inc.

Starwood Property Trust Inc.

For purposes of this analysis, Morgan Stanley analyzed the ratio of share price to consensus estimated earnings for the calendar year 2015 for each of these companies. For each of the comparable companies, this ratio was calculated using its closing price on December 19, 2014 and was based on the most recent publicly available information and Street consensus estimates. Based on the results of this analysis, Morgan Stanley selected a range of 10.0x to 12.0x, representing a 1.0x range around the average of 11.0x price to 2015 estimated earnings of the comparable companies, which it then applied to the Company's estimated core earnings for the calendar year 2015 determined on a standalone basis of $380 million to derive an implied reference range of the equity value of the Company, as a standalone externally managed company, of $3,793 million to $4,552 million. Morgan Stanley also evaluated the price to 2015 estimated funds from operations multiples of internally managed companies as compared to externally managed companies by comparing the average multiples of price to estimated funds from operations for the calendar year 2015 of a representative set of externally managed REITs from various REIT industry sub-sectors to the corresponding average multiples of a comparable set of internally managed peers from the same REIT industry sub-sector. From this analysis, Morgan Stanley observed that internally managed peer companies typically trade at a price to funds from operations multiple more than 2.0x higher than externally managed companies. Based on the foregoing, Morgan Stanley then applied a range of 12.0x to 14.0x to the Company's estimated earnings for the calendar year 2015 of $398 million, determined on a standalone basis after an adjustment to reflect the Combination to derive an implied reference range of the equity value of the Company, as an internally managed company, of $4,775 million to $5,572 million.

Based on this analysis, Morgan Stanley compared the implied reference range of equity values for the Company as an externally managed company to those derived as if it were an internally managed company and determined an implied value reference range for the value created by transitioning to an internally managed company of $982 million to $1,019 million.

No company utilized in the comparable company analysis is identical to the Company. In evaluating comparable companies, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the Company's control such as the impact of competition on the Company and the industry generally, industry growth, and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of the Company or the industry, or in the financial markets in general.

Morgan Stanley reviewed the ratio of transaction value to reported or estimated EBITDA for each of the target companies in the selected precedent transactions, which was based on the most recent publicly available information at or before December 19, 2014, the most recent trading day prior to the presentation of the fairness opinion. Based on this analysis, Morgan Stanley selected a range of transaction value to EBITDA multiples of (i) 5.8x to 7.8x for the selected precedent management internalization transactions based on its determination of the transactions sharing the most relevant characteristics with the Combination with Colony Capital, and (ii) 7.3x to 9.8x for the selected asset management company transactions based on the 25% and 75% percentile of the selected precedent transactions. An implied value reference range for the value obtained by the Company in the Combination was then calculated based on applying those multiple ranges to the forecasted net cost savings to the Company resulting from the Combination for calendar year 2015, adjusted for a large non-traditional investment as described in Perpetuity Method Cost Savings Resulting from the Combination beginning on page 61. This analysis indicated an implied value reference range for the total cost savings of $201 million to $271 million based on the selected precedent management internalization transactions and an implied value reference range for the total cost savings of $253 million to $341 million based on the selected precedent asset management company transactions.

No company or transaction utilized as a comparison in the analysis of selected precedent transactions is identical to the Company or directly comparable to the Combination in business mix, timing and size. Accordingly, an analysis of the results of the foregoing necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the Company and other factors that would affect the value of the companies to which the Company is being compared. In evaluating the precedent transactions, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, global business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the Company's control, such as the impact of competition on the Company and the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial conditions and prospects of the Company or the industry or the financial markets in general.

Analyses Relating to Colony Capital

In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley separately analyzed Colony Capital's private real estate funds business and its non-real estate related businesses because of the differing nature of these businesses and their relative contribution to its earnings and value.

Table of Contents*Discounted Cash Flow Analysis Private Real Estate Funds Business*

Morgan Stanley performed a discounted cash flow analysis to calculate a reference range of implied equity values for Colony Capital's private real estate funds business based on the present value of the cash flows that Colony Capital's private real estate funds business was forecasted to generate during the fiscal years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2020 utilizing internal estimates of Colony Capital's management. Morgan Stanley derived an implied terminal value using the perpetuity growth method based on the sum of estimated net fee related earnings (FRE) (representing Colony Capital's estimate of Private Funds Business FRE Pre-tax that includes base management fees, transaction and advisory fees less operating expenses and base bonuses, and an assumed 35% tax rate) for the calendar year 2020 and average annual net realized carried interest for the calendar years 2015 through 2020, an assumed 2% growth rate and the midpoint of the discount rate range used in the overall analysis. Present values (as of December 31, 2014) of estimated after tax free cash flows and the terminal value were then calculated by Morgan Stanley using a discount rate range of 9.5% to 11.5%, representing a 1.0% range around the median weighted average cost of capital calculation for the comparable companies discussed in Comparable Public Companies Analysis Private Real Estate Funds Business beginning on page 65 utilizing the capital asset pricing model.

This analysis resulted in an implied equity value reference range for Colony Capital's private real estate funds business of $416 million to $527 million.

Sum-of-the-Parts Private Real Estate Funds Business

Morgan Stanley performed a sum-of-the-parts valuation of Colony Capital's private real estate funds business utilizing internal estimates of Colony Capital's management. Morgan Stanley utilized two different methodologies in its analysis of the estimated sum-of-the-parts value of Colony Capital's private real estate funds business. In both methodologies, Morgan Stanley applied a range of price to earnings multiples of 14.2x to 16.2x to Colony Capital's net fee related earnings to imply an equity value reference range for the private real estate funds business before taking into account the estimated carried interest distributions from Colony Capital's managed funds. This multiple range was derived from the average price to 2015 estimated earnings multiples for traditional asset managers based on share prices as of December 19, 2014 and the latest published earnings estimates for calendar year 2015. Under both methodologies, when applying a multiple to net fee related earnings, Morgan Stanley excluded from its calculation of net fee related earnings from Colony Capital's private real estate funds business $10.5 million of income for calendar year 2015 that is expected to be non-recurring, and added the nominal $10.5 million (or the post-tax value depending on the analysis) back to the implied equity value.

Morgan Stanley then analyzed the value of the estimated carried interest distributions from its managed funds using two different methods. First, Morgan Stanley applied a 20% reduction to the estimated realized carried interest for the calendar years 2015 through 2020 and determined the present value of the discounted realized carry using a 15% discount rate, which was derived from Wall Street research for the valuation of realized carried interest distributions for alternative asset managers. This analysis, when added to the applied range of price to net fee related earnings multiples indicated an implied equity value reference range for Colony Capital's private real estate funds business of $359 million to $421 million.

In the second methodology, Morgan Stanley utilized an average multiple to net unrealized carry based on the implied carry multiples for alternative asset management companies. This analysis, when added to the applied range of price to net fee related earnings multiples indicated an implied equity value reference range for Colony Capital's private real estate funds business of $310 million to $356 million.

Comparable Public Companies Analysis Private Real Estate Funds Business

Morgan Stanley reviewed and compared certain internal financial information and ratios relating to Colony Capital's private real estate funds business with equivalent publicly available data for companies that share similar business characteristics with Colony Capital's private real estate funds business to derive an implied equity value reference range for Colony Capital's private real estate funds business. For this analysis, Morgan Stanley reviewed the following alternative asset management companies that are publicly traded:

The Blackstone Group L.P.;

KKR & Co. L.P.;

Apollo Global Management, LLC;

The Carlyle Group L.P.;

Oaktree Capital Group, LLC;

Och-Ziff Capital Management Group, LLC;

Ares Capital Corporation; and Fortress Investment Group LLC.

For purposes of this analysis, Morgan Stanley analyzed certain statistics for each of these companies for comparison purposes, including the ratio of the company's share price as of December 19, 2014 to estimated economic net income for the calendar year 2015. Economic net income is a measure of operating performance commonly used by alternative asset managers because it includes changes in net unrealized carried interest and changes in the value of principal assets, which are primary indicators of performance for alternative asset managers but are not typically captured in GAAP income metrics. For each of the comparable companies, this ratio was calculated based on the most recent publicly available information and Street consensus estimates. After excluding the highest and lowest multiple resulting from this analysis to avoid outliers, Morgan Stanley then derived a selected range of 8.5x to 10.3x from the comparable companies using the highest and lowest multiples of share price to economic net income in the remaining data set. Morgan Stanley then applied this selected range to Colony Capital's estimated economic net income from its private real estate funds business for the calendar year 2015 of $23 million, adjusted to exclude income for the calendar year 2015 that is expected to be non-recurring. Estimated 2015 economic net income from Colony Capital's private real estate funds business is inclusive of net fee related earnings plus approximately $3 million of unrealized incentive fees before taxes.

Based on this analysis, Morgan Stanley derived an implied equity value reference range for Colony Capital's private real estate fund business of $200 million to $241 million.

No company utilized in the comparable company analysis is identical to Colony Capital's private real estate funds business. In evaluating comparable companies, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond Colony Capital's control such as the impact of competition on Colony Capital and the industry generally, industry growth, and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of Colony Capital or the industry, or in the financial markets in general.

Analysis of Selected Precedent Transactions Private Real Estate Funds Business

Morgan Stanley also performed an analysis of the selected precedent transactions involving the acquisition of the twelve publicly traded alternative asset management companies in transactions referred to as the Selected Precedent Asset Management Transactions and discussed above in Analysis of Selected Precedent Transactions Cost Savings Resulting from the Combination beginning on page 63.

Morgan Stanley reviewed the ratio of transaction value to reported or estimated EBITDA for each of the target companies, which was based on the most recent publicly available information at or before December 19, 2014. The overall observed fourth quartile and first quartile multiples of transaction value to EBITDA reviewed were 7.3x and 9.8x, respectively. An implied equity value reference range for Colony Capital's private real estate funds business was then calculated based on applying that multiple range to the forecasted EBITDA for Colony

Colony Capital's private real estate funds business for calendar year 2015. This analysis indicated an implied equity value reference range for Colony Capital's private real estate funds business of $242 million to $323 million based on the selected precedent asset management company transactions.

No company or transaction utilized as a comparison in the analysis of selected precedent transactions is identical to Colony Capital's private real estate funds business or directly comparable to the Combination in business mix, timing and size. Accordingly, an analysis of the results of the foregoing necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of Colony Capital's private real estate funds business and other factors that would affect the value of the companies to which Colony Capital's private real estate funds business is being compared. In evaluating the precedent transactions, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, global business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Colony Capital's control, such as the impact of competition on Colony Capital and the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial conditions and prospects of Colony Capital or the industry or the financial markets in general.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis - Non-Real Estate Businesses

Morgan Stanley performed a discounted cash flow analysis to calculate a reference range of implied equity values for Colony Capital's non-real estate businesses based on the present value of the after tax unlevered cash flows that Colony Capital's non-real estate businesses were forecasted to generate during the fiscal years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2019 utilizing internal estimates of Colony Capital's management. Present values (as of December 31, 2014) of estimated after tax unlevered free cash flows through 2019 were then calculated by Morgan Stanley using a discount rate range of 8.0% to 13.0%, representing a 2.5% range around the median weighted average cost of capital for the alternative asset manager peer group referenced in Comparable Public Companies Analysis - Private Real Estate Funds Business beginning on page 65. For the low end of the range, Morgan Stanley assumed that Colony Capital would make no new investments and, for the high end of the range, Morgan Stanley assumed that Colony Capital would make one new investment per year for each of 2015 through 2019.

This analysis resulted in an implied equity value reference range for Colony Capital's private real estate funds business of $0 to $66.6 million.

Analysis of Aggregate Value of Cost Savings Resulting from, and Assets Acquired in, the Combination

Based on the foregoing analyses, Morgan Stanley derived an implied aggregate value reference range for the costs savings or increase in value resulting from the Combination, the private real estate funds business of Colony Capital being acquired and the non-real estate businesses of Colony Capital being acquired. For the cost savings and the private real estate funds business, after excluding the highest and lowest implied values resulting from the analyses described above to avoid outliers, Morgan Stanley selected a range of values for each component using the highest and lowest implied values in the remaining data set, resulting in an implied value reference range of $253 million to $1,019 million for the cost savings or increase in value resulting from the Combination and $242 million to $421 million for the private real estate funds business. For the non-real estate business, Morgan Stanley used the highest and lowest implied equity values to derive a reference range of implied equity value of $0 to $66.6 million. Morgan Stanley then combined the selected reference ranges of implied values for each of the components to derive an implied aggregate equity value reference range for estimated cost savings or increase in value resulting from the Combination combined with the businesses and assets obtained by the Company in the Combination of $495 million to $1,507 million. Morgan Stanley compared this aggregate value reference range implied by its analyses to the Consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, which it assumed for these purposes to be valued at $657.5 million.

Table of Contents*Pro Forma Valuation of Combined Company*

Morgan Stanley also conducted selected financial analyses of the pro forma company resulting from the Combination, which we refer to as the pro forma company, to derive an implied pro forma valuation of the Company and its common stock post-Combination and compared that implied pro forma valuation to the implied valuations used in Morgan Stanley financial analyses summarized above.

Comparable Public Companies Analysis. Morgan Stanley reviewed and compared certain internal financial information and ratios relating to the Company and Colony Capital with equivalent publicly available data for companies that share similar business characteristics with the Company or Colony Capital to derive an implied per share equity value reference range for the pro forma company. To account for both the Company and Colony Capital's business, Morgan Stanley analyzed two sets of comparable companies, the selected publicly traded mortgage REITs analyzed in Comparable Public Companies Analysis Illustrative Value of the Combination beginning on page 62 and the selected alternative asset managers analyzed in Comparable Public Companies Analysis Private Real Estate Funds Business beginning on page 65. For purposes of this analysis, Morgan Stanley analyzed the ratios of share price to consensus estimated earnings for calendar year 2015 for the selected publicly traded mortgage REITs and applied a selected range of 9.2x to 12.8x derived from this set of comparable companies to the Company's estimated earnings for the calendar year 2015, after adjusting to account for cost savings from the Combination. Morgan Stanley then analyzed the ratios of share price to economic net income for calendar year 2015 for the selected alternative asset managers and applied a selected range of 7.5x to 14.5x derived from this set of comparable companies to Colony Capital's estimated economic net income for the calendar year 2015, after adjusting to account for cost savings from the Combination. Based on this analysis, Morgan Stanley derived an implied per share equity value reference range of $23.18 to $33.56 for the pro forma company by applying these selected ranges derived from the comparable companies to the corresponding metrics for the Company or Colony Capital, as applicable, and combining the results. Observing that internally managed peer companies typically trade at earnings multiples more than 2.0x higher than externally managed companies (see Comparable Public Companies Analysis Illustrative Value of the Combination beginning on page 62), Morgan Stanley applied a price to earnings multiple of 2.0x higher than the selected multiple ranges to the Company's estimated earnings for the calendar year 2015 and added the results to the product of Colony Capital's 2015 estimated economic net income and the selected peer multiple range for alternative asset managers described above to derive an implied per share equity value reference range for the pro forma company of $27.61 to $37.99 for the pro forma company that reflected the increase in value resulting from the Combination.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Morgan Stanley performed a discounted cash flow analysis to calculate a reference range of implied present values per share for the pro forma company based on unlevered cash flow the pro forma company was forecasted to generate during the fiscal years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2020 utilizing internal estimates of Colony Capital's management. Morgan Stanley derived a range of implied terminal values for the calendar year 2020 using a sum-of-the-parts method. Present values (as of December 31, 2014) of the annual cash flows and the terminal value were then calculated by Morgan Stanley using a discount rate range of 7.6% to 8.6%, which represented a 0.5% range around the weighted average cost of capital for the pro forma company of 8.1% calculated using the capital asset pricing model. This analysis resulted in an implied per share equity value reference range for the pro forma company of $35.00 to $40.57.

In addition, Morgan Stanley performed a discounted cash flow analysis to calculate a reference range of implied present values per share based on the unlevered cash flows of the pro forma company that would result in the full amount of contingent Consideration potentially payable under the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement using the same methodology and discount rates. This analysis resulted in an implied per share equity value reference range of $38.34 to $44.53.

General

In connection with the review of the proposed Combination by the Special Committee, Morgan Stanley performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a financial opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor it considered. Morgan Stanley believes that selecting any portion of these analyses, without considering all analyses as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. In addition, Morgan Stanley may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Morgan Stanley's view of the actual value of the Company or Colony Capital or the cost savings or increase in value resulting from the Combination.

In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, regulatory, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters. Many of these assumptions are beyond the control of the Company and Colony Capital. These include, among other things, the impact of competition on the businesses of the Company and Colony Capital and the industry generally, industry growth, and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of the Company and Colony Capital and the industry, and in the financial markets in general. Any estimates contained in Morgan Stanley's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates.

Morgan Stanley conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness from a financial point of view to the Company of the Consideration to be paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, and in connection with the delivery of its opinion to the Special Committee. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which the Company common stock might actually trade.

The Consideration was determined through arm's-length negotiations between the Company and Colony Capital and was approved by the Special Committee. Morgan Stanley was not authorized to solicit, and did not solicit, interest from any party with respect to the acquisition, business combination or other extraordinary transaction, involving the Company or Colony Capital, nor did Morgan Stanley negotiate with any party regarding the possible acquisition of the Company or certain of its constituent businesses (other than with respect to negotiations with Colony Capital). Morgan Stanley did not recommend any specific form or amount of transaction consideration to the Company or the Special Committee, nor that any specific transaction consideration constituted the only consideration for the Combination. Morgan Stanley's opinion did not address the relative merits of the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement as compared to other business or financial strategies that might be available to the Company, nor did it address the underlying business decision of the Company to enter into the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement or proceed with any other transaction contemplated by the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement. In addition, Morgan Stanley's opinion was not intended to, and does not, in any manner address the prices at which the Colony Capital common stock would trade following consummation of the Combination or at any time and Morgan Stanley expressed no opinion or recommendation as to how holders of the Company's common stock should vote at the Special Meeting to be held in connection with the Combination.

Morgan Stanley's opinion and its oral presentation to the Special Committee was one of many factors taken into consideration by the Special Committee in deciding to approve, adopt and authorize the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of the Special Committee with respect to the transaction consideration or of whether the Special Committee would have been willing to agree to a different transaction consideration.

Morgan Stanley's opinion was approved by a committee of Morgan Stanley investment banking and other professionals in accordance with its customary practice. Morgan Stanley is a global financial services firm engaged in the securities, investment management and individual wealth management businesses. Its securities business is engaged in securities underwriting, trading and brokerage activities, foreign exchange, commodities and derivatives trading, prime brokerage, as well as providing investment banking, financing and financial advisory services. Morgan Stanley, its affiliates, trustees and officers may at any time invest on a principal basis or manage funds that invest, hold long or short positions, finance positions, and may trade or otherwise structure and effect transactions, for its own account or the accounts of its customers, in debt or equity securities or loans of the Company, Colony Capital or any other company, or any currency or commodity, that may be involved in the Combinations contemplated by the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, or any related derivative instrument.

Under the terms of its engagement letter, Morgan Stanley provided the Special Committee with financial advisory services and a financial opinion described in this section and attached to this proxy statement as Appendix D in connection with the Combination and the Company has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley (i) an advisory fee comprised of a $1.0 million initial payment and quarterly payments of $250,000 until the Combination is completed, which will be a minimum of $2.0 million, and (ii) a contingent fee of $10.0 million for its services, $2.0 million of which was payable upon the public announcement of the non-binding agreement entered into and setting forth preliminary terms of the Combination and the remainder of which is payable upon and is contingent upon the consummation of the Combination. The Company has also agreed to reimburse Morgan Stanley for its expenses incurred from time to time in connection with providing its professional services, including fees of outside counsel and other professional advisors, incurred in performing its services. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley, its affiliates, its officers, directors, employees and agents and each person, if any, controlling Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, relating to or arising out of Morgan Stanley's engagement. In the two years prior to the date of Morgan Stanley's opinion, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have provided financing services to the Company and have received an aggregate of approximately $3.4 million in fees in connection with such services. In the two years prior to the date of Morgan Stanley's opinion, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have provided financing services to an entity affiliated with Colony Capital (other than the Company) and have received an aggregate of approximately $1.4 million in fees in connection with such services. Morgan Stanley may also seek to provide financial advisory and financing services to the Company and Colony Capital and their affiliates in the future and would expect to receive fees for the rendering of those services.

Certain Projections

Neither Colony Capital nor the Company discloses long-term projections as to future revenues, earnings or other results due to, among other reasons, the uncertainty and subjectivity of the underlying assumptions and estimates. As a result, the Company does not endorse the projections below as a reliable indication of future results. The Company is including these projections in this document solely because it was among the financial information made available to the Special Committee and Morgan Stanley in connection with their respective evaluations of the Combination. Moreover, we have been informed that these projections were based on estimates and assumptions made by Colony Capital and the Company's management at the time of their preparation and speak only as of such time. Except to the extent required by applicable law, neither Colony Capital nor the Company has any obligation to update projections included in this proxy statement and, except as provided below, has not done so and does not intend to do so.

The inclusion of this information should not be regarded as an indication that any of Colony Capital, the Company, the Board, the Special Committee, Morgan Stanley or any other recipient of this information considered, or now considers, it to be necessarily predictive of actual future results. There can be no assurance that the prospective results will be realized or that actual results will not be significantly higher or lower than estimated.

Since the projections below cover multiple years, such information by its nature becomes less predictive with each successive year. The Company's stockholders are urged to review the risk factors and other factors described in Risk Factors and Forward-Looking Statements beginning on pages 27 and 25, respectively, and in the periodic reports filed by the Company with the SEC, which reports can be found under the heading Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 151. The projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, nor was it prepared with a view toward compliance with published guidelines of the SEC, the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information, or GAAP. Neither of the independent registered public accounting firms of the Company and of Colony Capital have audited, reviewed, compiled or performed any procedures with respect to the accompanying projections for the purpose of its inclusion herein, and accordingly, neither of the independent registered public accounting firms of the Company and of Colony Capital express an opinion or provide any form of assurance with respect thereto for the purpose of this proxy statement/prospectus. Furthermore, the projections do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date it was prepared. The projections, except where noted, do not give effect to the Combination.

The following table presents selected projections associated with the cost savings associated with termination of the Company's management agreement. The external management fee projections were provided by the Company's management to the Special Committee and its advisors in September 2014 based on the Company's actual performance as of June 30, 2014, and do not reflect any potential impact of the Combination. The estimated internal management costs from Colony Capital's combination with the Company were provided by Colony Capital management to the Special Committee and its advisors in September 2014 and per Colony Capital management guidance, represent an allocation of the total investment management expenses (including compensatory expenses and operating expenses) of the combined business on an internalized basis that would be attributable to the management of the Company's business.

The following table presents selected projections associated with Colony Capital's private funds business. The projections were provided by Colony Capital management to the Special Committee and its advisors in September 2014 based on Colony Capital's actual performance as of June 30, 2014 and do not reflect any potential impact of its combination with CLNY. The projections also include 50% of CRP not owned by Colony Capital and the related estimated synergy resulting from inclusion in the Colony Capital platform.

External Management Fees to Colony Capital includes projected CLNY management fees, incentive fees, and stock grants that otherwise would be paid to Colony Capital if the transaction does not consummate. This projection was based on CLNY standalone forecast.

Internal Management Costs from Combination represents projected Colony Capital costs associated with managing CLNY including direct overhead, G&A, and stock grants. This projection was based on an allocation of Colony Capital's investment management business expense forecast for the combined entity should the transaction consummate and does not include any costs reimbursable from the Company's affiliates on a net basis.

Base Management Fees from Private Funds reflects projected fees from existing funds, new opportunity funds, new CDCF funds, and new value-added funds in the Colony Capital private fund business on a gross fee basis. This projection was based on Colony Capital standalone forecast for its private funds business.

Private Funds Management Costs reflects projected costs associated with managing Colony Capital's private funds business, including direct overhead and G&A. Per Colony Capital management's guidance, this projection was based on an allocation of Colony Capital standalone expense forecast for Colony Capital's business and does not include any costs reimbursable from the Company's affiliates on a net basis. It also reflects the expenses with potential synergies in managing 100% of CRP business.

Private Funds Business FRE Pre-Tax is defined as fee related earnings (pre-tax) from the Colony Capital standalone private fund business, which includes base management fees less associated management costs, pre-tax. This projection was based on Colony Capital's standalone forecast for its private fund business.

Although presented with numerical specificity, the above projections reflect numerous assumptions and estimates as to future events made by the Company and by the management of Colony Capital, respectively, who, at the respective times the projections were prepared, believed that such assumptions and estimates were reasonable. In preparing the foregoing unaudited projected financial information, assumptions were made regarding, among other things, fundraising, fee structure, associated expense and future investments.

No assurances can be given that the assumptions made in preparing the above projections will accurately reflect future conditions. The estimates and assumptions underlying the projections involve judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive, regulatory and financial market conditions and future business decisions which may not be realized and that are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive and regulatory uncertainties and contingencies, including, among others, risks and uncertainties described under Risk Factors and Forward-Looking Statements beginning on pages 27 and 25, respectively, and in the periodic reports filed by the Company with the SEC, which reports can be found under the heading Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 151, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the control of the Company or Colony Capital and will be beyond the control of the Company or Colony Capital following the Combination. There can be no assurance that the underlying assumptions will prove to be accurate or that the projected results will be realized, and actual results likely will differ, and may differ materially, from those reflected in the projections, whether or not the Combination is completed.

The above projections do not give effect to the Combination (except for the estimates of Internal Management Costs from Combination). The Company's stockholders are urged to review the most recent SEC filings of the Company for a description of the reported and anticipated results of operations and financial condition and capital resources during 2013, including in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, and any subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, which are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement.

Readers of this document are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the projections set forth above. No representation is made by the Company, by Colony Capital or any other person to any of the Company's stockholders regarding the ultimate performance of the Company compared to the information included in the above projections. The inclusion of projections in this document should not be regarded as an indication that such prospective financial information will be an accurate prediction of future events, and such information should not be relied on as such.

THE COMPANY DOES NOT INTEND TO UPDATE OR OTHERWISE REVISE THE ABOVE PROJECTIONS TO REFLECT CIRCUMSTANCES EXISTING AFTER THE DATE WHEN MADE OR TO REFLECT THE OCCURRENCE OF FUTURE EVENTS, EVEN IN THE EVENT THAT ANY OR ALL OF THE ASSUMPTIONS UNDERLYING SUCH PROSPECTIVE FINANCIAL INFORMATION ARE NO LONGER APPROPRIATE, EXCEPT AS MAY BE REQUIRED BY LAW.

No Appraisal or Approval Rights

Under Maryland law, stockholders will not have appraisal rights in connection with the Combination or the right to vote to approve the Combination.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Combination

In considering the recommendation of the Board to vote for the proposals described in this proxy statement, you should be aware that certain of our directors and executive officers have interests in those transactions that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of our stockholders generally and that may create potential conflicts of interest.

These interests are described in more detail below. In addition, you should be aware that Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Traenkle, Tangen and Sanders are also executive officers or principals of Colony Capital. The respective roles of these individuals in Colony Capital may create additional conflicts of interest in respect of the Combination and the other transactions described in this proxy statement.

The Special Committee was aware of each of these interests in reviewing, considering and negotiating the terms of the Combination and in recommending to the entire Board to pursue the Combination. The Board was also aware of these interests in approving the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the transactions described in this proxy statement, and in recommending the approval of the Contribution Agreement, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and those transactions to our stockholders.

Arrangements with Thomas J. Barrack, Jr.

Payment of Combination Consideration to Colony Capital. The Contribution Agreement provides that Colony Capital will receive as consideration in respect of the Combination (i) OP Units at the Closing with a total value of approximately $407.4 million based on the Reference Price (and $453.6 million based on the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments, and (ii) if all contingent consideration payable under the Contribution Agreement is actually paid, additional OP Units with a total value of approximately $62.9 million based on the Reference Price (and $70.0 million based on the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments. Colony Capital is a wholly owned subsidiary of CC Holdings. Mr. Barrack owns a controlling interest in, and is the sole managing member of, CC Holdings, and therefore will have an indirect interest in the OP Units that are received by Colony Capital as consideration in the Combination.

The values in the prior paragraph are estimates that are subject to reduction for a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid on its behalf by the Company, and assume that (1) all of the OP Units received by Colony Capital as consideration in the Combination are exchanged for shares of Class A Common Stock, (2) the value of a share of Class A Common Stock is either (i) $22.05 (the Reference Price), which is the value used for purposes of determining the number of shares to be issued in the Combination, or (ii) $24.55 (the VWAP), as indicated, and (3) no portion of the contingent consideration is reallocated to upfront consideration to be issued at the Closing. The actual value of the OP Units received by Colony Capital will be based on the value of such OP Units at the time they are delivered and may be less or more than the amounts listed in the prior paragraph.

Colony Capital may also be eligible to receive a payment in respect of a specified portion of certain closing adjustments under the Contribution Agreement, including in respect of net working capital. While the actual amount that may become payable to Colony Capital in respect of such closing adjustments is not yet determinable, we estimate that the amount that will become payable is between $15 million and $20 million.

The amounts detailed above reflect the full amount of Mr. Barrack's interest in the consideration that Colony Capital is entitled to receive as consideration in the Combination, which is the only means by which Mr. Barrack will have any such interest, except as described in the immediately following paragraph. The amounts so described are without reduction for (1) any amounts that will be transferred to Mr. Saltzman as described in Arrangements with Richard B. Saltzman beginning on page 76 or to CCH I or CCH II as described in Interests of Executive Officers in CCH I and CCH II beginning on page 81, (2) any amounts attributable to the interests of minority holders of membership units in CC Holdings, or (3) any amounts that will be transferred to vehicles in which Colony Capital professionals unrelated to Mr. Barrack will hold an interest. Mr. Barrack's resulting interest in the consideration to be received by Colony Capital after such attribution to minority interest holders and transferees is detailed below in Interests of Executive Officers in CC Holdings beginning on page 83 and Interests of Executive Officers in CCH I and CCH II beginning on page 81.

Payment of Consideration Under Colony Mark Transfer Agreement. In addition, as described in more detail in Agreements to be Entered Into Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement Colony Mark Transfer Agreement beginning on page 110, the Company and OP have entered into the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement with the Mark Transferor, which is wholly owned by Mr. Barrack, pursuant to which the Colony name and mark will be transferred to OP in exchange for (i) shares of Class A Common Stock and shares of Class B Common Stock with a total value of $15.0 million based on the Reference Price (and $16.7 million based on the VWAP) to be paid at the Closing, subject to certain adjustments, and (ii) additional shares of Class A Common Stock and shares of Class B Common Stock with a total value of approximately $3.0 million based on the Reference Price (and $3.4 million based on the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments, if earned over time under the same multi-year performance targets required for receipt of the contingent consideration under the Contribution Agreement.

The values in the prior paragraph are estimates and assume that all of the shares of Class B Common Stock are converted into shares of Class A Common Stock, that the value of a share of Class A Common Stock is either (i) $22.05 (the Reference Price), which is the value used for purposes of determining the number of shares to be issued in the Combination, or (ii) $24.55 (the VWAP), as indicated, and that no portion of the contingent consideration is reallocated to upfront consideration to be issued at the Closing. The actual value of the shares received by Mr. Barrack will be based on the value of such shares at the time they are delivered and may be less or more than the amounts listed in the prior paragraph.

Employment Agreement. We entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Barrack on December 23, 2014, which sets forth the terms and conditions of Mr. Barrack's service as our Executive Chairman and Chairman of the Board following the Closing. The agreement will become effective as of the Closing and will continue in effect for an initial term of five years following the Closing, subject to automatic renewals of additional successive one-year periods unless either party provides at least 180 days' advance notice of non-renewal.

The agreement provides that, in his role as our Executive Chairman, Mr. Barrack will perform duties and provide services to us that are reasonably consistent with those he provided to us in that role prior to the Closing. The agreement further provides that Mr. Barrack will devote substantially all of his business time and attention to the performance of his duties to us, but will be permitted to perform duties for CC Holdings and its affiliates and engage in certain other outside activities, so long as those duties and activities do not unreasonably interfere with the performance of his duties to us.

In addition, the agreement provides that Mr. Barrack's principal place of business during the term of the agreement will generally be in Los Angeles, California. However, the agreement provides that, if Mr. Barrack is required to engage in travel during the term of the agreement that results in him having to perform a significant portion of his duties at a location other than Los Angeles, California, and Mr. Barrack determines to relocate his principal place of residence to a city in proximity to that other location, then we will pay for all reasonable relocation and return expenses that he incurs on a basis which is grossed up for taxes, with such payments subject to the Board's approval, not to be unreasonably withheld.

The agreement further provides that Mr. Barrack will receive an annual base salary of $1,000,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual cash bonus with a target amount of no less than $4,000,000, which may be based on achievement of reasonable performance measures established by the Board (or a committee thereof). In addition, Mr. Barrack will be eligible to receive annual grants of equity-based awards with a target value of 350% of his base salary. Mr. Barrack will also continue to receive allocations in respect of carried interests in respect of funds managed by us that were granted to Mr. Barrack prior to the Closing, and will be eligible to be granted new allocations in respect of carried interests in respect of funds managed by us as is determined by the Board from time to time in consultation with Mr. Barrack. Mr. Barrack will also be eligible to participate in our benefit plans made available to our senior executive officers from time to time and to receive certain perquisites that he was entitled to immediately prior to the Closing, each as described in the agreement.

The agreement provides that, if Mr. Barrack's employment is terminated by us without cause (as defined in the agreement and including non-renewal of the agreement by us) or by Mr. Barrack for good reason (as defined in the agreement and described below), and Mr. Barrack executes a release of claims, he will be eligible to receive (i) a lump sum cash payment equal to three times the sum of his base salary and average annual bonus with respect to the three prior calendar years (or, if any such termination of employment occurs prior to Mr. Barrack receiving his annual bonus in respect of calendar year 2017, then his target annual bonus), (ii) a lump sum cash payment in respect of the annual bonus payable in respect of the year prior to the year of termination, if unpaid as of the date of termination, (iii) a pro-rated target bonus for the year of termination, (iv) continued medical, dental and vision benefits at active employee rates for 24 months following termination, (v) the continuation of certain benefits for 24 months following termination (or in certain cases, until the end of the term of the employment agreement then in effect (if later)), and (vi) full vesting of all equity-based awards, carried interests and other like compensation that he holds, to the extent unvested upon his termination.

The agreement also provides that if Mr. Barrack provides notice to us of his intention not to renew the agreement upon the scheduled expiration of the initial term or any renewal term, then he will receive (i) a lump sum cash payment in respect of the annual bonus payable in respect of the year prior to the year of termination, if unpaid as of the date of termination, (ii) a pro-rated target bonus for the year of termination, and (iii) if such termination occurs upon his retirement on or after his attainment of age 72, full vesting of all equity-based awards, carried interests and other like compensation that he holds, to the extent unvested upon his termination.

For purposes of the agreement, good reason means, in summary, (i) a material diminution in Mr. Barrack's duties, authority or responsibilities (including failing to maintain Mr. Barrack as a member of the Board) or causing Mr. Barrack to no longer report to the Board or a diminution in his title, (ii) a reduction in Mr. Barrack's base salary, target annual cash bonus or target annual equity incentive grant, (iii) a 25-mile relocation of Mr. Barrack's principal place of business, or (iv) a material breach of the agreement by us, including the failure to appoint Mr. Barrack as our Chief Executive Officer if Mr. Saltzman's employment terminates while Mr. Barrack is serving as our Executive Chairman.

If any payments to be made to Mr. Barrack, whether under the agreement or otherwise, would subject Mr. Barrack to the excise tax on so-called golden parachute payments in accordance with Sections 280G or 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then the payments will be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid the excise tax, but only if the amount of the payments after such reduction would result in Mr. Barrack receiving a greater net after-tax benefit than if all of the payments were provided and the excise tax were imposed.

The agreement, through a restrictive covenant agreement included as an exhibit to the agreement, also provides that Mr. Barrack will not, subject to certain listed exceptions for permitted and personal activities, compete with us, or solicit our investors or customers or employees or those of our subsidiaries during his employment with us and for the one-year period following the termination of his employment with us unless his employment is terminated by us without cause (as defined in the agreement and including non-renewal of the agreement by us) or by Mr. Barrack for good reason (as defined in the agreement and described above). The agreement also contains covenants relating to the treatment of confidential information and intellectual property matters and restrictions on the ability of Mr. Barrack and us to disparage the other.

Lock-Up and Liquidated Damages Agreement. We entered into a Lock-Up and Liquidated Damages Agreement on December 23, 2014 with each of OP, Colony Capital and Mr. Barrack, who holds a controlling interest in Colony Capital. The agreement will become effective as of the Closing and sets forth certain restrictions on the transfer of, and other terms and conditions relating to, the OP Units issued to Colony Capital pursuant to the Contribution Agreement.

The agreement provides that the OP Units issued to Colony Capital pursuant to the Contribution Agreement will be fully vested as of the date on which they are issued, but will generally be subject to restrictions on transfer following their issuance. At each anniversary of the Closing, a portion of the OP Units will be released from the transfer restrictions resulting in an approximately ratable release across a five-year lock-up period, such that all of the OP Units will be freely transferable on the fifth anniversary of the Closing. In addition, the agreement provides for the earlier transferability of OP Units for certain limited purposes, including transfers in respect of pledging activities, gifts, transfers to family estate planning vehicles, transfers required by law, transfers to cover tax obligations relating to the receipt of OP Units and transfers to past or present employees (generally subject to specified vesting conditions and a ratable three-year lock-up so long as the transfer is not made to Messrs. Barrack or Saltzman), among others. While Colony Capital and Mr. Barrack are permitted to make these transfers, they are required to retain sufficient OP Units to satisfy any amount that may come due under the liquidated damages provision described below, as applied to Mr. Barrack.

The agreement generally provides that if Mr. Barrack materially violates or fails to perform his obligations under the restrictive covenant contained in the agreement under certain circumstances prior to the earlier of the fifth anniversary of the Closing and the termination of his employment by us without cause (as defined in his employment agreement with us, which is described above, and including non-renewal of his employment agreement by us) or by Mr. Barrack for good reason (as defined in his employment agreement with us and described above), and fails to cure and cease the violation within 60 days following the date on which he receives written notice of the violation, then Colony Capital will be required to remit a specified number of OP Units issued to it at the Closing to the OP as liquidated damages for the violation. If the violation occurs prior to the first anniversary of the Closing, then a total of 9,692,058 OP Units will be required to be so remitted to the OP. The amount of OP Units required to be remitted as liquidated damages decreases by 20% upon each anniversary of the Closing, such that no OP Units will be required to be remitted to OP upon any non-competition violation that occurs on or after the fifth anniversary of the Closing. The restrictive covenant contained in the agreement generally restricts Mr. Barrack from directly or indirectly engaging in our business in specified locations in which we carry on our business, subject to certain listed exceptions.

Arrangements with Richard B. Saltzman

Payment of Combination Consideration. In accordance with the terms and conditions of the Share Transfer and Liquidated Damages Agreement and Current Saltzman Agreement, each as described below, and after estimated transaction expenses, Mr. Saltzman will receive (i) shares of Class A Common Stock at the Closing with a total value of approximately $57.7 million based on the Reference Price (and $64.2 million based on the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments, and (ii) if all contingent consideration payable under the Contribution Agreement is actually paid, additional shares of Class A Common Stock with a total value of approximately $23.3 million based on the Reference Price (and $26.0 million based on the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments. These amounts are estimates that are subject to reduction for a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid on its behalf by the Company, and assume that the value of a share of Class A Common Stock is either (i) $22.05 (the Reference Price), which is the value used for purposes of determining the number of shares to be issued in the Combination, or (ii) $24.55 (the VWAP), as indicated, and that no portion of the contingent consideration is reallocated to upfront consideration to be issued at the Closing. The actual value of the shares of Class A Common Stock received by Mr. Saltzman will be based on the value of such shares at the time they are delivered and may be less or more than the amounts listed

In addition, in accordance with the terms of the Contribution Agreement and as described in Description of the Combination Overview of the Combination Combination with Colony Capital beginning on page 92,

Mr. Saltzman will contribute to OP his membership interests in CRM in the aggregate equal to 40% of the outstanding membership interests of CRM and in exchange, Mr. Saltzman will receive after estimated transaction expenses (1) OP Units at the Closing with a total value of approximately $8.2 million based on the Reference Price (and $9.1 million based on the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments, and (2) if all contingent consideration payable under the Contribution Agreement is actually paid, additional OP Units with a total value of approximately $1.6 million based on the Reference Price (and $1.8 million based on the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments. These values are estimates and assume that all of the OP Units are exchanged for shares of Class A Common Stock, that the value of a share of Class A Common Stock is either (i) $22.05 (the Reference Price), which is the value used for purposes of determining the number of shares to be issued in the Combination, or (ii) $24.55 (the VWAP), as indicated, and that no portion of the contingent consideration is reallocated to upfront consideration to be issued at the Closing. The actual value of the OP Units received by Mr. Saltzman will be based on the value of such OP Units at the time they are delivered and may be less or more than the amounts listed above.

Mr. Saltzman may also be eligible to receive a payment in respect of a specified portion of certain closing adjustments under the Contribution Agreement, including in respect of net working capital, as a result of the contribution of his membership interests in CRM. While the actual amount that may become payable to Mr. Saltzman in respect of such closing adjustment is not yet determinable, we estimate that the amount that will become payable is less than $1,000,000.

In addition, Mr. Saltzman will have an interest in the OP Units received by Colony Capital following the Closing through his interest in CC Holdings, as described in Interests of Executive Officers in CC Holdings beginning on page 83 and his interest in certain other entities holding OP Units, as described in Interests of Executive Officers in CCH I and CCH II beginning on page 81.

Employment Agreement. We entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Saltzman on December 23, 2014 that sets forth the terms and conditions of Mr. Saltzman's service as our Chief Executive Officer and President following the Closing. Mr. Saltzman's current employment and equity agreement by and among Mr. Saltzman, Mr. Barrack and Colony Capital, as amended (the Current Saltzman Agreement) provided for, among other compensatory terms, carried interests issued by Colony Capital in connection with his prior employment, certain interests in general partners of funds and entities managed by Colony Capital, and equity interests in certain businesses of the Company. The new employment agreement, along with the Share Transfer and Liquidated Damages Agreement described below, generally replaces the Current Saltzman Agreement, except with respect to Mr. Saltzman's right to fund incentives or other interests granted in connection with his prior employment, including any rights to the payment of combination consideration under the Contribution Agreement, as described in Arrangements with Richard B. Saltzman Payment of Combination Consideration beginning on page 76. Mr. Saltzman's employment agreement will become effective as of the Closing and will continue in effect for an initial term of five years following the Closing, subject to automatic renewals of additional successive one-year periods unless either party provides at least 180 days' advance notice of non-renewal.

The agreement also provides that, in his role as our Chief Executive Officer and President, Mr. Saltzman will perform duties and provide services to us that are reasonably consistent with those he provided to us in that role prior to the Closing. The agreement further provides that Mr. Saltzman will devote substantially all of his full business time and attention to the performance of his duties to us, but will be permitted to engage in certain other outside activities so long as they do not unreasonably interfere with the performance of his duties to us.

In addition, the agreement provides that Mr. Saltzman's principal place of business during the term of the agreement will be in New York City. However, the agreement provides that if Mr. Saltzman is required to engage in travel during the term of the agreement that results in him having to perform a significant portion of his duties at a location other than in New York City, and Mr. Saltzman determines to relocate his principal place of residence to a city in proximity to such other location, then we will pay for all relocation and return expenses that he incurs on a basis which is grossed up for taxes, with such payments subject to the Board's approval, not to be unreasonably withheld.

The agreement further provides that Mr. Saltzman will receive an annual base salary of $800,000 and will be eligible to receive an annual cash bonus with a target amount of no less than $2,400,000, which may be based on achievement of reasonable performance measures established by the Board (or a committee thereof). In addition, Mr. Saltzman will be eligible to receive annual grants of equity-based awards with a target value of 350% of his base salary.

Mr. Saltzman will also continue to receive allocations in respect of carried interests in respect of funds managed by us that were granted to him prior to the Closing and will be eligible to be granted new allocations in respect of carried interests in respect of funds managed by us as is determined by the Board from time to time in consultation with Mr. Saltzman. Mr. Saltzman will also be eligible to participate in our benefit plans made available to our senior executive officers from time to time and will be entitled to receive certain perquisites that he was entitled to immediately prior to the Closing, each as described in the agreement.

The agreement provides that if Mr. Saltzman's employment is terminated by us without cause (as defined in the agreement and including non-renewal of the agreement by us) or by Mr. Saltzman for good reason (as defined in the agreement and described below), and Mr. Saltzman executes a release of claims, he will be eligible to receive (i) a lump sum cash payment equal to three times the sum of his base salary and average annual bonus with respect to the three prior calendar years (or, if any such termination of employment occurs prior to Mr. Saltzman receiving his annual bonus in respect of calendar year 2017, then his target annual bonus), (ii) a lump sum cash payment in respect of the annual bonus payable in respect of the year prior to the year of termination, if unpaid as of the date of termination, (iii) a pro-rated target bonus for the year of termination, (iv) continued medical, dental and vision benefits at active employee rates for 24 months following termination, and (v) full vesting of all equity-based awards, carried interests and other like compensation that he holds, to the extent unvested upon his termination.

The agreement also provides that if Mr. Saltzman provides notice to us of his intention not to renew the agreement upon the scheduled expiration of the initial term or any renewal term, then he will receive (i) a lump sum cash payment in respect of the annual bonus payable in respect of the year prior to the year of termination, if unpaid as of the date of termination, (ii) a pro-rated target bonus for the year of termination, and (ii) if such termination occurs upon his retirement on or after his attainment of age 65, full vesting of all equity-based awards, carried interests and other like compensation that he holds, to the extent unvested upon his termination.

For purposes of the agreement, good reason means, in summary, (i) a material diminution in Mr. Saltzman's duties, authority or responsibilities (including failing to maintain Mr. Saltzman as a member of the Board) or a diminution in his title, (ii) a change in reporting structure such that Mr. Saltzman no longer reports to the Executive Chairman or the Board (or a sub-committee of the Board), (iii) a reduction in Mr. Saltzman's base salary, target annual cash bonus or target annual equity incentive grant, (iv) a 25-mile relocation of his principal place of business, or (iv) a material breach of the agreement by us.

If any payments to be made to Mr. Saltzman, whether under the agreement or otherwise, would subject Mr. Saltzman to the excise tax on so-called golden parachute payments in accordance with Sections 280G or 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then the payments will be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid the excise tax, but only if the amount of the payments after such reduction would result in Mr. Saltzman receiving a greater net after-tax benefit than if all of the payments were provided and the excise tax were imposed.

The agreement, through a restrictive covenant agreement included as an exhibit to the agreement, also provides that Mr. Saltzman will not, subject to certain listed exceptions for permitted and personal activities, compete with us, or solicit our investors or our customers or employees or those of our subsidiaries during his employment with us and for the one-year period following the termination of his employment with us unless his employment is terminated by us without cause (as defined in the agreement and including non-renewal of the agreement by us) or by Mr. Saltzman for good reason (as defined in the agreement and described above). The agreement also contains covenants relating to the treatment of confidential information and intellectual property matters and restrictions on the ability of Mr. Saltzman and us to disparage the other.

Share Transfer and Liquidated Damages Agreement. We entered into a Share Transfer and Liquidated Damages Agreement with Colony Capital, CC Holdings and Mr. Saltzman on December 23, 2014, which will become effective as of the Closing. The agreement provides that Mr. Saltzman will receive the shares of Class A Common Stock described above in Arrangements with Richard B. Saltzman Payment of Combination Consideration beginning on page 76, from Colony Capital in accordance with the terms of the Contribution Agreement and the Current Saltzman Agreement. Certain of the shares will be delivered to Mr. Saltzman on or as soon as practicable after the Closing and additional shares may be delivered to Mr. Saltzman in respect of the payment of contingent consideration in accordance with the terms of the Contribution Agreement.

The shares of Class A Common Stock delivered to Mr. Saltzman pursuant to the agreement and the Contribution Agreement will be fully vested as of the date on which they are delivered, but will generally be subject to restrictions on transfer following their delivery. At each anniversary of the date on which they are issued, a portion of the shares delivered to Mr. Saltzman will be released from the transfer restrictions resulting in an approximately ratable release across a five-year lock-up period, such that all of the shares delivered to Mr. Saltzman under the agreement will be freely transferable on the fifth anniversary of the Closing. In addition, the agreement provides for the earlier transferability of the shares delivered to Mr. Saltzman under the agreement and the Contribution Agreement for certain limited purposes, including transfers in respect of pledging activities, gifts, transfers to family estate planning vehicles, transfers required by law and transfers to cover tax obligations relating to the shares, among others. While Mr. Saltzman is permitted to make these transfers, he is required to retain a sufficient number of shares to satisfy any amount that may come due under the liquidated damages provision described below.

The agreement generally provides that if Mr. Saltzman materially violates or fails to perform his obligations under the restrictive covenant contained in the agreement under certain circumstances prior to the earlier of the fifth anniversary of the Closing and the termination of his employment by us without cause (as defined in his employment agreement with us and including non-renewal of the employment agreement by us) or by Mr. Saltzman for good reason (as defined in his employment agreement with us and described above), and fails to substantially cure and cease the violation within 60 days following the date on which he receives written notice of the violation, then he will be required to remit to us a specified number of shares of Class A Common Stock issued to him at the Closing as liquidated damages for the violation. If the violation occurs prior to the first anniversary of the Closing, then a total of 1,645,810 shares of Class A Common Stock will be required to be so remitted to us.

The amount of shares required to be remitted as liquidated damages decreases by 20% upon each anniversary of the Closing, such that no shares will be required to be remitted to us upon any non-competition violation that occurs on or after the fifth anniversary of the Closing. The restrictive covenant contained in the agreement generally restricts Mr. Saltzman from directly or indirectly engaging in our business in specified locations in which we carry on our business, subject to certain listed exceptions.

In addition, the agreement provides that if Colony Capital is obligated for any applicable losses under the Contribution Agreement, then Mr. Saltzman will be responsible for his pro-rata portion of those losses in accordance with a formula set forth in the agreement.

Employment Agreements with Other Executive Officers

We anticipate that we will enter into employment agreements prior to the Closing, to become effective as of the Closing, with each of (i) Darren J. Tangen, who is expected to continue to serve as our Chief Financial Officer following the Closing, (ii) Kevin P. Traenkle, who is expected to continue to serve as our Chief Investment Officer following the Closing, and (iii) Mr. Sanders, who is expected to continue to serve as our Chief Legal Officer and Secretary following the Closing. These agreements have not yet been executed and their terms have not yet been finalized and there is no assurance that any of these executives will ultimately enter into an employment agreement with us, although the Contribution Agreement does contain certain provisions relating to the requirement that some or all of these or certain other employment and related agreements be executed as a condition to the Closing.

It is anticipated that each of these employment agreements will be in effect for an initial term of three years following the Closing, subject to automatic renewals of additional successive one-year periods unless either party provides at least 180 days advance notice of non-renewal. Each agreement is expected to require that the executive will devote his full business time and attention to the performance of his duties to us, but will be permitted to engage in certain other outside activities so long as they do not unreasonably interfere with the performance of the executive's duties to us.

The agreements are expected to provide for the payment of a specified base salary to each executive, which is expected to be equal to $425,000 for Mr. Tangen, $450,000 for Mr. Traenkle and $425,000 for Mr. Sanders. In addition, the agreements are expected to provide that each executive will be eligible to receive a discretionary annual cash bonus with a target amount of $1,300,000 for Mr. Tangen, $1,575,000 for Mr. Traenkle and $1,062,500 for Mr. Sanders and annual grants of equity-based awards with a target value of $1,000,000 for Mr. Tangen, $990,000 for Mr. Traenkle and $680,000 for Mr. Sanders. In addition, the executives are expected to continue to receive allocations in respect of carried interests in respect of funds managed by us that were granted to them prior to the Closing and to be eligible to be granted new allocations in respect of carried interests in respect of funds managed by us as is determined by the Board from time to time in consultation with the applicable executive. The executives are also expected to be eligible to participate in certain of our benefit plans made available to our senior executive officers from time to time and to receive certain perquisites that the executives were entitled to receive immediately prior to the Closing.

The agreements are expected to provide that if the executive's employment is terminated by us without cause (as defined in the agreements and including non-renewal of the employment agreements by us) or by the executive for good reason (as defined in the agreement and described below), and the executive executes a release of claims, he will be eligible to receive (i) a lump sum cash payment equal to two times the sum of his base salary and average annual bonus with respect to the three prior calendar years (or, if any such termination of employment occurs prior to the executive receiving his annual bonus in respect of calendar year 2017, then his target annual bonus), (ii) a lump sum cash payment in respect of the annual bonus payable in respect of the year prior to the year of termination, if unpaid as of the date of termination, (iii) a pro-rated target bonus for the year of termination, (iv) continued medical, dental and vision benefits at active employee rates for 24 months following termination, and (v) full vesting of all equity-based awards, carried interests and other like compensation that he holds, to the extent unvested upon his termination.

The agreements are also expected to provide that if an executive provides notice to us of his intention not to renew the agreement upon the scheduled expiration of the initial term or any renewal term, then he will receive (i) a lump sum cash payment in respect of the annual bonus payable in respect of the year prior to the year of termination, if unpaid as of the date of termination and (ii) a pro-rated target bonus for the year of termination.

For purposes of the agreements, good reason is expected to include, in summary, (i) a material diminution in the executive's duties, authority or responsibilities, (ii) a requirement that the executive report to any person other than our Chief Executive Officer or Executive Chairman, (iii) a reduction in the executive's base salary, target annual cash bonus or target annual equity incentive grant, (iv) a 25-mile relocation of the executive's principal place of business, or (v) a material breach of the agreement by us.

The agreements are expected to include a provision providing that if any payments to be made to the executive, whether under the agreement or otherwise, would subject the executive to the excise tax on so-called golden parachute payments in accordance with Sections 280G or 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then the payments will be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid the excise tax, but only if the amount of the payments after such reduction would result in the executive receiving a greater net after-tax benefit than if all of the payments were provided and the excise tax were imposed.

Table of Contents

It is also anticipated that the agreements, through a restrictive covenant agreement that is expected to be included as an exhibit to the agreements, will provide that the executives will not, subject to certain exceptions, compete with us, or solicit our investors or customers or employees or those of our subsidiaries during their employment with us and for the one-year period following the termination of their employment with us unless their employment is terminated by us without cause (as defined in the agreement and including non-renewal of the employment agreement by us) or by the executive for good reason (as defined in the agreement and described above). The agreements are also expected to contain covenants relating to the treatment of confidential information and intellectual property matters and restrictions on the ability of the executives and us to disparage the other.

Interests of Executive Officers in CCH I and CCH II

Overview. As described in more detail below, certain of our executive officers will receive Combination proceeds indirectly in the form of membership interests in each of CCH I and CCH II at or prior to the Closing. These potential recipients consist of Messrs. Barrack, Saltzman, Tangen, Traenkle and Sanders.

Description of Membership Interests. The assets of CCH I will consist of OP Units. The assets of CCH II will consist of membership units in CC Holdings representing an indirect interest in OP Units and certain other assets held by CC Holdings and not related to the Combination. The membership interests in these entities that are held by the executive officers (other than Mr. Barrack) are being granted as consideration for past services provided to Colony Capital and for future services to be provided to CC Holdings and its affiliates related to the CC Retained Businesses, and will represent an economic right to each such officer's respective allocation of the OP Units, as well as the other assets held by the applicable entity, and to the income and earnings on each of those interests.

Following vesting, if applicable, of an executive officer's membership interests in CCH I or CCH II, the executive officer will be eligible to receive a distribution of OP Units or cash or other property in accordance with the terms and conditions of the OP Operating Agreement (which is described in more detail in the section entitled "Certain Agreements to be Entered Into in Connection with the Contribution Agreement" OP Operating Agreement beginning on page 112), and the executive officer will be eligible to request that all or part of any distributed OP Units be redeemed for shares of our Class A Common Stock (or cash in accordance with the terms of the OP Operating Agreement).

The executive officers will receive quarterly distributions of the earnings distributed by OP with respect to their vested interests. Upon the vesting of any membership interests held by an executive officer in CCH I and CCH II that are subject to vesting, the executive officer will receive a payment equal to all applicable earnings distributed by OP prior to the vesting date (net of operating expenses and an allocable share of any transaction expenses) in respect of the executive officer's membership interests in CCH I and CCH II, and will thereafter receive the quarterly distributions described in the prior sentence.

Vesting of Membership Interests. The membership interests in CCH I and CCH II that are granted to Messrs. Tangen, Traenkle and Sanders will vest ratably over a three-year period based on services to be provided by each of them to the CC Retained Businesses and other factors provided for in the definitive documentation (which will not include continued employment by us), but the vesting may be accelerated in certain circumstances in accordance with the terms of the definitive documentation, including upon a change in control of OP.

In addition, certain of the membership interests held by the executive officers in CCH I and CCH II (but not any OP Units or shares of our common stock which the executive officer has received in respect of his vested equity interests in CCH I or CCH II) will be forfeited (i) if the executive officer competes with or solicits employees or customers of any affiliate of CCH I or CCH II during the time that the executive officer holds membership interests in CCH I or CCH II in violation of certain restrictive covenants to which the executive officer is subject, or (ii) upon the occurrence of an event constituting cause, in each case as will be more fully set forth in applicable definitive documentation. Any interests that are so forfeited will revert to CC Holdings and be subject to reallocation by Mr. Barrack in his capacity as the owner of a controlling interest in, and in his capacity as the sole managing member of, CC Holdings.

Allocation of Membership Interests. Our executive officers will receive membership interests in CCH I and CCH II (some of which may be held indirectly) at or prior to the Closing. The estimated value of the amounts attributable to the Combination net of estimated transaction costs is set forth below:

Table of ContentsInterests of Executive Officers in CC Holdings

In addition to interests in CC Holdings held indirectly by our executive officers through CCH II, Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman hold interests in CC Holdings, which owns Colony Capital. Their ownership of these interests entitles them to a portion of the OP Units received by Colony Capital at the Closing, along with additional OP Units in respect of the contingent consideration payable to Colony Capital under the Contribution Agreement, as set forth in the table below (net of estimated transaction costs).

- (1) The number in this column does not include any interests in OP Units that are held indirectly by the individual through the membership interests he indirectly holds in CCH I.
- (2) The estimated value of the OP Units held by the applicable individual as listed in the Number of OP Units column, and assuming that all contingent consideration payable under the Contribution Agreement is actually paid, is equal to the product of (i) $22.05 (the Reference Price) or $24.55 (the VWAP), as indicated, which assumes that the OP Unit to which the membership interest relates is redeemed for a share of Class A Common Stock at the Closing, and (ii) the number of OP Units listed in the Number of OP Units column. The amounts in this column represent only an estimated value. The actual value on the date of the Closing of the applicable OP Units will be based on the value of OP Units at the date of the Closing (which are subject to adjustment) and may be less or more than the amounts listed in this column.

Quantification of Potential Payments to Our Named Executive Officers in Connection with the Combination

In accordance with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, the table below sets forth the estimated amounts of compensation that is based on or otherwise relates to the Combination that may become payable or realized by each of our named executive officers (as identified in accordance with SEC regulations).

The estimated amounts below are based on multiple assumptions that may not actually occur, including assumptions described in this proxy statement. In addition, the amounts may vary depending on the actual date the Combination is completed. As a result, the actual amounts received may differ in material respects from the amounts set forth below. The disclosures in the table below and the accompanying footnotes should be read in conjunction with the narrative description of the compensation arrangements set forth above in this section.

Regulatory Approval Required for the Combination and Other Regulatory Matters

U.S. Consents. The expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act is a condition to each party's obligation to complete the Combination. Each of the parties to the Contribution Agreement has pledged to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the waiting period under the HSR Act to expire or terminate. The parties filed the requisite HSR Notification and Report Form and related materials with the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice on January 15, 2015.

The registration of a subsidiary of NewCo with the SEC as an investment adviser under the 1940 Act is a condition to each party's obligation to complete the Combination. The parties expect to file an application for registration as an investment advisor on Form ADV in the first quarter of 2015. It is anticipated that the registration will become effective 45 days after filing.

Other Consents. Approval from the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority is required for the contribution of the ownership of Colyzeo Investment Management Limited, a subsidiary of Colony Capital, to NewCo, and ministerial consents from certain authorities in Luxembourg and Lebanon must also be sought in connection with the indirect contribution of Colony Luxembourg, S.a.r.l., Colony Capital S.A.R.L., and Colony Capital (Offshore) S.A.L. Colony Capital agreed in the Contribution Agreement to use reasonable best efforts to seek such approval from the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority. If such approval is denied by the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority, Colony Capital's obligation to obtain such approval will terminate. Colyzeo Investment Management Limited will not be contributed unless we receive the consent of both the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority and the Advisory Committees of Colyzeo Investors, L.P. and Colyzeo Investors II, L.P., although we expect the Company to provide management services to these funds regardless of whether such consents are obtained.

Vote Required and Recommendation

Pursuant to Maryland law, transactions in which directors have a material financial interest are not void or voidable solely because of such fact if, among other things, disinterested director approval or ratification occurs, stockholder approval or ratification is obtained or the transaction is otherwise fair and reasonable to the corporation. The Combination was recommended by the Special Committee, which consists of independent and disinterested directors and which retained its own legal and financial advisors. Upon the recommendation by the Special Committee, our Board approved the Combination. In reaching its conclusion to recommend the Combination, the Special Committee determined the Combination was advisable to, and in the best interests of, us and our stockholders, taking into account the factors described in Recommendations of the Special Committee and the Board, beginning on page 59, which factors should be read in their entirety.

Because the consideration in connection with the Combination is issuable to a director, officer or substantial security holder of the Company or a company or entity in which any such person has a substantial direct or indirect interest and constitutes the issuance of common stock, or securities exchangeable for common stock, which in the aggregate would total more than 1% of the Company's outstanding shares, Section 312.03(b) of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual requires the approval by a majority of votes cast on the Issuances at the Special Meeting, assuming that a quorum is present. If such approval is not received, then the Combination will not be consummated. In addition, we are requiring that the Issuances be approved without the votes of CC Holdings, Colony Capital, CCH I, CRP and their respective subsidiaries and Affiliates. Therefore, the Issuances must be approved by the affirmative vote of (i) a majority of the votes cast, and (ii) a majority of the votes cast, excluding votes of shares cast by CC Holdings, Colony Capital, CCH I, CRP and their respective subsidiaries and Affiliates. For the purpose of the vote on this proposal, abstentions will be counted as votes cast and will have the same effect as votes against the proposal, while broker non-votes and other shares not voted will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote. However, both abstentions and broker non-votes will be considered present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

Federal Securities Laws Consequences

All of the shares of Class A Common Stock, shares of Class B Common Stock and OP Units to be issued in the Combination will be offered and sold pursuant to an exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act and, therefore, will be subject to restrictions on their transferability in addition to the transfer restrictions contained in lock-up agreements between the Contributors and the Company.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVING THE ISSUANCES.

PROPOSAL 2: THE CHARTER AMENDMENTS

We have agreed in the Contribution Agreement to make certain amendments to our Charter, consisting of the Charter Amendments described below, which each of the Special Committee and the Board has determined are advisable to, and in the best interests of, the Company and its stockholders. Each of the Special Committee and the Board has recommended the submission of the Charter Amendments for stockholder approval at the Special Meeting.

The Charter Amendments consist of changes to our current Charter that are intended to accomplish two primary purposes: (1) to designate, and set the express terms, preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends or other distributions, qualifications and terms and conditions of conversion and redemption of, the Company's Class B Common Stock, as described in more detail in Proposal 2(a) below, and (2) to revise the Company's stock ownership limitations to (i) lower the common stock ownership limit subject to a grandfather provision applicable to certain pre-existing holdings, and (ii) to establish a separate designated investment entity ownership limit with respect to certain investment entities, each as described in more detail in Proposal 2(b) below. In addition, to the extent that the proposed Charter Amendments are approved by the stockholders, various ministerial changes and other changes not requiring stockholder approval will be made to our Charter, including changing the Company's name from Colony Financial, Inc. to Colony Capital, Inc.

To the extent approved by our stockholders, we will implement the Charter Amendments through the adoption of the Amended and Restated Charter, which would become effective upon filing with, and acceptance for record by, the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of the State of Maryland. The full text of the proposed Amended and Restated Charter containing the proposed Charter Amendments is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix C and is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety, and has been marked to reflect the amendments contemplated by this Proposal 2, including various additional conforming and other immaterial changes. The summary of the proposed Charter Amendments set forth in this Proposal 2 is qualified in its entirety by reference to Appendix C, which you should read in its entirety.

If the Charter Amendments are approved, we intend to amend and restate our Charter as part of the Combination. We are under no obligation, however, to effectuate either or both of the Charter Amendments, and we would not expect to do so, if the Combination is not consummated.

Proposal 2(a) Amendment to Create Class B Common Stock

Pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, as described in Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, beginning on page 110, which was entered into concurrently with the Contribution Agreement, the Mark Transferor will transfer the Colony Mark to OP in exchange for shares of our Class A Common Stock and our newly created Class B Common Stock. In order to issue these shares to the Mark Transferor at the closing of the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, we agreed in the Contribution Agreement to amend our Charter to create our Class B Common Stock and, consequently, re-classify our common stock into our Class A Common Stock. The Class B Common Stock is intended to be equivalent, economically, to the Class A Common Stock but will have thirty-six and one-half (36.5) votes per share, which is intended to mirror the aggregate number of shares of Class B Common Stock issued pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the OP Units (which are redeemable for cash or our Class A Common Stock, on a one-to-one basis) issued to Colony Capital and CCH I pursuant to the Contribution Agreement. Therefore, the Class B Common Stock is designed to give the holders thereof a right to vote that reflects the aggregate outstanding non-voting economic interest in our Company attributable to such holders or their affiliates issued pursuant to the Contribution Agreement in the form of OP Units and therefore does not provide any disproportionate voting rights.

The Company's Charter currently authorizes 500 million shares of stock, consisting of 450 million shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share, and 50 million shares of preferred stock, $0.01 par value per share.

Table of Contents

Pursuant to the current Charter, the Company's common stock entitles its holders to one vote per share and to participation in the distribution upon liquidation of the Company's assets remaining after payment of the Company's debts and liabilities and distributions to holders of shares having a preference over the Company's common stock. The Board has proposed that the Charter be amended to re-designate the Company's common stock as the Company's Class A Common Stock, with 449 million shares authorized, to continue under the same terms as previously, to create the Company's Class B Common Stock with the terms described below and authorize one million shares of Class B Common Stock, to provide that, other than as described below, the Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will have the same rights and privileges and rank equally, share ratably and be identical in all respects as to all matters and to make conforming and immaterial changes and modifications related to the foregoing.

Furthermore, the Board has proposed that the Charter be amended to provide the following terms for the Class B Common Stock:

Each share of the newly created Class B Common Stock will entitle the holder thereof to thirty-six and one-half (36.5) votes on each matter on which holders of Class A Common Stock are entitled to vote and that the Class B Common Stock and Class A Common Stock will vote together as a single class.

The Board may reclassify any unissued shares of Class B Common Stock from time to time in one or more classes or series of common stock or preferred stock.

Subject to any preferences on other outstanding shares of the Company, if and when the Board of Directors authorizes or declares a dividend or distribution with respect to the Class A Common Stock, such authorization or declaration also shall constitute a simultaneous authorization or declaration of an equivalent dividend or distribution with respect to each share of Class B Common Stock.

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company or any distribution of the Company's assets, each holder of Class B Common Stock will be entitled to participate, together with the Class A Common Stock and any other class of stock not having a preference over Class B Common Stock, in the distribution of any remaining assets after payment of the Company's debts and liabilities and distributions to holders of shares having a preference over the Class B Common Stock.

Each share of Class B Common Stock, which shall only be issued in conjunction with the issuance of OP Units (in a ratio of no more than one (1) share of Class B Common Stock for every thirty-five and one-half (35.5) OP Units), shall convert automatically into one fully-paid and non-assessable share of Class A Common Stock (i) if Mr. Barrack or any of his family members (or trusts for the benefit of his family members) directly or indirectly transfers beneficial ownership of Class B Common Stock other than among each other, and (ii) if Mr. Barrack directly or indirectly transfers beneficial ownership of OP Units directly or indirectly held by him, other than to a Qualified Transferee, any Qualified Transferee directly or indirectly transfers beneficial ownership of OP Units directly or indirectly held by it other than to Mr. Barrack or to another Qualified Transferee, or a Qualified Transferee that beneficially owns OP Units ceases at any time to continue to be a Qualified Transferee (which, as described below, may include the failure of a Qualified Transferee that is an executive of ours to be employed by us or a divorce or annulment), in each case for every group of between one (1) and thirty-five and one-half (35.5) OP Units involved in such transfer or cessation. In other words, with respect to clause (ii), one share of Class B Common Stock will convert automatically for every group of between one (1) and thirty-five and one-half (35.5) OP Units involved in any transfer or cessation. Qualified Transferee means Colony Capital and CC Holdings and any member of CCH I, CCH II, Colony Capital or CC Holdings for so long as any such person remains employed by us or our affiliates, any family member or affiliate of such persons or any person controlled by any combination of one or more of such persons or their family members. The purpose of this automatic conversion feature is to ensure that the holders of Class B Common Stock do not at any time have votes in excess of the number of OP Units then held by them (or the other permitted holders described above); to the extent that a share of Class B Common Stock or any group of up to thirty-five and one-half (35.5) OP Units is transferred or ceases to be held by a permitted holder, a share of Class B Common Stock will convert into one share Class A Common Stock, thereafter carrying only one vote.

Each holder of Class B Common Stock shall have the right, at the holder's option at any time and from time to time, to convert all or a portion of such holder's Class B Common Stock into an equal number of fully paid and non-assessable shares of Class A Common Stock by delivering the certificates (if any) representing the shares of Class B Common Stock to be converted, duly endorsed for transfer, together with a written conversion notice to the transfer agent for the Class B Common Stock.

Any share certificates will bear a legend, as set forth in the Charter, describing the conversion features of the Class B Common Stock.

All of the foregoing terms of the Class B Common Stock will be subject to operation of the Charter's stock ownership limitation provisions.

The purpose and effect of this amendment, therefore, is to create a class of common stock that gives certain holders a right to vote that is proportional to the outstanding non-voting economic interest in our company attributable to such holders or their affiliates issued pursuant to the Contribution Agreement in the form of OP Units as if such holders had exchanged all of the OP units for shares of Class A Common Stock (without providing any disproportionate voting rights). This new class of common stock will enable us to comply with our obligations under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement to issue shares of Class B Common Stock at closing under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement. In addition, this amendment will enable us to comply with our obligation under the Contribution Agreement to file the Charter Amendments prior to the closing of the Contribution Agreement. Although, as described above, the Class B Common Stock will not provide for disproportionate voting rights, the issuance of the Class B Common Stock pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement will result in Mr. Barrack controlling a significant number of votes in matters submitted to a vote of stockholders as a result of his beneficial ownership of Class B Common Stock (which will give him voting power equal to the economic interest in the Company issued to Colony Capital and CCH I in the form of OP Units as if all of those OP Units were exchanged for shares of Class A Common Stock), including the election of directors. Mr. Barrack may have interests that differ from our other stockholders, including by reason of his interest in OP, and may accordingly vote in ways that may not be consistent with the interests of those other stockholders.

Although our current Charter gives us the power, without stockholder approval, to reclassify any unissued shares of common stock from time to time into one or more classes or series of common stock, we are choosing to seek stockholder approval for the Charter amendment described in this Proposal 2(a) to create the Class B Common Stock rather than creating the Class B Common Stock without stockholder approval through a supplement to our current Charter filed with the State of Maryland. Given the important role of the Class B Common Stock in providing Mr. Barrack voting rights that are proportional to his economic interests in the Company, and given that Mr. Barrack is our Executive Chairman, we believe that that it is appropriate for the terms of the Class B Common Stock to be included in the text of our Charter itself.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF PROPOSAL 2(a).

Proposal 2(b) Amendment to Revise the Company's Stock Ownership Limitations

In order for us to qualify as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code, shares of our stock must be beneficially owned by 100 or more persons during at least 335 days of a taxable year of 12 months (other than the first year for which an election to be a REIT has been made) or during a proportionate part of a shorter taxable year. Also, not more than 50% of the value of the outstanding shares of stock (after taking into account options to acquire shares of common stock) may be owned, directly, indirectly or through attribution, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Internal Revenue Code to include certain entities) at any time during the last half of a taxable year (other than the first year for which an election to be a REIT has been made).

In order to assist us in complying with the limitations on the concentration of ownership of REIT stock imposed by the Internal Revenue Code, our current Charter generally prohibits any person (other than a person who has been granted an exception) from actually or constructively owning more than 9.8% of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of our common stock by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive, or 9.8% of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of such class or series of our preferred stock by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive. In addition, pursuant to the articles supplementary setting forth the terms of our Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock, no person may own, or be deemed to own by virtue of the attribution provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, more than 9.8% (by value or number of shares, whichever is more restrictive) of our Series A Preferred Stock, or Series B Preferred Stock, respectively. However, our charter permits, and the Amended and Restated Charter would continue to permit, exceptions to be made for stockholders; provided, that our Board determines such exceptions will not jeopardize our qualification as a REIT.

In connection with the Combination, the Board has proposed that the Charter be amended to prohibit any person (other than a person who has been granted an exemption or a designated investment entity (as described below)) from actually or constructively owning more than % of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of our common stock (by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive) (such limit, the New Common Stock Ownership Limit) and to make conforming and immaterial changes and modifications related to the foregoing. The New Common Stock Ownership Limit is being proposed so as, among other things, to assist subsidiary and other REITs in which the Company invests (the Company's direct and indirect interests in which are contemplated to be transferred to OP in connection with the Combination) in complying with the limitations on the concentration of ownership of REIT stock imposed by the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, the Board has proposed that the Charter be amended to prohibit any designated investment entity (other than a person who has been granted an exemption) from actually or constructively owning more than 9.9% of the aggregate of the outstanding shares of our common stock (by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive) and to make conforming and immaterial changes and modifications related to the foregoing. Designated investment entity would be defined in the Amended and Restated Charter as:

an entity that is a pension trust that qualifies for look-through treatment under Section 856(h)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; an entity that qualifies as a regulated investment company under Section 851 of the Internal Revenue Code; or

a qualified investment manager , which is defined in the Amended and Restated Charter to mean an entity (i) who for compensation engages in the business of advising others as to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in, purchasing or selling securities, (ii) who purchases securities in the ordinary course of its business and not with the purpose or effect of changing or influencing control of us, nor in connection with or as a participant in any transaction having such purpose or effect, including any transaction subject to Rule 13d-3(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and (iii) who has or shares voting power and investment power under Rule 13d-3(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; provided, that in each case, so long as each beneficial owner of such designated investment entity or, in the case of a designated investment entity that is a qualified investment manager, of the shares owned by such designated investment entity, would satisfy the New Common Stock Ownership Limit if those beneficial owners owned directly their proportionate share of our common stock owned by the designated investment entity.

If and to the extent a person (other than a designated investment entity) actually or constructively would own, on the effective date of the Amended and Restated Charter, shares of our common stock in excess of the New Common Stock Ownership Limit, such person will be treated as not owning shares of our common stock in violation of the New Common Stock Ownership Limit. Instead, such person will generally be prohibited from actually or constructively owning our common stock in excess of the more restrictive of either (a) the Existing

Common Stock Ownership Limit or (b) such person's lowest actual or constructive percentage ownership, at any time following the effective date of the Amended and Restated Charter, of our common stock (by value or by number of shares, whichever is more restrictive, but not less than the New Common Stock Ownership Limit). This grandfather provision would not limit the application of the other restrictions on ownership of our stock set forth in the Amended and Restated Charter, including the restrictions described in the following paragraph.

Our current Charter also prohibits, and the Amended and Restated Charter will continue to prohibit, any person from (1) beneficially or constructively owning shares of our capital stock that would result in our being closely held under Section 856(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, (2) transferring shares of our capital stock if such transfer would result in our being beneficially owned by fewer than 100 persons (determined without reference to any rules of attribution), (3) beneficially or constructively owning shares of our capital stock that would result in our owning (directly or indirectly) an interest in a tenant that is described in Section 856(d)(2)(B) of the Code if income derived by us (either directly or indirectly through one or more partnerships or limited liability companies) from such tenant for our taxable year, during which such determination is being made would reasonably be expected to equal or exceed the lesser of (a) one percent (1%) of our gross income (as determined for purposes of Section 856(c) of the Code), or (b) an amount that would cause us to fail to satisfy any of the gross income requirements of Section 856(c) of the Code, and (4) beneficially or constructively owning shares of our capital stock that would cause us otherwise to fail to qualify as a REIT. Any person who acquires or attempts or intends to acquire beneficial ownership of shares of our capital stock that will or may violate any of the foregoing restrictions on transferability and ownership is required to give notice immediately to us and provide us with such other information as we may request in order to determine the effect of such transfers on our qualification as a REIT. The foregoing restrictions on transferability and ownership will not apply if our Board determines that it is no longer in our best interest to attempt to qualify, or to qualify, or to continue to qualify, as a REIT. In addition, our Board may determine that compliance with the foregoing restrictions is no longer required for our qualification as a REIT.

Under the Amended and Restated Charter, our Board, in its sole discretion, may exempt a person from the ownership limits described above and any of the other restrictions described above. However, our Board may not grant an exemption to any person unless our Board obtains such representations, covenants and understandings as our Board may deem appropriate in order to determine that granting the exemption would not result in our losing our qualification as a REIT. As a condition of granting the exemption, our Board may require a ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel in either case in form and substance satisfactory to our Board, in its sole discretion in order to determine or ensure our qualification as a REIT.

In addition, under the Amended and Restated Charter, our Board may from time to time increase the ownership limits set forth in the Amended and Restated Charter. However, the ownership limits may not be increased if, after giving effect to such increase, five or fewer individuals could own or constructively own in the aggregate, more than 49.9% in value of the shares then outstanding.

The purpose and effect of this amendment is to assist subsidiary and other REITs in which the Company invests following the Combination in complying with the limitations on the concentration of ownership of REIT stock imposed by the Internal Revenue Code. If one of more of these entities were to fail to comply with the limitations on the concentration of ownership of stock applicable to REITs, it could affect our ability to qualify as a REIT. As a result, our ownership limitations will be lower than those in effect prior to the Combination, which means that, subject to the grandfather provision described above, absent an exemption from our Board, an investor will not be permitted to acquire and own as many shares of our common stock as they generally would otherwise be permitted to own absent this amendment. In addition, the purpose and effect of this amendment is to provide a special ownership limit for designated investment entities in order to streamline the process of acquisition and ownership of our common stock by investors that qualify as a designated investment entity, particularly in light of the lower common stock ownership limits resulting from this amendment. Except as amended by the Charter Amendments, the ownership provisions of our Charter will remain unchanged in the Amended and Restated Charter.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF PROPOSAL 2(b).

Vote Required and Recommendation

Our Charter requires the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to be cast in order to make certain amendments to the Charter. In addition, we are requiring that the Charter Amendments be approved without the votes of CC Holdings, Colony Capital, CCH I, CRP and their respective subsidiaries and Affiliates. Therefore, the affirmative vote of (i) two-thirds of the shares outstanding and entitled to be cast, and (ii) two-thirds of the shares outstanding and entitled to be cast, excluding shares held by CC Holdings, Colony Capital, CCH I, CRP and their respective subsidiaries and Affiliates, is required for approval of the Charter Amendments. For the purpose of the vote on the Charter Amendments, abstentions, broker non-votes and other shares not voted will have the same effect as votes against the proposal, although they will be considered present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE CHARTER AMENDMENTS.

Overview of the Combination

Combination with Colony Capital. On December 23, 2014, we entered into the Contribution Agreement, pursuant to which OP will acquire from the Contributors substantially all of Colony Capital's real estate investment management business and operations, excluding those conducted exclusively in connection with CAH. Also on December 23, 2014, we entered into the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, pursuant to which OP will acquire from New Colony Holdings LLC the ownership of the Colony Mark, which includes the Colony name.

The assets to be acquired directly or indirectly by OP from CC Holdings, Colony Capital and CCH I pursuant to the Contribution Agreement include the following (collectively, the CC Contributed Assets):

all of the equity interests held by CC Holdings, Colony Capital or CCH I, as applicable, in all of the direct subsidiaries of CC Holdings, Colony Capital, and CCH I, other than the CC Retained Entities (as defined in the Contribution Agreement);

all contracts to which CC Holdings, Colony Capital or CCH I is party or under which CC Holdings, Colony Capital or CCH I is bound, or to which any CC Contributed Assets held by Colony Capital, CCH I or CC Holdings are subject (other than any contract exclusively related to Colony Capital's ownership stake in CAH (the CC Retained Business));

Table of Contents

all other assets (other than the CC Retained Assets) used or held for use in connection with the business conducted by CC Holdings, Colony Capital, CCH I and their respective Subsidiaries, except for the Colony Mark (which will be transferred pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement); and all books and records in the possession or control of CC Holdings, Colony Capital or CCH I to the extent pertaining to the CC Contributed Assets.

To effect the contribution to OP of the CC Contributed Assets, (i) prior to the Closing (as defined in the Contribution Agreement), CC Holdings, Colony Capital, CCH I and their respective subsidiaries will contribute to NewCo (or a wholly owned subsidiary of NewCo) the CC Contributed Assets, and (ii) at the Closing, CC Holdings, Colony Capital and CCH I shall contribute to OP all of the issued and outstanding membership interests in NewCo.

In addition, pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, (i) FHB LLC will contribute to OP membership interests of CRP in the aggregate equal to 50% of the outstanding membership interests of CRP (the remaining 50% of the outstanding membership interests of CRP being owned by CRM), (ii) Mr. Saltzman will contribute to OP membership interests in CRM in the aggregate equal to 40% of the outstanding membership interests of CRM, and (iii) Colony Capital and CRM will enter into an investment management agreement pursuant to which Colony Capital will perform certain management functions required of CRM pursuant to the limited liability agreement of CRP.

Internally Managed REIT. Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, OP will acquire all of the issued and outstanding equity interests in our manager, Colony Financial Manager, LLC, which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Colony Capital. As described in Interests of Certain Persons in the Combination Arrangements with Thomas J. Barrack, Jr., beginning on page 73, Mr. Barrack, will continue to serve as our Executive Chairman and the Chairman of our Board and has entered into a five-year employment agreement with the Company to become effective at the Closing. As described in Interests of Certain Persons in the Combination Arrangements with Richard B. Saltzman, beginning on page 76, Mr. Saltzman will continue to serve as our Chief Executive Officer and a member of our Board and has also entered into a five-year employment agreement with the Company to become effective at the Closing. Pursuant to Contribution Agreement, by virtue of the contribution of the CC Contributed Assets to NewCo and the subsequent contribution of NewCo to OP, substantially all of Colony Capital's employees will become employees of the Company following the Closing and we will be an internally managed REIT.

Company Contribution to OP. OP currently holds, directly and indirectly, a substantial majority of the Company's assets and liabilities. Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, prior to the Closing, OP will acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities of the Company that are not currently held by OP or its subsidiaries. Following the Closing, OP will hold, directly and indirectly, substantially all of our assets and conduct, directly and indirectly, substantially all of our business.

Ownership and Management of OP. Immediately following the Combination, we will directly own approximately % of the aggregate OP Units in OP and the Contributors will directly own, collectively, approximately % of the aggregate OP Units in OP. At the Closing, the Company, OP and the Contributors will enter into an amended and restated operating agreement of OP. The Company, as the sole managing member in OP, will have sole responsibility and discretion in the management and control in OP, and the non-managing members of OP, in such capacity, will have no authority to transact business for, or take part in the operations, management or control of, OP. See Certain Agreements to be entered into pursuant to the Contribution Agreement OP Operating Agreement beginning on page 112.

Consideration to be Paid in the Combination

Edgar Filing: Colony Financial, Inc. - Form PRE 14A

In connection with the Combination, we will issue up to approximately 3.94 million shares of Class A Common Stock and up to 665,593 shares of Class B Common Stock, and OP will issue up to approximately 25.22 million OP Units. Each share of Class B Common Stock will be, at the holder's option, convertible into one share of Class A

Common Stock. Each OP Unit will be redeemable, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the operating agreement of OP, at the holder's option, for cash equal to the average closing price of Class A Common Stock for the ten consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date we receive a notice of redemption; provided, that we may choose, at our sole discretion, to satisfy this redemption right by exchanging such OP Units for shares of Class A Common Stock on a one-for-one basis, in lieu of cash.

The above consideration represented a value of $657.5 million at the time of the announcement of the transaction based on a reference price that equated to $22.05 per share (the Reference Price) (which would have a current value of approximately $732.0 million when using the VWAP). Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, the Reference Price was used to determine the number of shares and OP Units to be issued to the Contributors and the Mark Transferor in the Combination. The Reference Price was the higher of (x) the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 30 trading days prior to the initial announcement of the transaction, and (y) the third quarter 2014 fair value Company share price, which the parties agreed would be the fair value of the Company's net assets on a per share basis as of September 30, 2014, or $22.05 per share. Because the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 30 trading days prior to the initial announcement of the transaction was lower than $22.05 per share, the Reference Price was $22.05 per share.

fixed upfront consideration to be paid in a combination of up to approximately 2.83 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 566,635 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 21.44 million OP Units, representing a value of $547.5 million at the time of the announcement of the Combination based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value equal to approximately $609.6 million when using the VWAP), subject to certain adjustments as described below; and contingent consideration to be paid in a combination of up to approximately 1.11 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 98,958 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 3.78 million OP Units, representing a value of up to approximately $110.0 million at the time of announcement based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value of up to approximately $122.5 million when using the VWAP), subject to multi-year performance targets for achievement of certain FFO per share targets and capital-raising thresholds from the funds management businesses. If the minimum performance target for either of these metrics is not met or exceeded, the contingent consideration paid in respect of the other metric would not be paid out in full.

In connection with the Combination, the upfront consideration is subject to upward and downward adjustments at the Closing in respect of cash, indebtedness and net working capital. If the closing adjustment results in an increase to the upfront consideration, such adjustment will, subject to the applicable cap, be paid in cash and to the extent such adjustment exceeds the applicable cap, will increase the number of OP Units to be issued in the Combination. If the closing adjustment results in a decrease to the upfront consideration, such adjustment will reduce the number of OP Units to be issued in the Combination.

Up to 151,520 shares of Class A Common Stock, 13,494 shares of Class B Common Stock and 515,258 OP Units, representing $15.0 million of the contingent consideration at the time of announcement based on the Reference Price (and which would have a current value of approximately $16.7 million when using the VWAP) may be reallocated to upfront consideration if the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 10 trading days prior to the tenth calendar day preceding the date of the Special Meeting were to exceed $24.05, with the full amount reallocated if such volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock were to equal or exceed $27.05.

The number of shares of Class A Common Stock, shares of Class B Common Stock and OP Units issuable as consideration will be subject to reduction for a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid on its behalf by the Company.

Table of ContentsUpfront Consideration

Consideration to be paid at the Closing. Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, the Contributors will be entitled to receive approximately 2.71 million shares of Class A Common Stock and approximately 21.44 million OP Units in aggregate upfront consideration at the Closing valued in the aggregate at $532.5 million based on the Reference Price (and $592.9 million based on the VWAP), subject to reduction, in each case, for a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid by the Company at the Closing. Mr. Saltzman will be entitled to receive, pursuant to a share transfer agreement with Colony Capital, all of the shares of Class A Common Stock issued as upfront consideration. The OP Units issued as upfront consideration will be allocated to the Contributors as follows: (i) Colony Capital: approximately 18.5 million, (ii) CCH I: approximately 1.6 million, (iii) FHB LLC: approximately 0.9 million, and (iv) Mr. Saltzman: approximately 0.4 million, subject to reduction, in each case, as described above.

Pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, New Colony Holdings, LLC will be entitled to receive 113,637 shares of Class A Common Stock and 566,635 shares of Class B Common Stock in aggregate upfront consideration at the Closing valued in the aggregate at $15.0 million based on the Reference Price (and approximately $16.7 million based on the VWAP), subject to reduction, in each case, for a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid by the Company pursuant to the Contribution Agreement at the Closing.

The amount of upfront consideration payable under the Contribution Agreement is subject to separate adjustments at the Closing in respect of cash, indebtedness and net working capital, which are referred to as the CC Closing Adjustment and the CRP Closing Adjustment.

For purposes of the Contribution Agreement, the CC Closing Adjustment means (i) CC Closing Date Cash (as defined in the Contribution Agreement) minus (ii) CC Closing Unpaid Indebtedness (as defined in the Contribution Agreement) plus (iii) if the CC Working Capital (as defined in the Contribution Agreement) exceeds the CC Reference Working Capital (as defined in the Contribution Agreement), an amount equal to such excess, minus (iv) if the CC Reference Working Capital exceeds the CC Working Capital, an amount equal to such excess. If the CC Closing Adjustment is a positive amount, OP will pay such amount in cash to Colony Capital up to a cap of $25.0 million; provided, that with respect to any excess above $25.0 million, OP will issue to Colony Capital additional OP Units (valued at the Reference Price) equal to the value of such excess amount. If the CC Closing Adjustment is a negative amount, such amount will result in a decrease in the number of OP Units (valued at the Reference Price) issued by OP to Colony Capital equal to value of the shortfall.

For purposes of the Contribution Agreement, the CRP Closing Adjustment means (i) CRP Closing Date Cash (as defined in the Contribution Agreement) minus (ii) CRP Closing Unpaid Indebtedness (as defined in the Contribution Agreement) plus (iii) if the CRP Working Capital (as defined in the Contribution Agreement) exceeds the CRP Reference Working Capital (as defined in the Contribution Agreement), an amount equal to such excess, minus (iv) if the CRP Reference Working Capital exceeds the CRP Working Capital, an amount equal to such excess. If the CRP Closing Adjustment is a positive amount, such amount up to $5.0 million will result in an increase in upfront consideration payable by OP in cash, with any excess above $5.0 million payable in OP Units (valued at the Reference Price) issued by OP under the Contribution Agreement. If the CRP Closing Adjustment is a negative amount, such amount will result in a decrease in the number of OP Units (valued at the Reference Price) issued by OP under the Contribution Agreement. Any cash payable, or increase or decrease of OP Units issuable, in connection with the CRP Closing Adjustment shall be allocated 50% to FHB LLC, 30% to Colony Capital and 20% to Mr. Saltzman.

Contingent Consideration

Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, the Contributors will be entitled to receive up to approximately 1.07 million shares of Class A Common Stock and approximately 3.78 million OP Units in aggregate contingent consideration post-Closing valued in the aggregate at approximately $107.0 million based on the Reference Price (and $119.1 million based on the VWAP), in each case, subject to adjustment for any reallocated consideration and a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid by the Company in connection with such contingent consideration. Mr. Saltzman will be entitled to receive, pursuant to a share transfer agreement with Colony Capital, all of the shares of Class A Common Stock issued as contingent consideration. If the full amount of contingent consideration were issued, the OP Units would be allocated to the Contributors as follows (i) Colony Capital: approximately 2.85 million, (ii) CCH I: approximately 0.66 million, (iii) FHB LLC: approximately 0.19 million, and (iv) Mr. Saltzman: approximately 0.08 million, subject to reduction, in each case, as described above.

Pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, New Colony Holdings will be entitled to receive up to 37,718 shares of Class A Common Stock and 98,958 shares of Class B Common Stock in aggregate contingent consideration post-Closing valued in the aggregate at approximately $3.0 million based on the Reference Price (and $3.4 million based on the VWAP), in each case, subject to adjustment for any reallocated consideration and a portion of any transaction expenses of Colony Capital paid by the Company in connection with such contingent consideration.

Distribution of Contingent Consideration

Pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, OP shall, at the Closing, issue up to approximately 4.99 million OP Units of aggregate potential contingent consideration to be held, together with any distributions thereon, in a separate account (the Contingent Consideration Account), which account shall be held and managed by OP. Upon a final determination of the amount of contingent consideration payable in connection with the Combination, OP shall transfer to the Contributors and New Colony Holdings (in accordance with their allocable percentages) from the Contingent Consideration Account such number of OP Units (together with an amount in cash equal to any distributions that would have been declared thereon between Closing and the date of the applicable issuance had such OP Units been issued at Closing). If, following any such final determination, the Contingent Consideration Account holds more OP Units than OP could in any event be obligated to transfer to the Contributors and New Colony Holdings pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, OP shall remove such excess OP Units from the Contingent Consideration Account and cancel such excess OP Units. At any time when OP Units are delivered from OP to the Contributors from the Contingent Consideration Account pursuant to the Contribution Agreement, a portion of such OP Units approximately equal to the amount determined by multiplying the number of such OP Units by 22.123% will be exchanged by Colony Capital for shares of Class A Common Stock, which shares shall be transferred to Mr. Saltzman.

Contingent Consideration Relating to Achievement of Benchmark Cumulative FFO Per Share Target.

Contingent consideration with a value of up to an aggregate $31.6 million based on the Reference Price (and $35.1 million based on the VWAP) (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) of the aggregate contingent consideration (the FFO Contingent Consideration) is payable based on the achievement of performance targets relating to certain benchmark funds from operations per share target during the three-year period beginning on the first day of the first fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing (the FFO Measurement Period). The full amount of FFO Contingent Consideration would be payable if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO Per Share (as defined below) equals or exceeds $6.06 per share of Class A Common Stock (the FFO Target). A portion of FFO Contingent Consideration is payable if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO Per Share exceeds 87.5% of the FFO Target, or $5.30 per share of Class A Common Stock, with such portion of FFO Contingent Consideration increasing ratably at approximately $1.262 million based on the Reference Price (and $1.405 million based on the VWAP) (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) per half percentage point above 87.5% until the full amount of potential FFO Contingent Consideration is payable if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO Per Share equals or exceeds the FFO Target.

In the event that the Benchmark Cumulative FFO Per Share exceeds the FFO Target, an additional amount of contingent consideration with a value up to an aggregate $16.0 million based on the Reference Price (and

$17.8 million based on the VWAP) (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) (the FFO Additional Contingent Consideration) is payable as follows: (1) the full amount of FFO Additional Contingent Consideration is payable if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO Per Share equals or exceeds 112.5% of the FFO Target, or approximately $6.82 per share of Class A Common Stock, or (2) a portion of FFO Additional Contingent Consideration is payable if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO Per Share exceeds the FFO Target, with such portion of FFO Additional Contingent Consideration increasing ratably at approximately $638,000 based on the Reference Price (and $710,336 based on the VWAP) (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) per half percentage point above 100% of the FFO Target until the full amount of potential FFO Additional Contingent Consideration is payable if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO Per Share equals or exceeds 112.5% of the FFO Target. In the event that the FFO Additional Contingent Consideration becomes payable but no RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration (as defined below) is payable as of the end of the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period (as defined below), then the amount of FFO Additional Contingent Consideration that would have otherwise been payable will be reduced by half.

Benchmark FFO Target Certain Defined Terms

For purposes of determining the FFO Contingent Consideration and FFO Additional Contingent Consideration payable under the Contribution Agreement and the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, the terms below are generally defined as follows:

Benchmark Cumulative FFO means the cumulative Benchmark FFO Per Share during the FFO Measurement Period.

Benchmark FFO means net income allocable to holders of the Company's common stock and OP Units (computed in accordance with GAAP), excluding (A) realized gains (or losses) from sales of real estate and non-real estate assets, (B) realized and unrealized performance fees related to the real estate and non-real estate private fund business, net of respective performance compensation expenses, (C) purchase accounting adjustments arising from the transaction, (D) real estate depreciation and amortization and (E) adjustments related to changes in GAAP during the FFO Measurement Period, in all cases after adjustments for the Company's proportionate share of such items from unconsolidated partnerships and joint ventures. Notwithstanding the foregoing, benchmark FFO will (i) include (A) the unrealized fair value gains and losses from CLNY GP Investments, (B) realized investment income, gains and losses from CLNY GP Investments, and (ii) exclude (A) any potential expenses related to contingent consideration, (B) any payment pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, (C) transaction costs, remeasurement gains and losses arising from the transaction, and amortization of intangible assets, liabilities and step-up adjustments recognized as a result of the transaction, (D) realized gains and losses related to sales of the Company's interest in the Colony American Homes platform and (E) realized gains and losses from the sale of non-real estate assets other than those related to CLNY GP Investments. Benchmark FFO is not intended to represent FFO or adjusted FFO in accordance with the NAREIT definition.

Benchmark FFO Per Share means, with respect to the FFO Measurement Period, (A) Benchmark FFO for each individual year, independent of prior and forward years, during such FFO Measurement Period, divided by (B) the benchmark weighted average (weighted quarterly in each year of the FFO Measurement Period by the weighted average shares of the Company's common stock outstanding in each quarter ending shares outstanding balance and the days in the quarter) number of basic shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding during each year of such FFO Measurement Period, which represents (w) the weighted average (as defined above) number of basic shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding that is used to calculate basic earnings per share (in accordance with GAAP) for each year of such FFO Measurement Period, minus (x) the weighted average (as defined above) number of basic shares of Class A Common Stock then outstanding that were issued as Consideration hereunder (or pursuant to any exchange or redemption of Consideration) already included in weighted average basic shares outstanding for each year during such FFO Measurement Period, plus (y) the fixed amount of 27,691,610 shares of Class A Common Stock outstanding as hypothetical potential equity consideration.

CLNY GP Investments means any investments made by the Company or its subsidiaries as a general partner, a limited partner, or a member in the private fund business, including real estate and non-real estate funds, vehicles and other investment products.

Contingent Consideration Relating to Real Estate and Non-Real Estate Capital Raising Activities

Contingent consideration with a value of up to an aggregate $31.6 million based on the Reference Price (and $35.1 million based on the VWAP) (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) (the RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration) is payable based on the achievement by the Company of certain targets for capital raising generally related to real estate funds and investment vehicles during the two-year period (or if Colony Capital so elects prior to the expiration of such two-year period, a three-year period) beginning on the first day of the first full fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing (the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period). The full amount of RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration would be payable if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise (as defined below) equals or exceeds $3.975 billion (if the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period is two years in duration) and $6.650 billion (if the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period is three years in duration) (the RE Capital Raise Target). A portion of RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration is payable if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise exceeds 75% of the RE Capital Raise Target with such portion of RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration increasing ratably at approximately $1.262 million based on the Reference Price (and $1.405 million based on the VWAP) (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) per percentage point above 75% until the full amount of potential RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration is payable if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise equals or exceeds the RE Capital Raise Target.

In the event that the RE Cumulative Capital Raise exceeds the RE Capital Raise Target, additional contingent consideration with a value of up to an aggregate $16.0 million based on the Reference Price (or $17.8 million based on the VWAP) (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) (the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration) is payable as follows (i) the full amount of RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration is payable if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise equals or exceeds 125% of the RE Capital Raise Target, or (ii) a portion of RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration is payable if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise exceeds the RE Capital Raise Target, with such portion of RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration increasing ratably at approximately $638,000 based on the Reference Price (and $710,336 based on the VWAP) (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) per percentage point above 100% of the RE Capital Raise Target until the full amount of RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration is payable if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise equals or exceeds 125% of the RE Capital Raise Target. In the event that the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration becomes payable but no FFO Contingent Consideration is payable as of the end of the FFO Measurement Period, then the amount of the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration that would have otherwise been payable shall be reduced by half.

Contingent consideration with a value of $15.0 million based on the Reference Price (or $16.7 million based on the VWAP) in the aggregate (subject to reduction for a portion of any reallocated consideration) (the Non-RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration) is payable based on the achievement of certain targets for capital raising generally related to non-real estate funds and investment vehicles during the two-year period beginning on the first day of the first full fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing. The Non-RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration is payable if the Non-RE Cumulative Capital Raise (as defined below) equals or exceeds $500.0 million during such two-year period.

For purposes of determining RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration, RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration and Non-RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration, the terms below are generally defined as follows:

Non-RE Cumulative Capital Raise means, without duplication, the cumulative amount of (i) Qualified Third-Party Capital that is raised in non-real estate investment products, (ii) Qualified Third-Party Capital relating to listed securities hedge fund strategies whether or not real estate-related, and (iii) Qualified Third-Party Capital relating to listed securities non-hedge fund strategies that are not predominantly real estate-related, in each case, during the two-year period beginning on the first day of the first full fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing Date. Non-RE Cumulative Capital Raise calculation excludes potential CLNY GP Investment in such non-real estate funds, investment vehicles and other investment products. For clarification purposes, it also excludes any Company stockholder capital raise in the public equity market during the two-year period beginning on the first day of the first full fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing, but does not exclude any other form of private or public capital raise for its non-real estate funds, investment vehicles and other investment products.

Qualified Third-Party Capital for any category of capital means the sum across all funds, investment vehicles and other investment products within such category of capital of an amount equal to, for each such fund, investment vehicle or investment product, (A) the amount of third-party capital committed to such fund, investment vehicle or investment product, multiplied by (B) the sum of: (i) (x) 60% multiplied by (y) the fee to be charged on net funded equity or limited partner capital commitments as an annual management fee expressed in basis points, divided by (z) 125 basis points; plus (ii) (x) 40%, multiplied by (y) the percentage to be charged on investment returns above an IRR hurdle (consistent with market terms for funds, investment vehicles or investment products investing in similar asset classes) as carried interest of such fund, investment vehicle or investment product expressed as a percentage; provided, that such fund is on other terms consistent with market terms for funds investing in similar asset classes, divided by (z) 17%; provided, further, that third-party capital shall exclude capital raised for Colony Distressed Credit and Special Situation Fund III, L.P. and ColCo Strategic Partners III, L.P. For purposes of this definition, the calculation of any management fee or carried interest with respect to any third-party capital raised in a fund, investment vehicle or other investment product shall be determined on a blended basis within such fund, investment vehicle or investment product.

RE Cumulative Capital Raise means, without duplication, the cumulative amount of (i) Qualified Third-Party Capital that is raised in real estate funds, vehicles and other investment products during the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period, (ii) to the extent the Non-RE Capital Raise Target is achieved, the cumulative amount of any Qualified Third-Party Capital relating to real estate listed securities hedge fund strategies in excess of the Non-RE Capital Raise Target, and (iii) Qualified Third-Party Capital relating to listed securities non-hedge fund strategies that are predominantly real estate-related; provided, that any such capital raised in the fourth quarter of 2014 will be counted for purposes of calculating the RE Cumulative Capital Raise. RE Cumulative Capital Raise calculation excludes potential CLNY GP Investment in such real estate funds, vehicles and other investment products. For clarification purposes, it also excludes any Company stockholder capital raise in the public equity market during the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period, but does not exclude any other form of private or public capital raise for real estate vehicles and other investment products.

Representations and Warranties

The Contribution Agreement contains certain reciprocal representations and warranties, many of which are qualified by materiality, CC Material Adverse Effect or CFI Material Adverse Effect.

CC Material Adverse Effect is defined in the Contribution Agreement generally to mean any change, event, occurrence, circumstance, development or effect that, individually or in the aggregate, (A) has a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, assets, liabilities or financial condition of the CC Contributed Business, taken as a whole, or (B) materially impairs or delays the ability of any Contributor to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, other than, in the case of the foregoing clause (A), any change, event, development or effect that results from or is related to (i) general economic conditions or local, regional, national or international conditions in any of the industries in which the CC Contributed Business is conducted, (ii) changes in law, GAAP or other applicable accounting standards or the interpretations thereof, (iii) acts of God or other calamities, national or international political or social conditions, including the engagement by any country in hostilities, whether commenced before or after the date hereof, and whether or not pursuant to the declaration of a national emergency or war, or the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack (provided, that with respect to clauses (i)-(iii), any such event, change, development or state of facts shall be taken into account for purposes of determining if a CC Material Adverse Effect has or is reasonably expected to have occurred only if such event, change, development or state of facts, individually or in the aggregate, has a materially disproportionate impact on Colony Capital, its Subsidiaries, or the CC Contributed Business, taken as a whole, relative to other persons in the same industry in which Colony Capital and its subsidiaries conduct their business), (iv) any failure to meet internal projections relating to the CC Contributed Business (it being understood that the underlying causes of, or factors contributing to, the failure to meet such projections may be taken into account in determining whether a CC Material Adverse Effect has occurred except to the extent otherwise excepted pursuant to clauses (i)-(iii) and (v) of this definition), (vi) the announcement or pendency of, or the taking of any action required by, or the failure to take any action where such action is expressly prohibited by, the Contribution Agreement and the ancillary documents contemplated thereby.

CFI Material Adverse Effect is defined in the Contribution Agreement generally to mean any change, event, occurrence, circumstance, development or effect that, individually or in the aggregate, (A) has a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, assets or liabilities or financial condition of the business of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (B) materially impairs or delays the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement, other than, in the case of the foregoing clause (A), any change, event, development or effect that results from or is related to (i) general economic conditions or local, regional, national or international conditions in any of the industries in which the Company's business is conducted, (ii) changes in law, GAAP or other applicable accounting standards or the interpretations thereof, (iii) acts of God or other calamities, national or international political or social conditions, including the engagement by any country in hostilities, whether commenced before or after the date hereof, and whether or not pursuant to the declaration of a national emergency or war, or the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack (provided, that with respect to clauses (i)-(iii), any such event, change, development or state of facts shall be taken into account for purposes of determining if a CFI Material Adverse Effect has or is reasonably expected to have occurred only if such event, change, development or state of facts, individually or in the aggregate, has a materially disproportionate impact on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, relative to other persons in the same industry in which the Company and its subsidiaries conduct their business), (iv) any failure to meet internal projections (it being understood that the underlying causes of, or factors contributing to, the failure to meet such projections may be taken into account in determining whether a CFI Material Adverse Effect has occurred except to the extent otherwise excepted pursuant to clauses (i)-(iii) and (v) of this definition), (v) the announcement or pendency of, or the taking of any action required by, or the failure to take any action where such action is expressly prohibited by, the Contribution Agreement and the ancillary documents contemplated thereby.

COLONY MARK TRANSFER AGREEMENT

General

Pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, we will acquire, through OP, the Colony Mark from the Mark Transferor, which is wholly owned by Mr. Barrack. The consideration to be paid by us to the Mark Transferor is described in Consideration to be Paid in the Combination beginning on page 93.

Conditions to the Closing

The obligations of each party to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement to effect the closing thereunder are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement shall have been consummated or shall be consummated substantially concurrently with the consummation of the transactions contemplated in the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement; and no law, regulation, authorization, permit, order or judgment shall have been enacted, entered, or promulgated by a governmental or administrative authority that prohibits or makes illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement; and no order or judgment preventing the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement shall be in effect.

In addition, the obligations of the Company, on the one hand, and the Mark Transferor, on the other hand, to effect the closing under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following:

the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by the other party as of the date of the signing of the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the closing date; and the performance and compliance by the other party in all material respects with each agreement, covenant and obligation required under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement on or before the closing.

Representations and Warranties

The Colony Mark Transfer Agreement contains customary representations and warranties by the Company, OP and the Mark Transferor concerning our respective business and assets. These representations include, but are not limited to:

the due organization and good standing of each party in its respective place of incorporation or formation;

the power and authority of each party to execute the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and trademark assignment agreement required thereby and consummate the transactions contemplated thereby; and non-contravention of (i) any applicable law, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree, (ii) any organizational document or (iii) any contract binding on such parties, as a result of the execution and performance by each of the applicable parties of the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the trademark assignment agreement required thereby.

In addition, the Mark Transferor has made additional representations that it has good and valid title to the Colony Mark, free of encumbrances and that at the Closing, we will acquire good and valid title, free of encumbrances, to the Colony Mark, such that we will have all right and title to, and interest in, the Colony Mark, free of encumbrances.

We have made additional representations with respect to the due authorization, validity of issuance and title of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock to be issued to the Mark Transferor as consideration under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement.

Covenants and Other Agreements

The Company and OP have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts post-Closing to reserve a sufficient number of authorized but unissued shares of Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as well as to retain enough cash, property or securities that are declared or paid on any then outstanding shares of the Company's common stock to meet their obligations related to the payment of the contingent consideration under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement.

Termination

Termination Events. The Colony Mark Transfer Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing in certain circumstances, including by:

the mutual consent of the Company and the Mark Transferor; either Colony Capital or the Company, if there is any breach of any representations or covenants that would result in the failure to satisfy any conditions to the Closing described above and such breach is incapable of being cured within 30 days; and the automatic termination upon the termination of the Contribution Agreement.

Effect of Termination. If validly terminated pursuant to one of the termination events described above, the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement shall thereafter become void and there shall be no further obligations or liabilities on the parties except that such termination shall not relieve any party from liability for fraud or any willful breach occurring prior to the termination.

Indemnification

The Colony Mark Transfer Agreement does not provide any indemnification rights to either party. Instead, the indemnification provisions in the Contribution Agreement (summarized in the Contribution Agreement beginning on page 108) shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the parties in connection with the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement.

Amendment

The Colony Mark Transfer Agreement may be amended or modified prior to the Closing as set forth in a writing duly executed by the Company and the Mark Transferor. All amendments, modifications or waivers under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement by the Company shall only be made with the prior approval of the Special Committee (or, if the Special Committee has been dissolved, a majority of our independent directors).

CERTAIN AGREEMENTS TO BE ENTERED INTO PURSUANT TO THE CONTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

OP Operating Agreement

General

Colony Capital Operating Company, LLC (formerly known as CFI RE Masterco, LLC) (the OP) is currently our wholly-owned subsidiary and a Delaware limited liability company formed on March 25, 2011. Currently, OP holds, directly or indirectly, a substantial majority of the Company's business and assets. Following the consummation of the Combination, OP will own substantially all of the assets and liabilities of the Company and Colony Capital's combined business.

In connection with the consummation of the Combination, we, as managing member, will cause OP to issue OP Units to each of Colony Capital, CCH I, FHB LLC and Mr. Saltzman and we will enter into a second amended and restated operating agreement (the OP Operating Agreement) with such unitholders as non-managing members. Immediately following the Combination, we expect that we will directly own approximately 84.1% of the aggregate OP Units in OP and the non-managing members will directly own, collectively, approximately 15.9% of the aggregate OP Units in OP.

Management of OP

As the managing member of OP, we exercise exclusive and complete responsibility and discretion in its day-to-day management and control. We can cause OP to enter into major transactions, including acquisitions, dispositions and refinancings, subject to certain limited exceptions. The non-managing members of OP may not transact business for, or participate in the management activities or decisions of OP, except as provided in the OP Operating Agreement or as required by applicable law. We, as the managing member of OP may not be removed as managing member by the other members without our consent. The OP Operating Agreement restricts our ability to engage in certain business combinations as more fully described below.

The non-managing members of OP expressly agree that the managing member of OP is acting for the benefit of OP, the non-managing members of OP and our stockholders collectively. The managing member is under no obligation to give priority to the separate interests of the non-managing members in deciding whether to cause OP to take or decline to take any actions. If there is a conflict between the interests of us or our stockholders, on the one hand, and the non-managing members of OP, on the other, the OP Operating Agreement provides that any action or failure to act by the managing member that gives priority to the separate interests of our stockholders or us does not result in a violation of the contractual rights of the non-managing members of OP under the OP Operating Agreement and does not violate any duty that the managing member owes to OP and its members.

The OP Operating Agreement provides that all of our business activities, including all activities pertaining to the acquisition and operation of properties, must generally be conducted through OP. The OP Operating Agreement does permit us, under certain circumstances, to hold certain assets other than through OP. However, we must take commercially reasonable measures to ensure that the economic benefits and burdens of such assets are vested in OP.

Fiduciary Responsibilities

Our directors and officers have duties under applicable Maryland law to manage us in a manner consistent with the best interests of our stockholders. At the same time, our only duties, fiduciary or otherwise, as managing member of OP, are to perform OP's contractual obligations as set forth in the OP Operating Agreement consistently with the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing. As managing member of OP, we shall have no other duty, fiduciary or otherwise. Our duties, as managing member of OP, to OP and its non-managing members of OP, therefore, may come into conflict with the duties of our directors and officers to our stockholders.

In addition, the OP Operating Agreement expressly provides that none of our directors, officers or agents shall have any duties to OP or any of its members and that none of our directors, officers or agents shall be directly liable to OP for money damages by reason of their service as such.

Transferability of Interests

We, as the managing member of OP, may not voluntarily withdraw from OP or transfer or assign all or any portion of our interest in OP (other than a transfer to us or one of our wholly owned subsidiaries or in connection with a permitted Termination Transaction (as defined below)) without the consent of the members (other than us, the managing member and entities controlled by us or the managing member) holding a majority based on the number of OP Units then held by members (other than us, the managing member and entities controlled by us or the managing member) entitled to vote on or consent to such matter. Subject to certain ancillary agreements, a member may not sell, assign, bequest, convey, devise, gift, pledge, encumber, hypothecate, mortgage, exchange or transfer its OP Units in OP without our consent, except (i) to certain family members, certain entities controlled by the member or such persons family, or to any trust, partnership, corporation or limited liability company established and held for the direct or indirect benefit of a certain family members; provided, that any such transfer shall not involve a disposition for value other than equity interests in any such trust, partnership, corporation or limited liability company, (ii) as required by applicable law or order, (iii) to a nominee or custodian of a person or entity to whom a disposition or transfer would be permitted under the OP Operating Agreement, (iv) as expressly authorized by an ancillary agreement (including any lock-up agreement), or (v) in the case of certain transferees that are a past or present officer or employee of (x) OP or the Company (y) Colony Capital, CCH I or CRP or (z) their respective subsidiaries, as may be, or may have been permitted pursuant to the applicable ancillary agreement to which such OP Units were subject at the time of the issuance of such OP Units or to which such transferee was party.

Further, any transfer of membership interests in OP by a non-managing member is subject to satisfaction of the following conditions:

the transferee is an accredited investor as defined under Rule 501 of the Securities Act;

the transferor has delivered to us, as managing member, an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to us to the effect that the proposed transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act and will not otherwise violate any state securities laws or regulations applicable to OP or the membership interests being transferred. If, in the opinion of such counsel, such transfer would require the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act or would otherwise violate any federal or state securities laws or regulations applicable to OP or the OP units, we, as managing member, may prohibit such transfer;

the transferor is transferring not less than the lesser of (x) 500 membership units and (y) all of the remaining OP units owned by such transferor; and the transfer does not violate any ownership limitations contained in our charter.

Generally, we, as managing member of OP, will have the right to consent to the admission of a transferee of the interest of a non-managing member as a substituted member of OP, which consent may be withheld by us in our sole and absolute discretion. If our consent is required for the admission of a transferee as a substituted member of OP and we withhold such consent, such transferee will be considered an assignee for purposes of the OP Operating Agreement and shall be entitled to all the rights of an assignee of a membership interest under applicable Delaware law, including the right to receive distributions and the share of net income, net losses and other items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit of OP attributable to the membership interest assigned to such transferee, but shall not be deemed to be a holder of OP units and shall not be entitled to effect a consent or vote OP Units on any matter presented to the non-managing members of OP for a vote. Any further assignment of such membership units, shall cause such transferee to be subject to the foregoing conditions.

Members, including Colony Capital and its controlled entities, may pledge their interests in OP to one or more banks or lending institutions (which are not affiliates of the pledging member) as collateral or security for a bona fide loan or other extension of credit. The transfer of such OP Units pursuant to the lender's or financial institution's enforcement of its remedies under the applicable financing documents is permitted by the OP Operating Agreement.

Amendments to the OP Operating Agreement

Amendments to the OP Operating Agreement may be proposed by the managing member or the non-managing members holding a majority of OP units then held by members. All amendments to the OP Operating Agreement must be approved by the managing member.

Generally, the OP Operating Agreement may not be amended, modified or terminated without the approval of both the managing member and if the amendment substantively and adversely affects the rights of the non-managing members disproportionately as compared to the managing member, the members holding a majority of OP units then held by all members (excluding us, the managing member and entities controlled by us or the managing member) entitled to vote on, or consent to such matter. The managing member has the power to unilaterally make certain amendments to the OP Operating Agreement without obtaining the consent of any other members as may be required to:

add to its obligations as managing member or surrender any right or power granted to it as managing member for the benefit of the non-managing members; reflect the admission, substitution or withdrawal of members or termination of OP in accordance with the terms of the OP Operating Agreement, and to amend the register in connection with such admission, substitution or withdrawal; reflect a change of an inconsequential nature or that does not adversely affect the non-managing members in any material respect, or cure any ambiguity, correct or supplement any provisions of the OP Operating Agreement not inconsistent with law or with other provisions of the OP Operating Agreement, or make other changes concerning matters under the OP Operating Agreement that will not otherwise be inconsistent with law or the OP Operating Agreement;

satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any order, directive, opinion, ruling or regulation of a federal or state agency or contained in federal or state law;

reflect changes that are reasonably necessary for us to maintain our status as a REIT or to satisfy REIT requirements;

reflect the issuance of additional OP Units; make certain modifications to the manner in which capital accounts are adjusted, computed or maintained, or net income or net loss are allocated;

set forth or amend the designations, preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to distributions, qualifications or terms or conditions of redemption of any additional class or series of membership interest permitted to be issued under the OP Operating Agreement;

modify, if OP is the surviving company in any Termination Transaction, certain provisions of the OP Operating Agreement to provide the holders of interests in such surviving company rights that are consistent with the OP Operating Agreement; or reflect any other modification as is reasonably necessary for the business or operations of OP or us, which does not violate the restrictions on the managing member described below.

Subject to certain exceptions, amendments that would, among other things, convert a non-managing member into a managing member (except in connection with a permitted transfer of the managing member's interest), modify the limited liability of a member, adversely alter a member's right to receive any distributions or allocations of profits or losses, adversely alter or modify the redemption rights of members and qualifying assignees (except as permitted in connection with a permitted Termination Transaction), or amend these restrictions must be approved by each member who would be adversely affected by such amendment; provided, however, that the consent of any individual member adversely affected shall not be required for any amendment or action that affects all members holding the same class or series of OP units on a uniform or pro rata basis, if approved by a majority of the members of such class or series.

Restrictions on the Managing Member's Authority

The managing member may not take any action in contravention of an express prohibition or limitation contained in the OP Operating Agreement, including:

any action that would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of OP, except as otherwise provided in the OP Operating Agreement; admitting any person as a member, except as otherwise provided in the OP Operating Agreement; perform any act that would subject a member to liability not contemplated in the OP Operating Agreement or under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act; or enter into any contract, mortgage loan or other agreement that expressly prohibits or restricts us or OP from performing our or its specific obligations in connection with a redemption of OP Units as described below or expressly prohibits or restricts the ability of a member to exercise its redemption rights in full without the written consent of such member.

In addition, without the consent of members (including us, the managing member and entities controlled by us or the managing member) holding a majority of OP units then held by the members (including us, the managing member and entities controlled by us or the managing member), entitled to vote on or consent to such matter, the managing member may not do any of the following, or enter into any transaction that would have the effect of the following, without the approval of our Board:

terminate the OP Operating Agreement, except as explicitly permitted therein; transfer any portion of its membership interest or admit into the company any additional or successor managing member (other than to us or one of our wholly owned subsidiaries or in connection with a permitted Termination Transaction);

voluntarily withdraw as managing member except in connection with a permitted transfer of its entire interest to an entity that will become the new managing member or in connection with a permitted Termination Transaction;

make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, appoint or acquiesce in the appointment of a custodian, receiver or trustee for all or any part of the assets of OP;

institute any proceeding for bankruptcy by OP; undertake a merger or consolidation of OP with or into another person, or a conversion of OP into another entity, other than in connection with a Termination Transaction effected in accordance with the OP Operating Agreement; or effect a sale, lease, exchange or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of OP in a single transaction or a series of related transactions outside the ordinary course of OP's business, other than in connection with a Termination Transaction.

Distributions to Holders of OP Units

The OP Operating Agreement requires that we cause OP to distribute quarterly all, or such portions as we may determine, of available cash generated by OP during such quarter to the holders of OP units in accordance with such holders' respective percentage interests except that all payments received by OP from the management agreement will be distributed to us. We, in our sole and absolute discretion, may cause OP to distribute available cash to the holders of OP units on a more or less frequent basis than quarterly.

We will make reasonable efforts to distribute available cash to us, as managing member, in an amount sufficient to enable us to pay stockholder dividends that will satisfy our requirements for qualifying as a REIT and to avoid any federal income or excise tax liability for us

Upon the liquidation of OP, property shall be liquidated and distributed in the following order: (i) first, to the satisfaction of all of OP's debts and liabilities other than holders of OP units, (ii) second, to the satisfaction of all of OP's debts and liabilities to us, (iii) third, to the satisfaction of all of OP's debts and liabilities to holders of OP units, and (iv) finally, the balance, if any, to the holders of OP units in accordance with their capital account balances, after giving effect to all contributions, distributions and allocations for all periods.

Redemption/Exchange Rights

A member or an assignee has the right, subject to any restrictions pursuant to any other agreement (including any lock-up agreement) between a member or an assignee and OP, to require OP to redeem part or all of its OP Units for cash based upon the fair market value of an equivalent number of shares of our common stock at the time of the redemption, determined in accordance with and subject to adjustment as provided in the OP Operating Agreement. Alternatively, we may elect to acquire those OP Units in exchange for shares of our common stock. Our acquisition will be on a one-for-one basis, subject to adjustment in the event of stock splits, stock dividends, distributions of warrants or stock rights, specified extraordinary distributions and similar events. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we are not required to redeem such member's or assignee's OP Units if our election to acquire such OP Units in exchange for shares of our Class A Common Stock would cause any person to violate the ownership limits or the other restrictions on ownership and transfer of our common stock, after giving effect to any waivers or modifications of such limits granted by our board of directors. With each redemption or exchange, we increase our percentage ownership interest in OP.

In addition, if our election to acquire OP Units tendered for redemption in exchange for shares of our common stock would cause any person to violate the restrictions on ownership and transfer of our stock and we are eligible to file a registration statement on Form S-3 under the Securities Act, then we may also elect, in our sole and absolute discretion, to redeem OP units with the proceeds from a public offering or private placement of our common stock. In the event we elect this option, we may require the other members to also elect whether or not to participate. Participating members will receive on the redemption date for each OP Unit (subject to adjustment) the net proceeds per share received in the public offering but will have a limited opportunity to withdraw their OP Units from the redemption immediately prior to the pricing of the public offering.

Issuance of Units, Stock or Other Securities

We, as the managing member of OP, have the power to cause OP to issue additional units of membership interest in one or more classes or series. These additional units of membership interest may include preferred membership units. Generally, we may issue additional shares of our stock, or rights, options, warrants or convertible or exchangeable securities having the right to subscribe for or purchase shares of our stock, only if we cause OP to issue to us membership interests or rights, options, warrants or convertible or exchangeable securities of OP having economic rights that are substantially similar to the securities that we have issued.

LTIP Units

We, as managing member of OP, may from time to time issue LTIP units, in one or more classes or series to persons or entities who provide services to OP, for such consideration as we, as managing member of OP, may determine to be appropriate. Except to the extent a capital contribution to OP is made with respect to a LTIP unit, each LTIP unit is intended to qualify as a profits interest in OP for tax purposes.

Subject to the provisions of the OP Operating Agreement, LTIP units shall be treated as OP units, with all of the rights, privileges and obligations attendant thereto. In particular, subject to the terms of any LTIP award or vesting agreement or by us, as managing member of OP, with respect to any particular class or series of LTIP units, a holder of LTIP units shall be entitled to transfer its vested LTIP units to the same extent, and subject to the same restrictions as holders of OP units are entitled to transfer their OP units under the OP Operating Agreement. Further, except as otherwise provided in the OP Operating Agreement, LTIP units rank pari passu with OP Units as to the payment of regular and special periodic or other distributions.

In addition, unless otherwise provided in an LTIP award, vesting agreement or by us, as managing member of OP, with respect to any particular class or series of LTIP units, a holder of LTIP units shall have the right, at its option, at any time to convert all or a portion of its vested LTIP units into OP units; provided that a holder may not exercise such right for less than the lesser of (x) 1,000 vested LTIP units and (y) all of the remaining vested LTIP units owned by such holder.

Capital Contributions

The OP Operating Agreement provides that the managing member may authorize the issuance of additional membership interests in exchange for such capital contributions, if any, as the managing member may approve. Under the OP Operating Agreement, we are generally obligated to contribute the net proceeds we receive from any offering of our shares of stock as additional capital to OP in exchange for additional OP Units.

The OP Operating Agreement provides that we may make additional capital contributions, including the contribution of property or assets, to OP in exchange for additional OP Units. If we contribute additional capital and receive additional OP Units in exchange for the capital contribution, our percentage interest in OP will be increased on a proportionate basis based on the amount of the additional capital contributions and the value of OP at the time of the contributions. In addition, if we contribute additional capital and receive additional OP Units for the capital contribution, the capital accounts of the members may be adjusted upward or downward to reflect any unrealized gain or loss attributable to the properties as if there were an actual sale of the properties at the fair market value thereof.

Preemptive Rights

Except to the extent expressly provided in the OP Operating Agreement or in any membership unit designation, no person or entity, including any member or assignee of OP, has any preemptive, preferential, participation or similar right or rights with to subscribe for or acquire any membership interests of OP.

Borrowing by OP

We, as the managing member of OP, may cause OP to borrow money and to issue and guarantee debt, whether or not secured by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge or other lien and, directly or indirectly, to acquire additional properties necessary, useful or desirable in connection with its business.

Tax Matters

We, as the managing member of OP, are the tax matters partner of OP, and we have the authority under the Internal Revenue Code to handle tax audits on behalf of OP. In addition, we have the authority to arrange for the preparation and filing of OP's tax returns and to make tax elections under the Internal Revenue Code on behalf of OP.

Allocations of Net Income and Net Losses to Members

The net income or net loss of OP is generally allocated to the managing member and the non-managing members of OP in accordance with their respective ownership of OP Units except gross income and the gain of OP associated with the management agreement will be specially allocated to us. However, in some cases, gains or losses may be disproportionately allocated to members who have contributed property to or guaranteed debt of OP. The allocations described above are subject to special allocations relating to depreciation deductions and to compliance with the provisions of Sections 704(b) and 704(c) of the Code and the associated Treasury regulations.

Operations

We intend to cause the managing member of OP to manage OP in a manner that will enable us to maintain our qualification as a REIT and to minimize any U.S. federal income tax liability.

The OP Operating Agreement provides that OP will assume and pay when due, or reimburse us for payment of, all costs and expenses relating to the operations of, or for the benefit of, OP.

Change of Control and Termination Transactions

As managing member, we may not engage in, or cause or permit, a Termination Transaction, other than with the consent of members (other than us, the managing member and entities controlled by us or the managing member) holding a majority of all the outstanding OP Units held by all members (other than us, the managing member and entities controlled by us or the managing member) entitled to vote on or consent to such matter, unless the requirements discussed below are satisfied. A Termination Transaction means any direct or indirect transfer of all or any portion of our membership interest in OP or, if we are not the managing member, any direct or indirect transfer of our interest in the managing member in connection with, or any other occurrence of:

a merger, consolidation or other combination transaction involving us or the managing member;

a sale, lease, exchange or other transfer of all or substantially all of our assets not in the ordinary course of our business, whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions;

a reclassification, recapitalization or similar change of our outstanding shares of our Class A Common Stock or Class B Common Stock (other than a change in par value, or from par value to no par value, or as a result of a stock split, stock dividend or similar subdivision);

the adoption of any plan of liquidation or dissolution of us or the managing member; or a transfer of all or any portion of our membership interest in OP or, if we are not the managing member, any transfer of our interest in the managing member, other than certain permitted transfers to affiliated entities.

The consent of the non-managing members to a Termination Transaction is not required if:

(1) in connection with the Termination Transaction, each OP Unit is entitled to receive the transaction consideration, defined as the fair market value, at the time of the Termination Transaction, of an amount of cash, securities or other property equal to the product of:

the number of shares of our common stock into which each OP Unit is then exchangeable; and the greatest amount of cash, securities or other property paid to the holder of one share of our common stock in consideration of such share in connection with the Termination Transaction; provided that, if, in connection with the Termination Transaction, a purchase, tender or exchange offer is made to and accepted by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock, the transaction consideration will refer to the fair market value of the greatest amount of cash, securities or other property which such holder would have received had it exercised its redemption right and received shares of our common stock in exchange for its OP Units immediately prior to the expiration of such purchase, tender or exchange offer and had accepted such purchase, tender or exchange offer; or

(2) all of the following conditions are met: (i) substantially all of the assets directly or indirectly owned by OP prior to the announcement of the Termination Transaction are, immediately after the Termination Transaction, owned directly or indirectly by OP or another limited partnership or limited liability company which is the survivor of a merger, consolidation or combination of assets with OP, which we refer to as the surviving company, (ii) the surviving company is classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes; (iii) the rights of such members with respect to the surviving company include:

(a) if we or our successor is a REIT with a single class of publicly traded common equity securities, the right to redeem their interests in the surviving company on terms substantially comparable to those under the OP Operating Agreement for either: (1) a number of such of REIT's publicly traded common equity securities with a fair market value, as of the date of consummation of such Termination Transaction, equal to the transaction consideration referred to above, subject to anti-dilution adjustments, which we refer to as the successor shares amount; or (2) cash in an amount equal to the fair market value of the successor shares amount at the time of such redemption; or

(b) if we or our successor is not a REIT with a single class of publicly traded common equity securities, the right to redeem their interests in the surviving company for cash in an amount equal to the transaction consideration; or

(c) in any Termination Transaction that is a merger, consolidation or other combination with or into another person, immediately following the consummation of such Termination Transaction, the equity holders of the surviving entity are substantially identical to the shareholders of the Company prior to such transaction.

Term

The OP Operating Agreement will continue indefinitely unless OP is dissolved in accordance with the terms of the OP Operating Agreement or as otherwise provided by law.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the OP Operating Agreement indemnifies us, our directors, officers and employees, the managing member, officers and employees, employees of OP and any other persons whom the managing member may designate from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, joint or several, expenses (including attorney's fees and other legal fees and expenses), judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts arising from any and all claims, demands, actions, suits or proceedings, civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, or that relate to the operations of OP in which any indemnitee may be involved, or is threatened to be involved, as a party or otherwise unless:

it is established by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that the act or omission of the indemnitee was material and was committed in bad faith, constituted fraud or was a result of active and deliberate dishonesty on the part of the indemnitee;

the claim is brought by the indemnitee (other than to enforce the indemnitee's rights to indemnification or advance of expenses);

the indemnitee received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services; or in criminal proceedings, there are reasonable grounds to believe that the indemnitee's act or omission was unlawful.

Registration Rights Agreement

In conjunction with the execution of the Contribution Agreement, we entered into a Registration Rights Agreement with Colony Capital, CC Holdings, New Colony Holdings, FHB LLC, CCH I, Mr. Saltzman and the other persons party to the Registration Rights Agreement from time to time. Under the Registration Rights Agreement, we are obligated to file a shelf registration statement under the Securities Act, registering the resale of (i) shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, and (ii) shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock issued or issuable upon conversion of Class B Common Stock or upon exchange of OP Units, in each case, issued upon the closing of the transactions pursuant to the Contribution Agreement. We have agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such registration statement to be declared effective by the SEC not later than the date of the closing under the Contribution Agreement.

Table of Contents

To the extent that the initial registration statement does not cover all of the shares registrable pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, we also are obligated to file one or more additional shelf registration statements under the Securities Act, registering the resale of all other registrable shares. We have agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any such additional registration statement to be declared effective by the SEC as soon as reasonably practicable. In the case of any registrable shares subject to an earn-out, we must use commercially reasonable efforts to either include such securities on an existing registration statement by filing a post-effective amendment to such registration statement or file an additional registration statement registering such securities. We have agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause such post-effective amendment or additional registration statement to be declared effective promptly following the date such securities are earned.

We have agreed to keep registration statements covering registrable shares continuously effective until the later of (i) six months following the fifth anniversary of the closing under the Contribution Agreement, and (ii) the holders of registrable shares hold, in the aggregate, registrable shares with an aggregate offering price of less than $75.0 million.

We will bear certain costs of registration, including, among other things, registration and filing fees, printing expenses, attorneys' fees, accountants' fees and other reasonable expenses.

We may suspend the use of a registration statement (which suspension shall not exceed more than 60 days at any one time or 90 days in any 365-day period) under certain circumstances, such as disclosing material non-public information at a time we determine not to be in our best interests.

CAH License Agreement

Pursuant to a trademark license agreement between OP, as licensor, and CAH Manager, as licensee, OP will grant to CAH a non-exclusive, non-transferable, perpetual (subject to termination as described below), revocable, royalty-free, and worldwide license to use the Colony Mark only in connection with engaging in debt and equity investments in North American residential properties and related operational activities. OP may terminate the agreement in the event of (i) CAH's material and incurable breach (or, if the breach is curable, if such breach is uncured within a specified period), (ii) CAH's bankruptcy or insolvency (or certain related proceedings), (iii) certain changes in control of CAH, or (iv) CAH's discontinuing use of the Colony Mark for 12 consecutive months. Each party indemnifies the other for third party claims arising out of such party's material breach of the agreement. CAH may not assign the agreement without the prior written consent of OP (which shall not be unreasonably withheld).

PROPOSAL 3: THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

Proposal 3 is to consider and vote upon the proposal to approve adjourning the Special Meeting, if necessary or appropriate in the discretion of the Chairman of the Special Meeting, to solicit additional proxies in the event that there are not sufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to approve either the Issuances or the Charter Amendments.

General

The Special Meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate in the discretion of the Chairman of the Special Meeting, to permit further solicitation of proxies to obtain additional votes in favor of either the Issuances or the Charter Amendments.

If, at the Special Meeting, the number of shares of common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the proposal to approve either the Issuances or the Charter Amendment is insufficient to approve such proposal, the Company intends to move to adjourn the Special Meeting in order to enable the Board to solicit additional proxies for approval of such proposal. In addition, as permitted by the Maryland General Corporation Law, prior to the Special Meeting being convened, the meeting may be postponed by the Board to a date not more than 120 days after the record date for the Special Meeting. Moreover, pursuant to the Company's bylaws, the chairman of the Special Meeting may adjourn the meeting without any action by the stockholders and without regard to whether a quorum is present. We are asking our stockholders to approve this adjournment if necessary or appropriate in the discretion of the Chairman of the Special Meeting.

Vote Required and Recommendation

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast is required for approval of the Adjournment Proposal. For the purpose of the vote on this proposal, abstentions, broker non-votes and other shares not voted will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote, although they will be considered present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE COMBINATION

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Combination to us and to U.S. persons (as defined below) who hold shares of our common stock. The discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code, treasury regulations, court decisions, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date hereof and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). This summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to the Company or to particular stockholders. No ruling has been or will be obtained from the IRS regarding any matter relating to the Combination. No assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax aspects described below. This summary of U.S. federal income tax consequences is for general information only.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. person is a beneficial owner of our common stock who for U.S. federal income tax purposes is:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;

a trust that (1) is subject to (A) the primary supervision of a court within the United States and (B) the authority of one or more United States persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

Stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Combination, as well as the effects of state, local and non-U.S. tax laws, including possible changes in tax law.

In General

The formation of OP as part of the Combination is intended to constitute, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a tax-deferred contribution by us to a partnership. As a result, neither we nor holders of our common stock, in respect of those common stock holdings, are expected to recognize significant gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the Combination. In addition, the Combination is not expected to adversely affect our ability to continue to qualify as a REIT. Notwithstanding the foregoing, under the investment company rules under Section 721 of the Internal Revenue Code, the Combination generally would not qualify for tax-deferred treatment to the extent that it is treated under such rules as a contribution by us to an investment company. The investment company rules are complex, and there also is uncertainty regarding other aspects of the U.S. federal tax treatment of the Combination. If the Combination failed to qualify for tax-deferred treatment under the investment company rules or otherwise, we generally would recognize taxable gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes, possibly up to the extent that the fair market value of our assets immediately prior to the Combination exceeded their adjusted tax basis. If and to the extent that we were unable to make distributions for the year in which the Combination occurred at least equal to our taxable income (including our net long term capital gain and also any taxable income or gain recognized in connection with the Combination), we would be subject to U.S. federal income tax (and potentially excise tax) on any undistributed amounts and may also be unable to satisfy the distribution requirements applicable to REITs.

In addition, as a general matter, as a REIT, we generally will be unable to conduct directly a portion of the third-party management business of Colony Capital that we are acquiring in connection with the Combination. We therefore intend to conduct those operations through one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries (each, a TRS). A TRS is subject to regular corporate income tax on its net income. As a result, the net income generated by those operations generally will be subject to regular corporate income tax. Moreover, as a REIT, stock and other securities of a TRS constitute nonqualifying assets for purposes of the 75% asset test applicable to REITs, and, thus, no more than 25% of our total gross assets may be comprised of the stock or other securities of one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries and other nonqualifying assets (including goodwill and similar assets we are acquiring as a result of the Combination). In addition, dividends payable by taxable REIT subsidiaries constitute qualifying income for purposes of the 95% gross income test applicable to REITs, but nonqualifying income for purposes of the 75% gross income test applicable to REITs. Accordingly, if the value of the business we are acquiring in connection with the Combination and the income generated thereby increases relative to the value of our other, REIT-compliant assets and the income produced thereby, we may fail to satisfy one or more of the requirements applicable to REITs.

Certain Tax Aspects of OP and any Subsidiary Partnerships

Substantially all of our investments are expected to be held indirectly through OP. In general, partnerships are pass-through entities that are not subject to U.S. federal income tax. Rather, partners are allocated their shares of the items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit of a partnership, and are potentially subject to tax on these items, without regard to whether the partners receive a distribution from the partnership. Accordingly, we will include in our income our share of the foregoing partnership items in the computation of our REIT taxable income. Moreover, for purposes of the REIT asset and gross income tests, we will include our proportionate share of assets held by, and the gross income of, OP and subsidiaries of OP that are partnerships (Subsidiary Partnerships).

Our direct and indirect investment in partnerships involves special tax considerations, including the possibility of a challenge by the IRS of the tax status of any of the Subsidiary Partnerships as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If any of these entities were treated as an association for U.S. federal income tax purposes, it would be taxable as a corporation and therefore could be subject to an entity-level tax on its income. In such a situation, the character of our assets and items of gross income would change and could preclude us from satisfying the REIT asset tests and gross income tests, and in turn could prevent us from qualifying as a REIT unless we are eligible for relief from the violation pursuant to relief provisions described above. In addition, any change in the status of any of the Subsidiary Partnerships for tax purposes might be treated as a taxable event, in which case we might incur a tax liability without any related cash distributions.

Holders of our common stock are entitled to receive distributions if and when the Board authorizes and declares distributions. The Board has not established any minimum distribution level. In order to maintain our qualification as a REIT, we intend to pay dividends to our stockholders that, on an annual basis, will represent at least 90% of our taxable income, which may not necessarily equal net income as calculated in accordance with GAAP, determined without regard to the deduction for dividends paid and excluding any net capital gains. In addition, our credit facility limits the amount of distributions.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF COLONY CAPITAL

The historical combined financial data discussed below reflects the historical combined results and financial position of the real estate investment management businesses and operations of Colony Capital that will be contributed to the Company in the Combination. The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with the audited combined financial statements and the related notes included elsewhere in this proxy statement. The historical combined financial statements do not give effect to the Combination and therefore may not necessarily be representative of Colony Capital's financial condition and results of operations upon consummation of, and subsequent to, the Combination. In addition, this discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements and involves numerous risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those discussed in any forward-looking statements.

Overview

Colony Capital is a leading global real estate private equity investment management firm with approximately 300 employees in 13 offices located in 10 countries with approximately $19.0 billion of assets under management (AUM) and over $2.0 billion of uncalled equity capital available for investment at September 30, 2014. Over its history, Colony Capital has managed the acquisition of over 37,000 assets and loans representing over $60 billion in value.

Colony Capital's primary activities include the (i) sponsorship and capital-raising activities on behalf of certain limited partnerships (the Partnerships), which are engaged in the acquisition, management and disposition of real estate and real estate-related assets, including mortgage loans, and (ii) identification, structuring, consummation, management and disposition of investments on behalf of the Partnerships. The Partnerships invest in a diversified portfolio of investments consisting of direct or indirect exposure to debt or preferred equity instruments secured by real estate assets and equity investments in core-plus, value-added and opportunistic real estate portfolios. While Colony Capital has made advances to certain of its affiliates, including the general partners of the Partnerships (GPs), it has not historically invested in or held direct interests in the Partnerships or the GPs.

In addition to managing the Partnerships, Colony Capital has asset management companies (AMC), which provide portfolio management services to affiliated entities that hold over 3,500 loans with combined unpaid principal balance of over $3.0 billion at September 30, 2014.

Nine Months Ended September 30, 2014 Compared to Nine Months Ended September 30, 2013Revenues

Colony Capital's revenues consist primarily of investment management fees, real estate management fees, cost reimbursements and advisory fees. Investment management fees are generally based on a defined percentage of total commitments, deployed capital or net invested capital. Colony Capital also receives cost reimbursements from the Partnerships and their affiliates for asset management, investment advisory and administrative costs incurred on their behalf. Real estate management fees are separated into (i) an asset management fee related to initial underwriting, and (ii) an ongoing management fee. All fees are recognized as revenue when services are performed. The ongoing management fee portion is deferred and recognized as revenue over the expected holding period of each investment as it relates to ongoing services provided throughout the life of the investment. The cost reimbursements are based on compensation, bonuses and benefits, allocated overhead and other expenses incurred by personnel directly attributable to the affiliated funds and are reflected on a gross basis in Colony Capital's combined financial statements. A portion of the cost reimbursements is based on AUM.

Management and real estate management fees. Management and real estate management fees decreased slightly by $530,000, or 0.5%, to $97.7 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to $98.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013. The decrease was primarily due to various realizations at real estate opportunity funds and distressed credit funds managed by Colony Capital for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2013, partially offset by higher base management fees earned from the Company.

Cost Reimbursements. Cost reimbursements increased by $3.9 million, or 30.8%, to $16.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to $12.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013, primarily due to increased (i) reimbursements from CAH OP for administrative expenses and seconded employees, and (ii) increased allocations resulting from higher AUM by certain affiliated funds.

Other. Other revenue increased by $864,000, or 33.8%, to $3.4 million in the nine months ending September 30, 2014, primarily due to increased advisory fees for providing real estate acquisition services.

Table of ContentsExpenses

Compensation. Compensation and benefits increased by $11.8 million, or 23.0%, to $63.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to $51.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013. The increase was primarily due to an increase in headcount to support the growth of Colony Capital's business both for increased AUM and the number of investment vehicles, additional compensation costs related to Colony Capital's acquisitions of the net assets and operations of two affiliates, which provided management and advisory services to certain of the Partnerships' investments in August 2013 and February 2014 and increased bonuses commensurate with the foregoing.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expenses include costs primarily related to professional services (including placement fees), leasing and occupancy costs, travel and related expenses (including the costs of Colony Capital's private aircrafts), communication and information services, depreciation and amortization expense and other general operating items. General and administrative expenses increased by $7.3 million, or 27.0%, to $34.5 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to $27.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013. The increase was primarily due to increased operating expenses associated with the acquisitions of certain affiliates, un consummated deal expenses, placement fees paid in connection with our capital raising activities and other operating costs associated with the growth and increased activity of Colony Capital's business.

Income-Sharing with an Affiliated Entity. In 2006, Colony Capital entered into an agreement with an affiliated entity (the Colyzeo Affiliate), whereby the Colyzeo Affiliate was entitled to management fee revenue generated by certain funds, net of allocable expenses, based on a formulaic calculation (Income-Sharing Agreement). The agreement was terminated in August 2013, at which time Colony Capital acquired the Colyzeo Affiliate's net assets and operations. Income-sharing with an affiliated entity was $0 for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to $6.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

Income Taxes. Colony Capital is a combination of limited liability companies, which are considered disregarded entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, income or loss is generally included in the tax returns of the members. However, certain foreign subsidiaries of Colony Capital are subject to income taxes, which totaled $438,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to $392,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2013.

Management and real estate management fees. Investment management and real estate management fees increased by $1.5 million, or 1.2%, to $129.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 compared to $127.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2012. The increase was primarily due to increased management fees as a result of higher capital deployment at the Partnerships, which increased net invested capital and higher management fees earned from the Company due to additional capital raised and corresponding increases in its stockholders' equity.

Cost Reimbursements. Cost reimbursements increased by $3.3 million, or 19.9%, to $19.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 compared to $16.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2012. The increase was primarily attributed to the growth in portfolio management services and personnel costs related to AMCs and reimbursements from CAH for administrative expenses and seconded employees.

Other. Other revenues increased by $565,000, or 24.6%, to $2.9 million primarily due to increased advisory fees for providing real estate acquisition services.

Table of ContentsExpenses

Compensation. Compensation and benefits increased by $2.9 million, or 4.1% to $73.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 compared to $70.3 million the year ended December 31, 2012. The increase was primarily due to an increase in headcount to support the growth of Colony Capital's business and additional personnel expenses associated with Colony Capital's acquisition of the operations and net assets of the Colyzeo Affiliate.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expense increased by $18.9 million, or 53.8%, to $54.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 compared to $35.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2012. The increase was primarily due to increased legal and other professional expenses and travel costs due to the growth of CC's business, higher interest expense due to borrowings to acquire a new aircraft in 2012, higher depreciation expense related to the new aircraft, the write-down of deferred real estate management fees receivable from Colyzeo Investors, L.P. (Colyzeo I) due to declines in the fair value of the fund's underlying investments, and an impairment loss on an aircraft classified as held for sale in 2013 and subsequently sold in 2014, partially offset by decreased in other operating expenses.

Income-Sharing with an Affiliated Entity. Income-sharing with an affiliated entity decreased by $5.2 million, or 53.9%, to $4.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2013 compared to $9.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2012. The decrease was primarily due to the termination of the Income-Sharing Agreement in August 2013. Concurrently with the termination, as part of an acquisition of shares of an entity previously controlled by the Colyzeo Affiliate, Colony Capital received net assets with an estimated fair value of $1.6 million in exchange for nominal cash consideration. The excess of the net assets acquired over the cash consideration paid was accounted for as a settlement of the preexisting relationship and offset income-sharing expense accrued to the Colyzeo Affiliate under the Income-Sharing Agreement prior to its termination.

Management and Real Estate Management Fees. Investment management and real estate management fees decreased by $1.8 million, or 1.4%, to $127.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2012 compared to $129.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2011. The decrease was primarily due to a decrease in investment management fees as a result of investment realizations at the Partnerships, which reduced net invested capital, partially offset by increased base management fees from the Company as a result of an increase in its stockholders' equity.

Cost Reimbursements. Cost reimbursements increased by $7.8 million, or 88.9%, to $16.5 million for the year ended December 31, 2012 compared to $8.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2011. The increase was primarily attributed to the growth in Colony Capital's portfolio management services, including AMCs and the corresponding increase in headcount, as well as reimbursements of administrative and personnel costs from CAH, which was formed in March 2012.

Other. Other revenue increased by $736,000, or 47.1% to $2.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2012 compared to $1.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2011. The increase was primarily attributable to a gain on the sale of an investment.

Table of ContentsExpenses

Compensation. Compensation expense decreased by $732,000, or 1.0%, to $70.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2012 compared to $71.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2011. The decrease was primarily related to lower severance and other employment costs while partially offset by an increase in Colony Capital's headcount.

General and Administrative. General and administrative expense increased by $2.7 million, or 8.5%, to $35.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2012 compared to $32.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2011. The increase in general and administrative expenses was primarily related to increased unconsummated deal costs, increased operating expenses related to the growth of Colony Capital's business, non-recurring restructuring expense relating to a promissory note from an affiliate, partially offset by a decrease in office relocation expenses and private aircraft-related expenses.

Income-Sharing with an Affiliated Entity. Income-sharing with an affiliated entity increased by $902,000 or 10.3% to $9.7 million for the year ended December 31, 2012 compared to $8.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2011. The increase is primarily attributable to an increase of profitability resulting from reduction of severance costs and a non-recurring fee credit of real estate management fees in 2011 at the underlying Partnerships.

Income Taxes. Income taxes related to certain of Colony Capital's foreign operations totaled $611,000 for the year ended December 31, 2012 compared to $1.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2011. The change is primarily attributable to a decrease in taxable income at Colony Capital's foreign subsidiaries resulting from lower transfer pricing arrangements.

Liquidity and Capital Resources and Colony Capital's Future Sources of Cash and Liquidity NeedsHistorical Liquidity and Capital Resources

Colony Capital has typically met its historical liquidity and capital requirements through cash generated from its operations. Colony Capital's credit facilities have historically provided a back-up or standby source for its short-term liquidity needs. Colony Capital's primary cash flow activities involve (i) generating net cash flow from operations, which largely includes management fees and cost reimbursements, and (ii) making distributions to the members. As of September 30, 2014, Colony Capital's cash and cash equivalents were $29.1 million, including investments in money market funds. Historically, Colony Capital's management fees have largely covered its operating costs and Colony Capital has distributed most of the fees after related operating expenses and compensation, a substantial amount of which is typically paid around the calendar year-end. Prior to the Combination, Colony Capital expects to make cash distributions to the members, a portion of which will be related to Colony Capital's previously undistributed earnings.

Ongoing sources of cash include (i) management fees, which are collected monthly, quarterly or annually, (ii) asset management fees, which are contingent upon the amount of capital invested, and (iii) advisory fees, which are collected monthly or quarterly. Colony Capital primarily uses cash flow from operations to pay compensation and related expenses, general and administrative and other expenses, income taxes, debt service, capital expenditures and distributions. Colony Capital believes that it has sufficient access to cash from existing balances and from the revolving credit facilities to fund its operations and meet its commitments

Table of ContentsCash Flows

The significant captions and amounts from Colony Capital's combined and consolidated financial statements, in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP), are summarized below. Negative amounts represent a net outflow, or use of cash.

Operating Activities

Net cash provided by (used in) operating activities is primarily driven by Colony Capital's earnings after adjusting for non-cash compensation. Colony Capital's net cash flow provided by (used in) operating activities was $19.5 million, $42.9 million, $48.2 million, $(1.4) million and $21.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, respectively. Generally, the changes in Colony Capital's operating cash flows are attributable to timing of cash receipts from, or payments to, Colony Capital's affiliates, including the Partnerships. Colony Capital believes that its ability to generate cash from operations, as well as the capacity under the revolving credit facilities, provides it with the necessary liquidity to manage short-term fluctuations in working capital, as well as to meet its short-term commitments.

Investing Activities

Colony Capital's investing activities generally reflect cash acquired through affiliates net of capital expenditures. During the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, Colony Capital acquired a total of four affiliates, which provided management and advisory services to certain of the Partnerships investments for nominal consideration. The acquired assets and liabilities were comprised primarily of net working capital, including cash and fee income receivable, net of accounts payable, accrued compensation and other accrued liabilities. Capital expenditures, which consist primarily of purchases of furniture and equipment used in Colony Capital's operations, were $326,000, $598,000, $628,000, $51.6 million and $458,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, respectively. In 2012, Colony Capital purchased an aircraft for a total amount of $51.3 million, representing substantially all of total capital expenditures for that year. After September 30, 2014, Colony Capital sold an aircraft, generating net proceeds of approximately $12.3 million. In 2011, Colony Capital sold a small equity investment for gross proceeds of approximately $3.5 million, resulting in a gain on sale of $820,000.

Financing Activities

Colony Capital's net cash flow provided by (used in) financing activities was $(33.9) million, $(24.6) million, $(29.0) million, $29.9 million and $(33.8) million during the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, respectively. Financing activities primarily include net distributions to Colony Capital's members of $22.4 million, $17.7 million, $19.1 million, $15.5 million and $33.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, respectively. Net proceeds from borrowings under (repayment of) Colony Capital's debt obligations provided an increase (decrease) in cash to Colony Capital of $(11.6) million,

$(6.9) million, $(9.8) million, $45.1 million and $(749,000) for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, respectively. During the year ended December 31, 2012, Colony Capital entered into a long-term financing arrangement totaling $40.8 million to finance the acquisition of an aircraft. Colony Capital's net repayments during the other periods primarily reflect scheduled debt service payments on Colony Capital's indebtedness.

Colony Capital's Future Sources of Cash and Liquidity Needs

Colony Capital expects that its primary liquidity needs will be to (i) provide capital to facilitate its expansion into new businesses that are complementary to its existing investment and asset management and into financial advisory businesses that can benefit from being affiliated with Colony Capital, (ii) pay operating expenses, including cash compensation to its employees, (iii) fund capital expenditures, and (iv) repay borrowings and related interest costs. Colony Capital has multiple sources of liquidity to meet its capital needs, including cash on hand, annual cash flows from operations and funds from its credit facilities. Colony Capital believes that these sources will be sufficient to fund its capital needs for at least the next 12 months.

Critical Accounting Policies

For a discussion of Colony Capital's critical accounting policies, please refer to the footnotes to the combined financial statements of Colony Capital included elsewhere in this proxy statement.

Contractual Obligations, Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of business, Colony Capital enters into contractual arrangements that may require future cash payments. Colony Capital's contractual obligations generally consist of principal and interest payments on its long-term debt and payments due under operating leases for its various offices. The following table sets forth information relating to Colony Capital's known contractual obligations on an undiscounted basis as of September 30, 2014.

	Total	Payments Due by Period

1) Debt obligations include an $8.4 million note payable obtained to finance the acquisition of our Gulfstream V (GV) aircraft, which was paid in full upon sale of the aircraft in October 2014, and $45.2 million in notes payable obtained to finance the acquisition of our G550 aircraft which require level monthly payments of principal and interest and balloon payments upon maturity in December 2025.

- 2) Includes the repayment of $8.4 million of the GV note in October 2014, which was otherwise due upon maturity in December 2014.
- 3) Interest obligations on the GV note, which bear a variable rate of interest equal to the three-year swap rate published by the U.S Federal Reserve plus 1.96% per annum, are based upon the rate in effect at September 30, 2014, or 3.49%. Interest obligations on the G550 notes, which bear interest at fixed rates with a weighted average rate of approximately 5.0%, are based upon the underlying amortization schedules for each note.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

Other than contractual commitments and other legal contingencies incurred in the normal course of Colony Capital's business, it does not have any off-balance sheet financings or liabilities.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

Market risk includes the exposure to loss resulting from changes in interest rates, credit curve spreads, foreign currency exchange rates, commodity prices, market values and counterparty credit risk. The primary risk to which Colony Capital is exposed, either directly or indirectly, is foreign currency risk related to certain foreign subsidiaries whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar.

While Colony Capital has long-term borrowings consisting of (i) notes to finance the acquisition of aircraft, and (ii) lines of credit to be used for general corporate purposes, the aircraft notes bear fixed rates of interest and there were no outstanding borrowings on the lines of credit at September 30, 2014 or December 31, 2013, 2012 or 2011. Accordingly, Colony Capital is not subject to a significant amount of interest rate risk.

Colony Capital also provides management and advisory services to certain affiliated Partnerships, which carry their investments at fair value in accordance with GAAP. However, since these fee arrangements are based upon a percentage of either committed capital, deployed capital, or net invested capital, Colony Capital is typically not subject to a significant amount of direct or indirect market risk arising from changes in the fair value of the Partnerships' investments. While Colony Capital entered into a deferred real estate management fee arrangement with Colyzeo I that was dependent upon amounts received in the ultimate realization of the underlying investments, this arrangement was unique to the Colyzeo I vehicle, which has largely realized its investment holdings as of September 30, 2014, and will not be material to Colony Capital's future operations.

Foreign Currency Risk

Colony Capital has foreign currency risk related to certain foreign subsidiaries whose functional currency is generally the Euro and, to a much lesser extent, other foreign currencies. Changes in foreign currency exchange rates could adversely affect the value of the net assets or liabilities of Colony Capital's foreign subsidiaries. As of September 30, 2014, Colony Capital had approximately $114,000 in net liabilities related to foreign subsidiaries whose functional currency was the Euro. A 10% change in exchange rates in effect at September 30, 2014 for the Euro would result in a $11,000 increase or decrease in the translation gain or loss for Colony Capital's foreign subsidiaries, which is included as a component of other comprehensive income in Colony Capital's combined financial statements. The amount of foreign currency gain or loss that will be realized in earnings will ultimately depend on the amount and timing of cash payments from Colony Capital's foreign subsidiaries, should Colony Capital elect to make such distributions in future periods.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet is presented as if the Combination had occurred on September 30, 2014. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2013, and the nine months ended September 30, 2014 are presented as if the Combination had occurred on January 1, 2013. The accompanying unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements give pro forma effect to:

The acquisition by the Company of Colony Capital's funds management business and related assets, liabilities and personnel, and the Colony Mark; and

The consolidation of certain variable interest entities (VIEs) which were previously accounted for using the equity method since another variable interest holder was deemed to be the party most closely associated with each VIE. Subsequent to the Combination, the Company will reassess the primary beneficiary determination of each joint venture and expects that it will be deemed the primary beneficiary of certain joint ventures where it is co-invested with investment funds previously managed by Colony Capital (the Co-Investment Funds). The Company is not acquiring any economic interests in the Co-Investment Funds or any additional economic interests in the joint ventures as a result of the Colony Capital Transaction.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the historical consolidated financial statements of the Company and Colony Capital. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information, including the notes thereto, should be read in conjunction with the following historical financial statements and accompanying notes for the applicable periods, which are incorporated by reference or included in this proxy statement:

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information is preliminary and is being furnished solely for information purposes and, therefore, is not necessarily indicative of the consolidated results of operations or financial position that might have been achieved by the consolidated company for the dates or periods indicated, nor is it necessarily indicative of the results of operations or financial position of the consolidated company that may occur in the future.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information has been prepared using the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, or GAAP. The unaudited pro forma adjustments related to the Combination, are preliminary and do not reflect the final purchase price or final debt and equity components of Colony Capital. The completion of the valuation, accounting for the Combination, the allocation of the purchase price and the impact of ongoing integration activities could cause material differences in the purchase price, debt and equity components and allocation of the purchase price, which may affect the value assigned to the tangible or intangible assets and amount of interest expense and depreciation and amortization expense recorded in the consolidated statements of operations.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information does not reflect cost savings or synergies that we may realize after the consummation of the Combination. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information also does not reflect any non-recurring revenues or charges related to integration activity that may be incurred by Colony Capital or the Company in connection with the Combination.

Table of ContentsCOLONY FINANCIAL, INC.*NOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL INFORMATION*Note 1 Estimate of Consideration Expected to be Transferred Related to the Combination

The following table summarizes the total agreed-upon consideration for the Combination:

(In thousands)	Agreed-Upon Consideration
Upfront consideration	$ 547,500
Contingent consideration	110,000
	$ 657,500

The number of shares of Class A common stock, Class B common stock and OP Units to be issued in the Combination was determined by dividing the total agreed-upon consideration of $657.5 million by a reference price of $22.05 per share (the Reference Price) based upon the estimated fair value per share of the Company's common stock at September 30, 2014. The consideration will be issuable as follows:

fixed upfront consideration to be paid in a combination of approximately 2.83 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 566,635 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 21.44 million OP Units, subject to certain adjustments as described below; and contingent consideration to be paid in a combination of up to approximately an additional 1.11 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 98,958 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 3.78 million OP Units, subject to multi-year performance targets for achievement of certain funds from operations per share targets and capital-raising thresholds from the funds management businesses. If the minimum performance target for either of these metrics is not met or exceeded, the contingent consideration paid in respect of the other metric would not be paid out in full.

In connection with the Combination, the upfront consideration is subject to upward and downward adjustments at closing in respect of cash, indebtedness and net working capital. If the closing adjustment results in an increase to the upfront consideration, such adjustment will, subject to the applicable cap, be paid in cash and to the extent such adjustment exceeds the applicable cap, will increase the number of OP Units to be issued in the Contribution. If the closing adjustment results in a decrease to the upfront consideration, such adjustment will reduce the number of OP Units to be issued in the Combination.

Additionally, the upfront consideration issuable in Class A Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and OP Units is expected to be reduced by an estimated $9.8 million of cash payments to advisors for fees incurred by Colony Capital in connection with the transaction. After reflecting the effect of such cash payments, the remaining consideration is expected to be issued in approximately 2.73 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 557,836 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 21.1 million OP Units.

Edgar Filing: Colony Financial, Inc. - Form PRE 14A

Up to 151,520 shares of Class A Common Stock, 13,494 shares of Class B Common Stock and 515,258 OP Units of the contingent consideration issuable post-Closing may be reallocated to upfront consideration issuable at the Closing if the volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock over the 10 trading days prior to the 10th calendar day preceding the date of a shareholder vote in connection with the Combination were to exceed $24.05, with the full amount reallocated if such volume-weighted average closing price of the Company's common stock were to exceed $27.05.

Table of Contents

Since the number of shares of common stock and OP Units to be issued in the Combination is fixed, the aggregate fair value of consideration could increase or decrease based upon changes in the price of the Company's common stock. The following table reflects the preliminary estimated fair value of the consideration to be transferred in connection with the Combination:

(In thousands)	Estimated Fair Value of Consideration
Upfront consideration	$ 608,466
Working capital adjustment	5,000
Fair value of contingent consideration	83,503
	$ 696,969

The estimated fair value of consideration of approximately $697.0 million is composed of upfront consideration with a fair value of $608.5 million, $5 million due in excess of working capital of Colony Capital at the time of closing, and contingent consideration with an estimated fair value of $83.5 million. The upfront consideration and the fair value contingent consideration were calculated based on a per share price of $24.55, which represents the 10-day volume-weighted average price of the Company's common stock for the 10 trading days ending on January 20, 2015. The fair value of contingent consideration also takes into account various probability-weighted combinations of scenarios for the Company's projected earnings and capital raising assumptions. For each subsequent $1 change in the price of the Company's common stock, the fair value of upfront consideration payable in shares or OP Units would be subject to a $24.4 million change. Any change to the fair value of upfront consideration would result in a direct increase or decrease to goodwill (see Note 2(e)).

Note 2 Unaudited Pro Forma Adjustments

The pro forma adjustments included in the accompanying information do not reflect the final purchase price, or final debt and equity components of Colony Capital and joint ventures expected to be consolidated. The allocation of the consideration transferred to the various tangible and intangible assets acquired, liabilities assumed and noncontrolling interests is preliminary and is subject to change.

Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Balance Sheet Adjustments for the Combination

- (a) Derived from the Company's historical consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2014. Certain amounts have been reclassified to conform to the unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet presentation.
- (b) Derived from Colony Capital's historical combined balance sheet as of September 30, 2014.
- (c) Reflects the reclassification of the Company's common stock as Class A Common Stock in connection with the closing, cash payments of $9.8 million to advisors on behalf of Colony Capital, cash payment of $5 million due in excess of working capital of Colony Capital at closing, issuance of Class A Common Stock and Class B

Common Stock, issuance of OP Units, and the estimated fair value of contingent consideration of $83.5 million as described in Note 1.

- (d) Represents estimated transaction costs relating to the Combination expected to be incurred subsequent to September 30, 2014 and paid at closing. Combined with transaction costs incurred through September 30, 2014, total transaction costs of the Combination to be borne by the Company are estimated at $21.5 million.

- (e) Reflects the preliminary purchase price allocation. The final purchase price allocation at closing of the Combination may differ materially from the amounts presented below.

(In thousands)	Preliminary Purchase Price Allocation
Finite-lived intangible assets	$ 48,200
Indefinite-lived intangible assets	15,000
Goodwill	653,069
Deferred tax liability	(19,300)
	$ 696,969

The finite-lived intangible assets consist of management contracts of $26.4 million and investor relationships of $21.8 million, with estimated useful lives of 4 and 10 years, respectively. The fair values at the date of acquisition were calculated using an excess earnings methodology and represent the valuation of the net residual income stream arising from the management contracts or client relationships in place as of the acquisition date. The assets are amortized over their estimated remaining economic lives. The indefinite-lived intangible asset represents the Colony Capital trade name and related intellectual property, which were valued using a relief-from-royalty methodology under the income approach. When considering the useful lives of the trade names and the intellectual property, the Company noted that there are no legal, regulatory, or contractual provisions that may limit the lives of the assets and the Company has the intention to continue utilizing both the trade name as well as the intellectual property into the foreseeable future. The estimated goodwill represents the excess of the purchase price over the identified assets and liabilities acquired and reflects, among other things, the workforce and infrastructure of Colony Capital.

- (f) Eliminations of intercompany balances between the Company and Colony Capital as summarized below:

(In thousands)
Base management fees	$ 8,907
Secondment reimbursement	680
Reimbursement of direct and allocated administrative and investment costs	566
	$ 10,153

Unaudited Pro Forma Consolidated Balance Sheet Consolidation of Joint Ventures

- (g) Unless otherwise denoted, represents the combined balance sheet of certain previously unconsolidated joint ventures as of September 30, 2014, reported at historical cost. While the Company is not acquiring any economic interests in the Co-Investment Funds or any additional economic interests in the joint ventures as a result of the Combination, the Company expects that it will be deemed the primary beneficiary of certain joint ventures previously accounted for under the equity method upon closing of the Combination.

- (h) Represents the elimination of the Company's balance in investment in unconsolidated joint ventures related to the joint ventures consolidated as a result of consolidation of certain joint ventures.
- (i) Represents adjustments to record the assets, liabilities and noncontrolling interests of the consolidated VIEs to their estimated fair values as of September 30, 2014. While the Company is not acquiring any additional economic interests in the joint ventures, it expects to record a gain at closing of the Combination as a result of remeasurement of its preexisting investments, which is included as a component of distributions in excess of earnings. If the reconsideration event occurred on September 30, 2014, the estimated remeasurement gain would be $48.8 million. Actual adjustments at closing of the Combination may differ materially based upon the fair values of assets, liabilities and noncontrolling interests of the consolidated VIEs at that time.
- (j) Represents the noncontrolling interests owned by Co-Investment Funds in the joint ventures expected to be consolidated.

Report of Independent Auditors

The Members

Colony Capital, LLC and Affiliates

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of Colony Capital, LLC and Affiliates (as described in Note 2 to the combined financial statements and collectively, the Company), which comprise the combined balance sheets as of December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, and the related combined statements of income and comprehensive income, changes in equity, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the combined financial position of Colony Capital, LLC and Affiliates at December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, and the combined results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

Table of ContentsColony Capital, LLC and Affiliates*Notes to Combined Financial Statements*1. Background and Organization

Colony Capital, LLC (Capital), a Delaware limited liability company, and Colony Management, LLC a Delaware limited liability company dba Colony Advisors, LLC (Advisors) are private equity investment management firms whose primary activities include: (i) the sponsorship and capital-raising activities on behalf of certain limited partnerships (the Funds) that are engaged in the acquisition, management, and disposition of real estate and real estate-related assets; (ii) the identification, structuring, consummation, management, and disposition of the Funds investments and (iii) management and advisory services to Colony Financial, Inc. (CFI), a publicly-traded real estate investment trust (REIT).

Prior to January 1, 2014, the sole member of Capital and Advisors was Thomas J. Barrack, Jr. Effective January 1, 2014, by an amendment to the limited liability company agreement of Capital, Tobar Properties, Inc. (Tobar), an affiliate of Mr. Barrack, was admitted as an additional member with a ten percent (10%) interest in the profits, losses, cash flow, and capital. Subsequently, Mr. Barrack and Tobar contributed all of their ownership interests in Capital to Colony Capital Holdings, LLC (Holdings) in exchange for 100 percent of the Class A partnership interests of Holdings. Collectively, Mr. Barrack, Holdings, and their respective assignees are referred to herein as the CC Contributing Members.

Colony Realty Partners, LLC (CRP), a Delaware limited liability company, was organized as a private real estate investment firm on March 14, 2005 to sponsor and manage a series of Funds engaged in the acquisition, management and disposition of real estate investments. The members of CRP are Henry G. Brauer, Scott D. Freeman and Mark M. Harmeling (collectively, the FHB Members), with a 50% interest, and Colony Realty Members, LLC (CRM), with a 50% interest. CRM is a joint venture between Capital, with a 60% interest, and Richard B. Saltzman, with a 40% interest. Collectively, the FHB Members and Mr. Saltzman are referred to herein as the CRP Contributing Members.

On November 4, 2014, CFI announced a non-binding agreement in principle with respect to certain terms for the potential contribution to CFI of the real estate and investment management businesses and operations of Capital, Advisors and CRP (the Proposed Transaction). The parties executed a definitive agreement on December 23, 2014 (see Note 11). Under the terms of the definitive agreement, (i) substantially all of the real estate investment management business and operations of Capital and Advisors will be contributed to a newly formed subsidiary (Newco) except for those assets, liabilities and employees related to the Colony American Homes, Inc. (CAH) single-family residential rental platform, which were acquired by CAH in a separate transaction in November 2014, and certain other assets, liabilities and employees which will be retained by the contributors (the Retained Businesses); and (ii) the CC Contributing Members and CRP Contributing Members will contribute their ownership interests in Newco, CRP and CRM to CFI in exchange for aggregate consideration of up to $657.5 million, based on a Reference Price of $22.05, to be paid in a combination of shares of CFI common stock and/or operating partnership units (OP units).

The Proposed Transaction is expected to close in the first half of 2015 and remains subject to: (i) regulatory approvals; (ii) the approval of a supermajority of two-thirds of CFI s disinterested shareholders voting at the shareholder s meeting; and (iii) certain other customary closing conditions.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying combined financial statements have been prepared in connection with the Proposed Transaction and present the historical combined financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of (i) the operations of Capital and Advisors that will be contributed to Newco in contemplation of the Proposed Transaction; and (ii) CRP, which are collectively referred to herein as the Company. The combined financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP), giving consideration to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and related guidance provided by the SEC Staff with respect to carve-out financial statements.

F-7

Except for certain assets, liabilities and employees of the Company related to the Retained Businesses, the combined financial statements include the accounts of the Company and all of its wholly-owned and majority-owned subsidiaries. Expenses (reimbursements) incurred by the Company on behalf of the Retained Businesses have been excluded from the combined statements of income and comprehensive income and are reflected as noncash distributions (contributions) to the CC Contributing Members in the combined statements of changes in equity. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in combination and consolidation.

Management believes that the assumptions and estimates used in the preparation of the underlying combined financial statements are reasonable. However, the combined financial statements do not necessarily reflect what the Company's combined results of operations, financial position and cash flows would have been had the Company had been a stand-alone entity for the periods presented. As a result, the combined financial statements may not be indicative of the Company's future performance.

Management's Estimates

The preparation of the combined financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. These estimates are made and evaluated on an on-going basis using information that is currently available as well as other assumptions believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from those estimates and such differences could be material. In the event estimates or assumptions prove to be different from actual results, adjustments are made in subsequent periods to reflect more current information.

Consolidation

The Company has evaluated each of its investments and other contractual relationships pursuant to the guidance in Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 810, Consolidation (ASC 810), to determine whether they create variable interest entities (VIE) and whether the Company is the primary beneficiary of the VIE. Generally, a VIE is an entity with one or more of the following characteristics: (a) the total equity investment at risk is not sufficient to permit the entity to finance its activities without additional, subordinated financial support; (b) as a group, the holders of the equity investment at risk lack (i) the power, through voting rights or similar rights, to direct the activities of the entity that most significantly impact its financial performance, (ii) the obligation to absorb the expected losses of the entity, or (iii) the right to receive the expected residual returns of the entity; or (c) the equity investors have voting rights that are not proportional to their economic interests and substantially all of the entity's activities either involve, or are conducted on behalf of, an investor (including its related parties) that has disproportionately few voting rights. The Company is required to continually evaluate its VIE relationships and consolidate investments in these entities when it is determined to be the primary beneficiary of their operations.

A variable interest holder is considered to be the primary beneficiary of a VIE if it has the power to direct the activities of a VIE that most significantly impact the entity's economic performance and has the obligation to absorb losses of, or the right to receive benefits from, the VIE that could potentially be significant to the VIE. The Company qualitatively assesses whether it is (or is not) the primary beneficiary of a VIE. Consideration of various factors includes, but is not limited to, the Company's ability to direct the activities that most significantly impact the entity's economic performance, its form of ownership interest, its representation on the entity's governing body, the size and seniority of its investment, and its ability and the rights of other investors to participate in policy-making decisions and to replace the manager of and/or liquidate the entity. Based on its evaluation, the Company has determined that it does not hold variable interests in, or is not the primary beneficiary of, any VIEs.

Business Combinations

In purchase transactions that are deemed to be business combinations within the scope of ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations, the Company records the tangible and intangible assets acquired, liabilities assumed and noncontrolling interests based on their estimated fair values at the acquisition date. The excess of the fair value of the purchase consideration over the fair values of the identifiable assets and liabilities is recorded as goodwill. The excess of the fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the purchase consideration, if any, is recorded as a gain on bargain purchase. When determining the fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, management makes significant estimates and assumptions, based upon assumptions believed to be reasonable, but which are inherently uncertain and unpredictable and, as a result, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of highly liquid investment instruments with original maturities of three months or less at purchase.

The Company maintains its cash at insured financial institutions. The combined account balances at each institution periodically exceed Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insurance coverage, and as a result, there is a concentration of credit risk related to amounts in excess of FDIC limits. The Company believes that the risk is not significant.

Investments

At September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013 and 2012 the Company held an investment in common stock of CFI. At December 31, 2011, the Company held investments in Yangtze Advisors Limited (YAL), and common stock of CFI (Note 5). Common stock received from CFI is considered an available-for-sale security and is carried at fair value, with changes in fair value included in other comprehensive income.

On a periodic basis, management assesses whether there are any indicators that the carrying value of the Company's investments may be impaired on an other-than-temporary basis. An investment is impaired only if management's estimate of the fair-value of the investment is less than the carrying value of the investment, and such decline in value is believed to be other-than-temporary. To the extent impairment has occurred, the loss is measured as the excess of the carrying value of the investment over the fair value of the investment.

Testing for impairment charges is a continuous process and is analyzed periodically. The determinations of whether impairment charges have been incurred are highly subjective and are based partly on anticipated operating performance, because estimated undiscounted future cash flows from an investment, including estimated future distributions and net proceeds on the sale of the investments, are taken into account in determining whether an impairment charge has been incurred.

No impairment losses were recognized with respect to the Company's investments for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 or the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are recorded at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range from 3 to 15 years. Leasehold improvements are amortized on a straight-line basis over the life of the related lease or the estimated service life of the improvements, whichever is shorter. Depreciation and amortization expense is included as a component of general and administrative expense on the accompanying combined statements of income and comprehensive income.

F-9

Table of Contents

Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred, while betterments are capitalized. Fixed assets are subject to review for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable.

Assets Held-for-Sale

The Company classifies operating assets as held-for-sale in the period in which all of the following criteria are met:

Management possessing the necessary authority commits to a plan to sell the asset;

The asset is immediately available for sale in its present condition subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sales of such assets;

An active program to find a buyer and other actions required to execute the plan to sell the asset have commenced;

An assessment of remaining actions required to complete the plan indicates that it is unlikely that significant changes will be made to the plan or that the plan will be withdrawn;

Sale of the asset is probable, and transfer of the asset is expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year; and

The asset is being actively marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value. If an asset meets all of the held-for-sale criteria, it is classified as held-for-sale in the combined balance sheets and carried at the lower of (1) its carrying amount or (2) estimated fair value less costs to sell. In addition, an asset being held for sale ceases to be depreciated. During the year ended December 31, 2013, the Company listed its Gulfstream V aircraft (GV) for sale and classified it as held-for-sale (Note 7).

Revenue Recognition

Management and Real Estate Management Fees

Pursuant to the terms of management and advisory agreements with the general partners of certain Funds, Capital receives fees to provide defined management and advisory services to the Funds, including the identification, structuring, consummation, management, and disposition of investments, and to perform certain general partners duties and obligations with respect to reporting to, and communication with, the limited partners.

Pursuant to the terms of management and advisory agreements with certain Funds, Advisors is paid base management fees, capital incentive fees, and management service fees as defined in the agreements. Revenues are included in income as earned based on the rates and terms specified in the agreements. The Company has not recorded any revenue that is at risk due to future performance contingencies.

In certain circumstances, the Company has received payments for incentive fees in the form of common stock of CFI, which is typically awarded to employees under stock compensation arrangements. CFI common stock is included in investments on the accompanying combined balance sheets.

Pursuant to the terms of the Funds' agreements, Advisors provides real estate management services to the Funds, for which Advisors receives real estate management fees (REMF).

According to the terms of the agreements, REMF is bifurcated into (i) an asset management fee related to initial underwriting, and (ii) an ongoing management fee. The ongoing management fee portion is deferred and recognized as revenue over the expected holding period of each investment as it relates to ongoing services provided throughout the life of the investment. For the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, fee income related to REMF was $3,807,000, $8,994,000, $10,073,000, $9,229,000 and $6,057,000, respectively, and is included in management and advisory fees in the accompanying combined statements of income and comprehensive income. Deferred REMF as of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011 was $4,486,000, $4,681,000, $11,816,000 and $16,213,000, respectively.

Advisory Fees

The Company is entitled to receive advisory fees for providing real estate acquisition advisory services to certain of the Funds. The fees are recognized upon the closing of each acquisition transaction. For the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, advisory fees were $3,325,000, $892,000, $1,002,000, $550,000 and $0, respectively, and are included in other revenue in the accompanying combined statements of income and comprehensive income.

Cost Reimbursements

Expenses advanced on behalf of the Company's affiliates are presented on a net basis in the accompanying combined statements of income and comprehensive income if the Company determines it is not the primary obligor in the arrangement and does not bear any credit risk in the transaction. Typically, in such cases, the Company has discretion in determining whether to advance funds on behalf of its affiliates. Expenses in which the Company is the primary obligor, including internal salaries and/or overhead costs that are reimbursable from the Company's affiliates, are presented on a gross basis in the accompanying combined statements of income and comprehensive income, with reimbursements received included as a component of revenue.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The accompanying combined balance sheets include the following financial instruments: cash and cash equivalents, due to/from affiliates, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, and loans payable. The Company considers the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, due to/from affiliates, accounts payable, and accrued liabilities to approximate the fair values of these financial instruments based on the short duration between origination of the instruments and their expected realization. The fair value of the loans payable is estimated to be approximate to their carrying amounts given the Company's current borrowing rates for similar type instruments.

Income and Other Taxes

The Company is a combination of limited liability companies, which are considered a disregarded entity for federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, income or loss is generally included in the tax returns of the members. The Company, however, is subject to business taxes and state filing fees, which are included in general and administrative expenses. Additionally, certain foreign subsidiaries are subject to income taxes, which are shown separately as income tax expense in the accompanying combined statements of income and comprehensive income. Total income and other taxes aggregated $1,467,000, $956,000, $1,143,000, $1,192,000 and $1,895,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

In accordance with FASB ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes, the Company periodically evaluates its tax positions, including its status as a pass-through entity, to evaluate whether it is more likely than not that such positions would be sustained upon examination by a tax authority for all open tax years, as defined by the statute of limitations, based on the technical merits. As of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, no uncertain tax positions existed and as such no accrual was warranted.

Table of ContentsForeign Currency Translation Adjustments

Assets and liabilities of subsidiaries outside the United States with non-U.S. dollar functional currencies are translated into U.S. dollars using exchange rates as of the balance sheet dates. Income and expenses are translated using the average exchange rates for the reporting period. Foreign currency translation adjustments are recorded as a component of other comprehensive income.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) (ASU 2014-09), which will supersede existing revenue recognition guidance under U.S. GAAP and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). The core principle of the new guidance is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for the goods or services. To achieve the core principle, the guidance establishes a new five-step model which generally reduces the number of requirements that an entity must consider in recognizing revenue. Additionally, the guidance requires improved disclosures to help users of the financial statements better understand the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue that is recognized. ASU 2014-09 may be applied retrospectively to each prior period presented or retrospectively with the cumulative effect recognized as of the date of initial application. For nonpublic entities, the standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2016 in certain circumstances. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of adopting this new guidance on its combined financial statements.

3. Compensation

Pursuant to an employment agreement entered into in 2006, Mr. Saltzman, an executive of the Company, has the right to share in 40% of the adjusted net cash flow (subject to exceeding certain threshold levels) of the Company for each calendar year, as defined in the employment agreement. During the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, the Company recognized compensation expense of $0, $0, $0, $0 and $3,511,000, respectively, related to adjusted net cash flow payments due to the executive, of which $0, $0, $0, and $711,000 are unpaid and included in accrued liabilities at September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011.

In 2014 and 2012, the Company granted discretionary awards of CFI common stock received as payment for incentive fees to certain employees of the Company. The discretionary stock awards were 100% vested to the employees at the date of grant with no future performance or service obligations. The Company recorded compensation expense of $113,000 and $1,388,000 related to the grants for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and year ended December 31, 2012, respectively, which is included in compensation on the combined statements of income and comprehensive income. The amount of the expense was determined based on the fair value of the underlying stock on the date of grant.

The Company offers a discretionary incentive bonus program to its employees. Bonus expense was $23,879,000, $19,118,000, $28,474,000, $27,190,000 and $27,041,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, respectively. As of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, the unpaid bonus expense was $23,912,000, $10,474,000, $3,714,000 and $14,464,000, respectively.

4. Income-Sharing with Affiliated Entity

During 2006, the Company signed an agreement (Colyzeo Agreement) with an affiliated entity (Colyzeo Affiliate) whereby the Colyzeo Affiliate was entitled to management fee revenue generated by certain funds based on a formulaic calculation defined in the Colyzeo Agreement, which required the Colyzeo Affiliate to sponsor Colyzeo Investors II, L.P. and future European funds (Affiliated Funds). The Colyzeo Agreement allowed for the partnerships managed by the Company to participate on a side-by-side basis with the Affiliated Funds, beginning with Colony Investors VIII, L.P. The Colyzeo Agreement was terminated effective August 31, 2013 (Note 6).

F-12

The Company accrued income-sharing payments to the Colyzeo Affiliate of $0, $6,619,000, $4,453,000, $9,654,000 and $8,752,000, respectively, for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011. Additionally, as part of an acquisition of shares of an entity previously controlled by the Colyzeo Affiliate (Note 6), the Company received net assets from the Colyzeo Affiliate with an estimated fair value of $1,571,000 in exchange for nominal cash consideration. The excess of the net assets acquired over the cash consideration paid, totaling $1,553,000, was accounted for as a settlement of the preexisting relationship and is included as a component of income sharing with affiliated entity on the combined statements of income and comprehensive income.

As of September 30, 2014, all amounts owed to the Colyzeo Affiliate had been paid. As of December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011, $13,363,000, $16,562,000 and $20,109,000, respectively, of unpaid income-sharing payments are included in due to affiliates.

5. Investments

The Company's investments at September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011 are summarized as follows:

	September 30, 2014 (Unaudited)	2013	December 31, 2012	2011
CFI common stock, at fair value	$ 464,000	$ 114,000		$ 94,000
Investment in YAL				838,000
Total investments	$ 464,000	$ 114,000	$	$ 932,000

The accounting policies of the investees are substantially the same as those of the Company.

On October 13, 2011, the Company disposed an investment in Oakwood Asia Pacific resulting in a gain of $820,000 for the year ended December 31, 2011, summarized as follows:

Proceeds from disposition of investment	$ 3,500,000
Carrying value of investment	2,680,000
Gain on disposition of investment	$ 820,000

6. Business Combinations

Prior to March 31, 2012, the Company held an investment in YAL, which was accounted for using the equity method. On March 31, 2012, the Company acquired an additional 33.5% of ownership interest in YAL through Colony Capital Asia Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Capital from Shanghai Industrial Financial (Holdings) Company Limited. Since the acquisition resulted in the Company gaining control over YAL (83.5%), the transaction was accounted for as a business combination and YAL is combined in the Company's combined financial statements subsequent to the acquisition date. The remaining 16.5% of interest in YAL is reflected as noncontrolling interest.

On February 26, 2014, the Company entered into a Shares Transfer Agreement to purchase 100% of the shares of Colony Luxembourg S.a.r.l., a private limited liability company registered with the Luxembourg Register of Commerce and Company (LuxCo), for a total cash consideration of $16,000, of which $1,709,000 was attributed to identifiable assets, offset by $1,693,000 of other liabilities assumed. The results of operations have been combined with those of the Company subsequent to the date of the agreement.

On June 13, 2014 the Company executed a sale and purchase agreement (SPA) to acquire 100% of the shares of Colony Capital, SAS (SAS) from Bazeo Europe, a French simplified company wholly owned by the Colyzeo Affiliate, for nominal consideration. In accordance with the SPA, the transfer was effective as of August 31, 2013. Because the acquisition resulted in the Company gaining control over SAS, the transaction was accounted for as a business combination and SAS is consolidated in the Company s combined financial statements subsequent to the acquisition date. The acquired assets and liabilities, which consisted primarily of working capital, were recorded at their estimated fair value as of the acquisition date.

On September 17, 2014, the Company acquired 100% of the shares of Data Europe Founders S.a.r.l. (DEF), a private limited liability company registered in Luxembourg, for total cash consideration of $18,000 from Colyzeo Affiliate. DEF owns 100% of Data GenPar S.a.r.l., the manager of Data Center SCA and Data Services SCA which earns management fees. Since the estimated fair value of the net assets acquired exceeded the cash consideration paid for the shares, the excess was deemed to be a settlement of the preexisting relationship and was applied as an adjustment to amounts otherwise due to the Colyzeo Affiliate.

The pro forma impact of the business combinations for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and the years ended December 31, 2013, 2012 and 2011 was not material.

The assets and liabilities of each of the acquired entities are summarized as follows:

The credit facility is secured by certain assets of the Company and expires on December 3, 2014. Interest expense is payable quarterly in arrears, and is calculated at a rate of London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 4.55% or prime plus 3.55% based on the Company's election.

Interest expense incurred on the line of credit under the JPM Credit Facility was $42,000 and $2,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and year ended December 31, 2011. Pursuant to a side letter to the Colyzeo Investors, LP (Colyzeo I) limited partnership agreement between Colyzeo Affiliate and the Company, REMFs due from Colyzeo I investments can only be paid from the net investment revenues generated from such investment. During the year ended December 31, 2013, due to declines in the estimated fair values of certain investments held by Colyzeo I, which were deemed to be other-than-temporary in nature, the Company determined that a portion of the accrued REMFs receivable from Colyzeo I are no longer collectible. As a result, the Company recognized $3,426,000 (2,500,000) of bad debt expense associated with the Colyzeo I REMF fees receivable, which is included as a component of general and administrative expenses in the accompanying combined statements of income and comprehensive income.

During 2012 and prior years, the Company received distributions of $528,000, which were applied to reduce the amount of the note receivable. During the year ended December 31, 2012, due to decreases in the estimated fair values of the investments associated with the note, the Company recorded an allowance to reduce the carrying amount of the note to $180,000, representing the expected future carried interest distributions to be received from the Funds and recognized the bad debt expense of $1,292,000 which is included in general and administrative expenses in the accompanying combined statements of income and comprehensive income.

2017	3,063,000
2018	2,234,000
Thereafter	9,619,000
	$ 24,203,000

The leases provide for payment of certain operating expenses applicable to the leased premises, as well as escalation clauses. The Company's commitments and contingencies include the usual obligations incurred in the normal and ordinary course of business. The Company is not currently involved in any litigation matters that are expected to have a material effect on the Company's combined financial statements.

11. Subsequent Events

On October 24, 2014, the Company sold the GV for $12,500,000 and paid off the remaining GV Note of $8,413,000 (Note 8).

On December 23, 2014, the Company and CFI announced that the parties had signed a definitive agreement for the Proposed Transaction. The agreement contemplates that the combined company will be led by Thomas J. Barrack, Jr. as Executive Chairman and, Richard B. Saltzman as Chief Executive Officer, will employ the full management and investment team of the Company and will include the contribution of the Company's management contracts for its existing real estate and non-real estate funds and investment vehicles, other than the Retained Businesses. Upon closing of the Proposed Transaction, CFI will have the right to conduct all future Company-branded investment activities, including the formation of real estate and non-real estate private investment funds, and will own the Company's name and related intellectual property. The Proposed Transaction is subject to prior approval by CFI's stockholders.

The form of consideration payable by CFI in the Proposed Transaction will be entirely in CFI's Class A or Class B common stock and/or units of CFI's operating partnership (exchangeable for shares of CFI's common stock or their equivalent in cash and to include associated voting rights), based upon a reference price of $22.05 for purposes of determining the number of shares and units to be issued. Since the aggregate number of shares and/or OP units to be issued in the Proposed Transaction was fixed as of December 23, 2014, the total fair value of the aggregate consideration may increase or decrease prior to closing, based upon changes in CFI's share price.

The aggregate consideration will be payable to the Company as follows:

up to approximately 2.83 million shares of Class A Common Stock, 566,635 shares of Class B Common Stock and approximately 21.44 million OP Units will be issued as upfront consideration, subject to certain adjustments;

up to approximately 1.11 million shares of Class A common stock, 98,958 shares of Class B common stock and approximately 3.78 million OP Units will be issued as contingent consideration post-closing, subject to multi-year performance targets for achievement of certain funds from operations per share targets and capital-raising thresholds from the funds management businesses. If the minimum performance target for either of these metrics is not met or exceeded, the contingent consideration paid in respect of the other metric would not be paid out in full; and up to 151,520 shares of Class A Common Stock, 13,494 shares of Class B Common Stock and 515,258 OP Units of the contingent consideration issuable post-closing may be reallocated to upfront consideration issuable at the Closing if the volume-weighted average closing price of CFI common stock over the 10 trading days prior to the 10th calendar day preceding the date of a shareholder vote in connection with the Proposed Transaction were to exceed $24.05, with the full amount reallocated if such volume-weighted average closing price of CFI common stock were to exceed $27.05.

Pursuant to the Proposed Transaction, all of the Company's senior executives will become employed by CFI (to be renamed Colony Capital, Inc.). In order to further demonstrate their collective long term commitment to CFI's business, in accordance with the terms of the agreement, Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman have entered into five-year employment agreements and related lock-up arrangements with CFI, which, subject to certain exceptions for estate planning, partial share pledges and tax-related sales, will generally restrict them from transferring their respective interests in CFI's operating partnership units and/or shares received in connection with the Proposed Transaction over the same period as their respective employment agreement terms, following the closing (if any) of the Proposed Transaction (the locked-up shares would be ratably reduced over such period). Messrs. Barrack and Saltzman also have entered into non-competition arrangements with CFI, each of which will provide for clawback as to a material portion of the Proposed Transaction consideration in the event such individuals violate the non-compete restrictions during the same period as their respective lock-ups. The employment agreements, and related lock-ups and non-competition arrangements would become effective at the closing of the Proposed Transaction. Certain other key senior executives are expected to enter into three-year employment agreements and related lock-up agreements prior to the closing of the Proposed Transaction.

The Proposed Transaction is expected to close in the first half of 2015 and remains subject to regulatory approvals, approval of a supermajority of two-thirds of CFI's disinterested shareholders voting at the shareholder's meeting and certain other customary closing conditions.

The Company has evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through January 21, 2015, which is the date these financial statements were available to be issued.

Table of Contents2.3 Consents relating to CC Contributed Assets and CFI Contributed Assets.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, this Agreement does not constitute an agreement to contribute, convey, transfer, assign and deliver any interest in any CC Contributed Asset or any CFI Contributed Asset, or any claim, right, benefit or obligation arising thereunder or resulting therefrom if a contribution, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery, or an attempt to make such a contribution, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery, without the Consent of a Third Party would (i) constitute a breach or other contravention of the rights of such Third Party, (ii) be ineffective with respect to any party to a Contract concerning such CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset, (iii) upon transfer, in any way adversely affect the rights of NewCo or OP under such CC Contributed Asset or such CFI Contributed Asset, as applicable, or (iv) conflict with or violate any applicable Law. If the contribution, conveyance, transfer, assignment or delivery by CC Holdings, CC or CCH to NewCo, or CFI to OP, as applicable, of any interest in, or assumption by NewCo or OP, as applicable, of any Liability under, any CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset requires the Consent of a Third Party, then such contribution, conveyance, assignment, transfer, delivery or assumption shall be subject to such Consent being obtained. (b) If any Consent in respect of a CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset has not been obtained on or before the CC Contribution Closing Date or the CFI Contribution Closing Date, as applicable, CC Holdings, CC, CCH or CFI, as applicable, shall continue to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain such Consent as promptly as practicable after the CC Contribution Closing Date or the CFI Contribution Closing Date, as applicable until such time as such Consent has been obtained, and to cooperate in any lawful and reasonable arrangement which shall provide NewCo or OP, as applicable, the benefits and burdens of any such CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset, including subcontracting, licensing or sublicensing to NewCo or OP, as applicable, any or all of CC Holdings, CC, CCH or CFI's rights with respect to such CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset and including the enforcement for the benefit of NewCo or OP, as applicable, of any and all rights of CC Holdings, CC, CCH or CFI, as applicable, against a Third Party thereunder. Once a Consent for the contribution, conveyance, transfer, assignment and delivery of a CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset is obtained, CC Holdings, CC, CCH or CFI, as applicable, shall promptly assign, transfer, convey and deliver such CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset to NewCo or OP, as applicable, and NewCo or OP, shall assume the obligations under such CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset assigned to it from and after the date of assignment to NewCo or OP. If and when such Consents are obtained or such other required actions have been taken, the transfer of such CC Contributed Asset or CFI Contributed Asset shall be effected in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Nothing in this Section 2.3 shall be deemed a waiver by CFI, NewCo or OP of their rights under this Agreement, nor shall this Section 2.3 be deemed to constitute an agreement to exclude from the CC Contributed Assets any of the assets described under Section 2.1(a) or to exclude from CFI Contributed Assets any of the assets described under Section 2.2(a).

(ii) Benchmark FFO means net income allocable to common shareholders and OP Common Unit holders of CFI (computed in accordance with GAAP), excluding (A) realized gains (or losses) from sales of real estate and non-real estate assets, (B) realized and unrealized performance fees related to the real estate and non-real estate private fund business, net of respective performance compensation expenses, (C) purchase accounting adjustments arising from the transaction, (D) real estate depreciation and amortization and (E) adjustments related to changes in GAAP during the FFO Measurement Period, in all cases after adjustments for CFI's proportionate share of such items from unconsolidated partnerships and joint ventures. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Benchmark FFO will (i) include (A) the unrealized fair value gains and losses from CFI GP Investments, (B) realized investment income, gains and losses from CFI GP Investments, and (ii) exclude (A) any potential expenses related to contingent consideration, (B) any payment pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement, (C) transaction costs, remeasurement gains and losses arising from the transaction, and amortization of intangible assets, liabilities and step-up adjustments recognized as a result of the transaction, (D) realized gains and losses related to sales of CFI's interest in the Colony American Homes platform and (E) realized gains and losses from sale of non-real estate assets other than those related to CFI GP Investments. Benchmark FFO is not intended to represent funds from operations (FFO) or adjusted FFO in accordance with the NAREIT definition.

(iii) Benchmark FFO Per Share means, with respect to the FFO Measurement Period, (A) Benchmark FFO for each individual year, independent of prior and forward years, during such FFO Measurement Period, divided by (B) the benchmark weighted average (weighted quarterly in each year of the FFO Measurement Period by the weighted average shares outstanding in each quarter ending shares outstanding balance and the days in the quarter) number of basic shares of CFI Class A Common Stock outstanding during each year of such FFO Measurement Period, which represents (w) the weighted average (as defined above) number of basic shares of CFI Class A Common Stock outstanding that is used to calculate basic earnings per share (in accordance with GAAP) for each year of such FFO Measurement Period, minus (x) the weighted average (as defined above) number of basic shares of CFI Class A common stock then outstanding that were issued as Consideration hereunder (or pursuant to any exchange or redemption of Consideration) already included in weighted average basic shares outstanding for each year during such FFO Measurement Period, plus (y) the fixed amount of 27,691,610 shares of CFI Class A common stock outstanding as hypothetical potential equity consideration. For avoidance of doubt, the calculation specified in clause (B) is intended to (1) include, without duplication, the fixed amount of 27,691,610 underlying shares of CFI Class A common stock outstanding from $610.06 million of potential equity consideration regardless of actual performance, and (2) not to be affected by the Reallocation Factor.

(iv) CFI GP Investments means any investments made by CFI or its Subsidiaries as a general partner, a limited partner, or a member in the private fund business, including real estate and non-real estate funds, vehicles and other investment products.

(v) FFO Additional Contingent Consideration Amount shall equal $127,600,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor multiplied by the difference between (A) the quotient of (i) the Benchmark Cumulative FFO divided by (ii) the FFO Target minus (B) 1.00; provided, that, FFO Additional Contingent Consideration Amount shall not exceed $15,950,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor.

(vi) FFO Additional Contingent Payment Units shall equal (i) Zero, if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO is smaller than or equal to the FFO Target; and (ii) FFO Additional Contingent Consideration Amount divided by the Reference CFI Common Stock Price, if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO is greater than the FFO Target.

(vii) FFO Contingent Consideration Amount shall equal $252,400,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor multiplied by the difference between (A) the quotient of (i) the Benchmark

Cumulative FFO divided by (ii) the FFO Target minus (B) 0.875; provided, that FFO Contingent Consideration Amount shall not exceed $31,550,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor.

(viii) FFO Contingent Payment Units shall equal (i) Zero, if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO is smaller than or equal to the FFO Lower Threshold; and (ii) FFO Contingent Consideration Amount divided by the Reference CFI Common Stock Price, if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO is greater than the FFO Lower Threshold.

(ix) FFO Lower Threshold means the FFO Target multiplied by 87.5%.

(x) FFO Measurement Period means the three-year period beginning on the first day of the first fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing Date.

(xi) FFO Target means $6.06 per share of CFI Class A Common Stock.

(xii) Non-RE Capital Raise Target means $500 million.

Non-RE Cumulative Capital Raise calculation excludes potential CFI GP Investment in such non-real estate funds, investment vehicles and other investment products. For clarification purposes, it also excludes any CFI shareholder capital raise in the public equity market during the two-year period beginning on the first day of the first full fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing Date, but does not exclude any other form of private or public capital raise for its non-real estate funds, investment vehicles and other investment products.

(xiv) Qualified Third-Party Capital for any category of capital means the sum across all funds, investment vehicles and other investment products within such category of capital of an amount equal to, for each such fund, investment vehicle or investment product, (A) the amount of third-party capital committed to such fund, investment vehicle or investment product, multiplied by (B) the sum of: (i) (x) 60% multiplied by (y) the fee to be charged on net funded equity or limited partner capital commitments as an annual management fee expressed in basis points, divided by (z) 125 basis points; plus (ii) (x) 40%, multiplied by (y) the percentage to be charged on investment returns above an IRR hurdle (consistent with market terms for funds, investment vehicles or investment products investing in similar asset classes) as carried interest of such fund, investment vehicle or investment product expressed as a percentage; provided, that such fund is on other terms consistent with market terms for funds investing in similar asset classes, divided by (z) 17%, provided, further, that third-party capital shall exclude capital raised for Colony Distressed Credit and Special Situation Fund III, L.P. and ColCo Strategic Partners III, L.P. For purposes of this definition, the calculation of any management fee or carried interest with respect to any third-party capital raised in a fund, investment vehicle or other investment product shall be determined on a blended basis within such fund, investment vehicle or investment product.

(xv) RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration Amount shall equal $63,800,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor multiplied by the difference between (A) the quotient of (i) the RE Cumulative Capital Raise divided by (ii) the RE Capital Raise Target minus (B) 1.00; provided, that, RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration Amount shall not exceed $15,950,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor.

(xvi) RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units shall equal (i) Zero, if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise is smaller than or equal to the RE Capital Raise Target; and (ii) RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Consideration Amount divided by the Reference CFI Common Stock Price, if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise is greater than the RE Capital Raise Target.

(xvii) RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration Amount shall equal $126,200,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor multiplied by the difference between (A) the quotient of (i) the RE Cumulative Capital Raise divided by (ii) the RE Capital Raise Target minus (B) 0.75; provided, that, RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration Amount shall not exceed $31,550,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor.

(xviii) RE Capital Raise Contingent Payment Units shall equal (i) Zero, if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise is smaller than or equal to the RE Capital Raise Lower Threshold; and (ii) RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration Amount divided by the Reference CFI Common Stock Price, if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise is greater than the RE Capital Raise Lower Threshold.

(xix) RE Capital Raise Lower Threshold means the RE Capital Raise Target multiplied by 75.0%.

(xx) RE Capital Raise Measurement Period means the two-year period beginning on the first day of the first full fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing Date; provided that, by written notice to CFI prior to the last day of the two-year measurement period, CC has the option, at its sole discretion, to extend the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period for an additional year such that the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period would mean the three-year period beginning on the first day of the first full fiscal quarter beginning on or after the Closing Date.

(xxi) RE Capital Raise Target means $3,975,000,000 if the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period if the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period is two years in duration, and $6,650,000,000 if the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period is three years in duration.

(xxii) RE Cumulative Capital Raise means, without duplication, the cumulative amount of (i) Qualified Third-Party Capital that is raised in real estate funds, vehicles and other investment products during the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period, (ii) to the extent the Non-RE Capital Raise Target is achieved, the cumulative amount of any Qualified Third-Party Capital relating to real estate listed securities hedge fund strategies in excess of the Non-RE Capital Raise Target, and (iii) Qualified Third-Party Capital relating to listed securities non-hedge fund strategies that are predominantly real estate-related; provided that any such capital raised in the fourth quarter of 2014 will be counted for purposes of calculating the RE Cumulative Capital Raise. RE Cumulative Capital Raise calculation excludes potential CFI GP Investment in such real estate funds, vehicles and other investment products. For clarification purposes, it also excludes any CFI shareholder capital raise in the public equity market during the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period, but does not exclude any other form of private or public capital raise for real estate vehicles and other investment products.

(b) Aggregate Contingent Payment. At the Closing, CFI will cause OP to issue, a number of OP Common Units equal to (i) the excess of (A) Aggregate Contingent Consideration over (B) the Reallocated Consideration divided by (ii) the Reference CFI Common Stock Price to be held, together with any distributions thereon, in a separate account (the Contingent Consideration Account) in accordance with the terms of this Section 3.5. OP will hold and manage the Contingent Consideration Account and the amounts therein, solely for purposes of this Section 3.5.

(c) In consideration of the Contribution to OP at the Closing, the following amounts of OP Common Units shall be delivered by OP from the Contingent Consideration Account to each Contributor as Contingent Consideration:

(i) if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO equals or exceeds the FFO Lower Threshold, (A) the FFO Contingent Payment Units (as may be adjusted in Section 3.5(d)), multiplied by (B) the Allocation Factor, multiplied by (C) such Contributor's Applicable Contingent Consideration Percentage;

(ii) if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise equals or exceeds the RE Capital Raise Lower Threshold, (A) the RE Capital Raise Contingent Payment Units (as may be adjusted in Section 3.5(d)) multiplied by (B) the Allocation Factor; multiplied by (C) such Contributor's Applicable Contingent Consideration Percentage;

(iii) if the Non-RE Cumulative Capital Raise equals or exceeds the Non-RE Capital Raise Target, a number of OP Common Units equal to the quotient of (1) (A) $15,000,000 multiplied by the Reallocation Factor divided by (B) the Reference CFI Common Stock Price (Non-RE Capital Raise Contingent Payment Units) multiplied by (2) the Allocation Factor multiplied by (3) such Contributor's Applicable Contingent Consideration Percentage;

(iv) if the Benchmark Cumulative FFO exceeds the FFO Target, (A) the FFO Additional Contingent Payment Units multiplied by (B) the Allocation Factor multiplied by (C) such Contributor's Applicable Contingent Consideration Percentage;; and

(v) if the RE Cumulative Capital Raise exceeds the RE Capital Raise Target, (A) the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units multiplied by (B) the Allocation Factor multiplied by (C) such Contributor's Applicable Contingent Consideration Percentage.

(d) Additional Contingent Consideration Adjustments. In the event that the FFO Additional Contingent Payment Units become due pursuant to Section 3.5(c) but the RE Capital Raise Lower Threshold had not been met as of the end of the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period, then the number of the FFO Additional Contingent Payment Units that OP would have otherwise been obligated to deliver shall be reduced by half (rounded up to the nearest unit). In the event that the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units become due pursuant to Section 3.5(c) but the FFO Lower Threshold had not been met as of the end of the FFO Measurement Period, then the number of the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units that OP would have otherwise been obligated to deliver pursuant to Section 3.5(c) shall be reduced by half (rounded up to the nearest unit).

(e) Contingent Consideration Statements.

(i) Promptly following (but within 60 days thereafter) the earlier of (A) the expiration of the RE Capital Raise Measurement Period or (B) such time when CC delivers a written notice to CFI requesting payment of the RE Capital Raise Contingent Payment Units and the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units, if any, CFI will, under the direction of the independent and disinterested members of the CFI Board (the Independent Directors) prepare a statement setting forth the RE Cumulative Capital Raise and its calculation of the RE Capital Raise Contingent Payment Units and if any, the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units and provide such preliminary statement to CC for review together with supporting detail from which the statement has been prepared (each, a RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration Statement).

(ii) Promptly following the expiration of the FFO Measurement Period (but within 60 days thereafter), CFI will, under the direction of the Independent Directors, prepare a statement setting forth the Benchmark FFO Per Share and its calculation of the FFO Contingent Payment Units and the FFO Additional Contingent Payment Units, if any and provide such preliminary statement to CC for review together with supporting detail from which the statement has been prepared (each, a FFO Contingent Consideration Statement).

(iii) Promptly following the expiration of the Non-RE Capital Raise Measurement Period (but within 60 days thereafter), CFI will, under the direction of the Independent Directors, prepare a statement setting forth the Non-RE Cumulative Capital Raise and its calculation of the Non-RE Capital Raise Contingent Payment Units and provide such preliminary statement to CC for review together with supporting detail from which the statement has been prepared (each, a Non-RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration Statement and together with the RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration Statement and the FFO Contingent Consideration Statement, the Contingent Consideration Statements and each, a Contingent Consideration Statement).

(f) CFI shall cooperate with CC in good faith to assist CC in its review of each Contingent Consideration Statement and shall make appropriate information and personnel of CFI reasonably available to CC, and use their commercially reasonable efforts to make appropriate personnel and advisors of CFI available to CC, to discuss and answer questions with respect to the Contingent Consideration Statement. During the period within 30 Business Days of receipt of such Contingent Consideration Statement by CC (each, a Contingent Consideration Dispute Period), CC may dispute all or a portion of the relevant Contingent Consideration Statement by giving a Notice of Disagreement (a Notice of Disagreement) relating to such Contingent Consideration Statement to CFI setting forth in reasonable detail the basis for any such disagreement relating to such Contingent Consideration Statement. The parties shall promptly commence good faith negotiations with a view to resolving all such disagreements. If CC does not provide a Notice of Disagreement relating to a Contingent Consideration Statement to CFI within the Contingent Consideration Dispute Period, CC shall be deemed to have irrevocably accepted such Contingent Consideration Statement in the form delivered to it by CFI. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3.5(f) to the contrary, at CC's election, CC may provide a written notice to CFI at any time during the Contingent Consideration Dispute Period that it has accepted such Contingent Consideration Statement in the form delivered to it by CFI, and such acceptance shall be deemed a final determination for the purposes of this Section 3.5.

(g) If CC delivers a Notice of Disagreement pursuant to Section 3.5(f) and CC and CFI are unable to resolve all disagreements within 30 Business Days following the delivery of such Notice of Disagreement, such disagreement shall thereafter be referred to the Accounting Firm for a resolution of such disagreement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. CC and CFI shall each be party to the engagement letter entered into with the Accounting Firm. If any remaining issues in dispute are submitted to the Accounting Firm for resolution, each of CC and CFI will be afforded an opportunity to present to the Accounting Firm any material relating to the determination of the matters in dispute and to discuss such matters with the Accounting Firm. The Accounting Firm shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator to calculate, based solely on the written submissions of CFI, on the one hand, and CC, on the other, and not by independent investigation, the applicable Contingent Consideration Statement and shall be instructed that its calculation (A) must be made in accordance with the standards and definitions in this Agreement, and (B) with respect to each item in dispute, must be within the range of values established for such amount as determined by reference to the value assigned to such amount by CFI in the applicable Contingent Consideration Statement and CC in the applicable Notice of Disagreement. CC and CFI shall instruct the Accounting Firm that the determinations of such firm with respect to any disagreement shall be rendered within 30 Business Days after referral of the disagreement to such firm or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible. The Accounting Firm shall make a determination with respect to any unresolved disagreement only in a manner consistent with this Section 3.5, and in no event shall the Accounting Firm's determination of the unresolved disagreements be for an amount that is outside the range of CC's and CFI's proposals with respect to each individual disagreement. Such determinations shall be final and binding upon the parties, and the amount so determined shall be used to complete the applicable Contingent Consideration Statement. Each of CC and CFI shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Accounting Firm to render its determination within the 30 Business Day period described in this Section 3.5(g), and each shall cooperate with such firm and provide such firm with access to its books, records, personnel and Representatives and such other information as such firm may require in order to render its determination. The fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be borne by the party whose proposed Contingent Consideration Amount as reflected in such party's submission to the Accounting Firm differs the most from the Contingent Consideration Amount (as applicable) finally determined by the Accounting Firm (or, if such differences of the parties are equal, equally by CC and CFI).

(h) Promptly after a Contingent Consideration Statement has become final in accordance with this Section 3.5 (including by means of a deemed acceptance of such documents by CC or CFI), but in no event later than five with their respective Applicable Contingent Consideration Percentage from the Contingent Consideration Account such number of the applicable FFO Additional Contingent Payment Units, FFO Contingent Payment Units, RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units, RE Capital Raise Contingent Payment Units, or Non-RE Capital Raise Contingent Payment Units (together with an amount in cash equal to any distributions that would have been declared thereon between Closing and the date of the applicable issuance had such Units been issued at Closing) as finally determined; provided, that CC shall direct OP to (i) reduce the number of any such Units to be so transferred by an amount equal to be paid in respect of the amount of fees and expenses incurred by or on behalf of, or paid or payable by, CC in respect of Contingent Consideration, with such Units being valued at the Reference CFI Class A Common Stock Price (and which reduction of Units shall not, for the avoidance of doubt, reduce the amount of distributions payable on such Units in accordance with the foregoing), and (ii) pay to the Persons to which such fees and expenses are due the applicable amounts as set forth in such notice in accordance with the payment instructions therein; provided that, if at the time of the finalization of the RE Capital Raise Contingent Consideration Statement, the FFO Contingent Consideration Statement has not been prepared or finalized, OP shall transfer to the Contributors in accordance with their respective Applicable Contingent Consideration Percentage, with respect to the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units, only half of the number of RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units (rounded to the nearest unit) as finally determined in accordance with this Section 3.5. Upon such time when the FFO Contingent Consideration Statement is finalized, if Benchmark Cumulative FFO is greater than the FFO Lower Threshold, OP shall transfer to the Contributors in accordance with their respective Applicable Contingent Consideration Percentage the other half of the RE Capital Raise Additional Contingent Payment Units (rounded to the nearest unit) (together with an amount in cash equal to any distributions that would have been declared thereon between Closing and the date of the applicable issuance had such OP Common Units been issued at Closing); provided, that, upon prior written notice of CC, CC may direct OP to, and OP shall (i) reduce the number of any such Units to be so transferred by an amount equal to be paid in respect of the amount of fees and expenses incurred by or on behalf of, or paid or payable by, CC in respect of Contingent Consideration, with such Units being valued at the Reference CFI Class A Common Stock Price (and which reduction of Units shall not, for the avoidance of doubt, reduce the amount of distributions payable on such Units in accordance with the foregoing), and (ii) pay to the Persons to which such fees and expenses are due the applicable amounts as set forth in such notice in accordance with the payment instructions therein. Promptly after a Contingent Consideration Statement has become final in accordance with this Section 3.5 (including by means of a deemed acceptance of such documents by CC or CFI), but in no event later than five Business Days following such final determination, if the Contingent Consideration Account holds more OP Common Units than OP could in any event be obligated to transfer to the Contributors as Contingent Consideration pursuant to this Section 3.5, OP shall remove such excess OP Common Units from the Contingent Consideration Account and cancel such excess OP Common Units. It is acknowledged that at any time when any OP Common Units are delivered from OP pursuant to this Section 3.5, a portion of such OP Common Units approximately equal to the amount determined by multiplying the number of such OP Common Units by 22.123% will, promptly after such delivery, be exchanged by CC for shares of CFI Class A Common Stock.

(i) Any payment under this Section 3.5 shall be treated as an adjustment to the Consideration for any Tax purposes, except as otherwise required by applicable Law (including a determination of a Tax Authority that, under applicable Law, is not subject to further review or appeal).

3.6 Certain Adjustments. If after the date hereof and on or prior to the Closing, the outstanding shares of CFI Common Stock (or CFI Class A Common Stock) shall be changed into a different number of shares by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization or combination, stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend or rights issued in respect of such CFI Common Stock (or CFI Class A Common Stock), or any similar event shall occur (any such action, an Adjustment Event), the Reference CFI Common Stock Price shall be adjusted accordingly to provide to the Contributors the same economic benefits as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such Adjustment Event.

3.7 Withholding. CFI, OP, and their respective Subsidiaries shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration payable hereunder the amounts required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any applicable provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law, and the relevant withholding Person shall timely remit to the appropriate Authority any and all amounts so deducted or withheld and timely file all Tax Returns required to be filed under applicable Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld or paid over to or deposited with the relevant Authority in accordance with the foregoing, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

(a) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the execution of this Agreement, CFI shall prepare and file a proxy statement in preliminary form and related materials with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Issuance and the Charter Amendment (together with all amendments and supplements thereto, the Proxy Statement). Subject to Section 7.9, CFI, through the CFI Board and the Special Committee, shall include the Recommendation in the Proxy Statement and use reasonable best efforts to solicit Requisite CFI Stockholder Approvals. Except as may be required by Law, no filing of, or amendment or supplement to, the Proxy Statement shall be made by CFI without first providing CC and its counsel reasonable opportunity to review and comment thereon and, consider in good faith, acting reasonably, such comments prior to such filing. Thereafter, CFI shall use its reasonable best efforts to have the Proxy Statement cleared by the SEC. The parties shall cooperate with each other in the preparation of the Proxy Statement, and CFI shall promptly advise CC after it receives oral or written notice thereof, of the time when the Proxy Statement has been cleared or any supplement or amendment has been filed, or any oral or written request by the SEC for an amendment of the Proxy Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information and shall promptly provide CC with copies of any written communication from the SEC or any state securities commission. CFI will respond as promptly as reasonably practicable to any comments that CFI or its counsel may receive from time to time from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Proxy Statement and use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Proxy Statement to be disseminated to the stockholders of CFI in definitive form as promptly as reasonably practicable, as and to the extent required by applicable Law.

(b) CFI shall establish a record date for and cause a meeting of its stockholders to be duly called and held as soon as reasonably practicable for the purpose of obtaining Requisite CFI Stockholder Approvals (such meeting, the CFI Stockholders Meeting). Subject to applicable Law and Section 7.9, CFI shall use its reasonable best efforts to solicit from its stockholders proxies in favor of the Issuance and the Charter Amendment and to secure Requisite CFI Stockholder Approvals, including by using its reasonable best efforts, in accordance with applicable Law and the Organizational Documents of CFI, to convene a CFI Stockholders Meeting as promptly as reasonably practicable. CFI will keep CC updated with respect to proxy solicitation results as reasonably requested by CC.

(c) If, at any time after the mailing of the definitive Proxy Statement and prior to CFI Stockholders Meeting, any event should occur that, in the opinion of counsel to CC or CFI, results in the Proxy Statement containing an untrue statement of a material fact or omitting to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, or that otherwise should be described in an amendment or supplement to the Proxy

Statement, the parties shall promptly notify each other of the occurrence of such event and then CFI shall promptly prepare (with the cooperation of CC), file and clear with the SEC such amendment or supplement that CFI determines to be necessary or advisable and CFI shall, as may be required by the SEC, mail to its stockholders each such amendment or supplement.

7.9 Change of Recommendation.

(a) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 7.9, neither the CFI Board nor any committee thereof (including the Special Committee) shall (i) withhold, withdraw, modify or qualify (in a manner adverse to CC), or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing, the Recommendation or (ii) fail to include the Recommendation in the Proxy Statement (any such action being referred to as a Change of Recommendation).

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, prior to the time the Requisite CFI Stockholder Approvals are obtained, the Special Committee may effect a Change of Recommendation (in which case the CFI Board shall effect a corresponding Change of Recommendation), if, and only if:

(i) the CFI Board or the Special Committee determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law and CFI shall have complied with all of its obligations under this Section 7.9;

(ii) CFI shall have provided prior written notice to CC, at least three Business Days in advance, that the CFI Board or the Special Committee intends to effect a Change of Recommendation, which notice shall specify, in reasonable detail the basis for the Change of Recommendation;

(iii) after providing such notice and prior to the Special Committee and the CFI Board effecting such Change of Recommendation, CFI shall, and shall cause its Representatives to, negotiate with CC in good faith (to the extent CC desires to negotiate) during such three Business Day period to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would permit the Special Committee and the CFI Board not to effect a Change of Recommendation; and

(iv) the Special Committee shall have considered in good faith any changes to this Agreement that may be offered in writing by CC no later than 5:00 PM Eastern time on the third Business Day of such three Business Day period in a manner that would form a binding contract if accepted by CFI and shall have determined, after consultation with its financial advisor and outside legal counsel, that failure of the CFI Board or the Special Committee to effect a Change of Recommendation would continue to be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law, if such changes were to be given effect; provided that in the event of any material change in the circumstances giving rise to the Change of Recommendation, CFI shall be required to deliver a new written notice to CC and to comply with the requirements of this Section 7.9 with respect to such new written notice, except that in such case the three Business Day period referenced to in Section 7.9(b)(ii) and (iii) shall be two Business Days.

7.10 Reasonable Best Efforts; Expenses.

(a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, each of the parties hereto shall use its respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable Laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each of the parties hereto shall use its respective reasonable best efforts to comply as promptly as practicable with any other Laws of any Authority that are applicable to any of the transactions contemplated hereby or by the Ancillary Documents to which it is a party and pursuant to which any consent, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, any Authority or any other Person in connection with such transactions is necessary. Without limiting the foregoing, as soon as reasonably practicable and in any event within 15 Business Days (or such longer period as the parties may mutually agree) following the execution and delivery of this Agreement, CFI and CC will each file a Notification and Report Form and related material with the United States Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice under the HSR Act. The parties will each use its respective reasonable best efforts, and will cooperate with each other, to cause the waiting period under the HSR Act to expire or terminate.

(b) Each of the parties hereto shall use its respective reasonable best efforts to obtain or give, as promptly as practicable, any other consent, approval or notice required to be obtained from or given to any Third Party in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents.

(c) The parties each shall furnish to the others such necessary information and reasonable assistance as the other may reasonably request in connection with its preparation of any filing, registration or declaration which is necessary under any Laws. The parties shall keep each other apprised of the status of any communications with, and any inquiries or requests for additional information from, any Authority (or other Person regarding any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Ancillary Documents) in respect of any such filing, registration or declaration, and shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to comply promptly with any such inquiry or request (and, unless precluded by Law, provide copies of any such communications that are in writing).

(d) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each party shall use its respective reasonable best efforts to cause the Closing to occur as promptly as practicable following the date hereof, including by defending against any Proceedings challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and seeking to have any preliminary injunction, temporary restraining order, stay or other legal restraint or prohibition entered or imposed by any court or other Authority that is not yet final and nonappealable, vacated or reversed.

(e) CFI shall have the responsibility for, and pay, the costs of all filing fees associated with the filings and notifications with, and consents by, Authorities in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including any HSR Act filings or similar filings.

7.11 Directors and Officers Indemnification Insurance and Covered Persons.

(a) For a period of six years after the Closing Date, except as otherwise required by Law, CFI shall cause the Organizational Documents of NewCo, and will not take any action to cause the Organizational Documents of CRP, to contain provisions relating to the exculpation, indemnification or advancement of expenses of any current or former officers and directors that are no less favorable to such Persons than those contained in the Organizational Documents of CC or CRP (as the case may be) and CFI as in effect on the date hereof; provided, that, any current or former officers and directors shall be entitled to exculpation, indemnification and advancement of expenses to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law for any acts or omissions that occurred on or prior to the Closing Date, notwithstanding the terms of indemnification and expense reimbursement applicable to such Persons that were in effect at the time of the act or omission in question. In addition, for a period of six years after the Closing Date, CFI shall not, and shall not permit NewCo or any Subject Entity to, amend, repeal or modify any provision in NewCo's or such Subject Entity's Organizational Documents relating to the exculpation, indemnification or advancement of expenses of any current or former officers and directors (including the provisions contemplated by the immediately preceding sentence) unless required to do so by Law.

(b) At or prior to the Closing Date, CFI shall, or shall cause OP to, purchase a tail insurance policy with respect to the existing directors and officers liability insurance coverage for directors and officers of NewCo and Subject Entities (and former directors and officers of the Retained Entities to the extent such conduct related to the management of the and officers with coverage for six (6) years following the Closing Date (including with respect to acts or omissions occurring in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby); provided, that CFI shall not be obligated to purchase any policy with a cost in excess of 250% of CC's annual premium for 2014 for such existing directors and officers liability insurance. CFI shall, or shall cause OP to, maintain the D&O Tail in full force and effect during the six (6) year period following the Closing Date.

(c) For a period of six years after the Closing Date, CFI shall indemnify and hold harmless the Covered Persons (as defined in the CFI Management Agreement) to the same extent (including with respect to any advancement of expenses) as provided in the CFI Management Agreement as in effect immediately prior to the Closing for any acts or omissions occurring on or prior to the Closing Date which provisions shall be deemed to survive notwithstanding any termination of such CFI Management Agreement.

(d) In the event that CFI or OP (following the Closing) or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors or assigns of CFI or OP, as the case may be, shall succeed to the obligations set forth in this Section 7.11. The provisions of this Section 7.11 are intended for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each current and former officer, director or similar functionary of NewCo and each Subject Entity (including any Covered Person (as defined in the CFI Management Agreement)) and his or her heirs and representatives, and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such person may have had by contract or otherwise.

7.12 Modification of Existing Restrictions on Transfer and Ownership of Shares. CFI and the OP shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take actions necessary to cause the Organizational Documents of any entity in which the OP has a direct or indirect interest to not restrict or prohibit the Issuance and ownership of the New Units or shares of CFI Common Stock (or, following the Charter Amendment, CFI Class A Common Stock or CFI Class B Common Stock) by CC and/or its direct or indirect owners, other than any restriction or prohibition contemplated by the Organizational Documents of CFI, this Agreement or the Ancillary Documents.

7.13 Section 704(c) Method: Cooperation. CFI and the Contributors agree that OP will use the traditional method without curative allocations as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-3(b) with respect to the assets contributed by the Contributors to OP. After the Closing Date, the Contributors and CFI shall (and shall cause their respective Affiliates to) assist the other party in preparing any Tax Returns preparing for and conducting any audits of, or disputes with Taxing Authorities regarding, any Tax Returns of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, make available to the other party and to any Taxing Authority as reasonably requested all information, records, and documents relating to Taxes.

7.17 Expenses and Closing Share Consideration. The payment of up to (but not in excess of) $25,000,000 of the Closing Share Consideration shall be treated as a reimbursement for preformation capital expenditures under Treasury Regulation Section 1.707-4(d); provided, however, that such treatment be required only to the extent that CC provides information reasonably satisfactory to CFI accountants with respect to such expenses. Each party hereto agrees to report such payments consistently with the foregoing on all applicable Tax Returns except as required by Law.

7.18 Liability Allocation. For purposes of determining a Holder's proportional share of the excess nonrecourse liabilities of OP within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3), each Holder's respective interest in OP profits shall be equal to such Holder's Percentage Interest (as defined in the OP LLC Agreement) with respect to Membership Common Units. OP shall maintain on a continuous basis during the five-year period beginning on the Closing Date an amount of liabilities payable or owed to third parties that are not guaranteed by CFI or a related party of CFI (other than OP, any Subsidiary or Affiliate of OP, any Contributor or Affiliate thereof, or any joint venture or other entity in which OP owns a direct or indirect interest) and not otherwise recourse to CFI in an amount that is at least equal to $350,000,000. OP shall elect to allocate excess nonrecourse liabilities to CC to the maximum extent permitted under the additional method described in Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3) as regards to the amount of built-in gain allocated to a Member on section 704(c) property. Notwithstanding the above, the requirements of this Section 7.18 shall be treated as having been satisfied at any given time so long as $50,000,000 of liabilities are allocated to CC and/or directly or indirectly to Thomas J. Barrack, Jr. in accordance with Section 752 of the Code and the Regulations at such time.

7.19 Amendment to Form ADV. CFI shall, or shall cause CRP to, file with the SEC, promptly after the Closing, an amendment to the Form ADV of CRP, to reflect its ownership change.

CFI shall submit (reasonably prior to the Closing, to be effective at Closing) to the NYSE a listing application covering the shares of CFI Class A Common Stock issuable under this Agreement or issuable upon exchange of OP Common Units under the OP LLC Agreement, and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause such shares of CFI Class A Common Stock to be approved for issuance on the NYSE, in each case subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date.

7.21 Certain Management Agreements. The Parties acknowledge that the Parties will use their reasonable best efforts to cause employment agreements and restrictive covenant agreements between CFI and the Required Individuals to be entered into at or prior to (but effective as of) the Closing, on substantially the terms set forth in Section 7.21 of the CC Disclosure Letter.

percentage of New Shares and corresponding number of New Shares to be retained by CFI to satisfy any Tax obligations of Richard B. Saltzman in respect of the New Shares; (ii) CFI shall retain from New Shares to be delivered to CC pursuant to Section 3.3(b)(ii) a number of New Shares as specified in the Share Retention Notice, as the same may be updated by CC prior to Closing to reflect changes to the Disbursement Schedule and the Estimated Closing Statement in accordance with Section 3.2(b) between the date of the Share Retention Notice and the Closing Date; and (iii) CFI shall, within 30 days following the Closing (or promptly following the Closing, and in any event on or prior to the applicable due date, if Richard B. Saltzman; provided, further that if the Initial Resale Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC by the earlier of (x) the 30th day following the Closing and (y) the fifth Business Day prior to the applicable due date, then CFI shall deliver to CC the New Shares retained under clause (ii) in lieu of the cash to be paid under clause (iii).

(a) Effective as of the Closing Date and continuing for six (6) months following the Closing Date, OP (or the Subsidiary to which the Colony Mark is transferred pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement) hereby grants to CC and its Subsidiaries a non-exclusive license to use the Colony Mark in substantially the same manner as CC and its Subsidiaries used the Colony Mark prior to the Closing Date. During such six (6) month period, CC shall and shall cause its Subsidiaries to (a) take such steps and file such documents with Governmental Entities as are necessary to change the corporate name of CC (and any Subsidiary of CC that incorporates the Colony Mark) to a name that does not include the Colony Mark and (b) take such steps as are otherwise necessary to cease using the Colony Mark by the end of such six (6) month period. Nothing in this Section 7.23(a) shall limit the rights granted to CC pursuant to Section 7.23(b) below.

(b) Effective as of the Closing Date, OP (or the Subsidiary to which the Colony Mark is transferred pursuant to the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement) hereby grants to CC and its Subsidiaries a non-exclusive license to use the Colony Mark in the name of each Subject Fund, the general partner of each Subject Fund and related entities which have invested directly or indirectly in such Subject Fund. The foregoing license shall continue with respect to each Subject Fund and such other parties until the date on which the investment management agreement to which the Subject Fund's general partner is party is terminated in accordance with its terms.

SECTION 9. TERMINATION; EFFECT OF TERMINATION

9.1 Termination. This Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing,

(a) By mutual consent of CC and CFI;

(b) By either CC or CFI if:

(i) there shall be any Law enacted, entered or promulgated by an Authority after the date hereof that makes the consummation of the Closing illegal or otherwise prohibited or any Order of any Authority having competent jurisdiction enjoining the parties from consummating the Closing shall have been entered and shall have become final and nonappealable; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.1(b)(i) shall not be available to any party who fails to use commercially reasonable efforts to resist, resolve or lift, as applicable, such Law or Order;

(ii) the Closing has not occurred by September 30, 2015, or such later date as the parties may otherwise agree in writing; provided, however, the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.1(b)(ii) shall not be available to any party whose action or failure to act has been the cause of or resulted in the Closing not occurring on such date;

(iii) if there shall have been a breach by the other party of any of the representations, warranties, covenants or obligations contained herein, which breach would result in the failure to satisfy any condition set forth in Section 8.2(a) or Section 8.2(b) (in the case of a breach by Contributors), or Section 8.3(a) or Section 8.3(b) (in the case of a breach by CFI or OP), and in any such case such breach shall be incapable of being cured or, if capable of being cured, shall not have been cured within 30 calendar days after written notice thereof shall have been received by the Party alleged to be in breach;

(iv) prior to receipt of the Requisite CFI Stockholder Approvals the Special Committee shall have effected a Change of Recommendation; or

(v) if the Requisite CFI Stockholder Approvals shall not have been obtained at the CFI Stockholders Meeting.

9.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) No termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be effective until written notice thereof is given to the non-terminating party or parties specifying the provision hereto pursuant to which such termination is made. If validly terminated pursuant to Section 9.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void, and there shall be no further obligations on the part of any party hereto, except as set forth in this Section 9.2 (Effect of Termination), Section 10 (Survival and Indemnification), and Section 11 (Miscellaneous Provisions), which shall remain in full force and effect; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 9.2 shall relieve any party from liability for fraud or any willful breach occurring prior to termination of this Agreement.

(b) If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9.1(b)(iv), within the later of three Business Days after such termination or two Business Days following receipt of invoices therefor and other documentation reasonably requested by CFI, CFI shall pay to CC, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to one or more accounts designated in writing by CC, the lesser of (i) the amount of the CC Transaction Expenses and (ii) $15,000,000.

SECTION 10. SURVIVAL AND INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Survival. All representations and warranties contained in this Agreement will survive the Closing until the 18-month anniversary of the Closing Date; provided that the representations and warranties set forth in (and any claim arising from an inaccuracy or breach of) Section 5.1 (Organization and Qualification), Section 5.2 (Authority; Approvals), Section 5.3 (CC Contributed Interests), Section 5.4 (Title; NewCo), Section 5.5(a) (No Conflicts); Section 5.15 (Fees and Expenses of Brokers), Section 6.1 (Organization and Qualification), Section 6.2 (Authority; Board and Special Committee Approvals) and Section 6.9 (Fees and Expenses of Brokers) will survive the Closing indefinitely. The right of any party to assert a claim for indemnification relating to the breach of any covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement to the extent required to be performed or complied with prior to the Closing Date will survive the Closing until the 18-month anniversary of the Closing Date. All covenants contained in this Agreement required to be performed or complied with in whole or in part after the Closing Date will survive the Closing until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations or for such shorter period specified in this Agreement. Any indemnification obligations of CFI with respect to the CC Contributed Assets and CC Assumed Liabilities and the Contributors with respect to CC Retained Assets and CC Retained Liabilities shall survive the Closing indefinitely. All claims for indemnification under this Agreement must be asserted pursuant to a written claim notice given prior to the expiration of the applicable survival period set forth in this Section 10.1; provided that any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement that is the subject of a claim for indemnification which is asserted pursuant to a written claim notice given after the Closing Date within the survival periods specified in this Section 10.1 will survive until, but only for purposes of, the resolution of such claim.

10.2 Indemnification of CC Indemnified Parties. Subject to the applicable provisions of Section 10.4, from and after the Closing, CFI will indemnify in full the Contributors and each of their respective Affiliates, together with their respective officers, partners, directors, employees, and agents (collectively, the Contributor Indemnified Parties), and hold them harmless from and against, any and all Losses which they or any of them may suffer or incur, directly or indirectly, regardless of when suffered or incurred and whether or not involving a claim by a Third Party, which arise from or relate to:

(a) any breach of a representation or warranty (disregarding any qualifications referring to material , materiality or CFI Material Adverse Effect); provided, however, that no such qualifications shall be disregarded for the representations and warranties in Section 6.8 (Information for Proxy Statement) by CFI or OP in this Agreement taken together with the schedules attached hereto;

(b) any breach of a covenant, agreement or undertaking of CFI or OP in this Agreement;

(c) the CC Contributed Assets, CC Assumed Liabilities and the CC Contributed Business.

10.3 Indemnification of CFI Indemnified Parties. Subject to the applicable provisions of Section 10.4, from and after the Closing, each Contributor will (except as set forth in Section 10.3(a) below), severally and not jointly (provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing but subject to Section 10.7, CC Holdings, CC and CCH shall be liable for any indemnification obligations not met by the other Contributors), indemnify in full CFI and each of CFI's Affiliates, together with their respective officers, partners, directors, employees and agents (collectively, the CFI Indemnified Parties), and hold them harmless from and against, such Contributor's Applicable Indemnification Percentage of any and all Losses which they or any of them may suffer or incur, directly or indirectly, regardless of when suffered or incurred and whether or not involving a claim by a Third Party, which arise from or relate to:

(a) any breach of a representation or warranty (disregarding any qualifications referring to materiality, materiality or CC Material Adverse Effect; provided, however, that no such qualifications shall be disregarded for the representations and warranties in the third sentence of Section 5.7 (Absence of Certain Changes), Section 5.14(a) (Material Contracts) and Section 5.18 (Information for Proxy Statement)) by (i) the Contributors in this Agreement, taken together with the schedules attached hereto, (ii) New Colony Holdings, LLC under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement; provided, further, however, that each Contributor shall severally but not jointly indemnify in full (without contribution by any other Contributor) the CFI Indemnified Parties for any breach of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 5.1, Section 5.2 and Section 5.4, being deemed to be made by such Contributor severally and not jointly with respect to such Contributor (provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing but subject to Section 10.7, CC Holdings, CC and CCH shall be liable for any indemnification obligations not met by the other Contributors);

(b) any breach of a covenant, agreement or undertaking of (i) the Contributors in this Agreement (ii) New Colony Holdings, LLC under the Colony Mark Transfer Agreement; or

(c) the CC Retained Assets, CC Retained Liabilities and the CC Retained Business.

10.4 Limitations on Indemnification.

(a) After the Closing, (i) Contributor Indemnified Parties may not recover any Loss (or series of related Losses) under Section 10.2(a) until the amount of such Loss (or series of related Losses) exceeds $1,000,000 (the Per Claim Threshold), in which case, subject to any other applicable limitations contained in this Section 10.4, Contributor Indemnified Parties will be entitled to recover such Loss (or series of related Losses), including the Per-Claim Threshold; (ii) Contributor Indemnified Parties may not recover any Losses under Section 10.2(a) until the total of all Losses with respect to those matters collectively exceed $5,500,000 (the Basket), in which case, subject to any other applicable limitations contained in this Section 10.4, Contributor Indemnified Parties will be entitled to recover all Losses, including the Basket; and (iii) Contributor Indemnified Parties may not recover any Losses under Section 10.2(a) in excess of $75,000,000 (the Cap).

(b) After the Closing, (i) CFI Indemnified Parties may not recover any Loss (or series of related Losses) under Section 10.3(a) until the amount of such Loss (or series of related Losses) exceeds the Per-Claim Threshold, in which case, subject to any other applicable limitations contained in this Section 10.4, CFI Indemnified Parties will be entitled to recover such Loss (or series of related Losses), including the Per Claim Threshold; (ii) CFI Indemnified Parties may not recover any Losses under Section 10.3(a) until the total of all Losses with respect to those matters collectively exceed the Basket, in which case, subject to any other applicable limitations contained in this Section 10.4, CFI Indemnified Parties will be entitled to recover all Losses, including the Basket; and (ii) CFI Indemnified Parties may not recover any Losses under Section 10.3(a) in excess of the Cap.

Table of Contents

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 10.4(a) or Section 10.4(b), neither the Basket nor the Cap will apply with respect to claims against an indemnifying party based on fraud or intentional or willful misrepresentation or misconduct of such indemnifying party.

(d) Losses relating to any claim will be recoverable whenever they are incurred provided notice of the claim is given the applicable survival period set forth in Section 10.1.

(e) CFI or the applicable Contributor, as the case may be, will seek recovery from Third Party insurance providers for any Losses which are indemnifiable hereunder and which are recoverable from such providers, but only to the same extent that CFI or such Contributor, as the case may be, would seek such recovery in the absence of the indemnification provisions of this Agreement (taking into account, among other things, the likelihood of recovery and the anticipated costs of pursuing the claim). Losses recoverable by a CFI Indemnified Party or a Contributor Indemnified Party, as the case may be, will be (i) reduced by the amount of any insurance proceeds actually received by CFI or the applicable Contributor, as the case may be, with respect to those Losses; and (ii) increased by the amount of any costs and expenses reasonably incurred in connection with the collection thereof, whether or not successful, and all insurance detriments (such as premium adjustments or increases) relating thereto. If any such amounts are received by a CFI Indemnified Party or a Contributor Indemnified Party, as the case may be, after being fully indemnified for the relevant Losses hereunder, such amounts will be paid to such Contributor Indemnified party or CFI Indemnified Party, as the case may be. Any calculation of Losses for purposes of this Section 10 shall be reduced to take account of any Tax benefit realized by the indemnified party arising from the deductibility of any such Loss.

(f) In no event shall CFI or any Contributor, as applicable, be liable to any Contributor Indemnified Party or CFI Indemnified Party, as applicable, for any punitive damages, except for any such to extent awarded by an Authority to a Third Party in connection with a Third Party Claim.

(g) For the avoidance of doubt, neither any Contributor nor CFI shall be liable to the other for breaches by any other party (other than such Contributor or CFI or their respective Subsidiaries, as applicable) under any Ancillary Document.

(h) Nothing in this Section 10 will adversely affect, or result in a reduction of, the rights of (or obligations to) the beneficiaries of Section 7.11 or adversely affect or modify the provisions therein.

10.5 Indemnification Claims.

(a) If a Contributor Indemnified Party becomes aware of a claim (a Claim) for indemnification under Section 10.2 (other than a Third Party Claim which will be provided for in Section 10.6), CC will promptly notify CFI of the claim, specifying in reasonable detail, to the extent then known, the nature of the Losses suffered and the facts giving rise to the claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any failure to so notify CFI will not relieve CFI from its indemnification obligations or other Liabilities hereunder except to the extent (and only to the extent) that CFI demonstrates that the defense of the matter is materially and actually prejudiced thereby.

(b) If a CFI Indemnified Party becomes aware of a claim for indemnification under Section 10.3 (other than a Third Party Claim which will be provided for in Section 10.6), it will promptly notify CC of the claim, specifying in reasonable detail, to the extent then known, the nature of the Losses suffered and the facts giving rise to the claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any failure to so notify CC will not relieve CC from its indemnification obligations or other Liabilities hereunder except to the extent (and only to the extent) that CC demonstrates that the defense of the matter is materially and actually prejudiced thereby.

10.6 Third Party Claims; Procedures.

(a) If any indemnified party receives notice of the assertion of any claim, the commencement of any suit, action or proceeding, or the imposition of any penalty or assessment by a Third Party in respect of which indemnity may be sought hereunder (a Third Party Claim), and the indemnified party intends to seek indemnity hereunder, then the indemnified party shall promptly provide the indemnifying party with written notice of the Third Party Claim (provided that any delay in providing such notice shall not relieve the indemnifying party of any indemnification responsibility under this Section 10 except to the extent, if any, that such delay materially and actually prejudices the indemnifying party and then only to the extent of such prejudice). Any such notice shall, with respect to any such claim, specify in reasonable detail, to the extent then known, the nature of the Losses suffered and the facts giving rise to the claim.

(b) The indemnifying party shall have 30 days after receipt of such notice (or sooner if the nature of the Third Party Claim so requires) to elect to control the defense, compromise or settlement of the Third Party Claim with its own counsel at the indemnifying party's expense; provided that (i) the indemnifying party shall have acknowledged in writing such indemnifying party's obligation to fully indemnify the indemnified party for such proceeding in accordance with this Agreement, (ii) the indemnified party is not reasonably expected to be liable for Losses materially in excess of amounts reasonably expected to be received from the indemnifying party and (iii) such proceeding involves only monetary damages and does not seek an injunction or equitable relief against the indemnified party; provided, further, that no indemnifying party shall consent to the entry of any judgment or admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, such Third Party Claim, without the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the applicable indemnified party unless (i) the terms of such settlement contain a complete and unconditional release of such indemnified party with respect to such Third Party Claim and (ii) such settlement is solely on monetary terms and does not result in any financial or other obligation of the indemnified party (other than standard provisions related to confidentiality and any immaterial or administrative terms).

(c) The indemnified party shall be entitled to participate in (but not control) the defense by the indemnifying party of any Third Party Claim with its own counsel at its own expense; provided, however, that the indemnifying party shall pay such expenses if such indemnified party shall have been advised by its counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to the indemnified party which are not available to such indemnifying party, or if available to such indemnifying party the assertion of which would be adverse to or in conflict with the interests of the indemnified party.

(d) In the event that the indemnifying party does not undertake the defense, compromise or settlement of a Third Party Claim (or could not elect to do so because the claim relates to or arises in connection with any criminal or quasi-criminal matter or the claim seeks or is likely to seek an injunction or other equitable relief against the indemnified party) within the time frame specified in Section 10.6(b), the indemnified party shall have the right to control the defense or settlement of such Third Party Claim (but shall not have waived any rights to indemnification therefore hereunder) with counsel of its choosing at the expense of the indemnifying party. If the indemnified party assumes the defense of a Third Party Claim, the indemnified party shall not consent to the entry of any judgment, admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, such Third Party Claim without the indemnifying party's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), except if (x) the indemnified party is reasonably expected to be liable for Losses materially in excess of amounts reasonably expected to be received from the indemnifying party or (y) such settlement or compromise is in respect of a proceeding that seeks an injunction or equitable relief against the indemnified party. The indemnifying party shall be entitled (at the indemnifying party's expense) to participate (but not control) in the defense of any Third Party Claim with its own counsel in the case that it has not elected to undertake the defense thereof pursuant to Section 10.6(b).

(e) In their defense, compromise or settlement of any Third Party Claim, the parties shall reasonably cooperate with each other. Such cooperation shall include the retention and the provision of reasonable access to the books, records and assets which evidence or support such Third Party Claim or the act, omission or occurrence giving rise to such Third Party Claim and the right, upon prior notice, to interview any employee, agent or other representative related thereto.

(f) With regard to Claims (including Third Party Claims) for which indemnification is payable hereunder, such indemnification will be paid by the indemnifying party within five Business Days following the earliest to occur of (as applicable) (the Payment Due Date): (i) the resolution of the amount of Losses in connection with a Claim hereunder by an indemnifying party and the applicable indemnified parties, (ii) the entry of a judgment against the indemnified party and the expiration of any applicable appeal period or, if earlier, 10 days prior to the date that the judgment creditor has the right to execute the judgment; (iii) the entry of a nonappealable judgment or final appellate decision against the indemnified party; (iv) with respect to a Third Party Claim, a settlement of the Third Party Claim; or (v) with respect to indemnities for any Liability for Taxes, a determination within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code or an analogous provision of state, local or foreign Law.

(g) Each of CFI and the Contributors acknowledge and agree that any action or determination to be made under this Section 10.6 by or on behalf of the Contributors or the Contributor Indemnified Parties shall be taken or made by CC, in its sole discretion, on behalf of the Contributors and the Contributor Indemnified Parties.

10.7 Form of Payment. To the extent that any Contributor has any obligation to indemnify a CFI Indemnified Party for Losses, all or a portion of such obligation shall be satisfied by OP Common Units or shares of CFI Class A Common Stock having a value equal to such Losses, which value shall be determined using the Reference CFI Common Stock Price (or in cash to the extent such Contributor does not then own, directly or indirectly, any OP Common Units or shares of CFI Class A Common Stock); provided, that, if an indemnification obligation under this Section 10.7 is not met by FHB LLC or Saltzman by the Payment Due Date, each of FHB LLC and Saltzman OP agrees that the applicable number of OP Common Units issued as Consideration to FHB LLC or Saltzman, as applicable, shall be automatically cancelled without further action by FHB LLC or Saltzman, as applicable; provided, further, that if the number of OP Common Units of FHB LLC or Saltzman, as applicable, is not sufficient to satisfy the indemnification of FHB LLC or Saltzman, as applicable, CC Holdings, CC and CCH shall be liable for any indemnification obligation not met, without limiting any rights CC Holdings, CC and CCH shall have to collect any such deficiencies from FHB LLC or Saltzman, as applicable. CFI hereby agrees that if CC Holdings, CC and CCH satisfies the indemnification obligations not met by FHB LLC or Saltzman as provided hereunder, each such person shall be subrogated to all of CFI's rights in respect of the amounts constituting such deficiencies, and each of FHB LLC and Saltzman hereby agree that it shall be liable to CC Holdings, CC and CCH, as applicable, for the amount of deficiencies paid by CC Holdings, CC and CCH, as applicable, on behalf of it. If after the date hereof, there occurs any Adjustment Event, the Reference CFI Common Stock Price for purposes of this Section 10.7 shall be adjusted accordingly to reflect the same economic value as contemplated by this Agreement prior to such Adjustment Event.

10.8 Exclusive Remedy. After the Closing, the rights and remedies set forth in this Section 10 shall be the sole and exclusive rights and remedies of CFI Indemnified Parties and Contributor Indemnified Parties under or in connection with this Agreement, except that nothing in this Agreement will limit any right to injunctive or other equitable relief.

10.9 Tax Treatment of Payment. The parties hereto shall treat any payments that CFI, CFI's Affiliates, any Contributor, or any Contributor's Affiliates receive pursuant to this Section 10 as an adjustment to and refund of the Consideration for income Tax purposes.

Any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the parties without notice or liability to any other Person. Consequently, Persons other than the parties may not rely upon the representations and warranties in this Agreement as characterizations of actual facts or circumstances as of the date hereof or any other date.

No single or partial exercise of a right or remedy will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or of any other right or remedy hereunder. Whenever this Agreement requires or permits the Consent by or on behalf of a party, the Consent must be given in writing in the same manner as for waivers of compliance.

ARTICLE V

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 5.1. Powers. Subject to any express limitations contained in the Charter or in the bylaws of the Corporation (the Bylaws), (a) the business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of Board of Directors and (b) the Board of Directors shall have full, exclusive and absolute power, control and authority over any and all property of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may take any action as in its sole judgment and discretion is necessary or appropriate to conduct the business and affairs of the Corporation. This Charter shall be construed with the presumption in favor of the grant of power and authority to the Board of Directors. Any construction of the Charter or determination made in good faith by the Board of Directors concerning its powers and authority hereunder shall be conclusive. The enumeration and definition of particular powers of the Board of Directors included in the Charter or in the Bylaws shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of this or any other provision of the Charter or the Bylaws or construed or deemed by inference or otherwise in any manner to exclude or limit the powers conferred upon the Board of Directors or the directors under the general laws of the State of Maryland or any other applicable law.

Section 5.2 Number of Directors. The number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors is currently set at six (6), but may hereafter be increased or decreased only by the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Bylaws, but shall never be fewer than the minimum number required by the Maryland General Corporation Law (the MGCL) nor more than fifteen (15). The Corporation elects, at such time as it becomes eligible to make the election provided for under Section 3-804(c) of the MGCL, that, except as may be provided by the Board of Directors in setting the terms of any class or series of stock, any and all vacancies on the Board of Directors may be filled only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors in office, even if the remaining directors do not constitute a quorum, and any director elected to fill a vacancy shall serve for the remainder of the full term of the directorship in which such vacancy occurred and until a successor is elected and qualifies.

Section 5.3 Removal of Directors. Subject to the rights of holders of one or more classes or series of Preferred Stock, as hereinafter defined, to elect or remove one or more directors, any director may be removed from office at any time, but only for cause and then only by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast generally in the election of directors. For the purpose of this paragraph, cause shall mean, with respect to any particular director, conviction of a felony or a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction holding that such director caused demonstrable, material harm to the Corporation through bad faith or active and deliberate dishonesty.

In addition, the Board of Directors, without any action by the stockholders of the Corporation, shall have and may exercise, on behalf of the Corporation, without limitation, the power to determine that compliance with any restriction or limitation on stock ownership and transfers set forth in Article VII of this Charter is no longer required in order for the Corporation to qualify as a REIT.

Section 5.5 Approval of Extraordinary Actions. Except as specifically provided in Section 5.3 (relating to removal of directors) and in Article VII, notwithstanding any provision of law permitting or requiring any action to be taken or approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares entitled to cast a greater proportion of votes, any such action shall be effective and valid if declared advisable by the Board of Directors and taken or approved by the affirmative vote of holders of shares entitled to cast a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the matter.

ARTICLE VISTOCK

Section 6.1 Authorized Shares. The Board of Directors shall endeavor to authorize, and the Corporation shall declare and pay, such dividends and distributions as shall be necessary for the Corporation to qualify as a REIT under the Code (unless the Board of Directors has determined that it is no longer in the best interests of the Corporation to continue to be qualified as a REIT); however, stockholders shall have no right to any dividend or distribution unless and until authorized by the Board of Directors and declared by the Corporation. The exercise of the powers and rights of the Board of Directors pursuant to this Section 6.2.1 shall be subject to the preferences of any class or series of stock at the time outstanding.

Section 6.2.2 Liquidation Rights. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or any distribution of the assets of, the Corporation, the holders of Class A Common Stock shall be entitled to participate, together with the holders of shares of any other class of stock now existing or hereafter classified or reclassified not having a preference over Class A Common Stock as to distributions in

(ii) No Person shall Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock to the extent that (1) such Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of Capital Stock would result in the Corporation being closely held within the meaning of Section 856(h) of the Code (without regard to whether the ownership interest is held during the last half of a taxable year), (2) such Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of Capital Stock would result in the Corporation owning (directly or indirectly) an interest in a tenant that is described in Section 856(d)(2)(B) of the Code if the income derived by the Corporation (either directly or indirectly through one or more partnerships or limited liability companies) from such tenant for the taxable year of the Corporation during which such determination is being made would reasonably be expected to equal or exceed the lesser of (a) one percent (1%) of the Corporation's gross income (as determined for purposes of Section 856(c) of the Code), or (b) an amount that would cause the Corporation to fail to satisfy any of the gross income requirements of Section 856(c) of the Code, or (3) such Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of Capital Stock would result in the Corporation otherwise failing to qualify as a REIT.

(iii) No Person shall Transfer any shares of Capital Stock if, as a result of the Transfer, the Capital Stock would be beneficially owned by fewer than 100 Persons (determined without reference to the rules of attribution under Section 544 of the Code). Subject to Section 7.4 and notwithstanding any other provisions contained herein, any Transfer of shares of Capital Stock (whether or not such Transfer is the result of a transaction entered into through the facilities of the NYSE or any other national securities exchange or automated inter-dealer quotation system) that, if effective, would result in the Capital Stock being beneficially owned by fewer than 100 Persons (determined under the principles of Section 856(a)(5) of the Code) shall be void ab initio, and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Capital Stock.

(iv) If and to the extent a Person Beneficially Owns or Constructively Owns, at the end of the day immediately before the Initial Date, shares of Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit, for purposes of applying Section 7.2.1(a)(i)(1) to such Person, 9.8% (or such lesser percentage of Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of the Person of shares of Common Stock (in value or in number of shares, whichever is more restrictive), determined at the end of the date before the Initial Date) shall be substituted in the definition of Common Stock Ownership Limit for 8% (in value or in number of shares, whichever is more restrictive) (such substitute percentage, as reduced pursuant to the following proviso, the Substitute Percentage); provided, however, that if and to the extent that such Person's Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership, as applicable, of shares of Common Stock (in value or in number of shares, whichever is more restrictive) is reduced for any reason to a percentage below the Substitute Percentage (as reduced pursuant to this proviso) the Substitute Percentage for such Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership, as applicable, as applied to such Person, shall automatically become that reduced percentage (but not below the Common Stock Ownership Limit (as determined without regard to this Section 7.2.1(a)(iv)); and provided further that, for the sake of clarity, this Section 7.2.1(a)(iv) shall not limit the application of Section 7.2.1(a)(i) (other than Section 7.2.1(a)(i)(1)), Section 7.2.1(a)(ii), Section 7.2.1(a)(iii), and Section 7.2(b)).

If any Transfer of shares of Capital Stock (whether or not such Transfer is the result of a transaction entered into through the facilities of the NYSE or any other national securities exchange or automated inter-dealer quotation system) occurs which, if effective, would result in any Person Beneficially Owning or Constructively Owning shares of Capital Stock in violation of Section 7.2.1(a)(i) or (ii),

(i) then that number of shares of Capital Stock the Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of which otherwise would cause such Person to violate Section 7.2.1(a)(i) or

(ii) (rounded up to the nearest whole share) shall be automatically transferred to a Charitable Trust for the benefit of a Charitable Beneficiary, as described in Section 7.3, effective as of the close of business on the Business Day prior to the date of such Transfer, and such Person shall acquire no rights in such shares of Capital Stock; or

(ii) if the transfer to the Charitable Trust described in clause (i) of this sentence would not be effective for any reason to prevent the violation of Section 7.2.1(a)(i) or (ii), or would not prevent the Corporation from failing to qualify as a REIT, then the Transfer of that number of shares of Capital Stock that otherwise would cause any Person to violate Section 7.2.1(a)(i) or (ii) shall be void ab initio, and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Capital Stock.

Section 7.2.2 Remedies for Breach. If the Board of Directors of the Corporation or any duly authorized committee thereof shall at any time determine in good faith that a Transfer or other event has taken place that results in a violation of Section 7.2.1 or that a Person intends to acquire or has attempted to acquire Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of any shares of Capital Stock in violation of Section 7.2.1 (whether or not such violation is intended), the Board of Directors or a committee thereof shall take such action as it deems advisable to refuse to give effect to or to prevent such Transfer or other event, including, without limitation, causing the Corporation to redeem shares, refusing to give effect to such Transfer on the books of the Corporation or instituting proceedings to enjoin such Transfer or other event; provided, however, that any Transfer or attempted Transfer or other event in violation of Section 7.2.1 shall automatically result in the transfer to the Charitable Trust described above, and, where applicable, such Transfer (or other event) shall be void ab initio as provided above irrespective of any action (or non-action) by the Board of Directors or a committee thereof.

Section 7.2.3 Notice of Restricted Transfer. Any Person who acquires or attempts or intends to acquire Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of shares of Capital Stock that will or may violate Section 7.2.1(a), or any Person who would have owned shares of Capital Stock that resulted in a transfer to the Charitable Trust pursuant to the provisions of Section 7.2.1(b), shall immediately give written notice to the Corporation of such event or, in the case of such a proposed or attempted transaction, shall give at least fifteen (15) days prior written notice, and shall provide to the Corporation such other information as the Corporation may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such acquisition or ownership on the Corporation's status as a REIT.

Section 7.2.4 Owners Required To Provide Information. From the Initial Date and prior to the Restriction Termination Date:

(a) every owner of more than five percent (5%) (or such lower percentage as required by the Code or the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder) of the outstanding shares of Capital Stock, within thirty (30) days after the end of each taxable year, shall give written notice to the Corporation stating the name and address of such owner, the number of shares of each class or series of Capital Stock Beneficially Owned and a description of the manner in which such shares are held; provided, that a stockholder of record who holds outstanding shares of Capital Stock as nominee for another Person, which other Person is required to include in gross income the dividends or distributions received on such shares (an Actual Owner), shall give written notice to the Corporation stating the name and address of such Actual Owner and the number of shares of such Actual Owner with respect to which the stockholder of record is nominee. Each such owner shall provide to the Corporation such additional information as the Corporation may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such Beneficial Ownership on the Corporation's status as a REIT and to ensure compliance with Section 7.2.1(a) (including information about a Person's qualification as a Designated Investment Entity); and

(b) each Person who is a Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner of Capital Stock and each Person (including the stockholder of record) who is holding Capital Stock for a Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner shall provide to the Corporation such information as the Corporation may request, in good faith, in order to determine the Corporation's status as a REIT and to comply with requirements of any taxing authority or governmental authority or to determine such compliance and to ensure compliance with Section 7.2.1(a) (including information about a Person's qualification as a Designated Investment Entity).

Section 7.2.5 Remedies Not Limited. Subject to Sections 5.4 and 7.4 of the Charter, nothing contained in this Section 7.2 shall limit the authority of the Board of Directors to take such other action as it deems necessary or advisable to protect the Corporation and the interests of its stockholders in preserving the Corporation's qualification as a REIT.

Section 7.2.6 Ambiguity. In the case of an ambiguity in the application of any of the provisions of this Section 7.2, Section 7.3 or any definition contained in Section 7.1, the Board of Directors shall have the power to determine the application of the provisions of this Section 7.2 or Section 7.3 with respect to any situation based on the facts known to it. If Section 7.2 or 7.3 requires an action by the Board of Directors and the Charter fails to provide specific guidance with respect to such action, the Board of Directors shall have the power to determine the action to be taken so long as such action is not contrary to the provisions of Sections 7.1, 7.2 or 7.3.

Section 7.2.7 Exemptions.

(a) The Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may exempt, prospectively or retroactively, a Person from the Common Stock Ownership Limit, the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit, or the Designated Investment Entity Limit if: (i) such Person submits to the Board of Directors information satisfactory to the Board of Directors, in its reasonable discretion, demonstrating that such Person is not an individual for purposes of Section 542(a)(2) of the Code (determined taking into account Section 856(h)(3)(A) of the Code); (ii) such Person submits to the Board of Directors information satisfactory to the Board, in its reasonable discretion, demonstrating that no Person who is an individual for purposes of Section 542(a)(2) of the Code (determined taking into account Section 856(h)(3)(A) of the Code) would be considered to Beneficially Own shares of Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or Preferred Stock in excess of the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit by reason of such Person's ownership of Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or, for a Designated Investment Entity, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, or Preferred Stock in excess of the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit pursuant to the exemption granted under this subparagraph (a); (iii) such Person submits to the Board of Directors information satisfactory to the Board of Directors, in its reasonable discretion, demonstrating that clauses (1), (2) and (3) of subparagraph (a)(ii) of Section 7.2.1 will not be violated by reason of such Person's ownership of Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or, for a Designated Investment Entity, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, or Preferred Stock in excess of the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit pursuant to the exemption granted under this subparagraph 7.2.7(a); and (iv) such Person provides to the Board of Directors such representations and undertakings, if any, as the Board of Directors may, in its reasonable discretion, require to ensure that the conditions in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) hereof are satisfied and will continue to be satisfied throughout the period during which such Person owns Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or, for a Designated Investment Entity, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, or Preferred Stock in excess of the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit pursuant to any exemption thereto granted under this subparagraph (a), and such Person agrees that any violation of such representations and undertakings or any attempted violation thereof will result in the application of the remedies set forth in Section 7.2 (including without limitation, Section 7.2.5) with respect to shares of Common Stock held in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or, for a Designated Investment Entity, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, or Preferred Stock held in excess of the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit with respect to such Person (determined without regard to the exemption granted such Person under this subparagraph (a));

(d) In connection with granting any exemption or waiver pursuant to Section 7.2.7(a), the Board of Directors may include such terms and conditions in such waiver as it determines are advisable.

Section 7.2.8 Increase in the Common Stock Ownership, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, and the Preferred Stock Ownership Limits. Subject to the limitations provided in Section 7.2.1(a)(ii) and this Section 7.2.8, the Board of Directors may from time to time increase the Common Stock Ownership Limit, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, and/or the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit; provided, however, that:

(a) None of the Common Stock Ownership Limit, Designated Investment Entity Limit, and the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit may be increased if, after giving effect to such change, five Persons who are considered individuals pursuant to Section 542 of the Code, as modified by Section 856(h)(3) of the Code, could Beneficially Own, in the aggregate, more than 49.9% of the value of the outstanding Capital Stock; and

Section 7.3.3 Dividend and Voting Rights. The Charitable Trustee shall have all voting rights and rights to dividends or other distributions with respect to shares of Capital Stock held in the Charitable Trust, which rights shall be exercised for the exclusive benefit of the Charitable Beneficiary. Any dividend or other distribution paid prior to the discovery by the Corporation that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee shall be paid with respect to such shares to the Charitable Trustee upon demand and any dividend or other distribution authorized but unpaid shall be paid when due to the Charitable Trustee. Any dividends or distributions so paid over to the Charitable Trustee shall be held in trust for the Charitable Beneficiary. The Prohibited Owner shall have no voting rights with respect to shares held in the Charitable Trust and, subject to Maryland law, effective as of the date that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee, the Charitable Trustee shall have the authority (at the Charitable Trustee's sole discretion) (i) to rescind as void any vote cast by a Prohibited Owner prior to the discovery by the Corporation that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee and (ii) to recast such vote in accordance with the desires of the Charitable Trustee acting for the benefit of the Charitable Beneficiary; provided, however, that if the Corporation has already taken irreversible action, then the Charitable Trustee shall not have the authority to rescind and recast such vote. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article VII, until the Corporation has received notification that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred into a Charitable Trust, the Corporation shall be entitled to rely on its share transfer and other stockholder records for purposes of preparing lists of stockholders entitled to vote at meetings, determining the validity and authority of proxies and otherwise conducting votes of stockholders.

Section 7.3.4 Rights Upon Liquidation. Upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of or any distribution of the assets of the Corporation, the Charitable Trustee shall be entitled to receive, ratably with each other holder of shares of the class or series of Capital Stock that is held in the Charitable Trust, that portion of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to the holders of such class or series (determined based upon the ratio that the number of shares of such class or series of Capital Stock held by the Charitable Trustee bears to the total number of shares of such class or series of Capital Stock then outstanding). The Charitable Trustee shall distribute any such assets received in respect of the shares held in the Charitable Trust in any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or distribution of the assets of the Corporation, in accordance with Section 7.3.5.

Section 7.3.5 Sale of Shares by Charitable Trustee. Within twenty (20) days of receiving notice from the Corporation that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trust, the Charitable Trustee shall sell the shares held in the Charitable Trust to a person, designated by the Charitable Trustee, whose ownership of the shares will not violate the ownership limitations set forth in Section 7.2.1(a). In connection with any such sale, the Charitable Trustee shall use good faith efforts to sell such shares at a fair market price. Upon such sale, the interest of the Charitable Beneficiary in the shares sold shall terminate and the Charitable Trustee shall distribute the net proceeds of the sale to the Prohibited Owner and to the Charitable Beneficiary as provided in this Section 7.3.5. The Prohibited Owner shall receive the lesser of (1) the price paid by the Prohibited Owner for the shares or, if the Prohibited Owner did not give value for the shares in connection with the event causing the shares to be held in the Charitable Trust (e.g., in the case of a gift, devise or other such transaction), the Market Price of the shares on the day of the event causing the shares to be held in the Charitable Trust and (2) the price per share received by the Charitable Trustee (net of any commissions and other expenses of sale) from the sale or other disposition of the shares held in the Charitable Trust. The Charitable Trustee may reduce the amount payable to the Prohibited Owner by the amount of dividends and distributions which have been paid to the Prohibited Owner and are owed by the Prohibited Owner to the Charitable Trustee pursuant to Section 7.3.3 of this Article VII. Any net sales proceeds in excess of the amount payable to the Prohibited Owner shall be immediately paid to the Charitable Beneficiary. If, prior to the discovery by the Corporation that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee, such shares are sold by a Prohibited Owner, then (i) such shares shall be deemed to have been sold on behalf of the Charitable Trust and (ii) to the extent that the Prohibited Owner received an amount for such shares that exceeds the amount that such Prohibited Owner was entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 7.3.5, such excess shall be paid to the Charitable Trustee upon demand.

Section 7.3.6 Purchase Right in Stock Transferred to the Charitable Trustee. Shares of Capital Stock transferred to the Charitable Trustee shall be deemed to have been offered for sale to the Corporation, or its designee, at a price per share equal to the lesser of (i) the price per share in the transaction that resulted in such transfer to the Charitable Trust (or, in the case of a devise or gift, the Market Price at the time of such devise or gift) and (ii) the Market Price on the date the Corporation, or its designee, accepts such offer. The Corporation may reduce the amount payable to the Prohibited Owner by the amount of dividends and distributions which have been paid to the Prohibited Owner and are owed by the Prohibited Owner to the Charitable Trustee pursuant to Section 7.3.3 of this Article VII. The Corporation may pay the amount of such reduction to the Charitable Trustee for the benefit of the Charitable Beneficiary. The Corporation shall have the right to accept such offer until the Charitable Trustee has sold the shares held in the Charitable Trust pursuant to Section 7.3.5. Upon such a sale to the Corporation, the interest of the Charitable Beneficiary in the shares sold shall terminate and the Charitable Trustee shall distribute the net proceeds of the sale to the Prohibited Owner.

Section 7.3.7 Designation of Charitable Beneficiaries. By written notice to the Charitable Trustee, the Corporation shall designate one or more nonprofit organizations to be the Charitable Beneficiary of the interest in the Charitable Trust such that (i) the shares of Capital Stock held in the Charitable Trust would not violate the restrictions set forth in Section 7.2.1(a) in the hands of such Charitable Beneficiary and (ii) each such organization must be described in Sections 501(c)(3), 170(b)(1)(A) or 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Section 7.4 NYSE Transactions. Nothing in this Article VII shall preclude the settlement of any transaction entered into through the facilities of the NYSE or any other national securities exchange or automated inter-dealer quotation system. The fact that the settlement of any transaction takes place shall not negate the effect of any other provision of this Article VII and any transferee in such a transaction shall be subject to all of the provisions and limitations set forth in this Article VII.

Section 7.5 Enforcement. The Corporation is authorized specifically to seek equitable relief, including injunctive relief, to enforce the provisions of this Article VII.

Section 7.6 Non-Waiver. No delay or failure on the part of the Corporation or the Board of Directors in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of any right of the Corporation or the Board of Directors, as the case may be, except to the extent specifically waived in writing.

ARTICLE VIII

OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 8.1 Limitation of Director and Officer Liability. To the maximum extent that Maryland law in effect from time to time permits limitation of the liability of directors and officers, no present or former director or officer of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for money damages. Neither the amendment nor repeal of this Section 8.1, nor the adoption or amendment of any other provision of the Charter or Bylaws of the Corporation inconsistent with this Section 8.1, shall apply to or affect in any respect the applicability of the preceding sentence with respect to any act or failure to act which occurred prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption. In the absence of any Maryland statute limiting the liability of directors and officers of a Maryland corporation for money damages in a suit by or on behalf of the Corporation or by any stockholder, no director or officer of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or to any stockholder for money damages except to the extent that (a) the director or officer actually received an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services, for the amount of the benefit or profit in money, property or services actually received; or (b) a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer is entered in a proceeding based on a finding in the proceeding that the director's or officer's action or failure to act was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and was material to the cause of action adjudicated in the proceeding.

Section 8.2 Indemnification.

(a) To the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law in effect from time to time, and in accordance with applicable provisions of the Bylaws, the Corporation shall indemnify, and pay or reimburse the reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding to, (i) any present or former director or officer of the Corporation against any claim or liability to which he or she may become subject by reason of service in such capacity, and (ii) any individual who, while a director or officer of the Corporation and at the request of the Corporation, serves or has served as a director, officer, partner or trustee of another corporation, REIT, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, limited liability company or any other enterprise from and against any claim or liability to which such person may become subject or which such person may incur by reason of his or her service in such capacity. In addition, the Corporation may, with the approval of the Board of Directors, provide such indemnification and advancement of expenses to any individual who served a predecessor of the Corporation in any of the capacities described in (i) or (ii) above and to any employee or agent of the Corporation or a predecessor of the Corporation. Any amendment of this Section 8.2 shall be prospective only and shall not affect the applicability of this section with respect to any act or failure to act that occurred prior to such amendment.

(b) The Corporation may, to the fullest extent permitted by law, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person described in the preceding paragraph against any liability which may be asserted against such person.

(c) The indemnification provided herein shall not be deemed to limit the right of the Corporation to indemnify any other person for any such expenses to the fullest extent permitted by law, nor shall it be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification from the Corporation may be entitled under any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

ARTICLE IX

DURATION

The Corporation shall continue perpetually unless terminated pursuant to any applicable provision of the MGCL.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this Agreement), dated as of December 23, 2014, is made by and between Colony Financial, Inc., a Maryland corporation (CFI), and Thomas J. Barrack, Jr. (the Executive). CFI, together with its subsidiaries is hereinafter referred to as the Company, and where the context permits, references to the Company shall include the Company and any successor to the Company.

WHEREAS, certain businesses of the Company are currently externally managed and advised by a subsidiary of Colony Capital, LLC (CC) pursuant to the terms of a management agreement;

WHEREAS, CFI, CC, Colony Capital Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (CC Holdings), Colony Capital OP Subsidiary, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (NewCo), CCH Management Partners I, LLC (CCH), FHB Holding LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, Richard B. Saltzman and CFI RE Masterco LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the QP) have entered into that certain Contribution and Implementation Agreement, dated as of December 23, 2014 (the Contribution Agreement), pursuant to which, among other things, CC Holdings, CC and CCH will contribute to the OP and the OP will acquire from CC Holdings, CC and CCH the membership interests in NewCo held by CC Holdings, CC and CCH (which constitute all of the membership interests of NewCo) (along with the other transactions contemplated thereby, the Contribution) and the management of the Company will be internalized; and

WHEREAS, CFI desires to enter into this Agreement with the Executive, effective as of the closing of the Contribution (the date on which such closing occurs, the Effective Date), pursuant to which the Executive will become employed by CFI Operating Company, LLC or one of its subsidiaries (as applicable, the Operating Entity) and will continue to serve as the Executive Chairman and the Chairman of the Board of Directors of CFI (the Board).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises, the mutual covenants, terms and conditions set forth herein, and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. EMPLOYMENT TERM. The Executive's employment under the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall expire on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date (the Initial Term); provided, however, that on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date and on each subsequent anniversary thereof, the term of this Agreement shall automatically be extended for an additional one-year period (each a Renewal Term) unless, not later than 180 days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term or the then-current Renewal Term, as applicable, either party provides written notice to the other party hereto that such extension shall not take effect (a Non-Renewal Notice). The period during which the Executive is employed by the Company during the Initial Term and any Renewal Term pursuant to this Agreement is referred to herein as the Employment Term . Notwithstanding anything set forth in this Section 1 to the contrary, the Employment Term and the Executive's employment shall earlier terminate immediately upon the termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to Section 4 hereof.

2. POSITION; REPORTING AND DUTIES; LOCATION.

(a) Position and Reporting. During the Employment Term, the Executive shall serve as the Executive Chairman of CFI. The Executive shall report directly to the Board during the Employment Term. At all times during the Employment Term during which the Executive is serving as a member of the Board, the Executive shall serve as the Chairman of the Board.

(b) Duties and Responsibilities.

(i) During the Employment Term, the Executive shall devote substantially all of his business time and attention to the performance of his duties hereunder, shall faithfully serve the Company and shall have no other employment which is undisclosed to the Company or which conflicts with his duties under this Agreement; provided, that, nothing contained herein shall prohibit the Executive from (A) devoting time as he determines in good faith to be necessary or appropriate to fulfil his duties to Colony Capital Holdings, LLC and its affiliates (CCHLLC Duties), (B) participating in trade associations or industry organizations, (C) engaging in charitable, civic, educational or political activities, (D) delivering lectures or fulfilling speaking engagements, (E) engaging in personal investment activities and personal real estate-related activities for himself and his family or (F) accepting directorships or similar positions (together, the Personal Activities), in each case so long as the Personal Activities do not unreasonably interfere, individually or in the aggregate, with the performance of the Executive's duties to the Company under this Agreement. The Company hereby acknowledges and approves the current activities of the Executive as set forth on Schedule 1 hereto, each of which shall be deemed a Personal Activity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the Personal Activities include the Executive providing services to any for-profit company (excluding CC and CFI, and any subsidiaries or portfolio companies thereof) as a member of such company's board of directors, only two such directorships shall be permitted as a Personal Activity.

(ii) In serving in his capacity as the Executive Chairman of CFI during the Employment Term, the Executive shall (A) perform such duties and provide such services as are reasonably consistent with those provided by the Executive to CFI in his role as its Executive Chairman prior to the Effective Date and (B) provide such other duties as are consistent with his role as Executive Chairman of CFI, as reasonably requested from time to time by the Board.

(iii) The parties acknowledge and agree that all of the compensation and benefits provided to the Executive hereunder will be in respect of services performed by the Executive for the Operating Entity.

(c) Location of Employment. The Executive's principal place of business during the Employment Term shall be at the Company's office in Santa Monica, California; provided, that, the Executive may perform his duties in such other locations in his reasonable discretion so long as he performs such duties in a manner consistent with his position and responsibilities and takes into consideration the needs of the Company; provided, further, that the Executive may be required to engage in travel during the Employment Term in the performance of his duties hereunder, including at the Board's reasonable request. In the event such travel results in Executive having to perform a significant portion of his duties at a Company location other than his principal place of business for a significant period of time, and Executive determines to relocate his principal place of residence to a city in proximity to such other Company location, on a permanent or temporary basis, the Company shall pay for all relocation and return expenses on a tax-grossed up basis, with such payments subject to approval, not to be unreasonably withheld, by the Board or a committee of directors delegated by the Board.

(d) Termination of Chief Executive Officer. If the employment of Richard B. Saltzman as the Chief Executive Officer of CFI terminates for any reason during the Employment Term (a CEO Termination), then the Board shall provide the Executive with an opportunity to present his views to the Board regarding the appointment of any other individual to serve as the Chief Executive Officer of CFI within a reasonable period of time prior to the appointment thereof, and the Board will consider the Executive's views on any such appointment.

3. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Term, the Company will pay to the Executive a base salary at the annualized rate of not less than $1,000,000 (the base salary in effect from time to time, the Base Salary). The Base Salary will be paid to the Executive in accordance with the Company's customary compensation practices from time to time in effect for the Company's senior executive officers. The Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) will review the Base Salary from time to time, but at least annually, during the Employment Term, but may not reduce the Executive's then-existing Base Salary without the Executive's prior written consent and agreement.

(b) Annual Cash Bonus.

(i) For each calendar year during the Employment Term beginning with the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs, the Executive shall be given an opportunity to earn an annual incentive cash bonus based on an evaluation by the Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) of the Executive's performance in respect of the applicable calendar year; provided, that, the Board or such committee may determine prior to the beginning of any such calendar year to instead condition the payment of all or a portion of the cash bonus with respect to the applicable calendar year upon the achievement of performance measures determined by the Board or such committee in consultation with the Executive (as applicable, the Annual Bonus). The Executive's target Annual Bonus for each calendar year during the Employment Term (including the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs) shall be no less than $4,000,000 (such amount, as increased from time to time, the Target Bonus Amount). If the Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board), establishes reasonable performance measures as provided for above, the actual Annual Bonus amount paid to the Executive in respect of any calendar year during the Employment Term shall be based on the achievement of the applicable performance measures and may be less or more than the applicable Target Bonus Amount. The Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) will review the Target Bonus Amount from time to time, but at least annually, during the Employment Term, but may not reduce the Executive's then-existing Target Bonus Amount without the Executive's prior written consent and agreement. The Executive's Annual Bonus for the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs shall not be pro-rated.

(ii) Any Annual Bonus payment that becomes payable to the Executive hereunder will be paid to him in a cash lump sum by no later than March 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year to which it relates (and no later than the date on which bonuses are paid to other senior executive officers of CFJ); provided, that, except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, the Executive is an active employee as of, and has not given or received notice of termination of employment as of, the date such payment would otherwise be made.

(c) Equity Incentives and Related Awards.

(i) For each calendar year during the Employment Term beginning with the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs, the Executive shall be eligible to receive equity and equity-based incentive awards (LTIP Awards), with an annual target LTIP Award opportunity equal to 350% of Base Salary (the target amount in effect from time to time, the Target LTIP Award). The target LTIP Award for any calendar year and any applicable performance measures will be determined by the Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) in consultation with the Executive. The Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) will review the Target LTIP Award from time to time, but at least annually, during the Employment Term, but may not reduce the Executive's then-existing Target LTIP Award without the Executive's prior written consent and agreement.

(ii) The Executive shall (x) continue to receive allocations in respect of carried interests, incentive fees and other such remuneration in respect of funds and similar vehicles, as applicable, managed by the Company that were granted to the Executive prior to the Effective Date and (y) be eligible to be granted new allocations in respect of carried interests, incentive fees and other such remuneration in respect of funds and similar vehicles, as applicable, managed by the Company (collectively, (Fund Incentives). Allocations of all Fund Incentives provided to executive officers and other employees of the Company shall be made as determined by the Board of Directors (or a committee of the directors delegated by the Board) in consultation with the Executive.

(iii) The terms and conditions (including with respect to vesting) of any LTIP Awards and Fund Incentives shall be no less favorable than the terms and conditions of any LTIP Awards and Fund Incentives, as applicable, granted to the executive officers of the Company during the same calendar year.

(d) Retirement, Welfare and Fringe Benefits. During the Employment Term, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the retirement savings, medical, disability, life insurance, perquisite and other welfare and fringe benefit plans applicable to senior executive officers of CFI generally in accordance with the terms of such plans as are in effect from time to time. The foregoing shall not be construed to limit the ability of the Company to amend, modify or terminate any such benefit plans, policies or programs in accordance with their terms or to cease providing such benefit plans, policies or programs at any time and from time to time; provided, that subject to the last sentence of this Section 3(d), the terms and conditions imposed on Executive's participation in such plans, policies or programs and any adverse amendments, terminations and modifications are at least as favorable to Executive as those applicable to the other senior executives. In addition (i) the Executive shall continue to receive the other fringe benefits and perquisites provided to the Executive by CC and its affiliates immediately prior to the Effective Date and (ii) the Company shall make available to the Executive the use of the Company's corporate jet (if any) for business purposes in accordance with the arrangements in effect immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(e) Paid Time Off. During the Employment Term, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the paid time off policies generally applicable to CFI's senior executives as are in effect from time to time.

(f) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that the Executive incurs in connection with his employment during the Employment Term or his employment by CC during the 90-day period prior to the Effective Date upon presentation of expense statements or vouchers and such other information as the Company may require in accordance with the generally applicable policies and procedures of the Company applicable to CFI's senior executive officers as are in effect from time to time. No expense payment or reimbursement under this Section 3(f) shall be grossed up or increased to take into account any tax liability incurred by the Executive as a result of such payment or reimbursement.

(g) Insurance; Indemnification. The Executive shall be covered by such comprehensive directors' and officers' liability insurance and errors and omissions liability insurance as the Company shall have established and maintained in respect of its directors and officers generally at its expense, and the Company shall cause such insurance policies to be maintained in a manner reasonably acceptable to the Executive both during and, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4(a)(i)(D) below, after, Executive's employment with the Company. The Executive shall also be entitled to indemnification rights, benefits and related expense advances and reimbursements to the same extent as any other director or officer of CFI and to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law pursuant to an indemnification agreement (the Indemnification Agreement).

(h) Attorneys' Fees. The Company shall promptly pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Executive in connection with the review, negotiation, drafting and execution of this Agreement, the Restrictive Covenants Agreement, the Lock-Up and Liquidated Damages Agreement and any related arrangements, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $100,000, subject to the Executive providing the Company with reasonable documentation of such fees within thirty (30) days following the Effective Date. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for such fees within ten (10) business days following Executive's submission to the Company of the documentation evidencing the fees.

4. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

(a) General Provisions.

(i) Upon any termination of Executive's employment with the Company, the Executive shall be entitled to receive the following: (A) any accrued but unpaid Base Salary and vacation (determined in accordance with Company policy) through the date of termination (paid in cash within thirty (30) days (or such shorter period required by applicable law) following the date of termination); (B) reimbursement for expenses and fees incurred by the Executive prior to the date of termination in accordance with Sections 3(f) and 3(h); (C) vested and accrued benefits, if any, to which the Executive may be entitled under the Company's employee benefit plans as of the date of termination (including continued access to health insurance coverage for the Executive and his dependents during the Executive's lifetime to be paid for in full by the Executive (including any taxes for which the Executive or the Company may incur solely as a result of the Company providing such access)); and (D) any additional amounts or benefits due under any applicable plan, program, agreement or arrangement of the Company (including continuing tail indemnification and directors and officers liability insurance for actions and inactions occurring while the Executive provided services for CFI and its affiliates and continued coverage for any actions or inactions by the Executive while providing cooperation under this Agreement), including any such plan, program, agreement or arrangement relating to equity or equity-based awards (the amounts and benefits described in clauses (A) through (D) above, collectively, the Accrued Benefits). The Accrued Benefits shall in all events be paid in accordance with the Company's payroll procedures, expense reimbursement procedures or plan terms, as applicable.

(ii) During any notice period required under this Section 4, (A) the Executive shall remain employed by the Company and shall continue to be bound by all the terms of this Agreement and any other applicable duties and obligations to the Company, (B) the Company may direct the Executive not to report to work, and (C) the Executive shall only undertake such actions on behalf of the Company, consistent with his position, as expressly directed by the Company.

(b) Termination for Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason.

(i) The Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated at any time either (A) by the Company for Cause (as defined and determined below), effective as set forth in Section 4(b)(iii), or (B) by the Executive without Good Reason, effective 30 days following the date on which notice of such termination is given by the Executive to the Company.

(ii) If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause, or by the Executive without Good Reason, the Executive shall only be entitled to receive the Accrued Benefits.

(iii) For purposes of this Agreement, a termination for Cause shall mean a termination of the Executive's employment with the Company because of (A) the Executive's conviction of, or plea of no contest to, any felony under the laws of the United States or any state within the United States (other than a traffic-related felony) which termination shall become effective immediately as of the date the Board determines to terminate the Agreement, which action must be taken on or after the date of such conviction or plea or within 60 days thereafter; (B) the Executive's willful and gross misconduct in connection with the performance of his duties to the Company (other than by reason of his incapacity or disability), it being expressly understood that the Company's dissatisfaction with the Executive's performance shall not constitute Cause; or (C) a continuous, willful and material breach by the Executive of this Agreement after written notice of such breach has been provided to the Executive by the Board, provided, that, in no event shall any action or omission in subsections (B) or (C) constitute Cause unless (1) the Company gives notice to the Executive stating that the Executive will be terminated for Cause, specifying the particulars thereof in reasonable detail and the effective date of such termination (which shall be no less than ten (10) business days following the date on which such written notice is received by the Executive) (the Cause Termination Notice), (2) the Company provides the Executive and his counsel with an opportunity to appear before the Board to rebut or dispute the alleged reason for termination on a specified date that is at least three business days following the date on which the Cause Termination Notice is given, but prior to the stated termination date described in clause (1), (3) a majority of the Board (calculated without regard to the Executive) determines that the Executive has failed to materially cure or cease such misconduct or breach within ten (10) business days after the Cause Termination Notice is given to him and (4) in the case of subsections (B) and (C) above, the Company has suffered, or is reasonably expected to suffer, material economic or reputational harm. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, no act, or failure to act, on the Executive's part shall be considered willful unless done or omitted to be done, by him not in good faith and without reasonable belief that his action or omission was in the best interest of the Company, and any act or omission by the Executive pursuant to the authority given pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the Board or on the advice of counsel for the Company will be deemed made in good faith and in the best interests of the Company.

(c) Termination by the Company without Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason.

(i) The Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated (A) by the Company at any time without Cause, effective four (4) business days following the date on which written notice to such effect is delivered to the Executive, or (B) by the Executive for Good Reason (as defined and determined below), effective as set forth in Section 4(c)(iii).

(ii) If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive (A) the Accrued Benefits and (B) upon the Executive's execution of a separation agreement containing a general release of claims substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A hereto (the Release), and the expiration of the applicable revocation period with respect to such Release within 60 days following the date of termination (the date on which the Release becomes effective, the Release Effective Date):

(A) A lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (i) three and (ii) the sum of (1) the Base Salary in effect immediately prior to the date of termination (without regard to any reduction that gives rise to Good Reason) and (2) (x) if such termination occurs on or after the date on which the Annual Bonus, if any, is paid to the Executive in respect of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs (the Third Annual Bonus), the average Annual Bonus paid in respect of each of the three calendar years prior to the date of termination or (y) if such termination occurs prior to the date on which the Third Annual Bonus, if any, is paid, the Target Bonus Amount in effect immediately prior to the date of termination (without regard to any reduction that gives rise to Good Reason), payable on the first regularly scheduled payroll date of the Company following the Release Effective Date and in no event later than the 60th day following the date of termination (the actual date of payment, the Severance Payment Date); provided, that, if the 60 day period referenced in Section 4(c)(ii) begins in one calendar year and ends in a subsequent calendar year, the Severance Payment Date will in all events occur in the second calendar year;

(B) A lump sum cash payment equal to the Annual Bonus, if any, that the Executive would have received in respect of the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the termination occurs had the Executive remained an active employee of the Company, based on the achievement of the applicable performance measures, to the extent unpaid as of the termination date, payable on the date such amount would have been paid had the Executive continued in employment (the Unpaid Bonus);

(C) A lump-sum payment equal to the product of (1) the Target Annual Bonus in effect for the calendar year in which the termination occurs, and (2) a fraction, the numerator of which shall equal the number of days during the year in which the termination date occurs that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which shall equal 365, payable on the Severance Payment Date (the Pro-Rated Bonus);

(D) Continuation of the Company's contributions necessary to maintain the Executive's coverage for the 24 calendar months immediately following the end of the calendar month in which the termination date occurs under the medical, dental and vision programs in which the Executive participated immediately prior to his termination of employment (and such coverage shall include the Executive's eligible dependents); provided, that, if the Company determines in good faith that such contributions would cause adverse tax consequences to the Company or the Executive under applicable law, the Company shall instead provide the Executive with monthly cash payments during such 24-month period in an amount that, after reduction for applicable taxes (assuming the Executive pays taxes at the highest marginal rates in the applicable jurisdictions), is equal to the amount of the Company's monthly contributions referenced above. The applicable period of health benefit continuation under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA) shall begin on the expiration of such 24-month period;

(E) Full vesting as of the date of termination of any and all equity or equity-based awards relating to the securities of the Company and any Fund Incentives that are outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the date of such termination; and

(F) Continued provision of the security and kidnap insurance as in effect immediately prior to the date of such termination, for the later to occur of (x) the scheduled expiration of the Employment Term and (y) 24 calendar months immediately following the date of such termination.

(iii) For purposes of this Agreement, Good Reason shall mean any action by the Company, in each case without the Executive's prior written consent, that (A) results in a material diminution in the Executive's duties, authority or responsibilities or a diminution in Executive's title or position; provided, that (x) causing the Executive to no longer report solely and directly to the Board, (y) modifying the Executive's title and (z) failing to maintain Executive on the Board shall all constitute Good Reason; (B) reduces the Base Salary, Target Annual Bonus or Target LTIP Award then in effect; (C) relocates the Executive's principal place of employment to a location more than 25 miles from the location in effect immediately prior to such relocation; or (D) constitutes a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement between the Executive and the Company, which such material breach shall include (i) any action by the Company that restricts the Executive's ability to perform the CCHLLC Duties or (ii) the failure of the Board to provide the Executive with the opportunity to serve as the Chief Executive Officer of CFI following a CEO Termination; provided, that, in no event shall the occurrence of any such condition constitute Good Reason unless (1) the Executive gives notice to the Company of the existence of the Executive's knowledge of the condition giving rise to Good Reason within 90 days following its initial existence, (2) the Company fails to cure such condition within 30 days following the date such notice is given and (3) the Executive terminates his employment with the Company within 30 days following the expiration of such cure period.

(d) Termination Due to Death or Disability.

(i) The Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder (A) may be terminated by the Company as a result of the Executive's Disability (as defined and determined below) and (B) shall terminate immediately as a result of the Executive's death.

(ii) If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the Executive's Disability or terminates as a result of the Executive's death, the Company shall provide the Executive (or his estate) with: (A) the Accrued Benefits, (B) the Unpaid Bonus, (C) a lump-sum payment equal to the Pro-Rated Bonus with respect to the calendar year in which the termination occurs and (D) full vesting as of the date of termination of any and all equity or equity-based awards relating to the securities of the Company and any Fund Incentives that are outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the date of such termination.

(iii) For purposes of this Agreement, Disability shall mean a physical or mental incapacity that substantially prevents the Executive from performing his duties hereunder and that has continued for at least 180 consecutive days. Any dispute as to whether or not the Executive is disabled within the meaning of the preceding sentence shall be resolved by a qualified, independent physician reasonably satisfactory to the Executive and the Company, and the determination of such physician shall be final and binding upon both the Executive and the Company. All fees and expenses of any such physician shall be borne solely by the Company.

(e) Non-Renewal of Agreement.

(i) If the Company gives a Non-Renewal Notice to the Executive, the Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate as of the expiration of the Initial Term or then-current Renewal Term, as applicable, and the Company shall provide the Executive with all of the payments and benefits set forth in Section 4(c) hereof, subject to his execution and non-revocation of the Release by the Release Effective Date.

(ii) If the Executive gives a Non-Renewal Notice to the Company, the Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate as of the expiration of the Initial Term or then-current Renewal Term, as applicable, and the Company shall provide the Executive with (w) the Accrued Benefits,

(x) any Unpaid Bonus in respect of the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the termination occurs, (y) a Pro-Rated Bonus in respect of the calendar year in which the termination occurs and (z) in the event that such Notice of Non-Renewal is given by the Executive upon his retirement from the Company on or after his attainment of age 72, full vesting as of the date of termination of any and all equity or equity-based awards relating to the securities of the Company and any Fund Incentives that are outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the date of such termination.

(f) Return of Property. Upon any termination of the Executive's employment hereunder, the Executive shall as soon as practicable following such termination deliver or cause to be delivered to the Company the tangible property owned by the Company, which is in the possession or control of the Executive. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall be permitted to retain his calendar and his contacts and investor lists, all compensation-related plans and agreements, any documents reasonably needed for personal tax purposes and his personal notes, journals, diaries and correspondence (including personal emails). In addition, the Executive shall be able to retain his mobile phone(s) and personal computer(s) and his cell phone number(s).

(g) Resignation as Officer or Director. Unless requested otherwise by the Company, upon any termination of the Executive's employment hereunder the Executive shall resign each position (if any) that the Executive then holds as an officer or director of the Company. The Executive's execution of this Agreement shall be deemed the grant by the Executive to the officers of the Company of a limited power of attorney to sign in the Executive's name and on the Executive's behalf any such documentation as may be required to be executed solely for the limited purposes of effectuating such resignations.

(h) No Set-Off or Mitigation. The Company's obligations to make payments under this Agreement shall not be affected by any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment or other claim the Company or any of its affiliates may have against the Executive. The Executive does not need to seek other employment or take any other action to mitigate any amounts owed to the Executive under this Agreement, and those amounts shall not be reduced if the Executive does obtain other employment.

5. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS. The Executive is entering into the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B hereto (the Restrictive Covenant Agreement), as of the date hereof. The Restrictive Covenant Agreement shall become effective as of the Effective Date and shall continue in effect at all applicable times following the Effective Date in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof.

(a) Treatment of Payments. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement to the contrary, in the event that an independent, nationally recognized, accounting firm which shall be designated by the Company with the Executive's written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) (the Accounting Firm) shall determine that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive from the Company or any of its affiliates or from any person who effectuates a change in control or effective control of the Company or any of such person's affiliates (whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, the Total Payments) would fail to be deductible under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), or otherwise would be subject (in whole or part) to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the Excise Tax) then the Accounting Firm shall determine if the payments or benefits to be received by the Executive that are subject to Section 280G of the Code shall be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax, but such reduction shall occur if and only to the extent that the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes, and employment, Social Security and Medicare taxes on such reduced

Total Payments), is greater than or equal to the net amount of such Total Payments without such reduction (but after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes and employment, Social Security and Medicare taxes on such Total Payments and the amount of Excise Tax (or any other excise tax) to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such unreduced Total Payments). For purposes of this Section 6(a), the above tax amounts shall be determined by applying the highest marginal rate under Section 1 of the Code and under state and local laws which applied (or is likely to apply) to the Executive's taxable income for the tax year in which the transaction which causes the application of Section 280G of the Code occurs, or such other rate(s) as the Accounting Firm determines to be likely to apply to the Executive in the relevant tax year(s) in which any of the Total Payments is expected to be made. If the Accounting Firm determines that the Executive would not retain a larger amount on an after-tax basis if the Total Payments were so reduced, then the Executive shall retain all of the Total Payments.

(b) Ordering of Reduction. In the case of a reduction in the Total Payments pursuant to Section 6(a), the Total Payments will be reduced in the following order: (i) payments that are payable in cash that are valued at full value under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24(a) will be reduced (if necessary, to zero), with amounts that are payable last reduced first; (ii) payments and benefits due in respect of any equity valued at full value under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24(a), with the highest values reduced first (as such values are determined under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24) will next be reduced; (iii) payments that are payable in cash that are valued at less than full value under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24, with amounts that are payable last reduced first, will next be reduced; (iv) payments and benefits due in respect of any equity valued at less than full value under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24, with the highest values reduced first (as such values are determined under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24) will next be reduced; and (v) all other non-cash benefits not otherwise described in clauses (ii) or (iv) will be next reduced pro-rata.

(c) Certain Determinations. For purposes of determining whether and the extent to which the Total Payments will be subject to the Excise Tax: (i) no portion of the Total Payments the receipt or enjoyment of which the Executive shall have waived at such time and in such manner as not to constitute a payment within the meaning of Section 280G(b) of the Code will be taken into account; (ii) no portion of the Total Payments will be taken into account which, in the opinion of tax counsel (Tax Counsel) reasonably acceptable to the Executive and selected by the Accounting Firm, does not constitute a parachute payment within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code (including by reason of Section 280G(b)(4)(A) of the Code) and, in calculating the Excise Tax, no portion of such Total Payments will be taken into account which, in the opinion of Tax Counsel, constitutes reasonable compensation for services actually rendered, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(4)(B) of the Code, in excess of the base amount (as set forth in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) that is allocable to such reasonable compensation; and (iii) the value of any non-cash benefit or any deferred payment or benefit included in the Total Payments will be determined by the Accounting Firm in accordance with the principles of Sections 280G(d)(3) and (4) of the Code. The Executive and the Company shall furnish such documentation and documents as may be necessary for the Accounting Firm to perform the requisite calculations and analysis under this Section 6 (and shall cooperate to the extent necessary for any of the determinations in this Section 6(c) to be made), and the Accounting Firm shall provide a written report of its determinations hereunder, including detailed supporting calculations. If the Accounting Firm determines that aggregate Total Payments should be reduced as described above, it shall promptly notify the Executive and the Company to that effect. In the absence of manifest error, all determinations by the Accounting Firm under this Section 6 shall be binding on the Executive and the Company and shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable and in no event later than fifteen (15) days following the later of the Executive's date of termination of employment or the date of the transaction which causes the application of Section 280G of the Code. The Company shall bear all costs, fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm and any legal counsel retained by the Accounting Firm.

(d) Additional Payments. If the Executive receives reduced payments and benefits by reason of this Section 6 and it is established pursuant to a determination of a court of competent jurisdiction which is not subject to review or as to which the time to appeal has expired, or pursuant to an Internal Revenue Service proceeding, that the Executive could have received a greater amount without resulting in any Excise Tax, then the Company shall thereafter pay the Executive the aggregate additional amount which could have been paid without resulting in any Excise Tax as soon as reasonably practicable following such determination.

7. ASSIGNMENT; ASSUMPTION OF AGREEMENT. No right, benefit or interest hereunder shall be subject to assignment, encumbrance, charge, pledge, hypothecation or setoff by the Executive in respect of any claim, debt, obligation or similar process. This Agreement may not be assigned by CFI and CFI will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company to assume expressly and to agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform it if no such succession had taken place.

8. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(a) No Breach of Obligation to Others. The Executive represents and warrants that his entering into this Agreement does not, and that his performance under this Agreement and consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will not, violate the provisions of any agreement or instrument to which the Executive is a party or any decree, judgment or order to which the Executive is subject, and that this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Executive enforceable against the Executive in accordance with its terms.

(b) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California applicable to agreements entered into and to be performed entirely within such state.

(c) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the documents referred to herein, constitutes and expresses the whole agreement of the parties hereto with reference to any of the matters or things herein provided for or herein before discussed or mentioned with reference to the Executive's employment with the Company, and it cancels and replaces any and all prior understandings, agreements and term sheets between the Executive and CFI and any of its subsidiaries or affiliates; provided, that, this Agreement shall not alter, amend or supersede (i) any Fund Incentives issued to Executive by CC in connection with his prior employment, (ii) any interest the Executive or any of his affiliates may have in any general partner of any fund or related entity managed by the Company, the terms of any of the OP Units issued pursuant to, or other rights the Executive may have under the Contribution Agreements, (iii) the Ancillary Documents (as defined in the Contribution Agreement), (iv) the Indemnification Agreement referenced in Section 3(g) of this Agreement to which the Executive or any of his affiliates is a party or beneficiary and (v) any equity grant made by CFI to the Executive prior to the Effective Date. All promises, representations, collateral agreements and understandings not expressly incorporated in this Agreement are hereby superseded by this Agreement.

(d) Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted hereunder must be made in writing and will be deemed to have been duly given and effective: (a) on the date of delivery, if delivered personally; (b) on the earlier of the fourth day after mailing or the date of the return receipt acknowledgment, if mailed, postage prepaid, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested; (c) on the date of transmission, if sent by facsimile; or (d) on the date of requested delivery if sent by a recognized overnight courier:

(e) Survival. The representations, warranties and covenants of the Executive contained in this Agreement will survive any termination of the Executive's employment with the Company.

(f) Amendment; Waiver; Termination. No provision of this Agreement may be amended, modified, waived or discharged unless such amendment, modification, waiver or discharge is agreed to in writing and signed by the Executive and CFI. No waiver by either party hereto at any time of any breach by the other party hereto of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time. This Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein shall terminate automatically without any further action by any party upon the termination of the Contribution Agreement.

(g) Further Assurances. The parties hereto will from time to time after the date hereof execute, acknowledge where appropriate and deliver such further instruments and take such other actions as any other party may reasonably request in order to carry out the intent and purposes of this Agreement.

(h) Severability. If any term of provision hereof is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in a final court or arbitration proceeding, (i) the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall be unimpaired and (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the invalid or unenforceable term or provision shall be deemed replaced by a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

(i) Arbitration. Except as otherwise set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement that cannot be mutually resolved by the parties hereto shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in Santa Monica, California before a panel of three neutral arbitrators, each of whom shall be selected jointly by the parties, or, if the parties cannot agree on the selection of the arbitrators, as selected by the American Arbitration Association. The commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association (the AAA Rules) shall govern any arbitration between the parties, except that the following provisions are included in the parties' agreement to arbitrate and override any contrary provisions in the AAA Rules:

(i) The agreement to arbitrate and the rights of the parties hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflict or choice of law rules;

(ii) The California Arbitration Act shall govern the arbitration, the agreement to arbitrate, and any proceedings to enforce, confirm, modify or vacate the award;

(iii) The arbitrators shall apply California law;

(iv) Any petition or motion to modify or vacate the award shall be filed in a Superior Court in California (the Court);

(iv) The award shall be written, reasoned, and shall include findings of fact as to all factual issues and conclusions of law as to all legal issues;

(v) Either party may seek a de novo review by the Court of the conclusions of law included in the award and any petition or motion to enforce, confirm, modify or vacate the award; and

(vi) The arbitration shall be confidential. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrators' award in any court having jurisdiction.

The parties hereby agree that the arbitrators shall be empowered to enter an equitable decree mandating specific enforcement of the terms of this Agreement. Each party shall bear its own legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses incurred in any arbitration hereunder and the parties shall share equally all expenses of the arbitrators; provided, that, the arbitrator shall have the same authority to award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party in any arbitration as part of the arbitrator's award as would be the case had the dispute or controversy been argued before a court with competent jurisdiction.

(j) Section 409A. The intent of the parties is that payments and benefits under this Agreement comply with Section 409A of the Code, to the extent subject thereto, and accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted and administered to be in compliance therewith. In the event that any provision of Agreement or any other agreement or award referenced herein is mutually agreed by the parties to be in violation of Section 409A of the Code, the parties shall cooperate reasonably to attempt to amend or modify this Agreement (or other agreement or award) in order to avoid a violation of Section 409A of the Code while attempting to preserve the economic intent of the applicable provision. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Executive shall not be considered to have terminated employment with the Company for purposes of any payments under this Agreement which are subject to Section 409A of the Code until the Executive would be considered to have incurred a separation from service from the Company within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code. Each amount to be paid or benefit to be provided under this Agreement shall be construed as a separate identified payment for purposes of Section 409A of the Code. Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, to the extent required in order to avoid accelerated taxation and/or tax penalties under Section 409A of the Code, amounts that would otherwise be payable and benefits that would otherwise be provided pursuant to this Agreement or any other arrangement between the Executive and the Company during the six-month period immediately following the Executive's separation from service shall instead be paid on the first business day after the date that is six months following the Executive's separation from service (or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death). To the extent required to avoid an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A of the Code, amounts reimbursable to the Executive under this Agreement shall be paid to the Executive on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred and the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement (and in kind benefits provided to the Executive) during one year may not affect amounts reimbursable or provided in any subsequent year. CFI makes no representation that any or all of the payments described in this Agreement will be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Code and makes no undertaking to preclude Section 409A of the Code from applying to any such payment. For purposes of this Section 8(j), Section 409A of the Code shall include all regulations and guidance promulgated thereunder.

(k) Headings. The headings in this Agreement are for reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

(l) Construction. The parties acknowledge that this Agreement is the result of arm's-length negotiations between sophisticated parties, each afforded representation by legal counsel. Each and every provision of this Agreement shall be construed as though both parties participated equally in the drafting of the same, and any rule of construction that a document shall be construed against the drafting party shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

(m) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but both such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same document.

(n) Tax Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement all federal, state, city or other taxes as the Company is required to withhold pursuant to any applicable law, regulation or ruling. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company shall not be obligated to guarantee any particular tax result for the Executive with respect to any payment provided to the Executive hereunder, and the Executive shall be responsible for any taxes imposed on Executive with respect to any such payment.

(o) Cooperation. For a period of 12 months following the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, the Executive shall provide reasonable cooperation in connection with any action or proceeding (or any appeal from any action or proceeding) which relates to events during the Executive's employment hereunder of which the Executive has knowledge. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for the Executive's reasonable travel expenses incurred in connection with the foregoing, in accordance with the Company's policies (and consistent with the Executive's travel practices during the Executive's employment with the Company) and subject to the delivery of reasonable support for such expenses. Any such requests for cooperation shall be subject to the Executive's business and personal schedule and the Executive shall not be required to cooperate against his own legal interests or the legal interests of his employer or partners or business ventures. In the event the Executive reasonably determines that he needs separate legal counsel in connection with his cooperation, the Company shall reimburse the Executive for the reasonable costs of such counsel as soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) following its receipt of an invoice for such costs. In the event the Executive is required to cooperate for more than eight (8) hours in any 12-month period, the Executive shall be paid an hourly consulting fee in an amount mutually agreed between the Company and Executive at the time.

(p) Effectiveness. This Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein shall be conditioned upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement. In the event that the Contribution Agreement terminates prior to the closing of the transactions contemplated thereby, this Agreement shall terminate automatically without any further action by any party and shall be void ab initio.

Section 1542 provides:

Section 1542. (General Release-Claims Extinguished) A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

Executive understands and acknowledges the significance and consequences of this specific waiver of Section 1542 and, having had the opportunity to consult with legal counsel, hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives and relinquishes any rights and/or benefits which he may have thereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Executive acknowledges that by accepting the benefits and payments offered in exchange for this Release, he assumes and waives the risks that the facts and the law may be other than he believes and that, after signing this Release, he may discover losses or claims that are released under this Release, but that are presently unknown to him, and he understands and agrees that this Release shall apply to any such losses or claims.

(c) Acknowledgement of ADEA Waiver. Without in any way limiting the scope of the foregoing general release of claims, Executive acknowledges that he is waiving and releasing any rights he may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the ADEA) and that such waiver and release is knowing and voluntary. Executive further understands that he shall relinquish any right he has to Post-Termination Benefits described in the Employment Agreement if he exercises his right to revoke this Release. Notice of revocation must be made in writing and must be received by [Name, Title], no later than 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time on the seventh (7th) calendar day immediately after the day on which Executive executes this Release.

4. NO CLAIMS BY EXECUTIVE. Executive affirms and warrants that he has not filed, initiated or caused to be filed or initiated any claim, charge, suit, complaint, grievance, action or cause of action against Employer or any of the other Employer Released Parties.

5. NO ASSIGNMENT OF CLAIMS. Executive affirms and warrants that he has made no assignment of any right or interest in any claim which he may have against any of the Employer Released Parties.

CFI, together with its subsidiaries is hereinafter referred to as the Company, and where the context permits, references to the Company shall include the Company and any successor to the Company.

WHEREAS, certain businesses of the Company are currently externally managed and advised by a subsidiary of Colony Capital, LLC (CC) pursuant to the terms of a management agreement;

WHEREAS, CFI, CC, Colony Capital Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (CC Holdings), Colony Capital OP Subsidiary, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (NewCo), CCH Management Partners I, LLC (CCH), FHB Holding LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, Richard B. WHEREAS, CFI desires to enter into this Agreement with the Executive, effective as of the closing of the Contribution (the date on which such closing occurs, the Effective Date), pursuant to which the Executive will become employed by CFI Operating Company, LLC or one of its subsidiaries (as applicable, the Operating Entity) and will continue to serve as the Chief Executive Officer and President of CFI.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises, the mutual covenants, terms and conditions set forth herein, and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. EMPLOYMENT TERM. The Executive's employment under the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall expire on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date (the Initial Term); provided, however, that on the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date and on each subsequent anniversary thereof, the term of this Agreement shall automatically be extended for an additional one-year period (each a Renewal Term) unless, not later than 180 days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term or the then-current Renewal Term, as applicable, either party provides written notice to the other party hereto that such extension shall not take effect (a Non-Renewal Notice). The period during which the Executive is employed by the Company during the Initial Term and any Renewal Term pursuant to this Agreement is referred to herein as the Employment Term . Notwithstanding anything set forth in this Section 1 to the contrary, the Employment Term and the Executive's employment shall earlier terminate immediately upon the termination of the Executive's employment pursuant to Section 4 hereof.

2. POSITION; REPORTING AND DUTIES; LOCATION.

(a) Position and Reporting. During the Employment Term, the Executive shall serve as the Chief Executive Officer and President of CFI. The Executive shall report directly to the Executive Chairman of the Company during the Employment Term unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors of CFI (the Board).

(b) Duties and Responsibilities.

(i) During the Employment Term, the Executive shall devote substantially all of his full business time and attention to the performance of his duties hereunder, shall faithfully serve the Company and shall have no other employment which is undisclosed to the Company or which conflicts with his duties under this Agreement; provided, that, nothing contained herein shall prohibit the Executive from (A) participating in trade associations or industry organizations, (B) engaging in charitable, civic, educational or political activities, (C) delivering lectures or fulfilling speaking engagements, (D) engaging in personal investment activities and personal real estate-related activities for himself and his family or (E) accepting directorships or similar positions (together, the Personal Activities), in each case so long as the Personal Activities do not unreasonably interfere, individually or in the aggregate, with the performance of the Executive's duties to the Company under this Agreement. The Company hereby acknowledges and approves the current activities of the Executive as set forth on Schedule 1 hereto, each of which shall be deemed a Personal Activity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent that the Personal Activities include the Executive providing services to any for-profit company (excluding CC and CFI, and any subsidiaries or portfolio companies thereof) as a member of such company's board of directors, only two such directorships shall be permitted as a Personal Activity.

(ii) In serving in his capacity as the Chief Executive Officer and President of CFI during the Employment Term, the Executive shall (A) perform such duties and provide such services as are reasonably consistent with those provided by the Executive to CFI in his role as its Chief Executive Officer and President prior to the Effective Date and (B) provide such other duties as are consistent with his role as Chief Executive Officer and President of CFI, as reasonably requested from time to time by the Board or the Executive Chairman.

(iii) The parties acknowledge and agree that all of the compensation and benefits provided to the Executive hereunder will be in respect of services performed by the Executive for the Operating Entity.

(c) Location of Employment. The Executive's principal place of business during the Employment Term shall be at the Company's office in New York City; provided, that, the Executive may perform his duties in such other locations in his reasonable discretion so long as he performs such duties in a manner consistent with his position and responsibilities and takes into consideration the needs of the Company; provided further, that the Executive may be required to engage in travel during the Employment Term in the performance of his duties hereunder including at the Board's reasonable request. In the event such travel results in the Executive having to perform a significant portion of his duties at a Company location other than his principal place of business for a significant period of time, and Executive determines to relocate his principal place of residence to a city in proximity to such other Company location, on a permanent or temporary basis, the Company shall pay for all relocation and return expenses on a tax-grossed up basis, with such payments subject to approval, not to be unreasonably withheld, by the Board or a committee of directors delegated by the Board.

3. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS.

(a) Base Salary. During the Employment Term, the Company will pay to the Executive a base salary at the annualized rate of not less than $800,000 (the base salary in effect from time to time, the Base Salary). The Base Salary will be paid to the Executive in accordance with the Company's customary compensation practices from time to time in effect for the Company's senior executive officers. The Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) will review the Base Salary from time to time, but at least annually, during the Employment Term, but may not reduce the Executive's then-existing Base Salary without the Executive's prior written consent and agreement.

(b) Annual Cash Bonus.

(i) For each calendar year during the Employment Term beginning with the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs, the Executive shall be given an opportunity to earn an annual incentive cash bonus based on an evaluation by the Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) of the Executive's performance in respect of the applicable calendar year; provided, that, the Board or such committee may determine prior to the beginning of any such calendar year to instead condition the payment of all or a portion of the cash bonus with respect to the applicable calendar year upon the achievement of performance measures determined by the Board or such committee in consultation with the Executive (as applicable, the Annual Bonus). The Executive's target Annual Bonus for each calendar year during the Employment Term (including the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs) shall be no less than $2,400,000 (such amount, as increased from time to time, the Target Bonus Amount). If the Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board), establishes reasonable performance measures as provided for above, the actual Annual Bonus amount paid to the Executive in respect of any calendar year during the Employment Term shall be based on the achievement of the applicable performance measures and may be less or more than the applicable Target Bonus Amount. The Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) will review the Target Bonus Amount from time to time, but at least annually, during the Employment Term, but may not reduce the Executive's then-existing Target Bonus Amount without the Executive's prior written consent and agreement. The Executive's Annual Bonus for the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs shall not be pro-rated.

(ii) Any Annual Bonus payment that becomes payable to the Executive hereunder will be paid to him in a cash lump sum by no later than March 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year to which it relates (and no later than the date on which bonuses are paid to other senior executive officers of CFI); provided, that, except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, the Executive is an active employee as of, and has not given or received notice of termination of employment as of, the date such payment would otherwise be made.

(c) Equity Incentives and Related Awards.

(i) For each calendar year during the Employment Term beginning with the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs, the Executive shall be eligible to receive equity and equity-based incentive awards (LTIP Awards), with an annual target LTIP Award opportunity equal to 350% of Base Salary (the target amount in effect from time to time, the Target LTIP Award). The target LTIP Award for any calendar year and any applicable performance measures will be determined by the Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) in consultation with the Executive. The Board (or a committee of directors delegated by the Board) will review the Target LTIP Award from time to time, but at least annually, during the Employment Term, but may not reduce the Executive's then-existing Target LTIP Award without the Executive's prior written consent and agreement.

(ii) The Executive shall (x) continue to receive allocations in respect of carried interests, incentive fees and other such remuneration in respect of funds and similar vehicles, as applicable, managed by the Company that were granted to the Executive prior to the Effective Date and (y) be eligible to be granted new allocations in respect of carried interests, incentive fees and other such remuneration in respect of funds and similar vehicles, as applicable managed by the Company (collectively, (Fund Incentives). Allocations of all Fund Incentives provided to executive officers and other employees of the Company shall be made as determined by the Board of Directors (or a committee of the directors delegated by the Board) in consultation with the Executive.

(iii) The terms and conditions (including with respect to vesting) of any LTIP Awards and Fund Incentives shall be no less favorable than the terms and conditions of any LTIP Awards and Fund Incentives, as applicable, granted to the executive officers of the Company during the same calendar year.

(d) Retirement, Welfare and Fringe Benefits. During the Employment Term, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the retirement savings, medical, disability, life insurance, perquisite and other welfare and fringe benefit plans applicable to senior executive officers of CFI generally in accordance with the terms of such plans as are in effect from time to time. The foregoing shall not be construed to limit the ability of the Company to amend, modify or terminate any such benefit plans, policies or programs in accordance with their terms or to cease providing such benefit plans, policies or programs at any time and from time to time; provided, that, subject to the last sentence of this Section 3(d), the terms and conditions imposed on Executive's participation in such plans, policies or programs and any adverse amendments, terminations and modifications are at least as favorable to Executive as those applicable to the other senior executives. In addition, the Executive shall continue to receive the other fringe benefits and perquisites provided to the Executive by CC and its affiliates immediately prior to the Effective Date.

(e) Paid Time Off. During the Employment Term, the Executive shall be eligible to participate in the paid time off policies generally applicable to CFI's senior executives as are in effect from time to time.

(f) Business Expenses. The Company shall pay or reimburse the Executive for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that the Executive incurs in connection with his employment during the Employment Term or his employment by CC during the 90-day period prior to the Effective Date upon presentation of expense statements or vouchers and such other information as the Company may require in accordance with the generally applicable policies and procedures of the Company applicable to CFI's senior executive officers as are in effect from time to time. No expense payment or reimbursement under this Section 3(f) shall be grossed up or increased to take into account any tax liability incurred by the Executive as a result of such payment or reimbursement.

(g) Insurance; Indemnification. The Executive shall be covered by such comprehensive directors and officers liability insurance and errors and omissions liability insurance as the Company shall have established and maintained in respect of its directors and officers generally at its expense, and the Company shall cause such insurance policies to be maintained in a manner reasonably acceptable to the Executive, both during and in accordance with the provisions of Section 4(a)(i)(D) below, after Executive's employment with the Company. The Executive shall also be entitled to indemnification rights, benefits and related expense advances and reimbursements to the same extent as any other director or officer of CFI and to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law pursuant to an indemnification agreement (the Indemnification Agreement).

(h) Attorneys Fees. The Company shall promptly pay or reimburse the Executive for reasonable attorneys fees incurred by the Executive in connection with the review, negotiation, drafting and execution of this Agreement, the Restrictive Covenants Agreement, the Share Transfer and Liquidated Damages Agreement and any related arrangements, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $50,000, subject to the Executive providing the Company with reasonable documentation of such fees within thirty (30) days following the Effective Date. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for such fees within ten (10) business days following Executive's submission to the Company of the documentation evidencing the fees.

4. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

(a) General Provisions.

(i) Upon any termination of Executive's employment with the Company, the Executive shall be entitled to receive the following: (A) any accrued but unpaid Base Salary and vacation (determined in accordance with Company policy) through the date of termination (paid in cash within thirty (30) days (or such shorter period required by applicable law) following the date of termination); (B) reimbursement for expenses and fees incurred by the Executive prior to the date of termination in accordance with Sections 3(f) and 3(h); (C) vested and accrued benefits, if any, to which the Executive may be entitled under the Company's employee benefit plans as of the date of termination (including continued access to health insurance coverage for the Executive and his dependents during the Executive's lifetime to be paid for in full by the Executive (including any taxes for which the Executive or the Company may incur solely as a result of the Company providing such access)); and (D) any additional amounts or benefits due under any applicable plan, program, agreement or arrangement of the Company (including continuing tail indemnification and directors and officers liability insurance for actions and inactions occurring while the Executive provided services for CFI and its affiliates and continued coverage for any actions or inactions by the Executive while providing cooperation under this Agreement), including any such plan, program, agreement or arrangement relating to equity or equity-based awards (the amounts and benefits described in clauses (A) through (D) above, collectively, the Accrued Benefits). The Accrued Benefits shall in all events be paid in accordance with the Company's payroll procedures, expense reimbursement procedures or plan terms, as applicable.

(ii) During any notice period required under this Section 4, (A) the Executive shall remain employed by the Company and shall continue to be bound by all the terms of this Agreement and any other applicable duties and obligations to the Company, (B) the Company may direct the Executive not to report to work, and (C) the Executive shall only undertake such actions on behalf of the Company, consistent with his position, as expressly directed by the Company.

(b) Termination for Cause or by the Executive without Good Reason.

(i) The Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated at any time either (A) by the Company for Cause (as defined and determined below), effective as set forth in Section 4(b)(iii), or (B) by the Executive without Good Reason, effective 30 days following the date on which notice of such termination is given by the Executive to the Company.

(ii) If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company for Cause, or by the Executive without Good Reason, the Executive shall only be entitled to receive the Accrued Benefits.

(iii) For purposes of this Agreement, a termination for Cause shall mean a termination of the Executive's employment with the Company because of (A) the Executive's conviction of, or plea of no contest to, any felony under the laws of the United States or any state within the United States (other than a traffic-related felony) which termination shall become effective immediately as of the date the Board determines to terminate the Agreement, which action must be taken on or after the date of such conviction or plea or within 60 days thereafter; (B) the Executive's willful and gross misconduct in connection with the performance of his duties to the Company (other than by reason of his incapacity or disability), it being expressly understood that the Company's dissatisfaction with the Executive's performance shall not constitute Cause; or (C) a continuous, willful and material breach by the Executive of this Agreement after written notice of such breach has been provided to the Executive by the Board, provided, that, in no event shall any action or omission in subsections (B) or (C) constitute Cause unless (1) the Company gives notice to the Executive stating that the Executive will be terminated for Cause, specifying the particulars thereof in reasonable detail and the effective date of such termination (which shall be no less than ten (10) business days following the date on which such written notice is received by the Executive) (the Cause Termination Notice), (2) the Company provides the Executive and his counsel with an opportunity to appear before the Board to rebut or dispute the alleged reason for termination on a specified date that is at least three business days following the date on which the Cause Termination Notice is given, but prior to the stated termination date described in clause (1), (3) a majority of the Board (calculated without regard to the Executive) determines that the Executive has failed to materially cure or cease such misconduct or breach within ten (10) business days after the Cause Termination Notice is given to him and (4) in the case of subsections (B) and (C) above, the Company has suffered, or is reasonably expected to suffer, material economic or reputational harm. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, no act, or failure to act, on the Executive's part shall be considered willful unless done or omitted to be done, by him not in good faith and without reasonable belief that his action or omission was in the best interest of the Company, and any act or omission by the Executive pursuant to the authority given pursuant to a resolution duly adopted by the Board or on the advice of counsel for the Company will be deemed made in good faith and in the best interests of the Company.

(c) Termination by the Company without Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason.

(i) The Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated (A) by the Company at any time without Cause, effective four (4) business days following the date on which written notice to such effect is delivered to the Executive, or (B) by the Executive for Good Reason (as defined and determined below), effective as set forth in Section 4(c)(iii).

Table of Contents

(ii) If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by the Executive for Good Reason, the Company shall pay or provide to the Executive (A) the Accrued Benefits and (B) upon the Executive's execution of a separation agreement containing a general release of claims substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A hereto (the Release), and the expiration of the applicable revocation period with respect to such Release within 60 days following the date of termination (the date on which the Release becomes effective, the Release Effective Date):

(A) A lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (i) three and (ii) the sum of (1) the Base Salary in effect immediately prior to the date of termination (without regard to any reduction that gives rise to Good Reason) and (2) (x) if such termination occurs on or after the date on which the Annual Bonus, if any, is paid to the Executive in respect of the second calendar year following the calendar year in which the Effective Date occurs (the Third Annual Bonus), the average Annual Bonus paid in respect of each of the three calendar years prior to the date of termination or (y) if such termination occurs prior to the date on which the Third Annual Bonus, if any, is paid, the Target Bonus Amount in effect immediately prior to the date of termination (without regard to any reduction that gives rise to Good Reason), payable on the first regularly scheduled payroll date of the Company following the Release Effective Date and in no event later than the 60th day following the date of termination (the actual date of payment, the Severance Payment Date); provided, that, if the 60 day period referenced in Section 4(c)(ii) begins in one calendar year and ends in a subsequent calendar year, the Severance Payment Date will in all events occur in the second calendar year;

(B) A lump sum cash payment equal to the Annual Bonus, if any, that the Executive would have received in respect of the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the termination occurs had the Executive remained an active employee of the Company, based on the achievement of the applicable performance measures, to the extent unpaid as of the termination date, payable on the date such amount would have been paid had the Executive continued in employment (the Unpaid Bonus);

(C) A lump-sum payment equal to the product of (1) the Target Annual Bonus in effect for the calendar year in which the termination occurs, and (2) a fraction, the numerator of which shall equal the number of days during the year in which the termination date occurs that the Executive was employed by the Company and the denominator of which shall equal 365, payable on the Severance Payment Date (the Pro-Rated Bonus);

(D) Continuation of the Company's contributions necessary to maintain the Executive's coverage for the 24 calendar months immediately following the end of the calendar month in which the termination date occurs under the medical, dental and vision programs in which the Executive participated immediately prior to his termination of employment (and such coverage shall include the Executive's eligible dependents); provided, that, if the Company determines in good faith that such contributions would cause adverse tax consequences to the Company or the Executive under applicable law, the Company shall instead provide the Executive with monthly cash payments during such 24-month period in an amount that, after reduction for applicable taxes (assuming the Executive pays taxes at the highest marginal rates in the applicable jurisdictions), is equal to the amount of the Company's monthly contributions referenced above. The applicable period of health benefit continuation under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA) shall begin on the expiration of such 24-month period; and

(iii) For purposes of this Agreement, Good Reason shall mean any action by the Company, in each case without the Executive's prior written consent, that (A) results in a material diminution in the Executive's duties, authority or responsibilities or a diminution in the Executive's title or position; provided that failing to maintain Executive on the Board shall constitute Good Reason; (B) requires the Executive to report to any person other than the Executive

Chairman or the Board (or any sub-committee thereof); (C) reduces the Base Salary, Target Annual Bonus or Target LTIP Award then in effect; (D) relocates the Executive's principal place of employment to a location more than 25 miles from the location in effect immediately prior to such relocation; or (E) constitutes a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement between the Executive and the Company; provided, that, in no event shall the occurrence of any such condition constitute Good Reason unless (1) the Executive gives notice to the Company of the existence of the Executive's knowledge of the condition giving rise to Good Reason within 90 days following its initial existence, (2) the Company fails to cure such condition within 30 days following the date such notice is given and (3) the Executive terminates his employment with the Company within 30 days following the expiration of such cure period.

(d) Termination Due to Death or Disability.

(i) The Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder (A) may be terminated by the Company as a result of the Executive's Disability (as defined and determined below) and (B) shall terminate immediately as a result of the Executive's death.

(ii) If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the Executive's Disability or terminates as a result of the Executive's death, the Company shall provide the Executive (or his estate) with: (A) the Accrued Benefits, (B) the Unpaid Bonus, (C) a lump-sum payment equal to the Pro-Rated Bonus with respect to the calendar year in which the termination occurs and (D) full vesting as of the date of termination of any and all equity or equity-based awards relating to the securities of the Company and any Fund Incentives that are outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the date of such termination.

(iii) For purposes of this Agreement, Disability shall mean a physical or mental incapacity that substantially prevents the Executive from performing his duties hereunder and that has continued for at least 180 consecutive days. Any dispute as to whether or not the Executive is disabled within the meaning of the preceding sentence shall be resolved by a qualified, independent physician reasonably satisfactory to the Executive and the Company, and the determination of such physician shall be final and binding upon both the Executive and the Company. All fees and expenses of any such physician shall be borne solely by the Company.

(e) Non-Renewal of Agreement.

(i) If the Company gives a Non-Renewal Notice to the Executive, the Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate as of the expiration of the Initial Term or then-current Renewal Term, as applicable, and the Company shall provide the Executive with all of the payments and benefits set forth in Section 4(c) hereof, subject to his execution and non-revocation of the Release by the Release Effective Date.

(ii) If the Executive gives a Non-Renewal Notice to the Company, the Employment Term and the Executive's employment hereunder shall terminate as of the expiration of the Initial Term or then-current Renewal Term, as applicable, and the Company shall provide the Executive with (w) the Accrued Benefits, (x) any Unpaid Bonus in respect of the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the termination occurs, (y) a Pro-Rated Bonus in respect of the calendar year in which the termination occurs and (z) in the event that such Notice of Non-Renewal is given by the Executive upon his retirement from the Company on or after his attainment of age 65, full vesting as of the date of termination of any and all equity or equity-based awards relating to the securities of the Company and any Fund Incentives that are outstanding and unvested immediately prior to the date of such termination.

(f) Return of Property. Upon any termination of the Executive's employment hereunder, the Executive shall as soon as practicable following such termination deliver or cause to be delivered to the Company the tangible property owned by the Company, which is in the possession or control of the Executive. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive shall be permitted to retain his calendar and his contacts and investor lists, all compensation-related plans and agreements, any documents reasonably needed for personal tax purposes and his personal notes, journals, diaries and correspondence (including personal emails). In addition, the Executive shall be able to retain his mobile phone(s) and personal computer(s) and his cell phone number(s).

(g) Resignation as Officer or Director. Unless requested otherwise by the Company, upon any termination of the Executive's employment hereunder the Executive shall resign each position (if any) that the Executive then holds as an officer or director of the Company. The Executive's execution of this Agreement shall be deemed the grant by the Executive to the officers of the Company of a limited power of attorney to sign in the Executive's name and on the Executive's behalf any such documentation as may be required to be executed solely for the limited purposes of effectuating such resignations.

(h) No Set-Off or Mitigation. The Company's obligations to make payments under this Agreement shall not be affected by any set-off, counterclaim, recoupment or other claim the Company or any of its affiliates may have against the Executive. The Executive does not need to seek other employment or take any other action to mitigate any amounts owed to the Executive under this Agreement, and those amounts shall not be reduced if the Executive does obtain other employment.

5. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS. The Executive is entering into the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit B hereto (the Restrictive Covenant Agreement), as of the date hereof. The Restrictive Covenant Agreement shall become effective as of the Effective Date and shall continue in effect at all applicable times following the Effective Date in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof.

6. SECTION 280G.

(a) Treatment of Payments. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement to the contrary, in the event that an independent, nationally recognized, accounting firm which shall be designated by the Company with the Executive's written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) (the Accounting Firm) shall determine that any payment or benefit received or to be received by the Executive from the Company or any of its affiliates or from any person who effectuates a change in control or effective control of the Company or any of such person's affiliates (whether pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other plan, arrangement or agreement) (all such payments and benefits, the Total Payments) would fail to be deductible under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), or otherwise would be subject (in whole or part) to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code (the Excise Tax) then the Accounting Firm shall determine if the payments or benefits to be received by the Executive that are subject to Section 280G of the Code shall be reduced to the extent necessary so that no portion of the Total Payments is subject to the Excise Tax, but such reduction shall occur if and only to the extent that the net amount of such Total Payments, as so reduced (and after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes, and employment, Social Security and Medicare taxes on such reduced Total Payments), is greater than or equal to the net amount of such Total Payments without such reduction (but after subtracting the net amount of federal, state and local income taxes and employment, Social Security and Medicare taxes on such Total Payments and the amount of Excise Tax (or any other excise tax) to which the Executive would be subject in respect of such unreduced Total Payments). For purposes of this Section 6(a), the above tax amounts shall be determined by applying the highest marginal rate under Section 1 of the Code and under state and local laws which applied (or is likely to apply) to the Executive's taxable income for the tax year in which the transaction which causes the application of Section 280G of the Code occurs, or such other rate(s) as the Accounting Firm determines to be likely to apply to the Executive in the relevant tax year(s) in which any of the Total Payments is expected to be made. If the Accounting Firm determines that the Executive would not retain a larger amount on an after-tax basis if the Total Payments were so reduced, then the Executive shall retain all of the Total Payments.

(b) Ordering of Reduction. In the case of a reduction in the Total Payments pursuant to Section 6(a), the Total Payments will be reduced in the following order: (i) payments that are payable in cash that are valued at full value under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24(a) will be reduced (if necessary, to zero), with amounts that are payable last reduced first; (ii) payments and benefits due in respect of any equity valued at full value under

Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24(a), with the highest values reduced first (as such values are determined under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24) will next be reduced; (iii) payments that are payable in cash that are valued at less than full value under Treasury Regulation

Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24, with amounts that are payable last reduced first, will next be reduced; (iv) payments and benefits due in respect of any equity valued at less than full value under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24, with the highest values reduced first (as such values are determined under Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1, Q&A 24) will next be reduced; and (v) all other non-cash benefits not otherwise described in clauses (ii) or (iv) will be next reduced pro-rata.

(c) Certain Determinations. For purposes of determining whether and the extent to which the Total Payments will be subject to the Excise Tax: (i) no portion of the Total Payments the receipt or enjoyment of which the Executive shall have waived at such time and in such manner as not to constitute a payment within the meaning of Section 280G(b) of the Code will be taken into account; (ii) no portion of the Total Payments will be taken into account which, in the opinion of tax counsel (Tax Counsel) reasonably acceptable to the Executive and selected by the Accounting Firm, does not constitute a parachute payment within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code (including by reason of Section 280G(b)(4)(A) of the Code) and, in calculating the Excise Tax, no portion of such Total Payments will be taken into account which, in the opinion of Tax Counsel, constitutes reasonable compensation for services actually rendered, within the meaning of Section 280G(b)(4)(B) of the Code, in excess of the base amount (as set forth in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code) that is allocable to such reasonable compensation; and (iii) the value of any non-cash benefit or any deferred payment or benefit included in the Total Payments will be determined by the Accounting Firm in accordance with the principles of Sections 280G(d)(3) and (4) of the Code. The Executive and the Company shall furnish such documentation and documents as may be necessary for the Accounting Firm to perform the requisite calculations and analysis under this Section 6 (and shall cooperate to the extent necessary for any of the determinations in this Section 6(c) to be made), and the Accounting Firm shall provide a written report of its determinations hereunder, including detailed supporting calculations. If the Accounting Firm determines that aggregate Total Payments should be reduced as described above, it shall promptly notify the Executive and the Company to that effect. In the absence of manifest error, all determinations by the Accounting Firm under this Section 6 shall be binding on the Executive and the Company and shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable and in no event later than fifteen (15) days following the later of the Executive's date of termination of employment or the date of the transaction which causes the application of Section 280G of the Code. The Company shall bear all costs, fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm and any legal counsel retained by the Accounting Firm.

(d) Additional Payments. If the Executive receives reduced payments and benefits by reason of this Section 6 and it is established pursuant to a determination of a court of competent jurisdiction which is not subject to review or as to which the time to appeal has expired, or pursuant to an Internal Revenue Service proceeding, that the Executive could have received a greater amount without resulting in any Excise Tax, then the Company shall thereafter pay the Executive the aggregate additional amount which could have been paid without resulting in any Excise Tax as soon as reasonably practicable following such determination.

7. ASSIGNMENT; ASSUMPTION OF AGREEMENT. No right, benefit or interest hereunder shall be subject to assignment, encumbrance, charge, pledge, hypothecation or setoff by the Executive in respect of any claim, debt, obligation or similar process. This Agreement may not be assigned by CFI and CFI will require any successor (whether direct or indirect, by purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise) to all or substantially all of the business or assets of the Company to assume expressly and to agree to perform this Agreement in the same manner and to the same extent that the Company would be required to perform it if no such succession had taken place.

8. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(a) No Breach of Obligation to Others. The Executive represents and warrants that his entering into this Agreement does not, and that his performance under this Agreement and consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will not, violate the provisions of any agreement or instrument to which the Executive is a party or any decree, judgment or order to which the Executive is subject, and that this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Executive enforceable against the Executive in accordance with its terms.

(c) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the documents referred to herein, constitutes and expresses the whole agreement of the parties hereto with reference to any of the matters or things herein provided for or herein before discussed or mentioned with reference to the Executive's employment with the Company, and it cancels and replaces any and all prior understandings, agreements and term sheets between the Executive and CFI and any of its subsidiaries or affiliates; provided, that, this Agreement shall not alter, amend or supersede (i) any Fund Incentives issued to Executive by CC in connection with his prior employment, (ii) any interest the Executive or any of his affiliates may have in any general partner of any fund or related entity managed by the Company, (iii) any rights the Executive may have under the Contribution Agreements, (iv) the Ancillary Documents (as defined in the Contribution Agreement), (v) the Indemnification Agreement referenced in Section 3(g) of this Agreement to which the Executive or any of his affiliates is a party or beneficiary and (vi) any equity grant made by CFI to the Executive prior to the Effective Date. All promises, representations, collateral agreements and understandings not expressly incorporated in this Agreement are hereby superseded by this Agreement.

(e) Survival. The representations, warranties and covenants of the Executive contained in this Agreement will survive any termination of the Executive's employment with the Company.

(f) Amendment; Waiver; Termination. No provision of this Agreement may be amended, modified, waived or discharged unless such amendment, modification, waiver or discharge is agreed to in writing and signed by the Executive and CFI. No waiver by either party hereto at any time of any breach by the other party hereto of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time. This Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein shall terminate automatically without any further action by any party upon the termination of the Contribution Agreement

(h) Severability. If any term or provision hereof is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in a final court or arbitration proceeding, (i) the remaining terms and provisions hereof shall be unimpaired and (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the invalid or unenforceable term or provision shall be deemed replaced by a term or provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid or unenforceable term or provision.

(i) Arbitration. Except as otherwise set forth in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement, any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement that cannot be mutually resolved by the parties hereto shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in New York, New York, before a panel of three neutral arbitrators, each of whom shall be selected jointly by the parties, or, if the parties cannot agree on the selection of the arbitrators, as selected by the American Arbitration Association. The commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association (the AAA Rules) shall govern any arbitration between the parties, except that the following provisions are included in the parties' agreement to arbitrate and override any contrary provisions in the AAA Rules:

(i) The agreement to arbitrate and the rights of the parties hereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflict or choice of law rules;

(ii) The California Arbitration Act shall govern the arbitration, the agreement to arbitrate, and any proceedings to enforce, confirm, modify or vacate the award;

(iii) The arbitrators shall apply California law;

(iv) Any petition or motion to modify or vacate the award shall be filed in a Superior Court in California (the Court);

(iv) The award shall be written, reasoned, and shall include findings of fact as to all factual issues and conclusions of law as to all legal issues;

(v) Either party may seek a de novo review by the Court of the conclusions of law included in the award and any petition or motion to enforce, confirm, modify or vacate the award; and

(vi) The arbitration shall be confidential. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrators' award in any court having jurisdiction.

The parties hereby agree that the arbitrators shall be empowered to enter an equitable decree mandating specific enforcement of the terms of this Agreement. Each party shall bear its own legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses incurred in any arbitration hereunder and the parties shall share equally all expenses of the arbitrators; provided, that, the arbitrator shall have the same authority to award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party in any arbitration as part of the arbitrator's award as would be the case had the dispute or controversy been argued before a court with competent jurisdiction.

(j) Section 409A. The intent of the parties is that payments and benefits under this Agreement comply with Section 409A of the Code, to the extent subject thereto, and accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted and administered to be in compliance therewith. In the event that any provision of Agreement or any other agreement or award referenced herein is mutually agreed by the parties to be in violation of Section 409A of the Code, the parties shall cooperate reasonably to attempt to amend or modify this Agreement (or other agreement or award) in order to avoid a violation of Section 409A of the Code while attempting to preserve the economic intent of the applicable provision. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Executive shall not be considered to have terminated employment with the Company for purposes of any payments under this Agreement which are subject to Section 409A of the Code until the Executive would be considered to have incurred a separation from service from the Company within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code. Each amount to be paid or benefit to be provided under this Agreement shall be construed as a separate identified payment for purposes of Section 409A of the Code. Without limiting the foregoing and notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, to the extent required in order to avoid accelerated taxation and/or tax penalties under Section 409A of the Code, amounts that would otherwise be payable and benefits that would otherwise be provided pursuant to this Agreement or any other arrangement between the Executive and the Company during the six-month period immediately following the Executive's separation from service shall instead be paid on the first business day after the date that is six months following the Executive's separation from service (or, if earlier, the Executive's date of death). To the extent required to avoid an accelerated or additional tax under Section 409A of the Code, amounts reimbursable to the Executive under this Agreement shall be paid to the Executive on or before the last day of the year following the year in which the expense was incurred and the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement (and in kind benefits provided to the Executive) during one year may not affect amounts reimbursable or provided in any subsequent year. CFI makes no representation that any or all of the payments described in this Agreement will be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Code and makes no undertaking to preclude Section 409A of the Code from applying to any such payment. For purposes of this Section 8(j), Section 409A of the Code shall include all regulations and guidance promulgated thereunder.

(k) Headings. The headings in this Agreement are for reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of this Agreement.

(l) Construction. The parties acknowledge that this Agreement is the result of arm's-length negotiations between sophisticated parties, each afforded representation by legal counsel. Each and every provision of this Agreement shall be construed as though both parties participated equally in the drafting of the same, and any rule of construction that a document shall be construed against the drafting party shall not be applicable to this Agreement.

(m) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but both such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same document.

(n) Tax Withholding. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement all federal, state, city or other taxes as the Company is required to withhold pursuant to any applicable law, regulation or ruling. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company shall not be obligated to guarantee any particular tax result for the Executive with respect to any payment provided to the Executive hereunder, and the Executive shall be responsible for any taxes imposed on Executive with respect to any such payment.

(o) Cooperation. For a period of 12 months following the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, the Executive shall provide reasonable cooperation in connection with any action or proceeding (or any appeal from any action or proceeding) which relates to events during the Executive's employment hereunder of which the Executive has knowledge. The Company shall reimburse the Executive for the Executive's reasonable travel expenses incurred in connection with the foregoing, in accordance with the Company's policies (and consistent with the Executive's travel practices during the Executive's employment with the Company) and subject to the delivery of reasonable support for such expenses. Any such requests for cooperation shall be subject to the Executive's business and personal schedule and the Executive shall not be required to cooperate against his own legal interests or the legal interests of his employer or partners or business ventures. In the event the Executive reasonably determines that he needs separate legal counsel in connection with his cooperation, the Company shall reimburse the Executive for the reasonable costs of such counsel as soon as practicable (and in any event within thirty (30) days) following its receipt of an invoice for such costs. In the event the Executive is required to cooperate for more than eight (8) hours in any 12-month period, the Executive shall be paid an hourly consulting fee in an amount mutually agreed between the Company and Executive at the time.

(p) Effectiveness. This Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein shall be conditioned upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Contribution Agreement. In the event that the Contribution Agreement terminates prior to the closing of the transactions contemplated thereby, this Agreement shall terminate automatically without any further action by any party and shall be void ab initio.

Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings specified in the Employment Agreement.

1. SEPARATION DATE. Executive acknowledges and agrees that his separation from Employer was effective as of _____, 20XX (the Separation Date).
2. WAGES FULLY PAID. Executive acknowledges and agrees that he has received payment in full for all salary and other wages, including without limitation any accrued, unused vacation or other similar benefits earned through the Separation Date.
3. EXECUTIVE'S GENERAL RELEASE OF CLAIMS.

(a) Waiver and Release. Pursuant to Section [4(c)(ii)/4(e)(i)] of the Employment Agreement, and in consideration of the Post-Termination Benefits to be provided to Executive as outlined in the Employment Agreement and this Release as set forth herein, Executive, on behalf of himself and his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, forever waives, releases and discharges Employer, its officers, directors, owners, shareholders and agents (collectively referred to herein as, the Employer Group), and each of its and their respective officers, directors, shareholders, members, managers, employees, agents, servants, accountants, attorneys, heirs, beneficiaries, successors and assigns (together with the Employer Group, the Employer Released Parties), from any and all claims, demands, causes of actions, fees, damages, liabilities and expenses (including attorneys' fees) of any kind whatsoever, whether known or unknown, that Executive has ever had or might have against the Employer Released Parties that directly or indirectly arise out of, relate to, or are connected with, Executive's services to, or employment by the Company, including, but not limited to (i) any claims under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, as amended, the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, the Family and Medical Leave Act, as amended, the Fair Labor Standards Act, as amended, the Equal Pay Act, as amended, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, as amended (with respect to unvested benefits), the Civil Rights Act of 1991, as amended, Section 1981 of Title 42 of the United States Code, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as amended, the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, the Uniform Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, as amended, the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, as amended, and the California Labor Code, as amended, and/or any other federal, state or local law (statutory, regulatory or otherwise) that may be legally waived and released and (ii) any tort and/or contract claims, including any claims of wrongful discharge, defamation, emotional distress, tortious interference with contract, invasion of privacy, nonphysical injury, personal injury or sickness or any other harm. Executive acknowledges that if the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or any other administrative agency brings any charge or complaint on his behalf or for his benefit, this Release bars Executive from receiving, and Executive hereby waives any right to, any monetary or other individual relief related to such a charge or complaint. This Release, however, excludes (i) any claims made under state workers' compensation or unemployment laws, and/or any claims that cannot be waived by law, (ii) claims with respect to the breach of any covenant (including any payments under the Employment Agreement) to be performed by Employer after the date of this Release, (iii) any rights to indemnification or contribution or directors & officers liability insurance under the Employment Agreement, Indemnification Agreement, any operative documents of the Company or any applicable law, (iv) any claims as a

(b) Waiver of Unknown Claims; Section 1542. Executive intends to fully waive and release all claims against Employer; therefore, he expressly understands and hereby agrees that this Release is intended to cover, and does cover, not only all known injuries, losses or damages, but any injuries, losses or damages that he does not now know about or anticipate, but that might later develop or be discovered, including the effects and consequences of those injuries, losses or damages. Executive expressly waives the benefits of and right to relief under California Civil Code Section 1542 (Section 1542), or any similar statute or comparable common law doctrine in any jurisdiction. Section 1542 provides:

Section 1542. (General Release-Claims Extinguished) A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

Executive understands and acknowledges the significance and consequences of this specific waiver of Section 1542 and, having had the opportunity to consult with legal counsel, hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives and relinquishes any rights and/or benefits which he may have thereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Executive acknowledges that by accepting the benefits and payments offered in exchange for this Release, he assumes and waives the risks that the facts and the law may be other than he believes and that, after signing this Release, he may discover losses or claims that are released under this Release, but that are presently unknown to him, and he understands and agrees that this Release shall apply to any such losses or claims.

(c) Acknowledgement of ADEA Waiver. Without in any way limiting the scope of the foregoing general release of claims, Executive acknowledges that he is waiving and releasing any rights he may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 (the ADEA) and that such waiver and release is knowing and voluntary. This waiver and release does not govern any rights or claims that might arise under the ADEA after the date this Release is signed by Executive. Executive acknowledges that: (i) the consideration given for this Release is in addition to anything of value to which Executive otherwise would be entitled to receive; (ii) he has been advised in writing to consult with an attorney of his choice prior to signing this Release; (iii) he has been provided a full and ample opportunity to review this Release, including a period of at least twenty-one (21) days within which to consider it (which will not be lengthened by any revisions or modifications); (iv) he has read and fully understands this Release and has had the opportunity to discuss it with an attorney of his choice; (v) to the extent that Executive takes less than twenty-one (21) days to consider this Release prior to execution, he acknowledges that he had sufficient time to consider this Release with counsel and that he expressly, voluntarily and knowingly waives any additional time; and (vi) Executive is aware of his right to revoke this Release at any time within the seven (7)-day period following the date on which he executes this Release. Executive further understands that he shall relinquish any right he has to Post-Termination Benefits described in the Employment Agreement if he exercises his right to revoke this Release. Notice of revocation must be made in writing and must be received by [Name, Title], no later than 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time on the seventh (7th) calendar day immediately after the day on which Executive executes this Release.

4. NO CLAIMS BY EXECUTIVE. Executive affirms and warrants that he has not filed, initiated or caused to be filed or initiated any claim, charge, suit, complaint, grievance, action or cause of action against Employer or any of the other Employer Released Parties.

5. NO ASSIGNMENT OF CLAIMS. Executive affirms and warrants that he has made no assignment of any right or interest in any claim which he may have against any of the Employer Released Parties.

6. ADVICE OF COUNSEL. Executive acknowledges: (a) that he has been advised to consult with an attorney regarding this Release; (b) that he has, in fact, consulted with an attorney regarding this Release; (c) that he has

(a) CC New Units. Prior to the date hereof CCH has issued, and after the date hereof and before the Closing Date, CCH intends to issue, to employees of CC and its Subsidiaries (or investment vehicles established for the benefit of employees of CC and its Subsidiaries) membership interests in CCH and to allocate the economic benefit of a percentage of the Initial CC New Units (not to exceed in the aggregate 31.8% of the Initial CC New Units) (the Allocated Units) to such employees and/or investment vehicles. All of the Allocated Units will be subject to lock-up provisions as least as favorable to CFI as the Employee Restrictions (as defined below), which lock up provisions will not lapse on a schedule more quickly than on a ratable basis on each of the first three anniversaries of the Closing Date. (c) Legend on Certificates. Any certificates evidencing the Restricted CC New Units (as defined below) shall bear such legends reflecting the Transfer Restrictions as CFI may determine in its sole discretion to be necessary or appropriate; provided, that, in no event shall any such legend be included on any CC New Units once such CC New Units cease to be Restricted CC New Units.

2. RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER OF THE CC NEW UNITS.

(a) Temporary Transfer Restrictions. Except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement, Barrack shall not, and shall cause CC not to, offer, pledge, encumber, hypothecate, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, lend, or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly (subject to Section 2(d) below, each, a Transfer) any of the CC New Units (the Transfer Restrictions). No Transfer Restrictions shall be applicable to any Restricted CC New Units or any shares of CFI Common Stock into which such Restricted CC New Units are exchanged from and after the applicable Restriction Lapse Date. For purposes of computing the remaining Restricted CC New Units as of any particular date, (x) Restricted CC New Units subject to Transfers described in clause (1) of Section 2(b)(ii) below shall be deemed to be remaining Restricted CC New Units so long as record ownership remains with CC, and (y) Restricted CC New Units subject to Transfers described in clause (3) and (7) of Section 2(b)(ii) shall be deemed to be remaining Restricted CC New Units until such time (if any) they are the subject of a subsequent Transfer other than as described in clause (3) and (7) of Section 2(b)(ii).

(ii) Barrack, CC and any vehicle through which Barrack or CC then indirectly holds Restricted CC New Units may effectuate any or all of the following Transfers of Restricted CC New Units; provided, that, in the case of Transfers to be bound by the restrictions set forth herein and (B) the Transfer Restrictions with respect to the applicable Restricted CC New Units Transferred thereby shall continue to lapse on a ratable basis on each Restriction Lapse Date as if still held by CC; provided, further, that in the case of Transfers described in clause (6), the Transferred New Units are subject to vesting (conditioned on continued employment in good standing) on a ratable basis on each of the first three anniversaries of the Transfer (or later) and such other restrictions as CC and/or CCH may determine, and the applicable transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the restrictions on Transfer provided for in an employee lock-up agreement in a form mutually agreed by CC and CFI prior to the Closing Date, that in any event will lapse on a ratable basis on each of the first three anniversaries of the Closing Date as if such Transfer occurred at such time (the Employee Restrictions); and provided, further, that no Restricted CC New Units may be Transferred pursuant to clauses (1), (2), (6), or (9) of this Section 2(b)(ii) if following such Transfer, Barrack would have sole direct or indirect beneficial ownership of a number of New Units less than that number of Eligible New Units that would be included in a Liquidated Damages Payment that became payable as of the date of such Transfer:

- (1) the Transfer of Restricted CC New Units in an aggregate amount up to that number which is equal to 50% of the total number of CC New Units issued to CC as collateral for any loan; provided, that, such Transfer is a bona fide pledge of the Restricted CC New Units to a Person that is not an Affiliate of the transferor;
 - (2) the Transfer of Restricted CC New Units in an aggregate amount up to that number which is equal to 20% of the total number of CC New Units issued to CC as a bona fide gift or gifts;
 - (3) the Transfer of some or all of the Restricted CC New Units to any trust, partnership, corporation or limited liability company established and held for the direct or indirect benefit of Barrack or his family members (an Estate Planning Vehicle), provided that any such Transfer shall not involve a disposition for value other than equity interests in any such trust, partnership, corporation or limited liability company;
 - (4) the Transfer of some or all of the Restricted CC New Units to CFI to satisfy any indemnification obligations of CC as contemplated by the Contribution Agreement;
 - (5) the Transfer of some or all of the Restricted CC New Units as required by applicable Law or order;
 - (6) the Transfer of some of the Restricted CC New Units held as of the Closing Date to CCH Management Partners II, LLC to or for the benefit of past or present members of management or other past or present employees of CFI or CC or their respective Affiliates (other than Saltzman), in each case subject to the Employee Restrictions;
 - (7) the Transfer of some or all of the Restricted CC New Units to a nominee or custodian of a person or entity to whom a disposition or Transfer would be permitted under this Agreement;
 - (8) the Transfer of some or all of the Restricted CC New Units as provided for in Section 3 below; and
 - (9) the Transfer of a number of Restricted CC New Units as is reasonably determined by CC's accounting firm in good faith to be sufficient to realize an amount of cash on an after-tax basis equal to any and all taxes that apply to the issuance or vesting of the Restricted CC New Units.
- (c) Ownership of Restricted CC New Units. Effective as of the Date of Issuance and except for any Transfers permitted by Section 2(b)(ii), CC will hold the Restricted CC New Units, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, and claims created or caused by Barrack or CC, at all times during the period that the Transfer Restrictions apply to such Restricted CC New Units. Without limiting the foregoing, effective as of the Date of Issuance and except for any Transfers permitted by Section 2(b)(ii), Barrack shall maintain sole direct or indirect beneficial ownership of all Restricted CC New Units, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, and claims created or caused by Barrack or CC, at all times during the period that the Transfer Restrictions apply to such Restricted CC New Units (it being understood that beneficial ownership refers to ownership of all pecuniary and non-pecuniary rights, privileges, liabilities and obligations, and in particular shall not be limited to the meaning of beneficial ownership for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934). Without limiting the foregoing, until the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date, Barrack shall maintain sole direct or indirect beneficial ownership, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, and claims created or caused by Barrack or CC, of a number of New Units equal to or greater than that number of Eligible New Units that would be included in a Liquidated Damages Payment that became payable as of the date of determination.

(d) Transfers of Equity Interests in CC Holdings and its Subsidiaries. For purposes of clarification, the transfer or issuance of equity interests in CC Holdings or any of its subsidiaries (including CC) will not constitute a Transfer of any Restricted CC New Units owned by CC Holdings or any such subsidiaries if following such Transfer Barrack and CC continue to comply with Section 2(c).

3. LIQUIDATED DAMAGES.

(a) If Barrack (i) violates or fails to perform his obligations under the Non-Competition Covenant contained in Section 1(i) or 1(ii) of Exhibit A hereto, as modified by the proviso in Section 1 of Exhibit A, or (ii) otherwise violates or fails to perform his obligations under the Non-Competition Covenant in any manner that results in material economic harm to CFI and its Affiliates (taken as a whole), in each case during the Restricted Period (as defined in Exhibit A hereto), and fails to cure and cease such violation within 60 days (which shall be extended to 90 days in the case of a violation that is susceptible to cure and such cure is being pursued in good faith by Barrack) after the date on which CFI gives written notice to him of such violation (a Non-Competition Violation , and the date of such notice of violation, the Date of the Non-Competition Violation), then Barrack shall, or shall cause CC to, promptly remit to the OP a number of Closing New Units (the Liquidated Damages Payment), as liquidated damages in respect of such violation and without respect to the damages actually incurred by CFI or its Affiliates as a result of such violation, determined as follows:

(i) If the Date of the Non-Competition Violation occurs on or prior to the first anniversary of the Closing Date, the Eligible New Units;

(ii) If the Date of the Non-Competition Violation occurs after the first anniversary of the Closing Date but on or prior to the second anniversary of the Closing Date, 80% of the Eligible New Units (rounded to the nearest whole number);

(iv) If the Date of the Non-Competition Violation occurs after the third anniversary of the Closing Date but on or prior to the fourth anniversary of the Closing Date, 40% of the Eligible New Units (rounded to the nearest whole number);

(v) If the Date of the Non-Competition Violation occurs after the fourth anniversary of the Closing Date but on or prior to the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date, 20% of the Eligible New Units (rounded to the nearest whole number); and

(b) If an executive officer or member of the board of directors of CFI (other than Barrack) becomes aware of a Non-Competition Violation and fails to give a written notice of violation to Barrack within 60 days after becoming so aware then CFI shall have no further right to assert a claim or entitlement to the Liquidated Damages Payment with respect to such Non-Competition Violation.

(c) Once the Liquidated Damages Payment as provided for in Section 3(a) above has been paid in full, no further Liquidated Damages Payment shall be payable pursuant to this Agreement.

(d) The Liquidated Damages Payment provided for in Section 3(a) above, shall be CFI's sole remedy (other than specific performance as provided for in the Restrictive Covenant Agreement by and between Barrack and CFI, effective as of the Closing Date (the Restrictive Covenant Agreement)) for breach of the Non-Competition Covenant and Section 3 of the Restrictive Covenant Agreement and the entire economic obligation of Barrack or CC for any such breach.

Schedule 1 to Exhibit A

Applicable Opportunity

If Barrack seeks to pursue any investment or other opportunity that would otherwise be prohibited by this Agreement, then the determination of whether such investment or opportunity is an Applicable Opportunity shall be made as follows:

(a) Barrack shall submit (along with all material documentation provided to Barrack or otherwise then in Barrack's possession with respect to such Applicable Opportunity) in advance of him taking any action to engage in such Applicable Opportunity to a committee of the Board comprised of independent directors and established for the purpose of making the determinations set forth in this Schedule 1 to Exhibit A (the Conflicts Committee).

(b) Within 10 Business Days after the date on which the investment or opportunity is submitted by Barrack, the Conflicts Committee shall consider such investment or opportunity.

(y) is within the scope of the Business and is not a Permitted Activity, but is not within the scope of the then-current business strategy of CFI and its Subsidiaries, in which case such investment or opportunity shall be an Applicable Opportunity; or

(z) is within the scope of Business, is not a Permitted Activity, and is within the scope of the then-current business strategy of CFI and its subsidiaries, in which case such investment or opportunity shall not be an Applicable Opportunity unless the Conflicts Committee determines that Barrack may nevertheless engage or seek to engage in such investment or opportunity in his personal capacity and so communicates that determination in writing to Barrack (for the avoidance of doubt, unless the Conflicts Committee communicates such determination to Barrack in writing, such investment or opportunity shall not be a Permitted Activity);

provided that if Barrack does not receive notice from the Conflicts Committee within 20 Business Days following the date on which the investment or opportunity is submitted by Barrack, then such investment or opportunity shall be an Applicable Opportunity. Once an investment or opportunity has been determined to be an Applicable Opportunity in accordance with this Schedule 1 to Exhibit A, CFI following such time shall have no recourse to prevent Barrack from engaging in such Applicable Opportunity or to take the position that engaging in such Applicable Opportunity is a violation of this Agreement, the Restrictive Covenant Agreement or any agreement with respect to Fund Incentives (as defined in the Employment Agreement).

For purposes of computing the remaining Restricted Saltzman Shares as of any particular date, (x) Restricted Saltzman Shares subject to Transfers described in clause (1) of Section 3(b)(ii) below shall be deemed to be remaining Restricted Saltzman Shares so long as record ownership remains with Saltzman, and (y) Restricted Saltzman Shares subject to Transfers described in clause (3) and (7) of Section 3(b)(ii) shall be deemed to be remaining Restricted Saltzman Shares until such time (if any) they are the subject of a subsequent Transfer other than as described in clause (3) and (7) of Section 3(b)(ii).

(ii) Saltzman and any vehicle through which Saltzman then indirectly holds Restricted Saltzman Shares may effectuate any or all of the following Transfers of Restricted Saltzman Shares; provided, that, in the case of Transfers described in clauses (1) through (3), (A) the applicable transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the restrictions set forth herein and (B) the Transfer Restrictions with respect to the applicable Restricted Saltzman Shares Transferred thereby shall continue to lapse on a ratable basis on each Restriction Lapse Date as if still held by Saltzman; and provided, further, that no Restricted Saltzman Shares may be Transferred pursuant to clauses (1) through (3), or (6) through (8) of this Section 3(b)(ii) if following such Transfer, Saltzman would have beneficial ownership of a number of Saltzman Shares less than that number of Eligible Saltzman Shares that would be included in a Liquidated Damages Payment that became payable as of the date of such Transfer:

(1) the Transfer of Restricted Saltzman Shares in an aggregate amount up to that number which is equal to 50% of the total number of Saltzman Shares delivered to Saltzman as collateral for any loan; provided, that, such Transfer is a bona fide pledge of the Restricted Saltzman Shares to a Person that is not an Affiliate of the transferor;

Without limiting the foregoing, until the fifth anniversary of the Closing Date, Saltzman shall maintain sole direct or indirect beneficial ownership, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, and claims created or caused by Saltzman or CC, of a number of Saltzman Shares equal to or greater than that number of Eligible Saltzman Shares that would be included in a Liquidated Damages Payment that became payable as of the date of determination.

The CCH New Units subject to the Transfer Restrictions shall be referred to herein as the Restricted CCH New Units and shall no longer be Restricted CCH New Units from and after the applicable Restriction Lapse Date.

(b) Exceptions to Transfer Restrictions. Notwithstanding anything set forth in Section 2(a) to the contrary:

(i) On each of the first three anniversaries of the Closing Date (each a Restriction Lapse Date), the Transfer Restrictions relating to a number of Closing New Units set forth below shall lapse, such that all of the Closing New Units shall be free of any and all Transfer Restrictions and shall no longer be Restricted CCH New Units as of the third anniversary of the Closing Date:

(B) on the second anniversary of the Closing Date, one-half of the remaining Restricted CCH New Units;

(C) on the third anniversary of the Closing Date, all of the remaining Restricted CCH New Units.

For purposes of computing the remaining Restricted CCH New Units as of any particular date, (x) Restricted CCH New Units subject to Transfers described in clause (1) of Section 2(b)(ii) below shall be deemed to be remaining Restricted CCH New Units so long as record ownership remains with CCH, and (y) Restricted CCH New Units subject to Transfers described in clause (3) and (6) of Section 2(b)(ii) shall be deemed to be remaining Restricted CCH New Units until such time (if any) they are the subject of a subsequent Transfer other than as described in clause (3) and (6) of Section 2(b)(ii).

(ii) CCH and any vehicle through which CCH then indirectly holds Restricted CCH New Units may effectuate any or all of the following Transfers of Restricted CCH New Units; provided, that, in the case of Transfers described in clauses (1) through (3), (A) the applicable transferee agrees in writing to be bound by the restrictions set forth herein and (B) the Transfer Restrictions with respect to the applicable Restricted CCH New Units Transferred thereby shall continue to lapse on a ratable basis on each Restriction Lapse Date as if still held by CCH:

(1) the Transfer of Restricted CCH New Units in an aggregate amount up to that number which is equal to 50% of the total number of CCH New Units issued to CCH as collateral for any loan; provided, that, such Transfer is a bona fide pledge of the Restricted CCH New Units to a Person that is not an Affiliate of the transferor;

(2) the Transfer of Restricted CCH New Units in an aggregate amount up to that number which is equal to 20% of the total number of CCH New Units issued to CCH as a bona fide gift or gifts;

(4) the Transfer of some or all of the Restricted CCH New Units to CFI to satisfy any indemnification obligations of CCH as contemplated by the Contribution Agreement;

(5) the Transfer of some or all of the Restricted CCH New Units as required by applicable Law or order;

(c) Transfers of Equity Interests in CCH and its Subsidiaries. For purposes of clarification, the transfer or issuance of equity interests in CCH or any of its subsidiaries will not constitute a Transfer of any Restricted CCH New Units owned by CCH or any such subsidiaries if following such Transfer CCH continues to hold, directly or indirectly and without minority interests, all such Restricted CCH New Units.

(d) Coordination. Any CCH New Units that are subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement will be governed solely by the terms and conditions of this Agreement and shall in no way be subject to the terms and conditions of the Lock-Up and Liquidated Damages Agreement by and among CFI, CC, the OP and Thomas J.

(b) In accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4, CFI shall file with the Commission as soon as reasonably practicable following the date hereof a registration statement on Form S-3 or any successor form under the Securities Act (the Initial Resale Registration Statement , including the Prospectus, amendments and supplements to such registration statement, including new registration statements, pre- and post-effective amendments, all exhibits thereto and all material incorporated by reference or deemed to be incorporated by reference, if any, in such registration statement) covering the resale pursuant to Rule 415 (or any successor rule thereto) from time to time by the Holders of the Registrable Shares issued upon the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Contribution and Transfer Agreements. Section 3. Suspension.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Section 3 and a good faith determination by CFI that it is in the best interests of CFI to suspend the use of any Resale Registration Statement, following the effectiveness of such Resale Registration Statement (and the filings with any federal or state securities commissions), CFI, by written notice to the Holders, may direct the Holders to suspend sales of the Registrable Shares pursuant to such Resale Registration Statement for such times as CFI reasonably may determine is necessary and advisable (but in no event for more than 60 days at any one time or 90 days in any 365-day period), if any of the following events shall occur: (i) an underwritten public offering of CFI Class A Common Stock by CFI if CFI is advised by the underwriters that the concurrent resale of the Registrable Shares by the Holders pursuant to the Resale Registration Statement would have a material adverse effect on CFI's offering, (ii) there is material non-public information regarding CFI which (A) CFI determines not to be in CFI's best interest to disclose, (B) would, in the good faith determination of CFI, require any revisions to the Resale Registration Statement so that it will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (C) CFI is not otherwise required to disclose, (iii) there is a significant bona fide business opportunity (including, but not limited to, the acquisition or disposition of assets (other than in the ordinary course of business), including any significant merger, consolidation, tender offer or other similar transaction) available to CFI which CFI determines not to be in CFI's best interests to disclose, (iv) CFI is required to file a post-effective amendment to a Resale Registration Statement to incorporate CFI's quarterly or annual reports or audited financial statements on Forms 10-Q and 10-K; provided, however, that no suspension period permitted pursuant to this clause (iv) shall continue for more than five (5) consecutive Business Days, or (v) failure to suspend sales of the Registrable Shares would have a Material Adverse Effect on CFI.

(b) Upon the earlier to occur of (A) CFI delivering to the Holders an End of Suspension Notice (as defined below), or (B) the end of the maximum permissible suspension period, CFI shall use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly amend or supplement the Resale Registration Statement on a post-effective basis, if necessary, or to take such action as is necessary to make resumed use of the Resale Registration Statement so as to permit the Holders to resume sales of the Registrable Shares as soon as possible.

(c) In the case of an event that causes CFI to suspend the use of a Resale Registration Statement (a Suspension Event), CFI shall give written notice (a Suspension Notice) to the Holders to suspend sales of the Registrable Shares. The Holders shall not effect any sales of the Registrable Shares pursuant to such Resale Registration Statement (or such filings) and shall promptly halt any use, publication, dissemination or distribution of any prospectus or prospectus supplement covering such Registrable Shares at any time after it has received a Suspension Notice from CFI and prior to receipt of an End of Suspension Notice. Upon receipt of a Suspension Notice, each Holder shall (except as required by applicable law) keep the fact of any such notice, and any information relating to such notice, strictly confidential. If so directed by CFI, each Holder will deliver to CFI (at the reasonable expense of CFI) all copies then in such Holder's possession of the Prospectus covering the Registrable Shares at the time of receipt of the Suspension Notice. The Holders may recommence effecting sales of the Registrable Shares pursuant to the Resale Registration Statement (or such filings) following further notice to such effect (an End of Suspension Notice) from CFI, which End of Suspension Notice shall be given by CFI to the Holders in the manner described above promptly following the conclusion of any Suspension Event and its effect.

Section 4. Registration Procedures.

4.1 In connection with the obligations of CFI with respect to any registration pursuant to this Agreement, CFI shall:

(a) use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and file with the Commission, as specified in this Agreement, each Resale Registration Statement, which Resale Registration Statements shall comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of the applicable form and include all financial statements required by the Commission to be filed therewith, and use commercially reasonable efforts to cause any Resale Registration Statement to become and remain effective as set forth in Sections 2(b) and 2(c) hereof;

(b) subject to Section 3 hereof, use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) prepare and file with the Commission such amendments and post-effective amendments to each such Resale Registration Statement as may be necessary to keep such Resale Registration Statement effective for the period described in Sections 2(b) and 2(c) hereof, (ii) cause each Prospectus contained therein to be supplemented by any required Prospectus supplement, and as so supplemented to be filed pursuant to Rule 424 or any similar rule that may be adopted under the Securities Act; provided, that in no event shall CFI be obligated to file any Prospectus supplement unless such Prospectus supplement is for a resale of CFI Class A Common Stock that is, or is in respect of, Registrable Shares, (x) with an aggregate offering price of $25,000,000 or more, or (y) no more than once a quarter, by Holders who are unable to effect such resale pursuant to Rule 144, in order to satisfy the payment of tax obligations related to the issuance or vesting of any such Registrable Shares at any time during such quarter; and (iii) comply in all material respects with the provisions of the Securities

Act with respect to the disposition of all securities covered by each Resale Registration Statement during the applicable period in accordance with the intended method or methods of distribution by the selling Holders thereof;

(c) use commercially reasonable efforts to furnish to the Holders, without charge, such number of copies of each Prospectus, including each preliminary Prospectus, and any amendment or supplement thereto and such other documents as such Holder may reasonably request, in order to facilitate the public sale or other disposition of the Registrable Shares; CFI hereby consents to the use of such Prospectus, including each preliminary Prospectus, by the Holders, if any, in connection with the offering and sale of the Registrable Shares covered by any such Prospectus;

(d) use commercially reasonable efforts to register or qualify, or obtain exemption from registration or qualification for, all Registrable Shares by the time the applicable Resale Registration Statement is declared effective by the Commission under all applicable state securities or blue sky laws of such domestic jurisdictions as any Holder covered by a Resale Registration Statement shall reasonably request in writing, keep each such registration or qualification or exemption effective during the period such Resale Registration Statement is required to be kept effective pursuant to Sections 2(b) and 2(c) and do any and all other acts and things that may be reasonably necessary or advisable to enable such Holder to consummate the disposition in each such jurisdiction of such Registrable Shares owned by such Holder; provided, however, that in no event shall CFI be required to (A) qualify to do business as a foreign corporation in any jurisdiction where it would not, but for the requirements of this subparagraph (d), be required to be so qualified, (B) execute or file any general consent to service of process under the laws of any jurisdiction, (C) take any action that would subject it to service of process in suits other than those arising out of the offer and sale of the securities covered by the registration statement, or (D) subject itself to taxation in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be obligated to do so, but for this subparagraph (d).

(e) use commercially reasonable efforts to notify each Holder with Registrable Shares covered by a Resale Registration Statement promptly and, if requested by any such Holder, confirm such advice in writing (i) when such Resale Registration Statement has become effective and when any post-effective amendments and supplements thereto become effective, (ii) of the issuance by the Commission or any state securities authority of any stop order suspending the effectiveness of such Resale Registration Statement or the initiation of any proceedings for that purpose, (iii) of any request by the Commission or any other federal or state governmental authority for amendments or supplements to such Resale Registration Statement or related Prospectus or for additional information, and (iv) of the happening of any event during the period such Resale Registration Statement is effective as a result of which such Resale Registration Statement or the related Prospectus or any document incorporated by reference therein contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading (which information shall be accompanied by an instruction to suspend the use of the Resale Registration Statement and the Prospectus until the requisite changes have been made);

(f) during the period of time referred to in Sections 2(b) and 2(c) above, use commercially reasonable efforts to avoid the issuance of, or if issued, to obtain the withdrawal of, any order enjoining or suspending the use or effectiveness of a Resale Registration Statement or suspending the qualification (or exemption from qualification) of any of the Registrable Shares for sale in any jurisdiction, as promptly as practicable;

(g) upon request, use commercially reasonable efforts to furnish to each requesting Holder with Registrable Shares covered by a Resale Registration Statement, without charge, at least one conformed copy of such Resale Registration Statement and any post-effective amendment or supplement thereto (without documents incorporated therein by reference or exhibits thereto, unless requested);

(h) except as provided in Section 3, upon the occurrence of any event contemplated by Section 4.1(e)(iv), use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly prepare a supplement or post-effective amendment to a Resale Registration Statement or the related Prospectus or any document incorporated therein by reference or file any other required document so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of the Registrable Shares, such Prospectus will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and, upon request, promptly furnish to each requesting Holder a reasonable number of copies of each such supplement or post-effective amendment;

(i) use commercially reasonable efforts to enter into customary agreements and take all other commercially reasonable action in connection therewith in order to expedite or facilitate the distribution of the Registrable Shares included in such Resale Registration Statement;

(j) use commercially reasonable efforts (including seeking to cure in CFI's listing or inclusion application any deficiencies cited by the exchange or market) to list or include all Registrable Shares on any securities exchange on which such Registrable Shares are then listed or included, and enter into such customary agreements including a supplemental listing application and indemnification agreement in customary form;

(k) use commercially reasonable efforts to prepare and file in a timely manner all documents and reports required by the Exchange Act;

(l) (i) otherwise use commercially reasonable efforts to comply in all material respects with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission, (ii) make generally available to its stockholders, as soon as reasonably practicable, earnings statements (which need not be audited) covering at least 12 months that satisfy the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 thereunder, and (iii) delay filing any Resale Registration Statement or Prospectus or amendment or supplement to such Resale Registration Statement or Prospectus to which any Holder of Registrable Shares covered by any Resale Registration Statement shall have reasonably objected on the grounds that such Resale Registration Statement or Prospectus or amendment or supplement does not comply in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act, such Holder having been furnished with a copy thereof at least two Business Days prior to the filing thereof, provided that CFI may file such Resale Registration Statement or Prospectus or amendment or supplement following such time as CFI shall have made a good faith effort to resolve any such issue with the objecting Holder and shall have advised the Holder in writing of its reasonable belief that such filing complies in all material respects with the requirements of the Securities Act;

(m) use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be maintained a registrar and transfer agent for all Registrable Shares covered by any Resale Registration Statement from and after a date not later than the effective date of such Resale Registration Statement;

(n) in connection with any sale or transfer of the Registrable Shares (whether or not pursuant to a Resale Registration Statement) that will result in the securities being delivered no longer constituting Registrable Shares, use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Holders to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing the Registrable Shares to be sold, which certificates shall not bear any transfer restrictive legends (other than as required by applicable law), and to enable such Registrable Shares to be in such denominations and registered in such names as the Holders may request at least three Business Days prior to any sale of the Registrable Shares;

(p) in connection with a public offering of Registrable Shares, whether or not such offering is an underwritten offering, use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a comfort letter from the independent public accountants for CFI and any acquisition target of CFI whose financial statements are required to be included or incorporated by reference in any Resale Registration Statement, in form and substance customarily given by independent certified public accountants in an underwritten public offering, addressed to the underwriters, if any, and to the Holders of the Registrable Shares being sold pursuant to each Resale Registration Statement;

(q) use commercially reasonable efforts to execute and deliver all instruments and documents (including an underwriting agreement or placement agent agreement, as applicable in customary form) and take such other actions and obtain such certificates and opinions as sellers of the Registrable Shares being sold reasonably request in order to effect a public offering of such Registrable Shares and in such connection, whether or not an underwriting agreement is entered into and whether or not the offering is an underwritten offering, (A) make such representations and warranties to the holders of such Registrable Shares and the underwriters, if any, with respect to the business of CFI and its subsidiaries, and the Resale Registration Statement and documents, if any, incorporated by reference therein, in each case, in form, substance and scope as are customarily made by issuers to underwriters in underwritten offerings, and, if true, confirm the same if and when requested, and (B) use commercially reasonable best efforts to furnish to the selling holders and underwriters of such Registrable Shares opinions and negative assurance letters of counsel to CFI and updates thereof (which counsel and opinions (in form, scope and substance) shall be reasonably satisfactory to the managing underwriters, if any, and counsels to the selling Holders of the Registrable Shares), covering the matters customarily covered in opinions requested in underwritten offerings and such other matters as may be reasonably requested by such counsel and any such underwriters; and

(r) upon reasonable request by a Holder, CFI shall use commercially reasonable efforts to file an amendment to any applicable Resale Registration Statement (or Prospectus supplement, as applicable), to name additional Holders of Registrable Shares or otherwise update the information provided by any such Holder in connection with such Holder's disposition of Registrable Shares.

(a) CFI may require the Holders to furnish in writing to CFI such information regarding such Holder and the proposed distribution of Registrable Shares by such Holder as CFI may from time to time reasonably request in writing or as shall be required to effect the registration of the Registrable Shares, and no Holder shall be entitled to be named as a selling stockholder in any Registration Statement or use the Prospectus forming a part thereof if such Holder does not provide such information to CFI.

(b) Each Holder shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) promptly notify CFI of any inaccuracy or change in information previously furnished by the Holder to CFI or of the occurrence of any event, in either case as a result of which any prospectus relating to the Registrable Shares contains or would contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and (ii) promptly furnish to CFI any additional information required to correct and update any previously furnished information or required so that such prospectus shall not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(c) Each Holder agrees that, upon receipt of any notice from CFI of the happening of any event of the kind described in Section 4.1(e)(ii), 4.1(e)(iii) or 4.1(e)(iv) hereof, such Holder will immediately discontinue disposition of Registrable Shares pursuant to a Registration Statement until (i) any such stop order is vacated or (ii) if an event described in Section 4.1(e)(iii) or 4.1(e)(iv) occurs, such Holder's receipt of the copies of the supplemented or amended Prospectus. If so directed by CFI, such Holder will deliver to CFI (at the reasonable expense of CFI) all copies in its possession of the Prospectus covering such Registrable Shares current at the time of receipt of such notice.

Section 5. Expenses of Registration. CFI shall pay all Registration Expenses in connection with the registration of the Registrable Shares pursuant to this Agreement and any other actions that may be taken in connection with the registration contemplated herein. Each Holder participating in any registration or sale, including pursuant to Section 2, shall bear such Holder's proportionate share (based on the total number of Registrable Shares sold in such registration) of all Selling Expenses and any other expense relating to a registration of Registrable Shares pursuant to this Agreement and any other Selling Expenses relating to the sale or disposition of such Holder's Registrable Shares (except as otherwise provided in this Agreement).

Section 6. Indemnification and Contribution.

(a) CFI shall indemnify and hold harmless each Holder, each person who controls any Holder (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act), and the officers, directors, members, managers, stockholders, partners, limited partners, agents and employees of each of them (each an Indemnified Party), to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs (including reasonable attorneys' fees) and expenses (collectively, Losses), as incurred, arising out of or relating to (a) any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in a Resale Registration Statement or any Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto or in any preliminary Prospectus, or arising out of or relating to any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of any Prospectus or supplement thereto, in light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading or (b) any violation or alleged violation by CFI of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or any state securities law, or any rule or regulation thereunder, in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that CFI shall not be liable to any such Indemnified Party (i) to the extent that any such Losses arise out of, relate to, are in connection with, or are based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished in writing to CFI by such Indemnified Party expressly for use therein, or (ii) to the extent that such information relates to such Indemnified Party or such Indemnified Party's proposed method of distribution of the Registrable Shares and was approved in writing by or on behalf of the Indemnified Party expressly for use in the Resale Registration Statement, such Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto.

(b) Each Holder shall, severally and not jointly, indemnify and hold harmless CFI, each director of CFI, each officer of CFI who shall sign a Resale Registration Statement, each underwriter, broker or other Person acting on behalf of the holders of securities included in a Resale Registration Statement, and each Person who controls any of the foregoing Persons (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act or Section 20 of the Exchange Act), to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, against any Losses, as incurred, arising out of or relating to any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in a Resale Registration Statement or any Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto or in any preliminary Prospectus, or arising out of or relating to any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of any Prospectus or supplement thereto, in light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, but only to the extent that (i) any such Losses arise out of, relate to, are in connection with, or are based upon an untrue statement or alleged untrue statement or omission or alleged omission made in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished in writing to CFI by such Holder expressly for use therein, or (ii) such information relates to such Holder or such Holder's proposed method of distribution of the Registrable Shares and was approved in writing by or on behalf of the Holder expressly for use in the Resale Registration Statement, such Prospectus or in any amendment or supplement thereto.

(c) Each party entitled to indemnification under this Section 5 (the Indemnified Party) shall give notice to the party required to provide indemnification (the Indemnifying Party) promptly after such Indemnified Party has actual knowledge of any claim as to which indemnity may be sought, but the omission to so notify the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve it from any liability which it may have to the Indemnified Party pursuant to the provisions of this Section 6 except to the extent of the actual damages suffered by such delay in notification. The Indemnifying Party shall assume the defense of such action, including the employment of counsel to be chosen by the Indemnifying Party to be reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party, and payment of expenses. The Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ its own counsel in any such case, but the legal fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of the Indemnified Party, unless the employment of such counsel shall have been authorized in writing by the Indemnifying Party in connection with the defense of such action, or the Indemnifying Party shall not have employed counsel to take charge of the defense of such action or the Indemnified Party shall have reasonably concluded that there may be defenses available to it or them which are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party (in which case the Indemnifying Party shall not have the right to direct the defense of such action on behalf of the Indemnified Party), in any of which events such fees and expenses shall be borne by the Indemnifying Party. No Indemnifying Party, in the defense of any such claim or litigation, shall, except with the consent of each Indemnified Party, consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement unless such judgment or settlement (i) includes an unconditional term thereof the giving by the claimant or plaintiff to such Indemnified Party of a release from all liability in respect to such claim or litigation, and (ii) does not include a statement as to or an admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act, by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party. An Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement of any action or claim referred to in this Section 6 effected without its written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(d) If the indemnification provided for in this Section 6 is unavailable to a party that would have been an Indemnified Party under this Section 6 in respect of any expenses, claims, losses, damages and liabilities referred to herein, then each party that would have been an Indemnifying Party hereunder shall, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party, contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such expenses, claims, losses, damages and liabilities in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the Indemnifying Party on the one hand and such Indemnified Party on the other in connection with the statement or omission which resulted in such expenses, claims, losses, damages and liabilities, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative fault shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Indemnifying Party or such Indemnified Party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. CFI and each Holder agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this Section were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to above in this Section 6(d).

(e) No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act) shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

(f) In no event shall any Holder be liable for any expenses, claims, losses, damages or liabilities pursuant to this Section 5 in excess of the net proceeds to such Holder of any Registrable Shares sold by such Holder.

Section 7. Transfer of Registration Rights. The rights and obligations of a Holder under this Agreement may only be transferred or otherwise assigned (i) with the prior written consent of CFI, which may be withheld at its sole discretion, or (ii) by any Holder to past or present officers or employees of CFI or its Subsidiaries in connection with a transfer, distribution or assignment of Registrable Shares to such officers or employees or to any trust, partnership, corporation or limited liability company established and held for the direct or indirect benefit of any such Persons or the family of such Persons, provided that such transferee, distributee or assignee becomes a party to this Agreement or agrees in writing to be subject to the terms hereof to the same extent as if such transferee, distributee or assignee were an original party hereunder, and CFI is given written notice by such Holder of such transfer, distribution or assignment stating the name and address of such transferee, distributee or assignee and identifying the securities with regard to which such rights and obligations are being transferred, distributed or assigned. CFI shall amend Schedule I hereto from time to time to reflect such transfers, distributions or assignments.

Section 8. Miscellaneous.

(a) Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial. This Agreement and any claim, controversy or dispute arising under or related in any way to this agreement, the relationship of the parties, the transactions contemplated by this agreement and/or the interpretation and enforcement of the rights and duties of the parties hereunder or related in any way to the foregoing, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

EACH PARTY IRREVOCABLY SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE GENERAL JURISDICTION OF THE DELAWARE COURT OF CHANCERY AND ANY STATE APPELLATE COURT THEREOF WITHIN THE STATE OF DELAWARE (OR, ONLY IF THE DELAWARE COURT OF CHANCERY DECLINES TO ACCEPT JURISDICTION OVER A PARTICULAR MATTER, ANY FEDERAL COURT SITTING IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE) FOR THE PURPOSES OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY TRANSACTION CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND AGREES THAT ALL CLAIMS IN RESPECT OF THE SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING MAY BE HEARD AND DETERMINED IN ANY SUCH COURT. EACH PARTY AGREES TO COMMENCE ANY SUCH SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING IN THE DELAWARE COURT OF CHANCERY (OR, ONLY IF THE DELAWARE COURT OF CHANCERY DECLINES TO ACCEPT JURISDICTION OVER A PARTICULAR MATTER, ANY FEDERAL COURT SITTING IN THE STATE OF DELAWARE). EACH PARTY WAIVES ANY DEFENSE OF IMPROPER VENUE OR INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING SO BROUGHT AND WAIVES ANY BOND, SURETY, OR OTHER SECURITY THAT MIGHT BE REQUIRED OF ANY OTHER PARTY WITH RESPECT THERETO. ANY PARTY MAY MAKE SERVICE ON ANY OTHER PARTY BY SENDING OR DELIVERING A COPY OF THE PROCESS TO THE PARTY TO BE SERVED AT THE ADDRESS AND IN THE MANNER PROVIDED FOR THE GIVING OF NOTICES IN SECTION 8(D). NOTHING IN THIS SECTION 8(A), HOWEVER, SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO SERVE LEGAL PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR AT EQUITY. EACH PARTY AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING SO BROUGHT SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW OR AT EQUITY.

EACH OF THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVES ITS RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL WITH RESPECT TO ANY ACTION OR CLAIM ARISING OUT OF ANY DISPUTE IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, ANY RIGHTS OR OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER OR THE PERFORMANCE OF SUCH RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS. EACH OF THE PARTIES (i) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HERETO HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVERS AND (ii) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS CONTAINED HEREIN.

(b) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Contribution and Transfer Agreements, constitutes the full and entire understanding and agreement between the parties with regard to the subject matter hereof.

(c) Interpretation and Usage. In this Agreement, unless there is a clear contrary intention: (i) when a reference is made to a section, an annex or a schedule, that reference is to a section, an annex or a schedule of or to this Agreement; (ii) the singular includes the plural and vice versa; (iii) reference to any agreement, document or instrument means that agreement, document or instrument as amended or modified and in effect from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof; (iv) reference to any statute, rule, regulation or other law means that statute, rule, regulation or law as amended, modified, codified, replaced or reenacted, in whole or in part, and in effect from time to time, including rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and reference to any section or other provision of any law means that section or provision from time to time in effect and constituting the substantive amendment, modification, codification, replacement or reenactment of that section or provision; (v) hereunder, hereof, hereto, and words of similar import will be deemed references to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular article, section or other provision of this Agreement; (vi) including (and with correlative meaning include) means including without limiting the generality of any description preceding such term; (vii) references to agreements, documents or instruments will be deemed to refer as well to all addenda, exhibits, schedules or amendments thereto; and (viii) the terms writing, written and words of similar import will be deemed to include communications and documents in e-mail, fax or any other similar electronic or documentary form.

(d) Amendment. No supplement, modification, waiver or termination of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by CFI and the Holders of at least a majority of the Registrable Shares.

(e) Notices, etc. Each notice, demand, request, request for approval, consent, approval, disapproval, designation or other communication (each of the foregoing being referred to herein as a notice) required or desired to be given or made under this Agreement shall be in writing (except as otherwise provided in this Agreement), and shall be effective and deemed to have been received (i) when delivered in person, (ii) when receipt is acknowledged by recipient if sent by fax or e-mail, (iii) five (5) days after having been mailed by certified or registered United States mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, or (iv) the next Business Day after having been sent by a nationally recognized overnight mail or courier service, receipt requested. Notices shall be addressed as follows: (a) if to a Holder, at such Holders address or fax number set forth on Schedule I hereto, or at such other address or fax number as such Holder shall have furnished to CFI in writing, or (b) if to any assignee or transferee of a Holder, at such address or fax number as such assignee or transferee shall have furnished CFI in writing, or (c) if to CFI, at the address of its principal executive offices and addressed to the attention of the President, or at such other address or fax number as CFI shall have furnished to the Holders. Any notice or other communication required to be given hereunder to a Holder in connection with a registration may instead be given to a designated representative of such Holder.

(f) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which may be executed by fewer than all of the parties hereto (provided that each party executes one or more counterparts), each of which shall be enforceable against the parties actually executing such counterparts, and all of which together shall constitute one instrument. This Agreement may be executed in any number of separate counterparts (including by means of facsimile or portable document format (pdf)), each of which is an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(g) Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement becomes or is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, unenforceable or void, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect without said provision.

(h) Section Titles. Section titles are for descriptive purposes only and shall not control or alter the meaning of this Agreement as set forth in the text.

(i) Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. If any successor or permitted assignee of any Holder shall acquire Registrable Shares in any manner, whether by operation of law or otherwise, (a) such successor or permitted assignee shall be entitled to all of the benefits of a Holder under this Agreement and (b) such Registrable Shares shall be held subject to all of the terms of this Agreement, and by taking and holding such Registrable Shares such Person shall be conclusively deemed to have agreed to be bound by all of the terms and provisions hereof.

(j) Remedies; No Waiver. Each party acknowledges and agrees that the other parties would be irreparably damaged in the event that the covenants set forth in this Agreement were not performed in accordance with its specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that each party hereto will be entitled to seek an injunction to specifically enforce the terms of this Agreement solely in the courts specified in Section 8(a) of this Agreement, in addition to any other remedy to which such party may be entitled hereunder, at law or in equity.

No failure or delay by a party in exercising any right or remedy provided by law or under this Agreement shall impair such right or remedy or operate or be construed as a waiver or variation of it or preclude its exercise at any subsequent time and no single or partial exercise of any such right or remedy shall preclude any further exercise of it or the exercise of any other remedy.

(k) Changes in Securities Laws. In the event that any amendment, repeal or other change in the securities laws shall render the provisions of this Agreement inapplicable, CFI will provide the Holders with substantially similar rights to those granted under this Agreement and use its good faith efforts to cause such rights to be as comparable as possible to the rights granted to the Holders hereunder.

Annex A

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering the common stock covered by this prospectus to permit selling stockholders, and any permitted assignees, transferees, pledgees, or donees or any of the successors in interest of the selling stockholders named in a prospectus supplement to this prospectus, to conduct public secondary trading of the common stock. We will not receive any of the proceeds of the sale of the common stock offered by this prospectus. The aggregate proceeds to the selling stockholders from the sale of the common stock will be the purchase price of the common stock less any discounts, commissions, transfer taxes, and certain other expenses. A selling stockholder may offer and sell the common stock included in this prospectus from time to time through one or more methods specified herein or through a combination of any of such methods or any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholders may offer and sell their common stock included in this prospectus from time to time directly to purchasers, through underwriters, to dealers, or through agents, at fixed prices, which may be changed, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market prices, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at privately negotiated prices.

The selling stockholders may offer and sell some or all of the common stock included in this prospectus by or through a broker-dealer in one or more, or a combination, of the following methods pursuant to applicable law, without limitation:

purchases by the broker-dealer as principal, and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

a block trade in which the broker-dealer may attempt to sell the shares as agent, but may resell all or a portion of the block as principal in order to facilitate the transaction;

transactions in which a broker-dealer may agree with one or more selling stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

transactions in which the broker-dealer as agent solicits purchasers and ordinary brokerage transactions by the broker-dealer as agent; or an offering at other than a fixed price on or through the facilities of any stock exchange on which the common stock is listed or to or through a market maker other than on that stock exchange.

The selling stockholders may directly make offers to sell some or all of the common stock included in this prospectus to, or solicit offers to purchase such shares from, purchasers from time to time. If required, the prospectus supplement related to any such offering by the selling stockholders will set forth the terms of such offering.

The selling stockholders may sell some or all of the common stock included in this prospectus from time to time to one or more underwriters, which would purchase the shares as principal for resale to purchasers, on a firm-commitment or other basis. If the selling stockholders sell common stock to underwriters, they may execute an underwriting agreement with them at the time of sale and, if required, will name them in the prospectus supplement related to any such offering. In connection with those sales, underwriters may be deemed to have received compensation from the selling stockholders in the form of underwriting discounts or commissions and may also receive commissions from purchasers of the common stock for which they may act as agents. Underwriters may resell common stock to or through dealers, and those dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or commissions from purchasers for which they may act as agents. The prospectus supplement related to any such offering will include any required information about underwriting compensation to be paid to underwriters, and any discounts, concessions or commissions underwriters allow to participating dealers, in connection with such offering.

From time to time, the selling stockholders may sell the common stock included in this prospectus to one or more dealers acting as principals. If required, the prospectus supplement related to any such offering will name such dealers as selling stockholders, and will include information about any compensation paid to the dealers, in such offering. The dealers, which may be deemed to be underwriters as that term is defined in the Securities Act, may then resell the common stock to purchasers.

The selling stockholders may designate broker-dealers as agents from time to time to solicit offers from purchasers to purchase the common stock included in this prospectus, or to sell such common stock in ordinary brokerage transactions, on their behalf. If required, the prospectus supplement related to any such offering will name such agents, and will include information about any commissions paid to the agents in such offering. Agents may be deemed to be underwriters as that term is defined in the Securities Act in such offering.

Each of the selling stockholders may be deemed to be an underwriter as that term is defined in the Securities Act, and any profit on the sale of the common stock included in this prospectus by such selling stockholder may be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act.

In connection with a firm commitment offering, the underwriters may purchase and sell the common stock in the open market. These transactions may include short sales, stabilizing transactions and purchases to cover positions created by short sales. Short sales involve the sale by the underwriters of a greater number of shares of the common stock than they are required to purchase in the offering. Stabilizing transactions consist of certain bids or purchases made for the purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the common stock while the offering is in progress. The underwriters also may impose a penalty bid. This occurs when a particular underwriter repays to the underwriters a portion of the underwriting discount received by it because the underwriters have repurchased common stock sold by or for the account of that underwriter in stabilizing or short-covering transactions. These activities by the underwriters may stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the common stock. As a result, the price of the common stock may be higher than the price that otherwise might exist in the open market. If these activities are commenced, they may be discontinued by the underwriters at any time. These transactions may be effected on or through the NYSE, the existing trading market for the common stock, or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise.

The selling stockholders or their underwriters, broker-dealers, or agents may make sales of the common stock that are deemed to be an at-the-market offering as defined in Securities Act Rule 415, which includes sales of such common stock made directly on or through the NYSE, the existing trading market for the common stock, or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise.

Any underwriters, broker-dealers, or agents offering the common stock included in this prospectus will not confirm sales to any accounts over which they or their affiliates exercise discretionary authority without the prior approval of the customer.

We have agreed to indemnify in certain circumstances selling stockholders against certain liabilities. The selling stockholders have agreed to indemnify us in certain circumstances against certain liabilities. In addition, underwriters, broker-dealers, agents and other persons may be entitled, under agreements that they may enter into with the selling stockholders, to indemnification by them against certain liabilities in connection with an offering of the common stock included in this prospectus.

We have agreed to pay certain expenses of the registration of the common stock offered and sold by the selling stockholders under the registration statement, including, but not limited to, all registration and filing fees and fees and expenses of our counsel and our accountants. The selling stockholders will pay any underwriting discounts, commissions, expenses of their counsel and their accountants, with certain exceptions, and transfer taxes applicable to the common stock sold by them.

We may require that the selling stockholders be subject to any restrictions on sale imposed by us from time to time.

The selling stockholders and other persons participating in the sale or distribution of the common stock may be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including

Regulation M. This regulation may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the common stock. We have informed the selling stockholders that the anti-manipulation rules under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of the common stock in the market and to the activities of the selling stockholders and their affiliates. Furthermore, Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the particular common stock being distributed for a period of up to five business days before the distribution. These restrictions may affect the marketability of the common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the common stock.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the common stock must be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the common stock may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

As a result of the requirements of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA), the maximum discount, concession or commission to be received by any FINRA member or independent broker-dealer may not be greater than eight percent (8%) of the gross proceeds received by the selling stockholders for the sale of any of the common stock included in this prospectus.

Any of the common stock included in this prospectus held by the selling stockholders that qualifies for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to the registration statement. If any selling stockholder sells pursuant to Rule 144, such selling stockholder will not be deemed to be an underwriter as that term is defined in the Securities Act and will not be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act with respect to such sales. The common stock covered by this prospectus may also be sold to non-U.S. persons outside the U.S. in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act rather than under this prospectus.

A selling stockholder may also sell the common stock through privately negotiated transactions, settlement of short sales, the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions (whether through an options exchange or otherwise) and an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange.

In addition, nothing herein shall prohibit Barrack from providing services to an entity engaged in the Business if Barrack's services are solely limited to a unit, division, or subsidiary of such entity which does not engage in the Business and Barrack does not provide services directly or indirectly to, or with respect to, the Business.

4. Non-Solicitation. Except as necessary, appropriate or desirable to perform his duties to the Company during his employment, Barrack shall not during the Restricted Period, without CFI's prior written consent, (i) directly or indirectly, on his own behalf or for any other Person, knowingly (A) solicit or induce any officer, director, employee or independent contractor of the Company who is a natural person that provides consulting or advisory services with respect to sourcing or consummating financings or investments to terminate his or her relationship with the Company, or (B) hire any such individual whom Barrack knows left the employment of the Company during the previous 12 months or (ii) directly or indirectly, on his own behalf or for any other Person, solicit or induce any investors to terminate (or diminish in any material respect) his, her or its relationship with the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, identification or doing business with or co-investing with any limited partners, investors, financing sources or capital markets intermediaries with regard to activity that is not prohibited by Section 3 above shall not be deemed to be a breach of this Section 4 or otherwise. Barrack shall not be in violation of this Section 4 by reason of providing a personal reference for any officer, director or employee of the Company or soliciting individuals for employment through a general advertisement not targeted specifically to officers, directors or employees of the Company. This Section 4 shall not prohibit Barrack from (x) soliciting or hiring any of the Persons listed on Exhibit 2 attached hereto or (y) engaging the services of Jonathan Grunzweig and Mark Hedstrom during their employment with CFI solely in connection with Permitted Activities engaged in by Barrack; provided, however, that with respect to clause (y), such employees will only provide services in connection with Permitted Activities consistent with services provided prior to the Effective Date. In addition, except as otherwise provided in this Section 4, during the Restricted Period, in the event that Barrack engages the services of any Business Employee in connection with any business of CC following the Effective Date or in connection with the Permitted Activities engaged in by Barrack, Barrack shall pay a reasonable fee (based on such Business Employee's then current compensation and cost of providing benefits, relative to the amount of such Business Employee's business time spent performing such services to Barrack) to the Company for the services of such Business Employee.

5. Confidential Information. At all times on and following the Effective Date, Barrack shall not disclose or use for his benefit or the benefit of others, except in connection with the business and affairs of the Company or any of its affiliates, any Confidential Information except to the extent that (i) such disclosure or use is related to, necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection with Barrack's performance of his duties to the Company or

(ii) is related to any good faith dispute between Barrack and the Company or any of its affiliates or otherwise in connection with any action by Barrack to enforce his rights or defend his actions under this Agreement, the Contribution Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement, the Employment Agreement or any other agreement with the Company or any of its affiliates. Nothing contained herein shall preclude Barrack from disclosing Confidential Information to his immediate family and personal legal and financial advisor(s), provided that Barrack informs such family member(s) and/or advisor(s) that the information is confidential in nature and receives reasonable assurances that the family member(s) and/or advisor(s) shall not disclose such information except as required by Law or by any Authority with apparent jurisdiction over such Person. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent Barrack from complying with applicable Law, or disclosing information pursuant to the valid order of a court of competent jurisdiction or an authorized government agency, provided that such compliance does not in Barrack's reasonable judgment exceed the extent of disclosure required by such Law. Barrack shall, to the extent legally permitted, promptly provide written notice of any such order to an authorized officer of the Company after receiving such order and reasonably cooperate with any efforts of the Company to seek a protective order or other measure to protect the confidentiality of such information.

6. Mutual Non-Disparagement.

(a) At all times on and following the Effective Date, Barrack shall refrain from making any disparaging statements about the Company or any of its present or (to the extent such Persons serve in such capacity during Barrack's employment with the Company) future officers, directors, and, in their capacity as such, employees, to any third Persons, including, without limitation, to any press or other media, except (i) to the extent required by Law or legal process, by any Authority with apparent jurisdiction or applicable securities considerations, (ii) related to any good faith litigation or similar proceeding between Barrack and the Company or any of such officers or directors or otherwise in connection with any good faith litigation or similar proceeding or other efforts by Barrack to enforce his rights or defend his actions under this Agreement, the Contribution Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement, the Employment Agreement or any other agreement with the Company or any of such officers or directors or (iii) for the making of any critical remarks about any such Person in connection with any analyses made or opinions expressed in the ordinary course of his duties to the Company during his employment therewith.

(b) At all times on and following the Effective Date, the senior executive officers of the Company shall not make, or cause to be made by the Company, any disparaging or negative statements about Barrack to any third Persons, including, without limitation, to any press or other media, except (i) to the extent required by Law or legal process, by any Authority with apparent jurisdiction or applicable securities considerations, (ii) related to any good faith litigation or similar proceeding between Barrack and the Company or otherwise in connection with any good faith litigation or similar proceeding by Barrack to enforce his rights or defend his actions under this Agreement, the Contribution Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement, the Employment Agreement or any other agreement with the Company or (iii) for the making of any critical remarks about Barrack in connection with any analyses made or opinions expressed in the ordinary course of their respective duties to the Company during their employment therewith.

7. Intellectual Property.

(a) Barrack agrees that all Company Materials shall be deemed work made for hire by the Company as the author and owner to the extent permitted by United States copyright Law. To the extent (if any) that some or all of the Company Materials do not constitute work made for hire, Barrack hereby irrevocably assigns to the Company for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, all right, title and interest in and to such Company Materials (including without limitation any and all copyright rights, patent rights and trademark rights and goodwill associated therewith). The provisions of this paragraph will apply to all Company Materials which are or have been conceived or developed by Barrack, solely or jointly, whether or not further development or reduction to practice may take place after the termination of Barrack's employment or retention by the Company.

(b) Barrack further agrees that he will execute and deliver to CFI any and all further documents or instruments and do any and all further acts which the Company reasonably requests in order to perfect, confirm, defend, police and enforce the Company's intellectual property rights, and hereby grants to the officers of the Company an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with interest, to such end. Barrack shall be promptly reimbursed by the Company for all costs and expenditures incurred in connection with any cooperation referenced in this Section 7(b).

8. Injunctive Relief; Other Remedies. The parties agree that the remedy at Law for any breach of this Agreement is and will be inadequate, and in the event of a breach or threatened breach by Barrack of the provisions of Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, or 7 of this Agreement, the Company shall be entitled to an injunction restraining Barrack from the conduct which would constitute a breach of this Agreement. Subject to the limitations provided for in the proviso to this sentence, nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting the Company from pursuing any other remedies available to it or them for such breach or threatened breach, including, without limitation, specific performance and/or the recovery of damages from Barrack; provided that the recovery of damages in respect of a breach of any of the obligations set forth in Section 3 hereof shall be limited as provided for in the Lock-Up Agreement.

9. Reasonableness and Enforceability of Covenants.

(a) The recitals to this Agreement are incorporated herein by this reference. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree with such recitals, and further agree that the value of the consideration paid by CFI in connection with the Contribution is substantial and that preservation of the confidential and proprietary information, goodwill, stable workforce, and client and customer relations of the Company is a material part of the consideration being provided in connection with the Contribution.

(b) The parties expressly agree that the character, duration and geographical scope of this Agreement are reasonable in light of the circumstances as they exist on the date upon which this Agreement has been executed, including, but not limited to, Barrack's material economic interest in the Contribution, Barrack's importance within the business to be contributed in the Contribution, and Barrack's position of confidence and trust as a stockholder of CFI.

(c) Barrack acknowledges that, (i) in connection with the Contribution, the Company will be vested with the goodwill of, and will directly or indirectly carry on, the business of CC; (ii) the restrictive covenants and the other agreements contained herein (collectively, the Restrictive Covenants) are an essential part of this Agreement and the contemplated Contribution; (iii) the contemplated Contribution is designed and intended to qualify as a sale (or other disposition) by Barrack within the meaning of BPC Section 16601 and (iv) the covenants contained in this Agreement are intended to be and would be enforceable under BPC Section 16601. Barrack and the Company agree not to challenge the enforceability of the covenants (and the limitations and qualifications included as part thereof) contained in this Agreement.

(d) Barrack agrees to be bound by the Restrictive Covenants and the other agreements contained in this Agreement to the maximum extent permitted by Law, it being the intent and spirit of the parties that the Restrictive Covenants and the other agreements contained herein shall be valid and enforceable in all respects, and, subject to the terms and conditions of, and limitations and qualifications included in, this Agreement.

10. Acknowledgements. Barrack acknowledges that (i) his work for the Company will continue to give him access to the confidential affairs and proprietary information of the Company; (ii) the agreements and covenants of Barrack contained in this Agreement are essential to the business and goodwill of the Company; and (iii) CFI would not have entered into the Contribution Agreement or the Employment Agreement but for the covenants and agreements set forth herein.

11. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California applicable to agreements entered into and to be performed entirely within such state.

14. Amendment; Waiver; Termination. No provision of this Agreement may be amended, modified, waived or discharged unless such amendment, modification, waiver or discharge is agreed to in writing and signed by Barrack and CFI. No waiver by either party hereto at any time of any breach by the other party hereto of compliance with any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party shall be deemed a waiver of similar or dissimilar provisions or conditions at the same or at any prior or subsequent time. 16. Arbitration. Except as otherwise set forth in Section 8, any dispute or controversy arising under or in connection with this Agreement that cannot be mutually resolved by the parties hereto shall be settled exclusively by arbitration in Santa Monica, California before a panel of three neutral arbitrators, each of whom shall be selected jointly by the parties, or, if the parties cannot agree on the selection of the arbitrators, as selected by the American Arbitration Association. The commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association (the

- (c) The arbitrators shall apply California law;
- (d) Any petition or motion to modify or vacate the award shall be filed in a Superior Court in California (the Court);

- (f) Either party may seek a de novo review by the Court of the conclusions of law included in the award and any petition or motion to enforce, confirm, modify or vacate the award; and
- (g) The arbitration shall be confidential. Judgment may be entered on the arbitrators' award in any court having jurisdiction.

The parties hereby agree that the arbitrators shall be empowered to enter an equitable decree mandating specific enforcement of the terms of this Agreement. Each party shall bear its own legal fees and out-of-pocket expenses incurred in any arbitration hereunder and the parties shall share equally all expenses of the arbitrators; provided, that, the arbitrator shall have the same authority to award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party in any arbitration as part of the arbitrator's award as would be the case had the dispute or controversy been argued before a court with competent jurisdiction.

Schedule A

Applicable Opportunity

If Barrack seeks to pursue any investment or other opportunity that would otherwise be prohibited by this Agreement, then the determination of whether such investment or opportunity is an Applicable Opportunity shall be made as follows:

(a) Barrack shall submit (along with all material documentation provided to Barrack or otherwise then in Barrack's possession with respect to such Applicable Opportunity) in advance of him taking any action to engage in such Applicable Opportunity to a committee of the Board comprised of independent directors and established for the purpose of making the determinations set forth in this Schedule A (the Conflicts Committee).

(b) Within 10 Business Days after the date on which the investment or opportunity is submitted by Barrack, the Conflicts Committee shall consider such investment or opportunity.

(c) Within 20 Business Days after the date on which the investment or opportunity is submitted by Barrack, the Conflicts Committee shall determine that the investment or opportunity either:

(x) is outside the scope of the Business or is a Permitted Activity, and so communicates such determination to Barrack in writing, in which case such investment or opportunity shall be an Applicable Opportunity;

(y) is within the scope of the Business and is not a Permitted Activity, but is not within the scope of the then-current business strategy of CFI and its Subsidiaries, in which case such investment or opportunity shall be an Applicable Opportunity; or provided that if Barrack does not receive notice from the Conflicts Committee within 20 Business Days following the date on which the investment or opportunity is submitted by Barrack, then such investment or opportunity shall be an Applicable Opportunity. Once an investment or opportunity has been determined to be an Applicable Opportunity in accordance with this Schedule A, the Company following such time shall have no recourse to prevent Barrack from engaging in such Applicable Opportunity or to take the position that engaging in such Applicable Opportunity is a violation of this Agreement, the Lock-Up Agreement or any agreement with respect to Fund Incentives.

(z) is within the scope of Business, is not a Permitted Activity, and is within the scope of the then-current business strategy of CFI and its subsidiaries, in which case such investment or opportunity shall not be an Applicable Opportunity unless the Conflicts Committee determines that Barrack may nevertheless engage or seek to engage in such investment or opportunity in his personal capacity and so communicates that determination in writing to Barrack (for the avoidance of doubt, unless the Conflicts Committee communicates such determination to Barrack in writing, such investment or opportunity shall not be a Permitted Activity);

MANAGEMENT AND ADVISORY AGREEMENT

This MANAGEMENT AND ADVISORY AGREEMENT, dated as of _____, 2014 is made and entered into by and between COLONY CAPITAL, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the Manager), and COLONY REALTY MEMBER, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the Company).

Preliminary Statement

The Company is a Member of Colony Realty Partners, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (CRP). The Company desires that the Manager perform certain of its management functions required of the Company pursuant to the Limited Liability Company Agreement of CRP (as may be amended from time to time, the Limited Liability Company Agreement) in accordance with the terms and conditions hereof. The Manager desires to undertake certain of the management functions of the Company upon the terms and conditions hereof.

Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings specified in the Limited Liability Company Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

DUTIES, AUTHORITY AND FUNCTION OF MANAGER

1.01 General. The Manager shall undertake and be responsible for the implementation of the various activities required of the Company pursuant to the Limited Liability Company Agreement. Except as specifically provided herein, the Manager shall have all of the rights, powers and authority with respect to CRP as does the Company pursuant to the Limited Liability Company Agreement. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Manager shall not have any rights or authority pursuant to this Agreement with respect to the business and operations of CRP in addition to those rights and the authority granted to the Company pursuant to the Limited Liability Company Agreement, and, without limiting the foregoing, shall perform this Agreement under the supervision of the Company and shall not take any action that would be a violation of Section 6.03(A) of the Agreement of Limited Partnership of each of Colony Realty Partners, L.P., Colony Realty Partners II, L.P., Colony Realty Partners III, L.P. and Colony Realty Partners IV, L.P.

1.02 Administrative. The Manager, on behalf of the Company, shall be responsible for the provision of certain services to CRP, including, without limitation, fundraising, accounting, financial reporting, investor relations and reporting and legal and compliance services and will obtain and maintain, at the Company's, CRP's or the applicable Fund's sole cost and expense, all necessary insurance, licenses, permits, approvals and other matters necessary to perform the obligations of the Company under the Limited Liability Company Agreement. The Company shall reimburse the Manager for any direct, out-of-pocket expenses incurred by it with regard to its duties to the Company hereunder (including, without limitation, all Contract Services as defined below), to the extent such expenses are reimbursable to the Company by CRP or the Funds under the Limited Liability Company Agreements or the partnership agreements of the Funds, as applicable, as well as an allocable portion of the compensation paid and benefits provided to personnel of the Manager that provide services to the Company (it being understood however that the overhead with respect to such personnel shall not be included in the reimbursable amount).

1.03 Contract Services. The Manager shall have the right to retain third parties to perform Contract Services (as hereinafter defined) whenever, in the reasonable judgment of the Manager, such performance is required to carry out its duties hereunder and shall monitor the performance of all Contract Services performed by all third parties from time to time. As used herein, the term Contract Services means those third-party services and products the Manager deems required or advisable to obtain in order to enable it to fulfill its obligations hereunder.

1.04 Employees; Independent Contractor; Affiliates. The Manager shall have in its employ at all times employees that in the Manager's reasonable judgment are capable and sufficient in number to enable it properly and adequately to perform its duties hereunder, or the Manager shall engage such independent contractors as the Manager deems necessary to supplement or to complement the Manager's employees. All matters pertaining to the employment, supervision, compensation, promotion and discharge of the Manager's employees and any independent contractors engaged by the Manager to supplement or complement the Manager's employees shall be the responsibility of the Manager, and the Manager shall be liable to such employees for their compensation (in whatever form or amount such compensation may be). Neither the Company nor CRP shall ever be the employer of such employees, nor shall the Company or CRP ever be directly responsible for their compensation. The Manager shall fully comply with all applicable laws and regulations having to do with workmen's compensation, social security, unemployment insurance, hours of labor, wages, working conditions, and other employer-employee related matters.

1.05 Affiliates. The Manager shall have the right to cause the Company or CRP to enter into contracts or otherwise deal with any Affiliates of the Company or of the Manager in any capacity, including, without limitation, in connection with the business and operations of the Company and CRP, except that (i) the terms of any such arrangement shall be commercially reasonable and competitive with amounts that would be paid to, and other terms and conditions that would be found in arrangements with, unaffiliated third parties on an arms-length basis, (ii) all such arrangements, including the terms and conditions thereof, shall be disclosed in writing to the Company, and (iii) such arrangement shall in all other respects comply with the Limited Liability Company Agreement.

1.06 Standard of Care. The Manager will, consistent with the provisions hereof, carry out its obligations to the Company in accordance with prudent business practice acting at all times in the best interests of the Company and CRP. Except to the extent agreed by the Company, the Manager will exercise its authority under this Agreement so as to not cause the Manager (or any affiliate of or direct or indirect investor therein) to fail to be treated as a real estate investment trust under Section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and/or as a taxable REIT subsidiary within the meaning of Section 856(l) of the Code.

1.07 Exclusivity. The appointment of the Manager hereunder shall be exclusive to the Manager except to the extent the Manager elects, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, to cause the duties of the Manager hereunder to be provided by third parties.

ARTICLE II

APPROVAL BY THE COMPANY

2.01 Approval by the Company. Subject to the provisions of Section 1.01, the Manager shall have the right, power and authority to perform its duties hereunder without further approval of the Company; provided, however, that the Manager (a) shall have no right to bind the Company and (b) shall have no right to bind CRP to any of the following without the written approval of the Company:

- (a) Filing any tax returns or making any election for tax purposes for the Company or CRP;
- (b) Filing a voluntary petition for bankruptcy or taking other similar action on behalf of the Company or CRP; and
- (c) Approving any amendment to the Limited Liability Company Agreement.

2.02 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 2.01, any item enumerated therein which has been approved by the General Partner as part of the annual budget may be implemented and consummated by the Manager

ARTICLE VI

INDEMNIFICATION

6.01 Indemnification.

(a) Neither the Manager nor any affiliate of the Manager, nor any officer, director, shareholder, partner, member, employee, agent or representative of the foregoing (each a Covered Person) shall have any liability, responsibility or accountability in damages or otherwise to any of the Fund, the Company or any Partner for, and the Company to the full extent permitted by law shall indemnify, pay, protect and hold harmless each Covered Person from and against any and all claims liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, proceedings, costs, expenses and disbursements of any nature whatsoever, including without limitation reasonable legal fees and other expenses reasonably incurred, relating to or arising out of or in connection with (or alleged to relate to or arise out of or in connection with) the business and operations of the Company or CRP or any action taken or omitted by any such Covered Person by or on behalf of the Company or CRP pursuant to authority granted by this Agreement, except where found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be attributable to the gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of any such Covered Person, or a material violation by such Covered Person of the provisions of this Agreement. In the event that any Covered Person becomes involved in any capacity in any suit, action, proceeding or investigation in connection with any matter relating to or arising out of or in connection with (or alleged to relate to or arise out of or in connection with) the Manager's duties hereunder, the Company will periodically reimburse such Covered Person for its reasonable legal and other expenses (including the cost of any investigation and preparation) incurred in connection therewith; provided, however, that prior to any such advancement of expenses (i) such Covered Person shall provide the Company with an undertaking to promptly repay to the Company the amount of any such expenses paid to it if it shall ultimately be determined that such Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as herein provided in connection with such suit, action, proceeding or investigation, and (ii) the Covered Person shall provide the Company with a written affirmation that such Covered Person in good faith believes that it has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification hereunder; provided, further, however, that the failure for any reason of the Company to advance funds to any Covered Person shall in no way affect such Covered Person's right to reimbursement of such costs if it is ultimately determined that such Covered Person was entitled to indemnification pursuant to the terms hereof.

(b) Any Covered Person entitled to indemnification from the Company hereunder shall use commercially reasonable efforts to seek recovery under any insurance policies by which such Covered Person is covered and any Covered Person shall obtain the written consent of the Company prior to entering into any compromise or settlement which would result in an obligation of the Company to indemnify such Covered Person; provided, however, that the possibility of recovery under any such insurance policies shall not preclude a Covered Person from seeking indemnification pursuant to this Section 6.01(b). If such Covered Person shall actually recover any amounts under any applicable insurance policies, it shall offset the net proceeds so received against any amounts owed by the Company by reason of the indemnity provided hereunder or, if all such amounts shall have been paid by the Company in full prior to the actual receipt of such net insurance proceeds, it shall pay over such proceeds (up to the amount of indemnification paid by the Company to such Covered Person) to the Company. If the amounts in respect of which indemnification is sought arise out of the conduct of the business and affairs of the Company and also of any other Covered Person for which the Covered Person hereunder was then acting in a similar capacity, the amount of the indemnification provided by the Company may be limited to the Company's proportionate share thereof.

The Company shall be required to pay the Termination Fee to the Manager if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Section 8.02(b).

(c) Manager Termination for Investment Company Status. The Manager may terminate this Agreement in the event CRP or the Company becomes regulated as an investment company under the Investment Company Act, with such termination deemed to have occurred immediately prior to such event. If the Manager terminates this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.02(c), the Company shall not be required to pay the Termination Fee.

8.03 Manager's Obligations after Termination. From and after the effective date of the expiration, dissolution or termination of this Agreement for any reason, the Manager shall not be entitled to compensation for further services under this Agreement, but shall be paid all compensation accruing to the date of expiration, dissolution or termination, as applicable, and, if this Agreement terminated pursuant to Section 8.01(c) or 8.02(b), the applicable Termination Fee. Upon the expiration, dissolution or termination of this Agreement, the Manager shall forthwith:

(a) after deducting any accrued compensation and reimbursement for expenses to which it is then entitled, pay over to the Company, or its nominee, all funds in its possession belonging to the Company or received by Manager pursuant to the terms of this Agreement; and

(b) deliver to the Company, or its nominee, all materials and supplies in its possession belonging to the Company or received by Manager pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

8.04 Rights of Termination. Termination of this Agreement shall not release the Manager from liability for failure to perform any of the duties or obligations of the Manager under this Agreement that have already accrued. Upon such termination, all authority granted hereunder to the Manager shall cease and terminate, and the parties shall be relieved of all duties and obligations hereunder except for the following (all of which shall survive such termination): (a) any such obligations, liabilities, and claims arising prior to the date of expiration, dissolution, or termination, as applicable (b) the obligations of the Manager to submit reports relating to the period prior to such expiration, dissolution, or termination, and (c) the obligations and liabilities hereunder of each party to hold harmless, indemnify and defend the other party with respect to matters arising prior to the date of expiration, dissolution, or termination, as applicable.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises contained herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

DEFINITIONS

Section 1.1 Definitions. Except as otherwise set forth herein, all capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Contribution Agreement.

Table of Contents

Section 5.2), non-sublicensable (other than as set forth in Section 2.2) and royalty-free limited license to use the Licensed Mark in the Licensee Business in each and all territories in the world as (a) a trademark and service mark (including use on any and all signage, directories, listings, brochures, promotional materials, letterhead, business or name cards, display material and other business related documents, whether in print, broadcast, or other tangible or electronic media, or the like), (b) a corporate name and trade name, and (c) a domain name.

Licensee shall ensure that all Licensee sublicensees of such rights (Sublicensees) comply in all respects with this Agreement, and Licensee shall be fully liable hereunder for such Sublicensees' conduct.

Section 2.3 Reservation of Rights. Licensee shall have no rights with respect to the Licensed Mark other than those set forth in this Agreement. Licensor reserves all rights not expressly granted to Licensee hereunder.

Section 2.4 Grants to Third Parties. Licensor shall not grant to any Third Party any right or interest in or to the Licensed Mark that would conflict with or restrict the rights granted to Licensee pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

QUALITY CONTROL

Section 3.1 Trademark Standards.

(a) Licensee shall use the Licensed Mark only in connection with activities, products, and services in the Licensee Business that are consistent in all material respects with the high levels of quality associated with the Licensee Business conducted in connection with the Licensed Mark as of the Effective Date.

(b) Licensee agrees that, in the conduct of the Licensee Business, it shall comply with all applicable Laws. Table of Contents

Section 3.3 Notice and Disclaimer. Licensee agrees to use the Licensed Mark with all notices and legends (if any) that are reasonably requested by Licensor (a) so as to preserve and maintain the validity of and Licensor's rights in the Licensed Mark and (b) so as to communicate to customers the separate nature of the Licensee Business and the business of Licensor and its Affiliates.

ARTICLE IV

TRADEMARK OWNERSHIP

Section 4.1 Trademark Ownership. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that, as between the parties, Licensor is the owner of all of the right, title, and interest in and to the Licensed Mark and all goodwill associated therewith. Licensee acknowledges the validity of the Licensed Mark and of all registrations and applications of Licensor and its Affiliates pertaining thereto, if any. All use of the Licensed Mark by Licensee and its Sublicensees (including all past, present, and future use), and the goodwill generated thereby, shall inure to the benefit of Licensor and shall not vest in Licensee or in its Sublicensees. During and after the term of this Agreement, Licensee shall not adopt, use or attempt to register any name, brand, logo, mark or other identifier, or perform any act, that would reasonably be expected to disparage, dilute or be confusingly similar to the Licensed Mark. Licensee shall not, directly or indirectly, contest or challenge the validity or enforceability of the Licensed Mark. Licensee shall not represent to any third party in any manner that it owns or has any ownership rights in the Licensed Mark. To the extent that Licensee or any of its Sublicensees is deemed to have any ownership rights in the Licensed Mark, at Licensor's written request, Licensee shall, and shall cause each such Sublicensee to, assign such rights to Licensor or to such other Licensor Affiliate designated by Licensor.

Section 4.2 DISCLAIMER OF REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. LICENSOR, ON ITS OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF ITS AFFILIATES, SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, VALIDITY, REGISTRABILITY, TITLE OR NON-INFRINGEMENT AND ANY AND ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF DEALING OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE OR USAGE), REGARDING THE LICENSED MARK. WITHOUT LIMITING THE GENERALITY OF THE FOREGOING, LICENSEE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THE LICENSES GRANTED IN THIS AGREEMENT AND THE LICENSED MARK ARE PROVIDED AS IS.

EXPIRATION AND TERMINATION

Section 5.1 Term.

(a) The term of this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date and shall continue until terminated in accordance with Section 5.2.

(b) The term of any Sublicense granted by Licensee hereunder shall terminate upon the earlier of (i) the termination of this Agreement and (ii) with respect to any sublicense granted to any Licensee Affiliate, at such time as such Sublicensee ceases to be an Affiliate of Licensee.

Section 5.2 Termination of Agreement.

(a) Licensor may terminate this Agreement:

(i) upon notice if Licensee commits a material breach of this Agreement that is not curable or, if such breach is curable, upon notice if Licensee fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days following written notice by Licensor to Licensee describing such breach (which thirty-day period shall be extended to 90 days if the material breach is subject to cure and Licensee is diligently pursuing such a cure);

A-237

(ii) upon notice in the event that (i) Licensee or any of its Subsidiaries becomes bankrupt or insolvent, makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or has a receiver appointed for it, or (ii) a court approves reorganization proceedings for Licensee or any of its Affiliates, in each case, unless Licensee has, prior to such bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, notified Licensor in writing of such impending bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization and Licensor has determined, in its reasonable discretion, that such bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization does not pose a material risk to the value, validity or enforceability of the Licensed Mark;

(iii) during such time as Licensor owns ten percent (10%) or more of the outstanding equity interests in Licensee, upon notice in the event that Licensee experiences a change of Control without the prior written consent of Licensor, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld (it being understood that any withholding of consent shall, without limitation, be reasonable if such change of Control results in a competitor of Colony Financial, Inc. obtaining Control of Licensee);

(iv) during such time, if any, as Licensor owns less than ten percent (10%) of the outstanding equity interests in Licensee, upon notice in the event that Licensee experiences a change of Control that results in a competitor of Colony Financial, Inc. or a Prohibited Person obtaining Control of Licensee;

(v) upon notice in the event that Licensee discontinues use of the Licensed Mark for a period of twelve (12) consecutive months or more; or

(vi) upon notice should Licensee transfer, assign, or sublicense its rights under this Agreement in violation of this Agreement if Licensee fails to cure such violation within thirty (30) days following written notice by Licensor to Licensee describing such breach.

(b) Licensee may terminate this Agreement for any reason or no reason upon notice to Licensor.

(c) The parties may terminate this Agreement at any time upon mutual written agreement.

Section 5.3 Cessation of Use. Upon termination of this Agreement and after a three (3) month period to ramp down Licensee's use of the Licensed Mark (the Ramp Down Period), Licensee shall promptly discontinue all use, and refrain from all future use, of the Licensed Mark, including such use in any format confusingly similar thereto. During the Ramp Down Period, Licensee shall use the Licensed Mark for transition purposes only until it can discontinue the use of the Licensed Mark, and Licensee shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to discontinue use of the Licensed Mark as soon as reasonably practicable following termination of this Agreement. By the conclusion of the Ramp Down Period, Licensee shall assign to Licensor any domain names it owns (or that are owned on its behalf) that include the Licensed Mark.

Section 5.4 Survival. Article IV and Section 5.3, this Section 5.4, Section 6.2, Section 7.1, Section 7.9, Section 7.11, Section 7.13 and Section 7.14 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

ARTICLE VI

INFRINGEMENT AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 6.1 Infringement.

(a) Should any infringement or violation of the Licensed Mark by a third party come to the attention of Licensee, Licensee shall promptly notify Licensor in writing.

(b) Licensor shall have the sole right to determine whether or not it shall initiate any Proceeding against any actual or threatened infringement, dilution, violation, or other unauthorized use by a Third Party (Infringement) of the Licensed Mark.

(c) Licensor shall choose the attorneys, control the Proceeding, pay the Proceeding's expenses, and retain any damages, proceeds, costs, and/or fees recovered as a result of any judgment, verdict, award, or settlement of such Proceeding. Licensee agrees to provide reasonable cooperation to Licensor in any Proceeding taken to enforce the Licensed Mark; provided, however, Licensor reimburses Licensee for any reasonable expenses incurred in connection with proving such cooperation.

Section 6.2 Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Closing, Licensee will indemnify in full Licensor and each of Licensor's Affiliates, together with their respective officers, partners, directors, employees, and agents (collectively, Licensor Indemnified Parties), and hold them harmless from and against, any and all Losses which they or any of them have actually suffered or incurred, directly or indirectly, regardless of when suffered or incurred, arising out of a Third Party Claim in respect of any actual material breach by Licensee of this Agreement.

(b) From and after the Closing, Licensor will indemnify in full Licensee and each of Licensee's Affiliates, together with their respective officers, partners, directors, employees, and agents (collectively, Licensee Indemnified Parties), and hold them harmless from and against, any and all Losses which they or any of them have actually suffered or incurred, directly or indirectly, regardless of when suffered or incurred, arising out of a Third Party Claim in respect of any actual material breach by Licensor of this Agreement.

Section 6.3 Recovery. Losses relating to any claim will be recoverable whenever they are incurred.

Section 6.4 Limits on Indemnification.

(a) The parties will seek recovery from Third Party insurance providers for any Losses which are indemnifiable hereunder and which are recoverable from such providers, but only to the same extent that such parties would seek such recovery in the absence of the indemnification provisions of this Agreement (taking into account, among other things, the likelihood of recovery and the anticipated costs of pursuing the claim). Losses recoverable by a Licensor Indemnified Party or Licensee Indemnified Party, as the case may be, will be (i) reduced by the amount of any insurance proceeds actually received by such party with respect to those Losses; and (ii) increased by the amount of any costs and expenses reasonably incurred in connection with the collection thereof, whether or not successful, and all insurance detriments (such as premium adjustments or increases) relating thereto. If any such amounts are received by a Licensor Indemnified Party or Licensee Indemnified Party, as the case may be, after being indemnified for the relevant Losses hereunder, such amounts will be paid to the indemnifying party. Any calculation of Losses for purposes of this Article VI shall be reduced to take account of any Tax benefit realized by the indemnified party arising from the deductibility of any such Loss.

(b) In no event shall an indemnifying party be liable to any Licensor Indemnified Party or Licensee Indemnified Party, as applicable, for any punitive damages, except for any such damages to the extent awarded by an Authority to a Third Party in connection with a Third Party Claim.

(c) Nothing in this Article VI will adversely affect, or result in a reduction of, the rights of (or obligations to) the beneficiaries of Section 7.10 of the Contribution Agreement or adversely affect or modify the provisions therein.

Section 6.5 Third Party Claims.

(a) If any indemnified party receives notice of the assertion of any Third Party Claim, and the indemnified party intends to seek indemnity hereunder, then the indemnified party shall promptly provide the indemnifying party with written notice of the Third Party Claim (provided that any delay in providing such notice shall not relieve the indemnifying party of any indemnification responsibility under this Article VI except to the extent, if any, that such delay materially and actually prejudices the indemnifying party and then only to the extent of such prejudice). Any such notice shall, with respect to any such claim, specify in reasonable detail, to the extent then known, the nature of the Losses suffered and the facts giving rise to the claim.

(b) The indemnifying party shall have 30 days after receipt of such notice (or sooner if the nature of the Third Party Claim so requires) to elect to control the defense, compromise or settlement of the Third Party Claim with its own counsel at the indemnifying party's expense; provided that (i) the indemnifying party shall have acknowledged in writing such indemnifying party's obligation to fully indemnify the indemnified party for such proceeding in accordance with this Agreement, (ii) the indemnified party is not reasonably expected to be liable for Losses materially in excess of amounts reasonably expected to be received from the indemnifying party and (iii) such proceeding involves only monetary damages and does not seek an injunction or equitable relief against the indemnified party; provided, further, that no indemnifying party shall consent to the entry of any judgment or admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, such Third Party Claim, without the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the applicable indemnified party unless (i) the terms of such settlement contain a complete and unconditional release of such indemnified party with respect to such Third Party Claim and (ii) such settlement is solely on monetary terms and does not result in any financial or other obligation of the indemnified party (other than standard provisions related to confidentiality and any immaterial or administrative terms).

(c) The indemnified party shall be entitled to participate in (but not control) the defense by the indemnifying party of any Third Party Claim with its own counsel at its own expense; provided, however, that the indemnifying party shall pay such expenses if such indemnified party shall have been advised by its counsel that there may be one or more legal defenses available to the indemnified party which are not available to such indemnifying party, or if available to such indemnifying party the assertion of which would be adverse to or in conflict with the interests of the indemnified party.

(d) In the event that the indemnifying party does not undertake the defense, compromise or settlement of a Third Party Claim (or could not elect to do so because the claim relates to or arises in connection with any criminal or quasi-criminal matter or the claim seeks or is likely to seek an injunction or other equitable relief against the indemnified party) within the time frame specified in Section 6.5(b), the indemnified party shall have the right to control the defense or settlement of such Third Party Claim (but shall not have waived any rights to indemnification therefore hereunder) with counsel of its choosing at the expense of the indemnifying party. If the indemnified party assumes the defense of a Third Party Claim, the indemnified party shall not consent to the entry of any judgment, admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, such Third Party Claim without the indemnifying party's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), except if (x) the indemnified party is reasonably expected to be liable for Losses materially in excess of amounts reasonably expected to be received from the indemnifying party or (y) such settlement or compromise is in respect of a proceeding that seeks an injunction or equitable relief against the indemnified party. The indemnifying party shall be entitled (at the indemnifying party's expense) to participate (but not control) in the defense of any Third Party Claim with its own counsel in the case that it has not elected to undertake the defense thereof pursuant to Section 6.5(b).

(e) In their defense, compromise or settlement of any Third Party Claim, the parties shall reasonably cooperate with each other. Such cooperation shall include the retention and the provision of reasonable access to the books, records and assets which evidence or support such Third Party Claim or the act, omission or occurrence giving rise to such Third Party Claim and the right, upon prior notice, to interview any employee, agent or other representative related thereto.

(f) With regard to Third Party Claims for which indemnification is payable hereunder, such indemnification will be paid by the indemnifying party upon the earliest to occur of: (i) the entry of a judgment against the indemnified party and the expiration of any applicable appeal period or, if earlier, 10 days prior to the date that the judgment creditor has the right to execute the judgment; (ii) the entry of a nonappealable judgment or final appellate decision against the indemnified party; (iii) a settlement of the Third Party Claim; or (iv) with respect to indemnities for any Liability for Taxes, within 10 days following a determination within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code or an analogous provision of state, local or foreign Law.

Whenever this Agreement requires or permits the consent by or on behalf of a party, the consent must be given in writing in the same manner as for waivers of compliance.

Section 7.9 Governing Law and Venue.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

(b) Each party hereto stipulates that any dispute or disagreement between or among any of the parties hereto as to the interpretation of any provision of, or the performance of obligations under, this Agreement shall be commenced and prosecuted in its entirety in, and consents to the exclusive jurisdiction and proper venue of, the Delaware Court of Chancery (and if the Delaware Court of Chancery shall be unavailable, any federal court located within the State of Delaware), and each party hereto consents to personal and subject matter jurisdiction and venue in such courts and waives and relinquishes all right to attack the suitability or convenience of such venue or forum by reason of its present or future domiciles, or by any other reason, for any such dispute or disagreement. The parties hereto acknowledge that all directions issued by the forum court, including all injunctions and other decrees, will be binding and enforceable in all jurisdictions and countries.

Section 7.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement will become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile or pdf signature and a facsimile or pdf signature will constitute an original for all purposes. At the request of any party, the parties will confirm a facsimile of pdf transmission by signing a duplicate original document.

Section 7.11 Specific Performance. Each party acknowledges and agrees that the other party would be irreparably damaged and would not have adequate remedies at law in the event that the covenants set forth in this Agreement were not performed in accordance with its specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that each party hereto will be entitled to an injunction to specifically enforce the terms of this Agreement, without obligation to post any bond, solely in the courts specified in Section 7.9, in addition to any other remedy to which such party may be entitled hereunder, at law or in equity.

Section 7.12 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including the annexes, exhibits and schedules hereto, together with the Contribution Agreement, embodies the entire agreement and understanding of the parties in respect of the subject matter contained herein and supersedes all prior agreements and the understandings between the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. No discussions regarding, or exchange of drafts or comments in connection with, the transactions contemplated herein will constitute an agreement among the parties hereto. Any agreement between the parties will exist only when the parties have fully executed and delivered this Agreement.

Section 7.13 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of Law or public policy, all other terms and provisions of this Agreement will nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economics or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby are not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon determination that any term or other provision hereof is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto will negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

DEFINED TERMS

Section 1.1 Definitions. The following definitions shall be for all purposes, unless otherwise clearly indicated to the contrary, applied to the terms used in this Agreement:

Act has the meaning set forth in the Recitals.

Actions has the meaning set forth in Section 7.7 hereof.

Additional Funds has the meaning set forth in Section 4.3.A hereof.

Additional Member means a Person who is admitted to the Company as a Member pursuant to the Act and Section 12.2 hereof, who is shown as such on the books and records of the Company, and who has not ceased to be a Member pursuant to the Act and this Agreement.

Adjusted Available Cash means, as of any date of determination, the sum of Available Cash and REIT Available Cash.

Adjusted Capital Account Deficit means, with respect to any Member, the deficit balance, if any, in such Member's Capital Account as of the end of the relevant Fiscal Year, after giving effect to the following adjustments:

(i) decrease such deficit by any amounts that such Member is obligated to restore pursuant to this Agreement or by operation of law upon liquidation of such Member's Membership Interest or that such Member is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentence of each of Regulations Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5); and

(ii) increase such deficit by the items described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) and (6).

The foregoing definition of Adjusted Capital Account Deficit is intended to comply with the provisions of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

Adjustment Events has the meaning set forth in Section 4.5.A(i) hereof.

Adjustment Factor means 1.0; provided, however, that in the event that:

(i) CLNY (a) declares or pays a dividend on its outstanding REIT Shares wholly or partly in REIT Shares or makes a distribution to all holders of its outstanding REIT Shares wholly or partly in REIT Shares, (b) splits or subdivides its outstanding REIT Shares or (c) effects a reverse stock split or otherwise combines its outstanding REIT Shares into a smaller number of REIT Shares, the Adjustment Factor shall be adjusted by multiplying the Adjustment Factor then in effect by a fraction, (i) the numerator of which shall be the number of REIT Shares issued and outstanding on the record date for such dividend, distribution, split, subdivision, reverse split or combination (assuming for such purposes that such dividend, distribution, split, subdivision, reverse split or combination has occurred as of such time) and (ii) the denominator of which shall be the actual number of REIT Shares (determined without the above assumption) issued and outstanding on the record date for such dividend, distribution, split, subdivision, reverse split or combination;

(ii) CLNY distributes any rights, options or warrants to all holders of its REIT Shares to subscribe for or to purchase or to otherwise acquire REIT Shares, or other securities or rights convertible into, exchangeable for or exercisable for REIT Shares (other than REIT Shares issuable pursuant to a Qualified DRIP), at a price per share less than the Value of a REIT Share on the record date for such distribution (each a Distributed Right), then the Adjustment Factor shall be adjusted by multiplying the Adjustment Factor then in effect by a fraction (a) the numerator of which shall be the number of REIT Shares issued and outstanding on the record date plus the maximum number of REIT Shares purchasable under such Distributed Rights and (b) the denominator of which shall be the number of REIT Shares issued and outstanding on the record date plus a fraction (1) the numerator of which is the maximum number of REIT Shares purchasable under such Distributed Rights, multiplied by the minimum purchase price per REIT Share under such Distributed Rights and (2) the denominator of which is the Value of a REIT Share as of the record date; provided, however, that, if any such Distributed Rights expire or become no longer exercisable, then the Adjustment Factor shall be adjusted, effective retroactive to the date of distribution (or, if later, the time the Distributed Rights become exercisable) of the Distributed Rights, to reflect a reduced maximum number of REIT Shares or any change in the minimum purchase price for the purposes of the above fraction; and

(iii) CLNY shall, by dividend or otherwise, distribute to all holders of its REIT Shares evidences of its indebtedness or its assets (including securities, but excluding cash or any dividend or distribution referred to in subsection (i) or

(ii) above, or any Units), which evidences of indebtedness or assets relate to assets not received by CLNY pursuant to a pro rata distribution by the Company, then the Adjustment Factor shall be adjusted to equal the amount determined by multiplying the Adjustment Factor then in effect by a fraction (a) the numerator of which shall be such Value of a REIT Share as of the trading day immediately preceding the ex-date for such dividend or distribution and (b) the denominator of which shall be the Value of a REIT Share as of the trading day immediately preceding the ex-date for such dividend or distribution, less the then fair market value (as determined by the Managing Member, whose determination shall be conclusive) of the portion of the evidences of indebtedness or assets so distributed applicable to one REIT Share.

Any adjustment to the Adjustment Factor shall become effective on the first date on which REIT Shares trade at a price that reflects such event (the ex-date). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any of the events in clause (i), (ii) or (iii) above occur, no adjustments will be made to the Adjustment Factor for any class or series of Membership Interests to the extent that the Company concurrently makes or effects a correlative distribution or payment to all of the Members holding Membership Interests of such class or series, or effects a correlative split, subdivision, reverse split or combination in respect of the Membership Interests of such class or series. If CLNY effects a dividend that allows holders of REIT Shares to elect to receive cash or additional REIT Shares, the Company may effect a correlative distribution by distributing to all Members holding Membership Interests of such class or series a combination of cash and additional Membership Interests in the same ratio as the ratio of cash and REIT Shares paid by CLNY, without offering Members an opportunity to elect to receive cash or additional Membership Interests. Any adjustments to the Adjustment Factor shall become effective immediately after such event, retroactive to the record date, if any, for such event. For illustrative purposes, examples of adjustments to the Adjustment Factor are set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto.

Affiliate means, with respect to a specified Person, any Person that directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the specified Person, where control means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, as trustee or executor or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) CC and its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and CLNY and its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, shall not be deemed Affiliates of the other for purposes of this Agreement and (ii) no fund, investment vehicle, or investment product managed by CLNY or its Subsidiaries shall be deemed an Affiliate of CLNY.

CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Section 4.1 Capital Contributions of the Members. Each Member has previously made Capital Contributions to the Company. Except as provided by law or in Section 4.2, 4.3, or 10.4 hereof, the Members shall have no obligation or, except with the prior written consent of the Managing Member, right to make any Capital Contributions or loans to the Company. The Managing Member shall cause to be maintained in the principal business office of the Company, or such other place as may be determined by the Managing Member, the books and records of the Company, which shall include, among other things, a register containing the name, address and number of Membership Units of each Member, and such other information as the Managing Member may deem necessary or desirable (the Register). The Register shall not be deemed part of this Agreement. The Managing Member shall from time to time update the Register as necessary to accurately reflect the information therein, including as a result of any sales, exchanges or other Transfers, or any redemptions, issuances or similar events involving Membership Units. Any reference in this Agreement to the Register shall be deemed a reference to the Register as in effect from time to time. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Managing Member may take any action authorized hereunder in respect of the Register without any need to obtain the consent of any other Member. No action of any Non-Managing Member shall be required to amend or update the Register. Except as required by law, no Non-Managing Member shall be entitled to receive a copy of the information set forth in the Register relating to any Member other than itself. Schedule I hereto sets forth the respective Capital Accounts of the Members as of the date hereof.

Section 4.2 Issuances of Additional Membership Interests. Subject to the rights of any Holder of any Membership Interest set forth in a Membership Unit Designation:

A. General. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement (including Section 4.2.D hereof), the Managing Member is hereby authorized to cause the Company to issue additional Membership Interests, in the form of Membership Units, for any Company purpose, at any time or from time to time, to the Members (including the Managing Member and CLNY) or to other Persons, and to admit such Persons as Additional Members, for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as shall be established by the Managing Member, all without the approval of any Member or any other Person. Without limiting the foregoing, the Managing Member is expressly authorized to cause the Company to issue Membership Units (i) upon the conversion, redemption or exchange of any Debt, Membership Units or other securities issued by the Company, (ii) for less than fair market value, (iii) for no consideration, (iv) in connection with any merger of any other Person into the Company, or (v) upon the contribution of property or assets to the Company. Any additional Membership Interests may be issued in one or more classes, or one or more series of any of such classes, with such designations, preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to distributions, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption (including rights that may be senior or otherwise entitled to preference over existing Membership Interests) as shall be determined by the Managing Member, in its sole and absolute discretion and without the approval of any Non-Managing Member or any other Person, and set forth in a written document thereafter attached to and made an exhibit to this Agreement, which exhibit shall be an amendment to this Agreement and shall be incorporated herein by this reference (each, a Membership Unit Designation) without the approval of any Non-Managing Member or any other Person. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Managing Member shall have authority to specify, in its sole and absolute discretion: (a) the allocations of items of Company income, gain, loss, deduction and credit to each such class or series of Membership Interests; (b) the right of each such class or series of Membership Interests to share (on a pari passu, junior or preferred basis) in Membership Unit Distributions; (c) the rights of each such class or series of Membership Interests upon dissolution and liquidation of the Company; (d) the voting rights, if any, of each such class or series of Membership Interests; and (e) the conversion, redemption or exchange rights applicable to each such class or series of Membership Interests. Except to the extent specifically set forth in any Membership Unit Designation, a Membership Interest of any class or series other than a Membership Common Unit shall not entitle the holder thereof to vote on, or consent to, any matter. Upon the issuance of any additional Membership Interest, the Managing Member shall amend the Register and the books and records of the Company as appropriate to reflect such issuance.

B. Issuances to the Managing Member or CLNY. No additional Membership Units shall be issued to CLNY unless (i) the additional Membership Units are issued to all Members holding Membership Common Units in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests in the Membership Common Units, (ii) (a) the additional Membership Units are (x) Membership Common Units issued in connection with an issuance of REIT Shares, or (y) Company Equivalent Units (other than Membership Common Units) issued in connection with an issuance of Capital Shares, Preferred Shares, New Securities or other interests in CLNY (other than REIT Shares), and (b) CLNY contributes to the Company the cash proceeds or other consideration received in connection with the issuance of such REIT Shares, Capital Shares, Preferred Shares, New Securities or other interests in CLNY, (iii) the additional Membership Units are issued upon the conversion, redemption or exchange of Debt, Membership Units or other securities issued by the Company, or (iv) the additional Membership Units are issued pursuant to Section 4.3.B, Section 4.3.E, Section 4.4, Section 4.7 or Section 4.11.

C. No Preemptive Rights. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement or in any Membership Unit Designation, no Person, including any Member or Assignee, shall have any preemptive, preferential, participation or similar right or rights to subscribe for or acquire any Membership Interest.

D. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement but subject to the rights of any Holder of any Membership Interest set forth in a Membership Unit Designation, the Company shall not issue, and the Managing Member shall not authorize the issuance of, (i) any Membership Interests issued to CLNY that do not have CLNY Equivalent Shares that are concurrently issued by CLNY for the equivalent contribution to CLNY of cash, property or assets, which are subsequently contributed by CLNY to the Company, or (ii) any Membership Interests unless approved by the Board of Directors.

Section 4.3 Additional Funds and Capital Contributions.

A. General. The Managing Member may, at any time and from time to time, determine that the Company requires additional funds (Additional Funds) for the acquisition of additional Properties, for the redemption of Membership Units or for such other purposes as the Managing Member may determine. Additional Funds may be obtained by the Company, at the election of the Managing Member, in any manner provided in, and in accordance with, the terms of this Section 4.3 without the approval of any Member or any other Person.

B. Additional Capital Contributions. The Managing Member, on behalf of the Company, may obtain any Additional Funds by accepting Capital Contributions from any Members or other Persons. In connection with any such Capital Contribution (of cash or property), the Managing Member is hereby authorized to cause the Company from time to time to issue additional Membership Units (as set forth in Section 4.2 above) in consideration therefor, and the Percentage Interests of the Managing Member and the other Members shall be adjusted to reflect the issuance of such additional Membership Units.

C. Loans by Third Parties. The Managing Member, on behalf of the Company, may obtain any Additional Funds by causing the Company to incur Debt to any Person (other than, except as contemplated in Section 4.3.D, the Managing Member or CLNY) upon such terms as the Managing Member determines appropriate, including making such Debt convertible, redeemable or exchangeable for Membership Units; provided, however, that the Company shall not incur any such Debt if any Member would be personally liable for the repayment of such Debt (unless such Member otherwise agrees).

D. Managing Member and CLNY Member Loans. The Managing Member, in its sole and absolute discretion on behalf of the Company, may obtain any Additional Funds by causing the Company to incur Debt to the Managing Member and/or CLNY (each, a CLNY Member Loan) if (i) such Debt is, to the extent permitted by law, on substantially the same terms and conditions (including interest rate, repayment schedule, and conversion, redemption, repurchase and exchange rights) as Funding Debt incurred by the Managing Member or CLNY, as applicable, the net proceeds of which are loaned to the Company to provide such Additional Funds, or (ii) such Debt is on terms and conditions no less favorable to the Company than would be available to the Company from a third party; provided, however, that the Company shall not incur any such Debt if any Member would be personally liable for the repayment of such Debt (unless such Member otherwise agrees).

E. Issuance of Securities by CLNY. CLNY shall not issue any additional REIT Shares, Preferred Shares or New Securities unless CLNY contributes, substantially concurrently with the receipt thereof, the cash proceeds or other consideration received from the issuance of such additional REIT Shares, Preferred Shares or New Securities (as the case may be), and from the exercise of the rights contained in any such additional New Securities, to the Company in exchange for (x) in the case of an issuance of REIT Shares, Membership Common Units, or (y) in the case of an issuance of Preferred Shares or New Securities, Company Equivalent Units; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, CLNY may issue REIT Shares, Preferred Shares or New Securities (a) pursuant to Section 4.4 or Section 15.1.B hereof, (b) pursuant to a dividend or distribution (including any stock split) of REIT Shares, Preferred Shares or New Securities to all holders of REIT Shares, Preferred Shares or New Securities (as the case may be), (c) upon a conversion, redemption or exchange of Preferred Shares, (d) upon a conversion, redemption, exchange or exercise of New Securities, or (e) in connection with an acquisition of Membership Units or a property or other asset to be owned, directly or indirectly, by CLNY. In the event of any issuance of additional REIT Shares, Preferred Shares or New Securities by CLNY, and the contribution to the Company, by CLNY, of the cash proceeds or other consideration received from such issuance, the Company shall pay CLNY's expenses associated with such issuance, including any underwriting discounts or commissions. In the event that CLNY issues any additional REIT Shares, Capital Shares, Preferred Shares, New Securities or other interests in CLNY (other than REIT Shares) and contributes the cash proceeds or other consideration received from the issuance thereof to the Company, the Company is authorized to and shall issue a number of Membership Common Units or Company Equivalent Units to CLNY equal to the number of REIT Shares, Capital Shares, Preferred Shares, New Securities or other interests so issued, divided by the Adjustment Factor then in effect, in accordance with this Section 4.3.E without any further act, approval or vote of any Member or any other Persons.

Section 4.4 Stock Option Plans.

A. Options Granted to Persons other than Company Employees. If at any time or from time to time, in connection with any Stock Option Plan, an option to purchase REIT Shares granted to a Person other than a Company Employee is duly exercised:

(1) CLNY, shall, as soon as practicable after such exercise, make a Capital Contribution to the Company in an amount equal to the exercise price paid to CLNY by such exercising party in connection with the exercise of such stock option.

(2) Notwithstanding the amount of the Capital Contribution actually made pursuant to Section 4.4.A(1) hereof, CLNY shall be deemed to have contributed to the Company as a Capital Contribution an amount equal to the Value of a REIT Share as of the date of exercise, multiplied by the number of REIT Shares then being issued in connection with the exercise of such stock option. In exchange for such Capital Contribution, the Company shall issue a number of Membership Common Units to CLNY equal to the quotient of (a) the number of REIT Shares issued in connection with the exercise of such stock option, divided by (b) the Adjustment Factor then in effect.

B. Options Granted to Company Employees. If at any time or from time to time, in connection with any Stock Option Plan, an option to purchase REIT Shares granted to a Company Employee is duly exercised:

(1) CLNY shall sell to the Company, and the Company shall purchase from CLNY, the number of REIT Shares as to which such stock option is being exercised. The purchase price per REIT Share for such sale of REIT Shares to the Company shall be the Value of a REIT Share as of the date of exercise of such stock option.

(2) The Company shall sell to the Optionee (or if the Optionee is an employee of a Company Subsidiary, the Company shall sell to such Company Subsidiary, which in turn shall sell to the Optionee), for a cash price per share equal to the Value of a REIT Share at the time of the exercise, a number of REIT Shares equal to (a) the exercise price paid to CLNY by the exercising party in connection with the exercise of such stock option, divided by (b) the Value of a REIT Share at the time of such exercise.

(3) The Company shall transfer to the Optionee (or if the Optionee is an employee of a Company Subsidiary, the Company shall transfer to such Company Subsidiary, which in turn shall transfer to the Optionee) at no additional cost, as additional compensation, a number of REIT Shares equal to the number of REIT Shares described in Section 4.4.B(1) hereof, less the number of REIT Shares described in Section 4.4.B(2) hereof.

(4) CLNY shall, as soon as practicable after such exercise, make a Capital Contribution to the Company of an amount equal to the proceeds received (excluding any payment in respect of payroll taxes or other withholdings) by CLNY pursuant to Section 4.4.B(1) in connection with the exercise of such stock option. In exchange for such Capital Contribution, the Company shall issue a number of Membership Common Units to CLNY equal to the quotient of (a) the number of REIT Shares issued in connection with the exercise of such stock option, divided by (b) the Adjustment Factor then in effect.

C. Restricted Stock Granted to Company Employees. If at any time or from time to time, in connection with any Equity Plan (other than a Stock Option Plan), any REIT Shares are issued to a Company Employee (including any REIT Shares that are subject to forfeiture in the event such Company Employee terminates his employment by the Company or a Company Subsidiary) in consideration for services performed for the Company or a Company Subsidiary:

(1) CLNY shall issue such number of REIT Shares as are to be issued to the Company Employee in accordance with the Equity Plan;

(2) the following events will be deemed to have occurred: (a) CLNY shall be deemed to have sold such shares to the Company (or if the Company Employee is an employee or other service provider of a Company Subsidiary, to such Company Subsidiary) for a purchase price equal to the Value of such shares,

A-275

Table of Contents

(b) the Company (or such Company Subsidiary) shall be deemed to have delivered the shares to the Company Employee, (c) CLNY shall be deemed to have contributed the purchase price to the Company as a Capital Contribution, and (d) if the Company Employee is an employee of a Company Subsidiary, the Company shall be deemed to have contributed such amount to the capital of the Company Subsidiary; and

(3) the Company shall issue to CLNY a number of Membership Common Units equal to the number of newly issued REIT Shares, divided by the Adjustment Factor then in effect, in consideration for the deemed Capital Contribution pursuant to Section 4.4.C.(2)(c).

D. Restricted Stock Granted to Persons other than Company Employees. If at any time or from time to time, in connection with any Equity Plan (other than a Stock Option Plan), any REIT shares are issued to a Person other than a Company Employee in consideration for services performed for CLNY, the Company or a Company Subsidiary:

(1) CLNY shall issue such number of REIT Shares as are to be issued to such Person in accordance with the Equity Plan; and

(2) CLNY shall be deemed to have contributed the Value of such REIT Shares to the Company as a Capital Contribution, and the Company shall issue to CLNY a number of newly issued Membership Common Units equal to the number of newly issued REIT Shares, divided by the Adjustment Factor then in effect.

E. Future Stock Incentive Plans. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed or applied to preclude or restrain the Managing Member or CLNY from adopting, modifying or terminating stock incentive plans for the benefit of employees, directors or other business associates of the Managing Member, CLNY, the Company or any of their Affiliates. The Members acknowledge and agree that, in the event that any such plan is adopted, modified or terminated by the Managing Member or CLNY, amendments to this Section 4.4 may become necessary or advisable and that any approval or Consent to any such amendments requested by the Managing Member or CLNY shall be deemed granted.

F. Issuance of Membership Common Units. The Company is expressly authorized to issue Membership Common Units in the numbers specified in this Section 4.4 without any further act, approval or vote of any Member or any other Persons.

Section 4.5 LTIP Units.

A. Issuance of LTIP Units. The Managing Member may from time to time issue LTIP Units, in one or more classes or series established in accordance with Section 4.2, to Persons who provide services to the Company, for such consideration as the Managing Member may determine to be appropriate, and admit such Persons as Members. Any provision herein relating to LTIP Units or LTIP Unitholders may be varied by the provisions applicable to an individual class or series of LTIP Units as set forth in the applicable Membership Unit Designation. Except to the extent a Capital Contribution is made with respect to an LTIP Unit, each LTIP Unit is intended to qualify as a profits interest in the Company within the meaning of the Code, the Regulations, and any published guidance by the IRS with respect thereto. Subject to the following provisions of this Section 4.5 and the special provisions of Sections 4.6, 5.7 and 6.3.F, LTIP Units shall be treated as Membership Common Units, with all of the rights, privileges and obligations attendant thereto. For purposes of computing the Members Percentage Interests, holders of LTIP Units shall be treated as holders of Membership Common Units and LTIP Units shall be treated as Membership Common Units. In particular, the Company shall maintain at all times a one-to-one correspondence between LTIP Units and Membership Common Units for conversion, distribution and other purposes, including complying with the following procedures:

(i) If an Adjustment Event occurs, then except as set forth in the applicable Membership Unit Designation, the Managing Member shall make a corresponding adjustment to the LTIP Units to maintain the one-to-one correspondence between Membership Common Units and LTIP Units as existed prior to such

Adjustment Event. Adjustment Events means any of the following events (A) the Company makes a distribution on all outstanding Membership Common Units in Membership Units to the extent the LTIP Unitholder did not participate in the distribution, (B) the Company subdivides the outstanding Membership Common Units into a greater number of units or combines the outstanding Membership Common Units into a smaller number of units, or (C) the Company issues any Membership Units in exchange for its outstanding Membership Common Units by way of a reclassification or recapitalization of its Membership Common Units. If more than one Adjustment Event occurs, the adjustment to the LTIP Units need be made only once using a single formula that takes into account each and every Adjustment Event as if all Adjustment Events occurred simultaneously. For the avoidance of doubt, the following shall not be Adjustment Events: (x) the issuance of Membership Units in a financing, reorganization, acquisition or other similar business transaction, (y) the issuance of Membership Units pursuant to any employee benefit or compensation plan or distribution reinvestment plan, or (z) the issuance of any Membership Units to the Managing Member in respect of a capital contribution to the Company of proceeds from the sale of securities by the Managing Member. If the Company takes an action affecting the Membership Common Units or LTIP Units other than actions specifically described above as Adjustment Events and in the opinion of the Managing Member such action would require an adjustment to the LTIP Units to maintain the one-to-one correspondence described above, the Managing Member shall have the right to make such adjustment to the LTIP Units, to the extent permitted by law and by any Equity Plan, in such manner and at such time as the Managing Member, in its sole and absolute discretion, may determine to be appropriate under the circumstances. If an adjustment is made to the LTIP Units as herein provided the Company shall promptly file in the books and records of the Company an officer's certificate setting forth such adjustment and a brief statement of the facts requiring such adjustment, which certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of such adjustment absent manifest error. Promptly after the filing of such certificate, the Company shall mail a notice to each LTIP Unitholder setting forth the adjustment to his or her LTIP Units and the effective date of such adjustment; and

(ii) Unless otherwise provided in an LTIP Award or Vesting Agreement or by the Managing Member with respect to any particular class or series of LTIP Units, the LTIP Unitholders shall, when, as and if authorized and declared by the Managing Member out of assets legally available for that purpose, be entitled to receive distributions in an amount per LTIP Unit equal to the distributions per Membership Common Unit (the Membership Unit Distribution), paid to holders of Membership Common Units on such Company Record Date established by the Managing Member with respect to such distribution, provided, however, that until the Economic Capital Account Balance of the LTIP Units is equal to the Target Balance, the LTIP Units shall be entitled to distributions attributable to the sale or other disposition of an asset of the Company only to the extent of any appreciation in value of such asset subsequent to the Award Date, as determined by the Company. Subject to the terms of any LTIP Award or Vesting Agreement or by the Managing Member with respect to any particular class or series of LTIP Units, so long as any LTIP Units are outstanding, no distributions (whether in cash or in kind) shall be authorized, declared or paid on Membership Common Units, unless equal distributions have been or contemporaneously are authorized, declared and paid on the LTIP Units in accordance with the preceding sentence. Subject to the terms of any LTIP Award or Vesting Agreement, or by the Managing Member with respect to any particular class or series of LTIP Units, an LTIP Unitholder shall be entitled to transfer his or her Vested LTIP Units to the same extent, and subject to the same restrictions as holders of Membership Common Units are entitled to transfer their Membership Common Units pursuant to Article XI of this Agreement.

B. Priority. Subject to the provisions of this Section 4.5 and the special provisions of Section 6.3.F, the LTIP Units shall rank pari passu with the Membership Common Units as to the payment of regular and special periodic or other distributions and, subject to Sections 13.2.A(4) and 13.2.C, distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up. As to the payment of distributions and as to distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up, any class or series of Membership Units or Membership Interests which by its terms specifies that it shall rank junior to, on a parity with, or senior to the Membership Common Units shall also rank junior to, or pari passu with, or senior to, as the case may be, the LTIP Units.

C. Special Provisions. LTIP Units shall be subject to the following special provisions:

(i) Vesting Agreements. LTIP Units may, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Managing Member, be issued subject to vesting, forfeiture and additional restrictions on transfer pursuant to the terms of a Vesting Agreement. The terms of any Vesting Agreement may be modified by the Managing Member from time to time in its sole and absolute discretion, subject to any restrictions on amendment imposed by the relevant Vesting Agreement or by the Equity Plan, if applicable. LTIP Units that have vested under the terms of a Vesting Agreement are referred to as Vested LTIP Units; all other LTIP Units shall be treated as Unvested LTIP Units.

(ii) Forfeiture. Unless otherwise specified in the Vesting Agreement, upon the occurrence of any event specified in a Vesting Agreement as resulting in either the right of the Company or the Managing Member to repurchase LTIP Units at a specified purchase price or some other forfeiture of any LTIP Units, then if the Company or the Managing Member exercises such right to repurchase or forfeiture in accordance with the applicable Vesting Agreement, the relevant LTIP Units shall immediately, and without any further action, be treated as cancelled and no longer outstanding for any purpose. Unless otherwise specified in the Vesting Agreement, no consideration or other payment shall be due with respect to any LTIP Units that have been forfeited, other than any distributions declared with respect to a Company Record Date prior to the effective date of the forfeiture. In connection with any repurchase or forfeiture of LTIP Units, the balance of the portion of the Capital Account of the LTIP Unitholder that is attributable to all of its LTIP Units shall be reduced by the amount, if any, by which such balance exceeds the Target Balance contemplated by Section 6.3.F, calculated with respect to the LTIP Unitholder's remaining LTIP Units, if any.

(iii) Allocations. LTIP Unitholders shall be entitled to certain special allocations of gain under Section 6.3.F.

(iv) Redemption. The Redemption right provided to Members under Section 15.1 shall not apply with respect to LTIP Units unless and until they are converted to Membership Common Units as provided in clause (v) below and Section 4.6.

(v) Conversion to Membership Common Units. Vested LTIP Units are eligible to be converted into Membership Common Units under Section 4.6.

D. Voting. Unless otherwise provided in an LTIP Award or Vesting Agreement or by the Managing Member with respect to any particular class or series of LTIP Units, LTIP Unitholders shall (a) have the same voting rights as a holder of Membership Common Units with respect to their Vested LTIP Units, with the LTIP Units voting as a single class with the Membership Common Units and having one vote per LTIP Unit; and (b) have the additional voting rights that are expressly set forth below. Unless otherwise provided in an LTIP Award or Vesting Agreement or by the Managing Member with respect to any particular class or series of LTIP Units, so long as any LTIP Units remain outstanding, the Company shall not, without the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the LTIP Units outstanding at the time that would be adversely affected by the proposed action, given in person or by proxy, either in writing or at a meeting (voting separately as a class), amend, alter or repeal, whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise, the provisions of this Agreement applicable to LTIP Units as such so as to materially and adversely affect any right, privilege or voting power of the LTIP Units or the LTIP Unitholders as such, unless such amendment, alteration, or repeal affects equally, ratably and proportionately in all material respects the rights, privileges and voting powers of the holders of Membership Common Units; but subject, in any event, to the following provisions:

(i) With respect to any Transaction, so long as the LTIP Units are treated in accordance with Section 4.6.F hereof, the consummation of such Transaction shall not be deemed to materially and adversely affect such rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers of the LTIP Units or the LTIP Unitholders as such; and

(ii) Any creation or issuance of any Membership Units or of any class or series of Membership Interest, including additional Membership Common Units, LTIP Units or Preferred Units, whether ranking senior to, junior to, or on a parity with the LTIP Units with respect to distributions and the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up, shall not be deemed to materially and adversely affect such rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers of the LTIP Units or the LTIP Unitholders as such.

A-278

The foregoing voting provisions will not apply if, at or prior to the time when the act with respect to which such vote would otherwise be required will be effected, all outstanding LTIP Units shall have been converted into Membership Common Units.

Section 4.6 Conversion of LTIP Units.

A. Unless otherwise provided in an LTIP Award or Vesting Agreement or by the Managing Member with respect to any particular class or series of LTIP Units, an LTIP Unitholder shall have the right (the Conversion Right), at its option, at any time to convert all or a portion of its Vested LTIP Units into Membership Common Units; provided, however, that a holder may not exercise the Conversion Right for less than 1,000 Vested LTIP Units or, if such holder holds less than 1,000 Vested LTIP Units, all of the Vested LTIP Units held by such holder. LTIP Unitholders shall not have the right to convert Unvested LTIP Units into Membership Common Units until they become Vested LTIP Units; provided, however, that when an LTIP Unitholder is notified of the expected occurrence of an event that will cause his or her Unvested LTIP Units to become Vested LTIP Units, such LTIP Unitholder may give the Company a Conversion Notice conditioned upon and effective as of the time of vesting and such Conversion Notice, unless subsequently revoked by the LTIP Unitholder, shall be accepted by the Company subject to such condition. In all cases, the conversion of any LTIP Units into Membership Common Units shall be subject to the conditions and procedures set forth in this Section 4.6.

B. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event may a holder of Vested LTIP Units convert a number of Vested LTIP Units that exceeds (x) the Economic Capital Account Balance of such Member, to the extent attributable to its ownership of LTIP Units, divided by (y) the Membership Common Unit Economic Balance, in each case as determined as of the effective date of conversion (the Capital Account Limitation). In order to exercise his or her Conversion Right, an LTIP Unitholder shall deliver a notice (a Conversion Notice) in the form attached as Exhibit C to the Company (with a copy to the Managing Member) not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to a date (the Conversion Date) specified in such Conversion Notice; provided, however, that if the Managing Member has not given to the LTIP Unitholders notice of a proposed or upcoming Transaction (as defined below in Section 4.6.F) at least 30 days prior to the effective date of such Transaction, then LTIP Unitholders shall have the right to deliver a Conversion Notice until the earlier of (x) the 10th day after such notice from the Managing Member of a Transaction or (y) the third business day immediately preceding the effective date of such Transaction. A Conversion Notice shall be provided in the manner provided in Section 15.2. Each LTIP Unitholder covenants and agrees with the Company that all Vested LTIP Units to be converted pursuant to this Section 4.6.B shall be free and clear of all liens.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, a holder of LTIP Units may deliver a Notice of Redemption pursuant to Section 15.1.A of this Agreement relating to those Membership Common Units that will be issued to such holder upon conversion of such LTIP Units into Membership Common Units in advance of the Conversion Date; provided, however, that the redemption of such Membership Common Units by the Company shall in no event take place until after the Conversion Date. For clarity, it is noted that the objective of this paragraph is to put an LTIP Unitholder in a position where, if he or she so wishes, the Membership Common Units into which his or her Vested LTIP Units will be converted can be redeemed by the Company simultaneously with such conversion, with the further consequence that, if the Managing Member elects to assume the Company's redemption obligation with respect to such Membership Common Units under 15.1.B of this Agreement by delivering to such holder Class A REIT Shares rather than cash, then such holder can have such Class A REIT Shares issued to him or her simultaneously with the conversion of his or her Vested LTIP Units into Membership Common Units. The Managing Member shall reasonably cooperate with an LTIP Unitholder to coordinate the timing of the different events described in the foregoing sentence.

C. The Company, at any time at the election of the Managing Member in its sole and absolute discretion, may cause any number of Vested LTIP Units held by an LTIP Unitholder to be converted (a Forced Redemption) into an equal number of Membership Common Units, giving effect to all adjustments (if any) made pursuant to Section 4.5; provided, however, that the Company may not cause a Forced Redemption of any LTIP Units that would not at the time be eligible for conversion at the option of such LTIP Unitholder pursuant to Section 4.6.B. In order to exercise its right of Forced Redemption, the Company shall deliver a notice (a Forced Redemption Notice) in the form attached as Exhibit D to the applicable LTIP Unitholder not less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to the Conversion Date specified in such Forced Redemption Notice. A Forced Redemption Notice shall be provided in the manner provided in Section 15.2.

D. A conversion of Vested LTIP Units for which the holder thereof has given a Conversion Notice or the Company has given a Forced Redemption Notice shall occur automatically after the close of business on the applicable Conversion Date without any action on the part of such LTIP Unitholder, as of which time such LTIP Unitholder shall be credited on the books and records of the Company with the issuance as of the opening of business on the next day of the number of Membership Common Units issuable upon such conversion. After the conversion of LTIP Units as aforesaid, the Company shall deliver to such LTIP Unitholder, upon his or her written request, a certificate of the Managing Member certifying the number of Membership Common Units and remaining LTIP Units, if any, held by such person immediately after such conversion. The Assignee of any Member pursuant to Article XI hereof may exercise the rights of such Member pursuant to this Section 4.6 and such Member shall be bound by the exercise of such rights by the Assignee.

E. For purposes of making future allocations under Section 6.3.F and applying the Capital Account Limitation, the portion of the Economic Capital Account Balance of the applicable LTIP Unitholder that is treated as attributable to his or her LTIP Units shall be reduced, as of the date of conversion, by the product of the number of LTIP Units converted and the Membership Common Unit Economic Balance.

F. If the Company or the Managing Member shall be a party to any transaction (including a merger, consolidation, unit exchange, self-tender offer for all or substantially all Membership Common Units or other business combination or reorganization, or sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, but excluding any transaction which constitutes an Adjustment Event) in each case as a result of which Membership Common Units shall be exchanged for or converted into the right, or the holders of such Membership Common Units shall otherwise be entitled, to receive cash, securities or other property or any combination thereof (any of the foregoing being referred to herein as a Transaction), then the Managing Member shall, immediately prior to the consummation of the Transaction, exercise its right to cause a Forced Redemption with respect to the maximum number of LTIP Units then eligible for conversion, taking into account any allocations that occur in connection with the Transaction or that would occur in connection with the Transaction if the assets of the Company were sold at the Transaction price or, if applicable, at a value determined by the Managing Member in good faith using the value attributed to the Membership Common Units in the context of the Transaction (in which case the Conversion Date shall be the effective date of the Transaction). In anticipation of such Forced Redemption and the consummation of the Transaction, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause each LTIP Unitholder to be afforded the right to receive in connection with such Transaction in consideration for the Membership Common Units into which his or her LTIP Units will be converted the same kind and amount of cash, securities and other property (or any combination thereof) receivable upon the consummation of such Transaction by a holder of the same number of Membership Common Units, assuming such holder of Membership Common Units is not a Person with which the Company consolidated or into which the Company merged or which merged into the Company or to which such sale or transfer was made, as the case may be (a Constituent Person), or an affiliate of a Constituent Person. In the event that holders of Membership Common Units have the opportunity to elect the form or type of consideration to be received upon consummation of the Transaction, prior to such Transaction the Managing Member shall give prompt written notice to each LTIP Unitholder of such election, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to afford the LTIP Unitholders the right to elect, by written notice to the Managing Member, the form or type of consideration to be received upon conversion of each LTIP Unit held by such holder into Membership Common Units in connection with such Transaction. If an LTIP Unitholder fails to make such an election, such holder (and any of its transferees) shall receive upon conversion of each LTIP Unit held by him or her (or by any of his or her transferees) the same kind and amount of consideration that a holder of a Membership Common Unit would receive if such Membership Common Unit holder failed to make such an election. Subject to the rights of the Company and the Managing Member under any Vesting Agreement and any Equity Plan, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the terms of any Transaction to be consistent with the provisions of this Section 4.6.F and to enter into an agreement with the successor or purchasing entity, as the case may be, for the benefit of any LTIP Unitholders whose LTIP Units will not be converted into Membership Common Units in connection with the Transaction that will (i) contain provisions enabling the holders of LTIP Units that remain outstanding after such Transaction to convert their LTIP Units into securities as comparable as reasonably possible under the circumstances to the Membership Common Units and (ii) preserve as far as reasonably possible under the circumstances the distribution, special allocation, conversion, and other rights set forth in this Agreement for the benefit of the LTIP Unitholders.

Section 4.7 Dividend Reinvestment Plan, Stock Incentive Plan or Other Plan. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Article 4, all amounts retained or deemed received by CLNY in respect of any dividend reinvestment plan, stock incentive or other stock or subscription plan or agreement, either (a) shall be utilized by CLNY to effect open market purchases of REIT Shares, or (b) shall be contributed by CLNY to the Company in exchange for additional Membership Common Units, and upon such contribution, the Company will issue to CLNY a number of Membership Common Units equal to the number of newly issued REIT Shares, divided by the Adjustment Factor then in effect.

Section 4.8 No Interest; No Return. No Member shall be entitled to interest on its Capital Contribution or on such Member's Capital Account. Except as provided herein or by law, no Member shall have any right to demand or receive the return of its Capital Contribution from the Company.

Section 4.9 Conversion or Redemption of Preferred Shares; Redemption of REIT Shares.

A. Conversion of Preferred Shares. If, at any time, any Preferred Shares are converted into REIT Shares, in whole or in part, then an equal number of Company Equivalent Units held by CLNY that correspond to the class or series of Preferred Shares so converted shall automatically be converted into a number of Membership Common Units equal to the quotient of (i) the number of REIT Shares issued upon such conversion, divided by (ii) the Adjustment Factor then in effect.

B. Redemption of Preferred Shares. If, at any time, any Preferred Shares are redeemed, repurchased or otherwise acquired (whether by exercise of a put or call, automatically or by means of another arrangement) by CLNY for cash, then, immediately prior to such redemption of Preferred Shares, the Company shall redeem an equal number of Company Equivalent Units held by CLNY that correspond to the class or series of Preferred Shares so redeemed, repurchased or acquired upon the same terms and for the same price per Company Equivalent Unit, as such Preferred Shares are redeemed, repurchased or acquired.

C. Redemption, Repurchase or Forfeiture of REIT Shares. If, at any time, any REIT Shares are redeemed, repurchased or otherwise acquired (whether by exercise of a put or call, upon forfeiture of any award granted under any Equity Plan, automatically or by means of another arrangement, including pursuant to any Non-Managing Member Ancillary Agreement) by CLNY, then, immediately prior to such redemption, repurchase or acquisition of REIT Shares, the Company shall redeem a number of Membership Common Units held by CLNY equal to the quotient of (i) the number of REIT Shares so redeemed, repurchased or acquired, divided by (ii) the Adjustment Factor then in effect, such redemption, repurchase or acquisition to be upon the same terms and for the same price per Membership Common Unit (after giving effect to application of the Adjustment Factor) as such REIT Shares are redeemed, repurchased or acquired.

Section 4.10 Other Contribution Provisions. In the event that any Member is admitted to the Company and is given a Capital Account in exchange for services rendered to the Company, such transaction shall be treated by the Company and the affected Member as if the Company had compensated such Member in cash and such Member had contributed the cash to the capital of the Company. In addition, with the consent of the Managing Member, one or more Members (including CLNY) may enter into contribution agreements with the Company which have the effect of providing a guarantee of certain obligations of the Company.

Section 4.11 Excluded Properties. CLNY shall contribute each Excluded Property (or, if applicable, the net proceeds (after payment of all transfer taxes and other transaction costs) received by CLNY from the sale, transfer or other disposition of an Excluded Property to a Person who is not a direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of CLNY) to the Company upon the earlier of (i) such time as it is commercially practicable to contribute such property to the Company without adverse tax or other economic consequence to CLNY, and (ii) any sale, transfer or other disposition of an Excluded Property to a Person who is not a direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of CLNY. Upon any such contribution of an Excluded Property or the proceeds therefrom, CLNY shall receive in exchange for such contribution, notwithstanding the actual value of such Excluded Property or the amount of such proceeds (as the case may be), the Specified Membership Units applicable to such Excluded Property. The Company is expressly authorized to issue the Specified Membership Units in the numbers specified in this Section 4.11 without any further act, approval or vote of any Member or any other Persons.

Section 4.12 Contingent Consideration and Indemnification Payment. In exchange for the contribution of assets to the Company pursuant to the CC Contribution Agreement, CC, CCH, FHB LLC and Saltzman (the Contingent Consideration Members) are collectively entitled to up to $[] of contingent consideration to the extent such contingent consideration is issued as Membership Common Units (the Aggregate Contingent Consideration) as provided in Section 3.5 of the CC Contribution Agreement. The initial Gross Asset Value of the assets contributed by the Contingent Consideration Members to the Company as reflected on Schedule II includes the value of the Aggregate Contingent Consideration and the respective Capital Accounts, as reflected on Schedule I, of the Contingent Consideration Members includes such value; provided, however, if all or a portion of the Aggregate Contingent Consideration is forfeited as determined by Section 3.5 of the CC Contribution Agreement, the Gross Asset Values of the assets of the Company shall be decreased by the amount of such forfeiture of the Aggregate Contingent Consideration and the Capital Accounts of the Contingent Consideration Members shall be decreased by such decrease. In addition, if any of the Contingent Consideration Members are required to forfeit any consideration as a result of an indemnification obligation under Article X of the CC Contribution Agreement, the Gross Asset Values of the assets of the Company shall be decreased by the amount of such forfeiture and the Capital Accounts of such Contingent Consideration Members shall be decreased by such decrease. The Members acknowledge and agree that the Membership Common Units representing the Aggregate Contingent Consideration have been issued and are being held by the Company and that such Membership Common Units will be treated in the same manner as any other outstanding Membership Common Units.

DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 5.1 Requirement and Characterization of Distributions. Subject to the terms of any Membership Unit Designation that provides for a class or series of Company Preferred Units with a preference with respect to the payment of distributions, the Managing Member shall cause the Company to distribute quarterly all, or such portion as the Managing Member may determine, of the Available Cash generated by the Company during such quarter to the Holders of Membership Common Units in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests of Membership Common Units on such Company Record Date. Distributions payable with respect to any Membership Units that were not outstanding during the entire quarterly period in respect of which any distribution is made (other than any Membership Units issued to CLNY in connection with the issuance of REIT Shares or Capital Shares by CLNY) shall be prorated based on the portion of the period that such Membership Units were outstanding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Managing Member, in its sole and absolute discretion, may cause the Company to distribute Available Cash to the Holders on a more or less frequent basis than quarterly. The Managing Member shall make reasonable efforts to cause the Company to distribute sufficient amounts to enable CLNY, for so long as CLNY has determined to qualify as a REIT, to pay stockholder dividends that will (a) satisfy the REIT Requirements, and (b) eliminate any U.S. federal income or excise tax liability of CLNY.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Excluded Property (or the proceeds therefrom) has not been contributed to the Company pursuant to Section 4.11, the distributions provided for above shall be calculated, to the extent possible, based on Adjusted Available Cash as if each Excluded Property had been contributed to the Company in exchange for Membership Common Units pursuant to Section 4.11; provided, however, that if any Excluded Property (or the proceeds therefrom) has not been contributed to the Company pursuant to Section 4.11, any distributions to be made with respect to CLNY's Membership Units shall in the aggregate be reduced to the extent of any REIT Available Cash derived from such Excluded Property. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all payments received by the Company from the CLNY Management Agreement (other than any such payments made by any taxable REIT subsidiary (within the meaning of Section 856(1) of the Code) of CLNY) shall be distributed to CLNY.

Section 5.2 Distributions in Kind. No Holder may demand to receive property other than cash as provided in this Agreement. The Managing Member may cause the Company to make a distribution in kind of Company assets or Membership Interests to the Holders, and such assets or Membership Interests shall be distributed in such a fashion as to ensure that the fair market value is distributed and allocated in accordance with Articles 5, 6 and 10 hereof.

Section 5.3 Amounts Withheld. All amounts withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any state or local tax law and Section 10.4 hereof with respect to any allocation, payment or distribution to any Holder shall be treated as amounts paid or distributed to such Holder pursuant to Section 5.1 hereof for all purposes under this Agreement.

Section 5.4 Distributions upon Liquidation. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article 5, upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the assets of the Company shall be distributed to the Holders in accordance with Section 13.2 hereof.

Section 5.5 Distributions to Reflect Additional Membership Units. In the event that the Company issues additional Membership Units pursuant to the provisions of Article 4 hereof, subject to the rights of any Holder of any Membership Interest set forth in a Membership Unit Designation, the Managing Member is hereby authorized to make such revisions to this Article 5 and to Article 6 as it determines are necessary or desirable to reflect the issuance of such additional Membership Units, including making preferential distributions to certain classes of Membership Units.

Section 5.6 Restricted Distributions. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, neither the Company nor the Managing Member, on behalf of the Company, shall make a distribution to any Holder if such distribution would violate the Act or other applicable law.

Section 5.7 Restriction on Distributions with Respect to LTIP Units. It is the intention of the Members that distributions in respect of LTIP Units be limited to the extent necessary so that each of the LTIP Units constitutes a profits interest for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In furtherance of the foregoing, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Managing Member shall, if necessary, limit distributions to the holders of LTIP Units so that such distributions do not exceed the available profits in respect of such LTIP Units. In the event that distributions in respect of LTIP Units are reduced pursuant to the preceding sentence, an amount equal to such excess distributions shall be treated as instead apportioned to the remaining Members pro rata in accordance with their Membership Common Units for the related Fiscal Year in accordance with the other provisions of this Agreement, and the Managing Member shall make adjustments to future distributions to the holders of LTIP Units as promptly as practicable so that the holders of LTIP Units receive a distribution equal to the amount they would have received, in each case as if this Section 5.7 had not been in effect; provided, however, that any distributions pursuant to this sentence shall be further subject to the provisions of this Section 5.7. For purposes of this Agreement, profits interest means a right to receive distributions funded solely by profits of the Company generated after the grant in connection with the performance of services, satisfying the requirements as set forth in IRS Revenue Procedures 93-27 and 2001-43, or any future IRS guidance or other authority that supplements or supersedes the foregoing IRS Revenue Procedures.

ARTICLE 6 ALLOCATIONS

Section 6.1 Timing and Amount of Allocations of Net Income and Net Loss. Net Income and Net Loss of the Company shall be determined and allocated with respect to each Fiscal Year as of the end of each such year. Except as otherwise provided in this Article 6, and subject to Section 11.6.C hereof, an allocation to a Holder of a share of Net Income or Net Loss shall be treated as an allocation of the same share of each item of income, gain, loss or deduction that is taken into account in computing Net Income or Net Loss.

Section 6.2 General Allocations.

A. In General. Subject to Section 11.6.C hereof, Net Income and Net Loss shall be allocated to each of the Holders as follows:

(i) Net Income will be allocated to Holders of Company Preferred Units and Company Equivalent Units in accordance with and subject to the terms of the Membership Unit Designation applicable to such Company Preferred Units and Company Equivalent Units;

(ii) remaining Net Income will be allocated to the Holders of Membership Common Units in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests at the end of each Fiscal Year;

(iii) subject to the terms of any Membership Unit Designation, Net Loss will be allocated to the Holders of Membership Common Units in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests and to the holders of Company Equivalent Units in accordance with and subject to the terms of the Membership Unit Designation applicable to such Company Equivalent Units at the end of each Fiscal Year; and

(iv) for purposes of this Section 6.2.A, the Percentage Interests of the Holders of Membership Common Units shall be calculated based on a denominator equal to the aggregate Membership Common Units outstanding as of the date of determination.

Section 6.3 Additional Allocation Provisions. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Article 6:

A. Special Allocations Regarding Company Preferred Units. If any Company Preferred Units are redeemed pursuant to Section 4.9.B hereof (treating a full liquidation of the Managing Member's Membership Interest or of CLNY's Membership Interest for purposes of this Section 6.3.A as including a redemption of any then outstanding Company Preferred Units pursuant to Section 4.9.B hereof), for the Fiscal Year that includes such redemption (and, if necessary, for subsequent Fiscal Years) (a) gross income and gain (in such relative proportions as the Managing Member shall determine) shall be allocated to the holder(s) of such Company Preferred Units to the extent that the Redemption Amounts paid or payable with respect to the Company Preferred Units so redeemed (or treated as redeemed) exceeds the aggregate Capital Account Balances (net of liabilities assumed or taken subject to by the Company) per Company Preferred Unit allocable to the Company Preferred Units so redeemed (or treated as redeemed) and (b) deductions and losses (in such relative proportions as the Managing Member shall determine) shall be allocated to the holder(s) of such Company Preferred Units to the extent that the aggregate Capital Account Balances (net of liabilities assumed or taken subject to by the Company) per Company Preferred Unit allocable to the Company Preferred Units so redeemed (or treated as redeemed) exceeds the Redemption Amount paid or payable with respect to the Company Preferred Units so redeemed (or treated as redeemed).

Table of ContentsB. Regulatory Allocations.

(i) Minimum Gain Chargeback. Except as otherwise provided in Regulations Section 1.704-2(f), notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.2 hereof, or any other provision of this Article 6, if there is a net decrease in Member Minimum Gain during any Fiscal Year, each Holder shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, subsequent years) in an amount equal to such Holder's share of the net decrease in Member Minimum Gain, as determined under Regulations Section 1.704-2(g). Allocations pursuant to the previous sentence shall be made in proportion to the respective amounts required to be allocated to each Holder pursuant thereto. The items to be allocated shall be determined in accordance with Regulations Sections 1.704-2(f)(6) and 1.704-2(j)(2). This Section 6.3.B(i) is intended to qualify as a minimum gain chargeback within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-2(f) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(ii) Member Minimum Gain Chargeback. Except as otherwise provided in Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4) or in Section 6.3.B(i) hereof, if there is a net decrease in Member Minimum Gain attributable to a Member Nonrecourse Debt during any Fiscal Year, each Holder who has a share of the Member Minimum Gain attributable to such Member Nonrecourse Debt, determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(5), shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, subsequent years) in an amount equal to such Holder's respective share of the net decrease in Member Minimum Gain attributable to such Member Nonrecourse Debt, determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4). Allocations pursuant to the previous sentence shall be made in proportion to the respective amounts required to be allocated to each Holder pursuant thereto. The items to be so allocated shall be determined in accordance with Regulations Sections 1.704-2(i)(4) and 1.704-2(j)(2). This Section 6.3.B(ii) is intended to qualify as a chargeback of partner nonrecourse debt minimum gain, within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-2(i), and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(iii) Nonrecourse Deductions and Member Nonrecourse Deductions. Any Nonrecourse Deductions for any Fiscal Year shall be specially allocated to the Holders in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests. Any Member Nonrecourse Deductions for any Fiscal Year shall be specially allocated to the Holder(s) who bears the economic risk of loss with respect to the Member Nonrecourse Debt to which such Member Nonrecourse Deductions are attributable, in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i).

(iv) Qualified Income Offset. If any Holder unexpectedly receives an adjustment, allocation or distribution described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) or (6), items of Company income and gain shall be allocated, in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d), to such Holder in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate, to the extent required by such Regulations, the Adjusted Capital Account Deficit of such Holder as quickly as possible, provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 6.3.B(iv) shall be made if and only to the extent that such Holder would have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit after all other allocations provided in this Article 6 have been tentatively made as if this Section 6.3.B(iv) were not in the Agreement. It is intended that this Section 6.3.B(iv) qualify and be construed as a qualified income offset, within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d), and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(v) Gross Income Allocation. If any Holder has a deficit Capital Account at the end of any Fiscal Year that is in excess of the sum of (1) the amount (if any) that such Holder is obligated to restore to the Company upon complete liquidation of such Holder's Membership Interest (including the Holder's interest in outstanding Company Preferred Units and other Membership Units), and (2) the amount that such Holder is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentences of Regulations Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5), each such Holder shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain in the amount of such excess to eliminate such deficit as quickly as possible, provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 6.3.B(v) shall be made if and only to the extent that such Holder would have a deficit Capital Account in excess of such sum after all other allocations provided in this Article 6 have been tentatively made as if this Section 6.3.B(v) and Section 6.3.B(iv) hereof were not in the Agreement.

(vi) Limitation on Allocation of Net Loss. To the extent that any allocation of Net Loss would cause or increase an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit as to any Holder, such allocation of Net Loss shall be reallocated (x) first, among the other Holders of Membership Common Units in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests, and (y) thereafter, among the Holders of other Membership Units, as determined by the Managing Member, subject to the limitations of this Section 6.3.B(vi).

(vii) Section 754 Adjustment. To the extent that an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any Company asset pursuant to Code Section 734(b) or Code Section 743(b) is required, pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) or Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4), to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts, the amount of such adjustment to the Capital Accounts shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases such basis), and such gain or loss shall be specially allocated to the Holders of Membership Common Units in accordance with their respective Percentage Interests in the event that Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) applies, or to the Holder(s) to whom such distribution was made in the event that Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4) applies (or otherwise as described in Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4)).

(viii) Curative Allocations. The allocations set forth in Sections 6.3.B(i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi) and (vii) hereof (the Regulatory Allocations) are intended to comply with certain regulatory requirements, including the requirements of Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b) and 1.704-2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.1 hereof, the Regulatory Allocations shall be taken into account in allocating other items of income, gain, loss and deduction among the Holders of Membership Common Units so that, to the extent possible without violating the requirements giving rise to the Regulatory Allocations, the net amount of such allocations of other items and the Regulatory Allocations to each Holder of a Membership Common Unit shall be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each such Holder if the Regulatory Allocations had not occurred.

C. Special Allocations Upon Liquidation. Notwithstanding any provision in this Article 6 to the contrary, if the Company disposes of all or substantially all of its assets in a transaction that will lead to a liquidation of the Company pursuant to Article 13 hereof, then any Net Income or Net Loss realized in connection with such transaction and thereafter (and, if necessary, constituent items of income, gain, loss and deduction) shall be specially allocated for such Fiscal Year (and to the extent permitted by Code Section 761(c), for the immediately preceding Fiscal Year) among the Holders as required so as to cause liquidating distributions pursuant to Section 13.2.A(4) hereof to be made in the same amounts and proportions as would have resulted had such distributions instead been made pursuant to Article 5 hereof.

D. Allocation of Nonrecourse Liabilities. For purposes of determining a Holder's proportional share of the excess nonrecourse liabilities of the Company within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3), each Holder's respective interest in Company profits shall be equal to such Holder's Percentage Interest with respect to Membership Common Units. The Company shall maintain on a continuous basis during the five-year period beginning on the Closing Date (as defined in the CC Contribution Agreement) an amount of liabilities payable or owed to third parties that are not guaranteed by CLNY or a related party of CLNY (other than the Company, any Subsidiary or Affiliate of the Company, any Contributor (as defined in the CC Contribution Agreement) or Affiliate thereof or any joint venture or other entity in which the Company owns a direct or indirect interest) and not otherwise recourse to CLNY in an amount that is at least equal to $350,000,000. For purposes of the prior sentence, liabilities shall include (i) any liabilities owed by any joint venture or other entity in which the Company owns a direct or indirect interest, to the extent of such interest and (ii) liabilities incurred under the Credit Agreement, dated August 6, 2013, as amended by the First Amendment, as dated January 29, 2014, and the Second Amendment, as dated December 12, 2014, among CLNY, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and certain lenders (the Credit Agreement), but only to the extent the REIT Guaranty (as defined in the Credit Agreement) has been amended in the manner described in the proviso contained in the definition of REIT Guaranty , and in such case, the REIT Guaranty shall not be treated as a guaranty by CLNY or as causing such liability to be recourse to CLNY. The Company shall elect to allocate excess nonrecourse liabilities to CC to the maximum extent permitted under the additional method described in Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3) as regards to the amount of built-in gain allocated to a Member on section 704(c) property. Notwithstanding the above, the requirements of this Section 6.3D shall be treated as having been satisfied at any given time so long as $50,000,000 of liabilities are allocated to CC and/or directly or indirectly to Thomas J. Barrack, Jr. in accordance with Section 752 of the Code and the Regulations at such time.

E. All gross income and gain of the Company associated with the CLNY Management Agreement shall, to the extent permitted by law, be specially allocated to CLNY.

F. Special Allocations Regarding LTIP Units. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.2 above, Liquidating Gains shall first be allocated to the LTIP Unitholders until the Economic Capital Account Balances of such Holders, to the extent attributable to their ownership of LTIP Units, are equal to (i) the Membership Common Unit Economic Balance, multiplied by (ii) the number of their LTIP Units (the Target Balance). For this purpose, Liquidating Gains means net capital gains realized in connection with the actual or hypothetical sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, including net capital gain realized in connection with an adjustment to the Gross Asset Value of Company assets under Code Section 704(b). The Economic Capital Account Balances of the LTIP Unitholders will be equal to their Capital Account balances to the extent attributable to their ownership of LTIP Units, plus the amount of their allocable share of any Member Minimum Gain or Company Minimum Gain attributable to such LTIP Units. Similarly, the Membership Common Unit Economic Balance shall mean (i) the Capital Account balance of the Managing Member, plus the amount of the Managing Member's share of any Member Minimum Gain or Company Minimum Gain, in either case to the extent attributable to the Managing Member's ownership of Membership Common Units and computed on a hypothetical basis after taking into account all allocations through the date on which any allocation is made under this Section 6.3.F (including any expenses of the Company reimbursed to the Managing Member pursuant to Section 7.4.B), divided by (ii) the number of the Managing Member's Membership Common Units. Any such allocations shall be made among the LTIP Unitholders in proportion to the amounts required to be allocated to each under this Section 6.3.F. The parties agree that the intent of this Section 6.3.F is to make the Capital Account balance associated with each LTIP Unit to be economically equivalent to the Capital Account balance associated with the Managing Member's Membership Common Units (on a per-Membership Common Unit/LTIP Unit basis). The Managing Member shall be permitted to interpret this Section 6.3.F or to amend this Agreement to the extent necessary and consistent with this intention.

Section 6.4 Tax Allocations.

A. In General. Except as otherwise provided in this Section 6.4, for income tax purposes under the Code and the Regulations, each Company item of income, gain, loss and deduction (collectively, Tax Items) shall be allocated among the Holders in the same manner as its correlative item of book income, gain, loss or deduction is allocated pursuant to Sections 6.2 and 6.3 hereof.

B. Section 704(c) Allocations. Notwithstanding Section 6.4.A hereof, Tax Items with respect to Property that is contributed to the Company with a Gross Asset Value that varies from its basis in the hands of the contributing Member immediately preceding the date of contribution shall be allocated among the Holders for income tax purposes pursuant to Regulations promulgated under Code Section 704(c) so as to take into account such variation. The Company shall account for such variation under any method approved under Code Section 704(c) and the applicable Regulations as chosen by the Managing Member; provided, however, items of Company taxable income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Company by CC, CCH, Saltzman or FHB LLC shall be allocated among the Members in accordance with Section 704(c) of the Code so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Company for federal income tax purposes and its initial Gross Asset Value using the traditional method without curative allocations as defined in Regulations

Section 1.704-3(b). If the Gross Asset Value of any Company asset is adjusted pursuant to subsection (b) of the definition of Gross Asset Value, subsequent allocations of Tax Items with respect to such asset shall take account of the variation, if any, between the adjusted basis of such asset and its Gross Asset Value in the same manner as under Code Section 704(c) and the applicable Regulations and using the method chosen by the Managing Member; provided, however, any such subsequent allocations of Tax Items that are allocated to CC, CCH, Saltzman and FHB LLC shall take account of the variation, if any, between the adjusted basis of such asset and its Gross Asset Value in the same manner as under Code Section 704(c) and the applicable Regulations and using the traditional method without curative allocations as defined in Regulations Section 1.704-3(b).

ARTICLE 7

MANAGEMENT AND OPERATIONS OF BUSINESS

Section 7.1 Management.

A. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, including any Membership Unit Designation, all management powers over the business and affairs of the Company are and shall be exclusively vested in the Managing Member, and no Member shall have any right to participate in or exercise control or management power over the business and affairs of the Company. No Managing Member may be removed by the Members, with or without cause, except with the consent of the Managing Member. In addition to the powers now or hereafter granted a managing member of a limited liability company under applicable law or that are granted to the Managing Member under any other provision of this Agreement, the Managing Member, subject to the other provisions hereof, including Section 7.3 and the terms of any Membership Unit Designation, shall have full and exclusive power and authority, without the consent of any Member, to conduct or authorize the conduct of the business of the Company, to exercise or direct the exercise of all powers of the Company and the Managing Member under the Act and this Agreement and to effectuate the purposes of the Company, including to cause the Company to enter into agreements or engage in transactions with affiliates of the Company or the Managing Member, issue additional Membership Interests, make distributions, sell, pledge, lease, mortgage or otherwise dispose of its assets, form and conduct all or any portion of its business and affairs through subsidiaries or joint ventures of any form, incur or guarantee debt for any purpose and obtain and maintain casualty, liability and other insurance on the Properties and liability insurance for the Indemnitees hereunder.

B. Except as provided in Section 7.3 hereof and subject to the rights of any Holder of any Membership Interest set forth in a Membership Unit Designation, the Managing Member is authorized to execute and deliver any affidavit, agreement, certificate, consent, instrument, notice, power of attorney, waiver or other writing or document in the name and on behalf of the Company and to otherwise exercise any power of the Managing Member under this Agreement and the Act without any further act, approval or vote of the Members or any other Persons and, in the absence of any specific action on the part of the Managing Member to the contrary, the taking of any action or the execution of any such document or writing by a manager, member, director or officer of the Managing Member, in the name and on behalf of the Managing Member, in its capacity as the managing member of the Company, shall conclusively evidence (1) the approval thereof by the Managing Member, in its capacity as the managing member of the Company, (2) the Managing Member's determination that such action, document or writing is necessary or desirable to conduct the business and affairs of the Company, exercise the powers of the Company under the Act and this Agreement or effectuate the purposes of the Company, or any other determination by the Managing Member required by this Agreement in connection with the taking of such action or execution of such document or writing, and (3) the authority of such manager, member, director or officer with respect thereto.

C. The determination as to any of the following matters, made by or at the direction of the Managing Member consistent with the Act and this Agreement, shall be final and conclusive and shall be binding upon the Company and every Member: the amount of assets at any time available for distribution or the redemption of Common Units or Preferred Units; the amount and timing of any distribution; any determination to redeem Tendered Units; the amount, purpose, time of creation, increase or decrease, alteration or cancellation of any reserves or charges and the propriety thereof (whether or not any obligation or liability for which such reserves or charges shall have been created shall have been paid or discharged); the fair value, or any sale, bid or asked price to be applied in determining the fair value, of any asset owned or held by the Company; any matter relating to the acquisition, holding and disposition of any assets by the Company; or any other matter relating to the business and affairs of the Company or required or permitted by applicable law, this Agreement or otherwise to be determined by the Managing Member.

D. At all times from and after the date hereof, the Managing Member may cause the Company to establish and maintain working capital and other reserves in such amounts as the Managing Member, in its sole and absolute discretion, deems appropriate and reasonable from time to time.

E. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or the Act, any action of the Managing Member on behalf of the Company or any decision of the Managing Member to refrain from acting on behalf of the Company, undertaken in the belief that such action or omission is necessary or advisable in order (i) to protect the ability of CLNY to continue to qualify as a REIT, (ii) for CLNY otherwise to satisfy the REIT Requirements, (iii) for CLNY to avoid incurring any taxes under Code Section 857 or Code Section 4981, (iv) to protect the ability of the Company to be treated as a partnership or disregarded entity for federal income tax purposes, or (v) for any wholly owned Subsidiary of CLNY to continue to qualify as a qualified REIT subsidiary (within the meaning of Code Section 856(i)(2)) or disregarded entity (determined for federal income tax purposes) thereof, is expressly authorized under this Agreement and is deemed approved by all of the Members.

Section 7.2 Certificate of Formation. To the extent that such action is determined by the Managing Member to be reasonable and necessary or appropriate, the Managing Member shall file amendments to and restatements of the Certificate and do all the things to maintain the Company as a limited liability company (or a company in which the members have limited liability) under the laws of the State of Delaware and each other state, the District of Columbia or any other jurisdiction, in which the Company may elect to do business or own property. Subject to the terms of Section 8.5.A hereof, the Managing Member shall not be required, before or after filing, to deliver or mail a copy of the Certificate or any amendment thereto to any Member. The Managing Member shall use all reasonable efforts to cause to be filed such other certificates or documents as may be reasonable and necessary or appropriate for the formation, continuation, qualification and operation of a limited liability company (or a company in which the members have limited liability to the extent provided by applicable law) in the State of Delaware and any other state, or the District of Columbia or other jurisdiction, in which the Company may elect to do business or own property.

Section 7.3 Restrictions on the Managing Member's Authority.

A. The Managing Member may not take any action in contravention of this Agreement, including, without limitation:

- (1) any action that would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of the Company, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement;
- (2) admitting a Person as a Member, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement;
- (3) performing any act that would subject a Member to liability, except as provided herein or under the Act;
- (4) entering into any contract, mortgage, loan or other agreement that expressly prohibits or restricts (a) the Managing Member or the Company from performing its specific obligations under Section 15.1 hereof, or (b) a Member from exercising its rights under Section 15.1 hereof to effect a Redemption, except, in either case, with the written consent of such Member affected by the prohibition or restriction.

B. The Managing Member shall not, without the Consent of the Members, undertake on behalf of the Company, or enter into any transaction that would have the effect of, any of the following actions without the approval of the Board of Directors:

(1) except as provided in Section 7.3.C hereof, terminate this Agreement;

(4) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or appoint or acquiesce in the appointment of a custodian, receiver or trustee for all or any part of the assets of the Company;

(5) institute any proceeding for bankruptcy on behalf of the Company;

(7) a sale, lease, exchange or other transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company not in the ordinary course of business, whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions, other than in connection with a Termination Transaction effected in accordance with Section 11.7.

C. Notwithstanding Section 7.3.B hereof but subject to the rights of any Holder of any Membership Interest set forth in a Membership Unit Designation and Section 7.3.D, the Managing Member shall have the exclusive power, without the Consent of the Members or the consent or approval of any Non-Managing Member, to amend this Agreement as may be required to facilitate or implement any of the following purposes:

(1) to add to the obligations of the Managing Member or surrender any right or power granted to the Managing Member or any Affiliate of the Managing Member for the benefit of the Members;

(2) to reflect the admission, substitution or withdrawal of Members, the Transfer of any Membership Interest or the termination of the Company in accordance with this Agreement, and to amend the Register in connection with such admission, substitution, withdrawal or Transfer;

(3) to reflect a change that is of an inconsequential nature or does not adversely affect the Non-Managing Members in any material respect, or to cure any ambiguity, correct or supplement any provision in this Agreement not inconsistent with law or with other provisions, or make other changes with respect to matters arising under this Agreement that will not be inconsistent with law or with the provisions of this Agreement;

(4) to satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any order, directive, opinion, ruling or regulation of a federal or state agency or contained in federal or state law;

(6) to modify either or both of the manner in which items of Net Income or Net Loss are allocated pursuant to Article 6 or the manner in which Capital Accounts are adjusted, computed or maintained (but in each case only to the extent set forth in the definition of "Capital Account" or Section 5.5 or as contemplated by the Code or the Regulations);

(7) to reflect the issuance of additional Membership Interests in accordance with Article 4;

(9) if the Company is the Surviving Company in any Termination Transaction, to modify Section 15.1 or any related definitions to provide the holders of interests in such Surviving Company rights that are consistent with Section 11.7C(v);

(10) to satisfy any requirements, conditions or guidelines contained in any order, directive, opinion, ruling or regulation of a federal or state agency or contained in federal or state law; and

(11) to reflect any other modification to this Agreement that is reasonably necessary for the business or operations of the Company or CLNY and that does not violate Section 7.3.D.

D. Notwithstanding Sections 7.3.B, 7.3.C and Article 14 hereof, this Agreement shall not be amended, and no action may be taken by the Managing Member, without the consent of each Member, if any, adversely affected thereby, if such amendment or action would (i) convert a Non-Managing Member into a managing member of the Company (except as a result of the Non-Managing Member becoming a Managing Member pursuant to Section 12.1 or 13.1.A of this Agreement), (ii) modify the limited liability of a Member, (iii) adversely alter the rights of any Member to receive the distributions to which such Member is entitled pursuant to Article 5 or Section 13.2.A(4) hereof, or alter the allocations specified in Article 6 hereof (except, in any case, as permitted pursuant to Sections 4.2, 5.5 and 7.3.C hereof), (iv) alter or modify in a manner that adversely affects any Member the Redemption rights, Cash Amount or REIT Shares Amount as set forth in Section 15.1 hereof, or amend or modify any related definitions (except for amendments to this Agreement or other actions that provide rights consistent with Section 11.7C(v)), or (v) amend this Section 7.3.D; provided, however, that the consent of any individual Member adversely affected shall not be required for any amendment or action described in this Section 7.3.D that affects all Members holding the same class or series of Membership Units on a uniform or pro rata basis, if approved by a Majority in Interest of the Members of such class or series. Further, no amendment may alter the restrictions on the Managing Member's authority set forth elsewhere in this Section 7.3 without the consent specified therein. Any such amendment or action consented to by any Member shall be effective as to that Member, notwithstanding the absence of such consent by any other Member.

Section 7.4 Reimbursement of the Managing Member and CLNY.

A. The Managing Member shall not be compensated for its services as managing member of the Company except as provided in this Agreement (including the provisions of Articles 5 and 6 hereof regarding distributions, payments and allocations to which it may be entitled in its capacity as Managing Member).

B. Subject to Section 7.4.C and Section 15.11, the Company shall be liable for, and shall advance to or reimburse the Managing Member and CLNY, as applicable, on a monthly basis, or such other basis as the Managing Member may determine, for all sums required or expended in connection with the Company's business, including (i) expenses relating to the ownership of interests in and management and operation of, or for the benefit of, the Company, (ii) compensation of officers and employees, including payments under future compensation plans of CLNY, the Managing Member, the Company, or a Subsidiary of CLNY, the Managing Member, or the Company that may provide for stock units, or phantom stock, pursuant to which employees of CLNY, the Managing Member, the Company, or any such Subsidiary will receive payments based upon dividends on or the value of REIT Shares, (iii) director fees and expenses, (iv) all costs and expenses of CLNY being a public company, including costs of filings with the SEC, reports and other distributions to its stockholders and (v) without limiting the foregoing, all amounts necessary for the timely payment of all interest, principal and any other payment obligations pursuant to CLNY's 5.00% Convertible Senior Notes due on April 15, 2023 (and any refinancing thereof), 3.875% Convertible Senior Notes due on January 15, 2021 (and any refinancing thereof), and (c) other notes and long-term debt payable or owed during the five-year period beginning on the date hereof; provided, however, that the amount of any reimbursement shall be reduced by any interest earned by the Managing Member or CLNY with respect to bank accounts or other instruments or accounts held by it on behalf of the Company as permitted pursuant to Section 7.5. Such reimbursements shall be in addition to any reimbursement of the Managing Member and CLNY as a result of indemnification pursuant to Section 7.7 hereof.

C. To the extent practicable, Company expenses shall be billed directly to and paid by the Company. If and to the extent any reimbursements to the Managing Member pursuant to this Section 7.4 constitute gross income to the Managing Member (as opposed to the repayment of advances made on behalf of the Company), such amounts shall (unless otherwise required by the Code and the Regulations) constitute guaranteed payments within the meaning of Section 707(c) of the Code, shall be treated consistently therewith by the Company and all Members, and shall not be treated as distributions for purposes of computing the Members' Capital Accounts.

Section 7.5 Outside Activities of the Managing Member. The Managing Member, for so long as it is the Managing Member of the Company, shall not directly or indirectly enter into or conduct any business, other than in connection with, (a) the ownership, acquisition and disposition of Membership Interests, (b) the management of the business of the Company, (c) its operation as a reporting company with a class (or classes) of securities registered under the Exchange Act, (d) its operations as a REIT, (e) the offering, sale, syndication, private placement or public offering of stock, bonds, securities or other interests, (f) financing or refinancing of any type related to the Company or its assets or activities, (g) the holding, operation, acquisition or disposition of Excluded Properties in accordance with the terms of this Agreement with respect thereto and (h) such activities as are incidental thereto; provided, however, that the Managing Member may from time to time hold or acquire assets in its own name or otherwise other than through the Company so long as the Managing Member takes commercially reasonable measures to insure that the economic benefits and burdens of such Property are otherwise vested in the Company, through assignment, mortgage loan or otherwise or, if it is not commercially reasonable to vest such economic interests in the Company, the Members shall negotiate in good faith to amend this Agreement, including the definition of Adjustment Factor, to reflect such activities and the direct ownership of assets by the Managing Member, as applicable. The Managing Member and all qualified REIT subsidiaries (within the meaning of Code Section 856(i)(2)) and disregarded entities (determined for federal income tax purposes) thereof, taken as a group, shall not own any assets or take title to assets (other than temporarily in connection with an acquisition prior to contributing such assets to the Company) other than (i) Excluded Properties, (ii) interests in qualified REIT subsidiaries (within the meaning of Code Section 856(i)(2)) or disregarded entities (determined for federal income tax purposes), (iii) Membership Interests as the Managing Member or CLNY and (iv) such cash and cash equivalents, bank accounts or similar instruments or accounts as such group deems reasonably necessary, taking into account Section 7.1.D hereof and the requirements necessary for CLNY to qualify as a REIT and for the Managing Member and CLNY to carry out their respective responsibilities contemplated under this Agreement and the Charter. The Managing Member and any Affiliates of the Managing Member may acquire Membership Interests and shall be entitled to exercise all rights of a Member relating to such Membership Interests.

Section 7.6 Transactions with Affiliates.

A. The Company may lend or contribute funds or other assets to CLNY and its Subsidiaries or other Persons in which CLNY has an equity investment, and such Persons may borrow funds from the Company, on terms and conditions no less favorable to the Company in the aggregate than would be available from unaffiliated third parties, as determined by the Managing Member. The foregoing authority shall not create any right or benefit in favor of any Subsidiary or any other Person. It is expressly acknowledged and agreed by each Member that CLNY may (i) borrow funds from the Company in order to redeem, at any time or from time to time, options or warrants previously or hereafter issued by CLNY, (ii) put to the Company, for cash, any rights, options, warrants or convertible or exchangeable securities that CLNY may desire or be required to purchase or redeem, or (iii) borrow funds from the Company to acquire assets that become Excluded Properties or will be contributed to the Company for Membership Units.

B. Except as provided in Section 7.5 hereof and subject to Section 3.1 hereof, the Company may transfer assets to joint ventures, limited liability companies, partnerships, corporations, business trusts or other business entities in which it is or thereby becomes a participant upon such terms and subject to such conditions consistent with this Agreement and applicable law.

C. The Managing Member, CLNY and their respective Affiliates may sell, transfer or convey any property to the Company, directly or indirectly, on terms and conditions no less favorable to the Company, in the aggregate, than would be available from unaffiliated third parties, as determined by the Managing Member.

D. The Managing Member or CLNY, without the approval of the other Members or any of them or any other Persons, may propose and adopt, on behalf of the Company, employee benefit plans funded by the Company for the benefit of employees of the Managing Member, the Company, CLNY, Subsidiaries of the Company or any Affiliate of any of them in respect of services performed, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of the Managing Member, CLNY, the Company or any of the Company's Subsidiaries.

Section 7.7 Indemnification.

A. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall indemnify each Indemnitee from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, joint or several, expenses (including attorney's fees and other legal fees and expenses), judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts arising from any and all claims, demands, actions, suits or proceedings, civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, that relate to the operations of the Company (Actions), as set forth in this Agreement, in which such Indemnitee may be involved, or is threatened to be involved, as a party or otherwise; provided, however, that the Company shall not indemnify an Indemnitee (i) for any Action if it is established by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that the actions or omissions of the Indemnitee were material to the matter giving rise to the Action and were committed in bad faith, constituted fraud or were the result of active and deliberate dishonesty on the part of the Indemnitee, (ii) for an Action initiated by the Indemnitee (other than an Action to enforce such Indemnitee's rights to indemnification or advance of expenses under this Section 7.7), (iii) if the Indemnitee actually received an improper personal benefit in money, property or services, or (iv) for a criminal proceeding if the Indemnitee had reasonable cause to believe that the Indemnitee's act or omission was unlawful. Without limitation, the foregoing indemnity shall extend to any liability of any Indemnitee, pursuant to a loan guaranty or otherwise, for any indebtedness of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company (including any indebtedness which the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company has assumed or taken subject to), and the Managing Member is hereby authorized and empowered, on behalf of the Company, to enter into one or more indemnity agreements consistent with the provisions of this Section 7.7 in favor of any Indemnitee having or potentially having liability for any such indebtedness. It is the intention of this Section 7.7.A that the Company indemnify each Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by law. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order or settlement does not create a presumption that the Indemnitee did not meet the requisite standard of conduct set forth in this Section 7.7.A. The termination of any proceeding by conviction of an Indemnitee or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent by an Indemnitee, or an entry of an order of probation against an Indemnitee prior to judgment, does not create a presumption that such Indemnitee acted in a manner contrary to that specified in this Section 7.7.A with respect to the subject matter of such proceeding. Any indemnification pursuant to this Section 7.7 shall be made only out of the assets of the Company, and neither the Managing Member nor any other Holder shall have any obligation to contribute to the capital of the Company or otherwise provide funds to enable the Company to fund its obligations under this Section 7.7.

B. To the fullest extent permitted by law, expenses incurred by an Indemnitee who is a party to a proceeding or otherwise subject to or the focus of or is involved in any Action shall be paid or reimbursed by the Company as incurred by the Indemnitee in advance of the final disposition of the Action upon receipt by the Company of (i) a written affirmation by the Indemnitee of the Indemnitee's good faith belief that the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Company, as authorized in Section 7.7.A, has been met, and (ii) a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnitee to repay the amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the standard of conduct has not been met, provided that such undertaking need not be secured and shall be without reference to the financial ability for repayment.

C. The indemnification provided by this Section 7.7 shall be in addition to any other rights to which an Indemnitee or any other Person may be entitled under any agreement, pursuant to any vote of the Members, as a matter of law or otherwise, and shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to serve in such capacity and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, successors, assigns and administrators of the Indemnitee unless otherwise provided in a written agreement with such Indemnitee or in the writing pursuant to which such Indemnitee is indemnified.

D. The Company and/or the Managing Member may, but shall not be obligated to, purchase and maintain, at the Company's expense, insurance on behalf of any of the Indemnitees and such other Persons as the Managing Member shall determine, against any liability that may be asserted against or expenses that may be incurred by such Person in connection with the Company's activities, regardless of whether the Company would have the power to indemnify such Person against such liability under the provisions of this Agreement.

E. Any liabilities which an Indemnitee incurs as a result of acting on behalf of the Company, or the Managing Member or CLNY (whether as a fiduciary or otherwise) in connection with the operation, administration or maintenance of an employee benefit plan or any related trust or funding mechanism (whether such liabilities are in the form of excise taxes assessed by the IRS, penalties assessed by the Department of Labor, restitutions to such a plan or trust or other funding mechanism or to a participant or beneficiary of such plan, trust or other funding mechanism, or otherwise) shall be treated as liabilities or judgments or fines under this Section 7.7, unless such liabilities arise as a result of the matters described in the proviso of the first sentence of Section 7.7.A.

F. In no event may an Indemnitee subject any of the Holders to personal liability by reason of the indemnification provisions set forth in this Agreement.

G. An Indemnitee shall not be denied indemnification in whole or in part under this Section 7.7 because the Indemnitee had an interest in the transaction with respect to which the indemnification applies if the transaction was otherwise permitted by the terms of this Agreement.

H. The provisions of this Section 7.7 are for the benefit of the Indemnitees, their heirs, successors, assigns and administrators and shall not be deemed to create any rights for the benefit of any other Persons. Any amendment, modification or repeal of this Section 7.7 or any provision hereof shall be prospective only and shall not in any way affect the Company's liability to any Indemnitee under this Section 7.7 as in effect immediately prior to such amendment, modification or repeal with respect to claims arising from or relating to matters occurring, in whole or in part, prior to such amendment, modification or repeal, regardless of when such claims may arise or be asserted.

I. If and to the extent any payments to the Managing Member pursuant to this Section 7.7 constitute gross income to the Managing Member (as opposed to the repayment of advances made on behalf of the Company), such amounts shall (unless otherwise required by the Code and the Regulations) constitute guaranteed payments within the meaning of Section 707(c) of the Code, shall be treated consistently therewith by the Company and all Members, and shall not be treated as distributions for purposes of computing the Members' Capital Accounts.

Section 7.8 Liability of the Managing Member.

A. To the maximum extent permitted under the Act, the only duties that the Managing Member owes to the Company, any Member or any other Person (including any creditor of any Member or assignee of any Membership Interest), fiduciary or otherwise, are to perform its contractual obligations as expressly set forth in this Agreement consistently with the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing. The Managing Member, in its capacity as such, shall have no other duty, fiduciary or otherwise, to the Company, any Member or any other Person (including any creditor of any Member or any assignee of Membership Interest). The provisions of this Agreement shall create contractual obligations of the Managing Member only, and no such provisions shall be interpreted to create, expand or modify any fiduciary duties of the Managing Member.

B. The Non-Managing Members agree that: (i) the Managing Member is acting for the benefit of the Company, the Non-Managing Members and CLNY's stockholders, collectively; and (ii) in the event of a conflict between the interests of the Company or any Member, on the one hand, and the separate interests of CLNY or its stockholders, on the other hand, the Managing Member may give priority to the separate interests of CLNY and its stockholders (including with respect to the tax consequences to Non-Managing Members, Assignees or CLNY's stockholders) and, in the event of such a conflict, any action or failure to act on the part of CLNY that gives priority to the separate interests of CLNY or its stockholders that does not result in a violation of the contract rights of the Non-Managing Members under this Agreement and does not violate any duty owed by the Managing Member to the Company or the Members.

C. In exercising its authority under this Agreement, the Managing Member may, but shall be under no obligation to, take into account the tax consequences to any Member of any action taken (or not taken) by it. Except as otherwise agreed by the Company, the Managing Member and the Company shall not have liability to a Non-Managing Member under any circumstances as a result of any income tax liability incurred by such Non-Managing Member as a result of an action (or inaction) by the Managing Member or the Company pursuant to the Managing Member's authority under this Agreement.

D. Subject to its obligations and duties as managing member of the Company set forth in this Agreement and applicable law, the Managing Member may exercise any of the powers granted to it by this Agreement and perform any of the duties imposed upon it hereunder either directly or by or through its employees or agents. The Managing Member shall not be responsible to the Company or any Member for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any such employee or agent appointed by it in good faith.

E. In performing its duties under this Agreement and the Act, the Managing Member shall be entitled to rely on the provisions of this Agreement and on any information, opinion, report or statement, including any financial statement or other financial data or the records or books of account of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company, prepared or presented by an officer, employee or agent of the Managing Member or any agent of the Company or any such Subsidiary, or by a lawyer, certified public accountant, appraiser or other person engaged by the Company as to any matter within such person's professional or expert competence, and any act taken or omitted to be taken in reliance upon any such information, opinion, report or statement as to matters that the Managing Member reasonably believes to be within such Person's professional or expert competence shall be conclusively presumed to have been done or omitted in good faith and in accordance with such opinion. The Managing Member may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, bond, debenture or other paper or document believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties.

F. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or the Act, any action of the Managing Member on behalf of the Company or any decision of the Managing Member to refrain from acting on behalf of the Company, undertaken in the good faith belief that such action or omission is necessary or advisable in order (i) to protect the ability of CLNY to continue to qualify as a REIT, (ii) for CLNY otherwise to satisfy the REIT Requirements, (iii) to avoid CLNY incurring any taxes under Code Section 857 or Code Section 4981, (iv) to protect the ability of the Company to be treated as a partnership or disregarded entity for federal income tax purposes, or (v) for any wholly owned Subsidiary of CLNY to continue to qualify as a qualified REIT subsidiary (within the meaning of Code Section 856(i)(2)) or disregarded entity (determined for federal income tax purposes) thereof, is expressly authorized under this Agreement, is deemed approved by all of the Non-Managing Members and does not violate any duty of the Managing Member to the Company or any other Member.

G. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, except for the matters described in the proviso of the first sentence of Section 7.7.A, or pursuant to any express indemnities given to the Company by the Managing Member pursuant to any other written instrument, the Managing Member shall not have any personal liability whatsoever, to the Company or to the other Members, for any action or omission taken in its capacity as the Managing Member or for the debts or liabilities of the Company or the Company's obligations hereunder except pursuant to Section 15.1 hereof. Without limitation of the foregoing, and except for the matters described in the proviso of the first sentence of Section 7.7.A, or pursuant to Section 15.1 hereof or any such express indemnity, no property or assets of the Managing Member, other than its interest in the Company, shall be subject to levy, execution or other enforcement procedures for the satisfaction of any judgment (or other judicial process) in favor of any other Member(s) and arising out of, or in connection with, this Agreement.

H. No manager, member, officer or agent of the Managing Member, and no director, officer or agent of CLNY shall have any duties directly to the Company or any Member. No manager, member, officer or agent of the Managing Member or any director, officer, or agent of CLNY shall be directly liable to the Company for money damages by reason of their service as such.

I. Any amendment, modification or repeal of this Section 7.8 or any provision hereof shall be prospective only and shall not in any way affect the limitations on the liability of the Managing Member, or its managers, members, directors, officers or agents, to the Company and the Members under this Section 7.8, as in effect immediately prior to such amendment, modification or repeal, with respect to claims arising from or relating to matters occurring, in whole or in part, prior to such amendment, modification or repeal, regardless of when such claims may arise or be asserted.

Section 7.9 Title to Company Assets. Title to Company assets, whether real, personal or mixed and whether tangible or intangible, shall be deemed to be owned by the Company as an entity, and no Member, individually or collectively with other Members or Persons, shall have any ownership interest in such Company assets or any portion thereof. Title to any or all of the Company assets may be held in the name of the Company, the Managing Member or one or more nominees, as the Managing Member may determine, including Affiliates of the Managing Member. The Managing Member hereby declares and warrants that any Company assets for which legal title is held in the name of the Managing Member or any nominee or Affiliate of the Managing Member shall be held by the Managing Member for the use and benefit of the Company in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. All Company assets shall be recorded as the property of the Company in its books and records, irrespective of the name in which legal title to such Company assets is held.

Section 7.10 Reliance by Third Parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any Person dealing with the Company shall be entitled to assume that the Managing Member has full power and authority, without the consent or approval of any other Member, or Person, to encumber, sell or otherwise use in any manner any and all assets of the Company and to enter into any contracts on behalf of the Company, and take any and all actions on behalf of the Company, and such Person shall be entitled to deal with the Managing Member as if it were the Company's sole party in interest, both legally and beneficially. Each Member hereby waives any and all defenses or other remedies that may be available against such Person to contest, negate or disaffirm any action of the Managing Member in connection with any such dealing. In no event shall any Person dealing with the Managing Member or its representatives be obligated to ascertain that the terms of this Agreement have been complied with or to inquire into the necessity or expediency of any act or action of the Managing Member or its representatives. Each and every certificate, document or other instrument executed on behalf of the Company by the Managing Member or its representatives shall be conclusive evidence in favor of any and every Person relying thereon or claiming thereunder that (i) at the time of the execution and delivery of such certificate, document or instrument, this Agreement was in full force and effect, (ii) the Person executing and delivering such certificate, document or instrument was duly authorized and empowered to do so for and on behalf of the Company, and (iii) such certificate, document or instrument was duly executed and delivered in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement and is binding upon the Company.

The transaction of any such business by the Managing Member, any of its Affiliates or any officer, director, manager, member, employee, partner, agent, representative or trustee of the Managing Member, the Company or any of their Affiliates, in their capacity as such, shall not affect, impair or eliminate the limitations on the liability of the Members or Assignees under this Agreement.

Section 8.3 Outside Activities of Non-Managing Members. Subject to any agreements entered into pursuant to Section 7.6 hereof and any other agreements entered into by a Non-Managing Member or any of its Affiliates with the Managing Member, the Company or a Subsidiary (including any employment agreement), any Non-Managing Member and any Assignee, officer, director, employee, agent, representative, trustee, Affiliate, manager, member or stockholder of any Non-Managing Member shall be entitled to and may have business interests and engage in business activities in addition to those relating to the Company, including business interests and activities that are in direct or indirect competition with the Company or that are enhanced by the activities of the Company. Neither the Company nor any Member shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement in any business ventures of any Non-Managing Member or Assignee. Subject to such agreements, none of the Non-Managing Members nor any other Person shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement or the company relationship established hereby in any business ventures of any other Person (other than CLNY, to the extent expressly provided herein), and such Person shall have no obligation pursuant to this Agreement, subject to Section 7.6 hereof and any other agreements entered into by a Non-Managing Member or its Affiliates with the Managing Member, the Company or a Subsidiary, to offer any interest in any such business ventures to the Company, any Non-Managing Member, or any such other Person, even if such opportunity is of a character that, if presented to the Company, any Non-Managing Member or such other Person, could be taken by such Person.

Section 8.4 Return of Capital. Except pursuant to Section 15.1 or any Membership Unit Designation, no Member shall be entitled to the withdrawal or return of its Capital Contribution, except to the extent of distributions made pursuant to this Agreement or upon dissolution of the Company as provided herein. Except to the extent provided in Article 5 or Article 6 hereof or otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or in any Membership Unit Designation, no Member or Assignee shall have priority over any other Member or Assignee either as to the return of Capital Contributions or as to profits, losses or distributions.

B. The Company shall notify any Non-Managing Member that is a Qualifying Party, on request, of the then current Adjustment Factor or any change made to the Adjustment Factor.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 8.5, the Managing Member may keep confidential from the Non-Managing Members (or any of them), for such period of time as the Managing Member determines to be reasonable, any information that (i) the Managing Member believes to be in the nature of trade secrets or other information the disclosure of which the Managing Member in good faith believes is not in the best interests of the Company or CLNY or (ii) the Company or the Managing Member is required by law or by agreement to keep

The Managing Member shall keep or cause to be kept at the principal business office of the Company those records and documents, if any, required to be maintained by the Act and other books and records deemed by the Managing Member to be appropriate with respect to the Company's business, including all books and records necessary to provide to the Members any information, lists and copies of documents required to be provided pursuant to Section 8.5.A, Section 9.3 or Article 13 hereof. Any records maintained by or on behalf of the Company in the regular course of its business may be kept on any information storage device, provided that the records so maintained are convertible into clearly legible written form within a reasonable period of time.

B. The books of the Company shall be maintained, for financial and tax reporting purposes, on an accrual basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, or on such other basis as the Managing Member determines to be necessary or appropriate. To the extent permitted by sound accounting practices and principles, the Company and the Managing Member may operate with integrated or consolidated accounting records, operations and principles.

Section 9.2 Fiscal Year. The Fiscal Year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

Section 9.3 Reports.

As soon as practicable, but in no event later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of each Fiscal Year, the Managing Member shall cause to be mailed to each Non-Managing Member of record as of the close of the Fiscal Year, financial statements of the Company, or of CLNY if such statements are prepared solely on a consolidated basis with CLNY, for such Fiscal Year, presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, such statements to be audited by a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants selected by the Managing Member.

B. As soon as practicable, but in no event later than ninety (90) days after the close of each calendar quarter (except the last calendar quarter of each year), the Managing Member shall cause to be mailed to each Non-Managing Member of record as of the last day of the calendar quarter, a report containing unaudited financial statements of the Company, or of CLNY if such statements are prepared solely on a consolidated basis with CLNY, for such calendar quarter, and such other information as may be required by applicable law or regulation or as the Managing Member determines to be appropriate.

TAX MATTERS

Section 10.1 Preparation of Tax Returns. The Managing Member shall arrange for the preparation and timely filing of all returns with respect to Company income, gains, deductions, losses and other items required of the Company for federal and state income tax purposes and shall use all reasonable effort to furnish, within ninety (90) days of the close of each taxable year, the tax information reasonably required by Non-Managing Members and for federal and state income tax and any other tax reporting purposes. The Non-Managing Members shall promptly provide the Managing Member with such information relating to the CC Contributed Assets or any other assets contributed by the Contributors (including assets contributed to the Company for income tax purposes pursuant to the CC Contribution Agreement), including tax basis and other relevant information, as may be reasonably requested by the Managing Member from time to time. For purposes of this provision, the terms CC Contributed Assets and Contributors shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the CC Contribution Agreement.

Section 10.2 Tax Elections.

A. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Managing Member shall determine whether to make any available election pursuant to the Code, including the election under Code Section 754 and the election to use the recurring item method of accounting provided under Code Section 461(h) with respect to property taxes imposed on the Company's Properties; provided, however, that, if the recurring item method of accounting is elected with respect to such property taxes, the Company shall pay the applicable property taxes prior to the date provided in Code Section 461(h) for purposes of determining economic performance. The Managing Member shall have the right to seek to revoke any such election (including any election under Code Sections 461(h) and 754).

B. Without limiting the foregoing, the Members, intending to be legally bound, hereby authorize the Managing Member, on behalf of the Company, to make an election (the LV Safe Harbor Election) to have the liquidation value safe harbor provided in Proposed Treasury Regulation § 1.83-3(1) and the Proposed Revenue Procedure set forth in Internal Revenue Service Notice 2005-43, as such safe harbor may be modified when such proposed guidance is issued in final form or as amended by subsequently issued guidance (the LV Safe Harbor), apply to LTIP Units and any interest in the Company transferred to, or for the benefit of, a service provider while the Safe Harbor Election remains effective, to the extent such interest meets the LV Safe Harbor requirements (collectively, such interests are referred to as LV Safe Harbor Interests). The Tax Matters Member is authorized and directed to execute and file the LV Safe Harbor Election on behalf of the Company and the Members. The Company and the Members (including any person to whom an LTIP Unit or other interest in the Company is transferred in connection with the performance of services) hereby agree to comply with all requirements of the LV Safe Harbor (including forfeiture allocations) with respect to all LV Safe Harbor Interests and to prepare and file all U.S. federal income tax returns reporting the tax consequences of the issuance and vesting of LV Safe Harbor Interests consistent with such final LV Safe Harbor guidance. The Company is also authorized to take such actions as are necessary to achieve, under the LV Safe Harbor, the effect that the election and compliance with all requirements of the LV Safe Harbor referred to above would be intended to achieve under Proposed Treasury Regulation Section 1.83-3, including amending this Agreement.

Section 10.3 Tax Matters Member.

A. The Managing Member is hereby designated as the tax matters partner within the meaning of Section 6231(a)(7) of the Code (Tax Matters Member). The Tax Matters Member shall receive no compensation for its services. All third-party costs and expenses incurred by the Tax Matters Member in performing its duties as such (including legal and accounting fees and expenses) shall be borne by the Company in addition to any reimbursement pursuant to Section 7.4 hereof. Nothing herein shall be construed to restrict the Company from engaging a law, advisory, or accounting firm to assist the Tax Matters Member in discharging its duties hereunder. At the request of any Member, the Managing Member agrees to inform such Member regarding the preparation and filing of any returns and with respect to any subsequent audit or litigation relating to such returns; provided, however, that the Managing Member shall have the exclusive power to determine whether to file, and the content of, such returns.

B. The Tax Matters Member is authorized, but not required:

(1) to enter into any settlement with the IRS with respect to any administrative or judicial proceedings for the adjustment of Company items required to be taken into account by a Member for income tax purposes (such administrative proceedings being referred to as a tax audit and such judicial proceedings being referred to as judicial review), and in the settlement agreement the Tax Matters Member may expressly state that such agreement shall bind all Members, except that such settlement agreement shall not bind any Member (i) who (within the time prescribed pursuant to the Code and Regulations) files a statement with the IRS providing that the Tax Matters Member shall not have the authority to enter into a settlement agreement on behalf of such Member (as the case may be) or (ii) who is a notice partner (as defined in Code Section 6231) or a member of a notice group (as defined in Code Section 6223(b)(2));

(2) in the event that a notice of a final administrative adjustment at the Company level of any item required to be taken into account by a Member for tax purposes (a final adjustment) is mailed to the Tax Matters Member, to seek judicial review of such final adjustment, including the filing of a petition for readjustment with the United States Tax Court or the United States Claims Court, or the filing of a complaint for refund with the District Court of the United States for the district in which the Company's principal place of business is located;

(3) to intervene in any action brought by any other Member for judicial review of a final adjustment;

(4) to file a request for an administrative adjustment with the IRS at any time and, if any part of such request is not allowed by the IRS, to file an appropriate pleading (petition or complaint) for judicial review with respect to such request;

(5) to enter into an agreement with the IRS to extend the period for assessing any tax that is attributable to any item required to be taken into account by a Member for tax purposes, or an item affected by such item; and

(6) to take any other action on behalf of the Members or any of them in connection with any tax audit or judicial review proceeding to the extent permitted by applicable law or regulations.

The taking of any action and the incurring of any expense by the Tax Matters Member in connection with any such proceeding, except to the extent required by law, is a matter in the sole and absolute discretion of the Tax Matters Member and the provisions relating to indemnification of the Managing Member set forth in Section 7.7 hereof shall be fully applicable to the Tax Matters Member in its capacity as such.

Section 10.4 Withholding. Each Member hereby authorizes the Company to withhold from or pay on behalf of or with respect to such Member any amount of federal, state, local or foreign taxes that the Managing Member determines that the Company is required to withhold or pay with respect to any amount distributable or allocable to such Member pursuant to this Agreement, including any taxes required to be withheld or paid by the Company pursuant to Code Section 1441, Code Section 1442, Code Section 1445 or Code Section 1446. Any amount paid on behalf of or with respect to a Member shall constitute an advance by the Company to such Member, which advance shall be repaid by such Member within fifteen (15) days after notice from the Managing Member that such payment must be made except to the extent that (i) the Company withholds such payment from a distribution that would otherwise be made to the Member or (ii) the Managing Member determines that such payment may be satisfied out of the Available Cash of the Company that would, but for such payment, be distributed to the Member, and such amount actually is satisfied out of such cash. Each Member hereby unconditionally and irrevocably grants to the Company a security interest in such Member's Membership Interest to secure such Member's obligation to pay to the Company any amounts required to be paid pursuant to this Section 10.4 and subject to the prior sentence. In the event that a Member fails to pay any amounts owed to the Company pursuant to this Section 10.4 when due, the Managing Member may elect to make the payment to the Company on behalf of such defaulting Member, and in such event shall be deemed to have loaned such amount to such defaulting Member and shall succeed to all rights and remedies of the Company as against such defaulting Member (including the right to receive distributions). Any amounts payable (or portion thereof that remain unsatisfied) by a Member hereunder shall bear interest at the base rate on corporate loans at large United States money center commercial banks, as published from time to time in the Wall Street Journal, plus four (4) percentage points (but not higher than the maximum lawful rate) from the date such amount is due (i.e., fifteen (15) days after demand) until such amount is paid in full. Each Member shall take such actions as the Company or the Managing Member shall request in order to perfect or enforce the security interest created hereunder.

Section 10.5 Organizational Expenses. The Managing Member may cause the Company to elect to deduct expenses, if any, incurred by it in organizing the Company ratably over a 180-month period as provided in Code Section 709.

MEMBER TRANSFERS AND WITHDRAWALS

Section 11.1 Transfer.

A. No part of the interest of a Member shall be subject to the claims of any creditor, to any spouse for alimony or support, or to legal process, and may not be voluntarily or involuntarily alienated or encumbered except as may be specifically provided for in this Agreement.

B. No Membership Interest shall be Transferred, in whole or in part, except in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Article 11 and any applicable Non-Managing Member Ancillary Agreement. Any Transfer or purported Transfer of a Membership Interest not made in accordance with this Article 11 and any applicable Non-Managing Member Ancillary Agreement shall be null and void ab initio.

C. No Transfer of any Membership Interest may be made to a lender to the Company or any Person who is related (within the meaning of Section 1.752-4(b) of the Regulations) to any lender to the Company whose loan constitutes a Nonrecourse Liability, without the consent of the Managing Member; provided that as a condition to such consent, the Managing Member may require the lender to enter into an arrangement with the Company and the Managing Member to redeem or exchange for the REIT Shares Amount any Membership Units in which a security interest is held by such lender simultaneously with the time at which such lender would be deemed to be a member in the Company for purposes of allocating liabilities to such lender under Code Section 752.

Section 11.2 Transfer of the Managing Member's Membership Interest.

A. Subject to compliance with the other provisions of this Article 11, the Managing Member may Transfer all or any portion of its Membership Interest at any time (i) to any Person that is, at the time of such Transfer, a direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of CLNY, including any qualified REIT subsidiary (within the meaning of Code Section 856(i)(2)) and that immediately following such Transfer owns, directly or indirectly, all the assets of CLNY and its Subsidiaries, without the Consent of any Member, and may designate the transferee to become the new Managing Member under Section 12.1, or (ii) in connection with a Termination Transaction as permitted under Section 11.7.

B. The Managing Member may not voluntarily withdraw as a managing member of the Company without the Consent of the Non-Managing Members, except in connection with a Transfer of the Managing Member's entire Membership Interest permitted in this Article 11 (including in accordance with Section 11.7) and the admission of the Transferee as a successor managing member of the Company pursuant to the Act and this Agreement.

C. It is a condition to any Transfer of the entire Membership Interest of a sole Managing Member otherwise permitted hereunder (including in accordance with Section 11.7) that (i) coincident or prior to such Transfer, the transferee is admitted as a Managing Member pursuant to the Act and this Agreement; (ii) the transferee assumes by operation of law or express agreement all of the obligations of the transferor Managing Member under this Agreement with respect to such Transferred Membership Interest; and (iii) the transferee has executed such instruments as may be necessary to effectuate such admission and to confirm the agreement of such transferee to be bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Managing Member and the admission of such transferee as a Managing Member.

Section 11.3 Non-Managing Members Rights to Transfer.

A. General. Subject to any Non-Managing Member Ancillary Agreement, each Non-Managing Member, and each transferee of such Non-Managing Member's Membership Interest or Assignee thereof pursuant to a Permitted Transfer, may not Transfer all or any portion of such Membership Interest to any Person without the consent of the Managing Member, which consent may be withheld in the Managing Member's sole and absolute discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to Section 11.1.C and 11.3.C, any Non-Managing Member may, at any time, without the consent of the Managing Member, Transfer all or any portion of its Membership Interest pursuant to a Permitted Transfer (including, in the case of a Non-Managing Member that is a Permitted Lender Transferee, any Transfer of a Membership Interest to a Third-Party Pledge Transferee). Any Transfer of a Membership Interest by a Non-Managing Member or an Assignee is subject to Section 11.4 and to satisfaction of the following conditions:

- (1) Qualified Transferee. Any Transfer of a Membership Interest shall be made only to a single Qualified Transferee; provided, however, that, for such purposes, all Qualified Transferees that are Affiliates, or that comprise investment accounts or funds managed by a single Qualified Transferee and its Affiliates, shall be considered together to be a single Qualified Transferee.
- (2) Opinion of Counsel. The Transferor shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Managing Member an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to it to the effect that the proposed Transfer may be effected without registration under the Securities Act and will not otherwise violate the registration provisions of the Securities Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder or violate any state securities laws or regulations applicable to the Company or the Membership Interests Transferred; provided, however, that the Managing Member may waive this condition upon the request of the Transferor. If, in the opinion of such counsel, such Transfer would require the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act or would otherwise violate any federal or state securities laws or regulations applicable to the Company or the Membership Units, the Managing Member may prohibit any Transfer otherwise permitted under this Section 11.3 by a Non-Managing Member of Membership Interests.
- (3) Minimum Transfer Restriction. Any Transferring Member must Transfer not less than the lesser of (i) five hundred (500) Membership Units or (ii) all of the remaining Membership Units owned by such Transferring Member; provided, however, that, for purposes of determining compliance with the foregoing restriction, all Membership Units owned by Affiliates of a Member shall be considered to be owned by such Member.

It is a condition to any Transfer otherwise permitted hereunder that the transferee assumes by operation of law or express agreement all of the obligations of the transferor Member under this Agreement with respect to such Transferred Membership Interest, and no such Transfer (other than pursuant to a statutory merger or consolidation wherein all obligations and liabilities of the transferor Member are assumed by a successor corporation by operation of law) shall relieve the transferor Member of its obligations under this Agreement without the approval of the Managing Member. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any transferee of any Transferred Membership Interest shall be subject to any and all ownership limitations (including the Ownership Limit) contained in the Charter that may limit or restrict such transferee's ability to exercise its Redemption rights, including the Ownership Limit. Any transferee, whether or not admitted as a Substituted Member, shall take subject to the obligations of the transferor hereunder. Unless admitted as a Substituted Member, no transferee, whether by a voluntary Transfer, by operation of law or otherwise, shall have any rights hereunder, other than the rights of an Assignee as provided in Section 11.5 hereof.

B. Incapacity. If a Non-Managing Member is subject to Incapacity, the executor, administrator, trustee, committee, guardian, conservator or receiver of such Member's estate shall have all the rights of a Non-Managing Member, but not more rights than those enjoyed by other Non-Managing Members, for the purpose of settling or managing the estate, and such power as the Incapacitated Member possessed to Transfer all or any part of its interest in the Company. The Incapacity of a Member, in and of itself, shall not dissolve or terminate the Company.

C. Adverse Tax Consequences. No Transfer by a Non-Managing Member of its Membership Interests (including any Redemption, any other acquisition of Membership Units by the Managing Member or any acquisition of Membership Units by the Company and including any Permitted Transfer) may be made to or by any Person if in the opinion of legal counsel for the Company, (i) such Transfer would create a material risk of the Company being treated as an association taxable as a corporation, (ii) there would be a material risk that such Transfer would be treated as effectuated through an established securities market or a secondary market (or the substantial equivalent thereof), within the meaning of Code Section 7704 or otherwise create a material risk of the Company being treated as a publicly traded partnership within the meaning of Code Section 469(k)(2) or Code Section 7704, (iii) such Transfer would create a material risk that the Company to cease to be classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes (except as a result of the Redemption (or acquisition by CLNY) of all Membership Units held by all Members (other than CLNY)), or such Transfer would result in a termination of the Company under Code Section 708(b)(1)(B), or (iv) such Transfer would create a material risk that CLNY would cease to comply with the REIT Requirements or any wholly owned Subsidiary of CLNY to cease to qualify as either a qualified REIT subsidiary (within the meaning of Code Section 856(i)(2)) or disregarded entity (determined for federal income tax purposes) thereof).

Section 11.4 Substituted Members.

A. A transferee of the interest of a Non-Managing Member shall be admitted as a Substituted Member only with the consent of the Managing Member, which may be withheld in its sole and absolute discretion; provided, however, that a Permitted Transferee that is a past or present employee of the Company, CLNY or their Subsidiaries, CC, CCH or Colony Realty Partners, LLC shall be admitted as a Substituted Member pursuant to a Permitted Transfer without the consent of the Managing Member. The failure or refusal by the Managing Member to permit a transferee of any such interests to become a Substituted Member shall not give rise to any cause of action against the Company or the Managing Member. Subject to the foregoing, an Assignee shall not be admitted as a Substituted Member until and unless it furnishes to the Managing Member (i) evidence of acceptance, in form and substance satisfactory to CLNY, of all the terms, conditions and applicable obligations of this Agreement, (ii) a counterpart signature page to this Agreement executed by such Assignee and (iii) such other documents and instruments as the Managing Member may require to effect such Assignee's admission as a Substituted Member.

B. Concurrently with, and as evidence of, the admission of a Substituted Member, the Managing Member shall amend the Register and the books and records of the Company to reflect the name, address and number of Membership Units of such Substituted Member and to eliminate or adjust, if necessary, the name, address and number of Membership Units of the predecessor of such Substituted Member.

C. A transferee who has been admitted as a Substituted Member in accordance with this Article 11 shall have all the rights and powers and be subject to all the restrictions and liabilities of a Non-Managing Member under this Agreement.

Section 11.5 Assignees. If the Managing Member's consent is required for the admission of any transferee as a Substituted Member, as described in Section 11.4 hereof, and the Managing Member withholds such consent, such transferee shall be considered an Assignee for purposes of this Agreement. An Assignee shall be entitled to all the rights of an assignee of a membership interest under the Act, including the right to receive distributions from the Company and the share of Net Income, Net Losses and other items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit of the Company attributable to the Membership Units assigned to such transferee and the rights to Transfer the Membership Units provided in this Article 11, but shall not be deemed to be a holder of Membership Units for any other purpose under this Agreement (other than as expressly provided in Section 15.1 hereof with respect to a Qualifying Party that becomes a Tendering Party), and shall not be entitled to effect a Consent or vote with respect to such Membership Units on any matter presented to the Non-Managing Members for approval (such right to Consent or vote, to the extent provided in this Agreement or under the Act, fully remaining with the transferor Member). In the event that any such transferee desires to make a further assignment of any such Membership Units, such transferee shall be subject to all the provisions of this Article 11 to the same extent and in the same manner as any Non-Managing Member desiring to make an assignment of Membership Units.

Section 11.6 General Provisions.

A. No Non-Managing Member may withdraw from the Company other than: (i) as a result of a permitted Transfer of all of such Member's Membership Interest in accordance with this Article 11 with respect to which the transferee becomes a Substituted Member; (ii) pursuant to a redemption (or acquisition by the Managing Member or CLNY) of all of its Membership Interest pursuant to a Redemption under Section 15.1 hereof and/or pursuant to any Membership Unit Designation; or (iii) as a result of the acquisition by the Managing Member or CLNY of all of such Member's Membership Interest, whether or not pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof.

B. Any Member who shall Transfer all of its Membership Units in a Transfer (i) permitted pursuant to this Article 11 where such transferee was admitted as a Substituted Member, (ii) pursuant to the exercise of its rights to effect a redemption of all of its Membership Units pursuant to a Redemption under Section 15.1 hereof and/or pursuant to any Membership Unit Designation, or (iii) to CLNY, whether or not pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof, shall cease to be a Member.

C. If any Membership Unit is Transferred in compliance with the provisions of this Article 11, or is redeemed by the Company, or acquired by CLNY pursuant to Section 15.1 hereof, on any day other than the first day of a Fiscal Year, then Net Income, Net Losses, each item thereof and all other items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit attributable to such Membership Unit for such Fiscal Year shall be allocated to the transferor Member or the Tendering Party (as the case may be) and, in the case of a Transfer or assignment other than a Redemption, to the transferee Member, by taking into account their varying interests during the Fiscal Year in accordance with Code Section 706(d), using the interim closing of the books method or another permissible method selected by the Managing Member. Solely for purposes of making such allocations, each of such items for the calendar month in which a Transfer occurs shall be allocated to the transferee Member and none of such items for the calendar month in which a Transfer or a Redemption occurs shall be allocated to the transferor Member, or the Tendering Party (as the case may be) if such Transfer occurs on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of the month, otherwise such items shall be allocated to the transferor. All distributions of Available Cash attributable to such Membership Unit with respect to which the Company Record Date is before the date of such Transfer, assignment or Redemption shall be made to the transferor Member or the Tendering Party (as the case may be) and, in the case of a Transfer other than a Redemption, all distributions of Available Cash thereafter attributable to such Membership Unit shall be made to the transferee Member.

D. In addition to any other restrictions on Transfer herein contained or contained in any applicable Non-Managing Member Ancillary Agreement, in no event may any Transfer or assignment of a Membership Interest by any Member (including any Redemption, any acquisition of Membership Units by CLNY or any other acquisition of Membership Units by the Company) be made without the consent of the Managing Member, which may be withheld in its sole and absolute discretion: (i) to any person or entity who lacks the legal right, power or capacity to own a Membership Interest; (ii) in violation of applicable law; (iii) of any component portion of a Membership Interest, such as the Capital Account, or rights to distributions, separate and apart from all other components of a Membership Interest; (iv) in the event that such Transfer would create a material risk that

E. Transfers by a Non-Managing Member pursuant to this Article 11 or pursuant to any applicable Non-Managing Member Ancillary Agreement but not pursuant to Article 15, other than a Permitted Transfer to a Permitted Transferee pursuant to the exercise of remedies under a Pledge, may only be made on the first day of a fiscal quarter of the Company, unless the Managing Member otherwise agrees.

Section 11.7 Restrictions on Termination Transactions. Neither CLNY nor the Managing Member shall engage in, or cause or permit, a Termination Transaction, unless the conditions in at least one of the following paragraphs is met:

A. the Consent of the Non-Managing Members is obtained;

B. in connection with any such Termination Transaction, each holder of Membership Common Units (other than CLNY and its wholly owned Subsidiaries) will receive, or will have the right to elect to receive, for each Membership Common Unit, an amount of cash, securities or other property equal to the product of the Adjustment Factor and the greatest amount of cash, securities or other property paid to a holder of one REIT Share in consideration of one REIT Share pursuant to the terms of such Termination Transaction; provided, that if, in connection with such Termination Transaction, a purchase, tender or exchange offer shall have been made to and accepted by the holders of a majority of the outstanding REIT Shares, each holder of Membership Common Units (other than CLNY and its wholly owned subsidiaries) will receive, or will have the right to elect to receive, the greatest amount of cash, securities or other property which such holder of Membership Common Units would have received had it exercised its right to Redemption pursuant to Article 15 hereof and received REIT Shares in exchange for its Membership Common Units immediately prior to the expiration of such purchase, tender or exchange offer and had thereupon accepted such purchase, tender or exchange offer and then such Termination Transaction shall have been consummated (the fair market value, at the time of the Termination Transaction, of the amount specified herein with respect to each Membership Common Unit is referred to as the Transaction Consideration);

C. all of the following conditions are met: (i) substantially all of the assets directly or indirectly owned by the Company prior to the announcement of the Termination Transaction are, immediately after the Termination

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS

Section 12.1 Admission of Successor Managing Member. A successor to all or a portion of the Managing Member s Membership Interest pursuant to Section 11.2.A hereof who the Managing Member has designated to become a successor Managing Member shall be admitted to the Company as the Managing Member, effective immediately upon the Transfer of such Membership Interest to it. Upon any such Transfer and the admission of any such transferee as a successor Managing Member in accordance with this Section 12.1, the transferor Managing Member shall be relieved of its obligations under this Agreement and shall cease to be a Managing Member without any separate Consent of the Members or the consent or approval of any Member. Any such successor shall carry on the business of the Company without dissolution. In each case, the admission shall be subject to the successor Managing Member executing and delivering to the Company an acceptance of all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and such other documents or instruments as may be required to effect the admission. In the event that the Managing Member withdraws from the Company, or transfers its entire Membership Interest, in violation of this Agreement, or otherwise dissolves or terminates or ceases to be the Managing Member, a Majority in Interest of the Members may elect to continue the Company by selecting a successor Managing Member in accordance with Section 13.1.A hereof.

Section 12.2 Admission of Additional Members.

A. A Person (other than an existing Member) who makes a Capital Contribution to the Company in exchange for Membership Units in accordance with this Agreement shall be admitted to the Company as an Additional Member only upon furnishing to the Managing Member (i) evidence of acceptance, in form and substance satisfactory to the Managing Member, of all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including the power of attorney granted in Section 2.4 hereof, (ii) a counterpart signature page to this Agreement executed by such Person, and (iii) such other documents or instruments as may be required by the Managing Member in order to effect such Person s admission as an Additional Member. Concurrently with, and as evidence of, the admission of an Additional Member, the Managing Member shall amend the Register and the books and records of the Company to reflect the name, address, number and type of Membership Units of such Additional Member.

B. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 12.2, no Person shall be admitted as an Additional Member without the consent of the Managing Member. The admission of any Person as an Additional Member shall become effective on the date upon which the name of such Person is recorded on the books and records of the Company, following the consent of the Managing Member to such admission and the satisfaction of all the conditions set forth in Section 12.2.A.

C. If any Additional Member is admitted to the Company on any day other than the first day of a Fiscal Year, then Net Income, Net Losses, each item thereof and all other items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit allocable among Holders for such Fiscal Year shall be allocated among such Additional Member and all other Holders by taking into account their varying interests during the Fiscal Year in accordance with Code Section 706(d), using the interim closing of the books method or another permissible method selected by the Managing Member. Solely for purposes of making such allocations, each of such items for the calendar month in which an admission of any Additional Member occurs shall be allocated among all the Holders including such Additional Member, in accordance with the principles described in Section 11.6.C hereof. All distributions of Available Cash with respect to which the Company Record Date is before the date of such admission shall be made solely to Members and Assignees other than the Additional Member, and all distributions of Available Cash thereafter shall be made to all the Members and Assignees including such Additional Member.

Section 12.3 Amendment of Agreement and Certificate of Formation. For the admission to the Company of any Member, the Managing Member shall take all steps necessary and appropriate under the Act to amend the Register and the books and records of the Company and, if necessary, to prepare as soon as practical an amendment of this Agreement and, if required by law, shall prepare and file an amendment to the Certificate and may for this purpose exercise the power of attorney granted pursuant to Section 2.4 hereof.

Section 12.4 Limit on Number of Members. Unless otherwise permitted by the Managing Member, no Person shall be admitted to the Company as an Additional Member if the effect of such admission would be to cause the Company to have a number of Members (including as Members for this purpose those Persons indirectly owning an interest in the Company through another limited liability company, a partnership, a subchapter S corporation or a grantor trust) that would cause the Company to become a reporting company under the Exchange Act.

Section 12.5 Admission. A Person shall be admitted to the Company as a member of the Company and/or a managing member of the Company only upon strict compliance, and not upon substantial compliance, with the requirements set forth in this Agreement for admission to the Company as a Non-Managing Member or a Managing Member.

DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION

Section 13.1 Dissolution. The Company shall not be dissolved by the admission of Substituted Members or Additional Members, or by the admission of a successor managing member in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Upon the withdrawal of the Managing Member, any successor managing member shall continue the business of the Company without dissolution. However, the Company shall dissolve, and its affairs shall be wound up, upon the first to occur of any of the following (each a Liquidating Event):

A. an event of withdrawal, as defined in the Act, with respect to a Managing Member, unless (i) at the time of the occurrence of such event, there is at least one remaining managing member of the Company who is authorized to and shall carry on the business of the Company, or (ii) within ninety (90) days after the withdrawal, a Majority in Interest of the Members agree in writing to continue the Company and to the appointment, effective as of the date of withdrawal, of a successor managing member;

B. an election to dissolve the Company made by the Managing Member, with or without the Consent of the other Members; or

C. entry of a decree of judicial dissolution of the Company pursuant to the provisions of the Act.

Section 13.2 Winding Up.

A. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Company shall continue solely for the purposes of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets and satisfying the claims of its creditors and the Holders. After the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, no Holder shall take any action that is inconsistent with, or not necessary to or appropriate for, the winding up of the Company's business and affairs. The Managing Member (or, in the event that there is no remaining Managing Member or the Managing Member has dissolved, become bankrupt or ceased to operate, any Person elected by a Majority in Interest of the Members (the Managing Member or such other Person being referred to herein as the Liquidator)) shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up and dissolution of the Company and shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and property, and the Company property shall be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof, and the proceeds therefrom (which may, to the extent determined by the Managing Member, include shares of stock in CLNY) shall be applied and distributed in the following order:

- (1) First, to the satisfaction of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to creditors other than the Holders (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof);
- (2) Second, to the satisfaction of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to CLNY (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof), including amounts due as reimbursements under Section 7.4 hereof;
- (3) Third, to the satisfaction of all of the Company's debts and liabilities to the other Holders (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof); and
- (4) Subject to the terms of any Membership Unit Designation, the balance, if any, to the Holders in accordance with and in proportion to their positive Capital Account balances, after giving effect to all contributions, distributions and allocations for all periods.

the Managing Member shall not receive any additional compensation for any services performed pursuant to this Article 13.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 13.2.A hereof that require liquidation of the assets of the Company, but subject to the order of priorities set forth therein, if prior to or upon dissolution of the Company, the Liquidator determines that an immediate sale of part or all of the Company's assets would be impractical or would cause undue loss to the Holders, the Liquidator may, in its sole and absolute discretion, defer for a reasonable time the liquidation of any assets except those necessary to satisfy liabilities of the Company (including to those Holders as creditors) and/or distribute to the Holders, in lieu of cash, as tenants in common and in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.2.A hereof, undivided interests in such Company assets as the Liquidator deems not suitable for liquidation. Any such distributions in kind shall be made only if, in the good faith judgment of the Liquidator, such distributions in kind are in the best interest of the Holders, and shall be subject to such conditions relating to the disposition and management of such properties as the Liquidator deems reasonable and equitable and to any agreements governing the operation of such properties at such time. The Liquidator shall determine the fair market value of any property distributed in kind using such reasonable method of valuation as it may adopt.

C. In the event that the Company is liquidated, within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g), distributions shall be made pursuant to this Article 13 to the Holders that have positive Capital Accounts in compliance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(b)(2) to the extent of, and in proportion to, positive Capital Account balances. If any Holder has a deficit balance in its Capital Account (after giving effect to all contributions, distributions and allocations for all taxable years, including the year during which such liquidation occurs), such Holder shall have no obligation to make any contribution to the capital of the Company with respect to such deficit, and such deficit shall not be considered a debt owed to the Company or to any other Person for any purpose whatsoever. In the sole and absolute discretion of the Managing Member or the Liquidator, a pro rata portion of the distributions that would otherwise be made to the Holders pursuant to this Article 13 may be:

(1) distributed to a trust established for the benefit of the Managing Member and the Holders for the purpose of liquidating Company assets, collecting amounts owed to the Company, and paying any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Company or of the Managing Member arising out of or in connection with the Company and/or Company activities. The assets of any such trust shall be distributed to the Holders, from time to time, in the reasonable discretion of the Managing Member, in the same proportions and amounts as would otherwise have been distributed to the Holders pursuant to this Agreement; or

(2) withheld or escrowed to provide a reasonable reserve for Company liabilities (contingent or otherwise) and to reflect the unrealized portion of any installment obligations owed to the Company, provided that such withheld or escrowed amounts shall be distributed to the Holders in the manner and order of priority set forth in Section 13.2.A hereof as soon as practicable.

Section 13.3 Deemed Contribution and Distribution. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 13, in the event that the Company is liquidated within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g), but no Liquidating Event has occurred, the Company's Property shall not be liquidated, the Company's liabilities shall not be paid or discharged and the Company's affairs shall not be wound up. Instead, for federal income tax purposes the Company shall be deemed to have contributed all of its assets and liabilities to a new partnership in exchange for an interest in the new partnership; and immediately thereafter, distributed Membership Units to the Members in the new partnership in accordance with their respective Capital Accounts in liquidation of the Company, and the new partnership is deemed to continue the business of the Company. Nothing in this Section 13.3 shall be deemed to have constituted any Assignee as a Substituted Member without compliance with the provisions of Section 11.4 hereof.

Section 13.4 Rights of Holders. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement and subject to the rights of any Holder of any Membership Interest set forth in a Membership Unit Designation, (a) each Holder shall look solely to the assets of the Company for the return of its Capital Contribution, (b) no Holder shall have the right or power to demand or receive property other than cash from the Company, and (c) no Holder shall have priority over any other Holder as to the return of its Capital Contributions, distributions or allocations.

Section 13.5 Notice of Dissolution. In the event that a Liquidating Event occurs or an event occurs that would, but for an election or objection by one or more Members pursuant to Section 13.1 hereof, result in a dissolution of the Company, CLNY or the Liquidator shall, within thirty (30) days thereafter, provide written notice thereof to each of the Holders and, in the sole and absolute discretion of CLNY or the Liquidator, or as required by the Act, to all other parties with whom the Company regularly conducts business (as determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Managing Member or the Liquidator), and the Managing Member or the Liquidator may, or, if required by the Act, shall, publish notice thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in each place in which the Company regularly conducts business (as determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Managing Member or the Liquidator).

Section 13.6 Cancellation of Certificate of Formation. Upon the completion of the liquidation of the Company cash and property as provided in Section 13.2 hereof, the Company shall be terminated, a certificate of cancellation shall be filed with the State of Delaware, all qualifications of the Company as a foreign limited liability company in jurisdictions other than the State of Delaware shall be cancelled, and such other actions as may be necessary to terminate the Company shall be taken.

Section 13.7 Reasonable Time for Winding-Up. A reasonable time shall be allowed for the orderly winding-up of the business and affairs of the Company and the liquidation of its assets pursuant to Section 13.2 hereof, in order to minimize any losses otherwise attendant upon such winding-up, and the provisions of this Agreement shall remain in effect between and among the Members during the period of liquidation.

OF MEMBERS; AMENDMENTS; MEETINGS

Section 14.1 Actions and Consents of Members. The actions requiring Consent of any Member pursuant to this Agreement, including Section 7.3 hereof, or otherwise pursuant to applicable law, are subject to the procedures set forth in this Article 14.

Section 14.2 Amendments. Except as otherwise required, permitted or prohibited by this Agreement (including Section 7.3 and Section 4.4E), amendments to this Agreement must be approved by the Consent of the Managing Member and, if the amendment substantively and adversely affects the rights of the Non-Managing Members disproportionately as compared to the Managing Member, the Consent of the Members, and may be proposed only by (a) the Managing Member, or (b) Non-Managing Members holding a majority of the Membership Common Units then held by Non-Managing Members (excluding CLNY and any Controlled Entity of CLNY). Following such proposal, the Managing Member shall submit to the Members any proposed amendment that, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, requires the Consent of the Members. The Managing Member shall seek the Consent of the Members entitled to vote thereon on any such proposed amendment in accordance with Section 14.3 hereof. Upon obtaining any such Consent, or any other Consent required by this Agreement, and without further action or execution by any other Person, including any Member, (i) any amendment to this Agreement may be implemented and reflected in a writing executed solely by the Managing Member, and (ii) the Non-Managing Members shall be deemed a party to and bound by such amendment of this Agreement. Within thirty days after the effectiveness of any amendment to this Agreement that does not receive the Consent of all Members, the Managing Member shall deliver a copy of such amendment to all Members that did not Consent to such amendment. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, this Agreement may not be amended without the Consent of the Managing Member.

Section 14.3 Procedures for Meetings and Actions of the Members.

A. Meetings of the Members may be called only by the Managing Member. The call shall state the nature of the business to be transacted. Notice of any such meeting shall be given to all Members entitled to act at the meeting not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the date of such meeting. Members may vote in person or by proxy at such meeting. Unless approval by a different number or proportion of the Members is required by this Agreement, or any Membership Unit Designation, the affirmative vote of a Majority in Interest of the Members shall be sufficient to approve such proposal at a meeting of the Members. Whenever the Consent of any Members is permitted or required under this Agreement, such Consent may be given at a meeting of Members or in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Section 14.3.B hereof.

B. Any action requiring the Consent of any Member or a group of Members pursuant to this Agreement, or that is required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Members may be taken without a meeting if a Consent in writing or by electronic transmission setting forth the action so taken or consented to is given by Members whose affirmative vote would be sufficient to approve such action or provide such Consent at a meeting of the Members. Such Consent may be in one instrument or in several instruments, and shall have the same force and effect as the affirmative vote of such Members at a meeting of the Members. Such Consent shall be filed with the Managing Member. An action so taken shall be deemed to have been taken at a meeting held on the effective date so certified. For purposes of obtaining a Consent in writing or by electronic transmission, the Managing Member may require a response within a reasonable specified time, but not less than fifteen (15) days, and failure to respond in such time period shall constitute a Consent that is consistent with the Managing Member's recommendation with respect to the proposal; provided, however, that an action shall become effective at such time as requisite Consents are received even if prior to such specified time.

C. Each Member entitled to act at a meeting of Members may authorize any Person or Persons to act for it by proxy on all matters in which a Member is entitled to participate, including waiving notice of any meeting, or voting or participating at a meeting. Each proxy must be signed by the Member or its attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy (or there is receipt of a proxy authorizing a later date). Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the Member executing it, such revocation to be effective upon the Company's receipt of written notice of such revocation from the Member executing such proxy, unless such proxy states that it is irrevocable and is coupled with an interest.

D. The Managing Member may set, in advance, a record date for the purpose of determining the Members (i) entitled to Consent to any action, (ii) entitled to receive notice of or vote at any meeting of the Members or (iii) in order to make a determination of Members for any other proper purpose. Such date, in any case, shall not be prior to the close of business on the day the record date is fixed and shall be not more than ninety (90) days and, in the case of a meeting of the Members, not less than ten (10) days, before the date on which the meeting is to be held. If no record date is fixed, the record date for the determination of Members entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of the Members shall be at the close of business on the day on which the notice of the meeting is sent, and the record date for any other determination of Members shall be the effective date of such Member action, distribution or other event. When a determination of the Members entitled to vote at any meeting of the Members has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

E. Each meeting of Members shall be conducted by the Managing Member or such other Person as the Managing Member may appoint pursuant to such rules for the conduct of the meeting as the Managing Member or such other Person deems appropriate in its sole and absolute discretion. Without limitation, meetings of Members may be conducted in the same manner as meetings of CLNY's stockholders and may be held at the same time as, and as part of, the meetings of CLNY's stockholders.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 15.1 Redemption Rights of Qualifying Parties.

A. Subject to any Non-Managing Member Ancillary Agreement, a Qualifying Party shall have the right (subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein) to require the Company to redeem all or a portion of the Membership Common Units held by such Qualifying Party (Membership Common Units that have in fact been tendered for redemption being hereafter referred to as Tendered Units) in exchange (a Redemption) for the Cash Amount payable on the Specified Redemption Date. Any Redemption shall be exercised pursuant to a Notice of Redemption delivered to the Managing Member by the Qualifying Party when exercising the Redemption right (the Tendering Party). The Company's obligation to effect a Redemption, however, shall not arise or be binding against the Company (i) until and unless CLNY declines or fails to exercise its purchase rights pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof following receipt of a Notice of Redemption (a Declination) and (ii) unless CLNY agrees otherwise, until the Business Day following the Cut-Off Date. In the event of a Redemption, the Cash Amount shall be delivered as a certified or bank check payable to the Tendering Party or, in the Managing Member's sole and absolute discretion, in immediately available funds on or before the Specified Redemption Date.

B. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 15.1.A hereof, on or before the close of business on the Cut-Off Date, CLNY may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to acquire some or all of the Tendered Units (the percentage of the Tendered Units so elected to be acquired, the Applicable Percentage) from the Tendering Party in exchange for the product of the REIT Shares Amount and the Applicable Percentage. If CLNY so elects, on the Specified Redemption Date the Tendering Party shall sell such number of the Tendered Units to CLNY in exchange for a number of Class A REIT Shares equal to the product of the REIT Shares Amount and the Applicable Percentage. The Tendering Party shall submit (i) such information, certification or affidavit as the CLNY may reasonably require in connection with the application of the Ownership Limit to any such acquisition and (ii) such written representations, investment letters, legal opinions or other instruments necessary, in the CLNY's view, to effect compliance with the Securities Act. In the event of a purchase of the Tendered Units by

CLNY pursuant to this Section 15.1.B, the Tendering Party shall no longer have the right to cause the Company to effect a Redemption of such Tendered Units, and, upon notice to the Tendering Party by CLNY, given on or before the close of business on the Cut-Off Date, that CLNY has elected to acquire some or all of the Tendered Units pursuant to this Section 15.1.B, the obligation of the Company to effect a Redemption of the Tendered Units as to which CLNY's notice relates shall not accrue or arise. A number of Class A REIT Shares equal to the product of the Applicable Percentage and the REIT Shares Amount, if applicable, shall be delivered by CLNY as duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable Class A REIT Shares and, if applicable, Rights, free of any pledge, lien, encumbrance or restriction, other than the Ownership Limit and other restrictions provided in the Charter, the Securities Act and relevant state securities or blue sky laws. If the amount of Class A REIT Shares to be issued in exchange for the Tendered Units is not a whole number of Class A REIT Shares, the Tendering Party shall be paid (i) that number of Class A REIT Shares that equals the nearest whole number less than such amount plus (ii) an amount of cash that CLNY determines, in its reasonable discretion, to represent the fair value of the remaining fractional Class A REIT Share that would otherwise be payable to the Tendering Party. Neither any Tendering Party whose Tendered Units are acquired by CLNY pursuant to this Section 15.1.B, any Member, any Assignee nor any other interested Person shall have any right to require or cause CLNY to register, qualify or list any Class A REIT Shares owned or held by such Person, whether or not such Class A REIT Shares are issued pursuant to this Section 15.1.B, with the SEC, with any state securities commissioner, department or agency, under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act or with any stock exchange; provided, however, that this limitation shall not be in derogation of any registration or similar rights granted pursuant to any other written agreement (including any Non-Managing Member Ancillary Agreement) between CLNY and any such Person. Notwithstanding any delay in such delivery, the Tendering Party shall be deemed the owner of such Class A REIT Shares and Rights for all purposes, including rights to vote or consent, receive dividends, and exercise rights, as of the Specified Redemption Date. Class A REIT Shares issued upon an acquisition of the Tendered Units by CLNY pursuant to this Section 15.1.B may contain such legends regarding restrictions under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws as CLNY in good faith determines to be necessary or advisable in order to ensure compliance with such laws and CLNY's charter.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 15.1.A, 15.1.B and 15.1.I hereof, (i) no Person shall be entitled to effect a Redemption for cash or an exchange for Class A REIT Shares to the extent the ownership or right to acquire Class A REIT Shares pursuant to such exchange on the Specified Redemption Date could cause such Person (or any other Person) to violate the restrictions on ownership and transfer of Class A REIT Shares set forth in the Charter, after giving effect to any waivers or modifications of such restrictions by the Board of Directors, and (ii) no Person shall have any rights under this Agreement to acquire Class A REIT Shares which would otherwise be prohibited under the Charter, after giving effect to any waivers or modifications of such restrictions by the Board of Directors.

D. In the event of a Declination:

(1) CLNY shall give notice of such Declination to the Tendering Party on or before the close of business on the Cut-Off Date. The failure of CLNY to give notice of such Declination by the close of business on the Cut-Off Date shall be deemed to be an election by CLNY to acquire the Tendered Units in exchange for REIT Shares.

(2) The Company may elect to raise funds for the payment of the Cash Amount either (a) by requiring that CLNY contribute to the Company funds from the proceeds of a registered public offering by CLNY of Class A REIT Shares sufficient to purchase the Tendered Units or (b) from any other sources (including the sale of any Property and the incurrence of additional Debt) available to the Company.

(3) If the Cash Amount is not paid on or before the Specified Redemption Date, interest shall accrue with respect to the Cash Amount from the day after the Specified Redemption Date to and including the date on which the Cash Amount is paid at a rate equal to the Applicable Federal Short-Term Rate as published monthly by the IRS.

E. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 15.1.B hereof or Section 15.1.I hereof, if CLNY's acquisition of Tendered Units in exchange for the REIT Shares Amount would be prohibited under the Charter, then (i) CLNY shall not elect to acquire such Tendered Units, and (ii) the Company shall not be obligated to effect a Redemption of such Tendered Units. For the avoidance of doubt, unless CLNY's acquisition of Tendered Units in exchange for the REIT Shares Amount would be prohibited under the Charter, if Tendered Units are not exchanged for Class A REIT Shares, then the Cash Amount will be paid to the Tendering Party in accordance with the terms of Section 15.1.A hereof.

F. Each Non-Managing Member covenants and agrees that all Membership Common Units delivered for redemption shall be delivered to the Company or CLNY, as the case may be, free and clear of all liens; and, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, neither CLNY nor the Company shall be under any obligation to acquire Membership Common Units which are or may be subject to any liens. Each Non-Managing Member further agrees that, if any stamp, recording, documentary or similar tax is payable with respect to the Membership Common Units as a result of the transfer thereof to the Company or the CLNY, such Tendering Party shall assume and pay such tax.

G. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary (but subject to Section 15.1.C hereof), with respect to any Redemption (or any tender of Membership Common Units for Redemption if the Tendered Units are acquired by CLNY pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof) pursuant to this Section 15.1:

(1) Without the consent of the Managing Member, no Tendering Party may effect a Redemption for less than [one thousand sixty-five (1,065)] Membership Common Units or for any number of Membership Common Units that is not a multiple of [seventy-one (71)] or, if such Tendering Party holds less than [one thousand sixty-five (1,065)] Membership Common Units, all of the Membership Common Units held by such Tendering Party.

(2) If (i) a Tendering Party surrenders Tendered Units during the period after the Company Record Date with respect to a distribution payable to Holders of Membership Common Units, and before the record date established by CLNY for a dividend to its stockholders of some or all of its portion of such Company distribution, and (ii) CLNY elects to acquire any of such Tendered Units in exchange for Class A REIT Shares pursuant to Section 15.1.B, then such Tendering Party shall pay to CLNY on the Specified Redemption Date an amount in cash equal to the Company distribution paid or payable in respect of such Tendered Units.

(3) The consummation of such Redemption (or an acquisition of Tendered Units by CLNY pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof, as the case may be) shall be subject to the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period, if any, under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended.

(4) The Tendering Party shall continue to own (subject, in the case of an Assignee, to the provisions of Section 11.5 hereof) all Membership Common Units subject to any Redemption, and be treated as a Member or an Assignee, as applicable, with respect to such Membership Common Units for all purposes of this Agreement, until the Specified Redemption Date and until such Tendered Units are either paid for by the Company pursuant to Section 15.1.A hereof or transferred to CLNY and paid for, by the issuance of Class A REIT Shares, pursuant to Section 15.1.B. Until a Specified Redemption Date and an acquisition of the Tendered Units by CLNY pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof, the Tendering Party shall have no rights as a stockholder of CLNY with respect to the REIT Shares issuable in connection with such acquisition.

H. In connection with the exercise of Redemption rights pursuant to this Section 15.1, unless waived by CLNY, the Tendering Party shall submit the following to CLNY, in addition to the Notice of Redemption:

(1) A written affidavit, dated the same date as the Notice of Redemption, (a) disclosing the Beneficial and Constructive ownership (as defined in CLNY's charter), as determined for purposes of Code Sections 856(a)(6) and 856(h), of REIT Shares by (i) such Tendering Party and (ii) to the best of such Tendering Party's knowledge, any Related Party, and (b) representing that, after giving effect to an acquisition of the Tendered Units by CLNY pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof, neither the Tendering Party nor, to the best of such Tendering Party's knowledge, any Related Party, will Beneficially or Constructively own (as defined in CLNY's charter) REIT Shares in excess of the Ownership Limit;

(2) A written representation that neither the Tendering Party nor, to the best of such Tendering Party's knowledge, any Related Party, has any intention to acquire Beneficial or Constructive ownership (as defined in CLNY's charter) of any additional REIT Shares prior to the Specified Redemption Date; and

(3) An undertaking to certify, at and as a condition to the closing of (i) the Redemption or (ii) the acquisition of the Tendered Units by CLNY pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof on the Specified Redemption Date, that either (a) the Beneficial and Constructive ownership (as defined in CLNY's charter) of REIT Shares by the Tendering Party and, to the best of such Tendering Party's knowledge, any Related Party, remain unchanged from that disclosed in the affidavit required by Section 15.1.H(1), or (b) after giving effect to the Redemption or an acquisition of the Tendered Units by CLNY pursuant to Section 15.1.B hereof, neither the Tendering Party nor, to the best of such Tendering Party's knowledge, any Related Party, shall Beneficially or Constructively own (as defined in CLNY's charter) REIT Shares in violation of the Ownership Limit.

(4) In connection with any Special Redemption, CLNY shall have the right to receive an opinion of counsel reasonably satisfactory to it to the effect that the proposed Special Redemption will not cause the Company, the Managing Member or CLNY to violate any Federal or state securities laws or regulations applicable to the Special Redemption or the issuance and sale of REIT Shares to the Tendering Party pursuant to Section 15.1.B of this Agreement.

I. Stock Offering Funding Option.

(1) (a) Notwithstanding Sections 15.1.A or 15.1.B hereof (but subject to Sections 15.1.C and 15.1.F hereof), if (i) a Non-Managing Member has delivered to the Managing Member a Notice of Redemption that would result in Excess Units (together with any other Tendered Units that such Non-Managing Member agrees to treat as Excess Units, the Offering Units), and (ii) CLNY is eligible to file a registration statement under Form S-3 (or any successor form similar thereto), then CLNY may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, to cause the Company to redeem the Offering Units with the net proceeds of an offering, whether registered under the Securities Act or exempt from such registration, underwritten, offered and sold directly to investors or through agents or other intermediaries, or otherwise distributed (a Stock Offering Funding) of a number of Class A REIT Shares (Offered Shares) equal to or greater than the REIT Shares Amount with respect to the Offering Units pursuant to the terms of this Section 15.1.I. CLNY must provide notice of their exercise of the election described in clause (x) above to purchase the Tendered Units through a Stock Offering Funding on or before the Cut-Off Date.

(b) If CLNY elects a Stock Offering Funding with respect to a Notice of Redemption, the Managing Member may give notice (a Single Funding Notice) of such election to all Non-Managing Members and require that all Members elect whether or not to effect a Redemption to be funded through such Stock Offering Funding. If a Non-Managing Member elects to effect such a Redemption, it shall give notice thereof and of the number of Common Units to be made subject thereto in writing to the Managing Member within 10 Business Days after receipt of the Single Funding Notice, and such Non-Managing Member shall be treated as a Tendering Party for all purposes of this Section 15.1.I.

(2) If CLNY elects a Stock Offering Funding, on the Specified Redemption Date, the Company shall redeem each Offering Unit that is still a Tendered Unit on such date for cash in immediately available funds in an amount (the Stock Offering Funding Amount) equal to the net proceeds per Offered Share received by CLNY from the Stock Offering Funding, determined after deduction of underwriting discounts and commissions but no other expenses of CLNY or any other Non-Managing Member related thereto, including legal and accounting fees and expenses, SEC registration fees, state blue sky and securities laws fees and expenses, printing expenses, FINRA filing fees, exchange listing fees and other out of pocket expenses (the Net Proceeds).

A-314

(3) If CLNY elects a Stock Offering Funding, the following additional terms and conditions shall apply:

(a) As soon as practicable after CLNY elects to effect a Stock Offering Funding, CLNY shall use its reasonable efforts to effect as promptly as possible a registration, qualification or compliance (including the execution of an undertaking to file post-effective amendments, appropriate qualifications under applicable blue sky or other state securities laws and appropriate compliance with applicable regulations issued under the Securities Act and any other governmental requirements or regulations) as would permit or facilitate the sale and distribution of the Offered Shares; provided, that, if CLNY shall deliver a certificate to the Tendering Party stating that CLNY has determined in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors that such filing, registration or qualification would require disclosure of material non-public information, the disclosure of which would have a material adverse effect on CLNY, then CLNY may delay making any filing or delay the effectiveness of any registration or qualification for the shorter of (a) the period ending on the date upon which such information is disclosed to the public or ceases to be material or (b) an aggregate period of ninety (90) days in connection with any Stock Offering Funding.

(b) CLNY shall advise each Tendering Party, regularly and promptly upon any request, of the status of the Stock Offering Funding process, including the timing of all filings, the selection of and understandings with underwriters, agents, dealers and brokers, the nature and contents of all communications with the SEC and other governmental bodies, the expenses related to the Stock Offering Funding as they are being incurred, the nature of marketing activities, and any other matters reasonably related to the timing, price and expenses relating to the Stock Offering Funding and the compliance by CLNY with its obligations with respect thereto. CLNY will have reasonable procedures whereby the Tendering Party with the largest number of Offered Units (the Lead Tendering Party) may represent all the Tendering Parties in connection with the Stock Offering Funding by allowing it to participate in meetings with the underwriters of the Stock Offering Funding. In addition, CLNY and each Tendering Party may, but shall be under no obligation to, enter into understandings in writing (Pricing Agreements) whereby the Tendering Party will agree in advance as to the acceptability of a Net Proceeds amount at or below a specified amount. Furthermore, CLNY shall establish pricing notification procedures with each such Tendering Party, such that the Tendering Member will have the maximum opportunity practicable to determine whether to become a Withdrawing Member pursuant to Section 15.1.I(3)(c) below.

(c) CLNY, upon notification of the price per Class A REIT Share in the Stock Offering Funding from the managing underwriter(s), in the case of a registered public offering, or lead placement agent(s), in the event of an unregistered offering, engaged by CLNY in order to sell the Offered Shares, shall immediately use its reasonable efforts to notify each Tendering Party of the price per REIT Share in the Stock Offering Funding and resulting Net Proceeds. Each Tendering Party shall have one hour from the receipt of such written notice (as such time may be extended by CLNY) to elect to withdraw its Redemption (a Tendering Party making such an election being a Withdrawing Member), and Membership Common Units with a REIT Shares Amount equal to such excluded Offered Shares shall be considered to be withdrawn from the related Redemption; provided, however, that CLNY shall keep each of the Tendering Parties reasonably informed as to the likely timing of delivery of its notice. If a Tendering Party, within such time period, does not notify CLNY of such Tendering Party's election not to become a Withdrawing Member, then such Tendering Party shall, except as otherwise provided in a Pricing Agreement, be deemed not to have withdrawn from the Redemption, without liability to CLNY. To the extent that CLNY is unable to notify any Tendering Party, such unnotified Tendering Party shall, except as otherwise provided in any Pricing Agreement, be deemed not to have elected to become a Withdrawing Member. Each Tendering Party whose Redemption is being funded through the Stock Offering Funding who does not become a Withdrawing Member shall have the right, subject to the approval of the managing underwriter(s) or placement agent(s) and restrictions of any applicable securities laws, to submit for Redemption additional Membership Common Units in a number no greater than the number of Membership Common Units withdrawn. If more than one Tendering Party so elects to redeem additional Membership Common Units, then such Membership Common Units shall be redeemed on a pro rata basis, based on the number of additional Membership Common Units sought to be so redeemed.

A-315

Table of Contents

(d) CLNY shall take all reasonable action in order to effectuate the sale of the Offered Shares including the entering into of an underwriting or placement agreement in customary form with the managing underwriter(s) or placement agent(s) selected for such underwriting. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if the managing underwriter(s) or placement agent(s) advises CLNY in writing that marketing factors require a limitation of the number of shares to be offered, then CLNY shall so advise all Tendering Parties and the number of Membership Common Units to be sold to CLNY pursuant to the Redemption shall be allocated among all Tendering Parties in proportion, as nearly as practicable, to the respective number of Membership Common Units as to which each Tendering Party elected to effect a Redemption. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if CLNY is also offering to sell shares for purposes other than to fund the redemption of Offering Units and to pay related expenses, then those other shares may in CLNY's sole and absolute discretion be given priority over any shares to be sold in the Stock Offering Funding, and any shares to be sold in the Stock Offering Funding shall be removed from the offering prior to removing shares the proceeds of which would be used for other purposes of CLNY. No Offered Shares excluded from the underwriting by reason of the managing underwriter's or placement agent's marketing limitation shall be included in such offering.

Section 15.2 Addresses and Notice. Any notice, demand, request or report required or permitted to be given or made to a Member or Assignee under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given or made when delivered in person or when sent by first class United States mail or by other means of written or electronic communication (including by telecopy, facsimile, electronic mail or commercial courier service) to the Member, or Assignee at the address for such Member set forth in the Register, or such other address of which the Member shall notify the Managing Member in accordance with this Section 15.2.

Section 15.3 Titles and Captions. All article or Section titles or captions in this Agreement are for convenience only. They shall not be deemed part of this Agreement and in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope or intent of any provisions hereof.

Section 15.4 Further Action. The parties shall execute and deliver all documents, provide all information and take or refrain from taking action as may be necessary or appropriate to achieve the purposes of this Agreement.

Section 15.5 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, legal representatives and permitted assigns.

Section 15.6 Waiver.

A. No failure by any party to insist upon the strict performance of any covenant, duty, agreement or condition of this Agreement or to exercise any right or remedy consequent upon a breach thereof shall constitute waiver of any such breach or any other covenant, duty, agreement or condition.

B. The restrictions, conditions and other limitations on the rights and benefits of the Members contained in this Agreement, and the duties, covenants and other requirements of performance or notice by the Members, are for the benefit of the Company and may be waived or relinquished by the Managing Member, in its sole and absolute discretion, on behalf of the Company in one or more instances from time to time and at any time; provided, however, that any such waiver or relinquishment may not be made if it would have the effect of (i) creating liability for any other Member, (ii) causing the Company to cease to qualify as a limited liability company, (iii) reducing the amount of cash otherwise distributable to the Members (other than any such reduction that affects all of the Members holding the same class or series of Membership Units on a uniform or pro rata basis, if approved by a Majority in Interest of the Non-Managing Members holding such class or series of Membership Units), (iv) resulting in the classification of the Company as an association or publicly traded partnership taxable as a corporation or (v) violating the Securities

Act, the Exchange Act or any state blue sky or other securities laws; provided, further, that any waiver relating to compliance with the Ownership Limit or other restrictions in the Charter shall be made and shall be effective only as provided in the Charter.

Section 15.7 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, all of which together shall constitute one agreement binding on all the parties hereto, notwithstanding that all such parties are not signatories to the original or the same counterpart. Each party shall become bound by this Agreement immediately upon affixing its signature hereto.

Section 15.8 Applicable Law; Consent to Jurisdiction; Jury Trial.

A. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the principles of conflicts of law. In the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and any non-mandatory provision of the Act, the provisions of this Agreement shall control and take precedence.

B. Each Member hereby (i) submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Delaware Court of Chancery or, if such court does not have subject matter jurisdiction, any federal court sitting in the State of Delaware (collectively, the Delaware Courts), with respect to any dispute arising out of this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby to the extent such courts would have subject matter jurisdiction with respect to such dispute, (ii) irrevocably waives, and agrees not to assert by way of motion, defense, or otherwise, in any such action, any claim that it is not subject personally to the jurisdiction of any of the Delaware Courts, that its property is exempt or immune from attachment or execution, that the action is brought in an inconvenient forum, or that the venue of the action is improper, (iii) agrees that notice or the service of process in any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be properly served or delivered if delivered to such Member at such Member's last known address as set forth in the Company's books and records, and (iv) IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 15.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement contains all of the understandings and agreements between and among the Members with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and the rights, interests and obligations of the Members with respect to the Company. Notwithstanding any provision in this Agreement or any Membership Unit Designation to the contrary, including any provisions relating to amending this Agreement, the Members hereby acknowledge and agree that the Managing Member, without the approval of any other Member, may enter into side letters or similar written agreements with Members that are not Affiliates of the Managing Member or CLNY, executed contemporaneously with the admission of such Member to the Company, which may have the effect of establishing rights under, or altering or supplementing the terms of, this Agreement or any Membership Unit Designation, as negotiated with such Member and which the Managing Member in its sole and absolute discretion deems necessary, desirable or appropriate. The parties hereto agree that any terms, conditions or provisions contained in such side letters or similar written agreements with a Member shall govern with respect to such Member notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 15.10 Invalidity of Provisions. If any provision of this Agreement is or becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not be affected thereby.

Section 15.11 Limitation to Preserve REIT Status. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, with respect to any period in which CLNY has elected to be treated as a REIT for federal income tax purposes, to the extent that the amount paid, credited, distributed or reimbursed by the Company to any REIT Member or its officers, directors, employees or agents, whether as a reimbursement, fee, expense or indemnity (a REIT Payment), would constitute gross income to the REIT Member (as determined for purposes of Code Section 856(c)(2) or Code Section 856(c)(3)), then, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the amount of such REIT Payments, as selected by the

Managing Member in its discretion from among items of potential distribution, reimbursement, fees, expenses and indemnities, shall be reduced for any Fiscal Year so that the REIT Payments, as so reduced, for or with respect to such REIT Member shall not exceed the lesser of:

(i) an amount equal to the excess, if any, of (a) four and nine-tenths percent (4.9%) of the REIT Member's total gross income (but excluding the amount of any REIT Payments) for the Fiscal Year that is described in subsections (A) through (I) of Code Section 856(c)(2) over (b) the amount of gross income (within the meaning of Code Section 856(c)(2)) derived by the REIT Member from sources other than those described in subsections (A) through (I) of Code Section 856(c)(2) (but not including the amount of any REIT Payments); or

(ii) an amount equal to the excess, if any, of (a) twenty-four percent (24%) of the REIT Member's total gross income (but excluding the amount of any REIT Payments) for the Fiscal Year that is described in subsections (A) through (I) of Code Section 856(c)(3) over (b) the amount of gross income (within the meaning of Code Section 856(c)(3)) derived by the REIT Member from sources other than those described in subsections (A) through (I) of Code Section 856(c)(3) (but not including the amount of any REIT Payments); provided, however, that REIT Payments in excess of the amounts set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above may be made if the Managing Member, as a condition precedent, obtains an opinion of tax counsel that the receipt of such excess amounts should not adversely affect the REIT Member's ability to qualify as a REIT. To the extent that REIT Payments may not be made in a Fiscal Year as a consequence of the limitations set forth in this Section 15.11, such REIT Payments shall carry over and shall be treated as arising in the following Fiscal Year if such carry over does not adversely affect the REIT Member's ability to qualify as a REIT provided, however, that such amounts shall not carry over for more than five Fiscal Years, and if not paid within such five Fiscal Year period, shall expire; and provided further that (i) as REIT Payments are made, such payments shall be applied first to carry over amounts outstanding, if any, and (ii) with respect to carry over amounts for more than one Fiscal Year, such payments shall be applied to the earliest Fiscal Year first. The purpose of the limitations contained in this Section 15.11 is to prevent any REIT Member from failing to qualify as a REIT under the Code by reason of such REIT Member's share of items, including distributions, reimbursements, fees, expenses or indemnities, receivable directly or indirectly from the Company, and this Section 15.11 shall be interpreted and applied to effectuate such purpose.

Section 15.12 No Partition. No Member nor any successor-in-interest to a Member shall have the right while this Agreement remains in effect to have any property of the Company partitioned, or to file a complaint or institute any proceeding at law or in equity to have such property of the Company partitioned, and each Member, on behalf of itself and its successors and assigns hereby waives any such right. It is the intention of the Members that the rights of the parties hereto and their successors-in-interest to Company property, as among themselves, shall be governed by the terms of this Agreement, and that the rights of the Members and their respective successors-in-interest shall be subject to the limitations and restrictions as set forth in this Agreement.

Section 15.13 No Third-Party Rights Created Hereby. The provisions of this Agreement are solely for the purpose of defining the interests of the Holders, inter se; and no other person, firm or entity (i.e., a party who is not a signatory hereto or a permitted successor to such signatory hereto) shall have any right, power, title or interest by way of subrogation or otherwise, in and to the rights, powers, title and provisions of this Agreement. No creditor or other third party having dealings with the Company (other than as expressly set forth herein with respect to Indemnities) shall have the right to enforce the right or obligation of any Member to make Capital Contributions or loans to the Company or to pursue any other right or remedy hereunder or at law or in equity. None of the rights or obligations of the Members herein set forth to make Capital Contributions or loans to the Company shall be deemed an asset of the Company for any purpose by any creditor or other third party, nor may any such rights or obligations be sold, Transferred or assigned by the Company or pledged or encumbered by the Company to secure any debt or other obligation of the Company or any of the Members.

Section 15.14 No Rights as Stockholders. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring upon the Holders of Membership Units any rights whatsoever as stockholders of CLNY, including any right to receive dividends or other distributions made to stockholders of CLNY or to vote or to consent or receive notice as stockholders in respect of any meeting of stockholders for the election of directors of CLNY or any other matter.

Table of ContentsEXHIBIT A: EXAMPLES REGARDING ADJUSTMENT FACTOR

For purposes of the following examples, it is assumed that (a) the Adjustment Factor in effect on [December 31, 2015] is 1.0 and (b) on [January 1, 2016] (the Company Record Date for purposes of these examples), prior to the events described in the examples, there are 100 REIT Shares issued and outstanding.

Example 1

On the Company Record Date, CLNY declares a dividend on its outstanding REIT Shares in REIT Shares. The amount of the dividend is one REIT Share paid in respect of each REIT Share owned. Pursuant to Paragraph (i) of the definition of Adjustment Factor, the Adjustment Factor shall be adjusted on the Company Record Date, effective immediately after the stock dividend is declared, as follows:

$$1.0 * 200/100 = 2.0$$

Example 2

On the Company Record Date, CLNY distributes options to purchase REIT Shares to all holders of its REIT Shares. The amount of the distribution is one option to acquire one REIT Share in respect of each REIT Share owned. The strike price is $4.00 a share. The Value of a REIT Share on the Company Record Date is $5.00 per share. Pursuant to Paragraph (ii) of the definition of Adjustment Factor, the Adjustment Factor shall be adjusted on the Company Record Date, effective immediately after the options are distributed, as follows:

$$1.0 * (100 + 100)/(100 + [100 * $4.00/$5.00]) = 1.1111$$

Accordingly, the Adjustment Factor after the options are distributed is 1.1111. If the options expire or become no longer exercisable, then the retroactive adjustment specified in Paragraph (ii) of the definition of Adjustment Factor shall apply.

Example 3

On the Company Record Date, CLNY distributes assets to all holders of its REIT Shares. The amount of the distribution is one asset with a fair market value (as determined by the Managing Member) of $1.00 in respect of each REIT Share owned. It is also assumed that the assets do not relate to assets received by the Managing Member pursuant to a pro rata distribution by the Company. The Value of a REIT Share on the Company Record Date is $5.00 a share. Pursuant to Paragraph (iii) of the definition of Adjustment Factor, the Adjustment Factor shall be adjusted on the Company Record Date, effective immediately after the assets are distributed, as follows:

$$1.0 * $5.00/($5.00 - $1.00) = 1.25$$

Accordingly, the Adjustment Factor after the assets are distributed is 1.25.

(iii) No Person shall Transfer any shares of Capital Stock if, as a result of the Transfer, the Capital Stock would be beneficially owned by fewer than 100 Persons (determined without reference to the rules of attribution under Section 544 of the Code). Subject to Section 7.4 and notwithstanding any other provisions contained herein, any Transfer of shares of Capital Stock (whether or not such Transfer is the result of a transaction entered into through the facilities of the NYSE or any other national securities exchange or automated inter-dealer quotation system) that, if effective, would result in the Capital Stock being beneficially owned by fewer than 100 Persons (determined under the principles of Section 856(a)(5) of the Code) shall be void ab initio, and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Capital Stock.

(iv) If and to the extent a Person Beneficially Owns or Constructively Owns, at the end of the day immediately before the Initial Date, shares of Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit, for purposes of applying Section 7.2.1(a)(i)(1) to such Person, 9.8% (or such lesser percentage of Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of the Person of shares of Common Stock (in value or in number of shares, whichever is more restrictive), determined at the end of the date before the Initial Date) shall be substituted in the definition of Common Stock Ownership Limit for 8% (in value or in number of shares, whichever is more restrictive) (such substitute percentage, as reduced pursuant to the following proviso, the Substitute Percentage); provided, however, that if and to the extent that such Person's Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership, as applicable, of shares of Common Stock (in value or in number of shares, whichever is more restrictive) is reduced for any reason to a percentage below the Substitute Percentage (as reduced pursuant to this proviso) the Substitute Percentage for such Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership, as applicable, as applied to such Person, shall automatically become that reduced percentage (but not below the Common Stock Ownership Limit (as determined without regard to this Section 7.2.1(a)(iv)); and provided further that, for the sake of clarity, this Section 7.2.1(a)(iv) shall not limit the application of Section 7.2.1(a)(i) (other than Section 7.2.1(a)(i)(1)), Section 7.2.1(a)(ii), Section 7.2.1(a)(iii), and Section 7.2(b)).

(b) Transfer in Trust. If any Transfer of shares of Capital Stock (whether or not such Transfer is the result of a transaction entered into through the facilities of the NYSE or any other national securities exchange or automated inter-dealer quotation system) occurs which, if effective, would result in any Person Beneficially Owning or Constructively Owning shares of Capital Stock in violation of Section 7.2.1(a)(i) or (ii),

(i) then that number of shares of Capital Stock the Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of which otherwise would cause such Person to violate Section 7.2.1(a)(i) or (ii) (rounded up to the nearest whole share) shall be automatically transferred to a Charitable Trust for the benefit of a Charitable Beneficiary, as described in Section 7.3, effective as of the close of business on the Business Day prior to the date of such Transfer, and such Person shall acquire no rights in such shares of Capital Stock; or

(ii) if the transfer to the Charitable Trust described in clause (i) of this sentence would not be effective for any reason to prevent the violation of Section 7.2.1(a)(i) or (ii), or would not prevent the Corporation from failing to qualify as a REIT, then the Transfer of that number of shares of Capital Stock that otherwise would cause any Person to violate Section 7.2.1(a)(i) or (ii) shall be void ab initio, and the intended transferee shall acquire no rights in such shares of Capital Stock.

Section 7.2.2 Remedies for Breach. If the Board of Directors of the Corporation or any duly authorized committee thereof shall at any time determine in good faith that a Transfer or other event has taken place that results in a violation of Section 7.2.1 or that a Person intends to acquire or has attempted to acquire Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of any shares of Capital Stock in violation of Section 7.2.1 (whether or not such violation is intended), the Board of Directors or a committee thereof shall take such action as it deems advisable to refuse to give effect to or to prevent such Transfer or other event, including, without limitation, causing the Corporation to redeem shares, refusing to give effect to such Transfer on the books of the Corporation or instituting proceedings to enjoin such Transfer or other event; provided, however, that any Transfer or attempted Transfer or other event in violation of Section 7.2.1 shall automatically result in the transfer to the Charitable Trust described above, and, where applicable, such Transfer (or other event) shall be void ab initio as provided above irrespective of any action (or non-action) by the Board of Directors or a committee thereof.

Section 7.2.3 Notice of Restricted Transfer. Any Person who acquires or attempts or intends to acquire Beneficial Ownership or Constructive Ownership of shares of Capital Stock that will or may violate Section 7.2.1(a), or any Person who would have owned shares of Capital Stock that resulted in a transfer to the Charitable Trust pursuant to the provisions of Section 7.2.1(b), shall immediately give written notice to the Corporation of such event or, in the case of such a proposed or attempted transaction, shall give at least fifteen (15) days prior written notice, and shall provide to the Corporation such other information as the Corporation may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such acquisition or ownership on the Corporation's status as a REIT.

Section 7.2.4 Owners Required To Provide Information. From the Initial Date and prior to the Restriction Termination Date:

(a) every owner of more than five percent (5%) (or such lower percentage as required by the Code or the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder) of the outstanding shares of Capital Stock, within thirty (30) days after the end of each taxable year, shall give written notice to the Corporation stating the name and address of such owner, the number of shares of each class or series of Capital Stock Beneficially Owned and a description of the manner in which such shares are held; provided, that a stockholder of record who holds outstanding shares of Capital Stock as nominee for another Person, which other Person is required to include in gross income the dividends or distributions received on such shares (an Actual Owner), shall give written notice to the Corporation stating the name and address of such Actual Owner and the number of shares of such Actual Owner with respect to which the stockholder of record is nominee. Each such owner shall provide to the Corporation such additional information as the Corporation may request in order to determine the effect, if any, of such Beneficial Ownership on the Corporation's status as a REIT and to ensure compliance with ~~the Common Stock Ownership Limit and the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit~~Section 7.2.1(a) (including information about a Person's qualification as a Designated Investment Entity); and

(b) each Person who is a Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner of Capital Stock and each Person (including the stockholder of record) who is holding Capital Stock for a Beneficial Owner or Constructive Owner shall provide to the Corporation such information as the Corporation may request, in good faith, in order to determine the Corporation's status as a REIT and to comply with requirements of any taxing authority or governmental authority or to determine such compliance and to ensure compliance with ~~the Common Stock Ownership Limit and the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit~~Section 7.2.1(a) (including information about a Person's qualification as a Designated Investment Entity).

Section 7.2.5 Remedies Not Limited. Subject to Sections 5.4 and 7.4 of the Charter, nothing contained in this Section 7.2 shall limit the authority of the Board of Directors to take such other action as it deems necessary or advisable to protect the Corporation and the interests of its stockholders in preserving the Corporation's qualification as a REIT.

Section 7.2.6 Ambiguity. In the case of an ambiguity in the application of any of the provisions of this Section 7.2, Section 7.3 or any definition contained in Section 7.1, the Board of Directors shall have the power to determine the application of the provisions of this Section 7.2 or Section 7.3 with respect to any situation based on the facts known to it. If Section 7.2 or 7.3 requires an action by the Board of Directors and the Charter fails to provide specific guidance with respect to such action, the Board of Directors shall have the power to determine the action to be taken so long as such action is not contrary to the provisions of Sections 7.1, 7.2 or 7.3.

Section 7.2.7 Exemptions.

(a) The Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, may exempt, prospectively or retroactively, a Person from the Common Stock Ownership Limit ~~and/or~~, the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit, or the Designated Investment Entity Limit if: (i) such Person submits to the Board of Directors information satisfactory to the Board of Directors, in its reasonable discretion, demonstrating that such Person is not an individual for purposes of Section 542(a)(2) of the Code (determined taking into account Section 856(h)(3)(A) of the Code); (ii) such Person submits to the Board of Directors information satisfactory to the Board, in its reasonable discretion, demonstrating that no Person who is an individual for purposes of Section 542(a)(2) of the Code (determined taking into account Section 856(h)(3)(A) of the Code) would be considered to Beneficially Own shares of Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or Preferred Stock in excess of the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit by reason of such Person's ownership of Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or, for a Designated Investment Entity, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, or Preferred Stock in excess of the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit pursuant to the exemption granted under this subparagraph (a); (iii) such Person submits to the Board of Directors information satisfactory to the Board of Directors, in its reasonable discretion, demonstrating that clauses (1), (2) and (3) of subparagraph (a)(ii) of Section 7.2.1 will not be violated by reason of such Person's ownership of Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or, for a Designated Investment Entity, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, or Preferred Stock in excess of the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit pursuant to the exemption granted under this subparagraph 7.2.7(a); and (iv) such Person provides to the Board of Directors such representations and undertakings, if any, as the Board of Directors may, in its reasonable discretion, require to ensure that the conditions in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) hereof are satisfied and will continue to be satisfied throughout the period during which such Person owns Common Stock in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or, for a Designated Investment Entity, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, or Preferred Stock in

(b) Prior to granting any exemption pursuant to subparagraph (a), the Board of Directors, in its sole and absolute discretion, may require a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel, in either case in form and substance satisfactory to the Board of Directors, in its sole and absolute discretion as it may deem necessary or advisable in order to determine or ensure the Corporation's status as a REIT; provided, however, that the Board of Directors shall not be obligated to require obtaining a favorable ruling or opinion in order to grant an exception hereunder.

(c) Subject to Section 7.2.1(a)(ii), an underwriter that participates in a public offering or a private placement of Capital Stock (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Capital Stock) may Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for Capital Stock) in excess of the Common Stock Ownership Limit, Designated Investment Entity Limit, or the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit, but only to the extent necessary to facilitate such public offering or private placement.

(d) In connection with granting any exemption or waiver pursuant to Section 7.2.7(a), the Board of Directors may include such terms and conditions in such waiver as it determines are advisable.

Section 7.2.8 Increase in the Common Stock Ownership, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, and the Preferred Stock Ownership Limits. Subject to the limitations provided in Section 7.2.1(a)(ii) and this Section 7.2.8, the Board of Directors may from time to time increase the Common Stock Ownership Limit, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, and/or the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit; provided, however, that:

(a) None of the Common Stock Ownership Limit, Designated Investment Entity Limit, and the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit may ~~not~~ be increased if, after giving effect to such change, five Persons who are considered individuals pursuant to Section 542 of the Code, as modified by Section 856(h)(3) of the Code, could Beneficially Own, in the aggregate, more than 49.9% of the value of the outstanding Capital Stock; and

(b) Prior to the modification of the Common Stock Ownership Limit, the Designated Investment Entity Limit, or the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit pursuant to this Section 7.2.8, the Board of Directors, in its sole and absolute discretion, may require such opinions of counsel, affidavits, undertakings or agreements as it may deem necessary or advisable in order to determine or ensure the Corporation's status as a REIT if the modification of the Common Stock Ownership Limit or the Preferred Stock Ownership Limit were to be made.

Section 7.2.9 Legend. Each certificate for shares of Capital Stock shall bear substantially the following legend:

Any Person who Beneficially Owns or Constructively Owns, Transfers or attempts to Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock which causes or will cause a Person to Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock in excess or in violation of the above limitations set forth must immediately notify the Corporation. If certain of the restrictions on transfer or ownership are violated, the shares of Capital Stock represented hereby will be automatically transferred to a Charitable Trustee of a Charitable Trust for the benefit of one or more Charitable Beneficiaries. In addition, upon the occurrence of certain events, attempted Transfers in violation of the restrictions described above may be void ab initio. A Person who attempts to Beneficially Own or Constructively Own shares of Capital Stock in violation of the ownership limitations described above shall have no claim, cause of action, or any recourse whatsoever against a transferor of such shares.

Section 7.3 Transfer of Shares in Trust.

Section 7.3.1 Ownership in Trust. Upon any purported Transfer or other event described in Section 7.2.1(b) that would result in a transfer of shares of Capital Stock to a Charitable Trust, such shares of Capital Stock shall be deemed to have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee as trustee of a Charitable Trust for the exclusive benefit of one or more Charitable Beneficiaries. Such transfer to the Charitable Trustee shall be deemed to be effective as of the close of business on the Business Day prior to the purported Transfer or other event that results in the transfer to the Charitable Trust pursuant to Section 7.2.1(b). The Charitable Trustee shall be appointed by the Corporation and shall be a Person unaffiliated with the Corporation and any Prohibited Owner. Each Charitable Beneficiary shall be designated by the Corporation as provided in Section 7.3.7.

Section 7.3.2 Status of Shares Held by the Charitable Trustee. Shares of Capital Stock held by the Charitable Trustee shall be issued and outstanding shares of Capital Stock of the Corporation. The Prohibited Owner shall have no rights in the shares held by the Charitable Trustee. The Prohibited Owner shall not benefit economically from ownership of any shares held in trust by the Charitable Trustee, shall have no rights to dividends or other distributions and shall not possess any rights to vote or other rights attributable to the shares held in the Charitable Trust. The Prohibited Owner shall have no claim, cause of action, or any other recourse whatsoever against the purported transferor of such shares of Capital Stock.

Section 7.3.3 Dividend and Voting Rights. The Charitable Trustee shall have all voting rights and rights to dividends or other distributions with respect to shares of Capital Stock held in the Charitable Trust, which rights shall be exercised for the exclusive benefit of the Charitable Beneficiary. Any dividend or other distribution paid prior to the discovery by the Corporation that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee shall be paid with respect to such shares to the Charitable Trustee upon demand and any dividend or other distribution authorized but unpaid shall be paid when due to the Charitable Trustee. Any dividends or distributions so paid over to the Charitable Trustee shall be held in trust for the Charitable Beneficiary. The Prohibited Owner shall have no voting rights with respect to shares held in the Charitable Trust and, subject to Maryland law, effective as of the date that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee, the Charitable Trustee shall have the authority (at the Charitable Trustee's sole discretion) (i) to rescind as void any vote cast by a Prohibited Owner prior to the discovery by the Corporation that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee and (ii) to recast such vote in accordance with the desires of the Charitable Trustee acting for the benefit of the Charitable Beneficiary; provided, however, that if the Corporation has already taken irreversible action, then the Charitable Trustee shall not have the authority to rescind and recast such vote. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article VII, until the Corporation has received notification that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred into a Charitable Trust, the Corporation shall be entitled to rely on its share transfer and other stockholder records for purposes of preparing lists of stockholders entitled to vote at meetings, determining the validity and authority of proxies and otherwise conducting votes of stockholders.

Section 7.3.4 Rights Upon Liquidation. Upon any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of or any distribution of the assets of the Corporation, the Charitable Trustee shall be entitled to receive, ratably with each other holder of shares of the class or series of Capital Stock that is held in the Charitable Trust, that portion of the assets of the Corporation available for distribution to the holders of such class or series (determined based upon the ratio that the number of shares of such class or series of Capital Stock held by the Charitable Trustee bears to the total number of shares of such class or series of Capital Stock then outstanding). The Charitable Trustee shall distribute any such assets received in respect of the shares held in the Charitable Trust in any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of, or distribution of the assets of the Corporation, in accordance with Section 7.3.5.

Section 7.3.5 Sale of Shares by Charitable Trustee. Within twenty (20) days of receiving notice from the Corporation that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trust, the Charitable Trustee shall sell the shares held in the Charitable Trust to a person, designated by the Charitable Trustee, whose ownership of the shares will not violate the ownership limitations set forth in Section 7.2.1(a). In connection with any such sale, the Charitable Trustee shall use good faith efforts to sell such shares at a fair market price. Upon such sale, the interest of the Charitable Beneficiary in the shares sold shall terminate and the Charitable Trustee shall distribute the net proceeds of the sale to the Prohibited Owner and to the Charitable Beneficiary as provided in this Section 7.3.5. The Prohibited Owner shall receive the lesser of (1) the price paid by the Prohibited Owner for the shares or, if the Prohibited Owner did not give value for the shares in connection with the event causing the shares to be held in the Charitable Trust (e.g., in the case of a gift, devise or other such transaction), the Market Price of the shares on the day of the event causing the shares to be held in the Charitable Trust and (2) the price per share received by the Charitable Trustee (net of any commissions and other expenses of sale) from the sale or other disposition of the shares held in the Charitable Trust. The Charitable Trustee may reduce the amount payable to the Prohibited Owner by the amount of dividends and distributions which have been paid to the Prohibited Owner and are owed by the Prohibited Owner to the Charitable Trustee pursuant to Section 7.3.3 of this Article VII. Any net sales proceeds in excess of the amount payable to the Prohibited Owner shall be immediately paid to the Charitable Beneficiary. If, prior to the discovery by the Corporation that shares of Capital Stock have been transferred to the Charitable Trustee, such shares are sold by a Prohibited Owner, then (i) such shares shall be deemed to have been sold on behalf of the Charitable Trust and (ii) to the extent that the Prohibited Owner received an amount for such shares that exceeds the amount that such Prohibited Owner was entitled to receive pursuant to this Section 7.3.5, such excess shall be paid to the Charitable Trustee upon demand.

Section 7.3.6 Purchase Right in Stock Transferred to the Charitable Trustee. Shares of Capital Stock transferred to the Charitable Trustee shall be deemed to have been offered for sale to the Corporation, or its designee, at a price per share equal to the lesser of (i) the price per share in the transaction that resulted in such transfer to the Charitable Trust (or, in the case of a devise or gift, the Market Price at the time of such devise or gift) and (ii) the Market Price on the date the Corporation, or its designee, accepts such offer. The Corporation may reduce the amount payable to the Prohibited Owner by the amount of dividends and distributions which have been paid to the Prohibited Owner and are owed by the Prohibited Owner to the Charitable Trustee pursuant to Section 7.3.3 of this Article VII. The Corporation may pay the amount of such reduction to the Charitable Trustee for the benefit of the Charitable Beneficiary. The Corporation shall have the right to accept such offer until the Charitable Trustee has sold the shares held in the Charitable Trust pursuant to Section 7.3.5. Upon such a sale to the Corporation, the interest of the Charitable Beneficiary in the shares sold shall terminate and the Charitable Trustee shall distribute the net proceeds of the sale to the Prohibited Owner.

Section 7.3.7 Designation of Charitable Beneficiaries. By written notice to the Charitable Trustee, the Corporation shall designate one or more nonprofit organizations to be the Charitable Beneficiary of the interest in the Charitable Trust such that (i) the shares of Capital Stock held in the Charitable Trust would not violate the restrictions set forth in Section 7.2.1(a) in the hands of such Charitable Beneficiary and (ii) each such organization must be described in Sections 501(c)(3), 170(b)(1)(A) or 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Section 7.4 NYSE Transactions. Nothing in this Article VII shall preclude the settlement of any transaction entered into through the facilities of the NYSE or any other national securities exchange or automated inter-dealer quotation system. The fact that the settlement of any transaction takes place shall not negate the effect of any other provision of this Article VII and any transferee in such a transaction shall be subject to all of the provisions and limitations set forth in this Article VII.

Section 7.5 Enforcement. The Corporation is authorized specifically to seek equitable relief, including injunctive relief, to enforce the provisions of this Article VII.

Section 7.6 Non-Waiver. No delay or failure on the part of the Corporation or the Board of Directors in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver of any right of the Corporation or the Board of Directors, as the case may be, except to the extent specifically waived in writing.

ARTICLE VIII

OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Section 8.1 Limitation of Director and Officer Liability. To the maximum extent that Maryland law in effect from time to time permits limitation of the liability of directors and officers, no present or former director or officer of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for money damages. Neither the amendment nor repeal of this Section 8.1, nor the adoption or amendment of any other provision of the Charter or Bylaws of the Corporation inconsistent with this Section 8.1, shall apply to or affect in any respect the applicability of the preceding sentence with respect to any act or failure to act which occurred prior to such amendment, repeal or adoption. In the absence of any Maryland statute limiting the liability of directors and officers of a Maryland corporation for money damages in a suit by or on behalf of the Corporation or by any stockholder, no director or officer of the Corporation shall be liable to the Corporation or to any stockholder for money damages except to the extent that (a) the director or officer actually received an improper benefit or profit in money, property or services, for the amount of the benefit or profit in money, property or services actually received; or (b) a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer is entered in a proceeding based on a finding in the proceeding that the director's or officer's action or failure to act was the result of active and deliberate dishonesty and was material to the cause of action adjudicated in the proceeding.

Section 8.2 Indemnification.

(a) To the maximum extent permitted by Maryland law in effect from time to time, and in accordance with applicable provisions of the Bylaws, the Corporation shall indemnify, and pay or reimburse the reasonable expenses in advance of final disposition of a proceeding to, (i) any present or former director or officer of the Corporation against any claim or liability to which he or she may become subject by reason of service in such capacity, and (ii) any individual who, while a director or officer of the Corporation and at the request of the Corporation, serves or has served as a director, officer, partner or trustee of another corporation, REIT, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, limited liability company or any other enterprise from and against any claim or liability to which such person may become subject or which such person may incur by reason of his or her service in such capacity. In addition, the Corporation may, with the approval of the Board of Directors, provide such indemnification and advancement of expenses to any individual who served a predecessor of the Corporation in any of the capacities described in (i) or (ii) above and to any employee or agent of the Corporation or a predecessor of the Corporation. Any amendment of this Section 8.2 shall be prospective only and shall not affect the applicability of this section with respect to any act or failure to act that occurred prior to such amendment.

(b) The Corporation may, to the fullest extent permitted by law, purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person described in the preceding paragraph against any liability which may be asserted against such person.

(c) The indemnification provided herein shall not be deemed to limit the right of the Corporation to indemnify any other person for any such expenses to the fullest extent permitted by law, nor shall it be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification from the Corporation may be entitled under any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.
