The Share Purchase Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Expedia and the other parties thereto. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Share Purchase Agreement are qualified by information in a confidential Disclosure Letter provided by Expedia to the other parties in connection with the signing of the Share Purchase Agreement. The confidential Disclosure Letter contains information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Share Purchase Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Share Purchase Agreement were used for the purposes of allocating risk among the parties rather than establishing matters of fact. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Share Purchase Agreement should not be relied on as characterization of the actual state of facts about Expedia or any other person.
