On January 18, 2017, LyondellBasell Industries N.V. (the Company) announced that Kevin W. Brown, Executive Vice President Manufacturing and Refining will be retiring. Mr. Brown also serves as a member of the Management Board of the Company and will be stepping down from that role.

Dan Coombs, currently the Company's Executive Vice President Global Olefins & Polyolefins (O&P) and Technology and member of the Management Board, will become Executive Vice President Manufacturing and Refining, with additional oversight responsibilities for the Company's Technology business and global projects, global engineering services and procurement functions, effective immediately. Paul Augustowski, currently Senior Vice President O&P Americas, will no longer report to Mr. Coombs and will report directly to Bob Patel, the Company's Chief Executive Officer. Similarly, Richard Roudeix, currently Senior Vice President O&P Europe, will report directly to Mr. Patel and not to Mr. Coombs. Mr. Roudeix also will assume responsibility for the Company's O&P businesses throughout the Asia and AFME regions as well as the Company's PP Compounding business. In connection with these responsibilities, Mr. Roudeix's title will change to Senior Vice President O&P EAI.

A copy of the press release announcing these changes is attached as Exhibit 99.1.
