A-2

The Group continued to deliver favourable growth in overall performance in the first three quarters of 2017, following its persistent efforts to drive ahead with the integrated development of the four growth engines and proactively develop the personal, household, corporate and emerging business markets. As at 30 September 2017, the total number of mobile customers was around 878 million, ARPU of these customers increased by 0.8% year-on-year to RMB60.5. The number of 4G customers was 622 million, representing a net increase of 86.72 million for the first three quarters. Data traffic business maintained rapid growth with handset data traffic recording a 113% increase year-on-year. Handset customer DOU reached 1.2GB and 4G customer DOU exceeded 1.5GB. Meanwhile, due to the substitution impact of over-the-top (OTT) business, voice services continued to decline with total voice usage decreasing by 7.1% compared to the same period last year.

For the wireline broadband business, the Group continued to make every effort to upgrade network speed and quality with a special focus on customer identification and targeting. Effectively promoting the concurrent development of broadband and 4G, the Group has experienced buoyant growth in this business line with ongoing enhancements to product quality and market competitiveness. As a result, the wireline broadband business has become a key contributor to the Group's overall growth in the first three quarters of 2017. As at 30 September 2017, the total number of wireline broadband customers has exceeded 100 million, representing a net increase of 25.8 million for the first three quarters. ARPU of wireline broadband customers posted a steady rise from the first half of the year, reaching RMB35.1.

In the first three quarters of 2017, the Group's telecommunications services demonstrated favourable growth momentum with revenue growing by 7.1% year-on-year to RMB515.3 billion. The Group's sales of terminals continued to fall with revenue from the sales of products going down by 11.8% year-on-year to RMB54.2 billion. Operating revenue amounted to RMB569.5 billion, representing an increase of 4.9% over the same period last year.

The Group is at a critical stage of business transformation and full-fledged implementation of the Big Connectivity strategy, with a relatively high demand for resources from various fronts including the growth of 4G business, the development of wireline broadband, the expansion of the corporate customer market as well as the deployment of emerging business. The Group will spare no effort in enhancing cost efficiency across its operations and optimizing the use of resources. EBITDA for the first three quarters of 2017 stood at RMB211.3 billion, up by 5.5% compared to the same period last year. Profit attributable to equity shareholders was RMB92.1 billion, up by 4.6% compared to the same period last year. Margin of profit attributable to equity shareholders was 16.2%, maintaining favourable profitability.

The Group will continue to adhere to the principles of forward-looking planning, effective resources allocation, rational investment and refined management in cost allocation, endeavour to strike a balance between the Group's short-term performance and long-term development, strive to increase revenue and save costs and maintain favourable profitability, thereby continuously creating value for investors.

The Board wishes to remind investors that the above performance indicators are based on the Group's unaudited management accounts. Investors are cautioned not to unduly rely on such data.

In the meantime, investors are advised to exercise caution in dealing in the securities of the Company.

By Order of the Board
China Mobile Limited
Shang Bing
Chairman
