Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Warp Technology Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a Commercial Lease (the "Lease") with 200 Railroad Avenue, LLC (the "Landlord"). The Lease is for approximately 1,800 square feet of office space (the "Premises") located at 200 Railroad Avenue, Greenwich, Connecticut, 06830, where the Company has relocated its principal executive offices. The material terms of the Lease are as follows.

The term commenced on the effective date of the Lease, August 29, 2005 (the "Commencement Date") and expires on August 14, 2009 (the "Expiration Date"). Under the Lease, the Company will pay an aggregate rent over the term of the Lease of Three Hundred Thirteen Thousand Three Hundred Sixty Two Dollars ($313,362) ("Rent"). Rent is payable in equal monthly installments on the first day of each month during the Lease term. The annual rent for the period from the Commencement Date through August 14, 2006 is $73,800, with a monthly payment of $6,150. The annual rent for the second year of the Lease, from August 15, 2006 through August 14, 2007, is $76,752, with a monthly payment of $6,393. The annual rent for the third year of the Lease, from August 15, 2007 through August 14, 2008, is $79,812, with a monthly payment of $6,651. The annual rent for the fourth year of the Lease, from August 15, 2008 through August 14, 2009, is $82,998, with a monthly payment of $6,916.50. The Company is also responsible to pay the Landlord for certain utilities in the amount of $300 per month.

Alterations to the Premises are subject to the Landlord's consent. The Company may not sublet the Premises without the Landlord's consent. The Company is responsible for maintaining the Premises in good condition and for making general repairs. In the event of fire or other damage to the Premises (other than damage caused by the Company) which renders a portion of the Premises unusable, the rent will be proportionally reduced. In the event such damage renders the Premises untenantable, the Landlord may terminate the Lease, or decide to rebuild, in which case rent will abate until the Premises are again possessed by the Company. The Company also agreed under the Lease to maintain certain general liability insurance, and to limit the Landlord's liability to damage caused by Landlord's gross negligence. Further, the Company agreed to indemnify the Landlord for liability resulting from the Company's negligence or omissions. If the Company fails to pay rent when due, or otherwise breaches the terms of the Lease, the Landlord may seek legal remedies including eviction of the Company. In the event the Landlord is not able to lease the Premises to another tenant, the Company would remain liable for any rent under the Lease.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

Warp Technology Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a Commercial Lease (the "Lease") with 200 Railroad Avenue, LLC (the "Landlord"). The Lease is for approximately 1,800 square feet of office space (the "Premises") located at 200 Railroad Avenue, Greenwich, Connecticut, 06830, where the Company has relocated its principal executive offices.

The Lease created a direct financial obligation as follows. The term commenced on the effective date of the Lease, August 29, 2005 (the "Commencement Date") and expires on August 14, 2009 (the "Expiration Date"). Under the Lease, the Company will pay an aggregate rent over the term of the Lease of Three Hundred Thirteen Thousand Three Hundred Sixty Two Dollars ($313,362) ("Rent"). Rent is payable in equal monthly installments on the first day of each month during the Lease term. The annual rent for the period from the Commencement Date through August 14, 2006 is $73,800, with a monthly payment of $6,150. The annual rent for the second year of the Lease, from August 15, 2006 through August 14, 2007, is $76,752, with a monthly payment of $6,393. The annual rent for the third year of the Lease, from August 15, 2007 through August 14, 2008, is $79,812, with a monthly payment of $6,651. The annual rent for the fourth year of the Lease, from August 15, 2008 through August 14, 2009, is $82,998, with a monthly payment of $6,916.50. The Company is also responsible to pay the Landlord for certain utilities in the amount of $300 per month.

Other material terms of the Lease are as follows. Alterations to the Premises are subject to the Landlord's consent. The Company may not sublet the Premises without the Landlord's consent. The Company is responsible for maintaining the Premises in good condition and for making general repairs. In the event of fire or other damage to the Premises (other than damage caused by the Company) which renders a portion of the Premises unusable, the rent will be proportionally reduced. In the event such damage renders the Premises untenantable, the Landlord may terminate the Lease, or decide to rebuild, in which case rent will abate until the Premises are again possessed by the Company. The Company also agreed under the Lease to maintain certain general liability insurance, and to limit the Landlord's liability to damage caused by Landlord's gross negligence. Further, the Company agreed to indemnify the Landlord for liability resulting from the Company's negligence or omissions. If the Company fails to pay rent when due, or otherwise breaches the terms of the Lease, the Landlord may seek legal remedies including eviction of the Company. In the event the Landlord is not able to lease the Premises to another tenant, the Company would remain liable for any rent under the Lease.
