The Company has initiated a search for a permanent Chief Financial Officer to replace Ms. Bailey. To ensure a smooth transition, the Company has entered into a retirement agreement with Ms. Bailey. Pursuant to the terms of the retirement agreement, Ms. Bailey will be entitled to receive, among other things, the following compensation and benefits: a cash amount equal to 18 months’ base salary plus bonus at target under the Company’s 2018 Annual Cash Incentive Award Plan; 18 months’ cash value of COBRA benefits and an additional payment for additional health coverage; treatment of her departure as a retirement for purposes of calculating benefits under the Company’s Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan; continued vesting of certain equity grants of restricted stock and restricted stock units from 2016, 2017, and 2018; up to 18 months of outplacement services; financial planning services through the end of 2019; and tax return preparation services through the end of 2019.
