Section 5 - Corporate Governance and Management

ITEM Departure of Directors or Certain Officers, Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers,
 5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On February 11, 2016, the Compensation and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors of Summit Financial Group, Inc. (the "Company") (the "Committee") approved the Seventh Amendment to the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement of H. Charles Maddy, III, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, to extend the term of Mr. Maddy's Employment Agreement dated March 4, 2005, for an additional year until March 4, 2019. A copy of the Seventh Amendment to the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

On February 11, 2016, the Committee also approved separate supplemental retention agreements (the "Supplemental Retention Agreements") with certain executives, including certain named executive officers, to provide benefits when such executives elect to delay actual retirement beyond the "normal retirement" date established under their existing Executive Salary Continuation Agreements (the "SERPs"). The SERPs provide lifetime benefits to executives that commence the later of the "normal retirement" date or the actual retirement date. The purpose of the Supplemental Retention Agreements is to provide an incentive to the executives to delay retirement beyond the normal retirement date set forth in the SERPs.

The Supplemental Retention Agreements provide a benefit to the executive, but only to the extent that the employment continues with the Company beyond the normal retirement date in increments of two (2) additional years. For H. Charles Maddy, III and Scott C. Jennings, whose "normal retirement" date is age 63, there would be no benefits from the Supplemental Retention Agreements unless these executives remain with the Company until age 65, with additional benefits if they remain for two more years until age 67. For Robert S. Tissue and Bradford E. Ritchie, whose "normal retirement" date is age 65, there would be no benefits from the Supplemental Retention Agreements unless these executives remain with the Company until age 67.

If the applicable period(s) of service, beyond the "normal retirement" date are completed, the Supplemental Retention Agreements provide a monthly benefit payable for the lesser of 15 years or life, commencing upon actual retirement. For the Company, the cost of providing the full Supplemental Retention Agreements is approximately economically equivalent to the cost of paying the SERP benefits for the first four years to the executives if they each retired at their "normal retirement" dates, all assuming that the executives survive for 15 years following actual retirement.

The Committee also agreed to grant Bradford E. Ritchie a supplemental SERP which provides a lifetime annual benefit of $50,000 per year payable upon attaining age 65 and termination of service with the Company effectively increasing his total annual SERP benefits from $75,000 per year to $125,000 per year.
