Company Press Release

CNOOC to Invest in Fujian Gas Market Development

(Beijing, October 23, 2001) - CNOOC Limited (the "Company") announced today that China National Offshore Oil Corporation ("CNOOC"), its parent, has signed an agreement with the Fujian provincial government on natural gas market development in Fujian.

The agreement defines a joint investment commitment of increasing natural gas supply and gas market development in Fujian by both parties. Both parties are committed to sourcing gas from all viable sources, including from offshore exploration as well as from overseas. In recognition of the supply and demand imbalance in Fujian, both parties agreed to undertake initiatives to explore the feasibility of LNG importation. To turn local latent demand for natural gas into marketable demand, the parties also agreed to invest in gas-fired power plants and related infrastructure.

"The agreement commits CNOOC and Fujian to increasing clean fuel consumption in Fujian. The joint commitment of the provincial government and an industry leader gives a powerful backing to the investment initiative", commented Mr. Wei Liucheng, Chairman and CEO of the Company. Mr. Wei Liucheng continued, "It is also another very important step forward in implementing CNOOC's natural gas strategy".

The Company has the option to take its parent's working interest in potential investment projects that may be generated.
