ITEM 5. OTHER EVENTS

BANKRUPTCY & INSOLVENCY PROCEEDINGS

As previously reported, on March 1, 2001, Innofone Canada, Inc. (the "Subsidiary"), the operating subsidiary of the Registrant, was served with a Petition for a Receiving Order under the Bankruptcy & Insolvency Act of Canada on March 1, 2001 (the "Petition").

Following a March 15 jurisdictional hearing on the Petition, the Subsidiary evaluated various alternatives to allow it to continue to operate its business. Following that evaluation, the Subsidiary filed a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal under the Canadian Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act to its creditors (a "Proposal"). The filing of such Notice, which was made on April 11, 2001, is considered an admission of insolvency under Canadian law. If approved by the requisite vote of the creditors and ratified by the court, the Proposal would permit the Subsidiary to discharge its existing indebtedness creditors and continue to operate its business. Under Canadian law, the Proposal may not, however, stay the hearing on the merits of the Petition currently scheduled for May 2nd and 3rd.

On April 12, 2001, the Subsidiary consented to the appointment of an interim receiver for its assets, excluding its equipment and fixed assets. The interim receiver has been directed by the court to, INTER ALIA, take control of all revenues and monies collected or to be collected under the "Visez Juste" program and deposit such funds in a trust account until (i) judgement is rendered on the Petition or (ii) if a Proposal is accepted by a majority of the Subsidiary's creditors and ratified by the Court.

Although the terms of the Proposal have not yet been finalized, it is expected that the Registrant will relinquish all or a portion of its claims for amounts due from the Subsidiary in exchange for the other creditors' acceptance of the Proposal. There can be no assurance that the Proposal will be accepted or, if accepted, ratified by the court.

If the Proposal is rejected by the creditors or not ratified by the Court, then under Canadian law the Subsidiary would be automatically adjudged bankrupt and would begin a process of liquidation. Similarly, an adverse judgment on the Petition would result in a liquidation of the Subsidiary to pay the claims of creditors.

A press release, a copy of which is set forth as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, is incorporated herein by reference.

TERMINATION OF BIZSMART AGREEMENT

On March 30, 2001, CIBC terminated its arrangement with the Registrant and the Subsidiary to offer long distance telephone services, calling card services and cellular and PCS services on CIBC's bizsmart.com website, effective April 30, 2001.
