QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

WHY DID THE BOARDS OF DIRECTORS CALL A SPECIAL MEETING?

The Funds currently use Preferred Stock leverage as a strategy to attempt to enhance the dividends paid to Common Stock shareholders. The auction market that sets the rates for this Preferred Stock has recently experienced severe disruptions - consequently, the Funds are currently paying higher rates relative to other short-term rates than they have historically. In light of this turbulence, the Boards of Directors may determine to alter the leverage strategy employed by the Funds. Potential alternatives could include modifying the terms of the Preferred Stock, refinancing some or all of the Preferred Stock shares with either a new preferred stock or refinancing some or all of the Preferred Stock shares with debt financing. The Boards of Directors have not approved any course of action and may decide to leave the current Preferred Stock outstanding or redeem some or all of the shares of Preferred Stock.

As discussed in greater detail below and in the Joint Proxy Statement, the Funds do not currently have the flexibility to pursue borrowing as a source of financing - flexibility which is available to many other closed-end funds, including the Funds' sister funds, Flaherty & Crumrine/Claymore Preferred Securities Income Fund (FFC) and Flaherty & Crumrine/Claymore Total Return Fund (FLC).

Your "Yes" vote on the Proposals will give the Funds greater flexibility to respond to changing market conditions.

WHY ARE THE BOARDS OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDING A CHANGE TO THE FUNDS' INVESTMENT POLICIES?

As discussed above, the Boards of Directors may consider alternatives for leveraging the returns to Common Stock shareholders. One path that the Boards of Directors may select is debt financing - for example, by borrowing money from a bank or other lender and then using the proceeds to redeem some or all of the outstanding Preferred Stock.

When the Funds were designed over 15 years ago, it was contemplated that they would always use Preferred Stock as leverage. Consequently, as discussed in Proposal 1 of the attached Joint Proxy Statement, the Funds' investment policies do not currently permit leveraging through borrowing, issuing debt securities or using other debt financing strategies which are similar to borrowing.

These investment policies are more restrictive than legally required and more restrictive than many other closed-end funds, such as the Funds' sister funds, FFC and FLC.

After reviewing options available to the Funds, Fund management has recommended, and the Boards of Directors have approved, modernizing each Fund's investment policies to grant it the flexibility to use debt financing for leverage.

The Boards of Directors unanimously recommend that shareholders vote "Yes" on Proposals 1-A, 1-B and 1-C.

WHY DID THE BOARDS OF DIRECTORS APPROVE A CHANGE TO THE INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENTS FOR THE FUNDS?

Each Fund has an investment advisory agreement with Flaherty & Crumrine Incorporated. In exchange for the investment advice to and management of the Funds, Flaherty & Crumrine receives a monthly fee. This fee is currently assessed against the "net assets" of each Fund, with "net assets" calculated as the difference between a Fund's total assets (i.e., the value of its portfolio) and the Fund's liabilities. The Preferred Stock is explicitly excluded as a liability of each Fund when calculating this fee.

If a Fund were to use a form of leverage other than Preferred Stock, the assets attributable to that leverage would be a liability for purposes of the "net assets" calculation, and would not count when calculating the fee paid to Flaherty & Crumrine. The Boards of Directors have previously concluded (most recently this past January) that the fees being paid to Flaherty & Crumrine are reasonable. They do not favor lowering the fees indirectly by changing the form of the Fund's leverage from Preferred Stock to debt financing.

As discussed in Proposal 2 of the attached Joint Proxy Statement, the Boards of Directors have approved the change to the investment advisory agreements to clarify that financial leverage utilized by the Funds - whether in the form of Preferred Stock or debt financing - does not constitute a liability for the calculation of the investment advisory fee. Except for this change, the actual fee calculation formula would not change (although the amount of the fee would depend on the amount of leverage outstanding at any given time, whether in the form of preferred stock or debt financing) - in other words, the Fund would continue to pay the same percentage of net assets available to Common Stock shareholders as it does currently.

The Boards of Directors recommends that shareholders vote "Yes" on Proposal 2.

If the enclosed proxy card is properly executed and returned in time to be voted at the relevant Meeting, the Shares (as defined below) represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the instructions marked thereon. Unless instructions to the contrary are marked thereon, a proxy will be voted "FOR" Proposal 1 and Proposal 2. Any shareholder who has given a proxy has the right to revoke it at any time prior to its exercise either by attending the relevant Meeting and voting his or her Shares in person or by submitting a letter of revocation or a later-dated proxy to the appropriate Fund delivered at the above address prior to the date of the Meeting.

Under the Bylaws of each Fund, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Fund entitled to vote shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business (a "Quorum") at that Fund's meeting. If a proposal is to be voted upon by only one class of a Fund's shares, a Quorum of that class of shares must be present at the Meeting in order for the proposal to be considered. In the event that a Quorum is not present at a Meeting, or in the event that a Quorum is present but sufficient votes to approve any of the proposals are not received, the persons named as proxies may propose one or more adjournments of the Meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies. Any such adjournment will require the affirmative vote of a majority of those shares represented at the Meeting in person or by proxy. If a Quorum is present, the persons named as proxies will vote those proxies which they are entitled to vote "FOR" a proposal in favor of such an adjournment with respect to that proposal and will vote those proxies required to be voted "AGAINST" a proposal against any such adjournment with respect to that proposal. A shareholder vote may be taken on a proposal in the Joint Proxy Statement prior to any such adjournment if sufficient votes have been received for approval of that proposal.

Each Fund has two classes of capital stock including common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock") and preferred stock (the "Preferred Stock" and together with the Common Stock, the "Shares"). Each Fund has one series of Preferred Stock outstanding which is classified as Auction Preferred Stock (formerly known as "Money Market Cumulative Preferred(TM) Stock" (MMP(R))). Each Share is entitled to one vote at the Meeting with respect to matters to be voted on by the class to which such Share belongs, with pro rata voting rights for any fractional Shares. On the record date, March 31, 2008, the following number of Shares of each Fund were issued and outstanding:

NAME OF FUND -----	COMMON STOCK OUTSTANDING -----	PREFERRED STOCK OUTSTANDING -----
Preferred Income Fund (PFD)	[_____]	800
Preferred Income Opportunity Fund (PFO)	[_____]	700

To the knowledge of each Fund and its Board, the following shareholder(s) or "group," as that term is defined in Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act"), is the beneficial owner or owner of record of more than 5% of the relevant Fund's outstanding Shares as of March 31, 2008*:

 A nominee partnership of The Depository Trust Company.

This Joint Proxy Statement is being used in order to reduce the preparation, printing, handling and postage expenses that would result from the use of a separate proxy statement for each Fund. Shareholders of each Fund will vote as a single class, except as described below, and will vote separately on each proposal on which shareholders of that Fund are entitled to vote. Separate proxy cards are enclosed for each Fund in which a shareholder is a record owner of Shares. Thus, if a proposal is approved by shareholders of one Fund and not approved by shareholders of the other Fund, the proposal will be implemented for the Fund that approved the proposal and will not be implemented for the Fund that did not approve the proposal. It is therefore essential that shareholders complete, date and sign each enclosed proxy card. Shareholders of each Fund are entitled to vote on the proposals pertaining to that Fund.

In order that your Shares may be represented at the Meetings, you are requested to vote on the following matters:

PROPOSAL 1: REVISION OF FUNDAMENTAL INVESTMENT POLICIES

The Funds, like all registered funds, are required by law to have policies governing certain of their investment practices that may only be changed with the prior approval of the holders of a majority of a Fund's outstanding voting securities, voting as a single class, and approval of the holders of a majority of a Fund's outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class. These policies are referred to as "fundamental."

When the Funds were organized, it was assumed that the Funds would only leverage their portfolios through this issuance of preferred stock, and the Funds' ability to leverage through debt financing was restricted. Each of PFD's and PFO's Boards have reviewed the Fund's current fundamental policies on borrowing, issuing senior securities and purchasing securities on margin and have determined that each Fund has fundamental policies in these areas that are more restrictive than the law requires. The Board of each Fund has concluded that those policies should be revised to permit each Fund to leverage its portfolio using debt financing in appropriate circumstances. At the Meetings, shareholders of PFD and PFO will be asked to approve the revised policies.

The revised fundamental policies are expected to give the Funds the flexibility to pursue debt financing as a means of leverage, in addition to the use of preferred stock. The revised policies will not affect the investment objectives of the Funds, which will remain unchanged. The Funds will continue to be managed in accordance with the investment parameters described in their prospectuses and in accordance with applicable law.

The revised fundamental policies maintain important shareholder protections, while providing the Funds with greater flexibility to leverage the Funds' assets than is currently available. Accordingly, the policies are written and will be interpreted broadly. For example, the revised policies allow the investment practice in question to be conducted to the extent permitted by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"). It is possible that, as the financial markets continue to evolve over time, the 1940 Act and the related rules may be further amended to address changed circumstances and new investment opportunities. It is also possible that the 1940 Act and the related rules could change for other reasons. For flexibility, the revised policies will be interpreted to refer to the 1940 Act and the related rules as they are in effect from time to time. This will allow the Funds to benefit from future changes in applicable law without seeking additional costly and time-consuming shareholder approvals. To the extent the Funds engage in new investment practices, the Funds may be subject to additional risks. Before a material change is made in a Fund's investment practices in response to the revised policies, the Fund's Board will consider and approve such change and the Fund's shareholders will be notified, as appropriate.

Two of the revised fundamental policies also refer to interpretations or modifications of, or relating to, the 1940 Act from the SEC or members of its staff, as well as interpretations or modifications of other authorities having jurisdiction over the Funds. These authorities could include courts. From time to time the SEC and members of its staff issue formal or informal views on various provisions of the 1940 Act and the related rules, including through no-action letters and exemptive orders. The revised policies will be interpreted to refer to these interpretations or modifications as they are given from time to time. Again, this will allow the Funds the flexibility to benefit from future changes in the positions taken by regulators and others without the expense and delay of seeking further shareholder approvals.

When a revised policy provides that an investment practice may be conducted as permitted by the 1940 Act, the policy will be interpreted to mean either that the 1940 Act expressly permits the practice or that the 1940 Act does not prohibit the practice.

If the revised policies are approved, subject to future Board approval, the policies could permit the Funds to engage in borrowing or other forms of debt leverage in order to potentially redeem Shares of Preferred Stock. As discussed in a website posting dated February 14, 2008, the auction process for the Funds' Preferred Stock began to fail and has continued to fail. This means that there has not been sufficient interest from bidders in the auctions to purchase all the Shares being offered for sale. In a "failed" auction, existing Preferred Stock shareholders are able to sell some of their Shares to the extent that there are buyers, but are not able to sell their remaining Shares. Rather, they continue to hold their Shares and earn a "maximum rate" set according to a pre-determined formula. A failed auction is not an event of default. A failed auction does not require the redemption of Preferred Stock by the Funds. Therefore, the Shares remain outstanding, and pay the maximum rate until "buy" and "hold" orders again exceed "sell" orders in a future auction. The provisions allowing for failed auctions are intended to provide fair compensation for Preferred Stock shareholders during periods of disruptions, while also allowing the Funds the necessary time to properly consider the situation and explore potential alternatives. One potential alternative that would be permitted as a result of the proposed changes in fundamental policies would be the redemption of some or all of the Preferred Stock through the use of borrowing, issuing senior debt securities or purchasing securities on margin. THE BOARDS HAVE NOT DETERMINED TO REDEEM ANY PREFERRED STOCK AND THE PRESENTATION OF THIS PROPOSAL SHOULD NOT BE INTERPRETED TO MEAN THAT EITHER PFD OR PFO HAS DETERMINED TO REDEEM ANY SHARES OF PREFERRED STOCK.

THE FOLLOWING DESCRIBES RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH LEVERAGING THE FUNDS THROUGH THE USE OF BORROWING, ISSUING SENIOR SECURITIES AND PURCHASING SECURITIES ON MARGIN, WHICH DO NOT MATERIALLY DIFFER FROM THE RISKS THE FUNDS CURRENTLY FACE THROUGH LEVERAGING USING PREFERRED STOCK.

Borrowing, issuing senior securities and purchasing securities on margin are forms of leverage. Because this leverage would subject a Fund to additional costs, the Fund would only engage in these transactions when the Adviser and the Board of Directors believe that the cost of carrying the assets to be acquired through leverage would be lower than the Fund's expected return on its investment. Should this differential narrow, a Fund would realize less of a positive return, with the additional risk that, during periods of adverse market conditions, the market value of the Fund's entire portfolio holdings (including those acquired through leverage) may decline far in excess of the incremental returns the Fund may have achieved, resulting in a loss to the Fund. Indeed, any such leveraging tends to magnify market exposure and can result in higher than expected losses to a Fund.

Because the investment risk associated with investment assets purchased with funds obtained through leveraging would be borne solely by a Fund's Common Stock shareholders, adverse movements in the price of a

Fund's portfolio holdings would have a more severe effect on a Fund's net asset value than if a Fund were not leveraged. Leverage creates risks for a Fund's Common Stock shareholders, including the likelihood of greater volatility of a Fund's net asset value and the market price of its shares, and the risk that fluctuations in interest rates on borrowings or in the dividend rates on any Preferred Stock may affect the return to Common Stock shareholders. If the income from the securities purchased with such funds is not sufficient to cover the cost of leverage, the net income of a Fund would be less than if leverage had not been used, and therefore the amount available for distribution to Common Stock shareholders as dividends will be reduced. In such an event, a Fund may nevertheless determine to maintain its leveraged position in order to avoid capital losses on securities purchased with the leverage. Further, all expenses associated with borrowing, such as interest expenses and transaction costs, will be borne solely by a Fund's Common Stock shareholders.

Also, if the asset coverage for borrowing or other senior securities of a Fund declines below the limits specified in the 1940 Act, the Fund may be required to sell a portion of its investments when it may not be advantageous to do so. In the extreme, sales of investments required to meet asset coverage tests imposed by the 1940 Act could also cause a Fund to lose its status as a regulated investment company under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). If a Fund were unable to make adequate distributions to shareholders because of asset coverage or other restrictions, it could fail to qualify as a regulated investment company for federal income tax purposes and, even if it did not fail to so qualify, it could become liable for income and excise tax on the portion of its earnings which are not distributed on a timely basis in accordance with applicable provisions of the Code. A Fund's willingness to engage in leverage transactions, and the amount of such transactions, will depend on many factors, the most important of which are investment outlook, market conditions and interest rates. Successful use of a leveraging strategy depends on the Adviser's ability to predict correctly interest rates and market movements, and there is no assurance that a leveraging strategy will be employed or will be successful during any period in which it is employed. If Proposal 2 is approved by shareholders and a Fund leverages using borrowing, senior debt securities or margin purchases, the Adviser could be viewed as having an economic incentive to utilize leverage because the use of leverage would increase the Fund's "net assets" (as defined below) and hence the fee paid by the Funds to the Adviser. However, the Funds were initially structured to be leveraged with Preferred Stock, so that changing the form of leverage, in whole or in part, should not enhance any such incentive. In fact, this consideration would be mitigated because of the higher asset coverage requirements under the 1940 Act if the Funds, engaged in leverage through debt financing.

Flaherty & Crumrine has advised the Boards of PFD and PFO that, except as described herein, the proposed revisions to the fundamental policies are not expected to materially affect the manner in which each Fund is being managed at this time. On this basis, the Boards of PFD and PFO recommend that shareholders of PFD and PFO vote to revise the fundamental policies as discussed below.

PROPOSAL 1-A: REVISE THE FUNDAMENTAL POLICY RELATING TO BORROWING MONEY.

The Funds currently have a fundamental investment policy relating to borrowing money. Each Fund may not:

BORROW MONEY, EXCEPT FOR TEMPORARY OR EMERGENCY PURPOSES, OR IN CONNECTION WITH REPURCHASES OF ITS SHARES OR FOR CLEARANCE OF TRANSACTIONS, AND THEN ONLY IN AMOUNTS NOT EXCEEDING 10% OF ITS TOTAL ASSETS (NOT INCLUDING THE AMOUNT BORROWED) AND AS OTHERWISE DESCRIBED IN THIS PROSPECTUS. WHEN THE FUND'S BORROWINGS EXCEED 5% OF THE VALUE OF ITS TOTAL ASSETS, THE FUND WILL NOT MAKE ANY ADDITIONAL INVESTMENTS.

If shareholders of a Fund approve this proposal, the Fund's current fundamental policy relating to the borrowing of money will be revised so that the Fund may not:

BORROW MONEY, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED UNDER THE 1940 ACT, AS AMENDED, AND AS INTERPRETED OR MODIFIED BY REGULATORY AUTHORITY HAVING JURISDICTION, FROM TIME TO TIME.

DISCUSSION OF PROPOSED MODIFICATION. All registered funds are required to have a fundamental policy about the borrowing of money. The 1940 Act generally requires a registered fund to maintain asset coverage of 300% for so-called "senior securities" that represent indebtedness. This means that, generally speaking, for the registered fund to borrow or otherwise issue debt (other than limited exceptions such as temporary borrowing or a borrowing for emergency purposes up to 5% of the fund's total assets), the fund must have total assets of at least twice the amount borrowed. A registered fund that issues preferred stock must maintain asset coverage of at least 200% with respect to the preferred stock. Asset coverage means the ratio that the value of the fund's total assets, minus liabilities other than borrowings, bears to the aggregate amount of all borrowings. Certain widely used investment practices that involve a commitment by a fund to deliver money or securities in the future are not considered by the SEC to be senior securities. These include repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, dollar rolls, options, futures and forward contracts, provided that in each case a fund segregates cash or liquid securities in an amount necessary to pay the obligation or the fund holds an offsetting commitment from another party. The revised policy will not affect the Funds' existing abilities to engage in these practices. Similarly, the revised policy will be interpreted not to prevent collateral arrangements with respect to swaps, options, forward or futures contracts or other derivatives, or the posting of initial or variation margin.

The revised policy will permit the Funds to borrow money, and to engage in trading practices that may be considered to be borrowing, to the fullest extent permitted by the 1940 Act and related interpretations, as in effect from time to time. The revised policy will be interpreted to permit a Fund to engage in trading practices and investments that may be considered to be borrowing, such as reverse repurchase agreements, dollar rolls, options, futures, options on futures and forward contracts. In addition, short-term credits necessary for the settlement of securities transactions and arrangements with respect to securities lending will not be considered to be borrowings under the revised policy. Practices and investments that may involve leverage but are not considered to be borrowings are not subject to the revised policy.

EACH BOARD OF DIRECTORS, INCLUDING ALL OF THE INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS, UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" PROPOSAL 1-A.

PROPOSAL 1-B: REVISE THE FUNDAMENTAL POLICY RELATING TO ISSUING SENIOR SECURITIES.

The Funds currently have a fundamental investment policy relating to senior securities. Each Fund may not:

ISSUE SENIOR SECURITIES OTHER THAN PREFERRED STOCK.

If shareholders of a Fund approve this proposal, the Fund's current fundamental policy relating to issuing senior securities will be revised so that the Fund may not:

ISSUE SENIOR SECURITIES TO THE EXTENT SUCH ISSUANCE WOULD VIOLATE APPLICABLE LAW.

DISCUSSION OF PROPOSED POLICY. All registered funds are required to have a fundamental policy about issuing "senior securities," which are defined as fund obligations that have a priority over the fund's common shares with respect to the payment of dividends or the distribution of fund assets. The 1940 Act establishes limits on the ability of the Funds to engage in leverage through the issuance of "senior securities." The revised policy will permit the Funds to issue senior securities to the fullest extent permitted by the 1940 Act and related interpretations, as in effect from time to time.

Certain widely used investment practices that involve a commitment by a fund to deliver money or securities in the future are not considered by the SEC to be senior securities. These include repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, dollar rolls, options, futures and forward contracts, provided that in each case a fund segregates cash or liquid securities in an amount necessary to pay the obligation or the fund holds an offsetting commitment from another party. The revised policy will not affect the Funds' existing abilities to engage in these practices. Similarly, the revised policy will be interpreted not to prevent collateral arrangements with respect to swaps, options, forward or futures contracts or other derivatives, or the posting of initial or variation margin.

EACH BOARD OF DIRECTORS, INCLUDING ALL OF THE INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS, UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" PROPOSAL 1-B.

PROPOSAL 1-C: REVISE THE FUNDAMENTAL POLICY RELATING TO PURCHASING SECURITIES ON MARGIN.

The Funds currently have a fundamental investment policy relating to the purchase of securities on margin. Each Fund may not:

SELL SECURITIES SHORT OR PURCHASE SECURITIES ON MARGIN, EXCEPT FOR SUCH SHORT-TERM CREDITS AS ARE NECESSARY FOR THE CLEARANCE OF TRANSACTIONS, BUT THE FUND MAY MAKE MARGIN DEPOSITS IN CONNECTION WITH TRANSACTIONS IN OPTIONS ON SECURITIES, FUTURES AND OPTIONS ON FUTURES, AND MAY MAKE SHORT SALES OF SECURITIES "AGAINST THE BOX."

If shareholders of a Fund approve this proposal, the Fund's current fundamental policy relating to the purchase of securities on margin will be revised so that a Fund may not:

SELL SECURITIES SHORT OR PURCHASE SECURITIES ON MARGIN, EXCEPT AS PERMITTED UNDER THE 1940 ACT, AS AMENDED, AND AS INTERPRETED OR MODIFIED BY REGULATORY AUTHORITY HAVING JURISDICTION, FROM TIME TO TIME.

DISCUSSION OF PROPOSED POLICY. Section 12 of the 1940 Act authorizes the SEC to regulate two trading practices that may result in leverage: margin purchases and short sales. The SEC has not adopted any rules under Section 12, but instead has regulated margin purchases and short sales under Section 18, which limits the ability of the Funds to engage in leverage through the issuance of "senior securities." The revised policy will permit the Funds to sell securities short and purchase securities on margin to the fullest extent permitted by the 1940 Act and related interpretations, as in effect from time to time.

Certain widely used investment practices that involve a commitment by a fund to deliver money or securities in the future are not considered by the SEC to be senior securities. These include repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, dollar rolls, options, futures and forward contracts, provided that in each case a fund segregates cash or liquid securities in an amount necessary to pay the obligation or the fund holds an offsetting commitment from another party. The revised policy will not affect the Funds' existing abilities to engage in these practices. Similarly, the revised policy will be interpreted not to prevent collateral arrangements with respect to swaps, options, forward or futures contracts or other derivatives, or the posting of initial or variation margin.

EACH BOARD OF DIRECTORS, INCLUDING ALL OF THE INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS, UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" PROPOSAL 1-C.

REQUIRED VOTE

Approval of the change in fundamental policies, with respect to each of Proposals 1-A, 1-B and 1-C, will require the approval of the holders of a majority of the Fund's outstanding voting securities, voting as a single class, and approval of the holders of a majority of the Fund's outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class. A "majority of the Fund's outstanding voting securities" for this purpose means the lesser of (1) 67% or more of the Shares of Common Stock and Shares of Preferred Stock, present at a meeting of shareholders, voting as a single class, if the holders of more than 50% of such Shares are present or represented by proxy at the meeting, or (2) more than 50% of the outstanding Shares of Common Stock and outstanding Shares of Preferred Stock, voting as a single class. A majority of the Fund's outstanding Shares of Preferred Stock for this purpose is determined in a similar manner, by applying the percentages in the previous sentence to outstanding Shares of Preferred Stock.

PROPOSAL 2: APPROVAL OF AN AMENDED INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

At the Meetings, you will be asked to approve an amended and restated investment advisory agreement (each, an "Amended Investment Advisory Agreement" and collectively, the "Amended Investment Advisory Agreements") between your Fund and the Adviser. The Adviser currently provides investment advisory services to each Fund under investment advisory agreements currently in effect (each, a "Current Investment Advisory Agreement" and collectively, the "Current Investment Advisory Agreements"), and is responsible for each Fund's overall investment strategy and its implementation. PFD's Current Investment Advisory Agreement is dated as of

January 24, 1991 and was last approved by PFD shareholders on January 22, 1991, in connection with the initial approval of the Agreement. PFO's Current Investment Advisory Agreement is dated as of February 5, 1992 and was last approved by PFO shareholders on February 3, 1992, in connection with the initial approval of the Agreement. The Board of Directors of each Fund last approved for continuance of an additional year the Current Investment Advisory Agreements on January 29, 2008. The form of Amended Investment Advisory Agreement for the Funds, marked to show changes from the Current Investment Advisory Agreement, is attached hereto as EXHIBIT A, and the description of the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements in this Joint Proxy Statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to EXHIBIT A.

TERMS OF THE CURRENT INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENTS

Under the terms of the Current Investment Advisory Agreements, the Adviser is responsible for making investment decisions and placing orders for the purchase and sale of a Fund's investments directly with the issuers or with brokers or dealers selected by the Adviser at its discretion. The Adviser also furnishes to the Boards, which have overall responsibility for the business and affairs of the Funds, periodic reports on the investment performance of the Funds.

The Adviser is obligated to manage a Fund in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. Consistent with the requirements of the 1940 Act, the Current Investment Advisory Agreements provide that the Adviser generally is not liable to a Fund for any error in judgment, mistake of law, or any act or omission or any loss suffered by a Fund in connection with the Agreement, except by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of its duties or by reason of its reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under the Agreement.

The Current Investment Advisory Agreements may be terminated by a Fund without penalty upon 60 days' written notice by the Boards of Directors or by a vote of the holders of a majority of the Fund's outstanding Shares, or upon 60 days' written notice by the Adviser. The Current Investment Advisory Agreements terminate automatically in the event of an "assignment" (as defined in the 1940 Act).

For the fiscal year ended November 30, 2007, PFD paid the Adviser $1,312,364 in advisory fees, and PFO paid the Adviser $1,173,308 in advisory fees.

COMPARISON OF AMENDED INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENTS AND CURRENT INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENTS

The only change to the Current Investment Advisory Agreements is to amend the description of the Adviser's fee to clarify that any debt representing financial leverage will not be considered a liability. Section 6(a) of the Current Investment Advisory Agreement of each Fund describes the fee to be paid to the Adviser as follows:

IN CONSIDERATION OF THE SERVICES RENDERED PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE [FUND] WILL PAY THE ADVISER AFTER THE END OF THE CALENDAR MONTH DURING WHICH THE CLOSING DATE (AS DEFINED BELOW) OCCURS AND AFTER THE END OF EACH CALENDAR MONTH THEREAFTER A FEE FOR THE PREVIOUS MONTH COMPUTED MONTHLY AT THE ANNUAL RATE OF .625 OF 1.00% ON THE [FUND]'S AVERAGE MONTHLY NET ASSETS UP TO $100 MILLION AND .50 OF 1.00% ON THE [FUND]'S AVERAGE MONTHLY NET ASSETS OF $100 MILLION OR MORE.

The Current Investment Advisory Agreements do not define the term "net assets" but instead refer to the description as included in the Funds' registration statements. The Funds' registration statements, dated as of January 24, 1991 for PFD and February 6, 1992 for PFO, each define "net assets" to mean, for purposes of calculating the advisory fee, the average monthly value of the Fund's total assets minus the sum of the Fund's liabilities, which liabilities exclude the aggregate liquidation preference of the outstanding Preferred Stock, and accumulated dividends, if any, on the Preferred Stock.

If approved by shareholders, the Amended Investment Advisory Agreement of each Fund will describe the fee to be paid to the Adviser as follows:

IN CONSIDERATION OF THE SERVICES RENDERED PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE [FUND] WILL PAY THE ADVISER AFTER THE END OF EACH CALENDAR MONTH A FEE FOR THE PREVIOUS MONTH COMPUTED MONTHLY AT THE ANNUAL RATE OF .625 OF 1.00% ON THE [FUND]'S AVERAGE MONTHLY TOTAL MANAGED ASSETS UP TO $100 MILLION AND .50 OF 1.00% ON THE [FUND]'S AVERAGE MONTHLY TOTAL MANAGED ASSETS OF $100

MILLION OR MORE. FOR PURPOSES OF CALCULATING SUCH FEE, THE [FUND]'S TOTAL MANAGED ASSETS MEANS THE TOTAL ASSETS OF THE [FUND] (INCLUDING ANY ASSETS ATTRIBUTABLE TO ANY [FUND] AUCTION RATE PREFERRED STOCK THAT MAY BE OUTSTANDING OR OTHERWISE ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE USE OF LEVERAGE) MINUS THE SUM OF ACCRUED LIABILITIES (OTHER THAN DEBT, IF ANY, REPRESENTING FINANCIAL LEVERAGE). FOR PURPOSES OF DETERMINING TOTAL MANAGED ASSETS, THE LIQUIDATION PREFERENCE OF THE [FUND] PREFERRED STOCK IS NOT TREATED AS A LIABILITY.

As described in the Funds' registration statements, the calculation of net assets for purposes of calculating the advisory fees payable pursuant to the Current Investment Advisory Agreements excludes the liquidation value of any outstanding preferred stock, including the Preferred Stock, from the Funds' liabilities. However, debt representing financial leverage is not similarly excluded. Therefore, the amount of outstanding debt would reduce the amount of Fund assets on which the Adviser's fee is paid. At the time the Funds were launched it was not contemplated that the Funds would engage in any debt financings and the Funds' fundamental investment policies in this area severely limited the Funds' ability to do so. If the changes in the Funds' fundamental investment policies on borrowing, issuing senior debt securities and purchasing securities on margin as described in Proposal 1 are approved, however, the Funds could borrow up to the limits permitted under applicable law. Any such amounts borrowed or the proceeds of any debt issuance would, like the Preferred Stock, form part of the total assets being actively managed by the Adviser. The Boards of Directors are of the view that it is fair and appropriate for the Adviser to be paid for doing so and that there is no reason to make a distinction based on whether a Fund is leveraged with preferred stock or with debt. Therefore, the Boards are proposing that the provision in the Current Investment Advisory Agreements concerning the calculation of the advisory fee be amended to exclude from liabilities, in addition to the liquidation value of preferred stock, debt representing financial leverage, as is typical for closed-end funds such as the Funds.

If the proposed change in the fee language of the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements had been in effect during a Fund's most recently completed fiscal year, there would have been no change in the fees paid by the Fund to the Adviser because the Fund did not borrow during that time. There will be no increase in the fees payable to the Adviser unless or until action is taken that increases a Fund's assets under management through borrowing or other forms of debt leverage in amounts greater than the amount of assets currently attributable to a Fund's outstanding Preferred Stock. If the amount of a Fund's assets under management increases through debt financing, this could result in an increase in the amount of the fees payable by a Fund under the Amended Investment Advisory Agreement. However, the net impact on fees would depend on the net increase in Fund assets that would result from those activities, which cannot be predicted.

BOARD CONSIDERATION OF THE AMENDED INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENTS

In connection with the decision of each Board of Directors to seek shareholder approval of amendments of the Funds' fundamental investment policies regarding borrowing, issuing senior securities and purchasing securities on margin, it was determined that, as currently formulated, the language for calculating the fees paid by the Funds to the Adviser was not written in a way that permitted the calculation of net assets to exclude debt leverage as a liability. The current fee formulation provides that fees shall be based on the Funds' "net assets," and Fund liabilities did not exclude debt leverage in the way that the liquidation value of Preferred Stock had been excluded. The Boards considered this omission to be related to the Funds' initial structure, which did not contemplate debt financing.

In considering this matter, each Board of Directors noted that the proceeds of any borrowings used by the Funds could increase the amount of Fund assets for which the Adviser would be expected to provide services to the Fund. In addition to being attentive to the various technical concerns in dealing with senior securities and borrowings, each Board noted that the Adviser would be responsible for identifying additional investment opportunities for the proceeds of these securities and borrowings and for managing the additional investments. Each Board also determined that the original formulation of the fee language in the Current Investment Advisory Agreement was designed to compensate the Adviser on the basis of the amount of assets as to which it makes investment decisions. Each Board noted that they had determined to seek shareholder approval to broaden the Funds' authority to borrow, issue senior securities and purchase securities on margin. The Boards of Directors have determined those actions to be in the best interests of the Funds and the Funds' shareholders (see Proposals 1-A, 1-B and 1-C). In the view of the Boards of Directors, it would be unfair to take actions that increase assets which the Adviser is obliged by the Current Investment Advisory Agreements to manage without compensating the Adviser for doing so. In this regard, the Boards of Directors considered that many funds that engage in leveraging activity provide for compensation of their investment adviser on the basis of total managed assets, including Flaherty & Crumrine/Claymore Preferred Securities Income Fund Incorporated and Flaherty & Crumrine/Claymore Total Return Fund Incorporated, two other closed-end funds managed by the Adviser. In considering this matter, the Independent Directors had the opportunity to consult with counsel to the Directors who are not "interested persons" (as defined in the 1940 Act) of the Funds or the Adviser ("Independent Directors") regarding the proposed Amended Investment Advisory Agreements.

At a meeting held on March 13, 2008, the Board of Directors of each Fund, including the Independent Directors present in-person at the meeting, voting separately, unanimously determined to recommend that shareholders of each Fund approve its Amended Investment Advisory Agreement.

In their review of the Amended Investment Advisory Agreement, the Board of Directors of each Fund assessed the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided to the Fund by the Adviser. In their deliberations, the Boards of Directors considered information received in connection with their most recent approval of the continuation of the Current Investment Advisory Agreement, in addition to information provided by the Adviser in connection with their evaluation of the terms and conditions of the Amended Investment Advisory Agreement. The Boards of Directors did not identify any particular information that was all-important or controlling, and Directors may have attributed different weights to the various factors. The Directors evaluated all information available to them. The Directors, including a majority of the Independent Directors, concluded that the terms of the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements are appropriate, that the fees to be paid are reasonable in light of the services to be provided to the Funds, and that the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements should be approved and recommended to the Funds' shareholders.

NATURE, EXTENT AND QUALITY OF THE SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED UNDER THE AMENDED INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENTS. The Directors considered the nature, extent and quality of management services proposed to be provided to the Funds under the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements. The Directors took note that the Adviser had advised the Boards that there is not expected to be any change in the nature, extent and quality of services provided to the Funds and their shareholders under the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements. The Boards' evaluation of the services expected to be provided by the Adviser took into account the Directors' knowledge and familiarity gained as Directors of funds in the Flaherty & Crumrine Fund Family. The Boards recognized that they received information at regular meetings throughout the year regarding the services rendered by the Adviser, noting that these services included the management of each Fund's investment program, as well as providing significant administrative services beyond what the Current Investment Advisory Agreements provided. The Directors also noted that they had engaged in an extensive review of the services provided to the Funds by the Adviser at the Boards' last annual contract renewal meeting.

The Boards concluded that, overall, it was satisfied with the nature, extent and quality of services expected to be provided to the Funds under the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements.

INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE. The Directors noted that they received information throughout the year at periodic intervals with respect to each Fund's performance, and had engaged in an extensive review of Fund performance at their last annual contract renewal meeting. As the services to be provided under the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements in comparison with the Current Investment Advisory Agreements were not proposed to be changed in connection with the approval of the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements, the Directors did not specifically consider Fund performance in their consideration of the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements.

ADVISER PROFITABILITY. Profitability of the Adviser in providing services to each Fund under the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements was not a factor considered by the Directors. The Directors noted that they expect to receive cost, expense and profitability information at the next annual Board contract renewal meeting and, thus, be in a position to evaluate at that time whether any adjustments in Fund fees would be appropriate in connection with a renewal of the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements. The Directors also recognized that they had reviewed the profitability of the Adviser at its last annual contract renewal meeting.

ECONOMIES OF SCALE. The Directors considered whether any changes in the economies of scale realized (or potentially realized) by the Adviser and any benefits the Funds may incur from such economies of scale were proposed to be changed if the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements were approved. The Directors noted that the Funds, as closed-end investment companies, were not expected to increase materially in size; thus, the Adviser would not benefit from economies of scale. The Directors considered whether economies of scale could be realized because the Adviser advises other similar funds. Based on their experience, the Directors accepted the Adviser's explanation that significant economies of scale would not be realized because of the complexity of managing preferred securities for separate funds and other portfolios. Nonetheless, the Directors noted that the Funds' advisory fee schedule declines as assets increase beyond a certain level (commonly known as a "breakpoint"), and that breakpoints provide for a sharing with shareholders of benefits derived as a result of economies of scale arising from increased assets. Accordingly, the Directors determined that the existing advisory fee levels reflect possible economies of scale.

FEES. The Directors considered the fees to be paid to the Adviser under the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements. The Boards noted that although the contractual investment advisory fee rate payable under each proposed Amended Investment Advisory Agreement with the Adviser is the same as under the Current Investment Advisory Agreement, the method for calculating the fee is different because it would exclude from liabilities, in addition to the liquidation value of Preferred Stock, debt representing financial leverage. The Directors noted that the proceeds of any borrowings or other forms of leverage used by the Funds would increase the amount of Fund assets for which the Adviser would be expected to provide services to the Fund, and that the Adviser would be responsible for managing such proceeds. The Boards noted that the original fee language in the Current Investment Advisory Agreements was designed and intended to compensate the Adviser on the basis of the amount of assets as to which it makes investment decisions. The Boards of Directors reviewed pro forma fiscal 2007 fees that would have been paid to the Adviser under the calculation methodology in the Current Investment Advisory Agreements and under the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements, based on whether the Funds used 100% Preferred Stocks as leverage, 50% Preferred Stock and 50% debt leverage, and 100% debt leverage. The Boards of Directors noted that under both the Current Investment Advisory Agreements and the Amended Investment Advisory Agreements, pro forma advisory fees would have remained the same if the Funds used only Preferred Stock as leverage. However, the Boards of Directors noted that, if the Funds only used debt leverage, the pro forma fee paid to the Adviser would be greater under a Fund's Amended Investment Advisory Agreement than it would be under its Current Investment Advisory Agreement, but that total fees were less than those actually paid when the Funds only used Preferred Stock as leverage. The Boards of Directors concluded that, because the rates for advisory services were the same and that the new calculation methodology was reasonable and fair, it was appropriate for the Adviser to be compensated on the amount of borrowings, proceeds of debt issuances and margin borrowings, as it would be responsible for managing assets attributable to such amounts. The Directors, including a majority of the Independent Directors, concluded that the fees to be paid are reasonable in light of the services to be provided to the Funds. In this regard, the Boards considered that many funds that engage in leveraging activity provide for compensation of their investment adviser on the basis of total managed assets, including Flaherty & Crumrine/Claymore Preferred Securities Income Fund Incorporated and Flaherty & Crumrine/Claymore Total Return Fund Incorporated, two other closed-end funds managed by the Adviser.

CONCLUSION. After the Independent Directors of the Funds deliberated in executive session, the entire Board of Directors of each Fund, including the Independent Directors, approved each Amended Investment Advisory Agreement, concluding that the advisory fee rate was reasonable in relation to the services provided and that each Amended Investment Advisory Agreement was in the best interests of the shareholders.

For purposes of determining total managed assets, the liquidation preference of auction rate preferred stock is not treated as a liability.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Section 16(a) of the 1934 Act and Section 30(h) of the 1940 Act require each Fund's Directors and officers, certain persons affiliated with Flaherty & Crumrine and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of a registered class of each Fund's securities, to file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the SEC, the NYSE and each Fund. Directors, officers and greater-than-10% shareholders are required by SEC regulations to furnish each Fund with copies of such forms they file. BROKER NON-VOTE AND ABSTENTIONS

A proxy which is properly executed and returned accompanied by instructions to withhold authority to vote represents an abstention or a broker "non-vote" (i.e., shares held by brokers or nominees as to which (i) instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or the persons entitled to vote and (ii) the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power on a particular matter). Proxies that reflect abstentions or broker non-votes (collectively, "abstentions") will be counted as shares that are present and entitled to vote at the meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a Quorum. With respect to Proposals 1 and 2, abstentions do not constitute a vote "for" the proposal and will instead count as a vote "against" the proposal.

As amended and restated [_____, ____], 2008

Flaherty & Crumrine Incorporated
301 E. Colorado Boulevard

Suite 720
Pasadena, California 91101

Ladies and Gentlemen:

[Fund] (the "Company"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Maryland, herewith confirms its agreement with Flaherty & Crumrine Incorporated (the "Adviser"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of California, as follows:

1. INVESTMENT DESCRIPTION; APPOINTMENT

The Company desires to employ its capital by investing and reinvesting in investments of the kind and in accordance with the limitations specified in its Articles of Incorporation, as the same may from time to time be amended, and in its Registration Statement as from time to time in effect, and in such manner and to such extent as may from time to time be approved by the Board of Directors of the Company. Copies of the Company's Registration Statement and Articles of Incorporation, as amended, have been or will be submitted to the Adviser. The Company agrees to provide copies of all amendments to the Company's Registration Statement and Articles of Incorporation to the Adviser on an on-going basis. The Company desires to employ and hereby appoints the Adviser to act as investment adviser to the Company. The Adviser accepts the appointment and agrees to furnish the services described herein for the compensation set forth below.

2. SERVICES AS INVESTMENT ADVISER

Subject to the supervision and direction of the Board of Directors of the Company, the Adviser will (a) act in accordance with the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as the same may from time to time be amended, (b) manage the Company's portfolio on a discretionary basis in accordance with its investment objective and policies as stated in the Company's Registration Statement as from time to time in effect, (c) make investment decisions and exercise voting rights in respect of portfolio securities for the Company, (d) place purchase and sale orders on behalf of the Company and (e) employ professional portfolio managers and securities analysts to provide research services to the Company. The Adviser is authorized to retain the services of an economic consultant at the expense of the Fund to provide such services with respect to the Company as the parties to any agreement may agree upon. In providing these services, the Adviser will provide investment research and supervision of the Company's evaluation and, if appropriate, sale and reinvestment of the Company's assets. In addition, the Adviser will furnish the Company with whatever statistical information the Company may reasonably request with respect to the securities that the Company may hold or contemplate purchasing.

3. BROKERAGE

In executing transactions for the Company and selecting brokers or dealers, the Adviser will use its best efforts to seek the best overall terms available. In assessing the best overall terms available for any Company transaction, the Adviser will consider all factors it deems relevant including, but not limited to, breadth of the market in the security, the price of the security, the financial condition and execution capability of the broker or dealer and the reasonableness of any commission for the specific transaction and on a continuing basis. In selecting brokers or dealers to execute any transaction and in evaluating the best overall terms available, the Adviser may consider the brokerage and research services (as those terms are defined in Section 28(e) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934) provided to the Company and/or other accounts over which the Adviser or an affiliate exercises investment discretion.

4. INFORMATION PROVIDED TO THE COMPANY

The Adviser will use its best efforts to keep the Company informed of developments materially affecting the Company, and will, on its own initiative, furnish the Company from time to time with whatever information the Adviser believes is appropriate for this purpose.

5. STANDARD OF CARE

The Adviser shall exercise its best judgment in rendering the services described in paragraphs 2, 3, and 4 above. The Adviser shall not be liable for any error of judgment or mistake of law or for any act or omission or any loss suffered by the Company in connection with the matters to which this Agreement relates, provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to protect or purport to protect the Adviser against any liability to the Company or its shareholders to which the Adviser would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence on its part in the performance of its duties or from reckless disregard by it of its obligations and duties under this Agreement ("disabling conduct"). The Company will indemnify the Adviser against, and hold it harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses), including any amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines or penalties, not resulting from disabling conduct by the Adviser. Indemnification shall be made only following: (i) a final decision on the merits by a court or other body before whom the proceeding was brought that the Adviser was not liable by reason of disabling conduct or (ii) in the absence of such a decision, a reasonable determination, based upon a review of the facts, that the Adviser was not liable by reason of disabling conduct by (a) the vote of a majority of a quorum of directors of the Company who are neither "interested persons" of the Company nor parties to the proceeding ("disinterested non-party directors") or (b) an independent legal counsel in a written opinion. The Adviser shall be entitled to advances from the Company for payment of the reasonable expenses incurred by it in connection with the matter as to which it is seeking indemnification in the manner and to the fullest extent permissible under the Maryland General Corporation law. The Adviser shall provide to the Company a written affirmation of its good faith belief that the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Company has been met and a written undertaking to repay any such advance if it should ultimately be determined that the standard of conduct has not been met. In addition, at least one of the following additional conditions shall be met: (a) the Adviser shall provide a security in form and amount acceptable to the Company for its undertaking; (b) the Company is insured against losses arising by reason of the advance; or (c) a majority of a quorum of disinterested non-party directors, or independent legal counsel, in a written opinion, shall have determined, based on a review of facts readily available to the Company at the time the advance is proposed to be made, that there is reason to believe that the Adviser will ultimately be found to be entitled to indemnification.

6. COMPENSATION

(a) In consideration of the services rendered pursuant to this Agreement, the Company will pay the Adviser after the end of each calendar month a fee for the previous month computed monthly at the annual rate of .625 of 1.00% on the Company's average monthly total managed assets up to $100 million and .50 of 1.00% on the Company's average monthly total managed assets of $100 million or more.

For purposes of calculating such fee, the Company's total managed assets means the total assets of the Company (including any assets attributable to any Company auction rate preferred stock that may be outstanding or otherwise attributable to the use of leverage) minus the sum of accrued liabilities (other than debt, if any, representing financial leverage). For purposes of determining total managed assets, the liquidation preference of the Company preferred stock is not treated as a liability.

(b) Upon any termination of the Agreement before the end of a month, the fee for such part of that month shall be prorated according to the proportion that such period bears to the full monthly period and shall be payable upon the date of termination of this Agreement. For the purpose of determining fees payable to the Adviser, the value of the Company's average monthly net assets shall be computed at the times and in the manner specified in the Company's Registration Statement as from time to time in effect.

7. EXPENSES

The Adviser will bear all expenses in connection with the performance of its services under this Agreement, including compensation of an office space for its officers and employees connected with investment and economic research, trading and investment management and administration of the Company, as well as the fees of all directors of the Company who are affiliated with the Adviser or any of its affiliates; provided that the Company shall reimburse the Adviser for the travel and out-of-pocket expenses or an appropriate portion thereof of directors, officers and employees of the Adviser in connection with attendance at meetings of the Board of Directors of the Fund of any committee thereof. The Company will bear all other expenses to be incurred in its operation other than those that other parties have agreed to bear, including: organizational expenses; taxes, interest, brokerage costs and commissions and stock exchange fees; fees of directors of the Company who are not officers, directors or employees of the Adviser; Securities and Exchange Commission fees; state Blue Sky qualification fees; charges of the custodian, any subcustodians and transfer and dividend-paying agent; expenses in connection with the Company's Dividend Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Plan; insurance premiums; outside auditing and legal expenses; costs of maintenance of the Company's existence; costs attributable to investor services, including, without limitation, telephone and personnel expenses; costs of printing stock certificates; costs of shareholders' reports and meetings of the shareholders of the Company and of the officers or Board of Directors of the Company; membership fees in trade associations; stock exchange listing fees and expenses; expenses in connection with auctions of shares of auction rate preferred stock proposed to be issued by the Company; litigation and other extraordinary or non-recurring expenses.

8. SERVICES TO OTHER COMPANIES OR ACCOUNTS

The Company understands that the Adviser now acts, will continue to act or may in the future act, as investment adviser to fiduciary and other managed accounts or as investment adviser to one or more other investment companies, and the Company has no objection to the Adviser so acting, provided that whenever the Company and one or more other accounts or investment companies advised by the Adviser have available funds for investment, investments suitable and appropriate for each will be allocated in accordance with procedures believed by the Adviser to be equitable to each entity. Similarly, opportunities to sell securities will be allocated in an equitable manner. The Company recognizes that in some cases this procedure may adversely affect the size of the position obtained for or disposed of by the Company. In addition, the Company understands that the persons employed by the Adviser to assist in the performance of the Adviser's duties hereunder will not devote their full time to such service and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit or restrict the right of the Adviser or any affiliate of the Adviser to engage in and devote time and attention to other business or to render services or whatever kind or nature.

9. TERM OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall become effective as of the date the Company's Registration Statement is declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission and shall continue for an initial two-year term and shall continue thereafter so long as such continuance is specifically approved at least annually by (i) the Board of Directors of the Company or (ii) a vote of a "majority" (as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended) of the Company's outstanding voting securities, provided that in either event the continuance is also approved by a majority of the Board of Directors who are not "interested persons" (as defined in said Act) of any party to this Agreement, by vote cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval. This Agreement is terminable, without penalty, on 60 days' written notice, by the Board of Directors of the Company or by vote of holders of a majority of the Company's shares, or upon 60 days' written notice, by the Adviser. This Agreement will also terminate automatically in the event of its assignment (as defined in said 1940 Act).

10. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto.

11. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York without giving effect to the conflicts of laws principles thereof.

If the foregoing accurately sets forth our agreement, kindly indicate your acceptance hereof by signing and returning the enclosed copy hereof.

Very truly yours.
