REVISED ANNUAL CAP OF CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTION

Reference is made to the announcements of the Company dated 14 October 2008 and 20 August 2010 regarding the financial services framework agreement dated 14 October 2008 between the Company and CNOOC Finance (renewed by the Renewal Agreement dated 20 August 2010 for a period of three years with effect from 1 January 2011). The Directors expect that the Existing Annual Cap for depository services under the Renewal Agreement for its remaining term of such Agreement will not fully satisfy the demands of business and therefore propose the Revised Annual Cap for the depository services under the Renewal Agreement of RMB19.0 billion from 28 May 2012 to 31 December 2013.

As the applicable percentage ratios (as defined in the Listing Rules) in respect of the Revised Annual Cap for the depository services under the Renewal Agreement is less than 5%, it will be subject to the reporting, annual review and announcement requirements under Rules 14A.37 to 14A.40, 14A.45 and 14A.47 of the Listing Rules, but exempted from the Independent Shareholders' approval requirement.

Reference is made to the announcements of the Company dated 14 October 2008 and 20 August 2010 regarding the financial services framework agreement dated 14 October 2008 between the Company and CNOOC Finance (renewed by the Renewal Agreement dated 20 August 2010 for a period of three years with effect from 1 January 2011).

Historical figures and the Existing Annual Cap

The Existing Annual Cap for the depository services under the Renewal Agreement for each of the three years ending 31 December 2013 is RMB9.8 billion and a breakdown of its approximate historical transaction figures is as follows:

For the year ended 31 December 2011	For the four months ended 30 April 2012

Maximum daily outstanding balance (including accrued interest) placed by the Group with CNOOC Finance (excluding funds placed for the purpose of extending entrustment loans pursuant to the entrustment loan services)	RMB 9,799,992,298.50	RMB 9,799,993,379.68

Revised Annual Cap and the reasons for raising the Existing Annual Cap

While the Existing Annual Cap for the depository services under the Renewal Agreement has not been exceeded as at the date of this announcement, in view of the increase in demand for settlement of transactions with members of CNOOC Group and third parties (including those receivables arising from the sales of petroleum and natural gas of the Group to CNOOC Group and third parties, and payables by the Group to members of CNOOC Group and third parties for the provision of different types of services), the Directors expect that the Existing Annual Cap for the depository services under the Renewal Agreement for the remaining term of such Agreement will not fully satisfy the demands of business and therefore propose a Revised Annual Cap for the depository services under the Renewal Agreement of RMB19.0 billion from 28 May 2012 to 31 December 2013.

The Revised Annual Cap was calculated on the basis of several factors including (i) the requirements for settlement of transactions with members of CNOOC Group or any third party (including those receivables arising from the sales of petroleum and natural gas of the Group to members of CNOOC Group and any third party and payables by the Group to members of CNOOC Group or any third party for the provision of different types of services); (ii) the expected amount of interest income from CNOOC Finance compared with interest income that could otherwise be realized by placing deposits with independent commercial banks; and (iii) the control of financial risks in selecting financial services providers; and (iv) the strategies of the treasury management of the Company taking into account business development plans and the financial needs of the Group.

All terms and conditions of the Renewal Agreement shall remain unchanged and effective. In light of the aforesaid, the Board (including the independent non-executive Directors) considers that the Revised Annual Cap is fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.
