Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 8, 2011, certain European subsidiaries of Dana Holding Corporation (Dana) entered into definitive agreements to establish a receivables loan facility, to replace an existing European receivables securitization program (the Existing European Facility). The agreements include a Credit Agreement (the European Credit Agreement) with ING Capital LLC (ING) that provides for a five-year lending facility based on accounts receivable under which 75 million (approximately $104 million at current exchange rates) in financing will be available to Dana Financial Services Ireland Limited (the Borrower). Ancillary to the European Credit Agreement, certain Dana European subsidiaries (collectively, the Sellers) have entered into purchase and servicing agreements (each a Purchase Agreement), under which they will sell certain receivables to the Borrower.

The Borrower is incorporated under the laws of Ireland to purchase the transferred receivables. The Borrower will pay the purchase price of the transferred receivables in part from the proceeds of loans from ING and other lenders under the European Credit Agreement and in part from the proceeds of certain subordinated loans from Dana Europe AG, a Dana subsidiary. The Borrower's obligations under the European Credit Agreement will be secured by a lien on and security interest in substantially all of its receivables. Advances to the Borrower under the European Credit Agreement will be determined based on advance rates relating to the value of the transferred receivables. Advances will bear interest based on the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) applicable to the currency in which each advance is denominated or ING's Alternate Base Rate (as defined in the European Credit Agreement). All advances are to be repaid in full by March 8, 2016. The Borrower will also pay a fee to the lenders based on any unused amount of the commitment, in addition to other customary fees. The European Credit Agreement contains customary representations and warranties, covenants and events of default. The proceeds from the sales of the transferred receivables will principally be reinvested in Dana's European businesses.

A copy of the European Credit Agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. The above description of the material terms of the European Credit Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Exhibit 10.1.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 8, 2011, in connection with its entry into the European Credit Agreement described in Item 1.01, Dana terminated the Existing European Facility available under its Receivables Loan Agreement dated July 17, 2007 with GE Leveraged Loans Limited.

Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant

Please see the discussion set forth in Item 1.01., Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement, of this Form 8-K, which discussion is incorporated herein by reference.
