Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer
Amended and Restated Investors Rights Agreement

The Menlo Funds and other stockholders (collectively, the Holders) of the Issuer entered into a Third Amended and Restated Investors Rights Agreement dated December 24, 2009 (the Investors Rights Agreement) with the Issuer. Subject to the terms of the Investors Rights Agreement, holders of approximately 12.6 million shares of the Issuer s Common Stock (Registrable Securities) can demand that the Issuer file a registration statement or request that their shares be covered by a registration statement that the Issuer is otherwise filing.

Demand registration rights

At any time beginning on February 10, 2012, Holders of at least 35% of the Registrable Securities then outstanding can, on not more than two occasions, request that the Issuer register all or a portion of their shares. Such request for registration must cover at least that number of shares with an anticipated aggregate offering price, net of underwriting discounts and commissions, exceeding $10 million. However, the Issuer will not be required to effect a demand registration if it has already effected one such registration in a given 12-month period. Additionally, the Issuer will not be required to effect a demand registration during the period beginning 60 days prior to the filing and 180 days following the effectiveness of a registration statement relating to a public offering of its securities (subject to extension in certain circumstances).

Piggyback registration rights

In the event that the Issuer proposes to register any of its securities under the Securities Act, either for its own account or for the account of other security holders, the Holders will be entitled to certain piggyback registration rights allowing them to include their shares in such registration, subject to certain marketing and other limitations. As a result, whenever the Issuer proposes to file a registration statement under the Securities Act, other than with respect to a registration related to employee benefit plans, debt securities or corporate reorganizations, the Holders are entitled to notice of the registration and have the right, subject to limitations that the underwriters may impose on the number of shares included in the registration, to include their shares in the registration.

Form S-3 registration rights

The Holders are also entitled to certain Form S-3 registration rights. Holders of at least 10% of the Registrable Securities then outstanding can make a written request that the Issuer register their shares on Form S-3 if the Issuer is eligible to file a registration statement on Form S-3 and if the aggregate price to the public of the shares offered is at least $2.5 million. These Holders may make an unlimited number of requests for registration on Form S-3. However, the Issuer will not be required to effect a registration on Form S-3 if it has already effected one such registration in a given 12-month period. Additionally, the Issuer will not be required to effect a Form S-3 registration during the period beginning 60 days prior to the filing and 180 days following the effectiveness of a registration statement relating to a public offering of its securities (subject to extension in certain circumstances).

Expenses of Registration

The Issuer will pay the registration expenses of the Holders with respect to the shares registered pursuant to the demand, piggyback, and Form S-3 registrations described above. In an underwritten offering, the managing underwriter, if any, has the right, subject to specified conditions, to limit the number of shares such Holders may include.

Indemnification

The Investors Rights Agreement contains customary cross-indemnification provisions, pursuant to which the Issuer is obligated to indemnify the selling stockholders in the event of material misstatements or omissions in the registration statement attributable to the Issuer, and the selling stockholders are obligated to indemnify the Issuer for material misstatements or omissions attributable to them.

Termination

The demand, piggyback, and Form S-3 registration rights described above will expire, with respect to any particular Holder, when that Holder can sell all of its shares under Rule 144 of the Securities Act during any three-month period. In any event, all such registration rights will expire upon the earlier of August 16, 2016 or the consummation of certain events, including the sale of all of the Issuer s assets, a change of control of the Issuer, or a liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Issuer.

Lock-up Agreement

The Menlo Funds, along with all of the Issuer's executive officers and directors, and certain of the Issuer's other security holders who held securities of the Issuer prior to its initial public offering have agreed not to sell or transfer any common stock or securities convertible into, exchangeable for, exercisable for, or repayable with common stock, for 180 days after August 10, 2011 without first obtaining the written consent of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC. Specifically, the Menlo funds have agreed, with certain limited exceptions, not to directly or indirectly offer, pledge, sell, or contract to sell any common stock;

sell any option or contract to purchase any common stock;

purchase any option or contract to sell any common stock;

grant any option, right, or warrant for the sale of any common stock;

lend or otherwise dispose of or transfer any common stock;

request or demand that we file a registration statement related to the common stock; or enter into any swap or other agreement that transfers, in whole or in part, the economic consequence of ownership of any common stock whether any such swap or transaction is to be settled by delivery of shares or other securities, in cash, or otherwise.

This lock-up provision applies to common stock and to securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for or repayable with common stock. It also applies to common stock owned now or acquired later by the Menlo Funds or for which the Menlo Funds later acquire the power of disposition, subject to certain exceptions.

In the event that either (x) during the last 17 days of the lock-up period referred to above, the Issuer issues an earnings release or material news or a material event relating to the Issuer occurs or (y) prior to the expiration of the lock-up period, the Issuer announces that it will release earnings results or becomes aware that material news or a material event will occur during the 16-day period beginning on the last day of the lock-up period, the restrictions described above shall continue to apply until the expiration of the 18-day period beginning on the issuance of the earnings release or the occurrence of the material news or material event.

The foregoing description of the terms of the Investors' Rights Agreement and the Lock-up Agreement is intended as a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Investors' Rights Agreement and Form of Lock-up Agreement, which are filed as exhibits to this Schedule 13D and incorporated by reference herein.

The information provided in Items 3, 4 and 5 is hereby incorporated by reference.

Other than as described in this Schedule 13D, to the best of the Reporting Persons' knowledge, there are no other contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) among the persons named in Item 2 and between such persons and any person with respect to any securities of the Issuer.
