Item 5.02. Departures of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements with Certain Officers.

On October 19, 2011, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Insulet Corporation (the Company) appointed Daniel Levangie to serve as a Class II director with a term expiring at the 2012 annual meeting of stockholders.

Mr. Levangie will be entitled to receive standard non-employee director compensation in the same manner and subject to the same policies as the Company s other non-employee directors. The Company s current non-employee director compensation policy calls for Mr. Levangie to receive: (i) an annual retainer of $35,000, (ii) upon joining the Board, a non-qualified option to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company s common stock at an exercise price equal to the common stock s closing price on the grant date, which option is subject to a three-year vesting period, with 50% of the total award vesting approximately one year after the grant date and 25% vesting approximately two and three years after the grant date, respectively, subject to continued service as a director, and (iii) in conjunction with the Company s annual meeting of stockholders, annual grants of 4,000 restricted stock units and an option to purchase 4,000 shares of the Company s common stock, subject to similar vesting requirements.

On October 25, 2011, the Company issued a press release regarding the appointment of Mr. Levangie. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
