The following message from Cigna Corporation's President and Chief Executive Officer, David M. Cordani, was posted on Cigna's internal website.

In the dynamic environment we discuss often, we know that regardless of our success, we can never afford to stand still – the status quo is unsustainable to our continued success, or to adequately meet the evolving needs of our customers, clients, partners and communities.

For this reason, approximately one year ago, we further accelerated our strategic journey by taking our successful "Go" strategy to the next level, to "Go Deeper," "Go Local" and "Go Beyond." I wanted to briefly reflect on our journey since then.

Over the past year, this evolved strategy has served as our guide to improving the value we deliver, and to achieving the right balance of affordability, personalization and predictability our stakeholders seek, which we'll continue to enhance and deliver by:

- Being our industry's undisputed partner of choice;

- Accelerating the next-generation of integration, and;

- Making the complex simpler for the benefit of our customers.

I'm proud of Cigna's continued, strong performance since our strategy update, on behalf of everyone we serve. We've taken a number of important initiatives to continue delivering on our strategy. In particular, our proposed combination with Express Scripts, will tremendously accelerate our ability to deliver more affordable, high-quality solutions, and expand our addressable markets and distribution channels. In addition, our innovative solutions including One Guide, and initiatives such as Agile, reflect – as well as further support and propel – our "Go" strategy.

Of course, first and foremost, continuing to build on the promise of our strategy requires the ongoing focus and commitment of all of you! You are the most important embodiment of our strategy. I thank you for all that you've achieved, and ask that you maintain your high level of focus and commitment over the second half of 2018...and beyond!
