Item 8.01. Other Events.

California Coastal Communities, Inc. reported that it is continuing discussions with Commissioners and staff of the California Coastal Commission regarding potential modifications to the Company's development plan for homes on the upper bench of the Company's Bolsa Chica mesa property in response to issues raised with respect to the plan at the Coastal Commission's October 13, 2004 hearing. The Company also reported that it currently anticipates that a new application for a Coastal Development Permit (CDP) will be submitted during January 2005.

The Company currently expects that the Commission's staff will release its recommendations on the new CDP application in late February 2005, and that the Commission will hold a hearing on the CDP application during mid-March 2005, but there can be no assurance that further delays will not be encountered. The Company does not believe that the Coastal Commission process will permanently prevent it from developing a planned community at Bolsa Chica; however, there can be no assurance in that regard, or as to when development could commence, or as to the number of acres or homes the Company will be permitted to develop, or that further litigation or administrative delay will not result.
