New Chairman at the National Australia Bank

ASX Announcement

The National Australia Bank Group today announced the transition of the Group s Chairmanship from Mr Graham Kraehe to Mr Michael Chaney. This follows Mr Kraehe s announcement last year that he would be stepping down as Chairman and retiring from the National s Board in September 2005.

Mr Kraehe has been a non-executive director at the National since 1997, and was appointed Chairman in February 2004.

Mr Chaney acknowledged Mr Kraehe s contribution to the National, particularly in his role as Chairman of the Group.

I speak for the entire Board of Directors in thanking Graham for his significant contribution to the National Australia Bank.

Graham has been a strong leader of the Board, contributing substantially to the transformation of the National. He led the National s Board of Directors through a significant renewal program, developing a Board with a strong diversity of experience across different industries and geographies. He has been a leader in demonstrating cultural change at the National from the top .

He leaves the National s Board in an excellent position from which to continue to build a stronger National. I am looking forward to working with John Stewart, the rest of the executive team and Board of Directors to deliver long-term, sustainable value for the National s shareholders, he said.

Mr Kraehe said he had felt privileged to be able to lead the National s Board of Directors during a challenging time.

It has been a terrific honour to be Chairman of such an iconic organisation. It has been a challenging time, but one that I ve found greatly rewarding. I have particularly enjoyed working with all the people at the National, including its talented executive team and a strong and diverse group of Directors.

Importantly, I believe Michael will be a dynamic leader, and I have no doubt his excellent track record will stand him in good stead for his role as Chairman of the National. I wish him, the rest of the Board of Directors and the National Australia Bank all the best for what I m sure will be a fantastic future, he said.

Mr Chaney assumes the role of Chairman from 28 September 2005. He has been a non-executive director at the National since December 2004 and has been working closely with Mr Kraehe since that time to ensure a smooth changeover.
