On July 8, 2013, a subsidiary of the Company acquired M.I.S.S. Ophthalmics Limited (“M.I.S.S.”), a private ophthalmology distribution company incorporated in England and Wales, for net cash consideration of $2.8 million. During the second quarter of fiscal 2014, there were options to purchase 60,000 shares of Common Stock granted to the Company's independent directors, which vest pro-ratably on a quarterly basis over the next year of service.

Each independent director receives an option to purchase 10,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock each year in which he or she is elected, appointed or continues to serve as a director pursuant to the Amended and Restated 2005 Non-Employee Directors' Stock Option Plan, as amended. These options also vest upon a change of control event. The Company recorded $39,000 and $53,000 of compensation expense for the three and nine months ended April 30, 2014, respectively, for these options. The Company recorded $71,000 of compensation expense for the nine months ended April 30, 2014 for previously granted director options.

Index

During the second quarter of fiscal 2014, there were options to purchase 57,500 shares of Common Stock granted to the officers and certain employees of the Company. These options were granted in conjunction with the Company's annual review of compensation as of August 1, 2013 and vest on a quarterly basis over the next four years of service. The Company recorded $10,000 and $14,000 of compensation expense for the three and nine months ended April 30, 2014, respectively, for these options. The Company recorded $56,000 and $284,000 of compensation expense for three and nine months ended April 30, 2014, respectively, for previously granted officer and employee options. As a result of the King of Prussia facility closure, $101,000 of this compensation expense is included in exit costs for the nine months ended April 30, 2014.

The Company expects to issue new shares as options are exercised. As of April 30, 2014, the future compensation cost expected to be recognized for currently outstanding stock options is approximately $106,000 for the remainder of fiscal 2014, $324,000 in fiscal 2015, $238,000 in fiscal 2016, $119,000 in fiscal 2017 and $17,000 in fiscal 2018.

The fair value of all options granted during the second quarter of fiscal 2014 was determined at the date of the grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model and the following assumptions:

Expected average risk-free interest rate	2.9%
Expected average life (in years)	10
Expected volatility	68.6%
Expected dividend yield	0.0%

The expected average risk-free rate is based on the 10-year U.S. treasury yield curve in December 2013. The expected average life represents the period of time that the options granted are expected to be outstanding giving consideration to the vesting schedules, historical exercises and forfeiture patterns. Expected volatility is based on historical volatilities of the Company's Common Stock. The expected dividend yield is based on historical information and management's plan.

The fair value of the in-the-money stock options outstanding was $244,000 and $273,000 at April 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The fair value of in-the-money exercisable stock options was $236,000 and $248,000 at April 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Restricted Stock Plans

Under the Company's Second Amended and Restated Synergetics USA, Inc. 2001 Stock and Performance Incentive Plan ("2001 Plan"), the Company's Common Stock may be granted at no cost to certain employees and consultants of the Company. Certain plan participants are entitled to cash dividends and voting rights for their respective shares. Restrictions limit the sale or transfer of these shares during a vesting period whereby the restrictions lapse either pro-ratably over a three-year to five-year period or at the end of the third, fourth or fifth year. These shares also vest upon a change of control event. Upon issuance of stock under the 2001 Plan, unearned compensation equivalent to the market value at the date of the grant is charged to stockholders' equity and subsequently amortized to expense over the applicable restriction period. As of April 30, 2014, there was approximately $662,000 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to non-vested share-based compensation arrangements granted under the 2001 Plan. The cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted average period of four years which is generally the vesting period. The Company recorded $82,000 and $344,000 of compensation expense for three and nine months ended April 30, 2014, respectively. As a result of the King of Prussia facility closure, $100,000 of this compensation expense is included in exit costs for the nine months ended April 30, 2014. The following table provides information about restricted stock grants during the nine months ended April 30, 2014:

Note 7. Fair Value Information

Fair value is an exit price that represents the amount that would be received upon sale of an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants.

The Company does not have any financial assets which are required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis. Non-financial assets such as goodwill, intangible assets and property, plant and equipment are measured at fair value when there is an indicator of impairment or at least annually and recorded at fair value only when impairment is recognized. No impairment indicators existed as of April 30, 2014.

The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these items.

Note 11. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued an accounting standard update requiring an entity to release into net income the entire amount of a cumulative translation adjustment related to its investment in a foreign entity when as a parent it either sells a part or all of its investment in the foreign entity or no longer holds a controlling financial interest in a subsidiary or group of assets within the foreign entity. This accounting standard update will be effective for the Company beginning in the first quarter of fiscal 2015. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this accounting standard update on its consolidated financial statements.

In July 2013, the FASB issued an accounting standard update that provides explicit guidance on the financial statement presentation of an unrecognized tax benefit when a net operating loss carryforward or a tax credit carryforward exists. Under the new standard update, unrecognized tax benefit, or a portion of an unrecognized tax benefit, is to be presented in the financial statements as a reduction to a deferred tax asset for a net operating loss carryforward or a tax credit carryforward. This accounting standard update will be effective for the Company beginning in the first quarter fiscal 2015 and applied prospectively with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this accounting standard update on its consolidated financial statements.

In April 2014, the FASB issued an accounting standard update increasing the threshold for a disposal to qualify as a discontinued operation and require new disclosures of both discontinued operations and certain other disposals that do not meet the definition of a discontinued operation. The standard will be effective for the Company beginning in the second quarter fiscal 2015. The adoption of the pronouncement may affect the Company’s presentation of future dispositions.

In May 2014, the FASB issued an accounting standard update that provides explicit guidance on the recognition of revenue based upon the entity’s contracts with customers to transfer goods or services. Under the new standard update, an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This accounting standard update will be effective for the Company in the first quarter of fiscal 2018. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this accounting standard update on its consolidated financial statements.

The Company has reviewed all other recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting pronouncements and does not believe any such pronouncements will have a material impact on its financial statements.

Recent Developments

Over the past few years, we have had several developments that we expect will contribute to the growth of our business in the foreseeable future, the most recent of which are as follows:

On June 27, 2012, the Company announced that it received 510(k) clearance from the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for VersaVIT™, a novel vitrectomy system for the retinal surgery market. On July 20, 2012, the VersaVIT™ vitrectomy system received clearance for the “CE” mark, allowing access to the European market. The Company continues its commercialization efforts on VersaVIT™ and its related consumables.

On November 28, 2012, the Company announced the signing of the third amendment to its agreement with Stryker Corporation (“Stryker”) for supply and distribution of a lesion generator and accessories, extending the expiration date until June 30, 2015.

On July 9, 2013, the Company announced that it had acquired M.I.S.S. Ophthalmics Limited (“M.I.S.S.”), a private ophthalmology distribution company incorporated in England and Wales, for net cash consideration of $2.8 million. M.I.S.S. was our distributor of ophthalmic products in the United Kingdom, and its wholesale distribution activities contributed approximately $1.1 million in revenue to the Company in fiscal 2013. M.I.S.S. generated total revenue of approximately $3.2 million during its fiscal year ended March 31, 2013 and was solidly profitable on an operating basis. The acquisition establishes a direct presence in one of the largest ophthalmic markets outside the U.S., which we believe will drive future operating efficiencies throughout our European operations, enhance sales management capabilities and favorably impact both top and bottom line financial performance in fiscal 2014.

On September 30, 2013, the Company extended its revolving credit facility and its equipment line of credit through September 30, 2016.

On October 1, 2013, the Company announced plans to close its King of Prussia, Pennsylvania facility and consolidate the manufacturing operations into its existing facility in O’Fallon, Missouri. The Company expects to expense approximately $1.2 million, of which $578,000 was expended during the first nine months of fiscal 2014. The remaining $586,000 will be expended over the next eight months to complete the closure. The Company expects the closure to result in a reduction in operating expense of more than $1.1 million on an annualized basis beginning in fiscal 2016.

On May 5, 2014, the Company announced the launch of the next generation Directional™ Laser Probe. The Directional™ II Laser Probe is a significant improvement on the original Directional™ Laser Probe as it incorporates years of feedback from the original design. The improvements include an ergonomic, color-coded handle that emulates the Pinnacle™ instrument line. In addition, it incorporates significant improvements on the mechanism responsible for adjusting the fiber from straight to curved.

On May 12, 2014, the Company announced the completion of a cooperative development agreement with Cleveland Clinic to develop the next generation of intraoperative devices. These devices are expected to lead to improved visualization of surgical sites leading to more precise tissue targeting and improved surgical outcomes.

On June 9, 2014, the Company announced the targeted launch of the next generation vitrectomy system, VersaVIT 2.0™, in the second-half of June. VersaVIT 2.0™ offers an improvement over the first generation system by providing high speed cutting in combination with active duty cycle control. Combined, both high speed cutting and duty cycle control provide surgeons with a more efficient way to remove vitreous while simultaneously increasing safety by decreasing traction on retinal tissues when shaving along the base of the retina. Additional features of the VersaVIT 2.0™ system and accessories include LED illumination, pressurized infusion and a silicone oil collection chamber.

Net sales to OEM customers represent sales of electrosurgery generators, disposable bipolar forceps and related accessories and royalties from Codman & Shurtleff, Inc. (“Codman”), multi-channel ablation generators, disposable ultrasonic aspirator tips and related accessories to Stryker and sales of certain disposable products to Mobius (1) Therapeutics LLC (“Mobius”). In addition, deferred revenues of $322,000 and $966,000 from the 2010 settlement with Alcon, Inc. (“Alcon”) are included in this category for the three and nine months ended April 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively. However, as cash from the 2010 Alcon settlement has already been collected, it will not impact our future liquidity.

(2) Net sales from Other represent direct neurosurgery revenues and other miscellaneous revenues.

The decrease in sales for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 compared with the third quarter of fiscal 2013 was primarily due to the decrease of $172,000 in ophthalmic sales. Overall sales of our disposable products grew $869,000, or 6.7 percent, in the third quarter of fiscal 2014 as compared to the comparable period of fiscal 2013. We measure our performance primarily through our revenue and operating profit growth. In addition to our consolidated financial statements presented in accordance with GAAP, management uses certain non-GAAP measures, including EBITDA, return on average equity and return on average assets, to measure our operating performance. We provide a definition of the components of these measurements and reconciliation to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure.

These non-GAAP measures are presented to enhance an understanding of our operating results and are not intended to represent cash flow or results of operations. The use of these non-GAAP measures provides an indication of our ability to service debt and measure operating performance. We believe these non-GAAP measures are useful in evaluating our operating performance compared to other companies in our industry, and are beneficial to investors, potential investors and other key stakeholders, including creditors who use this measure in their evaluation of performance.

These non-GAAP measures are not in accordance with, or an alternative to, measures prepared in accordance with GAAP and may be different from non-GAAP measures used by other companies. In addition, these non-GAAP measures are not based on any comprehensive set of accounting rules or principles. Non-GAAP measures have limitations in that they do not reflect all of the amounts associated with the Company's results of operations as determined in accordance with GAAP. These measures should only be used to evaluate our results of operations in conjunction with the corresponding GAAP measures.

The Company's strategy is to enhance shareholder value through profitable revenue growth in targeted segments of the ophthalmology and neurosurgery markets. This is accomplished through the identification and development of reusable and disposable devices in collaboration with leading surgeons and OEM partners. Generate Growth in our Ophthalmology Business

We are focused on expanding our product platform into larger and faster-growing segments of the vitreoretinal device market. Thus, we have focused our internal research and development efforts on developing innovative technologies that will enable the Company to enhance its value to the vitreoretinal community. We are implementing several focused initiatives to capitalize on our recent new product introduction, the VersaVIT™, and other new products, and capitalize on the current macroeconomic environment. In addition, we are also seeking business development opportunities to augment and complement our existing ophthalmic franchise. Finally, we are improving our sales force productivity. For example, in the U.S., we are focused on enhancing our compensation programs to target the appropriate mix of product and rigorous development of our sales force capabilities through enhanced training and customer relationship management. Additionally, in the international markets, we are working to optimize our sales capabilities and distribution infrastructure. Our recent acquisition of M.I.S.S. demonstrates our commitment to enhancing our international distribution infrastructure.

Deliver Improved Profitability through our Enterprise-Wide Lean Initiatives

We have been developing comprehensive enterprise-wide initiatives aimed at creating a more efficient operating platform. The lean mindset has permeated our corporate culture. We believe we have taken over $3.0 million out of our cost basis since we implemented our lean efforts. In addition, we implemented our Enterprise Resource Planning (“ERP”) system in August 2011. Continued improvements throughout the organization are expected to emerge as we optimize the ERP system.

On October 1, 2013, the Company announced plans to close its King of Prussia, Pennsylvania facility and consolidate the manufacturing operations into its existing facility in O’Fallon, Missouri. The Company expects to expense approximately $1.2 million, of which $578,000 was expended during the first nine months of fiscal 2014. The remaining $586,000 will be expended over the next eight months to complete the closure. The Company expects the closure to result in a reduction in operating expense of more than $1.1 million on an annualized basis beginning in fiscal 2016.

Manage our Neurosurgery and OEM Businesses for Stable Growth and Strong Cash Flows

We produce most of our OEM produce under contracts established with our two largest OEM partners, Codman and Stryker. These relationships provide high visibility within the neurosurgery and pain control markets. We provide best-in-class technologies with our electrosurgery generators and disposable bipolar forceps being distributed by Codman and our multi-channel ablation generator and ultrasonic aspirator disposables being distributed by Stryker. We are working with both of these OEM partners to provide product line iterations to maintain their technological advantages. We also work to develop relationships with a select number of other potential OEM customers which would continue to enhance our OEM platform growth and profitability to complement our strategic focus.

Demonstrate Consistent, Solid Financial Performance

In the short and long-term, we continue to expect to deliver a growing revenue stream and meet increasing earnings objectives. We also will enhance our working capital usage by employing both our lean philosophy and our ERP system to derive more cash flow from the business. We will prudently manage our capital structure to allow for additional growth opportunities and optimal cash deployment.

Trends

Demand Trends

The Company's sales increased 4.1 percent during the first nine months of fiscal 2014, compared with the first nine months of fiscal 2013. The most significant factor impacting this increase was an increase of $2.0 million in OEM sales during the first nine months of fiscal 2014 (including $966,000 deferred revenue from the 2010 Alcon settlement in the first nine months of fiscal 2014 and 2013, respectively). In the first nine months of fiscal 2014, disposable product sales accounted for approximately 87.2 percent of our total product sales. Overall sales of our disposable products grew $4.3 million, or 11.7 percent, in the first nine months of fiscal 2014, as compared to the comparable period of fiscal 2013. Sales of capital equipment decreased by approximately $2.3 million, or 31.5 percent, in the first nine months of fiscal 2014, as compared to the comparable period of fiscal 2013.

Based upon a study performed by Market Scope LLC (“Market Scope”), dated March 2012, there are approximately 2,000 practicing retinal specialists in the United States and an additional 7,600 throughout the rest of the world. In 2013, Market Scope estimated that approximately 324,000 vitrectomies would be performed in the United States and 1.26 million total vitrectomies would be performed throughout the world. Market Scope estimates that these procedures are growing at a rate of 2.4 percent annually.

Neurosurgical procedures on a global basis continue to rise at an estimated 1 to 3 percent growth rate, driven by an aging global population, new technologies, advances in surgical techniques and a growing global market resulting from ongoing improvements in healthcare delivery in emerging markets, among other factors. Based upon this growth in procedures, sales of neurosurgical products worldwide are forecasted to increase by approximately 4 percent.

In addition, we believe that the demand for high quality, innovative products and new technologies consistent with the Company’s devices and disposables will continue to favorably impact procedure growth in the ophthalmic and neurosurgical markets.

Pricing Trends

Due to the development and launch of new products, the Company has observed significant discounting practices from some of our major competitors in an effort to preserve their market share. This, combined with an increase in product commoditization in the retinal space, is increasing the pricing pressures on our ophthalmic products. The Company has no major domestic group purchasing agreements.

Economic Trends

Economic conditions may continue to negatively impact capital expenditures at the hospital, ambulatory surgical center and physician level. Further, global economic conditions continue to negatively impact the volume and average selling price of the Company’s products in our European markets. The Company’s international sales of ophthalmic products decreased 0.6 percent during the nine months ended April 30, 2014, as compared to the nine months ended April 30, 2013.

Ophthalmic sales decreased 2.0 percent in the third quarter of fiscal 2014, compared to the third quarter of fiscal 2013. Domestic ophthalmic sales decreased 6.1 percent in the third quarter of fiscal 2014, primarily due to the decreased sales of base business capital equipment and disposables, partially offset by increased sales of procedural kits (including kits associated with VersaVIT™). International ophthalmic sales increased 3.1 percent in the third quarter of fiscal 2014, primarily due to sales from M.I.S.S. and positive currency exchange, partially offset by decreased sales of base business capital equipment and disposables. OEM sales decreased $5,000 in the third quarter of fiscal 2014 as compared to the third quarter of fiscal 2013. Total OEM sales decreased 0.1 percent to $7.4 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2014 (including $322,000 of deferred revenue recognized from the 2010 Alcon settlement), compared with $7.4 million in the third quarter of fiscal 2013 (including $322,000 of deferred revenue recognized). OEM sales benefited from strong volumes of disposable products sold to Codman and Stryker, offset by decreased electro-surgery generator sales to Codman. Other sales increased $48,000 in the third quarter of fiscal 2014, or 22.9 percent, compared to the third quarter of fiscal 2013.

In the third quarter of fiscal 2014, disposable product sales accounted for approximately 85.9 percent of our total product sales. International (including Canada)	4,029	3,919	2.8	%
Total	$ 16,135	$ 16,264	(0.8	%)

Domestic sales decreased 1.9 percent in the third quarter of fiscal 2014 due to decreases in ophthalmic and OEM sales which are recorded as domestic sales. International sales increased 2.8 percent in the third quarter of fiscal 2014 primarily due to the increase in international ophthalmology sales of 3.1 percent. The increase in international ophthalmology sales was primarily due to sales from M.I.S.S. and positive currency exchange, partially offset by decreased sales of ophthalmic base business capital equipment and disposables.

Gross Profit

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales was 55.2 percent in the third quarter of fiscal 2014 compared to 55.7 percent for the same period in fiscal 2013. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 compared to the third quarter of fiscal 2013 decreased 0.5 percentage points. Gross profit margin for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 was negatively impacted by the mix of products including both the increase in our international sales and the increase in the percentage of our OEM sales.

Research and development expenses (“R&D”) as a percentage of net sales was 8.1 percent and 6.0 percent for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 and 2013, respectively. R&D investment increased $329,000 in the third quarter of fiscal 2014 compared to the same period in fiscal 2013. The Company’s pipeline included approximately 26 active projects in various stages of completion as of April 30, 2014. The Company’s R&D investment is driven by the opportunities to accelerate new products to meet the needs of its surgeon customers and address the demands of the market. This results in an investment rate that the Company believes is comparable to such spending by other medical device companies. The Company expects to invest in R&D at a rate of approximately 6.0 to 8.0 percent of net sales over the next few years.

Sales and marketing expenses decreased $73,000 to approximately $3.4 million, or 21.4 percent of net sales, for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 compared to $3.5 million, or 21.7 percent of net sales, for the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The decrease is primarily due to the decrease in domestic ophthalmology sales.

General and administrative expenses decreased by approximately $117,000 to $2.6 million, or 16.1 percent of net sales, in the third quarter of fiscal 2014 compared to $2.7 million, or 16.7 percent of net sales, for the third quarter of fiscal 2013. The decrease is primarily due to the elimination of the Chief Scientific Officer position.

Exit costs were $64,000, or 0.4 percent for net sales, for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 due to the closure of the King of Prussia location. Exit costs consisted primarily of the severance obligations to former employees of this location.

Medical device excise tax was $83,000, or 0.5 percent of net sales, for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 compared to $115,000, or 0.7% of net sales, for the third quarter of fiscal 2013.

Other Income/(Expenses)

Other income for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 was $1,000 as compared to other expense of $9,000 for the third quarter of fiscal 2013.

Operating Income, Income Taxes and Net Income

Operating income for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 decreased $310,000 to $1.4 million, as compared to the comparable 2013 fiscal period. The decrease in the operating income was primarily the result of a 0.8 percent decrease in sales and a 0.1 percent increase in cost of sales, resulting in a $139,000 decrease in gross profit. A 33.8 percent increase in R&D expenses and $64,000 in exit costs associated with the closure of the Company’s King of Prussia location reduced operating income. However, a 2.1 percent decrease in sales and marketing expenses, a 4.3 percent decrease in general and administrative expenses and a 27.8 percent decrease in medical device excise taxes partially offset this decline.

The Company recorded a $469,000 tax provision on pre-tax income of $1.4 million, a 33.2 percent tax provision, in the quarter ended April 30, 2014. In the quarter ended April 30, 2013, the Company recorded a $562,000 tax provision on pre-tax income of $1.7 million, a 32.8 percent tax provision.

Net income decreased by $207,000 to $943,000 for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 from $1.2 million for the same period in fiscal 2013. The decrease in net income was primarily from the decrease in operating income discussed above. Basic and diluted earnings per share for the third quarter of fiscal 2014 was $0.04 as compared to $0.05 in the third quarter of fiscal 2013. Basic weighted average shares outstanding increased from 25,299,131 at April 30, 2013, to 25,331,925 at April 30, 2014.

Gross Profit

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales was 56.1 percent in the first nine months of fiscal 2014 compared to 50.5 percent for the same period in fiscal 2013. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales for the first nine months of fiscal 2014 compared to the first nine months of fiscal 2013 increased 5.6 percentage points. Gross profit margin for the first nine months of fiscal 2013 was impacted by the three following factors: (i) an approximate $1.6 million write-off of excess inventory and its associated labor and overhead negatively impacted our margin by 3.6 percentage points; (ii) weak demand for both our disposables and capital equipment reduced our ability to absorb labor and overhead costs and negatively impacted margin by 1.4 percentage points; and (iii) the decreased benefit from deferred revenue negatively impacted margin by 0.5 percentage points. The inventory write-off, the weak demand for our disposables and the decreased benefit from deferred revenue did not recur during the first nine months of 2014.

Operating income for the first nine months of fiscal 2014 increased $917,000 to $2.4 million as compared to the comparable 2013 fiscal period. The increase in operating income was primarily due to a 4.1 percent increase in sales and a 7.7 percent decrease in cost of sales (as detailed in the Gross Profit section above), resulting in a $3.5 million increase in gross profit. The increase in gross margin was partially offset by a 50.8 percent increase in R&D expenses, a 2.8 percent increase in sales and marketing expenses, a 3.0 percent increase in general and administrative expenses, a 101.9 percent increase in medical device excise taxes and $578,000 in exit costs associated with the closures of the King of Prussia location.

The effective tax rate for fiscal 2013 was impacted by the re-enactment of the Research and Experimentation credit from December 2011.

Net income increased by $532,000 to $1.7 million for the first nine months of fiscal 2014 from net income of $1.1 million for the same period in fiscal 2013. The increase in net income was primarily due to the increase in operating income discussed above. The increase in cash flows of $279,000 was primarily attributable to the increase in deferred income taxes of $1.9 million, the decrease in income taxes receivable of $580,000 and the increase in net income of $532,000, offset by an increase in inventory of $1.5 million, an increase in accounts receivable of $441,000, a decrease in accounts payable of $372,000, a decrease in accrued expenses of $343,000 and an increase in prepaid expenses of $279,000.

Revolving Credit Facility: The Company has a credit facility with a bank which allows for borrowings of up to $9.5 million with interest at an interest rate based on either the one-, two- or three-month LIBOR plus 2.00 percent and adjusting each quarter based upon our leverage ratio. There were no borrowings under this facility at April 30, 2014. Outstanding amounts, if any, are collateralized by the Company's domestic receivables and inventory. In addition, the remaining deferred revenue from the Alcon settlement will flow through our statement of income over the next 12 years. However, as cash has already been collected from the 2010 Alcon settlement, it will not impact our future liquidity.

Although we believe the expectations reflected in our forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, it is not possible to foresee or identify all factors that could have a material effect on the future financial performance of the Company. The forward-looking statements in this report are made on the basis of management's assumptions and analyses, as of the time the statements are made, in light of their experience and perception of historical conditions, expected future developments and other factors believed to be appropriate under the circumstances.

In addition, certain market data and other statistical information used throughout this report are based on independent industry publications. Although we believe these sources to be reliable, we have not independently verified the information and cannot guarantee the accuracy and completeness of such sources.

Except as otherwise required by the federal securities laws, we disclaim any obligation or undertaking to publicly release any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statement contained in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and the information incorporated by reference in this report to reflect any change in our expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any statement is based.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company's significant accounting policies which require management's judgment are disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2013. In the first nine months of fiscal 2014, there were no changes to the significant accounting policies.

Item 3 — Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

The Company's primary market risks include fluctuations in interest rates and exchange rate variability.

The Company has $12.8 million in cash and cash equivalents with a substantial portion of this cash held in short-term money market funds bearing interest at 30 basis points. Interest income from these funds is subject to market risk in the form of fluctuations in interest rates. A reduction in the interest on these funds to 15 basis points would decrease the amount of interest income from these funds by approximately $19,000.

The Company currently has a revolving credit facility and an equipment line of credit facility in place. The revolving credit facility had no outstanding balance at April 30, 2014, bearing interest at a current rate of LIBOR plus 2.0 percent. The equipment line of credit facility had no outstanding balance at April 30, 2014, bearing interest at one-month LIBOR plus 3.0 percent. Interest expense from these credit facilities is subject to market risk in the form of fluctuations in interest rates. Because the current levels of borrowings are zero, there would be no market risk associated with the interest rates. The Company does not perform any interest rate hedging activities related to these two facilities.

Additionally, the Company has exposure to non-U.S. currency fluctuations through export sales to international accounts. As only approximately 11.3 percent of our sales revenue is denominated in non-U.S. currencies, we estimate that a change in the relative strength of the dollar to non-U.S. currencies would not have a material impact on the Company's results of operations. The Company does not conduct any hedging activities related to non-U.S. currency.

As of April 30, 2014, the Company has no litigation reserve recorded.
