ITEM 8.01 OTHER EVENTS

As previously announced, at 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on November 13, 2014 Cash America International, Inc. (“Cash America”) completed the distribution of 80 percent of the outstanding shares of Enova International, Inc. (“Enova”) to Cash America’s shareholders in a tax-free distribution (the “Spin-off”). Cash America distributed to its shareholders 0.915 shares of Enova common stock for every one share of Cash America common stock held as of the close of business on November 3, 2014, which was the record date for the Spin-off. Fractional shares of Enova common stock were not distributed. Any fractional shares of Enova common stock were aggregated and sold in the open market, and the aggregate net proceeds of the sales were distributed ratably in the form of cash payments to Cash America’s shareholders of record who were otherwise entitled to receive a fractional share of Enova common stock. As a result of the Spin-off, Enova is now an independent public company, and its common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the ticker symbol “ENVA.” On November 13, 2014, Cash America issued a press release announcing the completion of the Spin-off. A copy of the press release is furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

Safe Harbor Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This report contains forward-looking statements about the business, financial condition, operations and prospects of Cash America. The actual results of Cash America could differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements because of various risks and uncertainties including, without limitation: the effect of, compliance with or changes in domestic pawn, consumer credit, tax and other laws and governmental rules and regulations applicable to Cash America's business or changes in the interpretation or enforcement thereof; the regulatory and examination authority of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, including the effect of and compliance with a consent order Cash America entered into with the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau in November 2013; risks related to the separation of Cash America and Enova; Cash America's ability to process or collect consumer loans through the Automated Clearing House system; the actions of third parties who provide, acquire or offer products and services to, from or for Cash America; public and regulatory perception of Cash America's business, including its consumer loan business and its business practices; the effect of any current or future litigation proceedings or any judicial decisions or rule-making that affect Cash America, its products or its arbitration agreements; fluctuations, including a sustained decrease, in the price of gold or deterioration in economic conditions; a prolonged interruption in Cash America's operations of its facilities, systems and business functions, including its information technology and other business systems; changes in demand for Cash America's services and changes in competition; Cash America's ability to maintain an allowance or liability for estimated losses on consumer loans that are adequate to absorb credit losses; Cash America's ability to attract and retain qualified executive officers; the ability of Cash America to open new locations in accordance with its plans or to successfully integrate newly acquired businesses into Cash America's operations; interest rate fluctuations; changes in the capital markets, including the debt and equity markets; changes in Cash America's ability to satisfy its debt obligations or to refinance existing debt obligations or obtain new capital to finance growth; security breaches, cyber-attacks or fraudulent activity; acts of God, war or terrorism, pandemics and other events; the effect of any of such changes on Cash America's business or the markets in which it operates; and other risks and uncertainties indicated in Cash America's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These risks and uncertainties are beyond the ability of Cash America to control, nor can Cash America predict, in many cases, all of the risks and uncertainties that could cause its actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements. When used in this report, terms such as "believes," "estimates," "should," "could," "would," "plans," "expects," "anticipates," "may," "forecasts," "projects" and similar expressions and variations as they relate to Cash America or its management are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Cash America disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances occurring after the date of this report.
