FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAMTEK ADDRESSES REPORTS ON RULING IN PATENT INFRINGEMENT CASE

MIGDAL HAEMEK, Israel – February 10, 2015 –Camtek Ltd. (NASDAQ: CAMT and TASE: CAMT) ("The Company") addressed an inquiry made today by the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange, in connection with an announcement made by Rudolph Technologies, Inc. according to which it stated that a ruling was issued in Rudolph's favor in the long-running patent infringement case against the Company, in which the original damages awarded to Rudolph were reinstated and the Company was enjoined from any use or sale of its Falcon systems in the U.S.

The Company wishes to clarify that its management has not yet received such ruling nor has any further information on the matter at this time has come to light, other than the information provided in the said announcement.

It is important to further clarify that the Falcon systems in question are not and have not been sold in the United States for a number of years now and therefore any limitations on sale of such systems in the United States will have no effect whatsoever on the Company's revenues going forward.

The Company will further address the above court ruling once received following a review by the Company and its advisors.
