Enclosure No. 7

The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc

AGM Statement

29 April 2004

The meeting will deal with the proposed Resolutions as outlined in the Notice of Meeting issued to Shareholders dated 15 March 2004, and will provide a summary of the business and financial performance of the Group in 2003.

The following is an extract from the speech to be made by Sir George Mathewson, Chairman, at the Meeting.

"In 2003, we increased our profit before tax, goodwill amortisation and integration costs by 11 per cent to GBP7,151 million. And we increased our profit before tax by 29 per cent, to GBP6,159 million."

"In 2003, we increased our income by 14 per cent, or GBP2,414 million. This large increase reflected good performance across our businesses. Over the four years since 1999, we have increased our income by GBP8,164 million, or 74 per cent. While some of our income growth came from the NatWest transaction benefits, or from other acquisitions, the largest part of our income growth, 66 per cent, came from organic growth across our businesses."

"To support increased volumes across our businesses, our operating expenses rose by 9 per cent. As a result of the relative movements in income and expenses, we improved our cost:income ratio from 44.0 per cent in 2002 to 42.0 per cent in 2003. We believe that we can improve our efficiency further. To achieve this, we have launched a three-year programme of initiatives across the Group. This programme is being managed in the same way that we managed the NatWest integration. On our current business mix, the planned programme of initiatives would take our cost:income ratio below 40 per cent."

"Over the last year we have completed a number of acquisitions. Each of these acquisitions is consistent with our previously stated strategy. And some acquisitions have been transformational for our divisions. In particular, the acquisition of Churchill means that our new division RBS Insurance, comprising Direct Line and Churchill, is now the second largest general insurer in the UK and the acquisition of First Active has improved significantly Ulster Bank's position in the Republic of Ireland."

"Our /

"Our people are our most important asset and we owe our success to their efforts and dedication. Profit sharing for 2003 (and for the fifth consecutive year), amounted to 10% of salaries: we paid a total of GBP189 million to employees."

"Our approach to remuneration this year is consistent with the practice of other Banks and our previous practice. This is based on paying market competitive rewards related to individual performance. Our overall 2003 pay awards of 3.8% were significantly above inflation and "best in class", that is to say, more than any of our competitors".

"Average earnings of GBP28,400 in RBS are now 10% above the UK average.

We operate a free final salary pension scheme for the majority of our employees-1:7 of 500,000 employees in this type of scheme, in the UK. This boosts our average earnings to GBP34,200 - 20% above the UK average.

Our Employee Opinion Survey to which 83% of staff respond, demonstrated their satisfaction with pay, and was fully 12 percentage points ahead of the UK financial services norm.

It is also relevant to our employees and our relationship with them that we have not transferred any jobs offshore, and have no plans to do so. This differentiates us from the vast majority of our competitors."

"We have a major community investment programme. In 2003, we increased our direct investment by 19% to GBP40 million. To give one example, we have a unique charity giving programme where we double match monthly donations from our employees. In 2003, GBP8.5 million was given to charities supported by our staff through our staff giving and double matching programme."

"At previous meetings, we have mentioned our strength, diversity and flexibility. These are real qualities, evident across the Royal Bank Group. They give us confidence that we can continue to deliver on our promises to shareholders, and provide customers with improved service, with well rewarded and highly motivated staff, while allowing us to make a major contribution to the communities in which we operate. Our commitment to delivering strong organic growth and maintaining efficiency remain unwavering."

"We remain focussed on providing strategic options for the future which will allow us to deliver superior returns to shareholders. In the current year, the performance of the Group remains on track, all our integrations are on track and our businesses continue to perform well."
