Forward-looking Statements and Risk Factors

[LOGO]

New York Community Bancorp, Inc. and Roslyn Bancorp, Inc. will be filing a joint proxy statement / prospectus and other relevant documents concerning the merger with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC). WE URGE INVESTORS TO READ THE JOINT PROXY STATEMENT / PROSPECTUS AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS TO BE FILED WITH THE SEC, BECAUSE THEY CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

Investors will be able to obtain these documents free of charge at the SEC's web site (www.sec.gov). In addition, documents filed with the SEC by New York Community Bancorp, Inc. will be available without charge from the Investor Relations Department, New York Community Bancorp, Inc., 615 Merrick Avenue, Westbury, NY 11590. Documents filed with the SEC by Roslyn Bancorp, Inc. will be available free of charge from the Investor Relations Department, Roslyn Bancorp, Inc., One Jericho Plaza, Jericho, New York 11753.

The directors, executive officers, and certain other members of management of New York Community Bancorp, Inc. and Roslyn Bancorp, Inc., may be soliciting proxies in favor of the merger from the companies' respective shareholders. For information about these directors, executive officers, and members of management, shareholders are asked to refer to the most recent proxy statements issued by the respective companies, which are available on their web sites and at the addresses provided in the preceding paragraph.

Forward-looking Statements and Associated Risk Factors

This presentation, and other written materials and oral statements made by management, may contain certain forward-looking statements regarding the companies' prospective performance and strategies within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The companies intend such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and are including this statement for purposes of said safe harbor provisions.

Forward-looking statements, which are based on certain assumptions and describe future plans, strategies, and expectations of the companies, are generally identified by use of the words plan, believe, expect, intend, anticipate, estimate, project, or other similar expressions. The companies' ability to predict results or the actual effects of their plans and strategies is inherently uncertain. Accordingly, actual results may differ materially from anticipated results.

The following factors, among others, could cause the actual results of the merger to differ materially from the expectations stated in this presentation: the ability of the two companies to obtain the required shareholder or regulatory approvals of the merger; the ability to effect the proposed restructuring; the ability of the companies to consummate the merger; the ability to successfully integrate the companies following the merger; a materially adverse change in the financial condition of either company; the ability to fully realize the expected cost savings and revenues; and the ability to realize the expected cost savings and revenues on a timely basis.

Other factors that could cause the actual results of the merger to differ materially from current expectations include a change in economic conditions; changes in interest rates, deposit flows, loan demand, real estate values, and competition; changes in accounting principles, policies, or guidelines; changes in legislation and regulation; and other economic, competitive, governmental, regulatory, geopolitical, and technological factors affecting the companies; operations, pricing, and services.

The companies undertake no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that occur after the date on which such statements were made.

Combining Strengths: The NYB / RSLN Merger

[LOGO]

The merger will enhance NYB's franchise, performance, and value.

- ◆ Creates the NY Metro region's largest community bank, based on market capitalization and total assets
 - ◆ Is immediately 18% accretive to diluted GAAP EPS prior to the $3.5 billion downsizing of the securities portfolio; when the downsizing is completed, the merger will still produce 10% diluted EPS accretion
 - ◆ Combines a premier asset generator with a premier deposit accumulator
 - ◆ Strengthens the Company's capacity for capital generation and capital management initiatives
 - ◆ Increases deposit share in Brooklyn, Queens, Nassau, and Suffolk markets
 - ◆ $3.5 billion downsizing of the securities portfolio reduces leverage at an opportune time
 - ◆ Joins two companies with significant integration expertise, common operating philosophies, and identical systems platforms
 - ◆ Creates a significant opportunity for shareholder value creation

Reconciliation of GAAP and Non-GAAP Measures

1. As calculated in accordance with GAAP, the Company's 2000 and 2001 diluted earnings per share were $0.42 and $1.01, respectively. The 2000 amount reflected a gain of $13.5 million recorded in other operating income and a charge of $24.8 million recorded in operating expenses, resulting in a net charge of $11.4 million, or $0.20 per diluted share. The 2001 amount included a gain of $39.6 million recorded in other operating income and charges of $23.5 million and $3.0 million, respectively, recorded in operating expenses and income tax expense, resulting in an after-tax net charge of $836,000, or $0.01 per diluted share.
 2. As calculated in accordance with GAAP, the Company's 2000 and 2001 efficiency ratios were 52.08% and 38.04%, respectively. The Company's 2000 core efficiency ratio excluded a gain of $13.5 million on the sale of a Bank-owned property from other operating income and a merger-related charge of $24.8 million from operating expenses. Its 2001 core efficiency ratio excluded a gain of $39.6 million on the sale of certain assets from other operating income and a merger-related charge of $23.5 million from operating expenses.
