BACHOCO ANNOUNCES IMPACT OF HURRICANE LANE

CELAYA, Guanajuato, Mexico, Sept. 20 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Industrias Bachoco S.A. de C.V. ("Bachoco" or "the Company") (NYSE: IBA; BMV: Bachoco UBL), Mexico's leading producer and processor of poultry products, announced today that Hurricane Lane, which hit the southern part of the state of Sinaloa on September 16th, affected some of the chicken growing farms the Company owns in that region.

Cristobal Mondragon, Bachoco's Chief Executive Officer, stated, "We focused immediately on assisting and supporting all of our workers and employees that could be affected by the hurricane."

"We have made a preliminary evaluation of the damages and can report that the main impact was on equipment and utilities. The framework of our farms only suffered minor damages, so we expect to restart operating those farms quickly.

"The remainder of our facilities, such as the poultry processing plant, feed mills, and incubator plants did not suffer damages.

"The hurricane caused significant mortality rates for our chickens housed on the damaged farms. In order to mitigate the impact this will have on supply to our clients in the region, we will take advantage of the Company's infrastructure and flexibility we have in the rest of the Country, and increase supply mainly from our Yucatan Peninsula Complex, where we have the same sanitary conditions as in the state of Sinaloa."

Bachoco's facilities that were impacted by the hurricane are covered by the Company's insurance program, and after concluding a detailed evaluation of the damages, the Company will announce any material outcome to the market.
