MANAGEMENT REPORT 2018

Dear Shareholders,

The Management of Gafisa S.A. ("Gafisa" or "Company") submits for your examination the Management Report and the related Financial Statements, accompanied by the Reports of Independent Registered Accounting Firm and Fiscal Council for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018. The Management Report information is reported on a consolidated basis, unless if specified otherwise, and in accordance with the accounting practices adopted in Brazil and pursuant to the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

MESSAGE FROM MANAGEMENT

The Company underwent a restructuring process throughout 2018. In February, the increase in capital in the amount of R$250.8 million was completed, which reduced pressure on cash in that moment. In the end of September, the Company's management was changed, followed by the implementation of a turnaround strategy aimed at readjusting the structure and expenditures, and included the close down of the branch in Rio de Janeiro, the move of the registered office and review of processes.

The actions that have already been performed and those that will be carried out, in line with the above-mentioned strategy, shall result in a total saving of around R$110 million per year. The main reductions were: (i) headcount, in the order of 50%, which represents a saving of R$45 million/year; (ii) marketing – R$40 million/year (iii) IT – R$18 million/year; (iv) registered office's move – R$4 million/year; and (v) expenditures on sales stand and points of sale – R$4 million, among others. A portion of such gains has already materialized during November and December 2018, but will become more evident from the following quarters.

The needs for adjustment mapped during the 4Q18, such as the impairment of land, inventories and goodwill on the remeasurement of the investment in Alphaville, and the reversal/entry of provisions, among other adjustments, were recorded in the 4Q18, negatively affecting profit or loss by R$276 million.

Gafisa thus starts the year 2019 adjusted and well positioned to begin a new cycle in the real estate sector. The company has assets of quality and a traditional and well-known trademark. Besides, the pipeline of launches counts on residential ventures located in the city of São Paulo, very appropriate to satisfy market demand, and, for this reason, with expected attractive profitability. The largest volume of ventures is expected to be launched in the second half of 2019.

The Total Saves Value (TSV) in inventory amounts to R$1.2 billion, with higher concentration in residential units located in São Paulo and with higher market liquidity (73% of aggregate TSV in inventory).

Cancelled contracts, which have unbalanced many ventures over several years, have significantly reduced during the year. The monthly average volume of cancelled contracts changed from R$34 million in 2017 to R$19 million in 2018. This downward trend shall continue in 2019, with the approval of the Law that governs cancelled contracts. Under the new legislation, developers may retain up to 50% of the amounts paid by the consumer in case the latter cancels the purchase, providing more legal protection for the sector.

Net debt amounted to R$752 million in December 2018, which represents a reduction of 21% in relation to the closing balance of 2017. Leverage, measured by the ratio of net debt to equity, increased to 153% at the end of 2018, mainly impacted by the loss for the year and recognized impairment. Excluding venture financing, the net debt-to-equity ratio stands at 45%. Funding alternatives have been evaluated to readjust the Company's capital structure.

The prospects for 2019 are positive, once the macroeconomic scenario is more favorable and the market is already giving signs of recovery. Growth is expected to pick up gradually, sustainably, and aiming at delivering a solid performance and creating value to shareholders and other stakeholders.

OPERATIONAL AND FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

In the year, launches totaled R$729 million in TSV, divided into six projects, all of which in São Paulo. At the end of December 2018, 55% of the volume launched in the year had already been sold, demonstrating the Company's assertiveness in selecting its ventures.

Gross sales reached R$1,040 million in 2018.

Cancelled contracts totaled R$228 million, a 45% reduction in relation to 2017, even with a higher volume of delivery in the period, demonstrating a better quality of sales. Net sales thus increased 13% in relation to 2017, recording R$813 million in 2018.

The SoS over the past 12 months reached 40%, up 8 p.p. on the same period of the previous year, boosted by inventory sales and the good performance of launches over the year.

At the end of 2018, inventory showed a 22.5% reduction in relation to the end of 2017, even with a 32% increase in the volume of launches in the period. Gafisa keeps trying to maintain commercial balance between the latest and completed ventures. In December 2018, the inventory of completed units represented 38% of TSV in inventory.

Deliveries totaled 2,354 units with a TSV of R$910 million, divided into 12 projects or phases in 2018. At present, Gafisa has 14 active construction sites and four projects which construction will start in 2019.

In recent years, the Company has taken measures to improve the process of receipt and transfer, seeking to maximize the return of the funds employed in projects. At present, 90% of eligible units are transferred in up to 90 days after the delivery of the venture or certificate of occupancy. In 2018, the transferred TSV totaled R$321 million.

In 2018, net revenues totaled R$960.9 million, a 22% increase in relation to 2017. The increased revenue recognition is a result of the larger sales volume and progress of works in the period.

Gross profit and gross margin were impacted by provisions amounting to R$63.1 million arising from the impairment recognized in certain land, located in the city of Rio de Janeiro, and in units in inventory. Without the effect of such adjustments and capitalized interests, recurring adjusted gross profit amounted to R$ 290.7 million in 2018, which is equivalent to more than double the amount reported in 2017. Adjusted gross margin was 30.3% in 2018, up 12.0 p.p on the margin reported in 2017.

General and administrative expenses changed from R$92.7 million in 2017 to R$57.1 million in 2018; a result of the net reversal of the reserve for bonus for previous and current years, in the amount of R$14.8 million, and the reduction in service and IT expenditures.

Recurring adjusted EBITDA (excluding expenses on contingencies; impairment of inventories, land, software, and loss on Alphaville investment) was positive by R$127 million in 2018 whereas it was negative by R$50.8 million in 2017.

In 2018, the accumulated net financial income (expenses) was negative by R$80.5 million, and in 2017 the net loss amounted to R$107.3 million.

The line item income tax and social contribution was positive by R$24.1 million in 2018, reflecting deferred tax assets of R$26 million arising from the impairment of goodwill accounted in the investment in Alphaville. For this same reason, the provision for IR/CSLL was positive by approximately R$21.8 million in 2018. As a result of the previously discussed effects, the net profit or loss for 2018, excluding the adjustments made in the pricing of inventories, land, and software, and in the goodwill on the interest in Alphaville, as well as the expenditures on contingency, was negative by R$66.2 million, while the net loss for 2017 amounted to R$190.1 million. As of December 31, 2018, the balance of cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments reached R$137.2 million.

At the end of 2018, gross debt reached R$889 million, with substantial decrease of 20% as compared to the end of 2017.

People and Management

We have an experienced team who is at the vanguard of the Brazilian real estate sector. Many of our professionals began their careers in the Company.

Approximately 50% of our leaders were trained in-house, through talent recruiting and training. So even after readjusting the Company's personnel, we will work hard to obtain results to shareholders, with quality and respect for customers.

Also, occupational safety and accident are central themes for Gafisa. Therefore, we maintain a continuous program of risk identification, prevention and mitigation, which aims, besides preserving the physical integrity of our employees, to offer a basis for a healthier life. For us, investing in safety is a guarantee of wellness in and out of the work environment. We offer training programs to the team in the field (directly related to construction works), as well as to our collaborators of third-party companies, who provide services in our sites and ventures.

The Company has 359 employees (base December 2018).

Research and Development

Gafisa has and encourages multiple fronts focused on innovation. In the end of 2018 Gafisa Service, was created, a business unit aimed at providing services post-warranty, house-up (customization of the unit to be delivered, according to the customer needs) and rental of residential and commercial units, own or of third parties.

House-up services were segmented in three waves:

- ü Ready to move: custom finishing services;
- ü Ready to live: custom finishing, furniture and decoration services;
- ü House-Up after keys: custom services for ready units;

The post-warranty service will also be implemented in three phases, according to the delivery date of the Company's ventures.

Complementing the sales strategy, rental services are expected to play a significant role as competitive advantage and as factor to win loyalty. These services reflect a market trend and show potential for both monetizing inventories and increasing the margin share of ventures.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis

As described in Note 2.1, the individual and consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Brazilian accounting practices and with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), applicable to Brazilian real estate development entities, registered with the CVM. Accordingly, the determination of the accounting policy to be adopted by entity, on recognition of revenue from purchase and sale of real estate unit in progress, on aspects related to transfer of control, based on the understanding expressed by CVM in the Ofício-Circular/CVM/SNC/SEP 02/2018 on the application of NBC TG 47 (IFRS 15). Our opinion is not qualified in respect to this matter.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matter that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the financial statements of the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the individual and consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and, therefore, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Compliance with the contractual terms of loan and financing contracts

How the matter was addressed in the audit

The Company and its subsidiaries have many loan and financing contracts totaling R$ 560,599 thousand and R$ 623,746 thousand, in the Company and consolidated, respectively, for developing real estate ventures and enhancing working capital. Certain contracts have guarantee clauses, such as fiduciary assignment of receivables and debt acceleration, which involves the compliance with certain financial ratios and other conditions that establish, among others, the approval from financial institutions of changes in the control of ownership interests and veto of the assignment by the Company and/or subsidiaries of receivables and obligations already provided as guarantee to the respective financial institutions.

Our audit procedures included, among others:

- § Reading loan and financing contracts;
- § Issue letter and receipt of external confirmation of the balances recorded in the financial statements;
- § Understanding the management's analysis of the restrictive covenants and the consistency of the application of such understanding in relation to the financial statements disclosed in prior periods;
- § Obtaining the opinion of the Company's external legal counsel on certain transaction; and
- § Recalculation of financial covenants and evaluation of compliance.

As mentioned in Note 12, in some situations debts were reclassified into short-term liabilities as a result of the breach of contractual obligations, and Management, based on its understanding and that of legal counsel, understands that there is no impact

During the audit process we identified weaknesses in the internal controls related to on cross-acceleration clauses.

Additionally, Management and its legal counsel interpret that for certain contracts with financial institutions the lack of notification by the creditor until the date of approval of the financial statements entitle the Company the unconditional right to keep the deferral of the settlement based on the terms agreed in contracts.

Considering the complexity of the judgment in the interpretation of contracts with some financial institutions, the need for robust and timely internal controls, and the relevance of this matter to the Company's liquidity risk, we consider it a key audit matter in our audit.

the solidity of the monitoring of restrictive covenants, regarding the incomplete formalization of covenant monitoring, fact which reveals the need for review and improvement in internal controls.

The results achieved by the above-mentioned audit procedures are consistent with Management's evaluation reported in the disclosures of the Notes, in the context of the individual and consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

Revenue recognition of the real estate units sold in construction phase, and measurement of the allowance for cancelled contracts

As mentioned in Note 2.2.2, revenue recognition, the Company applied NBC TG 47 (IFRS 15) – Revenue from contracts with customers, including the guidance contained in Ofício-Circular CVM/SNC/SEP 02/2018, related to the sale of units not yet completed, in which revenue is recognized over time (overtime method), with measurement through the progress of budgeted costs in relation to the estimated costs of each real estate venture (percentage of completion – PoC).

After meeting the criterias for beginning the revenue recognition described in the Company’s accounting policy, management periodically reassess the risk of cash inflow, for each contract of real estate unit sold and not yet delivered to the customer. In the period when there is uncertainty and cash inflow is no longer probable, the Company discontinue the revenue recognition of customer and reverses the amounts that have been recorded since the signature date of the purchase and sale contract, and recognizes as allowance for cancelled contracts considering any amount that has already been received, with the applicable contractual and legal deductions.

We consider these matters as significant in our audit because of the potential effects involved in the financial statements, requiring robust internal controls for the process of preparation and budgets of each real estate venture, requiring ongoing monitoring, as

Our audit procedures included, among others:

Recognition of revenue from real estate units not yet completed

§ Evaluation of the internal control environment for revenue recognition;

§ Test of relevant review controls and approval controls of budget and update of the receivables portfolio;

§ Test, using sampling method, of sales contracts of real estate units for understanding the established terms and conditions;

§ Understanding and tests, using sampling method, of the budgets, and analysis of the portion of costs to be incurred as compared to the stage of completion of the ventures selected for testing;

§ Test, using sampling method, of incurred expenses through the supporting documentation identified by venture;

§ Visit to some real estate ventures for understanding the physical and financial progress of construction, and verification of possible specific risk; and they are the basis for recognition of revenues from sale of real estate units in construction phase, and use of specific assumptions to try to timely identify the uncertainty risk regarding cash inflows, and, consequently, measurement and record of allowance for cancelled contracts.

§ Recalculation of revenue recognized based on the information extracted from the approved budgets by the engineer responsible for the venture.

Measurement of the allowance for cancelled contract

§ Understanding of internal controls and test of the data basis of real estate unit sold, and analysis regarding the existence of default, and requests for contract cancellation under analysis or finalized;

§ Evaluation of the assumptions adopted by the Company to identify the risk of uncertainty about cash inflow;

§ Test of derecognition of revenue, costs, allowance for cancelled contracts payable, and recorded inventory amount; and

§ Evaluation of the effective cancelled contracts occurred in subsequent period that could have not been considered in the allowance.

The results achieved by the above-mentioned audit procedures are consistent with the Management's evaluation reported in the disclosures of Notes, without identification of adjustments or relevant weakness in internal controls

Provisions and contingent liabilities

As mentioned in Notes 2.2.22 (i) and 16, the Company and its subsidiaries are parties to a large number of lawsuits and administrative proceedings in civil, labor and tax levels, that arise in the ordinary course of their businesses.

Given the number of claims, Management adopts the criteria for recognizing provision for claims from the first unfavorable decision awarded to the Company, and, in cases of individually material claims, analyses by case.

Due to the number of claims, the criteria established for timely identifying the need for recognizing a provision and the existence of significant judgments involved in the process of evaluation and measurement of provisions, and disclosures of contingent liabilities, we considered it a key audit matter.

How the matter was addressed in the audit

Our audit procedures included, among others:

§ Understanding of the policy on recognition of provision for contingencies adopted by the Company and its subsidiaries, as well as the performance of tests, using sampling method, of relevant internal controls to ensure that the criteria established in the policy have been applied;

§ Receipt and evaluation of the letter from legal counsel informing the claims to which the Company and its subsidiaries are parties in administrative or legal dispute;

§ Discussion with internal counsel and governance bodies for understanding the existence of significant matters not recorded in the books or mentioned in the Notes; and

§ Comparison of the total contingencies mentioned by the Company's legal counsel which outflow of funds is considered probable with the accounting provision reported in the financial statements as of December 31, 2018, and analysis of the disclosures of contingent liabilities.

During the audit process, there was the need for adjustments that affected the measurement and disclosure of the provision for contingencies, which were recorded and disclosed by management. These adjustments also reveal the need for review and improvement in internal controls.

Evaluation of the recoverability of non-financial assets – goodwill on investment in Alphaville and land that is not included in the business plan for future developments

The Company records the amount of R$ 161,100 thousand, net of provision for impairment, as of December 31, 2018, related to the goodwill on the investment in Alphaville Urbanismo S.A., which is based on expected future economic benefit of the associate. In the process of measurement of recoverable amount, Management uses complex judgements, mostly based on internally-developed assumptions and over a period longer than that formally set in the investee's approved business plan.

As to land available for sale, which is recorded, net of provisions for recoverable amount, in the amounts of R$ 74,842 thousand and R$ 78,148 thousand, in the individual and consolidated statements, respectively, there are relevant assumptions on measurement at recoverable amount and maintenance of such assets for a long period in the Company.

Considering that the change in the adopted assumptions may give rise to significant effects on the evaluation and impacts on the individual and consolidated financial statements, we consider the above-mentioned issues key audit matters.

How the matter was addressed in the audit

Our audit procedures included, among others:

Goodwill on the investment in Alphaville

§ We analyzed the competence and objectivity of the external experts commissioned by management;

Other matters

Statements of value added

The individual and consolidated statements of value added (DVA) for the year ended December 31, 2018, prepared under the responsibility of the Company's management, and presented as supplementary information for IFRS purposes, were submitted to the audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of the financial statements. In order to form our opinion, we evaluated whether these statements are reconciled with the financial statements and accounting records, as applicable, and whether their formats and contents follow the criteria established in the NTC TG 09 – Statement of Value Added. In our opinion, the accompanying statements of value added have been properly prepared, in all material respects, according to the criteria established in this Technical Pronouncement and are consistent with the individual and consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

Audit of prior-year information

The individual and consolidated financial statements corresponding to the year ended December 31, 2017 have been previously audited by other independent auditors, who issued the report dated March 8, 2018, without qualification. Due to the adjustments related to the recognition of the provision for cancelled contracts at the time of the adoption of Ofício-Circular/CVM/SNC/SEP/ 02/2018, which provides for the revenue recognition in contracts for purchase and sale of real estate unit not yet completed in the Brazilian publicly-held companies of the real estate development sector, retrospectively adopted by the Company, as described in Note 3.1 to the financial statements, changes were made in certain balances of the individual and consolidated statements of financial position, profit or loss, comprehensive income, changes in equity, and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2017, presented for comparison purposes. Additionally, as part of our audit of individual and consolidated financial statements of 2018, we have also audited the adjustments described in Note 3.1 to the financial statements for individual and consolidated balance sheet as of January 1, 2017. In our opinion, both adjustments made to the balances as of December 31, 2017 and January 1, 2017 are appropriate and have been correctly made. We were not engaged to audit, review or apply any other procedure related to the individual and consolidated financial statements of the Company as of December 31, 2017 and January 1, 2017, and, accordingly, we do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on such financial statements taken as a whole.

Other information that accompany the individual and consolidated financial statements and the auditor's report

The Company's Management is responsible for this other information that comprises the Management Report.

Our opinion on the individual and consolidated financial statements does not cover the Management Report, and we do not express any form of audit conclusion thereon.

In connection with the audit of the individual and consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the Management Report, and, in doing so, consider whether the report is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is material misstatement in the Management Report, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of management and those charged with governance for the individual and consolidated financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the individual and consolidated financial statements in accordance with Brazilian accounting practices and with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), applicable to Brazilian real estate development entities, registered with the Brazilian Securities Commission (CVM), and for such internal controls as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In the preparation of the individual and consolidated financial statements, Management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as going concern disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using going concern of basis accounting in the preparation of the financial statements, unless Management either intends to liquidate the Company and its subsidiaries, or cease their operations, or has no realistic alternative to avoid the discontinuance of operations.

Those charged with governance of the Company and its subsidiaries are those with responsibility for overseeing the process of preparation of the financial statements.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of individual and consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the individual and consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report including our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing will always detect a material misstatements. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could be reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of such financial statements.

As part of the audit in accordance with Brazilian and International Standards on Auditing, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

§ Identify and assess risks of material misstatements of the individual and consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, once fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations and the override of internal control.

§ Obtain an understanding of internal controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal controls of the Company and its subsidiaries.

§ Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

§ Conclusion on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting, and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubts on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, then we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the individual and consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidences obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

§ Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the individual and consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

§ Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the group to express an opinion on the individual and consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in the internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide to those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements, including the applicable independence requirements, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the financial statements of the current year and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless the law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The ADSs were delisted on the NYSE on December 17, 2018, and are currently traded Over the Counter (OTC).

The Company enters into real estate development projects with third parties through specific purpose partnerships ("Sociedades de Propósito Específico" or "SPEs") or through the formation of consortia and

2. Presentation of financial statements and summary of significant accounting policies

2.1. Basis of presentation and preparation of individual and consolidated financial statements

On March 27, 2019, the Company's Board of Directors approved these individual and consolidated financial statements of the Company and authorized their disclosure.

The individual financial statements, identified as "Company", have been prepared and are being presented according to the accounting practices adopted in Brazil, including the pronouncements issued by the Accounting Pronouncements Committee (CPC), approved by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM) and are disclosed together with the consolidated financial statements.

The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared and are being presented according to the accounting practices adopted in Brazil, including the pronouncements issued by the CPC, approved by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM), and according to the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB).

The individual financial statements of the Company are not considered in compliance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), once they consider the capitalization of interest on qualifying assets of investees in the financial statements of the Company. In view of the fact that there is no difference between the Company's and the consolidated equity and profit or loss, the Company opted for presenting such individual and consolidated information in only one set.

The consolidated financial statements are specifically in compliance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) applicable to real estate development entities in Brazil, registered with the CVM. The aspects related to the transfer of control in the sale of real estate units follow the understanding of the Company's Management, aligned with that expressed by the CVM in Circular Letter/CVM/SNC/SEP 02/2018 about the application of Technical Pronouncement CPC 47 – Revenue from contracts with customers (IFRS 15).

2.1. Basis of presentation and preparation of individual and consolidated financial statements

--Continued

All material information characteristic of the financial statements, and only them, is being evidenced, and corresponds to those used by Management in its administration.

The presentation of the individual and consolidated Statement of Value Added (DVA) is required by the Brazilian corporate legislation and the accounting practices adopted in Brazil applicable to publicly-held companies and was prepared according to CVM Resolution 557, of November 12, 2008, which approved the accounting pronouncement CPC 09 – Statement of Value Added. The IFRS does not require the presentation of this statement. Consequently, under the IFRS, this statement is presented as additional information, without causing harm to the financial statements as a whole.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. Management makes an assessment of the Company's ability to continue as going concern when preparing the financial statements.

All amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements are in thousands of Reais, except as otherwise stated.

2.1.1. Consolidated financial statements

The consolidated financial statements of the Company include the financial statements of Gafisa and its direct and indirect subsidiaries. The Company controls an entity when it is exposed or is entitled to variable returns arising from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through the power that it exerts over the entity. The existence and the potential effects of voting rights, which are currently exercisable or convertible, are taken into account when evaluating whether the Company controls other entity. The subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date the control is transferred and the consolidation is discontinued from the date control ceases.

The accounting practices were uniformly adopted in all subsidiaries included in the consolidated financial statements, and the fiscal year of these companies is the same of the Company. See further details in Note 9.

2.1.2. Functional and presentation currency

The functional and presentation currency of the Company is Real.

2.1.3. Statement of Cash Flows

In view of the disclosure of the discontinued operations related to Tenda, and in line with CPC 03 – Statement of Cash Flows and CPC 31 - Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations, the information on operating, financing and investing activities related to discontinued operations is presented in separated lines in the Statement of Cash Flows of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2017. Accordingly, the line item "Foreign Exchange Gains and Losses on Cash and Cash Equivalents", shown in the Statement of Cash Flows for the period ended December 31, 2017, refers to the net increase (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents of discontinued operations and is being presented in this line item as it is impossible to change the line item's name in this Standardized Financial Statements.

2.2. Summary of significant accounting policies

2.2.1. Accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

Accounting estimates and judgments are evaluated on an ongoing basis based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations on future events, considered reasonable under the circumstances.

The preparation of the individual and consolidated financial statements of the Company requires Management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue, expenses, assets and liabilities, as well as the disclosure of contingent liabilities, at the reporting date of financial statements.

Assets and liabilities subject to estimates and assumptions include the provision for impairment of asset, transactions with share-based payment, provision for legal claims, fair value of financial instruments, measurement of the estimated cost of ventures, deferred tax assets, among others.

The main assumptions related to sources of uncertainty over future estimates and other important sources of uncertainty over estimates at the reporting date of the statement of financial position, which may result in different amounts upon settlement are discussed below:

2. Presentation of financial statements and summary of significant accounting policies --Continued

2.2.1. Accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions --Continued

a) Impairment loss of non-financial assets

An impairment loss exists when the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and its value in use.

The calculation of the fair value less cost to sell is based on available information on sale transactions of similar assets or market prices less additional costs of disposal. The calculation of the value in use is based on the discounted cash flow model.

Cash flows are derived from the budget for the following five years, and do not include uncommitted restructuring activities or future significant investments that will improve the asset basis of the cash-generating unit being tested. The recoverable amount is sensitive to the discount rate used under the discounted cash flow method, the estimated future cash inflows, and to the growth rate used for purposes of extrapolation.

Indefinite lived intangible assets and goodwill attributable to future economic benefit are tested at least annually, and/or when circumstances indicate a decrease in the carrying value. The main assumptions used for determining the recoverable amount of cash-generating units are detailed in Note 9.

b) Share-based payment transactions

The Company measures the cost of transactions with employees to be settled with shares based on the fair value of equity instruments on the grant date. For cash-settled share-based transactions, the liability is required to be remeasured at the end of each reporting period through the settlement date, recognizing in profit or loss possible changes in fair value, which requires revaluation of the estimates used at the end of each reporting period. The estimate of the fair value of share-based payments requires the determination of the most adequate pricing model to grant equity instruments, which depends on the grant terms and conditions.

It also requires the determination of the most adequate data for the pricing model, including the expected option life, volatility and dividend income, and the corresponding assumptions. The assumptions and models used for estimating the fair value of share-based payments are disclosed in Note 18.3.

c) Provision for legal claims

The Company recognizes a provision for tax, labor and civil claims (Note 16). The provision is considered when an unfavorable decision is awarded. Provisions are reviewed and adjusted to take into account the changes in circumstances, such as applicable statutes of limitations, findings of tax inspections, or additional exposures found based on new court issues or decisions.

There are uncertainties inherent in the interpretation of complex tax rules and in the value and timing of future taxable income. In the ordinary course of business, the Company and its subsidiaries are subject to assessments, audits, legal claims and administrative proceedings in civil, tax and labor matters.

d) Allowance for expected credit losses

The Company recognizes allowance for expected credit losses for all sale contracts of real estate units, and the amounts are accrued as contra-entry to the recognition of the respective development revenue, based on data history of its current operations and estimates. Such analysis is individually made by sale contract, in line with CPC 48 – Financial Instruments, item 5.5.17 (c).

Such estimates are annually reviewed to consider any changes in circumstances and histories.

e) Warranty provision

The measurement of the warranty provision, to cover expenditures for repairing construction defects covered during the warranty period, is based on the estimate that considers the history of incurred expenditures adjusted by the future expectation, which is regularly reviewed.

f) Estimated cost of construction

Estimated costs, mainly comprising the incurred and estimated costs for completing the construction works, are regularly reviewed, based on the progress of construction, and any resulting adjustments are recognized in profit or loss of the Company. The effects of such estimate reviews affect profit or loss.

g) Realization of deferred income tax

The initial recognition and further analysis of the realization of a deferred tax asset is carried out when it is probable that a taxable profit will be available in subsequent years to offset the deferred tax asset, based on projections of results, and supported by internal assumptions and future economic scenarios that enable its total or partial use.

h) Allowance for contract cancellation

The Company recognizes an allowance for contract cancellation when it identifies risks of cash inflows. Contracts are monitored to identify the moment when these conditions are mitigated.

While it does not occur, no revenue or cost is recognized in profit or loss, the amounts only being recorded in asset and liability accounts.

The other provisions recognized in the Company are described in Note 2.2.22.

2.2.2. Recognition of revenue and expenses

The Company applied CPC 47 – Revenue from Contracts with Customers from January 1, 2018, including the guidance contained in Circular Letter CVM/SNC/SEP 02/2018, of December 12, 2018, which establishes the accounting procedures for recognition, measurement and disclosure of certain types of transactions arising from contracts for purchase and sale of real estate unit not yet completed in real estate development entities.

According to CPC 47, the recognition of revenue from contracts with customers started to have a new regulation, based on transfer of control over promised goods or service, which can be at a point in time or over time, according to the satisfaction or not of the “contractual performance obligations”. Revenue is measured in an amount that reflects the consideration the entity expects to be entitled and is based on a five-step model detailed as follows: 1) identification of contract; 2) identification of performance obligations; 3) determination of transaction price; 4) allocation of transaction price to performance obligations; 5) revenue recognition.

The Company records the accounting effects of contracts only when: (i) the parties approve the contract; (ii) it can identify each party’s rights and the established payment terms; (iii) the contract has commercial substance; and (iv) is probable that it will collect the consideration to which the Company is entitled.

(i) Real estate development and sales

(a) For the sales of completed units, revenues are recognized upon completion of the sale with transfer of control, regardless of the timing of receipt of the contractual value.

(b) For the pre-sale of completed units during construction phase:

- The incurred cost (including cost of land, and other directly related expenditure for making inventory) that corresponds to the units sold is included in profit or loss. For the units not yet sold, the incurred cost is included in inventory (Note 2.2.7);
- Sales revenues are appropriated to profit or loss to the extent construction progresses, once the transfer of control is performed continually, using the percentage-of-completion method for each venture, this percentage being measured in view of the incurred cost in relation to the total estimated cost of the respective ventures;

- Sales revenues recognized in excess of actual payments received from customers is recorded as either a current asset or long-term receivables in "Trade accounts receivable". Any payment received in connection with the sales of units that exceeds the amount of revenues recognized is recorded as "Payables for purchase of land and advances from customers";
- Interest and inflation-indexation charges on accounts receivable, as well as the adjustment to present value of account receivable, are included in the real estate development and sales when incurred, on a pro rata basis using the accrual basis of accounting;
- Financial charges on account payable for acquisition of land and those directly associated with the financing of construction are capitalized and recorded in the inventory of properties for sale, and included in the incurred cost of units under construction until their completion, and follow the same recognition criteria as the cost of real estate development for units sold while under construction;

- The taxes levied and deferred on the difference between real estate development revenues and the cumulative revenue subject to tax are calculated and recognized when this difference in revenues is recognized;
- Other expenses, including advertising and publicity, are recognized in profit or loss when incurred.

(ii) Construction services

Revenues from real estate services are recognized as services are rendered and tied to the construction management activities for third parties and technical advisory services.

(iii) Barter transactions

Barter transactions have the objective of receiving land from third parties that are settled with the delivery of real estate units or transfer of portions of the revenue from the sale of real estate units of ventures. The land acquired by the Company and its subsidiaries is determined based on fair value, as a component of inventories, with a corresponding entry to advances from customers in liabilities. Revenues and costs incurred from barter transactions are included in profit or loss over the course of construction period of ventures, as previously described in item (i)(b).

2.2.3. Financial instruments

Financial instruments are recognized from the date the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of financial instruments, and mainly comprise cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts receivable, loans and financing, suppliers, and other debts.

After initial recognition, financial instruments are measured as described below:

(i) Financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss

A financial instrument is classified into fair value through profit or loss if it is held for trading, or designated as such at initial recognition.

Financial instruments are designated at fair value through profit or loss if the Company manages these investments and makes purchase and sale decisions based on their fair value in accordance with the documented investment strategy and risk management. After initial recognition, related transaction costs are recognized in profit or loss when incurred.

Financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value, and their fluctuations are recognized in profit or loss.

In the year ended December 31, 2018, the Company held derivative financial instruments with the objective of mitigating the risk of its exposure to the volatility of indices and interest rates, recognized at fair value directly in profit or loss for the year. In accordance with its treasury policies, the Company does not have or issue derivative financial instruments for purposes other than for hedging.

The Company does not adopt the hedge accounting practice.

(ii) Financial assets

Financial assets are classified into financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, amortized cost and fair value through comprehensive income. The Company determines the classification of its financial assets at their initial recognition, when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument, based on the business model in which the asset is managed and its contractual cash flow characteristics.

Financial assets are initially recognized at fair value, plus, in the case of investments not designated at fair value through profit or loss, the transaction costs that are directly attributable to their acquisition.

The financial assets of the Company include cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, trade accounts receivable, and derivative financial instruments.

Derecognition (write-off)

A financial asset (or, as the case may be, a portion of a financial asset or portion of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognized when:

- The rights to receive cash inflows of an asset expire;
- The Company transfers its rights to receive cash inflows of an asset or assume an obligation to fully pay the cash inflows received, without significant delay, to a third party because of a “transfer” agreement; and (a) the Company substantially transfers the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Company does not substantially transfer or retain all risks and rewards related to the asset, but transfers the control over the asset.

When the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash inflows of an asset, or signed an agreement to pass it on, and has not substantially transferred or has retained all risks and rewards related to the asset, an asset is recognized to the extent of the continuous involvement of the Company with the asset. In this case, the Company also recognizes a related liability. The transferred asset and related liability are measured based on the rights and obligations that the Company has maintained.

The continuous involvement by means of a guarantee on the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying value of the asset and the highest consideration that may be required from the Company.

(iii) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified at initial recognition at amortized cost or measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss include financial liabilities for trading, and financial liabilities designated at initial recognition as fair value through profit or loss.

Loans and financing

Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and financing accruing interest are measured at amortized cost, using the effective interest rate method. Gains and losses are recognized in statement of profit or loss, at the time liabilities are derecognized, as well as during the amortization process using the effective interest rate method.

Derecognition (write-off)

A financial liability is derecognized when its contractual obligations are discharged, cancelled or expire.

When an existing financial liability is substituted for another from the same creditor, under substantially different terms, or when the terms of an existing liability are significantly modified, this substitution or change is treated as a derecognition of the original liability, and recognition of a new liability, the difference in the corresponding carrying values being recognized in profit or loss.

2.2.4. Cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments

Cash and cash equivalents substantially comprise demand deposits and bank certificates of deposit held under resale agreements, denominated in Reais, with high market liquidity and contractual maturities of 90 days or less, and for which there are no penalties or other restrictions for the immediate redemption thereof.

Cash equivalents are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and are recorded at the original amounts plus income earned, calculated on a "pro rata basis", which are equivalent to their market values, not having any impact to be accounted for in the Company's equity.

Short-term investments include bank deposit certificates, federal government bonds, exclusive investment funds that are fully consolidated, and collaterals, which are classified at fair value through profit or loss (Note 4.2).

2.2.5. Trade account receivable

These are presented at present and realizable values. The classification between current and non-current is made based on the expected maturity of contract installments, considering current those falling due in one year or less.

The installments due are indexed based on the National Civil Construction Index (INCC) during the period of construction, and based on the General Market Prices Index (IGP-M) and interest at 12% p.a., after the delivery of the units.

The adjustment to present value is calculated between the contract signature date and the estimated date to transfer the completed property' keys to the buyer, using a discount rate represented by the average rate of the financing obtained by the Company, net of inflation, as mentioned in Note 2.2.19.

Considering that financing its customers is an important part of the Company operations, the reversal of the present value adjustment was carried out as contra-entry to the group of real estate development revenue, consistently with interest incurred on the portion of receivables balance related to the period subsequent to the handover of keys.

2.2.6. Mortgage-backed Securities (CRIs) and Housing Loan Certificate (CCI)

The Company and its subsidiaries carry out the assignment and/or securitization of receivables related to receivables with collateral of completed projects and those still under construction. This securitization is carried out through the issuance of the Housing Loan Certificate (“Cédula de Crédito Imobiliário” or “CCI”), which is assigned to financial institutions. When there is no right of recourse, this assignment is recorded as reduction of accounts receivable. When there is right of recourse against the Company, the assigned receivable is maintained in the statement of financial position and the funds from assignment are classified into the account “Obligations assumed on assignment of receivable”, until certificates are settled by customers.

In this situation, the transaction cost is recorded in “financial expenses” in the statement of profit or loss for the year in which it is made.

When there are financial guarantees, represented by the acquisition of subordinated CRI, they are recorded on the statement of financial position as “short-term investments” at the realizable value, which is equivalent to fair value.

2.2.7. Properties for sale

The Company and its subsidiaries acquire land for future real estate developments, on payment conditions in current currency or through barter transactions. Land acquired through barter transaction is stated at fair value of the units to be delivered, and the revenue and cost are recognized according to the criteria described in Note 2.2.2 (iii).

Properties are stated at construction cost, and decreased by the provision when it exceeds its net realizable value. In the case of real estate under construction, the portion in inventories corresponds to the cost incurred for units that have not yet been sold. The incurred cost comprises construction costs (materials, own or outsourced labor, and other related items), and legal expenses relating to the acquisition of land and projects, land costs, and financial charges which relate to a project over the construction period.

The classification of land between current and non-current assets is made by Management based on the expected period for launching real estate ventures. Management periodically revises the estimates of real estate ventures launches.

2.2.8. Prepaid expenses

These are recognized in profit or loss as incurred using the accrual basis of accounting.

2.2.9. Land available for sale

Land available for sale is measured at the lower of the carrying value and the fair value less costs to sell, and is classified as held for sale if its carrying value is to be recovered through a sale transaction of the land. This condition is considered fulfilled only when the sale is highly probable, and the asset is available for immediate sale under its current condition. Management shall commit to sell it within one year of the classification date.

2.2.10. Investments in ownership interests

Investments in ownership interest are recorded in the Company balance using the equity method.

When the Company's equity in the losses of investees is equal to or higher than the amount invested, the Company recognizes the residual portion in net capital deficiency since it assumes obligations and makes payments on behalf of these companies. For this purpose, the Company recognizes a provision at an amount considered appropriate to meet the obligations of the investee (Note 9).

2.2.11. Property and equipment

Items of property and equipment are measured at cost, less accumulated depreciation and/or any accumulated impairment losses, if applicable.

An item of property and equipment is derecognized when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. The gain or loss arising from derecognition of an asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying value of the asset) is recognized in profit or loss upon derecognition.

Depreciation is calculated based on the straight-line method considering the estimated useful lives of the assets (Note 10).

Expenditures incurred in the construction of sales stands, display apartments and related furnishings are included in property and equipment of the Company and its subsidiaries. Depreciation of these assets commences upon launch of the development and is recorded over the term the stand is in use, and is written-off when it is retired.

Property and equipment are subject to periodic assessments of impairment.

2.2.12. Intangible assets

(i) Expenditures related to the acquisition and implementation of computer systems and software licenses are recorded at acquisition cost, and amortized on straight-line basis over a period of up to five years, and are subject to periodic assessments of impairment of assets.

(ii) The Company's investments in subsidiaries include goodwill when the acquisition cost exceeds the market value of net assets of the acquiree.

Impairment testing of goodwill is performed at least annually, or whenever circumstances indicate an impairment loss.

2.2.13. Payables for purchase of properties and advances from customer

Payables for purchase of properties are recognized at the amounts corresponding to the contractual obligations assumed. Subsequently they are measured at amortized cost, plus, when applicable, interest and charges proportional to the incurred period ("pro rata" basis), net of present value adjustment.

The obligations related to barter transactions of land in exchange for real estate units are stated at fair value of the units to be delivered.

2.2.14. Income tax and social contribution on net income

(i) Current income tax and social contribution

Current tax is the expected tax payable or receivable/to be offset in relation to taxable profit for the year.

Income taxes in Brazil comprise income tax (25%) and social contribution on net income (9%), for entities on the standard profit regime, for which the composite statutory rate is 34%. Deferred taxes for these entities are recognized on all temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities, and their carrying values.

As permitted by tax legislation, certain subsidiaries opted for the presumed profit regime, a method under which the taxable profit is calculated as a percentage of gross sales. For these companies, the income tax is calculated on estimated profits at rate of 8% and 12% of gross revenues, respectively, on which the rates of the respective tax and contribution are levied.

2.2.14. Income tax and social contribution on net income--Continued

As permitted by legislation, the development of certain ventures are subject to the “afetação” regime, based on which the land and its features where a real estate will be developed, as well as other binding assets, rights and obligations, are separated from the developer’s assets, and comprise the “patrimônio de afetação” (detached assets), intended for the completion of the corresponding development, and delivery of real estate units to the respective buyers. In addition, certain subsidiaries made the irrevocable option for the Special Taxation Regime (RET), according to which the income tax and social contribution are calculated at 1.92% on gross revenues (4% also considering PIS and COFINS on revenues).

(ii) Deferred income tax and social contribution

Deferred taxes are recognized in relation to tax losses and temporary differences between the amount of assets and liabilities for accounting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for tax purposes.

They are recognized to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available to be used for offsetting deferred tax assets, based on profit projections made using internal assumptions, and considering future economic scenarios that make it possible their full or partial use, upon the recognition of a provision for the non-realization of the balance. The recognized amounts are periodically reviewed, and the impacts of realization or settlement are reflected in compliance with tax legislation provisions.

Deferred tax on accumulated tax losses does not have an expiration date, however, they can only be offset against up to 30% of the taxable profit for each year. Companies that opt for the presumed profit tax regime cannot offset tax losses for a period in subsequent years.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are stated at net amount in the statement of financial position when there is the legal right and intention to offset them when determining the current taxes, related to the same legal entity and the same tax authority.

2.2.15. Other current and non-current liabilities

These liabilities are stated at their known or estimated amounts, plus, when applicable, adjustment for charges and inflation-indexed variations through the reporting date of the statement of financial position, which contra-entry is recorded in profit or loss. When applicable, current and non-current liabilities are recorded at present value based on interest rates that reflect the term, currency and risk of each transaction.

2.2.16. Stock option plans

As approved by its Board of Directors, the Company offers executives and employees share-based compensation plans (stock options), as payments for services received.

The fair value of options is determined on the grant date, considering that it is recognized as expense in profit or loss (as contra-entry to equity), to the extent services are provided by employees and management members.

In an equity-settled transaction, in which the plan is modified, a minimum expense is recognized corresponding to the expense as if the terms have not been changed. An additional expense is recognized for any modification that increases the total fair value of granted options, or that otherwise benefits the employee, measured on the modification date.

In case of cancellation of a stock option plan, this is treated as if it had been granted on the cancellation date, and any unrecognized plan expense is immediately recognized. However, if a new plan substitutes the cancelled plan, and a substitute plan is designated on the grant date, the cancelled plan and the new plan are treated as if they were a modification of the original plan, as previously mentioned.

The Company annually revises its estimates of the amount of options that shall be vested, considering the vesting conditions not related to the market and the conditions based on length of service. The Company recognizes the impact of the revision of the initial estimates, if any, in the statement of profit or loss, as contra-entry to equity.

2.2.17. Share-based payment – Phantom Shares

The Company has a cash-settled share-based payment plan (phantom shares) under fixed terms and conditions. There is no expectation of the effective negotiation of shares, once there shall be no issue and/or delivery of shares for settling the plan.

According to CPC 10 (R1) – Share-based Payment, these amounts are recorded as a reserve payable, with contra-entry in profit or loss for the year, based on the fair value of the phantom shares granted, and during the vesting period. The fair value of this liability is remeasured and adjusted every reporting period, according to the change in the fair value of the benefit granted and vesting.

2.2.18. Other employee benefits

The salaries and benefits granted to the Company's employees and executives include fixed compensation (salaries, social security contributions (INSS), Government Severance Indemnity Fund for Employees (FGTS), vacation pay, and 13th monthly salary, among other) and variable compensation such as profit sharing, bonus, and stock option-based payments. These benefits are recorded in profit or loss for the year, under the account "General and administrative expenses", as they are incurred.

The bonus system operates with individual and corporate targets, structured based on the efficiency of corporate goals, followed by the business goals and, finally, individual goals.

The Company and its subsidiaries do not offer private pension or retirement plans.

2.2.19. Present value adjustment – assets and liabilities

Assets and liabilities arising from long or short-term transactions are adjusted to present value if significant.

In installment sales of units not completed, real estate development entities present receivables adjusted for inflation, including the installment related to the delivery of units, without accrual of interest, and shall be discounted to present value, as the agreed inflation rates do not include interest.

Borrowing costs and those related to finance the construction of real estate ventures are capitalized. Therefore, the reversal of the present value adjustment of an obligation related to these items is included in the cost of real estate unit sold or in the inventories of properties for sale, as the case may be, until the period of construction of the project is completed.

Accordingly, certain assets and liabilities are adjusted to present value based on discount rates that reflect the best estimate of the time value of money.

The applied discount rate's underlying economic basis and assumption is the average rate of the financing and loans obtained by the Company, net of the inflationary effect (Notes 5 and 12).

2.2.20. Debenture and public offering costs

Transaction costs and premiums on issuance of securities are accounted for as a direct reduction in the amount raised by the Company and are amortized over the terms of the instrument and the net balance is classified as reduction in the respective transaction (Note 13).

2.2.21. Borrowing costs

The borrowing costs directly attributable to ventures during construction phase, and to land during the development of assets for sale are capitalized as part of the cost of that asset during the construction period, since there is borrowing outstanding, which is recognized in profit or loss to the extent units are sold. All other borrowing costs are recorded as expense when incurred. Borrowing costs comprise interest and other related costs incurred, including those for raising finance.

Charges that are not recognized in profit or loss of subsidiaries are recorded in the financial statements of the Company, in the account investments in non-current assets (Note 9).

2.2.22. Provisions

(i) Provision for legal claims

The Company is party to several lawsuits and administrative proceedings. Provisions are recognized for all demands related to lawsuits which expectation of loss is considered probable.

Contingent liabilities for which losses are considered possible are only disclosed in a note to financial statements, and those for which losses are considered remote are neither accrued nor disclosed.

Contingent assets are recognized only when there are secured guarantees or final and unappealable favorable court decisions. Contingent assets with likelihoods of favorable decision are only disclosed in explanatory note. As of December 31, 2018 and 2017 there is no claim involving contingent assets recorded in the statement of financial position of the Company.

(ii) Allowance for expected credit losses

The Company annually reviews its assumptions related to the recognition of loss allowance, taking into account the review of the histories of its current operations and improvement in its estimates.

The Company carries out a comprehensive analysis of the contracts with customers not expired in order to recognize an allowance for expected credit losses for all customers, based on the assumptions set by the Company. This allowance is calculated based on the percentage-of-completion of the construction work, a methodology adopted for recognizing profit or loss (Note 2.2.2).

(iii) Provision for penalties due to delay in construction work

As contractually provided, the Company has the practice of provisioning the charges payable to eligible customers for projects whose delivery is delayed over 180 days, in line with the respective contractual clause and history of payments.

(iv) Warranty provision

The Company and its subsidiaries recognize a provision to cover expenditures for repairing construction defects covered during the warranty period, based on the estimate that considers the history of incurred expenditures adjusted by the future expectation, except for the subsidiaries that operate with outsourced companies, which are the direct guarantors of the construction services provided. The warranty period is five years from the delivery of the venture.

(v) Provision for impairment of non-financial assets

When there is evidence of impairment of asset, and the net carrying value exceeds the recoverable amount, a provision for impairment is recorded, adjusting the net carrying value to the recoverable value. Goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives have the recovery of their amounts tested annually, regardless whether there is any indication of impairment, by comparing to the realization value measured by cash flows discounted to present value, using a discount rate before taxes, which reflects the weighted average cost of capital of the Company.

For companies under the taxable profit regime, levied on non-cumulative basis, the PIS and COFINS contribution rates are levied at 1.65% and 7.6%, respectively, on gross revenue and discounting certain credits determined based on incurred costs and expenses. For companies that opt for the presumed profit taxation regime, under the cumulative taxation regime, the PIS and COFINS contribution rates are levied at 0.65% and 3%, respectively, on gross revenue, without discounts of credits in relation to incurred costs and expenses.

2.2.24. Treasury shares

Own equity instruments that are repurchased (treasury shares) are recognized at cost and charged to equity. No gain or loss is recognized in the statement of profit or loss upon purchase, sale, issue, or cancellation of the Company's own equity instruments.

2.2.25. Interest on equity and dividends

The proposal for distributing dividends and interest on equity made by Management that is in the portion equivalent to the minimum mandatory dividend is recorded as current liabilities in the heading “Dividends payable”, as it is considered a legal obligation provided for in the Articles of Incorporation of the Company.

2.2.26. Earnings (loss) per share – basic and diluted

Basic earnings (loss) per share are calculated by dividing the net income (loss) available (allocated) to ordinary shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding over the period.

Diluted earnings per share are calculated in a similar manner, except that the shares outstanding are increased, to include the additional shares that would be outstanding, in case the shares with dilutive potential attributable to stock option had been issued over the respective periods, using the weighted average price of shares.

2.2.27. Non-current asset held for sale and profit or loss from discontinued operations

The Company classifies a non-current asset as held for sale if its carrying value is recovered by sale transaction. In such case, the asset or group of assets held for sale shall be available for immediate sale on its current conditions, subject only to the terms that are usual and common for sale of such assets held for sale. With this, the sale shall be highly probable.

For a sale to be highly probable, Management shall be committed to the plan to sell the asset, and shall have initiated an active program to locate a buyer and complete the plan. In addition, the asset held for sale shall also be effectively marketed for sale at a sales price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value. Also, the sale is expected to be completed within one year of the classification date, unless events beyond the control of the Company change such period.

The asset held for sale is measured at the lower of its carrying value and the fair value less cost to sell. In case the carrying value is higher than the fair value, an impairment loss is recognized in statement of profit or loss for the year. Any reversal or gain will only be recorded within the limit of the recognized loss.

The assets and liabilities of the group of discontinued assets are shown in single lines in assets and liabilities. The profit or loss of discontinued operations is presented as a single amount in the statement of profit or loss, contemplating the total post-tax profit or loss of such operations less any impairment-related loss. The net cash flows attributable to operating, investing and financing activities of discontinued operations are shown in Note 8.2.

According to Note 8.2, the transaction of spin-off transaction between Gafisa and Tenda was completed on May 4, 2017 with the effective delivery of the totality of shares comprising Tenda's capital in the respective processes of capital decrease and preemptive right.

3. New standards, changes and interpretation of standards issued and adopted from 2018, and not yet adopted

3.1 New standards, changes and interpretations of standards issued and adopted from 2018

The following standards are in effect beginning on January 1, 2018:

(i) IFRS 9 – Financial Instruments (CPC 48) includes, among others, new models for classification and measurement of financial instruments, and measurement of prospective expected credit losses for financial and contractual assets.

Based on its evaluation, the Company concluded that the new classification requirements did not have a significant impact on the recognition of financial assets measured at fair value.

Additionally, according to CPC 48, expected losses are measured using one of the following bases: 12-month expected credit losses, and full lifetime expected credit losses. Therefore, the Company carried out the measurement of the allowance regarding the expected credit losses on contracts sold, which is recorded together with the recognition of the respective revenue.

(ii) The IFRS 15 – Revenue from Contracts with Customers (CPC 47) introduces new requirements for measurement and timing of revenue recognition. For the specific case of the real estate development sector, maintaining the POC revenue recognition method or adopting the method of keys, for example, depends on the contractual analyses made by Management. Letter CVM/SNC/SEP/ 02/2018, issued by CVM’s technical area, established accounting procedures for recognition, measurement and disclosure of certain types of transactions arising from purchase and sale contracts of units not completed in the Brazilian real estate development entities. Therefore, the Company measured the allowance for contracts with identification of the risks of cash inflows to the entity.

For comparability purposes, the balances as of December 31, 2017 and the opening balance as of January 1, 2017 were adjusted considering such changes in accounting practice. As required by CPC 23 – Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, the retrospective effects of the adoption of CPCs 47 and 48 are demonstrated as follows:

3. New standards, changes and interpretation of standards issued and adopted from 2018, and not yet adopted --Continued

3.2 New standards, changes and interpretations of standards issued and adopted from 2018

- IFRS 16 – Leases

This standard replaces the previous lease standard, IAS 17/CPC 06 (R1) – Leases, and related interpretation, and establishes the principles for the recognition, measurement, presentation and disclosure of leases for both parties to a contract, that is, the customers (lessees) and providers (lessors). Lessees are required to recognize a lease liability reflecting the future lease payments and a “right-of-use assets” for practically all lease contracts, except certain short-term leases and contracts of low-value assets. For lessors, the criteria for recognition and measurement of leases in the financial statements are substantially maintained. This standard is effective beginning on January 1, 2019.

Based on available information, the Company estimates that right-of-use assets and lease liabilities will be recognized in the amount of R$4,990 as of January 1, 2019.

- Other amendments

The following standard amendments and interpretations shall not have a significant impact on the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company:

- (i) IFRIC 23/ICPC 22 Uncertainty over Income Tax Treatments
- (ii) Prepayment Features with Negative Compensation (Amendments to IFRS 9)
- (iii) Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures
- (iv) (Amendments to CPC 18(R2) / IAS 28)
- (v) Amendments to Plan Amendment, Curtailment or Settlement (Amendments to CPC 33 / IAS 19)
- (vi) Annual improvements to IFRS Standards 2015-2017 cycle – several standards
- (vii) Amendments to references to the conceptual framework in the IFRS
- (viii) IFRS 17 Insurance Contracts.

There is no other standard, changes to standards or interpretation issued and not yet adopted that could, on the Management's opinion, have significant impact arising from their adoption on its financial statements.

As of December 31, 2018, the amount received from customers in excess of the recognized revenues totaled R$26,224 (R$61,039 in 2017) in the Company's statements, and R$28,956 (R$63,748 in 2017) in the consolidated statements, and are classified in the heading "Payables for purchase of properties and advances from customers " (Note 17).

9. Investments in ownership interests --Continued

The reported goodwill arises from the difference between the consideration and the equity of acquirees, calculated on acquisition date, and is based on the expectation of future economic benefits.

The Company evaluated the recovery of the carrying value of goodwill using the “value in use” concept, applying discounted cash flow models of the cash-generating units. The process for determining the value in use involves the use of assumptions, judgments and estimates relating to cash flows, such as growth rate of revenues, costs and expenses, estimates of investment and future working capital, and discount rates. The assumptions relating to projections of growth, cash flow and future cash flows are based on the Company’s business plan, approved by the Management, as well as on comparable market data, and represent the Management’s best estimate of the economic conditions that will prevail during the economic life of the different cash-generating units, group of assets that provides the generation of cash flows. The future cash flows were discounted based on the rate representative of the cost of capital. The evaluation of the value in use is made for a twenty-year period, consistently with economic valuation techniques and performed evaluations, and after such period, considering the perpetuity of assumptions in view of the ability to continue as going concern. The main assumptions used in the estimate of value in use are the following: (a) revenue – revenues were projected for the period between 2019 and 2038, considering projection of launches and growth in sales, construction progress and client base of the different cash-generating units, considering the inflation adjustments to trade accounts receivable and provided services; (b) Operating costs and expenses – costs and expenses were projected in line with historical performance, as well as the historical growth of revenues; (c) discount rate at 15.30% in nominal terms, (d) calculation of perpetuity considering a growth of 3.8% p.a. equivalent to the long-term inflation estimate projected by the Brazilian Central Bank, and (e) going concern assumption, in line with the Company’s business plan. The key assumptions were based on the historical performance of business units, and on reasonable macroeconomic assumptions, and supported by the financial market projections.

In the year ended December 31, 2018, the test for impairment of goodwill of the Company resulted in the need for recognition of a provision for realization (impairment) in the amount of R$112,800, related to the goodwill remeasurement of investment in the associate AUSA (R$127,429 in 2017).

20. Financial instruments

The Company and its subsidiaries engage in operations involving financial instruments. These instruments are managed through operational strategies and internal controls aimed at providing liquidity, return and safety. The use of financial instruments for hedging purposes is achieved through a periodical analysis of exposure to the risk that the management intends to cover (exchange, interest rate, etc.) which is submitted to the corresponding Management bodies for approval, and performance of the proposed strategy. The control policy consists of continuously monitoring the contracted conditions in relation to the prevailing market conditions. The Company and its subsidiaries do not use derivatives or any other risky assets for speculative purposes. The result from these operations is consistent with the policies and strategies devised by the Company's management. The Company and its subsidiaries operations are subject to the risk factors described below:

(i) Risk considerations

a) Credit risk

The Company and its subsidiaries restrict their exposure to credit risks associated with cash and cash equivalents, investing only in short-term securities of top tier financial institutions.

With regards to accounts receivable, the Company restricts its exposure to credit risks through sales to a broad base of customers and ongoing credit analysis. Additionally, there is no relevant history of losses due to the existence of secured guarantee, represented by real estate unit, for the recovery of its products in the cases of default during the construction period. As of December 31, 2018 and 2017, there was no significant credit risk concentration associated with customers.

b) Derivative financial instruments

The Company holds derivative instruments to mitigate the risk arising from its exposure to index and interest volatility recognized at their fair value in profit or loss for the year.

In the year ended December 31, 2018, the Company settled the following derivative contract for hedge against interest rate fluctuation.

Swap agreements (Fixed for CDI)	Reais	Percentage		Validity		Gain (loss) not realized by derivative instruments - net

b) Derivative financial instruments --Continued

During the year ended December 31, 2018, the income amount of R$763 (R$818 in 2017) in the Company's and consolidated statements, which refers to net proceeds of the interest swap transaction, arising from the payment in the amount of R$404 and the downward market variation of R$1,168, was recognized in the "financial income (expenses)" line in the statement of profit or loss for the year, allowing correlation between the effect of such transactions and interest rate fluctuation in the Company's statement of financial position (Note 24).

Additionally, during the year ended December 31, 2018, in the context of the treasury share repurchase program (Note 18.1), the Company used derivative financial instruments, through forward contracts, to make transactions with shares traded in the market. The contracts entered into total R$38,879 (Note 15), adjusted by the average rate of 0.71% over an average term of 41 days.

The estimated fair value of derivative financial instruments purchased by the Company was determined based on information available in the market and specific valuation methodologies. However, considerable judgment was necessary for interpreting market data to produce the estimated fair value of each transaction, which may vary upon the financial settlement of transactions.

c) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk arises from the possibility that the Company and its subsidiaries may experience gains or losses arising from fluctuations in the interest rates of its financial assets and liabilities. Aiming to mitigate this kind of risk, the Company and its subsidiaries seek to diversify funding in terms of fixed and floating rates. The interest rates on loans, financing and debentures are disclosed in Notes 12 and 13. The interest rates contracted on financial investments are disclosed in Note 4. Accounts receivable from completed real estate units (Note 5), are subject to annual interest rate of 12%, appropriated on a pro rata basis.

d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk refers to the possibility that the Company and its subsidiaries do not have sufficient funds to meet their commitments in view of the settlement terms of its rights and obligations.

To mitigate liquidity risks, and to optimize the weighted average cost of capital, the Company and its subsidiaries monitor on an on-going basis the indebtedness levels according to the market standards, and the fulfillment of covenants provided for in loan, financing and debenture agreements, in order to guarantee that the operating-cash generation and the advance funding, when necessary, are sufficient to meet the schedule of commitments, appropriately mitigating liquidity risk to the Company or its subsidiaries (Notes 12 e 13).

Level 3: inputs for asset or liability not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

a) Fair value measurement

The following estimate fair values were determined using available market information and proper measurement methodologies. However, a considerable amount of judgment is necessary to interpret market information and estimate fair value. Accordingly, the estimates presented in this document are not necessarily indicative of amounts that the Company could realize in the current market. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methodology may have a significant effect on estimated fair values.

(ii) Fair value of financial instruments --Continued

The following methods and assumptions were used in order to estimate the fair value for each financial instrument type for which the estimate of values is practicable.

(i) The amounts of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts receivable, other receivables, suppliers, and other current liabilities approximate to their fair values, recorded in the financial statements.

(ii) The fair value of bank loans and other financial debts is estimated through future cash flows discounted using benchmark interest rates available for similar and outstanding debts or terms.

The most significant carrying values and fair values of financial assets and liabilities as of December 31, 2018 and 2017 are as follows:

a) Risk of debt acceleration

As of December 31, 2018, the Company has loans and financing, with restrictive covenants related to cash generation, indebtedness ratios, capitalization, debt coverage, maintenance of shareholding position, and others. The breach of such obligations by the Company may give rise to the acceleration of its debts and/or acceleration of other debts of the Company, including due to the perform of any cross default or cross acceleration clauses, which may negatively impact the profit or loss of the Company and the value of its shares.

These restrictive covenants have been complied with by the Company and do not limit its ability to conduct its business as usual.

As mentioned in Note 12, in view of the breach of the covenants of a CCB issue, the non-current portions of such transaction were reclassified into short term. This transaction was settled on February 28, 2019, according to Note 32(iv).

The balance of certain bank financing contracts was also reclassified into short term, because of the assignment, in 2016 and 2017, of receivables provided in guarantee to financing contracts, as indicated in Note 12.

The Company analyzed other debt contracts and did not identify any impact on the cross restrictive covenants in relation to the aforementioned breach.

(iii) Capital stock management

The objective of the Company's capital stock management is to guarantee the maintenance of a strong credit rating in institutions, and an optimum capital ratio, in order to support the Company's business and maximize value to shareholders.

The Company controls its capital structure by making adjustments and adapting to current economic conditions. In order to maintain its structure adjusted, the Company may pay dividends, return on capital to shareholders, raise new loans and issue debentures, among others.

There were no changes in objectives, policies or procedures during the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017.

The Company included in its net debt structure: loans and financing, debentures, obligations assumed on assignment of receivables, and payables to venture partners less cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments:

(iv) Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis of financial instruments for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, except swap contracts, which are analyzed through their due dates, describes the risks that may incur material losses on the Company's profit or loss, as provided for by CVM, through Rule 475/08, in order to show a 10%, 25% and 50% increase/decrease in the risk variable considered.

As of December 31, 2018, the Company has the following financial instruments:

- a) Short-term investments, loans and financing, and debentures linked to Interbank Deposit Certificates (CDI);
- b) Loans and financing and debentures linked to the Referential Rate (TR) and CDI, and debentures indexed to the CDI and IPCA;
- c) Accounts receivable and payables for purchase of property, linked to the National Civil Construction Index (INCC) and General Market Price Index (IGP-M).

For the sensitivity analysis in the year ended December 31, 2018, the Company considered the interest rates of investments, loans and accounts receivables, the CDI rate at 6.40%, TR rate at 0%, INCC rate at 3.84%, IPCA rate at 3.75% and IGP-M rate at 7.55%. The scenarios considered were as follows:

Scenario I – Probable: 10% increase/decrease in the risk variables used for pricing

Scenario II – Possible: 25% increase/decrease in the risk variables used for pricing

Scenario III – Remote: 50% increase/decrease in the risk variables used for pricing

The Company shows in the following chart the sensitivity to risks to which the Company is exposed, taking into account that the possible effects would impact the future results, based on the exposures shown at December 31, 2018. The effects on equity are basically the same of the profit or loss ones.

Such transactions aim at simplifying business relations that demand the joint management of amounts reciprocally owed by the involved parties and, consequently, the control over the change of amounts reciprocally granted which offset against each other at the time the current account is closed. The average term for the development and completion of the ventures in which the resources are invested is between 24 and 30 months. The Company receives a compensation for the management of these ventures.

27. Earnings (loss) per share

In accordance with CPC 41, the Company is required to report basic and diluted loss per share. The comparison data of basic and diluted earnings/loss per share is based on the weighted average number of shares outstanding for the year, and all dilutive potential shares outstanding for each reported year, respectively.

Diluted earnings per share is computed similarly to basic earnings per share except that the outstanding shares are increased to include the number of additional shares that would have been outstanding if the potential dilutive shares attributable to stock options and redeemable shares of noncontrolling interest had been issued during the respective periods, using the weighted average stock price.

The following table shows the calculation of basic and diluted earnings and loss per share. In view of the loss for the year ended December 31, 2018 and 2017, shares with dilutive potential are not considered, because the impact would be antidilutive.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - São Paulo, March 28, 2019 – Gafisa S.A. (B3: GFSA3; OTC: GFASY), one of Brazil’s leading homebuilders, today reported its financial results for the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2018.

GAFISA ANNOUNCES 4Q18 and 2018 RESULTS

During 2018, the Company underwent a restructuring process. The R$250.8 million capital increase was concluded in February, lessening immediate cash pressure. In September, a change in the Company’s management led to the establishment of a new turnaround strategy in the last quarter, which focused on structure and cost adjustment including the shutdown of a branch in Rio de Janeiro; the relocation of our headquarters; and the revision of our processes.

This new turnaround strategy should save approximately R$110 million p.a. by reducing (i) headcount by 50%, accounting for savings of R$45 million/year; (ii) marketing by R$40 million/year; (iii) IT by R$18 million/year; (iv) sales stand expenditure by R$4 million; and saving (v) R$4 million/year with the relocation of our headquarters. Part of these gains already materialized in Nov/18 and Dec/18 but will become more evident in upcoming quarters.

Adjustment needs mapped out during 4Q18, such as impairment of land/inventories, the goodwill impairment test to remeasure the 30% stake in Alphaville and reversal/entry of provision, amongst others, were recorded in 4Q18, adversely affecting results by R$276 million.

Thus, Gafisa starts 2019 well-positioned for the new cycle in the real estate sector, equipped with quality assets and a renowned brand. Our pipeline launches rely on profitable residential projects that are fine-tuned to the market demand and located in the City of São Paulo. In this way, a higher volume of launches are scheduled for the second half of 2019.

Inventory PSV totals R$1.2 billion, with higher market liquidity (73% of total inventory PSV) concentrated in São Paulo residential units.

Dissolutions, which for several years caused an imbalance in various projects, significantly decreased in 2018. The monthly average volume of dissolutions declined from R$34 million in 2017 to R$19 million in 2018. This downward trend should continue in 2019, with the approval of a law that regulates dissolutions. Pursuant to new legislation, developers may retain up to 50% of the amount paid by the consumer in cases where the purchase has been waived, conferring greater legal safety to the sector.

Net debt totaled R$752 million in Dec/18, down 21% from the previous year. Leverage, measured by net debt/shareholders' equity ratio, jumped to 153% at the end of 2018, mainly impacted by negative results in the period and impairments recorded. Excluding project financing, the net debt/shareholders' equity ratio was 45%. Funding alternatives are being analyzed to remodel the Company's ownership structure.

Our expectations for 2019 are positive, the macroeconomic scenario is improving, and the market has begun to show signs of recovery. The growth upturn will occur gradually and sustainably, aiming for a solid performance that will create value for shareholders and stakeholders.

Launches

The Company launched one project in 4Q18, the Scena Tatuapé, with total PSV of R$118.9 million, which, when added to other launches in the year, totaled R$728.7 million in 2018, 31.5% higher than the total volume launched in 2017. In 4Q18, the estimated launch of three other projects with a PSV of approximately R$320 million was postponed to 2019. One of the projects was located in an oversupplied region; the two other projects, located in regions that did not reach an adequate development level, required adjustments.

Sales

In 4Q18, gross sales totaled R$153.4 million, down 18.5% quarter-over-quarter and 29.3% year-over-year. This quarter was a period marked by transformation. Sales lists and several business conditions were reassessed, with the goal of preserving margin and profitability. For instance, we increased the percentage of clients' down payments, which had the initial effect of reducing the speed of sales in the quarter—but will ensure healthier sales and fewer dissolutions going forward.

In the last 12 months, gross sales totaled R$1.04 billion in 2018 versus R$1.13 billion in 2017.

Dissolutions came to R$58.4 million in 4Q18, 38.8% lower than in 4Q17, despite a significantly higher volume of projects delivered year-over-year. Dissolutions reached R$227.7 million in 2018, reflecting a consistent downward trend (-44.7% p.a.). The average monthly dissolutions decreased from R$34.3 million in 2017 to R$19 million in 2018.

The net pre-sales totaled R$95 million in 4Q18. In 2018, net pre-sales came to R$813.2 million, 12.9% higher than in 2017.

Sales Over Supply (SoS)

Quarterly SoS was 7.2% in 4Q18, in line with the same period in the previous year. In the last 12 months, SoS reached 40%, 8 p.p. higher than in 4Q17, bolstered by inventory sales and launch successes. With 100% sales, Upside Pinheiros, a project launched in 1Q18, was the highlight.

Inventory (Property for Sale)

Inventory at market value was R$1.225 billion in 4Q18, down 7.1% quarter-over-quarter. This decrease can be attributed to sales in the period as well as sales prices in the quarter that were adjusted with the aim of pricing inventory units at actual market value.

Table 5 – Inventory at Market Value 4Q18 x 3Q18 (R$ 000)

1,091,812	118,936	46,269	(142,234)	(80,770)	1,034,013	-5.3%

1,318,698	118,936	58,401	(153,406)	(117,563)	1,225,066	-7.1%

¹ Adjustments reflect the updates related to the project scope, launch date, and pricing update in the period.

The positive inventory sales performance decreased inventory turnover from 25 months in 4Q17 to 18 months at the end of 2018.

We emphasize that out of R$460.6 million finished units, approximately 60% are residential units, which should contribute to sustaining the current level of inventory turnover and the monetization of these assets over the upcoming months. In addition, we point out that 73.5% of total inventory are residential units located in the state of São Paulo, where we are well-positioned to seize opportunities that result from the economic upturn.

Delivered Projects and Transfer

In 4Q18 alone, the Company delivered four projects totaling 549 units, with total PSV reaching R$263.3 million, five times higher than the R$41.1 million seen in 4Q17. Currently, Gafisa has 14 projects underway, four of which will start works in 2019.

PSV transferred in 4Q18 was up 10%, reaching R$82.4 million year-over-year, boosted by higher PSV of projects delivered. In 2018, PSV transferred totaled R$321.3 million, down 27.2% from 2017. This reduction is because approximately 71% of PSV delivered in the quarter occurred in December (Hermann Jr and Barra Vista), with transfer foreseen in the first quarter of 2019.

Revenue

Net revenues rose to R$960.9 million in 2018, up by 22% from 2017, driven by higher sales volume and work evolution in the period. In 4Q18, nearly 30,5% of net revenue is related to projects launched during 2018, reflecting our launches assertiveness.

Gross Profit & Margin

In 4Q18, gross profit & margin were impacted by provisions totaling R$63.1 million, deriving from impairment of certain plots of land and inventory units. Excluding the effect of these adjustments, recurring adjusted gross profit recorded in 4Q18 totaled R$46.9 million versus approximately R$91.6 million in 4Q17. In the last 12 months, recurring adjusted gross profit totaled R$290.8 million in 2018, twice higher than the amount recorded in 2017. Recurring adjusted gross margin in 2018 was 30.3%, 12 p.p. higher than in 2017.

Selling, General, and Administrative Expenses (SG&A)

Selling, general, and administrative expenses totaled R$6.6 million, 85% below 3Q18 and 86% below 4Q17. In the last 12 months, selling, general, and administrative expenses totaled R$141 million, down 22% from 2017.

Selling expenses totaled R$11.4 million, down 45% from 3Q18 due to a reduction in i) product marketing and selling expenses, reflecting the gains earned during the 4Q18 turnaround process; and ii) brokerage and sales commission expenses, reflecting lower sales volume in the period. In 2018, the decrease was 4% versus 2017.

General and administrative expenses totaled R$4.7 million, down 121% from 3Q18 mainly due to (i) the net reversal of bonus provisions for the previous year and current year, amounting to R$14.8 million in 2018; (ii) reduced services expenses; and (iii) lower salaries and charges expenses. In the last 12 months, general and administrative expenses decreased from R$92.7 million in 2017 to R$57.1 million in 2018 due to a reversal of provision for bonus mentioned above as well as lower services and IT expenses.

In contrast to other periods in the year, the total amount of other operating expenses reached R$251.4 million in 4Q18, 67% higher than in 4Q17. A significant amount of this total, 45% or R$112.8 million derived from the goodwill impairment test to remeasure the 30% stake in Alphaville, yearly conducted based on the future profitability estimate or when circumstances indicate impairment losses.

Another relevant impact in the quarter was the expense relating to provision for contingencies. During the revision of contingency proceedings, we identified a provisioning need for four relevant contingencies: (i) execution referring to the loss of suit totaling R$33.7 million; (ii) indemnification in affirmative covenant involving former shareholder of the Company, in the amount of R$26.7 million; (iii) lawsuit referring to construction guarantee totaling R$23.2 million, the injunction of which was granted relief on March 7, 2017; and (iv) indemnification due to land dissolution, with judgment rendered on September 9, 2015, totaling R$23.3 million. Furthermore, it is important to note that the impairment of software reached approximately R$5 million.

Financial Result

In 4Q18, financial results totaled R$4.3 million, down 29% quarter-over-quarter, reflecting lower balance of cash and cash equivalents in the period; and down 28% year-over-year, due to the interest rate drop in the period. Financial expenses reached R$26.7 million in 4Q18, 12% lower than in 4Q17 due to reduced interest rates on funding in view of a lower level of indebtedness. Thus, 4Q18 reported a negative net financial result of R$22.3 million, compared to a negative net financial result of R$24.3 million in 4Q17.

In the last 12 months, the net financial result was negative R$80.5 million versus a net loss of R$107.3 million in 2017.

Taxes

In 4Q18, income tax and social contribution had a positive impact of R$24 million, reflecting a tax credit of R$26 million deriving from the goodwill impairment recorded in the Alphaville investment. For this reason, the provision for income tax and social contribution (IR/CSLL) had a positive impact of R$21.8 million in 2018.

Net Result

As a result of effects mentioned above, 4Q18's recorded a positive result of R$11.6 million, compared to a net loss of around R$20 million in 3Q18 and in line with R$11.5 million in 4Q17, excluding results from the impairment of inventories, land, and goodwill of the stake in Alphaville. In the last 12 months, recurring adjusted net loss was R$66.2 million versus R$190.1 million in 2017.
