PROXY STATEMENT
INFORMATION CONCERNING VOTING AND SOLICITATION

General

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors (the "Board of Directors" or the "Board") of Farmer Bros. Co., a Delaware corporation (the "Company" or "Farmer Bros."), for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held on Tuesday, December 14, 2004, at 10:00 a.m., Pacific Standard Time, or at any continuation, postponement or adjournment thereof, for the purposes discussed in this Proxy Statement and in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting, and any business properly brought before the Annual Meeting. Proxies are solicited to give all stockholders of record an opportunity to vote on matters properly presented at the Annual Meeting. The Company intends to mail this Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy card on or about November 18, 2004 to all stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting will be held at the principal office of the Company located at 20333 South Normandie Avenue, Torrance, California 90502.

Solicitation of Proxies

The mailing of proxy materials will commence on or about November 18, 2004. The Company will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies, including preparation, assembly and mailing of this Proxy Statement, the proxy and any additional information furnished to stockholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding shares of Farmers Bros. common stock (the "Common Stock") in their names that are beneficially owned by others to forward to these beneficial owners. The Company may reimburse persons representing beneficial owners for their costs of forwarding the solicitation material to the beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, facsimile, electronic mail or personal solicitation by directors, officers or employees of the Company. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or employees for such services.

Voting of Shares

You are entitled to vote if you were a stockholder of record of Common Stock as of the close of business on November 15, 2004. You may vote by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. You may also vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card. Each such holder present or represented at the meeting will be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held on all matters to be voted upon at the meeting. All shares entitled to vote and represented by properly executed proxies received before the polls are closed at the Annual Meeting, and not revoked or superseded, will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated on those proxies. YOUR VOTE IS IMPORTANT.

Counting of Votes

All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the Annual Meeting who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes and abstentions. Shares held by persons attending the Annual Meeting but not voting, shares represented by proxies that reflect abstentions as to a particular proposal and broker "nonvotes" will be counted as present for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker "nonvote" occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner has not received instructions from the beneficial owner and does not have discretionary authority to vote the shares.

Directors are elected by a plurality of votes cast, so abstentions and broker nonvotes will not be counted in determining which nominees received the largest number of votes cast. The ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the matter. Abstentions will have the same effect as votes against such proposal and broker nonvotes will have no effect on the result of the votes on such proposal.

Shares Outstanding and Quorum

Edgar Filing: FARMER BROTHERS CO - Form DEF 14A

At the close of business on November 15, 2004, 16,075,080 shares of Common Stock were outstanding and entitled to vote. The Company has no other class of securities outstanding. A majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting.

Proxy Card and Revocation of Proxy

If you sign the proxy card but do not specify how you want your shares to be voted, your shares will be voted by the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy in favor of the election of all of the director nominees and in favor of ratification of the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005. In their discretion, the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy are authorized to vote on any other matters that may properly come before the Annual Meeting and at any continuation, postponement or adjournment thereof. The Board of Directors knows of no items of business that will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting other than those described in this Proxy Statement. In addition, no stockholder proposal or nomination was received on a timely basis in accordance with the requirements of the Company's Bylaws, so no such matters may be brought to a vote at the Annual Meeting.

If you vote by proxy, you may revoke that proxy at any time before it is voted at the Annual Meeting. You may revoke your proxy by sending to the Company's Secretary at the Company's principal office at 20333 South Normandie Avenue, Torrance, California 90502, a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting in person and voting in person. Attendance at the meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

ITEM 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, the Board of Directors is divided into three classes, each class consisting, as nearly as possible, of one third of the total number of directors, with members of each class serving for a three year term. Class I consists of three directors, continuing in office until the Annual Meeting, and each of Class II and Class III consists of two directors, continuing in office until the 2005 Annual Meeting and the 2006 Annual Meeting, respectively.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes. As a result, the three Class I nominees who receive the largest number of properly cast votes will be elected as directors. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote for each of the three director nominees. Cumulative voting is not permitted. It is the intention of the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy to vote the proxies received by them for the election of the nominees named below unless authorization to do so is withheld. If any nominee should become unavailable for election prior to the Annual Meeting, an event that currently is not anticipated by the Board, the proxies will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee or nominees proposed by the Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors. Each person nominated for election has consented to be named and has agreed to serve if elected and management has no reason to believe that any nominee will be unable to serve.

Lewis A. Coffman, Kenneth R. Carson and John Samore, Jr. are nominees for election to the Board. All such nominees are presently directors of the Company. Each of the nominees would serve until his successor is elected and qualified, or until such director's earlier death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal. If elected at the Annual Meeting, Messrs. Coffman, Carson and Samore would each be elected to a three year term expiring at the 2007 Annual Meeting.

All of the present directors were elected to their current terms by the stockholders, with the exception of Mr. Carson who was appointed by the Board on August 17, 2004, filling a vacancy created by the death of Roy F. Farmer this past spring. The Board has determined that all nominees for election to the Board at the 2004 Annual Meeting and all continuing directors are independent under the revised listing standards of The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. ("NASDAQ"), except for Messrs. Carson, Berger and Farmer.

Set forth below is biographical information for each nominee and for each person whose term of office as a director will continue after the Annual Meeting. Other than as disclosed in the footnotes below, none of the directors is a director of any other publicly held company.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board has selected Ernst & Young LLP ("EY") as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005, and has further directed that management submit the selection of independent auditors for ratification by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. EY has audited the Company's financial statements since 1997. EY has no direct financial interest or any material indirect financial interest in the Company or its subsidiaries. During the past three years, EY has had no connection with the Company or its subsidiaries in the capacity of promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer or employee. Representatives of EY are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting. They will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of EY as the Company's independent auditors is not required by the Bylaws or otherwise. However, the Board is submitting the selection of EY to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of corporate practice. If the stockholders fail to ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain that firm. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent accounting firm at any time during the year if the Audit Committee determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

The following resolution will be presented at the Annual Meeting:
"RESOLVED, that the appointment by the Audit Committee of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005 is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved."

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote is required to ratify the selection of EY as the Company's independent auditors.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP.

BOARD AND COMMITTEE MATTERS

Board Meetings

The Board held eleven meetings during fiscal 2004. All of the directors attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and committees on which they served during fiscal 2004. Although it is customary for all Board members to attend, the Company has no formal policy in place with regard to Board members' attendance at its annual meetings of stockholders. All members of the Board, with the exception of the late Roy F. Farmer, were present at the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on February 23, 2004.

Corporate Governance

The Board maintains charters for select committees. In addition, the Board has adopted a written Code of Conduct for all employees, officers and directors, and a Code of Ethics for the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer that generally formalize practices already in place at the Company. The Board has approved the Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics that are included in this Proxy Statement as Annex A and Annex B, respectively. The committee charters, Code of Conduct and Code of Ethics are not yet available on the Company's website; however, the Company is in the process of updating its website at www.farmerbroscousa.com(1) to include such information and other corporate and financial information.

Committees

Edgar Filing: FARMER BROTHERS CO - Form DEF 14A

Audit Committee

The Company has a standing Audit Committee established in accordance with applicable provisions of the Exchange Act. The Audit Committee's principal purposes are to oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company, the audits of the financial statements of the Company, and the qualifications and independence of the independent accountants. The Board has approved an amended and restated charter of the Audit Committee that was included as Annex D to the Company's Proxy Statement for the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Audit Committee carries out its responsibilities in accordance with the terms of its charter. During fiscal 2004, the Audit Committee met six times. John H. Merrell serves as Chairman, and Thomas A. Maloof and John Samore, Jr. serve as members of the Audit Committee. The Board has determined that at least one member of the Audit Committee is an "audit committee financial expert" as defined in item 401(h)(2) of Regulation SK under the Exchange Act. That person is John H. Merrell, the Audit Committee Chairman. Mr. Merrell is "independent" as that term is used in Item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A under the Exchange Act. The Board has determined that all Audit Committee members are independent under the revised listing standards of NASDAQ. The Audit Committee meets the NASDAQ composition requirements, including the requirements regarding financial literacy and financial sophistication.

(1) This website address is not intended to function as a hyperlink, and the information contained in the Company's website is not intended to be a part of this Proxy Statement.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee is a standing committee of the Board and is comprised of Lewis A. Coffman, Thomas A. Maloof, John H. Merrell and John Samore, Jr. The principal purposes of the Nominating Committee are to identify persons qualified to become Board members and to recommend to the Board individuals to be selected as director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders or for appointment to vacancies on the Board. The Board has determined that all Nominating Committee members are independent under the revised listing standards of NASDAQ.

The Nominating Committee believes that its slate of nominees should include: the Chief Executive Officer of the Company; one or more nominees with upper management experience with the Company or in the coffee industry; three nominees who are independent and have the requisite accounting or financial qualifications to serve on the Audit Committee; and at least three nominees who are independent and have executive compensation experience to serve on the Compensation Committee. All nominees should contribute substantially to the Board's oversight responsibilities. The Nominating Committee met once in fiscal 2004 to nominate directors for election at the 2004 Annual Meeting. The Board has approved a charter of the Nominating Committee that was included as Annex E to the Company's Proxy Statement for the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The Nominating Committee will consider recommendations for director nominees from Company stockholders. Biographical information and contact information for proposed candidates should be sent to Farmer Bros. Co., 20333 South Normandie Avenue, Torrance, California 90502, Attn: Secretary, subject to the notice provisions described below under the caption "Other Stockholder Proposals and Nominations." The Nominating Committee will evaluate candidates proposed by stockholders using the following criteria: Board needs (see discussion of slate of nominees above); relevant business experience; time availability; absence of conflicts of interest; and perceived ability to contribute to the Company's success.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is a standing committee of the Board and is comprised of Lewis A. Coffman, John H. Merrell, Thomas A. Maloof and John Samore, Jr. The Compensation Committee is responsible for assessing the overall compensation structure of the Company and for administering and reviewing all executive compensation programs, incentive compensation plans and equitybased plans, and all other compensation and benefit programs currently in place at the Company. Additionally, the Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and evaluating the performance of the Company's executive officers (including the Chief Executive Officer) and setting compensation for executive officers based on such evaluations. The Board has approved a charter of the Compensation Committee that is included in this Proxy Statement as Annex C. The Compensation Committee met once in fiscal 2004. The Board has determined that all Compensation Committee members are independent under the revised listing standards of NASDAQ.

Compensation of Directors

For fiscal 2004, each nonemployee director was paid an annual retainer of $20,000 and meeting fees of $1,500 for each Board meeting and committee meeting (if not held in conjunction with a Board meeting) attended. For fiscal 2005, each nonemployee director will receive an annual retainer of $25,000 and meeting fees of $1,500 for each Board meeting and committee meeting (if not held in conjunction with a Board meeting) attended, and the Audit Committee Chairman will receive an additional annual retainer of $2,500. The members of the Board are also entitled to reimbursement of travel expenses from outside the greater Los Angeles area, in accordance with Company policy, incurred in connection with attendance at Board and committee meetings. There are no family relationships among any directors of the Company.

Retirement Plan

The following table shows estimated annual benefits payable for the 2004 plan year under the Company's retirement plan ("Retirement Plan") upon retirement at age 62 to persons at various average compensation levels and years of credited service based on a straight-life annuity. The Retirement Plan is a contributory defined benefit plan covering all nonunion Company employees. The following figures assume that employee contributions (2% of annual gross earnings) are made throughout the employees' first five years of service and are not withdrawn. After five years of participation in the Retirement Plan, employees make no further contributions. Benefits under a predecessor plan are included in the following figures. Maximum annual combined benefits under both plans generally cannot exceed the lesser of $205,000 or the average of the employee's highest three years of compensation.

Annualized Pension Compensation for Highest 60 Consecutive Months in Last Ten Years of Employment	Credited Years of Service
	20	25	30	35
$100,000	$30,000	$37,500	$45,000	$52,500
$125,000	$37,500	$46,875	$56,250	$65,625
$150,000	$45,000	$56,250	$67,500	$78,750
$170,000	$52,500	$65,625	$78,750	$91,875
$200,000	$60,000	$75,000	$90,000	$105,000
$250,000	$61,500	$76,875	$92,250	$107,625

The earnings of executive officers by which benefits in part are measured consist of the amounts reportable under "Annual Compensation" in the Summary Compensation Table less certain allowance items (none in 2004).

The five year average compensation for purposes of the Retirement Plan of each of the Named Executive Officers and the number of years of service rounded to the nearest year (as of December 31, 2003) and credited to each of them under the Retirement Plan were as follows: Roy E. Farmer - $637,894 (27 years); Guenter W. Berger - $332,742 (39 years); Kenneth R. Carson $286,882 (38 years); Michael J. King $151,094 (30 years); and John E. Simmons $269,651 (22 years). After 37 years of credited service, Roy F. Farmer began receiving maximum benefits during fiscal 1988, which benefits ceased upon his death in 2004.

The above straight life annuity amounts are not subject to deductions for Social Security or other offsets. Other payment options, one of which is integrated with Social Security benefits, are available.

Compensation Committee Report (1)

The Compensation Committee Report for fiscal 2004 is as follows:

Philosophy and Objectives

Edgar Filing: FARMER BROTHERS CO - Form DEF 14A

The Compensation Committee believes that once base salaries of executive officers are established at competitive levels, increases should generally reflect cost of living changes and adjustments for market competitiveness, and that individual performance should be rewarded by bonuses or other incentive compensation awards. The Compensation Committee believes that most of the executive officers will be incentivized to a greater degree by such a program.

Executive Officer Compensation

In 2003 the Compensation Committee obtained a compensation study prepared by Valuemetrics Advisors, Inc. relating to officer and director compensation. The report concluded that the current executive officers employed by the Company were underpaid when compared to their counterparts at sizeadjusted peer group companies. Consistent with the Compensation Committee's expressed compensation policy of paying a competitive base salary, the Compensation Committee has increased base salaries to Messrs. Berger and Simmons by three percent (3%) for fiscal 2005. In recognition of Mr. Farmer's increased responsibilities as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee has raised his base salary for fiscal 2005 to $595,000 from $498,411 for fiscal 2004. Mr. Farmer's base salary is not directly related to Company performance. Mr. Farmer also received an award for fiscal 2004 under the Company's Incentive Compensation Plan (see below).

Incentive Compensation Plan

The Company made awards under its Incentive Compensation Plan (the "Plan") for fiscal 2004 to all employee executive officers. The Compensation Committee felt that awards were justified in light of the Company's performance in fiscal 2004, although financial results were below those achieved in the prior two years. Total awards for fiscal 2004 were $675,000, as compared to $700,000 for fiscal 2003 and $1,000,000 for fiscal 2002.

Under the provisions of the Plan, a percentage of the Company's annual pretax income is made available for discretionary cash or deferred awards. The percentage varies from three percent of pretax income over $14.0 million to six percent of pretax income of $24.0 million or more. Amounts available for awards but not awarded are carried forward. The pool available for awards for fiscal 2004 under the Incentive Compensation Plan was in excess of $14.0 million. Of the available pool, the Compensation Committee awarded a total of $675,000 of which $400,000 was awarded to Roy E. Farmer, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, and a total of $275,000 was awarded to the other executive officers. The award to Mr. Farmer was based on the Compensation Committee's evaluation of Mr. Farmer's performance. Specific performance areas that the Compensation Committee evaluated in fiscal 2004 included relative financial performance and accomplishment of other strategic and operational priorities.

Edgar Filing: FARMER BROTHERS CO - Form DEF 14A

(1) Share numbers and per share prices have been retroactively adjusted to reflect a ten for one stock split declared on March 4, 2004.

OTHER

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities ("Reporting Persons"), to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and with NASDAQ. Reporting Persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all forms they file pursuant to Section 16(a). Based solely on its review of the copies of such reports received by it, and written representations from certain Reporting Persons that no other reports were required for those persons, the Company believes that, during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004, the Reporting Persons met all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements, except: the ESOP and Mr. Samore each had one purchase transaction for which the filing was late; and Franklin Mutual Advisers, LLC reported 12 purchase transactions, for which all of the filings were late.

Stockholder Proposals and Nominations

Pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act, stockholders may present proper proposals for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement and for consideration at the Company's next annual meeting of stockholders. To be eligible for inclusion in the Company's 2005 proxy statement, stockholder proposals must be received by the Company by July 21, 2005 if the 2005 Annual Meeting is held between November 14, 2005 and January 13, 2006, or if not, within a reasonable time before the Company begins to print and mail its proxy material, and must otherwise comply with Rule 14a8. While the Board will consider stockholder proposals, the Company reserves the right to omit from the Company's proxy statement stockholder proposals that it is not required to include under the Exchange Act, including Rule 14a8.

In addition, the Company's Bylaws contain an advance notice provision with respect to matters to be brought at an annual meeting of stockholders, including nominations, and not included in the Company's proxy statement. A stockholder who desires to nominate a director or bring any other business before the stockholders at the 2005 Annual Meeting must notify the Company in writing, must cause such notice to be delivered to or received by the Secretary not less than ninety (90) days nor more than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the anniversary of the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, and must comply with the other Bylaw provisions summarized below; provided, however, that in the event that the 2005 Annual Meeting is called for a date that is not within thirty (30) days before or after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder in order to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the day on which such notice of the date of the 2005 Annual Meeting was mailed or such public disclosure of the date of the 2005 Annual Meeting was made, whichever first occurs.

The Bylaws provide that nominations may be made by the Board, by a committee appointed by the Board or any stockholder entitled to vote in the election of directors generally. Stockholders must provide actual written notice of their intent to make nomination(s) to the Secretary of the Company within the timeframes described above. Each such notice must set forth (a) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election as a director (i) the name, age, business address and residence address of the person, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of the person, (iii) the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of the Company which are owned beneficially or of record by the person and (iv) any other information relating to the person that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with solicitations of proxies for election of directors pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act; and (b) as to the stockholder giving notice. (i) the name and record address of such stockholder, (ii) the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of the Company which are owned beneficially or of record by such stockholder, (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such stockholder and each proposed nominee and any other person or persons (including their names) pursuant to which the nomination(s) are to be made by such stockholder, (iv) a representation that such stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the persons named in its notice and (v) any other information relating to such stockholder that would be required to be disclosed in a proxy statement or other filings required to be made in connection with the solicitation of proxies for election of directors pursuant to Section 14 of the Exchange Act. Such notice must be accompanied by a written consent of each proposed nominee to being named as a nominee and to serve as a director if elected.

The notice given by a stockholder regarding other business to be brought before an annual meeting of the stockholders must set forth (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reason for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (b) the name and record address of such stockholder, (c) the class and number of shares of stock of the Company which are owned beneficially or of record by such stockholder, (d) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such stockholder and any other persons (including their names) in connection with the proposal and any material interest of such stockholder in such business and (e) a representation that such stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual meeting to bring such business before the meeting.

You may write to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive office, 20333 South Normandie Avenue, Torrance, California 90502, to deliver the notices discussed above and for a copy of the relevant Bylaw provisions regarding the requirements for making stockholder proposals and nominating director candidates.

Communication with the Board

The Company's annual meeting of stockholders provides an opportunity each year for stockholders to ask questions of or otherwise communicate directly with members of the Board on appropriate matters. In addition, stockholders may communicate in writing with any particular director, or the directors as a group, by sending such written communication to the Secretary of the Company at the Company's principal executive office, 20333 South Normandie Avenue, Torrance, California 90502. Copies of written communications received at such address will be provided to the Board or the relevant director unless such communications are considered, in the reasonable judgment of the Secretary, to be inappropriate for submission to the intended recipient(s). Examples of stockholder communications that would be considered inappropriate for submission to the Board include, without limitation, customer complaints, solicitations, communications that do not relate directly or indirectly to the Company's business or communications that relate to improper or irrelevant topics.

Householding of Proxy Materials

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (such as banks and brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as "householding," potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

This year, a number of brokers with account holders who are Company stockholders will be "householding" the Company's proxy materials. A single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker that they will be "householding" communications to your address, "householding" will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in "householding" and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement and annual report, please notify your broker, direct your written request to Mr. John E. Simmons, Chief Financial Officer, Farmer Bros. Co., 20333 South Normandie Avenue, Torrance, California 90502, or contact Mr. John E. Simmons by telephone at (310) 7875200. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy statement at their address and would like to request "householding" of their communications should contact their broker.

Annual Report to Stockholders

The 2004 Annual Report to Stockholders is being mailed to stockholders with this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report is neither incorporated by reference in this Proxy Statement nor part of the proxy soliciting material. A copy of the Company's Form 10K, as filed with the SEC for the year ended June 30, 2004, may be obtained by persons entitled thereto, without charge, by writing to Farmer Bros. Co., 20333 South Normandie Avenue, Torrance, California 90502, attention Chief Financial Officer.

ANNEX A

FARMER BROS. CO. CODE OF CONDUCT

PURPOSE AND SCOPE

Farmer Bros. Co. (referred to herein as "Farmer Bros." or the "Company") has established this Code of Conduct (this "Code") to codify the personal and professional ethical and legal standards of conduct required of Company employees, officers and directors, the procedures by which complaints of violations of those standards will be investigated and the disciplinary actions which may be taken to enforce this Code. This Code applies to all Farmer Bros. employees, officers and directors.

POLICY

Farmer Bros.' business must be conducted in accordance with applicable laws of the United States and other jurisdictions in which Farmer Bros. operates and in accordance with the highest ethical standards of business conduct. All employees, officers and directors shall adhere strictly to this policy, without exception.

Throughout Farmer Bros. long history it has been our policy to comply with all relevant federal, state and local laws. However, in these uncertain times, we must also strive to demonstrate that our commitment to ethical conduct in the affairs of our business goes far beyond the prohibitions of any particular law. Farmer Bros.' minimum requirements for the conduct of all employees, officers and directors follow.

This Code cannot describe every practice or convey every standard which relates to Farmer Bros.' commitment to personal and professional, business, ethical and legal standards. It is the responsibility of each employee, officer and director to use his or her common sense where there is no written guideline in this Code.

We encourage you to voice your concerns and raise any questions which you may have related to this policy free from any fear of retaliation.

SPECIFIC OBLIGATIONS

General Business Ethics

Farmer Bros. employees, officers and directors are required and expected to deal honestly, truthfully and fairly with others in business. False or intentionally misleading statements or omissions of any kind should never be made. Confidential information, either of Farmer Bros. or of any other company, must never be misused. Farmer Bros. will not tolerate any types of deceitful practices.

Maintenance of Company Books, Records, Documents and Accounts

Farmer Bros. corporate and business records must be maintained completely, accurately and honestly at all times. The making of false or intentionally misleading entries, whether related to financial results or test results, is strictly prohibited. Farmer Bros. records serve as a basis for managing our business and are vital in serving the needs of our customers, suppliers, employees and others with whom we do business.

Financial Integrity and Public Reporting

Farmer Bros. records are relied upon to produce reports for our management, stockholders, governmental agencies and the general public. In particular, our accounting and other business and corporate records are relied upon for preparing periodic and current reports required by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. where our common stock is traded. These reports must provide full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosures related to the results of our operations and our financial condition.

Employees charged with collecting, analyzing and providing reports related to this information must always strive to ensure that our financial disclosures are accurate and transparent and that our reports contain all of the information required by stockholders and potential investors to assess the soundness and risks of our business and financial position.

Relationships With Vendors/Customers

Farmer Bros. vendors and customers are to be treated honestly and fairly at all times, without exception. No payments, gifts of more than nominal value, or any form of preferential treatment may be made to obtain or retain business, or to realize a certain price for our products. No payments, direct or indirect, including gifts of more than nominal value, or any form of preferential treatment, may be solicited or accepted from any vendor, customer or competitor of Farmer Bros. Money, gifts, repetitive or extensive entertainment and other favors which would imply or incur an obligation must not be accepted or given by employees, officers, directors or members of their immediate families in connection with transactions involving Farmer Bros. For example, acceptance of an inappropriate gift by a member of your family from one of our suppliers could create a conflict of interest and result in a violation of this Code attributable to you.

Acceptance of a meal, refreshments or entertainment in the normal course of business relations is permitted and, to the extent practical, should be reciprocated.

Farmer Bros. will promptly terminate any employee who offers or receives a bribe or a kickback. Such conduct is illegal and strictly forbidden.

Conflicts of Interest

Farmer Bros. employees, officers and directors must avoid conflicts of interest and avoid the mere appearance of a potential conflict of interest. Each employee, officer and director should carefully review his or her own situation to make sure they are free from conflicts of interest. All decisions involving the business or non-business activities of Farmer Bros. must be made solely in the best interests of Farmer Bros. Employees, officers and directors must not make decisions based on personal considerations which might affect or appear to affect their judgment. Accordingly, they must not have, or appear to have, any direct or indirect personal interest, financial or otherwise, in any of Farmer Bros.' competitors, suppliers or customers. They may not buy or sell, directly or indirectly, any property, goods or services from or to Farmer Bros. for their own benefit or for the benefit of their families or associates. Employees, officers and directors must not accept from others, directly or indirectly, any form of compensation for work or services relating to their responsibilities as Farmer Bros. employees. The ownership, as an investor, of the securities of publicly held corporations may normally be disregarded, provided that such ownership does not trigger reporting in accordance with federal securities laws (typically five percent (5%)).

Any employee with a question about whether a particular situation constitutes a conflict of interest should discuss it with his or her supervisor.

The following are examples of situations which, depending on the facts and circumstances, might involve conflicts of interest:

. Employment by (including consulting for) or service on the board of a competitor, customer, supplier or other service provider. Activity that enhances or supports the position of a competitor to the detriment of Farmer Bros. is prohibited, including employment by or service on the board of a competitor. Employment by or service on the board of a customer or supplier or other service provider is generally discouraged and you must seek authorization in advance if you plan to take such action.

. Owning, directly or indirectly, a significant financial interest in any entity that does business, seeks to do business or competes with us. In addition to the factors described above, persons evaluating ownership for conflicts of interest will consider the size and nature of the investment; the nature of the relationship between the other entity and Farmer Bros.; the employee's access to confidential information and the employee's ability to influence Farmer Bros.' decisions. If you would like to acquire a financial interest of that kind, you must seek approval in advance.

. Soliciting or accepting gifts, favors, loans or preferential treatment from any person or entity that does business or seeks to do business with us.

. Soliciting contributions to any charity or for any political candidate from any person or entity that does business or seeks to do business with us.

. Taking personal advantage of corporate opportunities or confidential Company business information.

. Conducting our business transactions with your family member, significant other or person who shares your household or a business in which you have a significant financial interest. Material related-party transactions approved by the Audit Committee and involving any executive officer or director will be publicly disclosed as required by applicable laws and regulations.

. Exercising supervisory or other authority on behalf of Farmer Bros. over a coworker who is also a family member. The employee's supervisor and/or a compliance officer will consult with the human resources department to assess the advisability of reassignment.

. Loans to, or guarantees of obligations of, employees or their family members by Farmer Bros. could constitute an improper personal benefit to the recipients of those loans or guarantees, depending on the facts and circumstances. Some loans are expressly prohibited by law and others may require approval by the Board of Directors or one of its committees.

Inside Information

Farmer Bros. employees, officers and directors who have access to "inside information" that has not yet become publicly available about either Farmer Bros. or publicly traded companies with which Farmer Bros. has business dealings, may not profit financially by buying, selling or in any other way dealing in Farmer Bros. stock or the stock of another publicly traded company about which the person has obtained inside information.

In furtherance of this policy, Farmer Bros. employees, officers and directors may not benefit financially or in any other way by passing on inside information to any other person or entity. The use of inside information in order to gain personal benefit is illegal regardless of how small the user's profit from the transaction may be.

An easy way to determine whether information not yet publicly available is inside information is to ask whether the dissemination of the information would be likely to affect the market price of the stock of the company in question or whether it would be likely to be considered as important information by investors who are considering purchasing or selling that company's stock. If the information makes you want to buy or sell, it is likely to have the same effect on others.

If you possess inside information, you must refrain from trading the stock of the company concerned, from advising anyone else to do so or from communicating the inside information to anyone else until you know that it has been disseminated to the public. The mere appearance of an improper transaction should be avoided, without exception.

Company Trade Secrets

Proprietary information includes data developed or assembled on Company time or at Company expense, that is unique in the sense that the end result is not readily available generally without a like expenditure of time and money, even though the basic data is known or observable. Information in these categories is the property of Farmer Bros., and any misapplication or misappropriation of that property may prompt legal action by Farmer Bros.

No one should share proprietary information or trade secrets of Farmer Bros. with anyone outside Farmer Bros., or anyone within Farmer Bros. not authorized to receive that information. Nor should anyone solicit or accept from anyone outside Farmer Bros. any proprietary information or trade secrets of another company. Farmer Bros. has no interest either in receiving or using any proprietary information or trade secrets of other companies, because to do so would be unethical and improper.
