SST Acquisition/February 2010
SST Overview
Global leader in embedded Flash technology and licensing
Other businesses include Ø Serial/Parallel/Specialty Flash Memory
Ø 8051 Microcontrollers and NAND Controllers
Ø NAND Drives
Ø WiFi Power Amplifiers and Low Noise Amplifiers
Headquartered in Sunnyvale, CA
Ø 574 employees worldwide ~$180M cash and liquid trading securities on balance sheet
Ø No debt

SST Acquisition/February 2010
Compelling Strategic Rationale Proprietary SuperFlash® technology is a critical building block technology for advanced microcontrollers

Ø Licensed by most major foundries and microcontroller OEM's

Ø Secures critical embedded flash technology for our core microcontroller business

Ø Enables earlier access to advanced technologies Ø Enables ability to customize technology variants that give us an advantage over competing technologies Adds strong patent portfolio to Microchip IP portfolio

Ø >360 patents granted; >180 patents pending Adds 8051 microcontrollers and NAND controllers to our portfolio

4

SST Acquisition/February 2010
Financial Reporting Plan Licensing, 8051 microcontrollers and NAND controller will be consolidated into Microchip's financial reporting for continuing operations Ø Continue investing in Superflash technology, consistent with enabling our technology needs and growing the licensing business Plan to rationalize Serial/Parallel/Specialty Flash businesses consistent with:
Ø Supporting and growing the licensing business Ø Emulating Microchip's high margin serial EEPROM business model Ø Will be treated as an asset held for sale until rationalizing is completed
Plan to divest NAND Drive and WiFi Amplifier businesses

Ø Will be assets held for sale

Forward-Looking Statements

The foregoing slides contain statements regarding our plans for SST's technology and business units, expected Non-GAAP operatingx margins and the transaction being accretive on a Non-GAAP basis. Such statements are forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially, including, but not limited to: the actual timing of the closing of the SST acquisition, the satisfaction of the conditions to closing in the SST acquisition agreement, any termination of the SST acquisition agreement, changes in demand or market acceptance of SST's products and technology and the products and technology needs of its customers, changes in demand or market acceptance of our products and the products of our customers; competitive developments including changes in microcontroller technologies; the costs and outcome of any current or future tax audit or any litigation involving our or SST's intellectual property, customers or other issues; disruptions due to natural disasters, terrorist activity, armed conflict, war, worldwide oil prices and supply, public health concerns or disruptions in the transportation system; and general economic, industry or political conditions in the United States or internationally. For a detailed discussion of these and other risk factors, please refer to the filings of Microchip on Forms 10-K and 10-Q. You can obtain copies of Microchip's Forms 10-K and 10-Q and other relevant documents for free at Microchip's Web site (www.microchip.com) or the SEC's Web site (www.sec.gov) or from commercial document retrieval services.

Stockholders are cautioned not to place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date such statements are made.

Microchip undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements to reflect events, circumstances or new information after the February 3, 2010 date of these slides or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
