Telefonos de Mexico S.A. de C.V. informs that the Extraordinary General Shareholder's Meeting held on April 29, 2003 approved the following statutory clauses:

CLAUSE TWELVE. - The text of the third paragraph was modified and a fourth paragraph was added regarding the public offering that must be carried out, or in its case, previous to the cancellation of the subscription of the Company's shares in the Seccion de Valores del Registro Nacional de Valores, with the purpose of adjusting the bylaws according to the "General dispositions applicable to issuers of shares and other participants in the stock market", issued by the National Banking and Securities Commission (Comision Nacional Bancaria y de Valores) and published in the Official Gazette (Diario Oficial de la Federacion) on March 19, 2003 (hereinafter, "Circular Unica").

Another paragraph was added that established the applicable sanctions to the people or group of buyers who obtain or increase a significant participation in the Company, without, previously promoting an offer in accordance with the dispositions established in the "General applicable rules of shares, that must be revealed and of public offerings of the acquisition of shares, issued by the National Banking and Securities Commission (Comision Nacional Bancaria y de Valores) and published in the Official Gazette (Diario Oficial de la Federacion) on April 25, 2002.

A last paragraph was added to this clause with the purpose of including a prohibition to all of the Company's subsidiaries to invest in the Stockholders' equity of the Company, and any other Company that might be its subsidiary, with the purpose to comply with "Circular Unica".

CLAUSE THIRTEEN. - This clause was specifically added in respect to increases or decreases in variable capital, derived from the acquisition or placement the Company's own shares, an approval from the Stockholders' Meeting will not be needed and regarding variable capital decreases derived from the right to withdraw from the Stockholders, it will also not require the approval of the Stockholders' Meeting.

CLAUSE FOURTEEN. - The text of this clause was adjusted to comply with "Circular Unica" regarding the reimbursement in case that variable capital Stockholders' exercise the right to withdraw, that establishes what currently is expressed in "Circular Unica", in the sense that the reimbursement will be paid according to the lowest value of the two following cases: 95% (ninety five percent) of the market value obtained by the weighted average price by the volume of operations carried out in the last 30 days that the Company's shares might have been traded, previous to the date in which the withdrawal should be executed during a period that cannot be longer than 6 months; or the accounting value of the shares according to the balance sheet corresponding to the end of the previous exercise in which the separation shall be executed, with the previous approval of the General Ordinary Stockholders' Meeting.

CLAUSE THIRTYONE. - Its current last paragraph was transferred to a new clause of the bylaws, which will become Transitory Clause Thirty-one Bis. Such paragraph, in a general manner, refers to the implications derived from the lack of observance of the Board of Directors integration requirements established by the Corporation General Law (Ley del Mercado de Valores) and the obligation to present the Audit Committee's report to the Shareholders' Meeting.

CLAUSE THIRTYSIXTH. - It was established that in order to comply with "Circular Unica", that the Audit Committee will have the function to express an opinion about the Company's subsidiaries operations that are pretended to be carried out with related people or that imply to compromise its patrimony, and that the Board of Directors will have the authority to approve them. Also it was modified, in order to include the required dispositions by "Circular Unica", which establishes the measures to provide the necessary means of the operations that its subsidiaries pretend to celebrate with related people or those who compromise their patrimony in order to request an opinion from the Audit Committee and the approval of Board of Directors.

CLAUSES: EIGHT, EIGHTEEN, TWENTYSEVEN, THIRTYTHREE, THIRTYFOUR, THIRTYFIVE, THIRTYSEVEN AND THIRTYNINE.-Provide the integration and functions of the member of the Board of Directors
