Item 8.01. Other Events.

Certain Litigation Relating to the Merger.

On September 25, 2016, Chemtura Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Chemtura”), announced that it had entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Lanxess Deutschland GmbH, a limited liability company under the laws of Germany (“Lanxess”), and LANXESS Additives Inc., a Delaware corporation and an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Lanxess (“Merger Subsidiary”). The Merger Agreement provides, among other things, that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Chemtura, with Chemtura surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Lanxess (the “Merger”).

On December 27, 2016, a putative class action lawsuit captioned Paterson v. Chemtura Corporation, Inc. et al., Case No. 2:16-cv-06626-ER (the “Merger Litigation”) was filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania against Chemtura and the members of the Chemtura Board of Directors pursuant to Section 14(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”), and against the members of the Chemtura Board of Directors pursuant to Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act. The Merger Litigation relates to the Merger, the Merger Agreement and the definitive proxy statement filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on December 23, 2016 (the “Proxy Statement”) in connection with the Merger. The complaint in the Merger Litigation generally alleges that the Proxy Statement omitted certain material information regarding the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and also alleges that the merger consideration is unfair, certain terms of the Merger Agreement are unfair, and the individual defendants are financially interested in the Merger. The Merger Litigation seeks, among other remedies, to enjoin the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or in the event that an injunction is not awarded, rescission of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and unspecified money damages, costs and attorney’s fees.

Chemtura believes that the claims asserted in the Merger Litigation are without merit and intends to defend against the Merger Litigation vigorously. However, in order to alleviate the costs, risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation and provide additional information to its stockholders, Chemtura has determined to voluntarily supplement the Proxy Statement as described in this Current Report on Form 8-K. Nothing in this Current Report on Form 8-K shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable laws of any of the disclosures set forth herein. To the contrary, Chemtura specifically denies all allegations in the Merger Litigation that any additional disclosure was or is required.

These supplemental disclosures will not affect the merger consideration to be paid to stockholders of Chemtura in connection with the Merger or the timing of the special meeting of Chemtura stockholders scheduled for February 1, 2017 at 8:30 a.m. local time at the Pyramid Club, 1735 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103.

Supplemental Disclosures.

The following disclosures supplement the disclosures contained in the Proxy Statement and should be read in conjunction with the disclosures contained in the Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. To the extent that the information set forth herein differs from or updates information contained in the Proxy Statement, the information set forth herein shall supersede or supplement the information in the Proxy Statement. All page references are to pages in the Proxy Statement, and terms used below, unless otherwise defined, have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement.

The disclosure under the heading “Discounted Cash Flow Analysis” in the second full paragraph under such heading on page 66 of the Proxy Statement is hereby supplemented by amending and restating such paragraph in its entirety to read as follows:

Morgan Stanley performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Chemtura using information contained in the Risk Adjusted Long Range Forecast and Street Case, as appropriate, and public filings to calculate ranges of the implied value of Chemtura assuming the merger closes on December 31, 2016. Morgan Stanley defined unlevered free cash flows as Pension Adjusted EBITDA, less depreciation and amortization, less stock based compensation, less taxes (impact of net operating losses not included), plus depreciation and amortization, less capital expenditures, and less increases in net working capital (in each case based on the Risk Adjusted Long Range Forecast and Street Case, as appropriate, and guidance on balance sheet data provided by Chemtura’s management to Morgan Stanley). Morgan Stanley did not include the impact of Chemtura’s net operating losses in its discounted cash flow analysis due to uncertainty as to the extent to which such net operating losses could be utilized.

The disclosure under the heading “General” in the third full paragraph on page 68 of the Proxy Statement is hereby supplemented by amending and restating such paragraph in its entirety to read as follows:

As compensation for its services relating to its engagement, Chemtura has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley a fee of approximately $21 million in the aggregate, excluding reimbursable fees and expenses, approximately $4 million of which was payable upon announcement of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement while the remainder is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Chemtura has also agreed to reimburse Morgan Stanley for certain expenses incurred in performing its services. In addition, Chemtura has agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley and its affiliates, their respective directors, officers, agents and employees and each person, if any, controlling Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, related to or arising out of Morgan Stanley’s engagement. In the two years prior to the date of Morgan Stanley’s opinion, in addition to the current engagement, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have received aggregate fees of between $12 million and $13 million for financial advisory and financing services provided to Chemtura. Approximately $12.4 million of these fees were earned in connection with Morgan Stanley’s role in the sale of Chemtura AgroSolutions to Platform Specialty Products. In the two years prior to the date of Morgan Stanley’s opinion, Morgan Stanley and its affiliates have not received any fees for any financial advisory or financing assignments from Lanxess. In addition, Morgan Stanley or an affiliate thereof currently is a lender to Chemtura; holding a $10 million commitment as of September 26, 2016 under Chemtura’s $175 million five-year senior secured revolving credit facility (the “ABL Facility”) (although, as of such time, there were no borrowings and $12 million of outstanding letters of credit under the ABL Facility). Lanxess and Chemtura are considering alternatives associated with the treatment of the ABL Facility in connection with the Merger, including termination thereof and repayment and release in full or seeking the lenders’ consent for the facility to remain outstanding. No decision with respect to the ABL Facility has been reached. Morgan Stanley received $82,232 in financing fees from Chemtura between September 21, 2014, and September 21, 2016. Morgan Stanley will continue to receive its pro rata share of interest payments and commitment fees as a result of its revolving credit facility commitment for such time as the facility remains in effect. Morgan Stanley may also seek to provide financial advisory and/or financing services to Lanxess and/or its affiliates on unrelated matters, subject to the terms of Morgan Stanley’s engagement letter with Chemtura, in the future and expects to receive fees for the rendering of any such services.

The disclosure under the headings “Certain Information from the Pre-Risk Adjusted Long Range Forecast” and “Certain Information from the Risk Adjusted Long Range Forecast” is hereby supplemented by amending and restating such disclosure in its entirety on pages 72-74 of the Proxy Statement to read as follows:
