If you vote through the Internet, you should not return your proxy card.

If you are a shareholder whose shares are held in [street name] (i.e., in the name of a broker, bank or other record holder) you must either direct the record holder of your shares how to vote your shares or obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder to be able to vote at the Meeting.

Record Date, Quorum and Vote Required

The record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting is the close of business on March 24, 2004. The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of the Company's Common Shares ([Common Shares]) representing a majority of all votes entitled to be cast at the Meeting will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting. All valid proxies returned will be included in the determination of whether a quorum is present at the Meeting. As of the Record Date, 45,981,814 Common Shares were issued and outstanding. Each Common Share is entitled to one vote on each matter to be voted on at the Meeting. Shareholders have no cumulative voting rights.

Subject to the presence of a quorum, election of a Trustee nominated for election at the Meeting requires a plurality of all votes cast on the matter. Shares represented by Proxies marked For will be counted in favor of all nominees, except to the extent the Proxy withholds authority to vote for, or indicates a vote against, a specified nominee. Shares represented by Proxies marked Abstain or withholding authority to vote will not be counted in favor of any nominee. Because Trustees elected by shareholders are elected by a plurality vote, abstentions will not affect the election of the candidates receiving the most votes. IN THE ABSENCE OF SPECIFIC DIRECTION, SHARES REPRESENTED BY A PROXY WILL BE VOTED FOR THE ELECTION OF ALL NOMINEES.

Subject to the presence of a quorum, the affirmative vote a majority of all of the votes cast is required for approval of the shareholder proposal. For purposes of the vote on the shareholder proposal, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote. IN THE ABSENCE OF SPECIFIC DIRECTION, SHARES REPRESENTED BY A PROXY WILL BE VOTED AGAINST THE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL.

If any nominee is unable or unwilling to serve, the persons named in the proxy will use their best judgment in selecting and voting for a substitute candidate.

Each individual elected as a Trustee at the Meeting will serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF EACH OF THE NOMINEES AS TRUSTEES.

Back to ContentsMeetings of Trustees and Annual Meeting of Shareholders

The Board of Trustees held seven meetings in 2003. Each incumbent Trustee attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Trustees (except that Mr. D'Alessio attended five of the seven meetings) and at least 75% of the meetings held by all committees on which such Trustee served. In addition, the Board holds regular informational sessions with the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. During 2003, the Board held seven such sessions.

All of the Trustees attended the Company's annual meeting of shareholders in May 2003.

Compensation of Trustees

During 2003, the Company paid its Trustees who are not officers of the Company fees for their services as Trustees. These Trustees received an annual fee of $35,000; a fee of $1,000 for attendance at each meeting and informational session of the Board of Trustees; and $500 for participation in each meeting of a committee of the Board of Trustees. Non-employee Trustees may elect to receive up to all of their annual fee in Common Shares. Trustees who are employees of the Company receive no separate compensation for services as a Trustee or committee member, except that commencing in 2004, Mr. Nichols receives compensation for service on the Board in the same amount that the Company pays a non-employee Trustee for service on the Board. Non-employee Trustees may elect to defer all or a portion of their compensation pursuant to a deferred compensation plan. The Compensation Committee periodically evaluates the level and form of compensation for non-employee Trustees.

Corporate Governance

Consistent with its ongoing commitment to corporate governance, the Board, upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee, initiated or continued the following actions during 2003:

Corporate Governance Principles: Amended the Board's Corporate Governance Principles, a copy of which is available on the Company's website (www.brandywinerealty.com). The Corporate Governance Principles reflect the Board's commitment to shareholder interests and address a variety of matters, such as: (i) Board and Board committee responsibilities; (ii) size, composition and operations of the Board and Board committees; (iii) Trustee independence; (iv) qualifications for election to the Board; (v) evaluation of Trustees; and (vi) share ownership requirements for Company executives. The Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for overseeing and reviewing these principles and reporting and recommending to the Board any changes to the Corporate Governance Principles.

Trustee Independence: Confirmed the independence of each of the non-employee Trustees. In undertaking its annual review of Trustee independence, the Board considered transactions and relationships during the current and prior year between each Trustee and the Company and its affiliates, including those reported under "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" below. As a result of its review, the Board affirmatively determined that all non-employee Trustees are independent of the Company and its management under the standards set forth in the Corporate Governance Principles and that the Audit Committee, Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee are comprised exclusively of independent Trustees.

Lead Independent Trustee: Appointed Mr. D'Alessio, Chairman of the Board, as the lead independent Trustee, with responsibility to preside at executive sessions of non-management Trustees.

Share Ownership Requirements: Maintained minimum share ownership requirements for Company executives. Officers are required to own, within five years of their election as an officer but no earlier than May 2007, Common Shares having a market value at least equal to the following multiples of their base salary: (i) six times for the President and Chief Executive Officer; (ii) four times for Senior Vice Presidents; and (iii) three times for Vice Presidents and other officers.

Code of Conduct: Maintained a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, a copy of which is available on the Company's website (www.brandywinerealty.com), applicable to Company executives, employees and Trustees.

Back to Contents

The Code of Business Conduct and Ethics reflects and reinforces the Company's commitment to integrity in the conduct of its business. Any waiver of the Code for executive officers or Trustees may only be made by the Board or by the Audit Committee (which is composed solely of independent Trustees) and will be disclosed promptly as required by law or stock exchange regulation.

Website Disclosures: Directed the continued posting on the Company's website(www.brandywinerealty.com) of the charters of each of the Audit, Corporate Governance, Compensation and Executive Committees, the Corporate Governance Principles and the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. A copy of each of these documents may also be obtained upon request from the Secretary, Brandywine Realty Trust, 401 Plymouth Road, Suite 500, Plymouth Meeting, PA 19462.

In furtherance of its commitment to full and transparent disclosure of the Company's financial position and operating results, management maintains a disclosure committee. Depending on the subject matter, management will:

- attempt to handle the inquiry directly (for example, where the communication is a request for information about the Company or its operations that does not appear to require direct attention by the Board or an individual Trustee); or
- not forward the communication if it is primarily commercial in nature or relates to an improper or irrelevant topic.

At each meeting of the Board, the Chairman of the Board will present a summary of all communications (if any) received since the last meeting of the Board that were not forwarded and will make those communications available to any Trustee upon request.

The portion of the Common Shares (or the Common Share equivalents) received as a result of the discounted purchase price is subject to transfer restrictions until December 31, 2005. Bonus amounts for 2002 and 2001 were approved and paid in a manner comparable to the manner described above for 2003 bonus amounts.

- (4) Represents the difference between the price paid for the Common Shares and the market price of such shares on the date of acquisition.
- (5) The holder of restricted shares is entitled to vote the shares and to receive distributions on the shares. Restricted shares awarded in 2002 vest in five equal annual installments, with the first installment having vested on January 1, 2003. All restricted shares vest upon a change of control of the Company. The total number of unvested restricted Common Shares held by each Named Executive Officer at December 31, 2003 and the value of such unvested restricted Common Shares at December 31, 2003 are shown in the following table:

During 2001, one-third of the principal amount of the loan, together with accrued interest thereon, was forgiven, based on the Company's total shareholder return compared to the total shareholder return of the peer group companies. The replacement employment agreement that Mr. Nichols entered into with the Company, effective December 31, 2001, provided for the forgiveness of the outstanding balance of the loan as of December 31, 2001 ($666,667), together with accrued interest, in equal amounts on April 1, 2002 and April 1, 2003 so long as Mr. Nichols was not in breach of the replacement agreement as of the applicable forgiveness date. return of a peer group of companies. During each of 2001, 2002 and 2003, one-third of the principal amount of the loan, together with accrued interest thereon, was forgiven in accordance with the terms of the loan. Accordingly, the loan is no longer outstanding.

Employment Agreements

Mr. Sweeney has entered into an employment agreement with the Company. In May 2002, the Board approved a revision of the agreement which extended the term of the employment agreement through May 7, 2005. The revised employment agreement provides that if the term of Mr. Sweeney's employment is not extended upon expiration, the Company will be obligated to provide him with a severance benefit during the one-year period following expiration of the term equal to the sum of his prior year salary and bonus as well as health care benefits. The revised employment agreement does not alter the severance benefits to which Mr. Sweeney would be entitled if his employment is terminated by the Company prior to expiration of the term. Mr. Sweeney's agreement provides for an annual base salary of $325,000. The agreement entitles Mr. Sweeney to a payment equal to three times the sum of his annual salary and bonus: (i) upon termination of his employment without cause, (ii) upon his resignation [for good reason] or (iii) upon his death. Resignation by Mr. Sweeney within six months following a reduction in his salary, an adverse change in his status or responsibilities, certain changes in the location of the Company's headquarters or a change in control of the Company would each constitute a resignation [for good reason].

Effective as of December 31, 2001, the then-existing employment agreement of Mr. Nichols, Sr. was terminated and replaced with a new agreement. The replacement agreement requires Mr. Nichols to provide advice on strategic planning, business development initiatives and special research projects. The replacement agreement initially had a term that extended through December 31, 2004 and provided for an annual salary equal to $360,996 plus $15,000 per year for financial planning services. In March 2004, the Board authorized an amendment to the replacement agreement. In the amendment, the Company agreed: (i) to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause Mr. Nichols to be nominated for election to the Board at each annual meeting of shareholders held prior to December 31, 2006; (ii) to pay Mr. Nichols compensation for service on the Board in the same amount that the Company pays a non-employee Trustee for service on the Board; (iii) to pay Mr. Nichols $15,000 per year for financial planning services and $20,000 per year for community participation services, in each case through December 31, 2006; and (iv) to continue to provide Mr. Nichols with health care and life insurance benefits through December 31, 2010. The amendment does not extend the Company's agreement to pay Mr. Nichols a $360,996 annual salary beyond December 31, 2004.

Severance Agreements

The Company has entered into severance agreements with Messrs. Marr, Rimikis and Molotsky. The agreement with Mr. Marr provides that if his employment is terminated (or constructively terminated) within one year following the effective date of a change of control of the Company, he will be entitled to an amount equal to two times (or two and one-half times if the termination occurs before August 15, 2004) the sum of his salary and annual bonus (excluding the portion of any bonus in the form of a long-term incentive award). The agreements with Messrs. Rimikis and Molotsky provide that if such executive's employment is terminated (or constructively terminated) within one year following the effective date of a change of control of the Company, such executive will be entitled to salary continuation for a period of one and a half years, from the effective date of such executive's termination. The Company has entered into similar agreements with nine other officers of the Company.

401(k) Plan

The Company maintains a Section 401(k) and Profit Sharing Plan (the "401(k) Plan") covering eligible employees. The 401(k) Plan permits eligible employees to defer up to a designated percentage of their annual compensation, subject to certain limitations imposed by the Internal Revenue Code. The employees' elective deferrals are immediately vested and non-forfeitable upon contribution to the 401(k) Plan. The Company reserves the right to make matching contributions or discretionary profit sharing contributions. The 401(k) Plan is designed to qualify under Section 401 of the Code so that contributions by employees or the Company to the 401(k) Plan and income earned on plan contributions are not taxable to employees until such amounts are withdrawn from the 401(k) Plan, and so that contributions by the Company, if any, will be deductible by the Company when made.

Deferred Compensation Plan

The Company's Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (the "EDCP") provides senior Company executives with the opportunity to defer a portion of their base salary and bonus on a tax-deferred basis. The Company reserves the right to make matching contributions on deferred amounts and to make a discretionary profit sharing contribution on compensation in excess of $200,000. Participants elect the timing and form of distribution. Distributions are in the form of a lump sum or installments and can commence in-service, after a required minimum deferral period, or upon retirement. Participants elect the manner in which their accounts are deemed invested during the deferral period. One of the deemed investment options is a hypothetical investment fund consisting of Common Shares. Because the EDCP is a [nonqualified] deferred compensation plan, the Company is not obligated to invest deferred amounts in the selected manner or to set aside any deferred amounts in trust. In general, compensation subject to a deferral election, matching contributions and profit sharing contributions are not includible in a participant's taxable income for federal income tax purposes until the participant receives a distribution from the EDCP. The Company is not entitled to a deduction until such amounts are distributed.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees is currently comprised of Charles P. Pizzi, Walter D'Alessio and D. Pike Aloian, none of whom is an executive of the Company.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Redemption and Purchase from Five Arrows. On December 30, 2003, the Company redeemed 3,281,250 of the Company's then outstanding Series B Preferred Shares for $92,531,250 (which amount included accrued but unpaid dividends from October 1, 2003 to the redemption date) and purchased warrants exercisable for 250,000 Common Shares for $1,187,500. The remaining 1,093,750 Series B Preferred Shares were converted at such time into 1,093,750 Common Shares. The Series B Preferred Shares and warrants were owned by Five Arrows. Mr. Aloian is an executive of Rothschild Realty Inc., which provides advisory services to Five Arrows. Upon completion of these transactions, Five Arrows' right to elect a Trustee to the Board terminated.

Redemption and Purchase from Commonwealth Atlantic Operating Properties Inc. In February 2004, the Company's operating partnership redeemed 1,950,000 Series B Preferred Units (the "Series B Preferred Units") in the operating partnership for an aggregate price of $93.0 million, together with accrued but unpaid distributions from January 1, 2004. The Series B Preferred Units were issued in 1998 as part of the Company's acquisition of a portfolio of properties from LFSRI and its affiliates. In this 1998 transaction, LFSRI obtained a contractual right to designate a nominee to serve on the Board and Mr. Larson served as such designee. LFSRI's Board designation right terminated by virtue of the redemption of Series B Preferred Units. Mr. Larson is a director of Commonwealth Atlantic Operating Properties, Inc., the LFSRI affiliate that owned the Series B Preferred Units.

Employee Share Purchase Loans. In 1998, the Board authorized the Company to make loans totaling $5.0 million to enable employees of the Company to purchase Common Shares. In 2001, the Board increased the loan authorization by $2.0 million. The outstanding principal balances of the loans to executives officers that participated in the loan program at December 31, 2003 are as follows: Mr. Sweeney ($693,222), Mr. DeVuono ($49,993), Mr. Rimikis ($147,466), Ms. Yamarick ($100,005) and Mr. Molotsky ($346,141). Proceeds of the loans were used solely to fund the purchase of Common Shares. The loans have five-year terms, are full recourse and are secured by the Common Shares purchased. Interest accrues on the loans at the lower of the interest rate borne on borrowings under the Company's revolving credit facility or a rate based on the dividend payments on the Common Shares and is payable quarterly. For the quarter ended December 31, 2003, this rate was 2.62% per annum. The principal of the loans is payable at the earlier of the stated maturity date and 90 days following termination of the applicable employee's employment with the Company.

Advisory Services. The Company engages various consulting and investment banking firms in the course of its business to provide it with advice and assistance on capital raising, mortgage financings, acquisitions, dispositions and joint ventures. Until September 30, 2003, Mr. D'Alessio was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Legg Mason Real Estate Services, Inc., a subsidiary of Legg Mason Inc. For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company paid Legg Mason Real Estate Services, Inc. less than $500. In addition, Legg Mason Wood Walker, Incorporated, also a subsidiary of Legg Mason Inc., served as an underwriter of an offering by the Company of Common Shares in October 2003. Mr. Larson is a Managing Director of Lazard Freres & Co. LLC. For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company paid Lazard Frères & Co. LLC $909,000 for investment banking services.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

Compensation Philosophy. The Compensation Committee's compensation policies with respect to the Company's executive officers are based on the principles that compensation should, to a significant extent, be reflective of the financial performance of the Company, and that a significant portion of executive officers' compensation should provide long-term incentives. The Compensation Committee seeks to set executive compensation at levels that are sufficiently competitive so that the Company may attract, retain and motivate high quality executives to contribute to the Company's financial success. In establishing overall compensation for executive officers, the Committee considers the Company's financial performance and industry position, compensation levels and practices at peer companies, general industry data and the recommendations of third-party consultants. The President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company establishes the base salaries for executives of the Company, other than for himself, and recommends to the Compensation Committee annual bonuses and long-term incentive awards for other Company executives. The Committee exercises judgment and discretion in the information it analyzes and considers.

The Company's compensation program for executives consists of three principal components:

- a base salary;
- a performance-based annual bonus, payable in cash and Common Share equivalents under the deferred compensation plan; and
- periodic grants of equity-based compensation, such as restricted shares.

Back to Contents

The Compensation Committee believes that this approach links a significant portion of executive compensation to personal performance and to Company performance. In addition, equity-based compensation such as restricted share awards link a significant portion of long-term compensation to share price appreciation realized by all of the Company's shareholders.

Annual and Short-Term Compensation. The Compensation Committee adopted guidelines for determining 2003 year-end bonuses for the President and Chief Executive Officer and other senior executives of the Company. The guidelines established target bonus amounts. The target amounts are expressed as a percentage of an executive's base salary. The 2003 targeted bonus amounts were 125% of base salary, in the case of the President and Chief Executive Officer, and generally 50% to 75% of base salary in the case of other Company executives. The guidelines provided that the 2003 bonus amounts would be based on a combination of Company performance measures and, in the case of selected executives, divisional performance measures. For the President and Chief Executive Officer, these measures, and their unadjusted weightings, were: (i) the Company's total shareholder return relative to a peer group of companies (20%); (ii) growth in the Company's per share funds from operations relative to a targeted level (30%); and (iii) achievement of other objectives (50%). Under the guidelines, for 2003, the Company's total shareholder return achievement was approximately 106.74% of target; the Company's growth in funds from operations relative to target was approximately 101.50%; and the Company met its other objectives. Application of these achievements to the unadjusted weightings for the three measures resulted in a bonus entitlement for the President and Chief Executive Officer equal to 101.8% of his maximum bonus entitlement (125% of base salary). In recognition of Mr. Sweeney's contributions to the Company, the Board authorized a total bonus to Mr. Sweeney of $750,000.

The guidelines provided that a minimum of 25% of the year-end bonus for each executive must be taken in Common Shares (or Common Share equivalents under the Company's deferred compensation plan). Additionally, executives have the ability to take all or a portion of the balance of the year-end bonus in Common Shares (or Common Share equivalents under the Company's deferred compensation plan) at a 15% discount to the market price of the Common Shares, with the additional shares acquired by virtue of the discount subject to vesting over a two-year period.

Long-Term Compensation. In 2003, and consistent with its approach in 2002, the Compensation Committee requested a third party consultant to prepare for the Committee a report evaluating the annual and long-term incentive program for the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer and other senior executives. The Committee requested the report so that it could assess whether compensation of the Company's senior executives was at a level commensurate with their peers and structured to align their interests with the interests of shareholders generally. In each of February 2003 and March 2004, the Committee authorized the award of restricted Common Shares to Company executives, with such shares subject to vesting in five equal annual installments, commencing January 1, 2005. Amounts awarded to the Named Executive Officers in February 2003

IRS Limits on Deductibility of Compensation. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the Company's tax deduction each year for compensation to each of the President and Chief Executive Officer and the four other highest paid executive officers to $1 million. Section 162(m), however, allows a deduction without regard to amount for payments of performance based compensation which includes most share option and other incentive arrangements, the material terms of which have been approved by shareholders. Awards issued under the Company's Amended and Restated 1997 Long-Term Incentive Plan satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m) if the awards qualify as [performance-based compensation.] Options under this plan that have an exercise price equal to grant date fair market value and that vest based solely on continued employment qualify as performance-based compensation. However, options exercisable for a total of 1,697,447 Common Shares awarded to Messrs. Nichols, Sr. and Sweeney do not qualify as performance-based compensation because the options were awarded subject to shareholder approval. Similarly, the [restricted] Common Shares awarded to the Named Executive Officers in 2003 and 2002 do not qualify as performance-based compensation because the restrictions applicable to the shares lapse based solely on continued employment. The Company believes that because it qualifies as a REIT under the Code and is not subject to Federal income taxes, the payment of compensation that does not satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m) would not have a material adverse financial consequence to the Company provided it distributes 100% of its taxable income.

Back to ContentsREPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Trustees. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. The Company's independent public accountants are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the Company's audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee has reviewed the Company's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003, and discussed them with management and the independent public accountants, including the following aspects of the financial statements: (i) the quality, not just the acceptability, of their accounting principles; (ii) the reasonableness of the significant judgments reflected in the financial statements; and (iii) the clarity of their disclosures. The Audit Committee has discussed with the Company's independent public accountants the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended. The Audit Committee has also received the written disclosures and the letters from the Company's independent public accountants required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent public accountants the independent public accountants' independence from the Company and its management. In addition, the Audit Committee has considered whether the independent public accountants' provision of non-audit services to the Company is compatible with maintaining the independent public accountants' independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Trustees that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee's recommendation was approved by the Board of Trustees.

This report is made by the undersigned members of the Audit Committee.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSAL REGARDING SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

The Company received a shareholder proposal from Service Employees International Union AFL-CIO, CLC (SEIU), 1313 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20005. SEIU has requested that the Company include the following proposal and supporting statement in its proxy statement for the Meeting, and if properly presented at the Meeting, this proposal will be voted on at the Meeting. SEIU advised the Company by letter dated January 21, 2004 that SEIU beneficially owns 170 Common Shares. The SEIU shareholder proposal is quoted verbatim below.

The Board of Trustees of the Company disagrees with the adoption of the resolution proposed below and asks shareholders to read through the Board of Trustees' response, which follows the shareholder proposal.

The Board of Trustees unanimously recommends that you vote AGAINST this shareholder proposal.

Shareholder Proposal

RESOLVED: That the shareholders of Brandywine Realty Trust (Brandywine or the Company) urge the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees to establish a policy to seek shareholder approval for future severance agreements with senior executives that provide benefits in an amount exceeding 2.99 times the sum of the executive's base salary plus bonus. Future severance agreements include employment agreements containing severance provisions; change of control agreements; retirement agreements; and agreements renewing, modifying or extending existing such agreements. Benefits include lump-sum cash payments and the estimated present value of periodic retirement payments, fringe benefits, perquisites, and consulting fees to be paid to the executive.

Supporting Statement

According to its most recent proxy statement, Brandywine's employment agreement with President and CEO Gerard Sweeney entitles him to a payment equal to three (3) times the sum of his annual salary and bonus if he is terminated without cause or if he resigns for good reason. Brandywine's Restricted Share Award Agreement with Mr. Sweeney dated as of February 27, 2003 also provides that his unvested restricted stock will vest upon a change of control of the Company or termination of Mr. Sweeney's employment without cause.

We realize that arrangements providing benefits in excess of 2.99 times a senior executive's base salary plus bonus may be in the best interests of Brandywine under some circumstances. However, we believe that requiring shareholder approval of such agreement may have the beneficial effect of insulating the board from manipulation in the event a senior executive's employment must be terminated.

Because it is not always practical to obtain prior shareholder approval, the Company would have the option, if it implemented this proposal, of seeking approval after the material terms of the agreement were agreed upon.

Institutional investors such as the California Public Employees Retirement System recommend shareholder approval of these types of agreements in their proxy voting guidelines. The Council of Institutional Investors favors shareholder approval if the amount payable exceeds 20% of the senior executive's annual base salary.

For these reasons we urge shareholders to vote FOR this proposal.

Board of Trustees' Statement in Opposition to Shareholder Proposal

The Company opposes this shareholder proposal for the following reasons. The Board of Trustees, through its Compensation Committee, which is composed entirely of independent Trustees, sets executive compensation in a manner that it believes to be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. The Company's executive compensation programs are designed to attract and retain highly qualified executives and to motivate executives to maximize shareholder returns.

Back to Contents

The Board of Trustees needs flexibility in its design of compensation packages, including severance arrangements, to compete for executive talent, to meet the needs of prospective executives and to respond to the dynamics of negotiation during recruitment. Furthermore, the Board of Trustees should retain authority to balance the various objectives of the Company's executive compensation programs to respond to specific circumstances. The Board also believes that it is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders to avoid placing arbitrary ceilings or restrictions on the kind and amount of severance payments that the Company may offer or requiring shareholder approval of the terms of each severance agreement.

Requiring prior shareholder approval of senior executive employment packages that include a severance agreement would make it difficult to attract new senior executives and to provide competitive employment packages in a timely manner. Obtaining shareholder approval after the material terms are agreed upon, as suggested by SEIU, is simply impractical. For instance, the premature public disclosure of confidential employment negotiations could negatively impact the Company's executive recruiting because an executive who is confidentially looking for a new job would be highly unlikely to engage in serious employment discussions with the Company under circumstances in which shareholder approval of a proposed severance agreement would be required before such an agreement would become effective. Furthermore, the need to seek shareholder approval of a proposed severance arrangement at either an annual or special meeting of the shareholders of the Company would result in additional expense for the Company. Finally, we believe that our Board of Trustees has acted, and will continue to act, in the best interest of the shareholders in determining severance agreements and other compensation agreements for its executives.

For the reasons described above, the Board of Trustees unanimously recommends that you vote AGAINST this proposal.

OTHER INFORMATION

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers, Trustees and persons who own more than 10% of the Common Shares to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, Trustees and greater than 10% shareholders are required by regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. Based solely on review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company, or written representations that no Annual Statements of Beneficial Ownership of Securities on Form 5 were required to be filed, the Company believes that during the year ended December 31, 2003, its officers, Trustees and greater than 10% shareholders complied with all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements.

Independent Public Accountants

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PWC) audited the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. The Audit Committee has appointed PWC to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004. Representatives of PWC will be present at the Meeting to make any statement they may desire and to respond to questions from shareholders.

On May 23, 2002, the Company dismissed Arthur Andersen LLP (Arthur Andersen) as its independent public accountants and appointed KPMG LLP (KPMG) as its independent public accountants. The decision to dismiss Arthur Andersen and to retain KPMG was approved by the Audit Committee.

Arthur Andersen's reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the subsequent interim period through May 30, 2002, there were no disagreements between the Company and Arthur Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to Arthur Andersen's satisfaction, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with their reports.

None of the reportable events described under Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K occurred within the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and the subsequent interim period through May 30, 2002.

A copy of Arthur Andersen's letter dated May 30, 2002 with respect to certain of the above statements is attached as Exhibit 16 to the Company's Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 30, 2002.

During the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, and the subsequent interim period through May 30, 2002, neither the Company nor anyone acting on behalf of the Company consulted with KPMG regarding any of the matters or events set forth in Item 304(a)(2) of Regulation S-K.

On June 19, 2003, the Company informed KPMG that they would be dismissed effective as of June 19, 2003.

The audit report of KPMG on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that effective January 1, 2002, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets. During its audit for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, and for the subsequent interim period through June 25, 2003, (i) there were no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to KPMG's satisfaction, would have caused KPMG to make reference to the subject matter of such disagreements in their reports, and (ii) there have been no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

Back to Contents

The Audit Committee authorized the dismissal of KPMG and appointment of PWC. The Company retained PWC as its independent accountants effective June 19, 2003.

During the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, and for the subsequent interim period through June 25, 2003, neither the Company nor anyone acting on behalf of the Company engaged PWC regarding any of the items described in Item 304(a)(2) of Regulation S-K.

A copy of KPMG's letter dated June 25, 2003 with respect to certain of the above statements is attached as Exhibit 16.1 to the Company's Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 25, 2003.

Fees to Independent Public Accountants

Audit Fees. Fees to PWC for audit services totaled approximately $413,000 in 2003, including fees associated with the annual audit, review of the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and procedures relating to Company securities offerings. The Company did not pay PWC fees for audit services in 2002. Fees to KPMG for audit services totaled approximately $320,000 in 2003 and approximately $692,000 in 2002, including fees associated with the annual audit for 2002, review of the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and procedures relating to Company securities offerings.

Audit-Related Fees. The Company did not pay either PWC or KPMG fees for audit-related services in 2003 or 2002.

Tax Fees. The Company did not pay PWC fees for tax services in 2003 or 2002. Fees to KPMG for tax services, including tax advice and tax planning, totaled approximately $267,000 in 2003 and $106,000 in 2002. Fees to KPMG for tax compliance services totaled approximately $162,000 in 2003 and $201,000 in 2002.

All Other Fees. The Company did not pay other fees to PWC or KPMG for services provided to the Company in 2003 or 2002.

We have been advised by each of PWC and KPMG that neither the firm, nor any member of the firm, has any financial interest, direct or indirect, in any capacity in the Company or its subsidiaries.

All audit related services, tax services and other services were pre-approved by the Audit Committee, which concluded that the provision of such services by PWC or KPMG, respectively, was compatible with the maintenance of that firm's independence in the conduct of its auditing functions. The charter of the Audit Committee provides for pre-approval of audit, audit-related, tax services and other services on an annual basis, including a review of the independent auditor's audit procedures and risk assessment process in establishing the scope of the services, proposed fees and reports to be rendered.

Other Business

The Company knows of no business which will be presented at the Meeting other than as set forth in this Proxy Statement. However, if other matters should properly come before the Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

Expenses of Solicitation

The expense of solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Trustees, including printing and postage, will be paid by the Company. Request will be made of brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward the solicitation material, at the expense of the Company, to the beneficial owners of Common Shares held of record by such persons. In addition to being solicited through the mails, proxies may also be solicited personally or by telephone by Trustees and officers of the Company. In addition, the Company has employed D. F. King & Co., Inc. to solicit proxies for the Meeting. The Company has agreed to pay $4,500 plus out-of-pocket expenses of D. F. King & Co., Inc., for these services.

Shareholders are entitled to present proposals for action at a forthcoming meeting if they comply with the requirements of the proxy rules promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. If a shareholder intends to timely submit a proposal at the 2005 Annual Meeting, which is not required to be included by the Company in the proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting, the shareholder must provide the Company with notice of the proposal no later than February 3, 2005. If such shareholder fails to do so, or if such shareholder fails to give timely notice of his intention to solicit proxies, the proxy holders will be allowed to use their discretionary voting authority when the proposal is raised at the 2005 Annual Meeting.

Each Committee member shall be financially literate. The term "financial literacy" shall mean familiarity with the Company's financial statements, including its balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement, and general knowledge of key business and financial risks and related controls or control processes. At least one member of the Committee shall have accounting or related financial management expertise, which shall mean a background in finance, accounting or auditing, acquired through past employment experience, professional training, or other comparable experience. Additionally, a trustee may not serve simultaneously on the audit committees of more than three (3) public companies.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed for a one year term by the Board annually upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance Committee of the Board. Should any member of the Committee cease to be independent, such member shall immediately resign his or her membership on the Committee.

Compensation of Committee Members

Relationship with Independent Auditor

The Committee shall have sole authority to select and replace the Company's independent auditor, and to approve all audit and non-audit services (to the extent non-audit services are allowed by law) with the independent auditor, as well as all engagement fees and terms with respect thereto. The Committee may consult with Company management regarding the foregoing, but the Committee's sole authority with respect thereto shall not be delegated. Meetings

The Committee shall meet at such times and from time to time as it deems to be appropriate, but not less frequently than quarterly. The Committee shall report to the Board at the first board meeting following each such Committee meeting. A majority of the members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Approval by a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute approval by the Committee. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent without a meeting.

The Company's independent auditor and internal auditor, if any, shall attend at least two of the Committee's meetings each year. The Committee may request members of management or others (including the Company's investment bankers or financial analysts who follow the Company) to attend meetings and to provide pertinent information as necessary. The Committee shall meet with Company management (including the chief financial officer), the internal auditors (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function) and with the Company's independent auditors in separate private sessions periodically but not less than two times per year.

Duties and Responsibilities

The duties of the Committee shall include the following:

At least annually, obtain and review a report by the Company's independent auditor describing: (1) the firm's internal quality-control procedures; (2) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm; (3) any steps taken to deal with such issues; and (4) (to assess the auditor's independence) all relationships between the auditor and the Company. Based in part on its review of this report, the Committee shall evaluate the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditor, and such evaluation shall include a specific review of the lead partner of the independent auditor. In making its evaluation, the Committee may take into account the opinions of Company management and the Company's internal auditor (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function). The Committee shall present its conclusions with regard to the independent auditor to the full Board.

Review and discuss with the independent auditor the proposed scope of services of the independent auditor for each fiscal year, including a review of the independent auditor's audit procedures and risk assessment process in establishing the scope of the services, proposed fees, and the reports to be rendered.

Review and discuss all reports required by law or regulation to be provided to the Committee by the independent auditor and Company management, including a report from the independent auditor of (1) all critical accounting policies and practices used by the Company; (2) all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed by the independent auditor with Company management, ramifications of the use of such alternative treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditors; and (3) other material written communications between the independent auditors and Company management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences.

Review and discuss with Company management and the independent auditor such accounting policies (and changes therein) of the Company, including any financial reporting issues which could have a material impact on the Company's financial statements (including but not limited to the use of alternative GAAP methods and off-balance sheet structures), as are deemed appropriate for review by the Committee prior to any interim or year-end filings with the SEC or other regulators.

Review and discuss with Company management the effect of accounting and regulatory initiatives on the financial statements of the Company.

Review and discuss with Company management and the independent auditor the Company's annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements, including the Company's disclosures under Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations, and recommend to the Board whether the audited financial statements shall be included in the Company's Form 10 K.
