Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 18, 2009, EnPro Industries, Inc. (the Company) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Coltec Industries Inc, entered into a Purchase Agreement dated as of December 18, 2009 (the Purchase Agreement) with Fulcrum Acquisition LLC and Atlas Copco (China) Investment Company Ltd. (collectively, the Buyers), subsidiaries of Atlas Copco AB, to effect the sale of the Company s Quincy business unit to the Buyers. The Purchase Agreement provides for the sale of the assets of the Quincy business unit, together with 100% of the equity interests in Kunshan Q-Tech Air Systems Technologies Ltd., the Company s Quincy operation in China, for an aggregate base purchase price of $190 million and the assumption of certain liabilities of the Quincy business unit. The purchase price is subject to adjustment based on the closing date amount of specified assets transferred and liabilities assumed.

Consummation of the sale of the Quincy business unit pursuant to the Purchase Agreement is conditioned upon, among other things, applicable regulatory approvals, including the expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act, and the absence of an event occurring after December 18, 2009 having a material adverse effect, as defined in the Purchase Agreement, on the Quincy business unit.

The foregoing brief description of the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference herein. In reviewing the Purchase Agreement, please remember it is included to provide you with information regarding its terms and is not intended to provide any other factual or disclosure information about the parties thereto. The Purchase Agreement contains representations and warranties, which have been made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement and should not in all instances be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating the risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate. Moreover, the representations and warranties as stated in the Purchase Agreement do not reflect exceptions thereto as may be set forth in separate disclosure schedules exchanged by the parties in connection with the entry into the Purchase Agreement. The representations and warranties were made only as of the date of the Purchase Agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in the Purchase Agreement and are subject to more recent developments. Accordingly, the representations and warranties as set forth in the Purchase Agreement alone may not describe the actual state of affairs as of the date they were made or at any other time.
