Baidu Announces Management Changes

BEIJING, January 8, 2010 Baidu, Inc. (Nasdaq: BIDU), the leading Chinese language Internet search provider, today announced several changes in senior management.

Mr. Haoyu Shen, vice president of business operations, has been promoted to senior vice president.

Mr. Zhan Wang, senior director of business products, has been promoted to vice president.

Baidu also announced the resignation of Chief Operating Officer Dr. Peng Ye. Dr. Ye's resignation is due to personal reasons and is effective as of the date of this announcement.

Haoyu Shen joined Baidu in 2007 and has led the planning and execution of the company's search engine marketing platform and associated business alliances. Zhan Wang joined Baidu in 2000 and has been a key driver of the company's commercial product developments.

Haoyu and Zhan have proven track records in driving our business success and I am excited to see them make further contributions in their expanded roles, said Robin Li, Baidu's chairman and chief executive officer.

We thank Peng for his contributions to the company over the last two years and wish him all the best in his future endeavors, Mr. Li added.
