PROXY STATEMENT FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON AUGUST 4, 2006

The proxy accompanying this Proxy Statement is solicited by the Board of Directors of PICO Holdings, Inc., a California corporation (the Company), to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company (the Annual Meeting) to be held at the Museum of Contemporary Art, Coast Room, 700 Prospect Street, La Jolla, California at 9:00 a.m. (PDT) on Friday, August 4, 2006 and at any adjournment thereof. The proxy may be revoked by appropriate written notice at any time before it is exercised or by voting in person at the meeting.

At the Annual meeting, the following matters will be considered:

1. To elect two directors, for which positions the Board of Directors has nominated S. Walter Foulkrod, III, Esq. and Richard D. Ruppert, MD to serve for three years until the annual meeting of shareholders in the year 2009 and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified.

2. To transact such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting and any adjournment thereof.
The Board of Directors recommends that stockholders vote FOR the election as director of the nominees named herein.

The Company's principal executive office is located at 875 Prospect Street, Suite 301, La Jolla, California 92037, and its telephone number is (858) 456-6022.

General Information

A copy of the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders for 2005 accompanies this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report and these proxy solicitation materials are being mailed on or about June 19, 2006 to all shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting. In most cases, only one annual report and proxy statement is being delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless the Company has received a written or oral request for a separate copy of the annual report and proxy statement. A separate copy of the annual report and proxy statement can be requested by calling the Company at (858) 456-6022 or by sending a written request to the Company at 875 Prospect Street, Suite 301, La Jolla, California 92037. Stockholders sharing an address who are receiving multiple copies of the annual report and proxy statement may request delivery of a single copy of the annual report and proxy statement by either calling the Company at the number listed above or by sending a written request to the Company at the address listed above.

As of June 6, 2006, the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, 15,871,440 shares of Common Stock of the Company were issued and outstanding, excluding 3,228,300 treasury shares held by the Company's subsidiaries. Only shareholders of record as of the close of business on June 6, 2006 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment thereof. Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder to one vote on all matters brought before the Annual Meeting, except for the shares held by the Company and subsidiaries of the Company which may not be voted. Our Bylaws provide that the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

In voting for the election of directors, shareholders have cumulative voting rights. Accordingly, each shareholder may cumulate such voting power as such shareholder possesses and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held by the shareholder, or distribute such shareholder's votes on the same principle among two or more candidates, as such shareholder sees fit. However, no shareholder is entitled to cumulate votes (in other words, cast for any candidate a number of votes greater than the number of shares of stock held by such shareholder) unless at least one shareholder has given notice, at the Annual Meeting prior to the voting, of the shareholder's intention to cumulate votes. If any shareholder has given such notice, all shareholders may cumulate their votes for nominated candidates. The proxy, if returned properly executed and not subsequently revoked, will be voted in accordance with the choice made by the shareholder thereon. If a choice is not made with respect to any issue, the proxy will be voted in favor of the items described in this Proxy Statement. If cumulative voting is permitted in the election of directors at the Annual Meeting, the proxy holders shall have discretion as to the manner in which votes represented by the proxy are to be cumulated, unless the proxy indicates the manner in which such votes shall be cumulated. A shareholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke his or her proxy by written notice delivered to the Secretary of the Company or by the shareholder voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting who will also determine whether or not a quorum is present. The inspector of election will treat abstentions, and any shares as to which a broker or nominee has indicated that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter, as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum for the election of directors.

Nominees and Continuing Directors

The Board of Directors is divided into three classes, with the terms of office of each class ending in successive years. Pursuant to Section 3.2 of the Company's Bylaws, the total number of directors has been established as seven. Two directors of the Company are to be elected for terms ending at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders in the year 2009 or until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified. Pursuant to Nasdaq listing standards, the Board of Directors has determined that Carlos C. Campbell, S. Walter Foulkrod, III, Esq., Richard D. Ruppert, MD, Kenneth J. Slepicka and John D. Weil are independent directors as defined by listing standards for the Nasdaq National Market.

The independent Directors have regularly scheduled meetings at which only the independent Directors are present. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders named on the enclosed form of proxy intend to distribute the votes represented by proxies in such proportions as they deem desirable to elect the two nominees named below or their substitutes. Although it is not contemplated that any nominee will decline or be unable to serve, if either occurs prior to the Annual Meeting, a substitute nominee will be recommended to the Board of Directors by the Nominating Committee. See Stock Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management for the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by these nominees.

The Nominating Committee has recommended that S. Walter Foulkrod, III, Esq. and Richard D. Ruppert, MD be nominated for election as directors at the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders on August 4, 2006 for terms ending in 2009. A majority of the independent directors approved the nomination for election to the Board of Directors of S. Walter Foulkrod, III, Esq. and Richard D. Ruppert, MD. The following table sets forth information regarding the nominees for election as directors and the other directors whose terms of office as directors will continue after the Annual Meeting, including their ages, a brief description of their business experience, certain directorships held by each of them and the year in which each became a director of the Company.

If a quorum is present and voting, the nominees for election as directors receiving the highest numbers of votes shall be elected. Abstentions and broker non-votes have no effect on the vote.

The Compensation Committee met four times in 2005. The functions of the Compensation Committee include reviewing and approving the overall executive compensation program for officers of the Company and its subsidiaries, considering and reviewing compensation levels for services as a member of the Board of Directors, approving individual executive officer compensation packages and recommending to the Board of Directors modifications of the compensation package for the Chief Executive Officer. Based on a review of the copies of these reports received by the Company and written representations from certain reporting persons that they have complied with the relevant filing requirements, the Company believes that all filing requirements have been complied with on a timely basis for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

Messrs. Weil and Campbell, and Dr. Ruppert, serve as members of the Compensation Committee. None of these individuals is, or has been, an employee or officer of the Company. Each is independent as defined by Nasdaq listing standards.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

Committee Members

The three-member Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is a standing committee. Mr. Weil is the chairman and Mr. Campbell and Dr. Ruppert are the other members.

Committee Functions

The Compensation Committee is responsible for assuring that all of the executive compensation programs of the Company are developed, implemented, and administered in a way that supports the Company's fundamental philosophy that a significant portion of executive compensation should be effectively linked to Company performance.

The Compensation Committee meets on a regularly scheduled basis. It reviews and approves the overall executive compensation program which includes both base pay and incentive compensation. It considers and approves individual executive officer compensation packages based on recommendations of the Company's Chief Executive Officer. It recommends, for the approval of the full Board, any modification to the compensation package of the Company's Chief Executive Officer.

The Compensation Committee also reviews the level of compensation paid to nonemployee members of the Company's Board of Directors and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors to modify the level of nonemployee directors' compensation when appropriate.

Executive Compensation Philosophy

The Compensation Committee retained independent compensation experts, William M. Mercer, Incorporated (Mercer) and The Bankers Bank, in 1996 and 2005, respectively. Mercer and The Bankers Bank conducted an analysis of marketplace executive compensation levels. The scope of the studies by Mercer and The Bankers Bank covered the Company's Chairman and President and Chief Executive Officer. The objectives of the studies by Mercer and The Bankers Bank were as follows:

Analyze the scope, responsibilities and skill requirements of the jobs performed by Messrs. Langley and Hart and compare and contrast to comparable benchmark executive positions found in the marketplace.

Develop an appropriate methodology for selecting comparable benchmark jobs, industry categories and a peer group of companies comparable to the Company in terms of business focus, industry classification and size; and competition for senior executives with the skills, expertise and talent demonstrated by the Company's top two executives.

For the appropriate benchmark jobs, industry category and peer company group, collect information on marketplace compensation levels and practices from compensation surveys and peer company proxy statements. The companies included in the peer company group are not necessarily those included in the Nasdaq Insurance Stock Index used to determine the most relevant marketplace compensation levels and to compare actual Company compensation levels.

Develop alternate approaches for structuring the total compensation package for the Company's top two executives, in terms of compensation elements to be used, the mix of total pay and how short- and long-term incentive compensation might be structured to accurately reflect performance.

The studies by Mercer and The Bankers Bank recommended to the Compensation Committee a compensation strategy with the following objectives:

To provide a total compensation package that:

- is competitive with market rates for executives with similar skill, talent and job requirements.
- is closely linked to the Company's strategy and the role of covered executives in building shareholder value through growing the book value and, ultimately, the market value of the Company.

To retain critical executive talent by:

- providing a reasonable and competitive level of current income (cash flow).
- providing for loss of future incentive opportunity if an executive terminates employment before unrealized investment gains are realized.

To link executive rewards to shareholder interests by:

- tying incentive awards to growth in book value and increased market price per share.

The Compensation Committee believes that to accomplish these goals, the executive compensation program should be based on three distinct components: base pay, annual incentives, and long-term incentives. The Company obtains industry and peer group surveys, and consults with independent experts, to evaluate the Company's executive compensation programs in comparison with those offered by its comparable competitors.

The Company utilized stock appreciation rights beginning with the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program (the Program) as approved by the Company's shareholders on July 17, 2003 to incentivize directors, officers, consultants, and certain employees. The primary purpose of these stock appreciation rights was to encourage the holders of stock appreciation rights to increase shareholders' equity by providing a mechanism whereby the holders could participate in increased shareholders' equity.

The Bankers Bank recommended to the Compensation Committee amending the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program and instituting the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan. The PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program was amended on September 21, 2005 by the Compensation Committee. Pursuant to the Compensation Committee's action on September 21, 2005, all outstanding stock appreciation rights were monetized to stop future appreciation; as a result, there are no outstanding stock appreciation rights under the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program.

The PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan (Plan), which was recommended by The Bankers Bank and approved by the Company's shareholders on December 8, 2005, will permit awards to be made by the Compensation Committee to participants in various forms including freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights, stock performance awards, deferred compensation awards, and other stock-based awards. On December 12, 2005, the Compensation Committee awarded freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights to Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart; see Option/SAR Grants in Last Fiscal Year. The Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors believe that the Plan will continue to closely align the interests of management with shareholders by incentivizing management to increase shareholders' equity and book value per share. The Company believes that the Plan will result in less volatility in the Company's financial statements than the former PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program when new pronouncements concerning the accounting for stock-based compensation take effect, due to the effects of new financial accounting pronouncements on awards such as cash-settled stock appreciation rights. In addition, the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program was impacted by recent U.S. income tax legislation effective in 2005.

The purpose of the Plan is to advance the interests of the Company and its shareholders by providing a variety of incentives for employees, officers, consultants, and nonemployee Directors to increase shareholders' equity and provide a mechanism whereby the participants in the Plan will be able to participate in an increase in share price. The Plan seeks to achieve this by providing for grants of awards in various forms including stock options, freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, performance shares, performance units, restricted stock units, deferred compensation awards, and other forms of stock-based awards, although it is not anticipated that all these forms of awards will be granted simultaneously.

The Compensation Committee has considered the provisions of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and related income tax regulations which restrict the deductibility of certain compensation paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and each of the four most highly compensated officers holding office at the end of any year, to the extent such compensation paid to any of these officers exceeds $1,000,000 in any year and fails to qualify for an exemption from the restriction. In view of the Company's compensation structure, the Committee believes it is unlikely that this will impact the Company in the near future. The Compensation Committee will continue to monitor this.

Executive Compensation Program

The features of the executive compensation program as recommended by Mercer and The Bankers Bank and approved by the Compensation Committee are:

Base Compensation. A fixed rate, to be reviewed annually. Future adjustments will take into account movement in executive compensation levels, changes in job responsibilities, and the size of the Company.

Incentive Awards. Based on growth of book value per share in a fiscal year. Awards are earned when a pre-determined threshold is surpassed. If book value per share of the Company exceeds this threshold, the incentive award is equal to 5% of the increase in book value per share multiplied by the number of shares outstanding at the beginning of the fiscal year. The threshold for 2005 was approximately .43%.

Goals of Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee attempts to align executive compensation with the value achieved by the executives for the Company's shareholders. The Company's compensation program for executives emphasizes a combination of base salary, discretionary bonuses, and long-term incentives designed to attract, retain, and motivate executives who will maximize shareholder value. The Compensation Committee considers individual and Company performance, as well as compensation paid by comparable companies.

Executives also participate in other employee benefit programs, including health insurance, group life insurance, and the Company's 401(k) Plan.

Discussion of 2005 Compensation for the Chief Executive Officer

As stated above, the Compensation Committee believes the interest of the Company's shareholders is best served by aligning the CEO's short-term compensation, over and above a competitive fixed annual rate of pay, with an increase in the Company's book value per share and higher market value per share. Specifically, a threshold was set at 80% of the S&P 500's annualized total return for the five previous calendar years, including 2005. For 2005, this threshold was approximately .43%. Since the Company's book value per share increased by 25.1% in 2005 prior to the accrual of bonus incentive compensation and 7/8 of expenses related to stock appreciation rights, a bonus of $3,013,326 was paid for calendar year 2005 performance. The Committee believes that the compensation provided by this combination of fixed annual compensation and short-term and long-term incentives provides a mechanism to fairly compensate the CEO while providing the CEO with a strong incentive to maximize shareholder value.

Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart each entered into new employment agreements effective January 1, 2006 with the Company for an additional five years. Total compensation is $1,075,000 to Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart each under these employment agreements is on an annual basis, subject to adjustment in January of each year. The $1,075,000 base salary in each employment agreement is subject to annual adjustment in January of each year in the same percentage applicable to the Company's other staff members in an amount deemed adequate to provide for cost of living, subject to the Committee's approval, based on several major compensation studies.

The employment agreements provide that if the employee is terminated for any reason other than cause, death, or disability prior to January 1, 2008, the employee shall be paid a lump sum equal to $3,225,000 minus applicable tax withholdings. If the employee is terminated for any reason other than cause, death, or disability on or after January 1, 2008, and prior to December 31, 2010, the employee shall be paid a lump sum equal to $3,225,000 minus applicable tax withholdings, and minus the amount previously paid to the employee as base salary from January 1, 2008 to the date of termination. In addition to the amount set forth above, the employee shall receive the pro rata portion of the annual incentive award that would have been payable to employee under the employment agreement for the year in which termination occurs.

If the employee terminates employment as a result of death or permanent and total disability before January 1, 2008, the employee or his designated heir shall be paid a lump sum in amount equal to $3,225,000 minus applicable tax withholdings. If the employee terminates employment as a result of death or permanent and total disability, on or after January 1, 2008 and prior to December 31, 2010 the employee or his designated heir shall be paid a lump sum equal to $3,225,000 minus applicable tax withholdings and minus the amount previously paid to the employee as base salary under the employment agreement from January 1, 2008 to the date of termination of employment. In addition to the amount set forth above, the employee shall receive the pro rata portion of the annual incentive award that would have been payable to employee under the employment agreement for the year in which termination occurs.

If the employee terminates employment for any reason prior to December 31, 2010, the employee will receive a lump sum payment (minus applicable tax withholdings) of $500,000 if the employee terminates employment during calendar year 2006. The lump sum amount payable to the employee will decrease by $100,000 each calendar year after 2006.

These employment agreements do not include change in control clauses.

The cost of this solicitation of proxies is being borne by the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by use of the mail, the Company may use the services of one or more directors, officers or other regular employees of the Company (who will receive no additional compensation for their services in such solicitation) to solicit proxies personally and by telephone. Arrangements will be made with brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the stock held of record by such persons, and the Company will reimburse such firms or persons for reasonable expenses actually incurred by them in so doing.

Audit Committee Charter

This charter shall be reviewed, updated and approved annually by the board of directors.

Role and Independence

The audit committee of the board of directors assists the board in fulfilling its responsibility for oversight of the quality, transparency, and integrity of the accounting, auditing and reporting practices of PICO Holdings, Inc. (the Company) and other such duties as directed by the board. The membership of the committee shall consist of at least three directors who are generally knowledgeable in financial and auditing matters, including at least one member with accounting or related financial management expertise. Each member shall be free of any relationship that, in the opinion of the board, would interfere with his or her individual exercise of independent judgment, and shall meet the director independence requirements for serving on audit committees as set forth in the corporate governance standards of the NASDAQ. The committee is expected to maintain free and open communication (including private executive sessions at least annually) with the independent accountants and the management of the Company. In discharging this oversight role, the committee is empowered to investigate any matter brought to its attention, with full power to retain outside counsel or other experts for this purpose.

The board of directors shall appoint one member of the audit committee as chairperson. Overseeing the independent auditor relationship by discussing with the auditor the nature and rigor of the audit process, receiving and reviewing audit reports, and providing the auditor full access to the committee (and the board) to report on any and all appropriate matters.

Providing guidance and oversight to the internal control audit activities of the Company including reviewing the organization, plans and results of such activity.
